RECORD CROWDS STILL ATTENDING THE COUNTY FAIR

Thousands Again Swarmed Fair Grounds Yesterday Afternoon and Last Night

FAST HORSE RACES PROVE PRINCIPAL EVENT OF THE DAY

Fireworks and Midway Attractions Prove Drawing Cards During the Evening

Another tremendous crowd thronged the Pitt county fair grounds yesterday and last night and enjoyed a program equally as good if not better than any previous day of the third annual exposition. The attendance is expected to continue above the average both today and Saturday when the great attraction will be brought to an end.

Saturday will be a big day at the fair as it is on this day that the only automobile races of the week will be held. Entrants are coming in today and will be in readiness when the races are called at two o'clock. Tomorrow night another battle of the Argonne will be staged. This display will be one of the most elaborate and complete of the week and it is expected it will be witnessed by thousands. There will also be a football game between Greenville and Vanceboro at three o'clock.

The crowd yesterday afternoon was entertained by some of the fastest horse racing ever seen on the local track. The program was so varied that it was not completed until about five o'clock when the last horses cleared the track and brought to an end the highly exciting event.

The fair this year from the standpoint of exhibits cannot be surpassed by any other in the state. Never before have Pitt county people had an opportunity of witnessing such thoroughbred live stock and exhibits of the farm. The poultry display this year surpasses anything in history of the county. This building is filled completely with the finest kind of chickens, embracing almost every kind imaginable.

In the live stock building may be found one of the most extensive and complete exhibits of hogs in eastern North Carolina. Practically every important farm in this part of the country is represented in a way that has elicited expressions of surprise and commendation from thousands of sightseers attending the fair.

The display of farm products and machinery is more extensive this year than anyone had any idea it could possibly be. There is nothing necessary to success of the farm that is not on display, and growers who have thronged the grounds in large numbers from day to day have had an opportunity of getting the latest ideas in this direction.

The floral hall contains far more exhibits than the first two years of the fair. Many firms of the city are represented and their booth portray the spirit of thrift behind each organization. In this hall the ladies of the county have provided their very best in fancy work of every description, and the sightseer never wearies of passing up and down the line gazing upon the products of the thrifty.

Attractions along midway are more numerous than they have ever been before. In fact, midway itself is almost twice as large as last year and extends from the main entrance to the stable at the other end of the grounds. Carnival attractions were never as numerous, and there are so many that the throngs never tire of passing up and down the grounds.

The crowds at night have been almost as large as in the day. Elaborate display of fireworks are largely responsible for this splendid attendance, while on the other hand, numbers attend to get the best of the varied amusements offered by the large carnival playing midway.

Columns of space would be necessary to enumerate the many features that have made the fair such a great success this year. But those who have attended don't need to read of Vic Donahay, Democratic candidate for governor, appears on the face of early returns to have been elected in Ohio.

PLAN TO CHANGE VOLSTEAD RULING ON LIGHT WINES

With Both Drys and Wets Claiming Victory Interest Turns Probable Modification

Washington, Nov. 10.—The political complexion of the next congress having been definitely established, interest turned today on the probable line-up of the question of modification of the Prohibition Enforcement laws. Both the "dry and wets" were claiming a victory as a result of Tuesday's elections.

For the Anti-Saloon League, Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel, said the wets would not have as many votes by three at least, in the Senate as heretofore, and that their strength in the House would not exceed 140 or 78 less than a majority.

On the other hand, the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment through G. C. Hinkley, its general secretary claims a gain of 80 "liberal" votes in the House, which it was asserted, would give actual control of that body to the modificationists.

"The pronounced increase in the 'wet' membership," said Mr. Hinkley's statement, "reads highly probable the passage of liberal legislation in the next session of congress that will strike the first blow at the more stringent provisions of the Volstead act." "Involved in this view, is a consideration of the change in headships of the powerful committees in the House. The defeat of Andrews J. Volstead, of Minnesota, removed the author of the objectionable prohibition enforcement act from the chairmanship of the House Judiciary committee, giving the place over to Representative Graham of Pennsylvania, an avowed 'wet'."

"The passing of Mondell, likewise the majority leadership on the floor either to Representative Longworth, of Ohio, or Representative Mann, of Illinois, both re-elected, and both having been endorsed by the Association because of their attitude on the prohibition issue."

