LOCAL HIGHS WILL MEET GOLDSBORO ELIMINATION GAME

First Game of Elimination Series Will Be Played in Goldsboro Friday Afternoon

ELIGIBLE SQUAD OF STATE ARE DIVIDED INTO FOUR GROUPS

Schedule Arranged in Raleigh Last Night at Conference of High School Coaches of State

Mr. H. H. Duncan, coach of the Greenville High School football squad, represented the local team at a conference held in Raleigh last night of the managers and coaches of the high school teams of both the eastern and western parts of the state, who expect to enter the championship series which begins next Friday, Nov. 3rd.

As a result of the meeting there are twenty-one high school teams in the east eligible to enter. And these have been divided into groups, and the schedule adopted for the elimination series will reduce each group to one, with the final group games to be played on November 17th and 18th. As the final contest, after the elimination series closes, the winner of the west will meet the victorious team of the east for the state championship. According to present arrangements this will be played at Chapel Hill on Saturday, December 9th.

The first game in which the locals will participate will be in Goldsboro Friday when they meet the fast squad of the high school of that city. The schedule for both the east and west appears below:

Group 1. New Bern vs. Washington at New Bern, Nov. 3; Greenville vs. Goldsboro at Goldsboro, Nov. 3; Wilmington vs. Warsaw at Wilmington, Nov. 4.

Group 2. Rockingham vs. Hamlet at Rockingham, Nov. 3; Sanford vs. Elerbe at Sanford, Nov. 3; Fayetteville, bye.

Fayetteville will play Rockingham or Hamlet on Nov. 17. Final game for group championship will be played at Pinehurst on Nov. 17.

Group 3. Smithfield vs. Kinston at Smithfield, Nov. 8. Rocky Mount vs. Roanoke Rapids, bye.

Group 4. Chapel Hill vs. Oxford at Chapel Hill, Nov. 4; Raleigh vs. Henderson at Raleigh, Nov. 3; Durham vs. Raeford at Durham, Nov. 3.

The ten schools entering from the West are: Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Leaksville, Lexington, Monroe, Salisbury, Statesville, Shelby and Winston-Salem.

If Greenville defeats Goldsboro Friday they will meet either New Bern or Wilmington, the other winners of the first group in Greenville 18th.

The local squad has played six games this season, winning three and tying three. And have been scored on only once, and that was by a fluke run made by the Washington team. Considering the fact that nearly every member of the Greenville team is playing this season for the first time, the locals have made a remarkable showing against the strong teams of the east. While there are some weak spots with the local eleven, the team as a whole is right there with the goods, and it is doubtful if any team in either the east or west has a better back field than Greenville.

ECONOMIC GENERAL BUSINESS CONDITIONS GOING FORWARD

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—Economic general business conditions made great strides forward during October as shown by reports of the Federal reserve board, supplement by a statement from the American railway Association showing that said activities reached during October nearly the highest peak ever recorded. The railroads showed increased marketing agricultural products. The reserve board shows steadily increasing deposits heavier sales on all commodities, and general employment of labor.

TUESDAY'S SESSION OF COURT FEATURED BY SEVERAL CASES

Nearly Every Case Tried Required Jury; Calendar Being Cleared Considerably

Several cases were disposed of in the second day's session of the superior court for the trial of criminal cases in which is being held in this city with Judge Brock presiding. On account of a number of cases requiring a jury quite a considerable time was consumed and at the close of the day the calendar although cleared to no little extent still has left a number of important cases to be given a hearing during the remainder of the week.

Seldom has Greenville had a judge who could dispatch so much business in such a short while. Judge Brock has the reputation of being one of the fastest dispatchers of business on the bench and the record that he is making in Greenville will only help to uphold this reputation.

Yesterday's session was made up largely of trials growing out of assault with deadly weapons, larceny and selling whiskey. The following cases were disposed of:

Will Belcher, assault with deadly weapon, plead guilty and upon recommendation of the state and counsel for private prosecution judgment was suspended upon payment of costs and the following conditions; that the defendant pay into court the sum of two hundred dollars for the benefit of the prosecuting witness.

Will Evans, assault with deadly weapon, upon pleading not guilty was given trial by jury which returned a verdict of guilty and defendant was fined fifty dollars and the costs. A verdict of guilty was returned against John Cradle for larceny and the jury recommended mercy to the court.

In the case against John Stuart who was found guilty by a jury for selling whiskey, judgment was not passed. Richard Harris, pleading guilty for assault with deadly weapon had judgment suspended upon payment of costs. Richard Harris for carrying concealed weapons paid a fine of fifty dollars and costs.

