JUDGE F. M. WOOTEN TO DELIVER ADDRESS CLOSE THE CAMPAIGN

Pay-Up and Trade Weeks to Close on Friday, Nov. 10, at Four O'clock

The Pay-Up and Trade Weeks Campaign which has been in progress in Greenville for the past month will come to a close on Friday, Nov. 10th at 4 o'clock. At this time all the trade receipts will be placed in a large hoghead, rolled to Five Points and the lucky numbers drawn.

Judge Frank Wooten, one of Greenville's most interesting speakers, will deliver the address before the drawing. Little Miss Laura Ball Hinder will draw the numbers and a number of judges selected by the managers of the campaign will pass on the numbers.

The first prize will be an Overland automobile and the other prizes will consist of valuable articles given by the merchants. All receipts will be called at 4 o'clock on Friday and no person will be allowed to receive but one gift. To be valid a receipt must be signed on the face by the merchant giving it, and on the back by the holder of the receipt.

The campaign has been very successful and as a result a large number of trade receipts have been issued to people throughout this and adjoining counties. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the drawing and it is a settled fact that on Friday afternoon some one will be the owner of a new Overland automobile. Everybody is invited to the closing ceremonies which promise to be very interesting.

LIGHTNIN' TO BE PRESENTED HERE FRIDAY, NOV. 21ST

One of Best Shows on the Road to Visit White's Theatre in Near Future

Just why "Lightning" run for three years on Broadway breaking all records of the famed playground and amassing a great fortune for its producer John Golden, will soon be learned by local playgoers first hand because the management of White's Theatre announces that the record-smasher will be presented here for a single performance to be given on Tuesday evening, November 21st.

The star attraction here is headed by Milton Nobles in the role of Lightning' Bill Jones, who frequently appeared at the Gaiety theatre, New York. The production was staged under the personal direction of the author, Winchell Smith. The company is booked for a London engagement in the spring. Seats are now on sale.

The play takes its title from its principal character, christened William Jones but nicknamed "Lightnin' Bill" because he never moves fast. Shiftless, good natured braggart and chronic inebriate "Lightnin'" is yet a figure to be loved and to be admired. Around his vagaries is built the pleasant love story of an honest young law student, who by defeating the schemes of a crooked lawyer and his clients saves the property of Mrs. Jones, assures the happiness of Lightning' and wins his girl. The play starts with a prologue in the backwoods of Nevada, where Lightning' and the young lawyer seal their friendship.

The first act shows the Jones hotel at Callvada, standing half in California and half in Nevada, which attracts would be divorcees from all over the country. Lightning' is porter and "handy man" around the place. Litigation brings all the characters into the superior court at Reno in the second act. Lightning' evicted from the hotel months before and now a guest at the Soldiers' Home bests the schemers who have induced his wife to sue him for a divorce, the divorce being part of a plot to fleece the family out of the hotel property. Action reverts to the hotel in the third act, the old couple in each other arms their adopted daughter betrothed to John Marvin, the young forester and law student who has been "Lightnin'"'s pal and adviser through thick and thin, and the Reno judge happily mated with the fair divorcee.

COMPLETE VICTORY FOR DEMOCRATS IN TENNESSEE

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—As result of yesterday's election Tennessee was again placed in the columns of Democracy by a good vote. In complete returns show that the Democrats have swept the State. McKeller's majority for the senate will easily exceed forty thousand. For Governor Ausin Peay is leading Alf Taylor by not less than thirty thousand majority. Gordon Browning, democrat, made an easy triumph over Lon Scott, the Republican candidate for congress.

INFANT ORCHESTRA HAS LEADER 5 YEARS OLD

Concord, N. H., Nov. 8.—An orchestra made up of 21 children of the Garrison school Kindergarten is claimed by this school to be the largest kindergarten orchestra in the world. The children are four and five years old and their leader is only five.

Twelve different kinds of instruments are used—drums, clappers, bells, bird whistle, xylophones, triangle, horse shoes, dumb-bells, tamborines, cymbals, kazoo and castanets.

