TELEGRAPHED FOR GENERAL GRANT

LARGE CROWDS AGAIN ATTEND THE PITT COUNTY FAIR

Races and Fireworks Outstanding Features of Second Day of Fair

The Pitt County Fair had another splendid day yesterday and was largely attended. The races, which started at 2 o'clock, were witnessed by hundreds of lovers of the sport.

The Radio concerts which are being given by the Greenville Storage Battery Co., are proving most interesting and attracting wide attention. Experts are here giving the concerts and are doing all possible to make them enjoyable.

Greenville has never been visited by a larger midway than Zeidman and Pollie Exposition Shows. It consists of the usual amusements of a midway such as shows, candy wheels, doll wheels, merry-go-rounds, etc. Each concession is of the highest class and clean in every respect.

In the main building the merchants, manufacturers and agricultural exhibits are attracting attention as the blue ribbons have been awarded and every one is anxious to see who won the premiums. Never before in history have the exhibits been so varied and beautiful. They show, in a splendid manner, what the people of Pitt County are capable of doing. Every exhibit is worthy of mentioning.

Every one attending the fair comments on the manner in which traffic is being handled. Traffic cops are on the job and so far no accidents have been reported. This is rather unusual considering the large crowds which have been in attendance.

Another large crowd was in attendance last evening and saw a wonderful display of fireworks. Besides seeing the usual presentation of fireworks, they witnessed the battle of Argonne, after which the flag of the United States was shown in all its beautiful colorings.

PRINCE PENS HOT NOTE TO PREMIER

"Please Be Sure I Despise You," Says George in Letter to Jugo-Slav Official

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Prince George of Serbia addressed the following letter to the Jugo-Slavian Premier, M. Pasitch, according to the Belgrade paper Videlo:

"It would be no attraction whatever for me to be the sovereign of a country where you and your son do as you please. I do not want to be your prisoner, like my brother; but as the legitimate son of my father, the late king, I claim that portion of his private fortune which I am entitled to; however, you and your press are busy distorting this legitimate claim in a way, as if I aspired to the throne. I do not—not in the least!

"I call upon you to account for the whereabouts of my deceased father's cashbox containing his last will, in addition to other important documents, as I do not want these documents to disappear like the late king's archives.

"I am sure you will now again send your friends and other persons of doubtful qualities to offer me some shabby amount out of secret state funds in order to make me keep quiet.

"Split it up between yourself and those in whose company you used to spend my money! I shall refuse to accept it!

"I demand nothing but my legitimate share of my deceased father's fortune.

"Go on ruling my unhappy fatherland with your methods—intriguing in all quarters, setting people against each other and bribing them—but don't trouble me with that!

"Please be sure that I despise you from the bottom of my heart!

"GEORGE, Prince of Serbia."

J. C. Ward, former mayor of Visalia, Cal., began his career as a telegrapher in the Civil War. He is now, at seventy-eight, trying to retire, but before he can do so, the Postal Telegraph must get permission to abandon the Visalia office, of which he has been manager for thirty-five years. He was telegraph operator at Grant's headquarters and asserts that he taught Thomas Alva Edison telegraphy when the Electrical Wizard was sixteen.

HARVEY SPEECH IS A EUROPE NEEDS AID, LIVE TOPIC IN LONDON SAYS U. S. VISITOR

English Clerics Merely Brand it American Satire and Keep Good-Natured

London, Nov.—English clerics are looking askance at Ambassador Harvey. They feel that he invaded their field when he recently made a speech on the subject, "Have Women Souls?"

The Ambassador took the deacon to pieces and laid the pieces out on the table one by one, playing with the theories of the Ten Commandments and altogether had a most delightful theological evening.

Ambassador Harvey was having a delightful time. It was his characteristic New England satire at its best. England didn't know whether to take him seriously or not, and England doesn't know yet, but English clerics are of the opinion that Ambassadors should confine their efforts to the fields of diplomacy and to leave theology strictly alone.