Mr. Wheeler, in his statement, declared that the claims of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment of a gain of 80 votes in the next house is "like the foam on a glass of beer"—nothing substantial to it. "Just what the program of attack on the Volstead law will be has not yet been fully developed, but is expected to be a straight out proposition for the sale of light wines and beer. That proposal was put forward in connection with the soldiers Bonus bill at the last session but never received serious consideration."

it, as they have seen, and seeing is believing. The fair will continue success this year. But those who have attended don't need to read of

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE OBSERVED HERE TOMORROW

Pitt County Post of American Legion to Enjoy Barbecue at Forbes & Morton Warehouse

BANKS AND OTHER OTHER INSTITUTIONS TO OBSERVE THE DAY

There Will be no General Closing of Stores and Other Business Houses

Armistice day will be quietly observed in Greenville tomorrow by the Pitt county Post of the American Legion. There will be no general closing of stores and other business houses as in recent years because of the fact that the day comes on Saturday, but banks, the court house, postoffice and other public institutions will close, it is understood.

Members of the legion will gather at Forbes & Morton's warehouse promptly at 12 o'clock where they will be served a delightful barbecue dinner. There will be no set speeches, but many members of the post will be called upon to express themselves concerning Armistice Day. Members of the Woman's auxiliary will take part in the meeting.

All legionnaires are urged to attend this meeting, as it is important that the signing of the armistice be observed in proper form. A general good time is assured and those in charge of the program are hopeful that every member of the post will be present.

DEVEREAUX WILL APPEAR IN THE CITY MONDAY, DEC. 4

Company of Artists to Present Romeo and Juliet at High School Auditorium

Rarely has the opportunity been given, such as is being offered by Clifford Devereaux and his Company of Artists which opens a one day engagement at the High School auditorium Monday, Dec. 4th. Mr. Devereaux is now on his eighth annual tour and is playing the classics which have taken a place among the finest of the world's literature. The repertoire will be, Romeo and Juliet and "Arms and the Mars" by George Bernard Shaw.

In presenting these plays Mr. Devereaux has sought to bring them to you in their right atmosphere and to give them the fine interpretations which they deserve. Many people have read and studied them in school or college, but they can never be so appreciated as they will be, after Mr. Devereaux's production of them has been witnessed. It is with lofty ideals, a wide outlook, a deep understanding, and a sympathetic insight that he has approached these masters, and taken from them all their richness, their unfathomable cleverness, their scintillating brilliance, and their unmatched genius. The qualities of the plays are made apparent and all their phases revealed through methods of unsurpassable reasonableness and convincing authority. Thus to the student of literature and to the lover of the finest of dramatic art, these performances will come as a boon, for in a series of imposing scenes the life of the century with its picturesque manners and customs, is drawn with graphic vividness.

Company—Act II. The Clifford Devereaux Company who are to appear playing the best examples of the world's greatest dramatic authors have established a reputation as the foremost exponents of really and only worth-while drama, and proving that the highest degree of popular enjoyment and educational value are possible at one time.

The cathedral of Metz is installing a chime of sixty porcelain bells. It is said that the tone of the bells is very pleasing, and that the bells are very strong.

DEMOCRATS PLAN POWER IN HOUSE; REPUBLICANS LOSE

Republican Majority in the House is Paraded Down to Only Fifteen

LYNN FRAZIER IS FINALLY ELECTED IN NORTH DAKOTA

Frazier's Victory Considered Slight Upset to Democratic Party

Chicago, Nov. 9.—A continuation of Republican control in congress, but with a majority of 165 in the House slashed to 15 and a Senate majority cut in two, was assured tonight by practically complete, but unofficial reports from last Tuesday's election.

Close races and belated returns left the exact majorities in doubt, but on the face of tabulated returns tonight the Sixty-Eighth House of Representatives will be composed of 225 Republicans, 207 Democrats, one Socialist, one Farmer-Labor and one Independent.

The Senatorial contests, late returns on which indicated the election of Lynn J. Frazier, recalled Non-Partisan League Governor in North Dakota and the victory of Clarence C. Dill, Democrat, in Washington, did not change the general complexion of the upper House.

These returns forecast that the next Senate would have fifty-three Republicans, a loss of seven, forty-two Democrats and one Farmer-Labor Senator from Minnesota.