STEADMAN DEFEATS WOMAN CANDIDATE

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Lucy B. Patterson, Republican, the only woman seeking election to congress from North Carolina, was defeated in today's election by Charles M. Steadman, Democratic incumbent, the only Confederate veteran in the House, by more than two to one on the face of unofficial returns compiled late tonight from 116 of the 260 precincts in the Fifth District. These gave Representative Steadman 13,336 and Mrs. Patterson 5,802.

WITNESS IN HALL CASE CORROBORATES THE GIBSON STORY

Woman Who Lives Near Scene of Rector's Murder Considered Important Witness

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 8.—A. C. Fraley, resident of the house that stands nearest the crabapple tree under which the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills were found slain, rose to the magnitude of a stellar witness for the State today in a long interview with Special Detective Mason.

After quizzing Mrs. Fraley for nearly three hours, Mason said he considered her a "most important witness," asserting that she had corroborated the amazing "eyewitness" story of Mrs. Jane Gibson in many points.

Maids on Rack Again, Barbara Tough and Louise Geist, maids in the home of Mrs. Hall, the rector's widow, appeared at the court house shortly after noon for questioning by Mason.

A conference between Attorney General McCran and all the investigators of the Hall-Mills murder case has been called, it was learned today to perfect the long chain of evidence to be submitted to the grand jury later in the week.

To Fight Widow's Appearance. This conference will determine, also, it is said, whether Mrs. Hall, the slain rector's wife will be permitted to appear before the grand jury, as she has requested. The authorities already have claimed that they would make every effort to prevent Mrs. Hall from telling her story to the grand jury.

Several of the members of the Hall household and close friends of Mrs. Hall probably will be summoned before the investigators during their conference.

PITT COUNTY FAIR ATTRACTING WIDE ATTENTION DAILY

Large Crowds Delighted With Exhibits, Midway, Fireworks and the Races

The Pitt county fair which opened in Greenville yesterday was largely attended and although the races, scheduled for the afternoon, were rained out, people from every section of the county visited the fair during every hour of the day and the midway attracted the large crowd attending with its many amusements.

Never before in the history of the Pitt county fair association have the agriculturists, merchants and manufacturer's exhibits attracted such attention. They are perhaps the best ever seen in this section of the state and no one attending the fair should fail to see them.

The midway, which is composed of Zeidman and Pollie Exposition shows was in all its glory last evening and large crowds thronged the grounds until late in the evening anxious to see everything that the company had to offer in the way of amusements.

The fire works display which was given last evening at 7 o'clock was too beautiful to describe, as it has to be seen to be appreciated. Tonight beginning at 7 o'clock the Battle of the Argonne will be given. This promises to be one of the most spectacular and interesting displays of the weeks.

A large crowd was in attendance today and at 2 o'clock they witnessed the first of the races of the week. They were very interesting and measured up to the expectations of every one.

DEMOCRACY PILES UP OVERWHELMING STATE MAJORITY

Will Reach Eighty Thousand it is Believed When Returns Are Tabulated

Raleigh, Nov. 8.—Piling up a majority that may reach the 80,000 mark when the complete count is made, the Democratic forces in the biennial election yesterday won the most signal victory in the political history of the state, returning a solid Democratic delegation to congress and reducing the vote of the minority in the House of Representatives from 29 to 13.

Incomplete returns compiled early this morning from 60 counties give a Democratic majority of 58,753. Counties heretofore listed as rock-ribbed Republican turned in Democratic majorities, electing full Democratic tickets. Among the counties reversing themselves are Davidson, Cabarrus, Surry, Brunswick, Carteret, Sampson, Catawba, Caldwell, Burke, Henderson, Alexander, Cherokee, Stanley and Randolph.

Though the total vote cast, as indicated by returns, is very much lighter than the vote cast two years ago, Democrats have more than held their own. Republican opposition has been crushed in many counties of the state, and only Wilkes, with its majority of 2,000, has stood still in the onslaught. Sampson and Cabarrus, long regarded as impregnable strongholds, have fallen into the hands of the Democrats, and the Republicans are without a county east of the Blue Ridge except Davie and Stokes.

