JAPANESE CANNOT BECOME CITIZENS OF UNITED STATES

Supreme Court Renders Decision in Case of International Importance

INTERPRETATION OF LAW ON SUBJECT IS GIVEN IN FULL FORM

Matter of Excellence of Japanese Subjects Not Involved in Issue

Washington, Nov. 13.—Japanese cannot be naturalized in the United States and cannot become citizens of this country, the supreme court of the United States decided today, in its first construction of federal statutes bearing on the subject.

The ruling is expected to attract wide attention not only in the United States but abroad, notwithstanding the failure of the court to make any reference to its diplomatic significance.

In the Ozawa case the court stated that "there is not implied—either in the legislation or in our interpretation of it—any suggestion for individual unworthiness or racial inferiority. These considerations are in no manner involved."

The two questions decided by the court were whether the general naturalization act of June 29, 1906 was limited by the provisions of Section 2169 of the revised statutes, authorizing the naturalization of "free white persons" and those of African birth and descent and whether, if so limited, Japanese were eligible to naturalization.

EXPLAINS NEWEST PLAN OF KILLING THE BOLL WEEVIL

Gainesville, Fla., Man Believes He Has Discovered Way of Combating Pest

Gainesville, Fla., Nov. 13.—Bull-ets were being sent out today by the State Plant Board of Florida, detailing at length the "improved method of controlling the boll weevil" as evolved by Dr. George Smith, assistant entomologist of the board, and announced Saturday night by Dr. Wilmon Newell, director.

While expressing confidence that Florida growers of upland cotton by following the new method are assured of at least 50 per cent of a normal crop, Dr. Newell points out at the outset that Dr. Smith's experiments were made under Florida conditions and the method evolved is adapted to this state but there seems to be no reason "on theoretical grounds, at least," why the method cannot successfully be adapted to all sections of the cotton belt.

The substance of Dr. Smith's plan is to clear the fields of weevil infestation early in June and then give the staple free growth until August, when the annual immigration of the weevil sets in.

In this state the bulletin points out the crop is usually "made" by August 15th.

Dr. Smith recognized that the boll weevil could be effectively poisoned before it reached the "squares" or flower bracts of the plants. His investigation, therefore, considered ridding the plant of the last of the overwintering weevils which appear later and deposit their eggs on the squares.

Palermo, Italy, Nov. 14.—Constantine, former king of Greece and an exile from his native land, has retired from active politics for life and will never again seek a return to the Hellenic throne, no matter how loudly the people may call for him, he revealed today in his first interview given out since the day of his abdication.

Asked if he would return to Athens and stand trial before the revolutionary tribunal on a charge of being responsible for the Greek military collapse in Asia Minor, Constantine replied "It is all nonsense about my returning to Athens. I am not going back to stand trial. It's equal nonsense about my going to Doorn to live near my brother-in-law, the former kaiser of Germany. I am in complete retirement and will never again become involved in politics. I have no plans except to lead a quiet, isolated life in the future."

RED CROSS ROLL CALL MAKES FINE PROGRESS IN PITT

Chairman H. A. White Highly Gratiified at Excellent Work of Various Committees

GREENVILLE HAS ALREADY RECEIVED 400 MEMBERSHIP

Frightful Tragedy in Chile Commands Attention of Red Cross Everywhere

Chairman White said he heard over the radio last night that New York City had gone way over the top in their Roll Call and that he was delighted to feel that the committees who worked in Greenville yesterday had met with such success.

Greenville alone has already received approximately four hundred memberships and expects to get five hundred persons enrolled by Friday. Reports from the different committees in the county have been very favorable and all of them will be in by Friday.

The frightful tragedy resulting from the earthquake and the high waves of the Pacific ocean leaving hundreds dead and hundreds homeless and hungry is another frightful disaster which we can feel assured that the Red Cross has already received an appeal from and has answered "yes," although it only happened twenty-four hours ago. The Red Cross is organized there as it is all over the world and it will call on our national organization to help. Can we question if there is need for the Red Cross?