In Washington Senatorial race, returns from 2,804 precincts out of the 2,450 in the state gave Dill 127,597 and Miles Poindexter, Republican incumbent, 128,217.

The victory of Frazier, Republican in North Dakota, was conceded late today by T. G. Nelson, state Secretary of the Independent voters' Association, supporting J. F. T. O'Connor, Democrat, Frazier's opponent.

Retention of Republican majorities in both the Senate and House was declared to be "very gratifying" in a statement issued by John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National committee.

Mr. Adams attributed the outcome of the election to unrest following the world war, an unusual prominence in local issues over national issues, the use of "fake issues" to befog the general situation and a tendency of a large class of people to vote for a change in "off years."

"Discontent looking for a sacrifice," was the way Governor H. J. Allen, of Kansas, analyzed the election results.

GREENVILLE TIGERS TO PLAY VANCEBORO AT FAIR SATURDAY

Game Will Be Called Tomorrow Afternoon Promptly at Three O'clock

One of the feature attractions of the fair tomorrow afternoon will be the football game between the Greenville Tigers and Vanceboro. The game will be called promptly at three o'clock, and will be witnessed by the largest crowd of the entire season.

Coach Duncan stated today that his men were in fine trim for the contest and are confident of coming out victorious. Vanceboro, however, is a foe to be reckoned with and the battle no doubt will be the most stubbornly contested of the season. Two regular members of the local club will not be in the game because of their studies in the high school. While this will weaken the team to no little extent it is believed the subs will fill the position with credit to themselves and team.

The lineup of the local club follows: Foley, l. e.; Humber, l. t.; Smith, l. g.; Williams, c.; Skinner, r. g.; W. Evans, r. t.; Winslow, r. c.; G. Evans or Mayo, l. b.; Hardee, l. h. b. Forbes or Jenkins, r. h. b.; Brown, t. b.

"LIGHTNIN'" WILL PLAY GREENVILLE TUESDAY, NOV. 26

Interesting Play to Appear Here for One Night's Engagement Only

The company that will introduce "Lightnin'" to this city at White's theatre on Tuesday evening, November 21, comes direct from a series of theatres composing the so-called "subway circuit." The organization is headed by Milton Nobles, Stuart Fox and several other players who frequently appeared at the Gaiety theatre during the long Broadway run and it was formed especially for the playhouses in the residential sections of New York and for a London engagement next spring. In the interim Cleveland, Pittsburg, Cincinnati and a few other important cities will be visited.

John Golden has steadfastly refused to organize any other duplicate companies to tour the country in "Lightnin'" and except for the few cities that are fortunate enough to see this cast before it is sent to London, there will be no road engagements for another year, at least. In the few cities where the record-smasher has been presented almost as many have been turned away as have been able to gain admittance to the theaters and it is distinctly advisable that seats be secured well in advance.

PROHIBITION MAY AGAIN FURNISH ARGUMENT IN CAMPAIGN NEXT YEAR

Washington, Nov. 10.—Politicians here are peering into the future to discern probable issues in 1924. It is agreed that prohibition in a fair way will become the chief argument. It seems probable however that anything will be done to change the Volstead law. There is strong hope of forcing a moist plank in the platforms of both parties within the next two years.

EAMONN DEVALERA HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM CAPTURE AGAIN

London, Nov. 10.—Eamonn DeValera, leader of the Irish irregulars, had a second narrow escape from capture at Wicklow. Arskine Childers, chief aide to DeValera, was captured Lowerver.

STAGE SET FOR ENDING OF PAY UP EVENT TODAY

M. K. Blount to Deliver Principal Address This Afternoon at Four O'clock

RECEIPT BOXES TO BE CLOSED PROMPTLY AT THREE O'CLOCK

Drawing to Take Place at Hoghead is Rolled Down to Five Points at 4 O'clock

Arrangements have been completed for the closing of "Pay Up and Trade Weeks" campaign in this city today, and indications point to one of the most successful occasions in years. Hundreds of people were busily engaged depositing their receipts in the various boxes this morning, and it was believed by members of the Merchants Association that the last minute rush would not be as great as in former years when the public had not learned the value of making their deposits before the last day.

Only one change has been made in the final ceremonies attending the closing. It was announced that Judge Frank M. Wooten would deliver the final address, but on account of his absence Attorney M. K. Blount has been selected to fill this part of the program. There will be no other changes so far as known up to the noon hour and everything is expected to pass off smoothly.