"We in England are already growing accustomed to the American Ambassador's habit of hilarious satire," said Dr. F. W. Norwood, eminent preacher of the City Temple, when asked to comment on the Ambassador's speech. "We have not forgotten his startling declaration that America came into the war merely to save her own skin, and, although not of his race, most of us felt that he did his countrymen less than justice.

"In the same way we make allowances and rather enjoy his buoyant question, 'Have Women Souls?' We would like to know what Mrs. Harvey has to say about it.

"The Jewish law, like the British law, does betray rather a preponderance of masculine sentiment. To say that women were subordinate to men under it is to say what is equally true concerning our own law.

"Surely it is not true, however, to say that the commandment 'Thou shalt not steal' did not apply to women.

"Mr. Harvey is to be congratulated upon having noticed that the Ten Commandments do not apply to women. I have not met a woman who had been keen enough to observe it. No doubt they will be grateful to Mr. Harvey for pointing it out.

PROFESSOR MADDOX IS EXPECTED TO RECOVER

Ashboro, Nov. 9.—Professor Maddox, of the Ashboro city schools, who was stabbed and cut in an unprovoked attack on the streets Tuesday night by Will Hasty, will probably recover. His wounds are hardly as serious as first thought.

Hasty, who is alleged to have been intoxicated, was released from jail on $2,500 bond.

DEMOCRATS STILL CUTTING G. O. P. LEAD IN EVERY SECTION

Democrats Have Chance of Gaining Control With Only Few Districts to Hear From.

New York, Nov. 8.—At 2 a. m. today, returns in the congressional elections showed the Republicans had 216 seats in the House of Representatives, the Democrats, 206, Socialists 1 and Independents 1. The Republicans needed only two of the thirteen districts unreported to retain control.

Districts in which the contests had not been decided were Third Kansas, First and Second Montana, Second and Third North Dakota, First and Second Utah, Fifth Washington, Third, Fourth and Fifth West Virginia, and the one in Wyoming. All are represented in the present House by Republicans.

Republican casualties, which broke with the first returns yesterday, defeating Governor Miller and Senator Calder, of New York, continued with somewhat lessened force today as returns dribbled in. They told of further Republican losses in the Senate and House and Governors and State legislatures, although the belated congressional results were somewhat more favorable to the Republicans.

Among the additional Republican stalwarts who went down to defeat definitely today on additional returns were Senator Kellogg, of Minnesota, beaten by Dr. Henrik Shustead, Farmer-Labor; Senator Townsend, of Michigan, who lost to former Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, the first Democratic Senator to be elected from Michigan in 70 years. Also definitely defeated by Senator Kendrick, Democrat, was Representative Mouldell of Wyoming, Republican floor leader who retired to the Senate.

Delay in the House result because of the keen contests has not been paralleled since 1916. A number of missing districts are in Far Western States. In others received today the early announcements were changed.

The Democrats continued their gains, polling 68 seats, according to last figures, principally from New York, Ohio, Missouri, New Jersey and Oklahoma. As against this Democratic sweep Republican failed to unseat at single sitting Democrat.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, it finally turned out, had a plurality of 8,425 over his Democratic opponent, Colonel Gaston, instead of the meagre 1,945 reported early in the day.

Through a transposition of figures in the tabulation, Senator Lodge's plurality was shown as being reduced to 1,945 and other news distributing agencies in some manner arrived at the same figures.

"SIR WALTER" IS THE NEW HOTEL NAME

Raleigh, Nov. 8.—"Sir Walter" conveying the impression of splendor, hospitality, courtesy and lofty character, is the name of Raleigh's new million dollar hotel, now rising rapidly above the ground at the corner of Fayetteville and Davis streets.

The choice of the name was made by the stockholders of the hotel company last night when the city of Raleigh's namesake won out in a competition which narrowed down to two other contestants: "Old Hickory," proposed by the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion in honor of Andrew Jackson and the Thirtieth division, and "The Carolina," proposed and advocated by T. H. Briggs, who last night, made an eloquent appeal for his choice.

Since a number of persons participating in the contest for a name for the hotel suggested "Sir Walter," a committee composed of V. St. Cloud and Frank Ellington, was appointed to canvass the recommendations and select as winner the person who first proposed "Sir Walter."