Several people have been in the Red Cross office today, stating that they were very sorry they were not home when called upon by the Red Cross canvassers yesterday and that they wanted to join at the office. Undoubtedly there are a number of persons who have not been seen who are anxious to continue their membership in the American Red Cross, and according they may enroll at any one of the drug stores in Greenville by going in and making this request.

Chairman White wishes to thank every committee working yesterday for their splendid work and their prompt report, all of which have been received with exception of two and they will be turned in today.

FLYING ACE OF THE AMERICAN NAVY DEAD

Portsmouth, Va., Nov. 14.—Lieutenant Commander Godfrey Chevalier, of Baltimore, died here today as result of injuries received when his airplane crashed in a marsh near this city last Sunday. Every effort was made to save him, but this proved futile. A professional flier was instantly killed in the accident. Chevalier was considered the flying ace of the navy. He accomplished the seemingly impossible task of landing his plane on board a battle ship while running at a rapid rate of speed.

METHODISTS WILL HOLD CONFERENCE AT CAPITAL CITY

Rev. V. P. Scoville to Carry Splendid Report of Activities of Local Church

The North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, convenes in Edenton St. church tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, Bishop Collins Denny presiding.

Rev. V. P. Scoville, the local pastor, will carry up to this conference a splendid report. There have been ninety-six additions to the church during the year, one-half of whom have been on profession of faith. Fifty-four of the number are adults and the remaining forty-two are children. This represents a net increase of seventy-four and gives the church a present total membership of seven hundred and sixty-five.

The congregation has raised for all purposes above forty thousand dollars. Twenty thousand of this has been for the new Sunday School building. The Woman's Missionary Society, with a membership of one hundred and thirty, has raised for both foreign and local work a little more than two thousand dollars. The Sunday School, which is one of the best in the entire conference, has contributed for various causes the sum of slightly more than three thousand dollars, not including the splendid offering of the Men's Bible class on the Sunday school building. About one thousand dollars of the amount has gone to the orphanage. In addition to this other contributions for the orphanage brings the total from the church for this cause to not less than fifteen hundred dollars. Nearly four thousand dollars has been paid in on the Centenary and educational pledges. Mr. Scoville says that this splendid report has been made possible by the efficient help of the pastor's assistant Miss Lill Wilson and the loyal support of the official board and the membership of the church generally.

At the last quarterly conference held a few days ago, the following official board was elected for the annual conference.

Chairman White wishes to thank every committee working yesterday for their splendid work and their prompt report, all of which have been received with exception of two and they will be turned in today.

SALE OF HARDEE FARM ATTRACTS GREAT INTEREST

Much interest is centered around the sale of the J. B. Hardee farm, located on the Greenville and Grimesland road, one-half mile from Simpson and six miles from Greenville, and it is expected one of the largest crowds ever attending a sale of the kind will be in attendance.

Arrangements have been made with one of the churches at Simpson for furnishing the barbecue dinner to be served free during the sale and this assures everyone an exceptionally fine feed.

Advertising representatives of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company are busy this week placing advertising announcing the sale, and the campaign in all probability will continue at full swing until the day before the sale actually comes off.

The Hardee home place is located on the Greenville-Grimesland road, four miles from Grimesland. It is situated along the proposed hard surfaced road from Greenville to Beaufort county. The building are in splendid condition and are provided with the latest conveniences.

The farm contains about 219 acres, with about 120 acres cleared, the balance in woods. The land is gently rolling and well drained, being well watered by wells. There are two tenant houses, six tobacco barns, stables and other outbuildings.

The farm will be subdivided into several small tracts which will offer splendid opportunities to those desiring small farms.

LOCAL ATTORNEYS WILL REPRESENT TOBACCO GROWERS

F. C. Harding and Albion Dunn to Defend Pitt and Beaufort Growers in Co-Op Suits

The legal battle which the Tobacco Growers Co-operative Marketing association is waging against several farmers of this state, charged with violation of the association contract, was brought nearer home recently when J. N. Edwards, farmer Beaufort county and F. A. Elks, of Grimesland, secured the services of two Greenville attorneys to represent them and the two cases promise to be the most stubbornly contested in the state.