The fate of the amendments increasing the pay of members of the General Assembly is in doubt. Few of the returns received mention them and the vote as recorded is about evenly split, with the country precincts going strong against them. An official count will be required to determine whether the legislators got $4 or $10 for their services at the next session of the general assembly.

SEVERAL CASES GIVEN HEARING IN THE POLICE COURT

Session Completed in Short While Although Docket Contained a Number of Cases

Judge by police court records the fair crowds so far has been conducting itself very nicely. There has been such a crowd attending the fair, especially strangers, that it is quite remarkable and very gratifying to note that there is so little disorder and violation of the law. The work's toll of defendants facing the mayor so far were as follows:

Stals is a transfer driver from Kinston and allowed his car to get in too big a hurry in making trips to and from the fair ground. Fined $10 and cost.

Bennett Salesky, white of Norfolk, charged with driving too fast on Evans street and passing Five Points without stopping. Fined $10 and cost.

B. F. Guatney, Jr., white, charged with speeding. Guatney was stepping on his accelerator with too much force so to protect the innocent pedestrians it was necessary to take from him some of his freedom as to the speed of an automobile. Fined $10 and cost.

Otto Smith, white, of Wilmington, charged with being drunk and down. His system not being accustomed to the violent effects of Pitt county moon or Craven county corn he fell by the wayside and therefore had to be tenderly cared for by the police until the effects of said poison wore off. Paid a fine of $10 and cost.

J. D. Freed, white, of Pitt county, charged with being drunk and down. Being incapacitated by the use of too much of the poison fire water and requiring the attention of police officers to prevent a sleep on the cold, damp road. Fined $10 and cost.

J. B. King, white, charged with being drunk and down. Paid fine $1 and cost.

Henry J. Simmerman, white follower of the Carnival, charged with trespass. This defendant not being satisfied with the fair arrangements decided to collect entrance fees at the gate for his own use and benefit, altho the fair authorities were not charging at that time, which was late in the afternoon. Fined $10 and cost.

W. L. Whichard, J. B. Ragdale, white, charged with mutually assaulting each other. From the evidence it appeared that this was another bloodless war, that peace had been declared no reparation or indemnities exacted, that the defendants had shaken hands and were again good friends. The mayor allowed them to pay a fine of $4 and cost.

J. C. Williford, white, charged with being drunk and down, called and failed in open court, capias issued, case continued until Saturday morning.

MONTANA HAS PART IN VICTORY OF DEMOCRATS

Helena, Mont., Nov. 8.—Early returns from yesterday's election indicate that Burton Wheeler, Democrat, has defeated Carl Riddick for the Senate. Riddick's Election was thought a certainty until returns began to pour in to the contrary.

DEMOCRATS TAKE THE OKLAHOMA GOVERNORSHIP

Oklahoma, City, Nov. 8.—The supporters of Mrs. Alice Robertson, the only woman congressman were somewhat surprised today when returns gave the Democrats nominee, Hastings a complete victory. J. Walton, Democrat was elected Governor over Fields the Republican.

BOYS PREDOMINATE IN "EPIDEMIC" OF BIRTHS

(By International News.) Elyria, Ohio, Nov.—An epidemic of births has hit the hamlet of Henrietta, in the western part of Lorain county. Citizens are alarmed. All the births are boys. In a oneday record breaker Claude Unger, Robert Wyler and Albert Swiers, all neighbors, became "papas."

THE CURE FOR SPEEDING.

(News and Observer.)

The cure for speeding is jail sentences. Fines will not do the work. As in the case of all other violations of the law to be guilty of which there is a strong temptation, fines amount to nothing more than license. It is worth the cost the violator pays, and goes right ahead doing the things that the laws forbid and for which he has been fined.

But a jail sentence is a different thing. It involves disgrace. It means unpleasant hours and days. It means a lot of time for unhappy reflection. It means time taken away from business and the pursuit of pleasure.

And checking of the dangerous practice of speeding is worth all its costs in disgrace and unhappiness for those who indulge in it.

This from the Atlanta. Constitution is timely.