SAYS DEMOCRATS HAVE GAINED FULL SWAY IN CONGRESS

Progressive and Radical Elements Supply Balance of Power Desired

Washington, Nov. 8.—Satisfaction was expressed by Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic National committee, in a statement tonight on the results of Tuesday's elections.

"In the name of the Democratic National committee," he said, "I congratulate the loyal Democrats and the independent men and women of both parties, men of legitimate business, farmers, working men, ex-service men and every-day citizens, victimized by the Republican administration through false promises and non-performance, who made possible the splendid Democratic victory of Tuesday last. A large share of the credit is due to the press of the country, Democratic and Independent, and the leading Republican papers which abandoned partisanship for the material and moral interests of their readers, a public service and a political service, which I gratefully acknowledge and of which I am highly appreciative.

"The extent of the victory in the election of Democratic governors in Republican states and the Senatorial candidates is known. The returns on the House of Representatives have been slow in coming in and are indecisive, so much so that at this time it cannot be said with certainty which has carried the House. The indications are that the House will be close. Whether it is Democratic or Republican, it is a Democratic victory and Republican defeat, because in the event of Republican success the margin will be so close that the progressive and radical element will hold the balance of power and the Republicans, therefore, will not control the House. The same is already true of the newly-elected Senate.

"The great swing back to Democracy removes any pretext for discussing a third party movement so far as the Democratic party is concerned. The Democratic party can be relied upon to apply sound principles and policies of government to every-day conditions and in so doing to enact all sound and progressive ideas as it did after it came into power in 1913. It is the only party that offers to every class of persons and of legitimate business and to every section of the country a complete national program of sound and wholesome principles and policies."

DENVER PROJECTS $5,000,000 HOTEL

Governor Shoup Among Backers of Enterprise—1,000 Room Capacity

(By International News.)

Denver, Oct.—Denver citizens are being given an opportunity to have one of the largest and finest appointed hotels in the west. Governor Shoup, of Colorado, is one of the leaders in the building proposal, and it is believed a subscription of $500,000, to aid in financing the proposition, will be completed shortly.

The hotel, according to plans already drawn, will cost $5,000,000 and will be constructed by a Minneapolis firm.

The structure will be built at the head of Speer boulevard, bounded by Ellsworth and Bayaud avenues on the east and west, and by Downing and Ogden streets to the north and south. It will contain 370 single rooms and bath, and 365 suites, consisting of parlor, acove, sleeping porch and bath. In addition an entire wing of the hotel will be devoted to apartments.

Plans for the hotel provide also for a large ballroom, a swimming pool and Turkish baths, a large restaurant and convention hall. Including the suites the hotel will have a capacity equal to one of 1,000 rooms.

THEATRICAL TREAT TO BE PRESENTED NOVEMBER 21ST

Lightnin', a Show With Splendid Record to be Presented in This City Soon

The greatest theatrical treat of the generation is in store for playgoers who purchase seats for "Lightnin'" the famous comedy success which John Golden will present at White's Theatre for a single performance only to be given on Tuesday evening, November 21st. The piece will be played by the popular touring company that has won much praise and admiration. In its blending of laughs and heart throbs it surpasses even the other Golden offerings—"Thank You," "The First Year," "Three Wise Fools" and "Tur to the Right." The three plays reflect the genius of Winchell Smith either as author or director. Its record of 1291 consecutive performances at the Gaiety theatre, New York, makes "Lightnin'" the most successful play in the history of the American stage. The previous record for length of run on Broadway, held by "A Trip to Chinatown," up to the time the Golden play was produced, was 657 performances. Including its engagements in theatres not on Broadway, "Lightnin'" has been presented 1365 times in New York city in the past four years.

The company to be seen here, is headed by Milton Noble in the role of Lightnin' Bill Jones, from which character the play takes its name. Lightnin' Bill would have been a fit companion for Rip Van Winkle if they had been contemporaries. What famous old cronies they would have been and what jolly times they would have enjoyed loafing, drinking and telling yarns when they would have been working for their wives and families.