Mr. Edwards will be represented by Hon. F. C. Harding and Albion Dunn. Mr. Elks will be represented by Mr. Dunn alone. It is understood that answers to the complaint will be filed within the next several days.

The Co-operatives recently entered suit against Mr. Edwards for $500 for tobacco alleged to have been delivered to the open market and $150 as attorney fee. Mr. Elks is being sued for $8,600 and $500 attorney fee.

Mr. Edwards' answer to the complaint will be threefold. It is contended that the contract was secured under misrepresentation of the agents of the association and that the act under which the plaintiff concern was organized is unconstitutional, creates a monopoly, allows special privileges named in the act and that advance payments were exaggerated. There are other points equally as forceful contained in the answer.

The cases are scheduled to come up for hearing in Raleigh, but effort will be made to have them moved either to Pitt or Beaufort counties.

Mr. Edwards is a man of moderate means and it is said that it would work great hardship upon him to have to fight his case in the court at Raleigh.

Much interest is centered around the Co-operative fight which involves farmers in all parts of the state, and it will become more pronounced in this section if these cases should be transferred to either Pitt or Beaufort counties.

LIGHTNIN' WILL APPEAR IN CITY TUESDAY, NOV. 21

"Lightnin'" holder of the world's record for length of run on Broadway and the most successful play in the history of the American stage, will be presented at White's Opera House for a single performance on Tuesday evening, November 21st, with Milton Nobles in the role of Lightnin' Bill Jones.

Producer John Golden is sending to this city the special company organized to play a few of the principal cities which would otherwise be compelled to wait another year to see the Winchell-Smith classic. "Lightnin'" was presented at the Gaiety theatre, New York for three years and registered 1291 consecutive performances. The Broadway record up to the time the John Golden classic was produced was held by "A Trip to Chintatown" with 657 performances.

Like the other Golden successes, "The First Year," "Thank You," "Turn to the Right," "Three Wise Fools" and "Dear Me," "Lightnin'" is built upon foundations of laughter and introduces quaint, honest-hearted home folks who really exist in everyday life. Others in the cast besides Mr. Nobles are Percy Winter, Stuart Fox, Dolly W. Nobles, Barney Gilmore, Emory Blunkall, Mina Shiley, James J. Kearney, Alice Quigley, Virginia Sale, Homer Hunt and Norma Farnsworth. The seat sale will open.

COTTON CROP IS RAPIDLY POOLED IN PITT COUNTY

Field Agent H. D. Green Reports Splendid Progress in all Parts of County

MANY LOANS ARE NEGOTIATED BY THE BANKS OF THE COUNTY

Cotton Association Exhibit at Fair Proved Beneficial to the Growers

Cotton is being pooled by co-ops in Pitt county in greater quantity than was expected under short crop conditions, according to the cotton association field representative H. D. Green.

Throughout the county have been organized local cotton groups which are showing results. In these local are leaders or officers elected by local members. These leaders are kept well posted by the Raleigh office of the association and its branch office in Greenville. In this manner every member in the county can readily be kept well posted and have any question answered and given assistance at short notice, by getting in touch with one of the local leaders or Mr. Green at Greenville.

One of the most encouraging features of co-operation and good spirit in the fine work and co-operation of the banks of the county. Arrangements have been made with practically all the county banks to make loans of from $30 to $35, and in special cases even more, to association members for each bale of cotton pooled. These loans are in addition of the first $50 advance. In this way mortgaged cotton can be pooled and the mortgage liquidated. In case $50 or $75 will not retire the mortgage, the member an action should get in touch with Mr. Green who will make arrangements for such cases which allow the member to pool his cotton and receive the benefit which means more money. It is important that no member make a mortgage next year until consulting the association or its representative. This is in accordance with paragraph 13, Section C, of the Marketing Agreement or Contract.