After eight citizens had been convicted of speeding and sent to jail, without the alternative of paying fines, by a police judge in San Francisco a few days ago, a San Francisco Chronicle reporter asked each his opinion of the "jail sentence" idea and the "punish-all policy" under which that court is operating.

"Sure, the judge was right," said one, "and I am perfectly willing to serve. I'm not sore, because I'm wrong; but I'll never speed again, you bet!"

Said another: "Of course, it's right. It's the only way to cure speeding. It isn't pleasant to have to serve a jail sentence, but it's right nevertheless."

"My case was an accident," said the third, "and I was not speeding. However, I am in sympathy with the policy of sending speeders to jail."

The others concurred in the reply that "It's tough to be the example, and we don't like it at all; but the judges have the right idea."

The men were found guilty of driving motor cars at rates of speed above forty miles an hour, and were committed to jail for periods ranging from two to five days.

The fact that they accepted their penalty apparently in good spirit, without bitterness toward the court even commending the judge for his efforts to make the streets and highways safe, adds to the effectiveness of this method of punishment.

The best way to stop the practice of breaking the speed laws is for the courts everywhere to adopt the policy of sending speeders to jail.

It is at least worth the trial.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 8.—Albert Mooneyham, of Raleigh, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident Sunday afternoon in which two men were killed, still was unconscious today, it was said at the hospital here. He had not been operated upon up to this afternoon. It was said, however, he still had a chance to recover.

Saved Up His Money and Soared Over Rocky Mountains to Colorado Home

(By International News.)

Longmont, Colo., Nov.—Glenn Arthur Porter, ex-Aviation Carpenter's Mate, 2nd class, of the U. S. Navy, flew from San Diego, California, to his home here when he was discharged from the naval service.

Porter enlisted three years ago at New Orleans, Louisiana, with the intention of becoming a mechanic in the aviation service. He was sent to the Great Lakes Training Station to undergo first the regular period of military training, after which he was given a course at the aviation school. Porter, however, once he got into the aviation game wanted to be more than a mechanic; he wanted to fly for himself, and before long he was up in the air doing all the stunts that other aviators do. His ability to fly was soon evident.

After he had learned to fly, Porter was still unsatisfied. He wanted to have an airplane of his own. It happened that at this time the navy put some old-time planes on sale, and Porter had been seadog enough to

JAPANESE "ELDER" STATESMEN PASSING

Tokio, Nov.—Old Japan is fast changing. The last of the famous Elder Statesmen of the Meiji era has just passed his Government. Only two of the Genro remain—Prince Matsukata (he has just been promoted from a marquis) and Prince Saionji. Matsukata has just retired as Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal, his last post.

The two are very old, well in the eighties. Saionji has been ill for months, and Matsukata is fast failing. The two, particularly Matsukata, made Baron Kato Premier last Spring. When the time comes they will probably remove him and name his successor, but that will be about the last of their making and unmaking of Ministers.

"THE BAT" PLAYED TO CAPACITY HOUSE TUESDAY EVENING

One of Best Plays Ever Presented in City and Enjoyed by All Present

"The Bat" the greatest hit in the theatrical world in years was presented in White's Theatre last night to a capacity house.

The play was thrilling from the beginning to the final fall of the curtain and at the same time was screamingly funny. It was staged in a most wonderful manner and was acted with consummate skill by an exceptionally capable company.

The thrilling mystery story, dramatic in the extreme and filled with quite as many laughs as thrills was written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood. The plot of the play was well worked out and kept the audience on tiptoes throughout its entirety. The cast was composed of ten characters: Lizzie, the maid, who was one of the best actresses seen on the local stage in years. She played her part without a criticism from the audience. Miss Coraella Van Gender, the leader of the Long Island home of the former banker, Fleming, who had been reported dead, and whose bank has recently failed. She was without a doubt one of the best and most capable actresses ever seen here. She was splendid in every act and drew a large part of the applause.

The other characters were equally as good as these and were as follows: Billy, the butler, Brooks, the accused bank cashier, Miss Dale Ogden, the fiancée of Brooks, and niece of Miss Van Gender, Dr. Wells, an intimate friend of the former banker; Anderson, a detective; Richard Fleming, son of the banker; Reginald Beresford, friend of Richard Fleming, and as unknown man who finally turned out to be the real detective, thereby proving the impostor as being "The Bat."