Bob Neal plead guilty of assault and judgment was suspended upon payment of costs. Anson Andrews, was found guilty of assault with deadly weapon and prayer for judgment was continued for a term of five years upon payment of costs.

True bills were returned against Thomas Perry for larceny, and against Jarvis Ebron for forcible trespass. Two cases against Nelson Hopkins for selling whiskey were continued.

The case against Nan Mills for failure to disinfect cattle was not passed.

Court adjourned at five o'clock and reconvened at nine-thirty this morning. It will continue through the remainder of the week.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A bomb hurled into the home of George Colina partly demolished the house, rocked nearby buildings, smashed windows causing a dozen families to flee to the street.

BAPTISTS WORKING TO CLOSE THE THIRD YEAR CAMPAIGN NOW

Third Year of 75 Million Campaign to Come to An End on November 30th

In keeping with the great re-energized campaign now going on throughout the territory of the Southern Baptist convention the Baptists of the Roanoke Association have effected the following organization: Director, Dr. Chas. Anderson of Scotland Neck; Associate Directors, Mr. L. T. Vaughan of Nashville and Rev. L. W. Smith of Greenville; W. M. U. Director, Mrs. L. T. Vaughan; B. Y. P. U. Director, Mr. Gore of Weldon, publicity director; Rev. L. W. Smith of Greenville.

The object of this new campaign is to bring to a successful close the third year of the big 75 Million Campaign. This third year ends Nov. 30th. Every Baptist and every Baptist church should do their very best to bring about another glorious victory. Some of the churches have already met in full their pledges and others are rapidly doing so. Still a number of the churches are far behind and many individuals in all the churches have not yet paid their pledge. In addition, there are a few who did not pledge in the first campaign and many new members have come into the churches since that time. This new campaign is an effort to enlist all these and as far as possible to have all the churches and every member paid up by November 30th.

Four minute speakers are being organized and it is planned to have one of these to speak at every service in every church in the Roanoke Association during the month of November. Wednesday, Nov. 22nd has been designated as a day of special prayer and intercession for the campaign. Other plans will be announced from time to time. Prof. Meadows and Dr. Ellen have charge of this work in their respective churches in the city.

There are eight counties in the Roanoke Association in which there are 68 Baptist churches with a total membership of 9,181. These churches pledged to the 75 Million Campaign $449,544.32 and had paid in up to Sept. 13th $183,662.32 leaving a balance to be paid in by November 30th of $88,023.81. The last week of the campaign Nov. 26, December 3, will be known as Loyalty Week.

ADVISORY BODY TO DECIDE DEBATE

Challenge of Willis G. Briggs to W. F. Evans Referred to Committee

(Raleigh News and Observer.) The question of whether or not W. F. Evans, Democratic nominee for solicitor in the Seventh Judicial district comprising the counties of Wake and Franklin will accept the challenge for a joint debate with Willis G. Briggs, assistant U. S. District Attorney, and Republican nominee for solicitor, is in the hands of the advisory committee of the Democratic executive committee in Wake county, called to meet Thursday morning, according to announcement of Ed. Hugh Lee, party chairman in Wake. State Chairman J. D. Norwood, and other prominent Democrats in Wake county, are opposed to the joint discussion and while Mr. Evans has indicated a willingness to meet his opponent in debate if the leaders of the party in the district wish it, he declared yesterday that he had no disposition "to furnish the Republican candidate with an audience."

MORRISON AND CIRCUS TO TRY THEIR POWERS

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 1.—The governor of North Carolina, Cameron Morrison, will pit his drawing power against that of a circus here tomorrow night when he delivers a political address at the court house at 8 o'clock at the same hour the big tent begins its performance.

SAYS INDICTMENT IN HALL MILLS CASE NOW IMMINENT

Prosecutor Beckman Says That Indictment Will Take Place Within Thirty Days

(New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 1.—"There will be an indictment in the Hall-Mills murder case within the next three days," declared prosecutor Beckman, of Somerset county late today. He declined to amplify his statement.

Mr. Beckman's statement came at the close of a day of melodrama which gave little indication that the climax was approaching in the investigation of the double slaying of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills, a member of his choir, on the Phillips farm September 14th.

Mrs. Jane Gibson, self-styled eye-witness to the murders, today became irritated at the repeated efforts of reporters to interview her and shooed them off her farm by the simple expedient of firing a charge of bird-shot over their heads. Thereafter, interviews were conducted by telephone whenever Mrs. Gibson could be induced to answer the bell.