Mr. Green reports that many bank loans have been made and the mortgages are being taken up which allow members to readily pool their cotton. Under the present system employed by the association all the cotton signed up for the co-ops can readily be pooled.

The cotton association exhibit at the Pitt County Fair was the means of getting in touch with a great many cotton growers of the county and giving them first hand information. The planters showed much real interest and are eager to hear of how to take up mortgages, how to grow cotton under boll weevil conditions and all phases of association work. The exhibit showed cotton samples from most of the cotton growing counties of North Carolina. There were comparative samples of cotton to show the value of clean picking over trashy cotton and letting it stay in fields too long. Seeds of varieties recommended by the association for use in Pitt under boll weevil conditions were shown. For long staple the Weber 149-4 was recommended and for short staple Cleveland big bale and Mexican big boll. The association is making arrangements to furnish its members with the best varieties of seeds which will come from fields standing government test for anthracnose and other diseases. These seeds will be bought in quantity and members can get them cheaper than they could otherwise. Anyone desiring further information should get in touch with Mr. Green. For information for growing cotton under boll weevil conditions the grower should consult Farm Demonstration Agent Mr. Pace or Mr. Green advises cotton improvement on a community basis.

Turkish envoys to the Near East conference at Switzerland expressed anger over delay of the conference. The Greeks probably wish they will get mad enough to leave.

The ship subsidy has little chance of early passage, according to leaders. And lots of other measures will have a hard time getting by since there has been such a change in senate and house forces.

McAdoo says let the rakeoff from the tariff pay the soldiers compensation bill. If he can make the rakeoff amount to that much, we say so too. The bonus should be paid and the sooner it is the better the men who fought that world war might be saved will feel about the thing.

It begins to look like the boll weevil has accomplished his mission when considering there were six thousand less bales of cotton ginned in Pitt county this year than last. This year will be mild compared to next, so it is up to the farmer to use his head and plant only what cotton he can give his personal attention.

Claude Kitchin expects to be the next speaker of the United States House of Representatives. That he would fill the position with honor to himself and state cannot be doubted in the slightest sense of the word. He has occupied an enviable pace in the political field for many years, and if he should become speaker of the house it will only be just recognition of his services. North Carolina is proud of her sons, and especially of the Kitchin type.

The Red Cross call is in progress this week and it is the duty of the public to do everything possible to make it a great success. Everyone knows what the Red Cross has done for civilization and it is up to them to support it in every way this becomes possible. The roll call is conducted merely for the purpose of renewing memberships and for raising money to carry on future work. The organization has done much for the country and will be able to do still more if funds are provided from year to year.

Sweet potato warehouses are very necessary to success of the farming industry in this section and it is the duty of the growers of the various communities to get together and see what can be done in this direction. The first warehouse of the kind erected in the county is in Farmville. That the farmers will realize direct benefit from it the very first year cannot be questioned. Potatoes stored in such places will not rot and the farmer will save hundreds of dollars. The value of warehouses for potatoes has been realized in many communities, and Pitt county is no exception. We trust next year will see numbers in Pitt county. Farmville has blazed the way and it is up to the rest to follow in the pathway.

It is to be hoped the curb market recently proposed for Greenville will be pushed to completion as early as possible. There is nothing in which the house wife would derive greater benefit. Every product of the farm, and garden would be offered at the curb while in fresh condition and the farmer would have ready sales. Other towns in this section of the state have found the curb market idea very satisfactory and there is reason to believe Greenville would do likewise. There are hundreds of truck farmers in this part of the state who would be glad to bring their products here if they had ready market such as the curb affords. It is the duty of every town to provide some place of the kind. It assures increased service along many lines.

