Begin Campaign To Get $600,000 Endowment Fund

Fourth Presbytery Campaign for Expansion of Davidson College Opened 15th.

JAMES FICKLEN OF GREENVILLE CHOSEN COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Other Counties of Albemarle Presbytery Will be Asked to Join Campaign.

The fourth Presbytery campaign in North Carolina toward the $600,000 fund being raised for the endowment and expansion of Davidson College, near Charlotte, will be conducted among the citizens in Pitt county, and all other counties in the Albemarle Presbytery between October 15 and 20 according to the announcement today of James Ficklen, of Greenville, county chairman.

Other campaigns in North Carolina are being successfully held in the Concord, Fayetteville and Orange Presbyteries, and state officials are already confident that the same wholehearted support will be given in the counties in Albemarle Presbytery to the campaign that is now being shown among the citizens of the Concord, Fayetteville and Orange Presbyteries. Counties included in the Albemarle Presbytery are Beaufort, Bertie, Camden, Chowan, Craven, Currituck, Dare, Edgecomb, Franklin, Gates, Greene, Granville, Halifax, Hertford, Lenoir, Martin, Nash, Northampton, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Pitt, Vance, Warren, Wayne, Wilson, Washington, Wake and Tyrrell.

Throughout the county and all the other counties of the Albemarle Presbytery the call for funds to build a "Greater Davidson for a Greater Southern Presbyterian Church" will be made. The Albemarle Presbytery is the fourth in North Carolina in which the campaign will be held, but within the next few months citizens all over the entire state of North Carolina will respond to needs of one of the state's leading, educational institutions, of which all North Carolina is proud.

Leading citizens of the entire county are co-operating in the campaign, according to the county chairman, and all the Presbyterian churches in the county are alike working for the success of the local drive which will so greatly aid Davidson College, which has many friends throughout the churches and citizens of the county because of its long record of educating religious and constructive citizens for North Carolina.

The purpose of this campaign is to increase the efficiency of Davidson College by adding new members to the faculty, and to rebuild historic old Chambers Hall that burned to the ground last year. Work at Davidson has been greatly hampered by the destruction of this famous building, "The heart of Davidson College," in which so many of her famous sons such as Woodrow Wilson once lived, and $400,000 of the funds raised by this campaign will be used to rebuild the old Hall. The remainder of the sum will go to the endowment fund of the institution in order that Davidson may broaden her work of educating Christian young men and ministers of the Gospel.

Churches in this county that will aid in the campaign include: Parkland church, Chas. A. Lawrence, pastor; Farmville church, Chas. A. Lawrence, pastor, Fountain church.

HARDING'S PRAISE OF 67th CONGRESS TAKEN AS FIRST CAMPAIGN LETTER

Washington, Oct. 16—President Harding's letter to the House Republican leader, Mondell, lauding accomplishments of the 67th congress marked the firing of the opening gun in an intensive three weeks campaign down the political home stretch to November 7th. The president seriously refrained from making a direct to furnish campaign ammunition for congressional candidates.

Opening Week of Pay Up and Trade Weeks Successful

Merchants Report Much Interest in Campaign Despite Inclement Weather Saturday

THIS WEEK WILL BE EVEN BETTER IN EVERY RESPECT

Advertising Committee to Carry Campaign Into Every Home of County.

The first week of Pay-Up and Trade Weeks campaign passed away in a satisfactory manner despite the incessant downpour of rain Saturday, Mrs. Alex Viola, secretary of the Greenville Merchants association stated this morning. Numbers of merchants report lively trading and the settlement of numbers of accounts and the outlook for the present week is very bright.

The advertising campaign has been carried into practically every part of the county, and when the weather clears up it is expected hundreds of people will come to Greenville to do their shopping and receive Pay Up and Trade Weeks receipts entitling them to a chance at the automobile to be given away November 10th, the closing day of the campaign.

The campaign last year was very successful despite poor crops and stringent financial conditions, and merchants are looking forward to an even more successful one this year. The public rallied to the support of merchants in an interesting way and there is every reason to believe they will do likewise this year.

Members of the campaign have been working hard the past week in an effort to carry the advertising campaign into every home, and it is believed there are very few persons not acquainted with conditions under which the campaign is being conducted.

Merchants are urging everyone to get busy and settle all back accounts while Pay Up and Trade Weeks are in progress, so they will have an opportunity to win one of the handsome prizes.

Junior Red Cross To Send Boxes to Children Overseas

One Thousand Boxes Filled With Goodies to Go Forward for Christmas.