Mrs. Gibson later issued a formal statement in which she admitted that she is the wife of William Easton, a New Brunswick tool maker. She said they had separated eight years ago in Trenton, but Easton later learned that she had purchased a farm near New Brunswick and followed her here.

Mrs. Gibson said in her statement she knew that there was at least one other person who could corroborate her account of what she saw on the Phillips farm on the night of the two murders.

"I have been assured that Mr. Mott has no corroboration of my story," know he has corroboration. I know at he has found at least one other who was in De Russes Lane on the night of the murders and that this person has told Mr. Mott, Mr. Toten and state troopers that a woman wearing a gray coat was near the farm on that night.

"THE BAT" IS BIG EVENT OF SEASON

No Play in Recent Years Has Been Discussed Quite So Much as "The Bat"

With every theatrical record in New York and Chicago both for total attendance and for gross box office receipts to its credit, "The Bat," the sensational dramatic triumph by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood will be presented by Wagners and Kemper at White's theatre on November 7th.

The forthcoming appearance of "The Bat" in this city is, unquestionably, the outstanding dramatic event of the year. Without doubt, no play in recent years has been discussed quite so much in this city. The remarkable record for success, compiled by "The Bat," both in New York where it ran over two years and Chicago where it played more than one entire year, has been noted frequently here whenever the subject of the theater has arisen. To say that "The Bat" will receive an enthusiastic welcome from local theatregoers is putting it mildly.

"The Bat" comes here, exactly as it was offered in New York and Chicago and it is now being played in London. The production is on the same massive scale and the cast is a noteworthy one.

MRS. CARLETON TOLD OF LOVE TO HUSBAND

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Margaret Carleton, who with the Rev. Leonard J. Christler, was found shot to death in the Christler home at Havre, Montana, last Friday, had confessed her love for the Rev. Mr. Christler to her husband, Frank Carleton, former judge of the district court at Havre, Mr. Carleton declared tonight in a signed statement.

CRIPPLE CENSUS BEING TAKEN IN STATE THIS WEEK

Inaugurated by State Department of Public Instruction; Ends November 4th

Raleigh, Nov. 1.—Cripple Census Week begins Sunday. It will last through Saturday, November 4th. This census has been instituted by the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation of the State Department of Public Instruction and the Bureau of Child Welfare of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare. Its purpose is to ascertain the names of all physically disabled persons in North Carolina in order that they may be rehabilitated, or if children, receive the treatment they may need.

In this census, the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation and the Bureau of Child Welfare ask the co-operation of all public-spirited citizens who are interested in this effort to save from the scrap-heap of beggary and incapacity and despair and uselessness handicapped persons who are physically handicapped. Governor Morrison recently appealed to the people of North Carolina in behalf of the State's cripples. In each county, the various social agents, superintendents of schools, superintendents of public welfare, teachers, farm and home demonstration agents, Red Cross workers, etc., will take the census, the names to be forwarded to headquarters in Raleigh. Those who know of cripples who may be benefited by rehabilitation or, if children, by treatment, are requested to give the names of these to some one of these agents.

Not a Matter of Charity.

The purpose of Cripple Census Week is not charitable, in the usual patronizing sense of that word, department officials state. The attitude of the public mind which has considered men and women with physical deformity or weakness as objects of charity and which has relegated them to a class apart has been one of the most serious handicaps to their progress and contentment. The idea underlying rehabilitation work is that it is much wiser for the individual and for the community to teach a disabled man to make his own living than it is to provide that living for him. His unhappiness is more often caused by being placed in the discard of the unproductive than it is by the infirmity which originally put him there.

As for crippled children who are not yet of age to make their own living the Bureau of Child Welfare hopes to secure treatment for them whenever possible, either in the State Orthopedic Hospital at Gastonia, or under the care of local physicians. In many cases, much can be done for the crippled child by timely treatment, if not entire cure, at least, considerable improvement in his condition. By such treatment, the Bureau hopes that many cases of future incapacity and unhappiness may be avoided. The names of children between 14 and 16 years are especially desired, as there is no provision for children over fourteen at the Gastonia hospital, and persons under sixteen are not eligible for assistance from the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation. The Bureau of Child Welfare will try to arrange for treatment for children between these ages who, otherwise, would not be provided for. Names of crippled children taken in the census will also provide data for future service from the Rehabilitation Department.