It is gratifying to note that Mayor Clark is imposing heavy fines on those charged with violating the speed laws of the city. Speeding is one of the greatest menaces which the public has to combat at this time and the only way it can be successfully done away with is for the mayor to take the most drastic action. Especially is this necessary in cases where drunkards are arrested while driving cars. A speeding automobile is dangerous enough when driven by a clear headed man, and is a menace to the population when driven by a drunk. Fines should be increased with each violation. If this isn't effective enough, then road sentences should be given. In this way alone can we hope to relieve a situation which has increased to such serious proportions.

While the Pitt county fair was a greater success this year than ever before, it is to be hoped the promoters next year will make an effort to keep out gamblers and other such characters which follow carnivals from town to town. Numbers of unwary and unsuspecting farmers were fooled out of their hard earned money by the gamblers fair week. The carnival people were not responsible for this condition. But the gamblers were here, and they did their worst. Even the best of fairs can be lowered in public estimation by permitting such places to operate and a next year will see an entirely different condition here. Exhibits and legitimate shows and concessions are the things that go to make the fair a great success and if these can be booked with nothing more we will have one of the greatest attractions in history. We trust next year will see this improvement in evidence. It is for the good of our people and that means for the good of everyone.

JUDGE SILZER ELECTED JERSEY GOVERNOR

George S. Silzer

Judge George S. Silzer, Democratic candidate, has been elected Governor of New Jersey.

NEAR EAST CHAIRMAN TO MEET DECEMBER 2d.

Raleigh, Nov. 13.—A meeting of all county chairman and volunteer workers of the Near East Relief who can attend will be held in Raleigh Saturday December 2d, according to announcement today by Col. George H. Bellamy, state chairman.

At his meeting the delegates will be addressed by national officials who have been in Armenia and Smyrna this summer. Bishop James Cannon, Jr., who was an eye witness to the massacre and deportation at Smyrna has been secured to speak at a mass meeting for the Wake county campaign, which plans have been laid to hold the day following.

In addition to national speakers all county chairmen who were exceptionally successful last year will tell how they did their work. A few of the counties which did not have an active campaign this year will put on their drives before Christmas, but the regular state campaign will be announced later.

Col. Bellamy has recently issued a pre-campaign appeal for funds to meet the crushing problem presented by the sudden throwing of over 800,000 refugees from the Smyrna region on the hands of the Near East Relief. A half million dollars was spent for two ship-loads of food the first week of the disaster without a cent to pay for it. Near East Relief officials banking on the generosity of the American people to pay for it.

This regular campaign is for the support of the 3,334 orphans now safely housed in the five North Carolina orphanages at Trebizond, he emphasized. Each county has a quota assigned to it and a local committee to raise the $60 a year necessary to take care of each.

Both the Red Cross and the Near East Relief are raising additional funds for the relief of the 800,000 refugees driven from their homes by the unfortunate victory of the Turks. The Red Cross is covering those who have crossed over into Greece while the Near East Relief is saving from starvation those who are temporarily located in Thrace and Asia Minor.

Col. Bellamy has announced that every dollar raised over the county quotas this year will be used to meet obligations assumed by the national office of the Near East Relief to save from starvation in the great emergency victims of the Turk victory and the Greek debacle.

A half million dollars was spent for two ship-loads of food the first

NOTICE OF SALE

I will offer for sale at auction on Wednesday, November 15th, on the Jones and Frizzelle farm on the Tar road, a large quantity of corn, fodder, oats, hay and sweet potatoes. Sale to take place at 10 o'clock. Terms: CASH. J. O. HARRIS, Receiver.

CURBSTONE MERCHANDISING

It would be possible for any one to set up a box on a curbstome corner and sell you many articles that are sold in drug stores. You would not care, however, to risk your life and health in allowing such a merchant to fill a prescription for you.

Few persons realize that when they buy the service of a compounding pharmacist that they are buying a highly technical service at what is practically a minimum fee; but filling prescriptions alone would be a highly unprofitable business. Drug stores could not exist on that alone, and you would be deprived of the service of these skilled pharmacists if it were not that drug stores carry a tremendously large stock of related articles. These are sold on a small margin of profit necessarily because competition is keen in this line of

HOW'D YOU LIKE TO

CHANGE HAIR AS YOU

CHANGE YOUR GOWNS?