Receipt boxes will be closed promptly at three o'clock and those receiving receipts shortly before this hour are urged to go immediately to the boxes and make their deposits. Everyone is urged to do this as early as possible after the boxes are given them, as this will do much towards relieving the last minute rush.

Immediately after the boxes are closed the receipts will be placed in a large hoghead and rolled down Evans street from the court house to Five Points. After this is over Mr. Blount will tell of what the trade event has meant to the public and the merchants.

One man from each township will take charge of the hoghead after the receipts have been placed in it and the top has been sealed to the satisfaction of everyone. This committee will then conduct the drawing in the best way possible.

Little Laura Ball Hudler will draw the lucky receipts from the hoghead and as she does so the names of the lucky ones will be announced by the judges. There are numbers of valuable premiums to be given away and it is expected largest crowd in years will throng Five Points to witness the final ceremonies.

LASKER BILL MAY PASS HOUSE DURING DECEMBER

Washington, Nov. 10.—The Harding-Lasker bill providing for the maintenance of the merchant marine will probably pass the house before the month of December if taken up at the beginning of the session, congressional leaders agreed today.

Opponents of the bill declared it will not pass the senate in such short time.

LADD SAYS PEOPLE HAVE REVOLTED AGAINST REPUBLICAN POLITICS

Washington, Nov. 10.—The amazing extent of the swing from the Republican old guard is construed by Senator Ladd, non-partisan Republican, of North Dakota, as an unmistakable revolt of the people against the existing order of politics, government and a sure forerunner of a progressive revival.

CAPTAIN MAYNARD FOUND NOT GUILTY

Tampa, Nov. 10.—Captain W. Maynard, former commandant of Carlston Field, Arcadia, charged with defrauding the government, was found not guilty in preliminary hearing today. The government has asked for a new trial for the defense immediately.

WOODROW WILSON MAY AGAIN LEAD THE DEMOCRATS

Former President May Emerge From His Retirement to Assume Leadership of Party

(By International News.) Washington, Nov. 10.—Woodrow Wilson, who was cast into political obscurity two years ago by the Republican landslide, may emerge from his retirement again soon to assume command of the Democratic party.

This has been suggested in political circles sometime, but did not become vident until the Democrats found themselves without a leader, despite sweeping gains in the recent election.

The former president has firmly declined to express his intentions or aspirations, but it is believed something definite will be brought out in a short while.

THOUSANDS SLAIN BY RUTHLESS TURK IN SMYRNA SECTION

Four Thousand Christians Killed and Several Thousand Missing, According to Report

(By International News.) Smyrna, Nov. 10.—Four thousand Armenian Christians have been killed at Smyrna and eight thousand others are missing, according to a report of committee of bishops investigating the plight. The Armenian financial loss alone is estimated at eighteen million dollars.

Following a cabinet meeting today, General Harrington, British commandant at Constantinople, was instructed that unless the Turks change their attitude, that the Allies must immediately take drastic civil and military control. The troops have already empowered to co-operate for the declaration of martial law.

Overnight advices from the Near East indicated that the situation is clearing up somewhat, but after the cabinet meeting it was stated that the situation had become more serious and threatening.

ARMISTICE DAY.

Tomorrow is Armistice Day and Greenville and all other towns will join in celebrating the occasion.

Armistice Day has a peculiar significance to the American people.
Everyone will recall the thrill that passed through their hearts when word was flashed from overseas that firing had ceased and that the millions of armed men had laid down their arms until peace terms could be arranged.

Suppose the firing had not ceased when it did? Suppose our boys had continued their advance against the heartless German foe? What would have been the result? Why, thousands would have sacrificed their lives that civilization might be saved and the bloody carnage would have continued without abatement. Let us then join in observing this great day by taking part in whatever exercises of so many of our boys returned home safely and were not forced to remain and sacrifice their lives in such great numbers.

We have given much that the world
might be saved from Germany autocracy, but let us be thankful that we were not called upon to sacrifice more. The best time to express this is on Armistice Day.

Republicans who have been making so many claims about the way the people would vote probably haven't enough life left to make further predictions.

The Republican party has been virtually wiped out in North Carolina judging by the vote in the recent election. This is the best indication in the world that people are returning to normal.

