AYDEN COMMUNITY FAIR TO BE THE BEST IN THIS LOCALITY

Large Amount of Money Provided by Merchants for Premiums on Products

R. W. SMITH HAS BEEN ELECTED AS FAIR PRESIDENT

W. B. Pace Assisting in Plans to Make Fair Greatest in Many Years

Extensive plans are now under way for the community fair to be held in Ayden Thursday, November 2nd and promoters believe it will be the most successful ever held before. Ayden business men have subscribed several hundred dollars to be distributed as prizes for best products of the farm and home.

R. W. Smith was elected president of the fair committee several days ago, and has been diligently at work trying to interest the farmers in bringing as many products of the farm as possible. Numbers have promised to assist in every way and the outlook for success was never brighter.

Special premiums will be offered for the best hogs, cows and chickens placed on exhibition at the fair. There will be premiums for other departments of course, but an effort is being made to create greater interest in the raising of hogs, cows and chickens.

Numbers of community fairs will be held in the county this year, it is understood, but Ayden plans to make hers more than a community affair. In fact, they hope to make it resemble a small county fair, and will do so if proper co-operation is given. W. B. Pace, farm demonstration agent of Pitt county, is co-operating in every way possible to make the Ayden fair measure up to expectation and visited many growers yesterday in company with President Smith. The encouragement, Pace speaks great things, Mr. Pace said today, and the outlook for success is very bright indeed.

SEVERAL KILLED BY HEAVY STORM IN SOUTH AFRICA

Nineteen Killed by Electrical Storm and Nine Burned to Death in Houses

(By International News.) Johannesburg, South Africa, Oct. 18.—Nineteen persons were killed in an electrical storm which swept over the part of the country yesterday, according to reports received here today.

Nine persons were burned to death when a house which they occupied was struck by a bolt of lightning. The storm was the most severe reported in this section in years and resulted in greater toll of life. While it is believed a complete report of casualties has been received, it is probable greater loss of life may have occurred. Property loss was comparatively small.

LEGION TO EMPLOY DIPLOMACY IN EFFORT TO SECURE BONUS

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—Diplomatic rather than militant methods will continue efforts to secure a bonus it was decided by the American Legion convention here today. Another bonus will not reach congress until the San Francisco convention enactment of a universal draft law.

JUDGE DANIELS CONTINUES CASE AGAINST GROWERS

Binds Them Over Under $4,000 Bond until November 27th At Nashville, N. C.

(Special to Reflector.)

Judge Frank A. Daniels, presiding over criminal court at Plymouth this afternoon ordered postponement of the case against two tobacco planters charged with violating the Co-operative contract, until November 27th, for their appearance in Nashville. They were released under bond of $4,000 each. Judge Daniels also continued the injunction regarding the sale of co-operative tobacco on open market floors. The case next time will be heard before a jury.

CONVOCATION OF COLORED CHURCH BROUGHT TO END

Sermon by Rev. G. W. Lay, of Beaufort, Concluded Services Last Night

The colored Episcopal Convocation here came to a close with the service last night when Dr. G. W. Lay, of Beaufort, preached. The sessions during the day were marked with snappy yet dignified discussions.

It is the first time the people of Greenville have had the opportunity of seeing the mustered body of colored diocesan clergy, the convocation not having been held here before. The social service that the church might render the several communities filled a large part of the morning session talks, several clergymen telling what they had done and planned further to do.

Some of these reports showed most encouraging results and were inspirational for like activities throughout the diocese. The Sunday school question filled the afternoon session in the institute under the chairmanship of the Rev. E. S. Willett of Wilmington. A suggestion to separate the holding of the institute from the convocation, did not go through.

Kinston was voted as the place for the next convocation.

A matter of particularly local interest was effected yesterday. The Rev. Jas. E. Holder, resident of Kinston, who has had charge of the Greenville Mission for over two years, and has for most of that time been seeking release from it in order to devote more of his time to his other two missions at Kinston and Goldsboro, obtained his release when Bishop Darst, at his request, announced that the Greenville Mission would now be in charge of J. N. Carter, of Greenville, a candidate for Holy Orders. To wind up, Carter and the members of the local church tendered the visiting clergy, delegates and other citizens a splendid reception last night in the Elks hall.