Dorothy Dalton Does the Trick in "The Woman Who Walked Alone."

Do you ever wish you could change your hair, like you do your clothes? Just go out and invest in a wig of the shade and style to suit your fancy. That is what Dorothy Dalton did, when they told her she was to play the featured role of a titled English girl in George Melford's Paramount production, "The Woman Who Walked Alone," which will open at White theatre Thursday.

Perhaps you have bobbed your hair. Miss Dalton did it for "Moran of the Lady Letty." But it isn't necessary to retain that "tensored" appearance, if your fancy changes.

Suppose again that you were born a brunette, is it necessary for you to remain one? The multitudes of "bottle blondes" answer an emphatic "No!" But is it not better to don a blonde wig, which can easily be taken off again, than to use peroxide and face the inevitable tell-tale darkening process, beginning at the roots, in case you decide to go back to your original color.

"The Woman Who Walked Alone," is from a story by John Colton, adapted by W. H. M. Ritchey. The cast is a particularly fine one, including M. J. Sill, Wanda Hawley, E. J. Radcliffe, Frederick Vroom, Mayne Kelso, John Davidson, Harris Gordon, Charles Ogie, Mabel Van Buren, Maurice B. Flynn and Cecil Holland.

IRISH PATRIOT KNOWN AS "THE BARD" DEAD

(By International News.)
Dublin, Nov. 14.—John R. Sullivan, popularly known amongst his old Fenian friends throughout the world as the "Bard," is dead.

He was one of the most prominent figures in the Land War of the 80s, and in 1891 he was tried at Meath before Mr. Justice O'Brien (Pete the Packer) on charges of conspiracy.

Two sentences of 14 years penal servitude were passed. As he turned to leave the dock he cried out "God save Ireland." Thereupon the judge called him back and imposed another sentence of a further 14 years. The "Bard" served 18 years. In later years he succeeded in getting restored the farm from which he was evicted.

SWISS GRAPE CURE IS ATTRACTING AMERICANS

(By International News.)
Paris, Nov. 14.—"The grape cure" is attracting many Americans to Vevey, in Switzerland, where, under proper medical supervision, it has proved itself to be of great value in cases of gout and certain forms of liver trouble. The patients rise early in the morning and eat the grapes themselves from the vines, and thus the "cure" includes not only the actual eating of three or four pounds of the fruit daily but a good deal of healthful walking and climbing through the vineyards.

SAVE MONEY BY MAKING YOUR OWN SOAP

Here is the way to make 10 pounds of good soap

Every housewife should know how to make this pure soap. All that is needed is one can of Red Seal Lye, 5 1/2 pounds of waste grease and a little water. This will make twenty cakes of powerful cleansing soap, enough for all cleaning and scouring purposes to last several months. Full instructions in the can.

Another important use for Red Seal Lye is keeping the drain pipes free. If the drain runs slowly, shake a little Red Seal Lye into the pipes and it will clear things out in a jiffy.

When scrubbing the bathroom floor, a teaspoonful of Red Seal Lye in the water will kill all the germs and make the water soft, thereby saving soap, time and labor. Make a solution of Red Seal Lye and sprinkle about the cellar—it will immediately kill all unpleasant odors and make your cellar clean and sweet smelling.

Ask your dealer for the old original granulated Red Seal Lye, and take no substitute. Send us a postal for the Red Seal Booklet which will be mailed you free. Send for it today.

Will Mr. Sands Answer Mr. Wilson's Questions?

An Open Letter To Mr. Oliver J. Sands

I find on my arriving in the city an article purporting to be a statement made by Mr. Oliver J. Sands, the Executive Manager of the Co-Operative Marketing Association, in regard to what I said about Mr. M. A. Griffin, of Wendell, N. C.