The Long Island home of Fleming, upon learning of his reported death in the west, had been rented by his nephew to Miss Van Gender. She with her maid, butler and niece had moved in for the summer. Brooks, engaged to the niece, and the cashier of the bank, upon finding that he had been accused of robbing the bank, had taken refuge in Miss Van Gender's employ as gardener. "The Bat," a mysterious character, and a burglar of national reputation, knowing that the missing money was stored in the former banker's home, gave the occupants a little trouble by trying to get into the house. The story ends with the capture of "The Bat," impersonating as the detective; the recovery of the money in a secret room of the house.

The play was so thrilling and the house so packed that the large audience, although delighted with every part of it went home feeling that they had better lock their doors and windows because "The Bat" was in town.

ARE HUMAN ILLS NOW MULTIPLIED BY PROHIBITION?

(By International News)
Chicago, Nov. — Prohibition is making American men fat, cutting down the average span of life and piling additional work upon the American housewife. That is the indictment of the Eighteenth Amendment found in figures just compiled by the National Life Insurance Company following a national health survey.

It comes about through the American habit of treating the survey shows. Unable to treat over the bar, Americans treat at the soda fountain, the candy counter and at restaurants.

Result—increased waitlines, less active heart action because of excessive fat and, thus, shorter lives. Increased work for housewives is incidental, occasioned by popping vest buttons.

“While prohibition has been beneficial in thrift, home building and peacefulness it materially has helped fat to become an enemy to human longevity,” the survey said. “Except in the rarest instances, persons who live to ripe old ages are thin.

“Exercise too often is taken too violently or merely results in increased appetites and enlarged consumption of food, offsetting the good results of athletics. The one way of stopping an increase in weight is to eat smaller amounts of food. ‘Always leave the table hungry’ is a good motto.”

How My Creed Affects You

People come to Greenville for health through chiropractic spinal adjustments from twenty miles around. While I am helping to make Greenville a Mecca for health-seekers, I am also benefitting others in Greenville, for the people who come to me invariably remain to do other shopping and buying. Let's all advertise and make Greenville a real center.

Chiropractic is my specialty, and I have been trained to apply its famous principles directly to humanity in order to help nature restore my patients to perfect Health and Happiness

There is no wealth great enough to compensate them for a life filled with poor health and suffering.

You will get neither drugs, medicines nor surgery from me. Chiropractic adjustments are given with the hands only.

It's my purpose to adjust the cause of your illness. It is also my purpose to give you preventive adjustments in order to make you less liable to a disease attack.

I have yet to find a perfect spine in an adult human, and I believe that certain abnormalities in your spine are, or will be, the direct cause of your malady.

Whatever may be the reason for your sickness, and however long it may have endured, Chiropractic can just as easily be your salvation as it has been to millions of others.

HEALTH FOLLOWS
CHIROPRACTIC CORRECTS PRESSURE ON SPINAL NERVES IN DISEASES OF THE FOLLOWING ORGANS:

- HEAD
- EYES
- EARS
- NOSE
- THROAT
- ARMS
- HEART
- LUNGS
- LIVER
- STOMACH
- PANCREAS
- SPLEEN
- KIDNEYS
- BOWELS
- APPENDIX
- BLADDER
- SPINAL COLUMN—LOWER LIMBS

THE LOWER NERVE UNDER THE MAGNIFYING GLASS IS PINCHED BY A MISALIGNED JOINT. PINCHED NERVES CANNOT TRANSMIT HEALTHFUL IMPULSES. CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTING REMOVES THE PRESSURE. THE UPPER NERVE IS FREE AS NATURE INTENDS.

It does not require your implicit faith in order for it to benefit you. The fact that the segments (joints) of your spine are out of alignment (line) is no fault of your own—but I can help restore them to normal position.

You need not be sick, now that I can show you the scientific road to a natural recovery, and this I am sure of: "I CAN HELP YOU."

Don't wait until you get sick or worse. Come to my office today. See me NOW!