A large congregation is invited to the same church tonight to hear Diocesan leaders speak on the church's program.

FIVE KILLED BY TRAIN AT GLENVIEW, ILLINOIS

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Five persons were killed when a Milwaukee-Saint Paul train smashed a taxi cab near Glenview, Ill. A Baltimore & Ohio train wrecked a motor truck near Blue Island, Ill., killing one man.

JUDGE RESERVES DECISION ON THE DRY OCEAN ISSUE

Federal Judge Hand Continues Temporary Injunction Until Later On

PLANS TO RENDER DECISION BEFORE OCTOBER THE 2ND

Both American and Foreign Lines Affected by Extension of Temporary Order

New York, Oct. 17.—Federal Judge Learned Hand today reserved decision on applications by American and foreign-owned steamship lines to make permanent the stay restraining government officials from putting into effect the Daugherty ruling that vessels must not carry liquor inside the three-mile line, even under seal, when touching American ports.

Meanwhile Judge Hand extended the stay he had granted last week until he could reach decision. This decision, he indicated, would be rendered before October 21, the latest date on which the Daugherty ruling has been ordered into effect.

Extension of the stay affects both American and foreign lines.

The foreign lines affected by the extension of the temporary stay were the Cunard, Anchor, White Star, French, International Navigation, Holland-American, Scandinavian-American and Royal Mail steam packers. The American lines were the American Line of the International Mercantile Marine Company and the United American Line.

The stays were originally in the cases of the Holland-American, Scandinavian-American and Royal Mail Lines, which "though granted the original stay, declared through counsel that they had cases identical with those of the other foreign lines.

Judge Hand announced he would receive briefs and papers tomorrow and that he would attempt to make a decision as soon as possible, so that the case might quickly be brought to the United States supreme court. The stay, he said, would be valid until the entry of the order on the motion for a judgment.

United States District Attorney William Hayward objected to a motion made by the counsel of the foreign lines for the granting of a temporary stay to be valid until a decision by the supreme court. In denying the contention of his opponents that serious damage to the steamship lines would be caused by the enforcement of the Daugherty ruling before a final supreme court decision, he said the government had been very courteous in the matter and had gone to great lengths to avoid embarrassment to the ship owners.

EIGHT CHILDREN KILLED BY TRAIN NEAR VICKSBURG

Freight Strikes School Truck With Serious Results to Human Passengers

(By International News.)

Vicksburg, Oct. 18.—Annie Lee Cunningham, aged ten, died today, making eight deaths from the tragedy yesterday when a freight train struck a truck loaded with school children. Fourteen others are in hospitals. The dead are Anne Potter, 14, John Cunningham, 10, John and R. Rains, 8, twins, Gadi Gibson, 20, Bertha Potter, 10.

LIBERALS HOLD OUT FOR MODIFICATION

Washington, Oct. 18.—A handful of liberals were present who stood out for modification of the Volstead act today. They will be strongly reinforced at the next congress was the assertion made by the association against prohibition organizations similar to the anti-saloon league.

VANCEBORO MAN IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING GIRL

Takes Charges in Light Vein Despite Seriousness of the Situation

New Bern, Oct. 17.—Firmly protesting his innocence against the charges of assaulting a 11-year old Vanceboro girl, W. H. Heigt, also of Vanceboro, who was arrested Sunday and placed in jail here, continues to take his predicament in a rather light vein and apparently does not realize the seriousness of the situation which confronts him.

Up to this afternoon Mr. Heigt had not secured a lawyer to represent him. The arrested man, who is over 60 years old, is being held without bail, although it may be that he will be liberated under habeas corpus proceedings before his case comes up for trial in the January term of criminal court.

Much interest has been aroused in the case. It is reported that a number of witnesses from Vanceboro will be ready to testify against the man and to his illegal relations with the girl. He is reported to have been seen with the young girl on several occasions. The girl made a statement in which she asserted that Heigt was guilty of the assault upon her.

Several persons who have talked with Heigt say that he is not in any way distressed over the situation. He protests that there is nothing to the charges against him and that he is being made the victim of a frame-up.