FIRE INSURANCE MEN

MEET AT PINEHURST

Pinehurst, Nov. 8.—Officials of many of the leading fire insurance companies of the country are attending the semi-annual meeting of the Southeastern Underwriters' Association which opened at the Carolina Hotel today. The association meets in executive session today and Thursday. The open meeting is scheduled for Friday.

North Carolina insurance officials who are attending the preliminary executive sessions include H. R. Bush of Greensboro, Walker, Taylor of Wilmington; George F. Folk, F. H. Briggs, Jr., N. J. Heyward and Paul Hulsh of Raleigh, and E. W. Whitney, Thomas Griffith and P. W. D. Jones, of Charlotte.

PAY UP AND TRADE WEEKS CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE FRIDAY

Receipt Boxes to Close Promptly at Three O'clock, Drawing at Four O'clock

"Pay Up and Trade Weeks" campaign which has been in progress in this city the last four weeks will be brought to a conclusion tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock with the drawing of receipts and awarding of prizes. All receipts boxes will be closed promptly at four o'clock and every one is urged to get busy and make their deposits so the last minute rush will not be so pronounced.

To say the campaign has been a success would be expressing the matter mildly. Every one of the thirty merchants who have issued receipts today expressed themselves as highly gratified at the splendid way people have rallied, and believe the campaign will be even more successful than last year.

Slightly over a million coupons were issued by the sixty-five merchants participating in the campaign last year. This year with only 30 merchants participating over nine hundred receipts have been issued up to today. These figures show how splendidly the people have responded to efforts of the Merchants Association to enlighten interest in trading and settlement of accounts, and indicate that the record of last year will be surpassed in many ways.

After the receipt boxes have been closed at three o'clock, the receipts will be emptied in a large hoghead and rolled down Evans street from the court house to Five Points where the drawing will take place promptly at four o'clock.

Prior to the drawing and awarding of prizes Judge Frank Wooten will speak in the interest of pay-up and trade weeks campaign. The lucky receipts will be drawn from the hoghead by little Laura Ball Hader and the judges will immediately announce the name of the winners.

Mrs. Alex Viola was busy today getting everything in readiness for the last minute rush of receipt holders tomorrow. Every effort will be made to make the closing as auspicious as possible and the remainder of today and tomorrow will witness the most intense activity among association members.

ALLEGED SWINDLERS TO BE PROSECUTED SOON

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—Attorney General Daugherty has completed plans and issued orders for a speedy prosecution in Federal courts of hundreds of alleged swindlers who are charged with plundering the homes of the poor of nearly a hundred and fifty million dollars through the fraudulent use of mails, it has been learned through the department of justice. Approximately five hundred cases are said to be in the hands of the United States attorneys. Nearly nine hundred persons have been arrested or indicted.

WILL HOLD A BOLL

WEEVIL CONFERENCE

Jacksonville, Nov. 9.—A boll weevil conference will be held in the local court house Friday morning, Nov. 10, beginning at ten o'clock. All farmers in the county have been urged to attend by D. L. Latham, county extension agent.

An impressive array of speakers and specialists have been secured to address the assembly, and a round table discussion will be held.

EXTENSION WORKERS TO MEET IN RALEIGH

County Demonstration Agents to Meet in Raleigh During Period of December 5-15

Raleigh, Nov.—Director E. W. Kilgore of the Agricultural Extension Service of the State College and Department of Agriculture has issued a call for the next annual meeting of county agents, home demonstration agents and other extension workers to be held in Raleigh at the State College during the ten day period beginning Dec. 5 and lasting through Dec. 15. This meeting will be largely attended by 578008...6...NO...NGS...ly in the form of a short course of school for county farm agents, participated in during the three days of Dec. 7, 8, and 9 by the home demonstration agents.

The meeting this year will be worked out under a new plan in that the agents themselves will be required to show their preference for the kind of program that they desire. The agents in each of the five districts into which the State is divided for extension work have selected a representative and will send him a list of the subjects and problems which they want to have discussed. These five representatives will then meet with the regular program committee on November 14 when the complete program for the ten day session will be prepared.