The Pitt county Junior Red Cross has volunteered to fill one thousand junior Christmas boxes which will be filled and shipped to Hoboken this month. These little Red Cross Christmas boxes have been received from the Southern Division office and they will be sent to less fortunate children abroad.

The schools of Ayden, Grifton, Greenville, Farmville and Bethel have charge of shipping these boxes. Each box will have the age of the boy or girl marked on the outside and they will put an unbreakable and appropriate gift with hard candy and nuts for this age boy or girl.

Those in charge of the junior work are delighted with the interest and enthusiasm which the boys and girls are showing. One teacher from Evans street school said that the children clapped vigorously when the boxes were brought in.

The committee also feels very grateful to the teachers for their splendid co-operation and interest which makes it possible for the Junior Red Cross to make the lives of other children happy.

Miss Keeter has charge of the boxes at Evans street school. Miss McClellan at the Model school in Greenville; Mrs. Helen Turnage in Ayden; Miss Olive Jones, Bethel; Mrs. C. E. Gardner, Grifton.

CONGRESS WILL MODIFY THE DAUGHTERY RULING

Washington, Oct. 16—Enforcement of the Daugherty ruling for foreign and domestic shipping will be held in abeyance until congress modifies the laws and removes the danger of international complications. Foreign ships will be allowed a latitude list of surplus stocks of medicinal liquors to be a charge of the ship's surgeon.

Legion Auxiliary In Fine Meeting Thursday, Oct. 12

Interesting Session Held at Home of Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Pitt County Post No. 39 met at the home of Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse, on Fifth St., last Thursday afternoon and enjoyed a most interesting session.

Upon arrival the members were given a cordial welcome by the hostesses Mrs. Laughinghouse, Mrs. Chester, Mrs. Ed Joyner and Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr.

The meeting was opened with a short prayer by the chapter after which several business matters were disposed of. A report was read from the convention which was recently held in Greensboro and two committees appointed one for the war orphans benefit and one on Americanization. The chapter decided to give a Thanksgiving offering which will go to the soldiers at Oteen and Kenilworth.

The auxiliary pledged its support to the American Legion in any way which its services may be needed. They are ready at any and all times to help the Legion.

A committee composed of Mesdames J. R. Carroll, chairman, K. B. Pace, E. J. Joyner, L. H. Bowling, J. B. Kittrell and Miss Nannie Bowling was appointed to assist a committee from the Legion in making preparations for Armistice Day, Nov. 11th. No announcement has yet been as to the plans and arrangements for Armistice Day, but they will be announced just as soon as all plans are definitely decided upon.

The auxiliary will hold its next meeting on Thursday, Nov. 9th with Mesdames C. J. Ellen, H. E. Austin, J. R. Carroll and N. S. Fulford, hostesses. At this meeting final arrangements for Armistice Day will be made and the meeting promises to be very interesting. Every member of the Auxiliary is urged to be present.

ENGLAND PAWNS AMERICA FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS THROUGH J. P. MORGAN

London, Oct. 16—The first payment of loans advanced by the United States will be made by England today when the treasury department turns over fifty million dollars to America through the J. P. Morgan Company, New York.

ATTORNEY GENERAL TO CONDUCT PROVE IN JERSEY MURDER

New Brunswick, Oct. 16—Within the next twenty-four hours Attorney General Morgan of New Jersey will be in active charge of the investigation of the murder of Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills. The new drive will be in combined forces endeavoring to clear up the mystery.

Prices for Farm Products Better The Past Month

Further Evidence of Industrial Progress Noted Throughout the Country.

New York, Oct. 15—Better prices for farm products and evidences of increased industrial activity marked the past week in business and finance. A rally in grain prices came oddly enough at a time when it was clear that the crisis in the Turkish difficulty had been passed. December wheat rose to about $1.09 a bushel. Domestic crop estimates made public by the Department of Agriculture Monday show very little change. Wheat is now placed at 810,000,000 bushels, while corn is expected to yield 2,853,000,000 bushels. Other words, abundant crops of cereals will be available.

Cotton, meanwhile, rallied to above 22 cents a pound. Textile mills evidently are planning to extend their activities and are providing for their needs in the matter of staple. Existing prices are over two cents above the recent low.

The week's Federal Reserve statements indicate both an increase in the volume of business and a movement of funds toward agriculture districts. The reserve ratio of the system is now nearly five per cent below the peak which was reached at the close of the season of summer dullness. It is still, however, approximately seven per cent above the corresponding figure for a year ago.