Naturally, the feeble-minded and the epileptic are not eligible for rehabilitation or for treatment. Neither are aged persons requiring permanent custodial care. But eligibility is not limited in regard to race or sex. Rehabilitation of the disabled is economical, say officials of the department. It restores to the physically handicapped man his wage-earning capacity, and his self-respect in becoming again a useful member of society. It prevents loss to the State in actual dollars and cents which results from idle and dependent citizens. It restores the broken morale of the bitter and the despairing. It leads the disabled "out of discouragement into paths where they may better serve themselves, their country, and their kind."

MISS WEILL SPEAKS ON CITIZENSHIP TO THE WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. R. R. Cotton to Deliver Second of Series Tomorrow on Australian Ballot

The Woman's club, realizing the need of enlightenment, of not only its members, along political lines, but of all women in general, has adopted, as its program for the year, the study of citizenship.

The first talk on the subject, was "Citizenship" was given two weeks ago by Miss Gertrude Weill of Goldsboro, one of the most prominent, and best informed women in the state.

Miss Weill was greeted by a large audience of interested women, who listened eagerly to her message, in which she impressed upon her hearers their duty as voters, and the necessity of accepting the ballot seriously. To use it as a means of electing only clean conscientiously men to office, and to endeavor to have repealed a number of laws that are now on the statute books.

The second of this series of lectures will be given tomorrow afternoon, at the regular meeting of the club, by Mrs. R. R. Cotton, of the Australian ballot. This is a matter that should be of interest to every woman voter, and information on the subject will be welcomed.

The members of the club should come out in full force to hear her, and all the women of the city are invited to attend this meeting in the Baracca room of Memorial Baptist church.

LAW BREAKERS DECIDE TO GIVE MAYOR HOLIDAY

Not a Case Appeared For Trial During This Morning's Session of Police Court

LULL IN POLICE COURT SHOWS THAT CONDITIONS BETTER

Violators of the Law Evidently Know That Police Department is on the Job

No court today. Does it surprise you, gentle reader? Well it is a fact nevertheless, and if you thirst for sensational news you will have to seek it elsewhere, for not a single criminal slunk into court to face Mayor Clark this morning, no not even one of those unintentional violators of the traffic ordinances who do not come in the criminal class, but are dignified with the term of defendant.

Therefore we presume that everybody has been good and we trust that in this assumption we are correct. There are lulls in everything, even in war, so why not a lull in drinking? It is an undisputed fact that alcohol is directly or indirectly responsible for at least 75 per cent of the offenses committed, both criminal and semi-criminal, and therefore when there is a lull in crime, it becomes very evident that the appetite for strong drink has not been so freely indulged.

We like to believe this is true, for we have always felt confident that the moonshiner and blind-tiger were fighting a hopeless cause in the issue which has been joined by these enemies of American homes, of American traditions, of American institutions and a American destiny. This fight has been going on from time immemorial, in fact it has been the source of internal worries among humans ever since primitive man first associated himself in groups for his mutual protection and annoyance, and it is going to continue until liquor is driven eternally out of existence in our land. For is it not written, "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." And does it not follow as the night followeth the day, that any commodity that produces corruption, vice and crime, is a sin and a reproach to any people who indulge in or foster its use?

The police officers of Greenville are courageously doing their duty in an effort to break up the traffic in intoxicating liquors, but they need the support of a wholesome public sentiment, and the best results cannot be attained until the community makes up its mind that it is going to have less liquor and therefore less crime and more law enforcement.

We are always glad when no cases are reported from police court, for it is a sure sign of a lull on the one hand and a more active public sentiment on the other.

GAS CONSUMPTION LAST YEAR BROKE RECORD

New York, Nov. 1.—Sales of manufactured gas last year touched the record volume of 326,000,000 cubic feet, an increase of 7,000,000,000 feet over 1920 and 20,000,000,000 feet over 1919, according to the third annual survey of the gas utilities of the United States just completed by the American Gas Association. An analysis of the per capita consumption of gas for the last 20 years shows that the per capita increase for the ten-year period of 1901 to 1911 was 30 per cent, while for the period of 1911 to 1921 it was 80 per cent.

I AM THE VACANT LOT

I am the unplanted city lot—one of the 100,000 such lots in North Carolina.

Build upon me a home not a house.
Plant me with loving hands and heartfelt interest, and plant me for your children's sake. Plant me with care and with earth filled with humus.
With this foundation, I will give you fruit and flowers.

Plant me to last. Let oaks and hard maples shade and protect the children of this and the next generation.
Mow, lime, and re-seed my lawn often to make me a green carpet.

Landscape me in harmony with my neighbors. Plant my street with one variety of permanent trees. Let me and my neighboring lots breathe and express the cheerful smile of bloom and shade trees. The world at the beginning was a garden, the first man and woman walked in beauty where-soever they went.