It is expected that this will be one of the most interesting and valuable meetings of the agents to be held in

One million members of forty different nationalities all wearing the white ribbon bow, the emblem of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, this is the organization which will hold its eleventh world-wide convention at Philadelphia, November 11-16 in the Academy of Music.

World W. C. T. U. workers from Burma, Korea, China, Japan, Ceylon, Turkey, Palestine, Egypt, Iceland, Canada, Belgium, Germany, France, Greece, Switzerland, Italy, and many other countries, will report on the work now being carried on and the progress of the prohibition and temperance movements in their respective countries.

Something of the distinction and importance of the work of the World's W. C. T. U. is indicated by the noted women who have served as presidents of the organization. Margaret Bright Lucas, the first president, was the sister of John Bright, England's renowned premier. The second was Frances E. Willard, who was succeeded by Lady Henry Somerset and by Rosalind, countess of Carlisle. Miss Anna A. Gordon of Evanston, president of the National and vice president of the World's W. C. T. U., has been acting president since the death of the countess of Carlisle in the summer of 1921.

Miss Gordon will preside at the convention and will also give an account of her recent trip to Mexico in the interests of the prohibition movement. There she learned that the anti-alcohol movement is not confined to the missionary interests, but that President Obregon and other government officials, as well as leading senators and educational authorities, are preparing to take definite steps to rid Mexico of the liquor traffic. It is expected that a measure aimed to do away with the pulque industry will be introduced in congress within a few months.

The other general officers of the World's W. C. T. U. are Miss Agnes M. Slack of England and Mrs. Blanche Johnston of Canada, honorary secretaries, and Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn, N. Y., honorary treasurer.

One of the striking features of the convention will be the exhibition of the Polyglot petition, written by Frances E. Willard about a year after the formation of the organization and circulated in many countries over the globe. The total number of signatures so far aggregate seven and one-half million. Some are in Chinese characters, Burmese, Kanaka, Spanish, English—in fact nearly every tongue is represented.

The World's W. C. T. U. has held ten conventions, four in the United States, one in Canada, two in England, two in Scotland, and one in Geneva, Switzerland.

The National W. C. T. U. convention will be held following the world's meeting, in Philadelphia, November 16-19.

recent years because of the many problems now before the agricultural workers of the state. The boll weevil and cooperative marketing together with the renewed interest in livestock and poultry, will all present problems that must have an outline of work agreed on for the coming year. Director Kilgore expects about 65 farm demonstration and 50 home demonstration agents in addition to a number of extension specialists from the United States Department of Agriculture to be present in Raleigh during this conference.

"THE KING CLOTHIER"

Current Business Conditions

By GEORGE E. ROBERTS

(From the Monthly Bulletin for November Issued by The National City Bank of New York)

ADVANCES in grain, dairy products, that have been moving out in the past year. European conditions have been the cloud upon the horizon ever since the war, and two opinions have been held about the probable influence of Europe upon our prosperity. One has been that European purchases probably would decline because of Europe's inability to make payments, and that we could not hope for normal conditions in this country without recovery in Europe; the other has been that Europe must of necessity take our principal agricultural products in at least as large quantities as before the war, because of Russia's disappearance as an exporter, and that beyond this the United States was sufficiently self-contained to get along very well without Europe.

Industry and Trade
The industries are generally active, with employment practically full and wages continuing to come into line on the higher level established in September. In all lines of manufacturing raw materials have been advancing, and efforts are being made to secure corresponding advances in finished products, but they meet with no little opposition. Advances in wool, cotton and silk have forced manufacturers to mark up cloths, but although the dealers yield a grudging consent, goods lag behind the materials. Consumption of cotton by the mills in September was 495,344 running bales against 527,404 in August and 484,718 in September, 1921.

Cotton Market Outlook
The weather has been favorable to making the most of the possibilities for the cotton crop; but the yield cannot be expected to be much above the government's last estimate of 10,315,000 bales. The carry-over stock in this country was 2,838,000 bales, which would make the available supply a little over 13,000,000 bales. Consumption and exports in the last crop year were about 12,200,000 bales. Domestic consumption is running ahead of last year, but exports are falling behind. Foreign stocks, however, are light, and world consumption in 1922 has been well above that of 1921. Evidently everything depends upon the European political and industrial situation. If the consumption of cotton goods is anything like normal there will be a shortage of raw cotton. In view of these conditions the market has been strong, rising above 24 cents per pound.