Over-subscription of the Treasury's new issue of 30-year 4-1/4 per cent bonds is regarded as a favorable indication as to the condition of the investment market. The new bonds, which were offered to the value of $500,000,000 or thereabouts, are primarily designed to provide the funds for the redemption of the $870,000,000 in Victory notes, which have been called for payment on December 15th. After these notes have been paid off, the chief maturities which will have to be taken care of before next July will be $625,000,000 in war savings certificates, which the Treasury hopes to refund into new Treasury savings certificates and $1,800,000,000 in Victory notes.

FORCES OF MARINES LANDED AT FOCHOW

London, Oct. 16—American, British and Japanese marines landed at Fochow today for the purpose of preserving order. A revolutionary government has been established at this place, it was stated in dispatches today.

Although there are more than 3,000,000 fakiers in India, a beggar never starves, except voluntarily in self-punishment, so afraid are the natives of incurring the wrath of their multitudinous gods if the holy men are not cared for.

British Premier Leaves Political Leaders in Dark

They Are Unable to Prognosticate Next Movement in Nation's Politics.

LLOYD GEORGE IS GIVEN WELCOME IN ENGLISH CAPITAL

Paper Gives Scathing Indictment of Government's Near East Policies.

London, Oct. 15—Premier Lloyd George returned to London today. He met with a hearty reception from crowds of admirers, and had a long conference with Winston Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies.

Mr. Churchill will be in charge of the Irish debate when Parliament takes up the matter of ratification of the new Irish Constitution and as the necessity of securing ratification before December sixth makes this task a weighty one in connection with any possible early appeal to the country, it is assumed the whole subject was threshed over.

The Premier's speech at Manchester Saturday leaves political circles completely at a loss to prognosticate the next political movement. It is generally supposed there will be an early dissolution, although this supposition does not arise from anything the Premier said at Manchester, but from a general review of all the factors in the existing situation and above all, from the conviction that the speeches of the Prime Minister and the Colonial Secretary, from which much was expected have in point of fact left things just as they were before and have done nothing whatever to arrest the progress of the revolt in the Conservative rank and file against the continuance of Lloyd George's leadership.

If the Prime Minister has any definite plans he successfully concealed them from his Manchester audience. His apology, as many described his speech, has not served to turn away the sharp edge of criticism lately aimed at his Near East policy. J. L. Garvin, in the Sunday Observer, penned one of the most scathing indictments of that policy yet seen, pointing out how, owing to the existence within the Cabinet of two diametrically opposed policies, it had been impossible to pursue a policy leaning towards Turkey and declaring that the government in fact had fallen between two stools.

Asserting that the government had spent between twenty and thirty million pounds sterling in war preparations only to bring Turkey back into Europe in a more firmly established position than before 1914, he says.

Clinton Minister Extended Call by Greenville Church

The Presbyterian Congregation Votes Unanimously to Call Rev. Geo. M. Matthis.

At a congregational meeting of the Greenville Presbyterian church held October 15th, which was called for the purpose of securing a pastor, the pulpit committee composed of B. W. Moseley, C. L. Porter and Mrs. J. F. Brinkley recommended the name of Rev. George M. Matthis, of Clinton, N. C., and the congregation voted unanimously to extend a call to him at once.

Mr. Matthis is well known in Greenville and Pitt county and has a host of friends throughout this section, and is greatly beloved by all who know him. He is now serving churches at Warsaw and Canton. He is a man of strong personality, a gifted speaker and considered one of the strongest preachers in the state.

The Greenville church will be fortunate indeed if able to secure Mr. Matthis for this field and his response to the call will be awaited with considerable interest by the entire community as well as members of the church.

Mr. Matthis married Mrs. Clara White, a former Greenville woman, who has hundreds of friends here who will be glad to have her return home again.

Convocation of Colored Church Held Yesterday

Colored Episcopalians to Continue Sessions tonight When Bishop Darst Speaks.

Very rainy weather greeted the opening of the colored Episcopal Convocation in their Mission Chapel, St. Andrews here on Bonner's Lane. The first session on Saturday night was not held on account of rain, and yesterday, while a large congregation gathered at the morning service, the attendance at the afternoon and night services was very much affected. At the morning service the Rev. J. W. Herriott, D. D., of Fayetteville, preached the sermon and Rev. E. S. Willett, of Wilmington assisted by the Rev. J. B. Brown, of Washington, administered the Holy Communion. In the afternoon interest centered largely in the presentation of medals to colored ex-service men. Miss Louisa D. Hubbard, Ex. Sec. of the Red Cross and the Rev. E. S. Willett addressed the men present and the wives of absent men and presented the medals. Rev. Jas. E. Holder, of Kinston, minister in charge, also of the Greenville Mission in introducing Miss Hubbard told of the pleasure he found in serving the ex-service of both Lenior and Pitt county. Bishop H. B. Delaney, Bishop Suffragan, at night gave an interesting account of his trip to the general church convention held at Portland, Oregon, last month.

The Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Darst, Bishop of Diocese, will preach tonight and a large congregation is invited to hear him.

Constantinople, Oct. 16—Twenty-five hundred Turkish soldiers crossed into Europe today for police duty in the eastern Thracian theatre under allied supervision. Unconfirmed reports have been received of the massacre of Greek and Armenian Christians by Turks at Ezine, South Chanak. The Turks are also reported to have destroyed and killed in the neutral zone.

Amsterdam, Oct. 16—Both the former kaiser and former German Crown Prince are reported ill. Word received today from Bonn stated that the kaiser's condition is not serious. The prince, however, is in more serious condition. It is believed he is threatened by serious lung trouble.

President Proud of Work Done by G. O. P. Congress

Says Last Two Congresses were So Helpful They Are Bound to Appeal to People.

DECLARES RECENT CONGRESS GREATEST IN HISTORY NATION

Has Reason to Doubt If Any Congress Ever Accomplished Such Great Work.

Washington, Oct. 15—President Harding, in a letter to Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, Republican leader of the House, expresses his belief that the general results of the accomplishments of the Republican Sixty-Sixth and Sixty-Seventh congress "have been so helpful to American welfare that they will not fail to appeal to the American people."

The President, in his letter, which was made public tonight at the White House, further declares that "few congresses have been called upon for such arduous service as has been exacted from the Sixty-seventh."

The executive's letter said: "I am addressing you," the Executive's letter said, "in testimony of my appreciation of the great public service of the present House of Representatives and of yourself as its majority leader. It is an acknowledgment which I record in this manner with the more satisfaction because of my warm personal sentiment for yourself, as well as high esteem of your performance in one of the most trying posts under our government."

"Few congresses have been called upon for such arduous service as has been exacted from the Sixty-seventh. It has been in approximately continuous sitting from the day it came into existence. In the realm of achievement its record is notable. I doubt if any congress in our history has accomplished so impressive a volume of work, touching so wide a range of national interest."

One must dissent from the too prevalent idea that our plan of congressional government is not proving equal to the strain of these times. The most casual student of history, comparing the legislative record of the Reconstruction period following the Civil War with that of the period following the World War, must realize that we have gone far toward lessening partisan, factional, personal and sectional strife in the law-making process. Whoever will compare the turbulent period of legislative and political history from the close of the Civil War to the end of President Hayes' administration with the record made since the armistice, four years ago, must agree with this judgment. He will find in the earlier period such convulsions as marked the embittered national election contest, and a prevalent conflict between legislative and executive branches. Contrasted with that showing the business-like fashion in which the Sixty-seventh congress has addressed itself to its huge task ought to inspire us with the conviction that conditions nowadays are met quite fortunately as may be expected.

American Legion Convenion Opens At New Orleans

(By International News.)
New Orleans, Oct. 16—The fourth annual convention of the American Legion opened today with declaration from National Commandery Hanford McNider that the bonus fight had just begun.

McNider made no direct reference to Harding's veto measure nor to any group of senators who sustained the veto, but he severely criticized opponents of the bill. He approved his report of General Sawyer commending the government's care of the sick and disabled veterans.

Secretary Mellon was sharply criticized by the Legion's legislative committee for opposition to the bill.

Through the International News Service Senator Bursum, of New Mexico, author of the bill, conveyed a message to the convention, stating that outsiders were solidly against the plan of northern members to name negroes to eligible membership.

The farm demonstration agent of Pitt county is doing everything possible to get the farmers to combat the boll weevil before the pest destroys thousands of dollars worth of cotton. If he is given hearty cooperation, success will be assured. On the other hand, if he comes in contact with indifference, then it is certain disaster will happen to many an unsuspecting grower. Some may say there is more talk about the pest than anything else, but they have something to learn as the future will bring out. Mr. Pace deserves support and those who give it may be assured of coming out at the big end of the horn next harvest time.