HARDING NOT TO BE REAPPOINTED HEAD OF FEDERAL BOARD

President Harding Reported to be Facing Row Over Federal Reserve Successor

(By International News.)

Washington, Oct. 18.—President Harding has decided not to re-appoint William Harding governor of the Federal Reserve board, it was learned through administration sources today.

It is reported the president is facing a row over the appointment of a successor. Strong following has developed in administration circles for a democrat to succeed Harding who took office as an Alabama Democrat under the Wilson administration.

It is said that politics actuated the removal of Governor Harding. Two men are regarded as the most acceptable among the conflicting interests. They are Edmund Platt, of New York, present vice-governor, and Daniel Crissinger, of Marion, Ohio, comptroller of currency.

THOUSANDS GIVE GENERAL PERSHING WELCOME TO FAIR

General of Armies Rides in Parade and Reviews North Carolina Troops

PAYS TRIBUTE TO NORTH CAROLINA AND HER PEOPLE

Met at Station by Raleigh Committee Headed by Honorable Josephus Daniels

Raleigh, Oct. 18.—Greeted by 30 thousand cheering Tar Heels, John J. Pershing, General of the Armies and leader of a hundred million Americans when they were drawn into the cauldron of war, rode through the streets of the city yesterday, acclaimed as few in a general on have been acclaimed in the capital of the State to the fair grounds where he spoke at the opening of the 61st State Fair.

From the foot of Fayetteville street to the fair grounds a mile and a half away the General passed between the massed walls of cheering humanity, greeting for the first time the man in whom four years ago the hopes of the nation were centered. At the fair grounds he spoke to five thousand people, about the improvised speaker's stand in the center of a great field.

From the moment he stepped from his private car at the Union Station at 9 o'clock to go to the Executive Mansion for breakfast with Governor Morrison until he boarded it again nine hours later to leave for New Orleans, he was the center of all of Raleigh's thinking and all of Raleigh's formal action. Wherever he went he was acclaimed. Raleigh was looking for the first time upon his face, and he liked it.

It was a full day, and the coming of the General made the opening of the fair seem sort of incidental. Pershing was the center, and the thoughts of the most were upon the fair only as the fair was a part of the General's program.

Only mud turtles would have chosen yesterday as a fitting day to begin the State's annual festival of the fair, but even with the mud, there were throngs there all day. Inclement weather cut sharply into the program of events outside the visit of the General, necessitating the abandonment of the racing program, the free acts and slowing up the movement of events generally.

KIWANIS CLUB TO ENTERTAIN AYDEN CITIZENS FRIDAY

Interesting Session to be Held at the Masonic Hall at Six-thirty O'clock

Ayden business men will be guests of the Greenville Kiwanis club at the Masonic hall in Ayden Friday night at six-thirty o'clock, according to an announcement made today. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion by E. E. Williams, chairman of the program committee, and it is expected it will be the most delightful in months.

A splendid supper will be served during the evening, after which timely talks will be delivered by Ayden and Greenville business men. Kiwanians will leave Greenville by automobile at six o'clock. This will give them a half hour in which to drive over to Ayden and get in readiness for the meeting.

PERSONNEL OF ARMY POSTS TO BE REDUCED

Pensacola, Oct. 18.—In accordance with plans a reduction of army posts of the country and enlisted personnel of forts and barracks will be cut to a hundred men. Others will be sent to McPherson, Benning, Moultrie and Oglethorpe.

SEVERAL CASES GIVEN HEARING IN THE CITY COURT

Mayer Clark Disposes of Many Interesting Cases During the Morning

The eleven cases tried in Mayor's court this morning constituted quite a variety, there being one for driving an automobile while intoxicated, two for being drunk and disorderly and three for speeding, one for trespass and etc., as follows:

Oscar Vanderford, white, plead guilty to assaulting one J. K. Cox, it appearing from the evidence that where the said Vanderford smote the said Cox on one cheek, said Cox instead of turning the other cheek or refuge in retreat, thus pinning his faith to the old adage: "He who fights and runs away will live to fight again another day." Vanderford being fined $10 and cost for said assault.