At this price the crop will bring more than the average return to the South and affords the basis for good business in that territory for the ensuing year.
Hogs are down a little from last month's prices, but all live stock is on a much more satisfactory basis than a year ago. John C. & Co., Chicago, one of the leading live stock commission firms, makes the following statement as showing the improvement over a year ago:

	October	October	Percent
	21,192	21,191	Advance
Top steers	$13.55	$9.60	41.1
Top yearlings	13.00	11.25	15.5
Top cattle	8.00	6.75	18.8
Top hogs	17.5	15.25	15.1
Top lambs	14.60	12.75	14.5
Feeder lambs	14.75	12.75	15.0
Corn (cash)	71.4	67.5	5.8

Europe As a Factor
Conditions in this country are favorable to a continuing volume of business practically to the limit of our labor supply and transportation facilities, as long as foreign markets will take the quantities of our products, particularly farm loans have been granted to Europe, but once the credits are granted they enter into the international settlements and there is no knowing how they will be used. As none of these credits were transferred in the form of money it is certain that they were used for payments within the country, and counted in settlement of our favorable trade balance.

In addition to the credits created by loans publicly floated in this country, and credits granted for the purchase of merchandise, an important amount of credits has been created since the war by the sale of property interests in this country of various kinds by foreign owners.
Finally, we have imported on balance large amounts of gold in the last two years, which have counted in settlement of our favorable merchandise balance. Our net imports of gold in the calendar year 1921 were $67,000,000.

These credits, created in various ways, although of unequal amounts, are sufficiently definite to indicate how our exports have been maintained. The history of the years since the war does not disprove the contention that Europe did not have within herself the resources with which to maintain her normal purchases in this country, and that credits would have to be granted.
Our Interest in Europe
And so, looking to the future at this time, it will not do to simply say that Europe must have the usual quantities of our products. Undoubtedly they are needed, but they will not be taken unless settlement can be made in some way, as heretofore.

Although gold will continue to come to us, it is to be considered that much of the gold that we have been receiving has come originally from the reserves of Russia, and that of these no great amount remains. We will get a large part of the new production, and, of course, if all other resources are exhausted, the reserves of Europe may be drawn upon for necessary food supplies, but the exhaustion of European gold reserves will not be something for us to view with equanimity.

We do not offer this discussion for the purpose of suggesting that European purchases are about to decline. We do not think they are; we expect to see Europe buy largely of our grain, meat and other products throughout this crop year, although restricting purchases as much as possible. It is important, however, for us to realize that the situation is not normal in the sense that our foreign trade is in balance and can go on in the present way indefinitely. The fact is that our exports have been financed by extraordinary means. The sale of marks in this country has been as much a makeshift for us in financing our exports as for Germany in financing her imports.
We are not independent of Europe. It would be a very serious matter to us to have its purchases from us decline in a considerable degree. We are interested that political and industrial conditions over there shall be upon a settled and permanent basis. There is reason to believe that in many respects industrial conditions have made substantial improvement in the last three years, but the reparations question is still in the way of the reorganization of European finances on a sound basis. That the recent postponement of the payments to Belgium is not accepted as assuring a final settlement is evident from the further decline of the mark, now valued at about 4,500 to the dollar.