The Greenville tobacco market has made an excellent showing the last several days and the remainder of the year will see hundreds of farmers from a distance selling their offerings here. High prices will bring people when everything else falls, and as this is one of the most prominent things connected with local sales, we may expect to see visitors here in great numbers. Good tobacco carefully graded will always demand figures in proportion to cost of production, and the farmer should remember this when preparing his crop for the market. The next few seasons will witness a marked change in the sale of bright leaf and careful preparation will be one of the most prominent.

There will be so many large manufacturers of North Carolina represented at the Pitt County Fair that it will resemble the "Made-in-Carolina exposition, according to managers of the advertising campaign. If this be the case, and it certainly should be, Pitt county people should be present in large numbers and really see what a great state and county we have. Every effort is being put forward in behalf of the various exhibits and these promise to eclipse anything in recent years. Our people should be proud of their attraction and patronize it in such large numbers that it may be enabled to grow extensively with each succeeding year.

Automobile accidents are becoming too frequent in Greenville at this time and something must be done to more fully protect the lives of our citizens. There are drivers who persist in exceeding the speed limit in the city despite the most stringent regulations, and when caught the mayor should see they are fined until they feel it. In this way alone can the speed fever be reduced, and it is up to those in authority to do everything possible to protect the lives of our people. Drivers with little regard for their own safety cannot expect to care much about others, and they will run down and destroy life and property more frequently than they do unless the law gives them something to think about when caught. The situation is becoming serious and it is hoped something will be done to bring about an improvement.

The American Red Cross will begin its roll call in the near future and the public is urged to give liberally to the great work of an organization that has done much to relieve human suffering. The Red Cross here is headed by Miss Louisa Hubbard, executive secretary, Miss Hubbard has done splendid work since she came here and the public should show its appreciation by giving freely to the roll call. The Red Cross workers have rendered invaluable aid in every great disaster occurring in the world. Money is necessary to carry on this great work, and if people do not give how in the world can the splendid work continue? It cannot, and if human suffering and misery is to be relieved in the future the people who received it must come forward and do what they can for success of this institution.

THE RIGHT WAY TO KILL GERMS

Here is a powerful and recognized disinfectant which kills the germs.

Is your cellar sanitary? Germs will multiply by the million overnight, in a damp, musty cellar. Make a solution of Red Seal Lye and sprinkle into all the dark corners, and all mustiness will immediately disappear, leaving your cellar fresh and sweet smelling.

If your kitchen sink does not drain quickly, here is an immediate remedy. Sift a little Red Seal Lye into the pipes. The lye will combine with the grease and dirt, forming a solution which will be carried off quickly by the water, leaving the pipes free and clean.

Housewives may save money by making their own soap. All that is needed is one can of Red Seal Lye and a quantity of waste grease or fat, such as would ordinarily be thrown away. The one can will make twenty cakes of pure soap at less than one cent per cake. See how quickly and easily Red Seal Lye will clean the wash-stand, tub or closet bowl.

Red Seal Lye is put up in handy round cans. It contains no filler or adulterations. It is absolutely pure. Send for the Red Seal Booklet which explains many recipes and uses of the famous Red Seal Lye. Write today. Ask your dealer for the old reliable Red Seal Lye. Take no other.

Growers Sell To Big Buyers
Domestic and Export Companies Taking Tobacco at High Prices.

(News and Observer.)
The success of the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association in selling its tobacco is now completely assured, according to information reaching Raleigh headquarters of the Association from Richard R. Patterson, manager of the Leaf Department, yesterday.

News of the 4,000,000 pounds sale of burley tobacco for $14,000,000 by the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association was followed by an announcement from the Leaf Department of the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina that practically every domestic company and several leading exporters are buying the tobacco of the 80,000 organized growers of the Carolinas and Virginia at prices which, according to Mr. Patterson are highly satisfactory and compare most favorably to those received for tobaccos on the auction floors. Tremendous deliveries to the Association in North Carolina and Virginia during this week have brought the receipts of the Association well over 10,000,000 pounds within the past six days.

Among the companies which are placing orders for this tobacco handled and graded by the new system of co-operative marketing which has given universal satisfaction to the customers of the Association according to Director Patterson, are the following companies:

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, the R. J. Reynolds Company, The Lorillard Company, China-American Tobacco Company, The Old North State, The Universal Leaf Tobacco Company, Dibrell Bros., Inc. The John E. Hughes Company, International Planters Company R. P. Richardson Company of Reidsville, N. C., John J. Bagby Company of Richmond, Va., The Tobacco Products Corporation and several large exporters of bright tobacco.