C. A. Williams, white, after selling his tobacco decided to celebrate by getting loaded on white lightning and raising a rough house in Joe Baker's barbecue shop. It appearing from the evidence that in addition to hurrying vile and slanderous epithets at the said Joe the defendant also threw a vinegar cruet and otherwise damaged the shop by mutilating the screen door. This defendant faced two charges one for assault and the other for being drunk and disorderly. The Mayor's judgment was that the defendant should restore Joe and his shop to the status—and pay a fine of $10 and cost in each case, all of which amounted to about $35.

Joe Jackson, colored, fined $10 and cost for hurrying an auto beyond the speed limit. Artie Joyner, colored, charged with selling cold drinks on Sunday, allowed to pay the cost of the action with a promise not to repeat the offense.

Bert Dowdy, colored, for undertaking to assert his manery by administering punishment to an obstreperous and unruly wife, fined $5 and cost on his own plea of guilty, although the wife failed to appear and to testify against him.

J. T. Ruffin, colored, fined $2 and cost for operating meat market without having obtained license so to do. Edgar Sumrell, white, charged with being drunk and committing acts of disorderly conduct, fined $10 and cost.

Edgar Sumrell, white, charged with operating auto while in an intoxicated condition, to this charge Edgar plead not guilty and while admitting that he was so drunk he did not know what he was doing, he claims that he did not drive auto, on the grounds that the switch key was found in his pockets by the officer after the effects of the fire water had died sufficiently to restore him to consciousness. The evidence in the case being to the effect that at the time Edgar was arrested he had driven the car about 15 feet by means of the starter only, the switch being off and the car having attained that distance and arrived in the middle of the street by a series of jumps derived from the motive force of the starter. The Mayor found he was guilty of driving while intoxicated, as the law does not specify that any special method or motive force shall be necessary to constitute the crime, so long as the car was actually driven by and with its own power and the driver thereof being drunk. However Mr. Sumrell desired that a superior court judge and jury should pass on this question, so the case was bound over and bound fixed at $100.

Sam Pree and Mary Jones, colored, Sam having taken leg bail, Mary was forced to face the charges alone, one being for trespass and the other for too much friendship between Sam and Mary. It seems as though Sam had a regular sweetheart in one Annie Knight and that during Annie's working hours at the tobacco factory Sam had used Annie's house without her knowledge or consent to entertain another sweetheart in the person of one Mary Jones a lady of color from Farmville, the trouble arising when Annie came home unexpectedly and caught Sam and Mary courting in her own house, on which she paid her hard earned money for rent. The neighbors stated that there was a considerable scene when Annie and Sam severed their friendly relations in a pitch battle, while Mary sneaked out the back door and beat a hasty retreat. Mary Jones was allowed to pay fines in both cases to-wit: for trespass and prostitution totalling $40.

The silken cord of illicit love is the latest creation in New York City.
Its discovery resulted in a man's death from bullet wounds and imprisonment of the woman in the case. If this is the result of this brand of love, then we hope New York won't let it go any further.

The get-together meeting to be conducted in Ayden tomorrow night by members of the Greenville Kiwanis club should do much towards establishing a better spirit between the business men of the two towns.
The Kiwanians have done much good work in this direction since the club organized here a few years ago, and indications are for an expansion of activities are very bright at this time.
Greenville should be proud of such an active institution and give it the best kind of support at every opportunity possible.

England has refused to extend the international ocean limit to twelve miles as proposed by the United States, and experts believe this will result in establishment of a limit within three miles. If conditions in Great Britain were like those in America there would be no difference of opinion. The British don't seem to endure flagrant violations of prohibition as America because they have none, and for that reason they fail to appreciate the position of this government. They may all kick like the dickens now, but before many years, come to pass even the most devout worshippers of John Barleycorn will be glad to listen to any plan tending to restrict the traffic.

The next meeting of the American Legion will be held in San Francisco, California. This was the decision of the convention at New Orleans. They eagerly wanted to keep things moving westward until they reached the Pacific coast, and maybe then they will come east. It won't be many years now before North Carolina will be wanting to share in this honor of entertaining veterans of the great war. But before it's capable of doing so it may be advisable for our cities to double in size and population. We have some good sized places but if all the delegates were crowded into one of them there wouldn't be room to breathe nor even considering comfortable accommodations.