In Honor Brides-to-Be. Miss Pauline Skinner entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening from 8 to 11 in honor of Miss Mahala Meekins and Miss Fannie Owens, whose marriages will take place this month. The Skinner home on North Road street was artistically decorated in ferns, yellow and white chrysanthemums and shaded lights. The prize for the highest score was awarded Miss Mae Fearing, and the guests of honor, Misses Meekins and Owens, were presented beautiful silk hose. Delicious refreshments, including chicken salad, olive, pickles, cheese paddies, beaten biscuit, wafers, sandwiches, tea, ice cream, cakes and mints were served. While the favors were being presented the guests the door bell rang and little Miss Martha Skinner of Suffolk entered with a letter for Miss Fannie Owens, which when read announced the approaching wedding of another guest, Miss Willie Jackson, to Mr. Wilbert Whitehurst, on November 22. Those present were: Misses Fannie Owens, Mahala Meekins, Mae Fearing, Mattie Weatherly, Lescelles Griffin, Dorothy Gregory, Eloise Cohoon, Olive Aydt, Maude Moss, Eva McMullan, Dorothy Scott, Katharine Pinner, Marguerite LeRoy, Olive Wood, Nanie Mae Long, Maude Palmer Virginia Flora, Mabel Bright, Willie Jackson, Oso Kiser, Frances Purvis, Minna Pickard, Lou Shine, Eoline Monroe, Winnie Boseman, Alice Brockwell Mrs. L. The hostess was assisted in serving by Misses Mary Owens, Vivian Belanga, Mary Louise Skinner, Majorie Skinner, Mrs. J. T. Stallings and Mrs. L. E. Skinner.—Elizabeth City Advocate.

The announcement of Miss Jackson's wedding will be read with interest by her many friends in this city: She is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Jackson and is one of Greenville most attractive young ladies. She received her education at the Eastern Carolina Teachers' College and has taught in the Elizabeth City schools for the past few years. She is very popular throughout the State.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Greenville. No Greenville resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony. J. Frank Brinkley, prop. warehouse, 1100 Chestnut St., Greenville, gave the following statement May 29, 1918: "Bending over had a tendency to weaken my kidneys and put my back in bad shape as my business required me to do this a lot. I could hardly straighten after bending. My kidneys were irregular in action and the secretions were highly colored. I was down and out and had no ambition to do anything. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved the backache and regulated my kidneys, making me feel better."

On November 14, 1921, Mr. Brinkley confirmed the above statement by saying: "For the past several years I have been feeling fine. I am glad to confirm my former statement praising Doan's."

FORGET-ME-NOT DRIVE IS A HUGE SUCCESS

Saturday's Collections at Oteen and Asheville for Benefit of Disabled Reached Almost $1,000.
The "Forget-Me-Not" day drive for funds for the benefit of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War at Asheville and Oteen reached results far exceeding the expectations of those interested. The net results so far aggregates almost $1,000 while Hendersonville has not been heard from, and several other contributions it is known are to be made. The final net result, is confidently expected to reach considerably more than $1,000. The committee in charge of the drive at Oteen has issued the following statement with reference to the work, giving credit to those who have been instrumental in making the campaign a great success:
The committee on "Forget-Me-Not" day, desires to express in behalf of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War and Oteen chapter No. 3, its sincere appreciation for the co-operation and able assistance rendered this drive by the good people interested and taking part in this program; also to thank the public for its liberal and generous response.—Oteen Echo.

DIRECTORS OF KIWANIS CLUB MET LAST NIGHT AT HOME DR. L. C. SKINNER

The directors of the local Kiwanis Club held their regular monthly meeting last night, at which time they were the guests of Dr. L. C. Skinner at his home on Washington street. There were only two members of the club's official body absent. This enabled the director to dispose of several matters of vital importance to both the club and the city. There were several recommendations made at last night's session pertaining to questions for the betterment of Greenville. A majority of these will very likely be brought before the Kiwanis Club, and then presented to the city aldermen. A committee has already been named to meet with the city fathers at their next session.

Demand Was Great.

Mr. W. T. Bryan, of the Greenville Storage Battery Co., who is conducting the radio exhibition at the local fair stated today that the demand for radio sets at their booth last night was greater than they could have possibly supplied. This was due to an error that appeared in their advertisement in yesterday's issue of this paper. The price should have been $75.00 per set and up, but the printer made it $7.50.

MR. CROW RETURNS FROM SHOE CENTERS OF WEST

Mr. R. L. Crow, of the Pitt Shoe Company, has returned to the city after spending about ten days among the shoe centers of the west and north. Mr. Crow states that his purchases included practically everything that is new in footwear for both men and women. These goods are now arriving at their store, and styles already received are very attractive.