The Association officials hope to gain as customers the one or two other large domestic companies which have not made purchases from the Association up to the present time. The only other companies of importance which have not purchased the Association tobacco to date are British companies including the Export and Imperial companies of Great Britain.

The heavy deliveries of the past week have already proved the satisfaction of the fifty thousand members from the old belt of North Carolina and Virginia in the marketing system and the cash advances of their association.

Hundreds of co-operative farmers from western North Carolina will enter Winston-Salem about November first when the big new warehouse of the Association will be completed by Fogle Brothers and Company. This will mark the entrance of the Association into the last exclusive stronghold of the auction system in the Carolinas.

The conduct of the suit of the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association against contract breakers has stirred enthusiasm and roused a new fighting spirit among the Eastern Carolina growers which are indicated by the increasing number of local organizations and the large deliveries this week upon co-operative floors throughout the eastern belt.

Several growers who admitted to selling tobacco outside of the Association have voluntarily offered to pay the five cents liquidated damages required for breach of contract in the marketing agreement, though in one case the offending member stated the amount was more than his tobacco brought him on the auction floors.

Since a thousand or more tobacco growers came to Nashville this week and witnessed the legal battle of their association in upholding its contract a wave of loyalty has swept among the organized farmers of the east.

According to dispatches from Kentucky 58,000 of the 70,000 members of the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association will share in the result of the sale of the pool's holdings as 12,000 of the members have been added since last year's crop was sold. It is calculated that sixty-seven freight trains of fifty cars each will be required to carry the 54,000,000 pounds sold by the association.

METHODIST ENJOY RECORD BREAKING DAY IN SPITE OF INCLEMENT WEATHER

As a result of the revival services which were recently conducted in the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church by Rev. L. D. Patterson, forty members were added to the church on yesterday morning. The entire 11 o'clock service was given to the reception of new members and to a communion service.

At the Sunday school hour, even if the weather was inclement, over four hundred and twenty were present and much interest was manifested. This was a record breaking attendance considering the weather.

The evening service also witnessed a large congregation in attendance and Rev. V. P. Scoville, delivered a splendid sermon, taking his text from the first verse of the 116th Psalm.

The day proved one of the most inspiring and helpful in the history of the church and the large crowds attending each service shows how active the church is and what a wonderful work it is doing.

The revival recently conducted in the church was a great success and not only helped those outside the church but proved an everlasting inspiration to professing Christians.

Memphis Man Attending National Drainage Meet Advocates Use of Rivers

Kansas City, O.M. Oct.—Improvement of inland waterways as a means of revising river navigation and thus forcing railroads to make a marked reduction in freight rates is advocated by R. H. McWilliams, of Memphis, Tenn. McWilliams attended the annual convention of the National Drainage Association held here recently.

"The railroads usurped the trade the river once bore, and it is high time the public should be made to realize that when river navigation is revived the railroads, in order to compete with these transportation arteries, will have to make a perceptible slash in their rates."

McWilliams has made a careful study of river improvement for many years. He has handled more big levee and drainage jobs perhaps than any other one person in the United States.

"My boyhood days were spent in Dekalb county, and I used to ride up and down the Missouri in the old river boats," the engineer continued. "Many towns along the river at that time depended upon those boats for their freight. People were interested in keeping the channel open, and the Missouri was an important transportation link of the Middle West. With our present engineering knowledge the river could have a channel infinitely better than it had forty years ago."

McWilliams is of the opinion that much levee work should be done by districts, the people of which could pay for it by taxing themselves instead of waiting for Congressional appropriations, which he said, oftentimes prove insufficient to complete the project.

McWilliams recommended that cities located along the Mississippi River build adequate docks as a move to further the waterway traffic.

"New Orleans has built a splendid system of docks and Memphis will complete a similar system in the near future," McWilliams asserted. "I anticipate increased use of navigable waterways as freight carriers within the next five years."

A large portion of McWilliams' early engineering work was done in this city.

GREENVILLE MAN PLEASED WITH TRIP

This is for the information of the people of Pitt county. A party of twenty-four left Greenville, N. C., on the morning of August 2, for different sections through South Carolina and Georgia. Being interested in the people of Pitt county and believing that our trip through the boll weevil sections would be of some benefit to them, we visited all through both states and got all the information we could get, and we as a party bring back home for the benefit of Pitt and adjoining counties what we found.

The farmers believe in diversified farming as they cannot now raise cotton, as they once did, under boll weevil conditions. From all the information that we could gather, the people, in the sections visited, had been warned, as we are warning you.