That spirit of unrest which resulted in such a Republican landslide in the last presidential election has subsided and the future will be more like old times. The Democrats may have shortcomings like all other good people but the masses like them—
that's a dead cinch.

After the Democrats have shown their strength in such a plain way it is probable President Harding may feel rather doubtful concerning his chances of a second administration.
He may be endeavoring to serve efficiently and faithfully, but it's democracy the people want and that represents both and then some.

Potato storage warehouses will do more to prevent our farmers from sustaining enormous losses than any other one thing. The county has only one or two warehouses of the kind, but others will be necessary if the crop is to be properly preserved. Considerable money will be necessary to erect the buildings, but the annual savings will soon pay for them.

The proposed curb market for Greenville should be established at the earliest moment possible. There is nothing in which the house wife is more directly interested and everyone should use their influence to see that the market is made a reality.
Other eastern North Carolina towns have found this kind of market satisfactory and there is no reason on earth why Greenville shouldn't find it equally so. There is nothing like experience, and it has proven wonderfully effective to other people.

Community fairs are doing much to establish a progressive spirit among the rural populations of the south and the outlook for development along many lines is very bright indeed.
Pitt county has had its share of community fairs the last two years.
The people in all communities have exhibited much pride in their products and will strive harder than ever for success. The fair not only creates an interest in the production of better crops, better home and improved living, but tends to bring the people together in closer co-operation.
This fact in itself means great things for the various communities in which the fairs are held and means great things to every branch of industry.

The Pitt County Fair is one of the best in North Carolina and our people have cause to be proud of the hundreds of fine exhibits showing the thrifty, enterprising spirit of our citizenship. Every department is representative of the section and demonstrates to the outside world what a great people are capable of doing through organized effort such as has featured the exposition. Three years have brought about wonderful changes for every department of the fair. If the next three years witness as great development, then we will have the greatest fair in the south. It is gratifying to note the people are supporting their fair in such great style. It bodes a great future indeed.

NO MERCHANT SERVES THE PUBLIC AS MANY HOURS PER DAY AS THE DRUGGIST NOW

public as many hours each day as the public a many hours each day as the druggist. Late in the evening there may come the urgent necessity for a certain kind of drug. A physician is working perhaps to save the life of some person in a critical condition. Where could he get the drugs he absolutely must have to make his work effective if it were not for the drug stores? Almost as much a necessity as the skilled physician himself is the skilled pharmacist back of him ready to deliver fresh, accurate materials used by the physician in combating disease.

One can see at a glance that these emergency calls are of no great degree of frequency. The profit on them would be small—not enough to pay the light bill for one evening. So the druggist must sell you other things you need in order that he may be able to maintain the sort of business to which you will possibly turn some day when it is actually a question of life and death.

Your druggist is more than a merchant.

LEONARD TO DELIVER PRINCIPAL ADDRESS TO AYDEN MERCHANTS

Mr. J. Paul Leonard, secretary of the North Carolina Merchants Association, will deliver the principal address at a banquet and general get-together meeting of the Ayden Merchants association to be held at the Hotel Beverly tonight. The occasion promises to be one of the most auspicious in history of the Ayden organization and preparations have been very elaborate.

Mrs. Maude Lee, president and Mrs. Alex Viola, secretary, of the Greenville Merchants association, will attend as representatives of the local body. Other towns will also be well represented and their speakers will tell of the development of business in the various communities.

LOCAL DOKIES RETURN FROM ROCKY MOUNT

Local members of the D. O. O. K. a branch of the order of the Knights of Pythias, have returned from Rocky Mount where they attended the formal institution of Zeta Temple No. 248. It is stated that 125 candidates were initiated into mysteries of the organization and several hundred visitors attended. Exercises were conducted under the direction of Nat. White, Imperial representative of Zeta Temple of Charlotte. Greenville is one of the strongest Dokie towns in the state and local delegates commanded considerable attention while in Rocky Mount.

OLD KING COTTON MOUNTS HIGHER HERE

"Old king cotton" rose to the greatest height of the year on the local market today when 26 cents straight was offered. The market yesterday paid 23 1/2 cents per pound. Prices have fluctuated considerably the last several days, but this is the first time such a high mark has been reached. With continued favorable conditions it is likely marketing will be rather lively the next several days.

Attracting Good Crowds.