"AUNT ALICE" IS TEST OF G. O. P. IN OKLAHOMA

(By International News)

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 7.—

One of the principal questions lurking in the minds of politicians of the Southwest since members of congress at Washington "pulled stakes" several weeks ago will be answered when Oklahoma's step in the polls in a few days to decide whether Miss "Aunt" Alice Robertson, of Muskogee, Republican congresswoman, will be among those occupying seats in the House of Representatives when the Sixty-eighth congress convenes. "Aunt Alice" is a candidate to succeed herself in the Second District.

An enthusiastic supporter of the Harding administration since first "rubbing elbows" with fellow congressmen, Aunt Alice's political fate will be a potential indicator as to whether or not Oklahomans are pleased or dissatisfied with the present regime at Washington.

Political Barometer.

In the event that Aunt Alice is re-elected the record of the Harding administration will have been completely indorsed, political wiseacres agree, while on the other hand her defeat will be a severe slap at President Harding and his advisory "family."

This venerable congress woman, who for the last two years, has been the only one of her sex in congress, has as her opponent W. W. Hastings Democrat, of Tahlequah. His campaign has been waged with frequent verbal "potshots" at the recently enacted tariff law. Hastings also endorsed the policies of Woodrow Wilson, it is said, in his speeches.

No senators will be elected in the State this fall.

The gubernatorial race has well-nigh equalled in interest the national issues. It has become one of the most heated campaigns in the history of the State. Championing the cause of farmer-labor organizations, which are similar in many respects to North Dakota's Non-Partisan League, Mayor J. C. ("Jack") Walton, of this city, has campaigned intensively to capture the gubernatorial honors, on the Democratic ticket. Arrayed against him is John Fields, editor of the Oklahoma Farmer, who won the Republican nomination.

Fields Attacks Walton.

Fields, in his campaign, has dealt almost entirely with straight State issues and in his speeches, it is said spasmodically attacked the contemplated plans of Mayor Walton, declaring they were "pure socialism."

Numerous bank failures—upward of sixty, according to records of the State Banking Department—throughout the State within the past two years have caused unprecedented arm over the banking question. This is but one of several tangled issues which voters of Oklahoma will endeavor to untwist when they advance to the polls.

All in all, the dopters are quite chary with their predictions as to who will be the State's next Chief Executive.

CHINESE "PUT ONE OVER" JAPANESE

Tribute Demanded When Citizen is Kidnapped While in Shantung City

Peking, Nov.—China turned the tables on Japan when she exacted tribute for the depredations of Japanese bandits in the territory of Shantung, still controlled by Japan. A Chinese citizen had been bodily kidnapped while walking in the streets of Ts'ntao and held for ransom. The case was particularly embarrassing to Japan, as she had only recently presented a brief concerning the abuse of Chinese bandits in the rest of the province as indicative of the impracticability of returning the entire territory. She had also lodged numerous protests and demands for indemnity, while her representatives at the Shantung Conference extolled her ability to maintain law and order.

The bandits meanwhile continue operations. In their methods they have been compared to the Paris "apaches" and are described as small, determined men, with an excellent knowledge of both firearms and jujitsu and not averse to using other. They are also reported to have shown marked superiority to their Chinese contemporaries and make the city their headquarters, disdaining the usual mountain fastnesses.

The kidnapping case created sensation, particularly as the victim was the managing director of the Tsinan Electric Light Works, a company of some importance. The Chinese in Tsingtao united in their protests to the Japanese authorities while the Chinese Chamber of Commons added its voice and threatened that unless its countryman was released at once, it would close all the Chinese business houses in Tsingtao and withdraw completely.

The Peking Government protested through the Shantung Commissioner, Dr. C. T. Wang, and the case was further presented to the Japanese Government through the Foreign Office at Peking. Eventually the efforts of the Japanese police became so determined that the kidnapers released their victim without ransom, and he returned to Tsinan none the worse for four weeks captivity. He said that his treatment had been considerate, but that he especially disliked being forced to eat Japanese food.