Armistice day, November 11th, should be appropriately celebrated by every town and city in the country. It is an occasion in which everyone is more or less interested as it is an observance of the ending of hostilities in one of the greatest wars the world has ever known. Greenville people have appropriately celebrated the occasion heretofore, and we trust they will do so this year.
Preparations will be under direction of the Pitt county Post of the American Legion and with proper assistance from the public they will make it everything it should be. The ending of the war may not mean anything to some people, but to those who had sons and fathers in the war it's one of the greatest occasions in history. If the war had continued a day or so longer thousands of lives would have been lost and among those thousands there might have been one of our loved ones. Should we be thankful the carnage ended when it did. We say we should.

President Harding's letter to Representative Mondell was tended to boost stock of the Republican party but if it has done anything of the kind we haven't been able to see it so far. The president not only told Mr. Mondell he was satisfied with what members of congress had accomplished, even though they had the audacity to override his veto in a number of instances, but asked the people do support them. That may party followers. Democrats are not mean very little to the ordinary man worried over what the president did of people not acquainted with con- No indeed. On the other hand they ditions, but to those more enlightened are glad he did so, as it may have a it looks like the president wants to tendency of swinging sentiment over make running somewhat easier for like it should be.

END OF THE CENTURY CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The End of the Century club held its first meeting of the season, with Mrs. R. H. Wright, on Oct. 3rd. Owing to a long vacation during the summer months, there was an accumulation of routine business before the club.

It was our privilege to have as our guest on this occasion Miss Palmer of Raleigh who is representing the North Carolina Library Extension work.

The program for the afternoon was "North Carolina Poets."

The first paper was by Mrs. L. C. Arthur, subject: The Works of John Henry Boner, Theophilus Hunter Hill and Mary Bayard Clark.

The second paper, by Mrs. C. A. Bowen, subject: The Work of John Charles McNeill and Henry Jerome Stockard.

The third paper was by Mrs. W. A. Bowen, subject: The Work of Benjamin Sledd and William Thornton Whitsett.

ROUND TABLE CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. CARR

The Round Table club met in its initial session with Mrs. H. L. Carr Tuesday afternoon at her home on Greene street.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. E. Winslow. The topics of study for the day was "The Short Story." The introductory study of short story, was given by Mrs. C. T. Mumford, Lady Eleanor's Mantle, Hawthorne, by Mrs. Charles Grant, both were ably presented. The club regrets very much to lose Mrs. S. K. Phillips as a member, and as this was the last meeting she was to be with us before leaving for her new home, Fayetteville, N. C., each member wrote a good wish in her year book.

Following the completion of the program the hostess with the assistance of Mrs. W. A. Darden and Mrs. W. W. Lee, served a delicious salad course. After which the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Nellie Denny October 31st.

Birthday Dinner.

(Reported for the Reflector.)

There was a birthday dinner served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bowen, of Ballards Cross Roads, on Saturday Oct. 7th. There was a large crowd of relatives and friends present also nine children, three of them married. One being Mr. Hubert Bowen and wife, Bessie, of Adams Bridge, the other Mr. Jasper Bowen and wife, Verna, of Ballards, and Mrs. Gie Moore of Hookerton and also three sister, Mrs. Martha Elks, of Greenville, Mrs. Niece Edwards, of Ridge Springs, and the oldest sister Mrs. Mary Potter, of Ormondsville, Mr. and Mrs. Roberson, of Greene county were also present.

The living room was beautifully decorated with flowers. As they all entered they enjoyed piano music and Elder N. D. Wiggs was with them, also Mr. Knott, Mr. James and lots of other friends of Farmville. Dinner was served in the entry between the dining room and the house. The table was decorated with flowers. Barbecue, chicken and cakes of all kinds were served. Thanks were given by Elder N. D. Wiggs, of Greenville. After serving dinner, ice cream was served. All then marched to the parlor and enjoyed music and had lots of pleasure. This dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Bowen's forty-fifth birthday. It will be long remembered with some of them. May God bless their home.

better in my life than I do now and it's all because of the good Tanlac did me five years ago. Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

"You can just tell the man or woman who may think Tanlac does not do good and lasting work that the medicine set me right five years ago and that I have been in fine shape ever since," was the statement made, a few days ago, by John W. Groves, a well-known merchant of Lowell, N. C.