At the time I made the statement that Mr. Griffin was President of two banks, I thought it was true. But as I have had correspondence with several bankers I should have applied to a banker in another town. However, I will take Mr. Sands' statement. He is President of a SMALL bank and used to engage in the lumber business. I have been reliably informed that Mr. Griffin is a high-toned gentleman and stood for the best interests of the community in which he lived. When I was being brought up, a VIRGINIA GENTLEMAN was not judged by the wealth he possessed.

I wish to say that I am in a business that was legally established more than fifty years ago. I have been conducting the auction sales of leaf tobacco for thirty years and I think it honorable in every respect and don't propose to take orders from Oliver J. Sands; and I question his motive for his slanderous remarks. I propose to defend that business in every honorable way. I believe my record will show that I am a better friend to the farmer than Mr. Sands professes to be. I wish to say that I am more interested in farming from a monetary standpoint than I am in auction sales. I take great pleasure in referring Mr. Sands to many farmers who have joined his organization. I will say, further, that many of the employees of the Co-Ops are my personal friends and hope your misrepresentations won't have the effect of destroying their better feeling for my farmer friends, as I want them to get a square deal. I shall ask many pertinent questions, Mr. Sands, and my remarks will be only for you to answer.

1. Are you going around making selfish speeches, trying to destroy a legitimate business by making statements that are not true? or are you doing it for the down-trodden farmers' interest? Or are you trying to form a gigantic trust so you can crush anyone who refuses to accept your bidding?
2. Did you ever make the statement that you would rather die than fail? It seems to me I have heard that you did make such a statement. Do you know enough about tobacco to know which side of the leaf is the top side? I am asking this question to satisfy myself whether you are capable enough to know how to protect those farmers' interest who may happen to trust you to the extent of giving you a Deed of Trust on their crops for four more years.
3. Is it a fact that you sold the primings pooled in South Carolina to one concern without giving any other speculator an opportunity to see the samples, and said concern had their own buyer to go into your grading departments and coach YOUR graders so as to see they graded low enough? Also, have you heard this concern would make several million dollars off of their purchase made of your organization in South Carolina and Eastern Carolina?

4. Is it a fact that you are selling tobacco in the Old Belt for five to ten dollars per hundred lower than the same grades are bringing on auction floors? Wouldn't it be a good idea for you to sell a few hogheads at auction so as to satisfy yourself if you are really giving your farmer friends that you love so devotedly a square deal? If I thought for a moment that your system was best for the farmer, I would unhesitatingly advise my customers to pool their crops.
5. Is it a fact you allowed the big home speculators and manufacturers to regrade and keep what was cheap and reject what was considered high? Is it true that some of your graders are so inefficient that often you find in the same hogheads a difference of twenty to thirty dollars per hundred pounds?
6. Is it a fact that you sold fifty hogheads to a speculator for 8 cents and the dealer turned the same fifty hogheads over to a warehouseman and he sold it at auction for 19 cents per hundred? If this is a fact, the interests of the farmer you profess to love so well was not properly guarded. Do you conscientiously think so?
7. You are so in love with the farmer, I wish to ask you this question: Did you or did you not attend a meeting of bankers and grain men some while ago and the grain men stated that their farmer patrons were in such bad shape from making a failure in their crops that they had no money with which to meet their obligations, and you were asked the question what was the best thing to do? DID YOU SAY GET THE MONEY?
8. Is it a fact you have regularly employed press agents to write propaganda misleading the farmer, and have arrangements with certain newspapers to print same for which you pay out of the proceeds from sales of the farmers' tobacco? We have no such agents.
9. Is it a fact you had your attorneys to go to Washington, D. C. to get the government to relieve you from making monthly reports to the government as to the number of pounds you receive for the purpose of not being able to check you on your statements? The auction houses are required to make a report each month.
10. Is it a fact that you hope to have passed by the next Legislature a bill relieving the Warehouse charges so low that no warehouse will be able to make operating expenses? Can you give an estimate of your costs for handling? A lady friend of mine wrote me that it would be about 20 per cent.
11. Have the Co-Ops carried out one single promise they made to the smokers? I understand your hot air artist told that they would get 60 per cent, which would amount to more than 100 per cent at auction, and the remaining 40 per cent Certificate would be cashed at the bank.