Locate my home back from the street, the noise, the dust. Let my entrance path beginning at any most convenient corner wind to a welcoming door step. Hundreds pass by to one who enters. Plan to plant a welcome.

Plant me for every month in the year. Plant in masses, avoid straight lines and leave the lawn center open.
Evergreens will give winter warmth, perched plants will attract the birds.
Look out the living room door, the dining room window, and from where Mother sits sewing. Inside the home is the place from which to properly locate shade, shrubs, and flower beds.

Plan before planting me. Make of me no checker board. Make flowers a part of my landscape but avoid pails perched on posts, kettles, and rod tanks stood on end. Be a good housekeeper in the outdoor living room. Select plants to suit the cost and style of home.

Planting me will make you a better man, a more successful man, a better neighbor. Your family will be born here, will grow up here, will live their happiest days with me.
Beauty is a necessary commodity
for happiness.—Chapel Hill News Letter.

Mrs. Gibson insisted that William Easton, New Brunswick mechanic, who has been appearing at her farm where she lives with her son, Willie, was not her husband, but "only a relative."

Miss Nellie Denny Hostess.
On Tuesday afternoon Miss Nellie Denny delightfully entertained the Round Table at a real Hallowe'en party. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Fulford graciously dispatched business and heard reports. The report of the library committee was interesting, in that many books were reported worn out and new ones must be bought. The library tax was ordered paid. The sale of Tuberculosis Christmas seals was brought before the club by Mrs. Person. The Round Table is solid behind this movement. The members were gratified to hear that a patient is now at Sanatorium, N. C., being kept there partly through the sale of these seals.

The subject for the afternoon was "Stories of Tragedy." Mrs. Wiley Brown very ably handled Hall's "My Trouble and How He Minded Me.

Following this Miss Weyman held her hearers spellbound with Poe's "Black Cat." After which Mrs. E. W. Griffin delighted all with two vocal selections and Miss Bertollet with two piano selections. The refreshments carried out the Hallowe'en idea, consisting of popcorn and salted nuts in decorated cups, black chocolate cakes in cat shape, toasted marsh-mallow, and tea. The club was delighted to welcome Mrs. K. B. Pace as guest for the year, and greatly enjoyed Mrs. E. A. Parker, Mrs. H. C. Sugg, Mrs. O. G. Gully and Mrs. Wardroper as our guests for the afternoon.

POES TAKE EVANS STREET BY SURPRISE

Last Saturday night the Edgar Allen Poe Literary Society of E. C. College formed a parade on the college campus. Each member was given a lighted lantern. The effect was beautiful as the continuous line of lanterns was seen circling in and out through the college woods.

All of Greenville was surprised to see such an array of girls and lanterns travel up and down Evans street from Five Points to the postoffice then back down Evans street on opposite side of the street.

While those in the lead had almost reached Five Points returning these at the end were still crossing Five Points.

Traffic was completely stopped for several minutes while the two hundred Poes were crossing the street.

By the time half the line had crossed Five Points almost all of Greenville especially the boys were out on Main street. The cars followed the stream of lanterns until they reached the Rotary building.

The witnesses seemed to enjoy it, but no more than the girls, for to be on Evans street at night, especially Saturday night is something that happens once in a life time for the college girls, but this was an "extra special" occasion.

After leaving Five Points the girls were lead around by the High School building, then to the Rotary building where the initiation of the new members was carried out.

Each member wishes to thank the Rotarians for the use of the building. It added greatly to the entertainment and enjoyment of the evening.

PHARMACY A RESPONSIBLE PROFESSION

To perform well the duties of a pharmacist requires education and skill.

The persons engaged in such service have entrusted to them the health and lives of the people and hence take upon themselves grave responsibilities. To be prepared to assume these responsibilities the pharmacist or druggist must be a high school graduate, serve two years as an apprentice, be a graduate from a recognized College of Pharmacy, and then pass a difficult examination to become registered.

Make the Future Safe

We pay you to save.
Save systematically for success.

To save successfully you must save systematically.
Success is largely a question of habit.
If you will not sow, you shall not reap.
Opportunities neglected are lost and gone forever.
It is easier to save $1.00 each week than to save $52.00 once a year.
Take care of what you make and after while it will take care of you.
There need be no doubt about anything—it is simply a question of persistency.
To get ahead you must, earn money, spend less than you earn and invest the difference where it is safe, where the profits are satisfactory and where the interest and principal can be gotten when needed.