"Nervous indigestion had almost completely wrecked my health," Mr. Groves said. "For a long time I could not keep down anything I would eat. Often while waiting on a customer I would get so nervous I had to call some one else, and finally I got so weak I simply had to give up work altogether. When I did get a little light food to stay on my stomach it would cause gas, smothering spells and headache.

"I took seven bottles of Tanlac and gained fifteen pounds and have never had any troubles since. My nerves are steady as a clock and now I eat anything I want, and my appetite never fails me. In fact, I never felt

ZION COP CAN MAKE SHOES LAST 10 YRS.

(By International News.)
Zion, Ill., Oct.—Don't throw your old shoes into the ashcan! Policeman Isaac Parry, of Zion, Illinois, has discovered a method of restoring worn-out soles and making them like new. Even if your soles are almost on the ground and the bottoms of your toes are beginning to show through like young potatoes, Parry can fix 'em. He has invented a simple method of making shoes practically everlasting, so far as the soles are concerned. Just so long as the uppers will hold together Parry can make them last ten years.

Here is his formula. Just get a nickel's worth of sawdust and a dime's worth of glue. Apply the glue in liquid form to the soles of your shoes and cover the glue with a rich coating of sawdust. Then let the shoes stand

BIG CONCERNS NOW TRADE WITH CO-OPS

American Tobacco Company Contracts for Certain Grades. (News and Observer.)
Arrangements concluded Monday between the American Tobacco Company and the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association to purchase certain grades of the association tobacco, complete the list of practically all the domestic companies who are purchasing the product of the big co-operative, according to a telegram received by association headquarters from Richard R. Patterson, Manager of the Leaf Department.

With a record week of orders from the R. J. Reynolds Company, Liggett and Myers, the China American, the University and a half dozen other well-known companies, the association warehousemen and grades are working over time receiving and shipping the millions of pounds which are pouring onto the association floors each day.

Association deliveries exceeded first estimates of officials last week by several million pounds and according to a message reaching Raleigh from T. C. Watkinson, warehouse manager of the co-operative markets, ran past 14,000,000 pounds during last week.

Intense interest in the recent suit of the association among the growers seems to have stimulated deliveries at all points. "I expect we will reach 100,000 pounds as today's deliveries. Our receipts at Oxford are getting heavier every day," writes E. G. Moss, director of the association at that point. Other Western North Carolina co-operative centers continue to receive heavy deliveries and reports from Virginia indicate that a flood of the weed has taxed the capacity of several of the association houses to their limit.

One grower at Smithfield last Friday delivered several hundred pounds of the association's highest grade for which he received cash advances of $28 per hundred. Samples of this tobacco and many other grades being received by the tobacco co-operative will be on exhibit at the State-Fair this week.

PORTER SAYS WEEVIL IS REAL MENACE TO COUNTY COTTON CROP

(Auspices Pitt County Chamber of Commerce.)
I am glad I took the trip with the Pitt county delegation through Georgia. I am sure there is not a member of our party who regrets the trip. It will mean much to every one who went and also to Pitt county.

I was told that one county made 62,000 bales before the coming of the weevil and that last year they produced 782 bales. Also that another county that had previously raised 36,000 bales, raised 6,000 last year. One man said that he formerly planted 800 acres to cotton and gathered 800 bales, but this year he had only 100 acres and expected to pick ten bales.

Instead of the former acreage given to cotton, they are raising chickens, cows and hogs, and thus insuring a good living at home. Most of them have from one to six cows, a barn full of hogs and plenty of chickens. I want to insist on every farmer in Pitt county getting busy and raising their meat, chickens, eggs and dairy products. We can do it as readily as any other section in the world.

The day has come when the farmers of Pitt county are going to favor badly if they do not have their home supplies. We already have the weevils. If every body plants a large acreage of tobacco another year, a number will do, and the price is bad, you can see what a deplorable conditions we will be up against.

I insist that we get busy and lay something in store for the rainy days, because they are sure to come.