12. Is it true that 60 per cent of your members were persuaded to sign under false promises?
13. How long will it be before you will put in Government Bonded Warehouses the 250 million pounds of tobacco so as to get the 50 million dollars that you love to talk about so much, and what will be the amount of the rake off YOUR bank will get on account of the deal?
14. How was it managed that the Co-Ops got the bills so favorable to your people through the Legislatures of Virginia and North Carolina without anyone suspecting what your fellows were up to? Was your association hatched in New York or California, and who was the Father? I would give a good deal to find out.
15. Pardon me for being so persistent, but I want to know why you fellows are so secretive about the numbers of pounds you are receiving. What you are getting for your stockholders' tobacco and the amount of salaries you are paying the "High-Ups." If I were one of your asset members you would have to lay the cards on the table "face-up." One more question: How do you like those pinhookers and ex-warehousemen that your Star of the West and many such likes of the same calibre have branded as thieves?

Yours truly,
JAS. H. WILSON,
Danville, Va.

P. S.—Mr. Sands, I think I know your game. I know how you happen to come to Richmond, Va. I know you don't care a darn for my farmers but you are playing a sharp game to get our tobacco so as to have assets. Then when you get all the warehousemen whipped to a frazzle, you will then show the tobacco men a trick or two, and then our banks will be squeezed like a lemon. Our farmers will be in no condition to resist your draining process. Thank God, you have shown your hand, and I believe we farmers can get on without your advice and sharp practices. You would me of Trotsky, and your every movement should be watched.

The whip hand will not be in North Carolina or Virginia, for the farmers of these States are indivisible. They are their forefathers are from the land of Lennie and Trotsky, or coming from the land of the orient. They expect those who make them promises to keep them, and not one in a thousand will ever shirk any kind of a paper-writing secured in the manner in which it should have been secured—four-square. Secure it otherwise and all H— and Brown's miles cannot whip them into keeping it.

Yours,
J. H. W.

BUY TUBERCULOSIS CHRISTMAS SEALS

For statistical purposes and for comparison, the Bureau of Vital Statistics has divided the state into four sections—the east, middle east, middle west and west.

The thirty counties which comprise the middle western section have a population of over one million, and yet these counties have the lowest death rate from tuberculosis of any section of the state. In this section is located the only county sanatorium in the state and also the two counties that have voted a bond issue for erection and maintenance of county sanatorium.

From activities on foot it would seem these counties are more interested in curing and preventing tuberculosis than other sections of the state, and these activities are doubtless reflected in the declining death rate from tuberculosis.

The thirty counties in the middle eastern section have the highest death rate. This cannot be accounted for in climatic conditions as the twenty counties in the seaboard section have a death rate over ten points lower than the middle eastern. In the past we were taught that a low altitude was conducive to tuberculosis and that to be cured the patient must need go to a high altitude. It is now definitely known that tuberculosis can be cured in any climate or altitude providing proper treatment be given; the essentials of which are rest, fresh air, good food, and medical attention.

The counties that have gone farthest with this program are showing greater reduction in the number of deaths, which is a powerful argument for all counties to increase their efforts.

The health leaders in some counties in the middle eastern section have become interested in providing for the care of these victims. This week a mass meeting was held in Vance County to devise means for combating the disease. Dr. McCain, Assistant Superintendent of the State Sanatorium, was summoned and outlined a tuberculosis campaign to cover three hundred interested citizens. Dr. McCain advocated an inter-county sanatorium for small counties that were unable to secure sufficient funds from a bond election in one county. By this plan two or more counties may pool their resources and establish a county sanatorium to care for the patients from their respective counties.

Dr. McCain also strongly urged support of the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Sale. "The Seals," he said, "offer a method of educating the people as to the cure and prevention of tuberculosis that is second to none, and also provide treatment at the Sanatorium and in the homes of needy patients."