The auction sales being conducted at Opleman's are attracting good crowds notwithstanding the fact that at present there are many other attractions in the city. Mr. Burton, the manager states that the sales will continue next week, and that tomorrow night will be one of the big nights when three of the best prizes yet offered will be given away.

DOG IS MOVIE FAN; WEEPS REAL TEARS

Regular Patron at Theatre in Los Angeles — Likes Auto Rides, Too

(By International News.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov.—If being a motion picture fan is any human thing, Dodie, a Spitz-Malamute, is more than an ordinary dog. Three or four evenings a week Dodie leaves her peaceful home in Sixty-seventh street and goes down to one of the neighboring cinema theatres where she climbs into a seat and sits until the last of the performance is over. Managers of the moving picture theatres have found it necessary to try to keep Dodie away, but if not allowed to enter through the front she usually sneaks in through a side or back entrance.

Once seated, Dodie never makes a sound, no matter how long it takes a hero to thrash the villain, or how excited the audience may become.

Thus far Dodie has developed no special taste for actor or actresses or types of picture. Rudolph Valentino's osculatory department is no more of an attraction to her than Theodore Roberts, and she goes to the show whether it is a "slapstick" comedy, farce or tragedy that is on the programme.

THE RIGHT WAY TO KILL GERMS

Here is a powerful and recognized disinfectant which kills the germs.

Is your cellar sanitary? Germs will multiply by the million overnight, in a damp, musty cellar. Make a solution of Red Seal Lye and sprinkle into all the dark corners, and all mustiness will immediately disappear, leaving your cellar fresh and sweet smelling.

If your kitchen sink does not drain quickly, here is an immediate remedy. Sift a little Red Seal Lye into the pipes. The lye will combine with the grease and dirt, forming a solution which will be carried off quickly by the water, leaving the pipes free and clean.

Housewives may save money by making their own soap. All that is needed is one can of Red Seal Lye and a quantity of waste grease or fat, such as would ordinarily be thrown away. The one can will make twenty cakes of pure soap at less than one cent per cake. See how quickly and easily Red Seal Lye will clean the wash-stand, tub or closet bowl.

Red Seal Lye is put up in handy round cans. It contains no filler or adulterations. It is absolutely pure.

Send for the Red Seal Booklet which contains many recipes and uses of the famous Red Seal Lye. Write today. Ask your dealer for the old reliable Red Seal Lye. Take no other.

DRY HOLIDAY FOR HOLIDAYS 1922

If Spirits Haven't Been Stored There is Little Chance of It Being Bought

Washington, Nov. 10—If you have not already supplied yourself with holiday "spirits," then you may as well reconcile yourself to the thought of eating your Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners without any stomach-warming appetizer containing more than the much-abused one-half of one per cent.

Perhaps the reader will give vent to a little snicker of disbelief as he lovingly fondles a card in his pocket bearing the latest quotations of his favorite bootlegger.

But real honest-to-goodness liquor will be more scarce this holiday season than foot-warmers in the tropics, according to prohibition officials here.

Oh, yes, they ingenuitly admit, there are the kind that unscrupulous liquor traffickers let flow with free abandon, at prices which induce purchase. But it's liquor only after a fashion, they get quantities of contraband booze were seized and the offenders caught.

"Poison, to be more accurate," they dolefully declare.

Real liquor, the kind that warmed stomachs and gladdened hearts during the holiday season in pre-Prohibition days, will be more scarce this year than in any year since prohibition became a law in the United States, they confidently assert. And the little that will be available, they say, will be offered at prohibitive prices.

The Prohibition Department, anticipating the usual holiday "rush," has adopted more stringent measures to check smuggling and bootlegging. Late last month Prohibition Commissioner Hayne's personal staff of general prohibition agents was moved about with the purpose, it was explained, of having them in localities where they were unknown.

Reports to the Prohibition Department indicate that this shakeup has produced results exceeding the expectations of officials. Three florts of the general prohibition agents, officials say, have served as a stimulus to Federal, State and local enforcement agents. The Prohibition Department here for several weeks has been receiving daily reports of liquor round-ups, in which law violators, penalizing them to the limit in most cases and seldom, if ever, exonerating them.

Throughout the land the courts are co-operating to the utmost in making the Volstead amendment effective.

Prohibition officials express satisfaction over reports that judges are showing up no leniency whatever to liquor
