SENATE TO VOTE ON LIBERTY LOAN MONDAY MORNING

Decision Reached at Concluding Session of the Senate Yesterday Afternoon

(By International News.)

Washington, Nov. 24.—Agreement was reached in the Senate today for a final vote Monday on the administration measure to lend Liberia $5,000. The senate then adjourned until Monday.

When the senate quit work, a motion offered by Senator Simmons, (d), North Carolina, was pending to send the resolution authorizing the loan back to the finance committee with instructions to eliminate the loan feature and report out only the amendment attached in the senate authorizing an appropriation of $20,000,000 for reclamation work and $170,000 for employment by the Interstate commerce commission of 35 additional locomotive boiler inspectors.

Attacks upon the proposed loan by the democrats became general today. They challenged the republican claim that a moral obligation existed for the extension as a result of the part played by Liberia in the world war.

AYDEN READY TO JOIN CURB MARKET FORCE OF COUNTY

Offer Chamber of Commerce Accepted at Special Meeting Last Night

(Auspices Pitt County Chamber of Commerce.)

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Ayden Merchant's Association last night, it was decided unanimously to accept the offer of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce, in which the County Chamber agreed to put in a Curb Market, assisted by the county agent.

It was pointed out during the discussion that since Greenville and Farmville had taken steps toward this movement that Ayden should not keep hands off on a matter that had promise of good results. Dr. W. M. McKinney, President of the Ayden Merchants' Association, presided over the meeting and elicited favorable comments from various ones present.

A committee was appointed to prepare and deliver to the Chamber of Commerce a mailing list, after which time the county Chamber would proceed immediately to make the survey and ascertain opening date.

Between now and opening date, which will necessarily be delayed on account of imperative preliminary work, the Curb Market idea can be given a wonderful boost by the consumers and producers. The public may rest fully assured that the Chamber of Commerce is doing everything possible to hasten opening date at Greenville, Farmville and Ayden, for their respective Curb Markets.

CHICKEN THIEVES FEATURE SESSION OF POLICE COURT

Aris Joyner and Ben Little Are Defendants Before Mayor D. M. Clark

(By International News.)

Aris Joyner, and Ben Little, colored charged with the larceny of chickens. Recently there has been a wave of petty thievery going on in town such as stealing chickens from the back lot coops of grocery stores and cafes, and the stealing of milk from front porches. Several small negro boys have been caught in these thefts, but it was thought generally that men were responsible for the chickens being stolen.

On last Tuesday night some one disturbed the slumbers of nine chickens sojourning in the coop of Matthews Grocery Co., and quietly transferred them to other quarters. The chickens did not tell on their abductor, but Officer Brewer and Whitehurst getting from Mr. Matthews a detailed description of the chickens such as finger prints, ear marks and etc., put their noses to the ground and after trailing around somewhat, located both the plumage and the nine decapitated parts in the garbage can used by a negro cafe, which is owned and operated by Aris Joyner and Ben Little. Mr. Matthews readily identified his chickens by the plumage and the heads and when the ice box in the cafe was searched the bodies were found reposing there. The said Aris Joyner and Ben Little were put under arrest for the larceny of the chickens and not being together at the time, made conflicting and widely varying statements as to the source from which the chickens arrived.

Ben Little first stating that is uncle had brought them in from the country and Aris Joyner that they had been brought there by some one they did not know. Later Aris stated that two colored boys had brought them there and left them, but he had not paid them anything for them, except to give them something to eat and no price was agreed on for them. The two colored boys turned out to be Norman Spell and Robert Cherry, both of whom are well known and under the observation of Mr. K. T. Futrell, welfare officer. The boys however stated that they got the chickens at the suggestion of and especially for Aris Joyner and Ben Little and that they had done the same thing before. Both the defendants were bound over to county court under $150 bond each.

Charlotte Bath, colored, charged with riding bicycle on sidewalk. Allowed to pay the cost.

Henry Nobles, white, charged with reckless driving and running into St. sweeper, allowed to pay the cost.

F. W. Harder, white, charged with speeding and passing from Pitt street into Dickinson avenue without stopping. Fined $10 and cost.

Moses Brown Wiley Clark, colored, charged with stealing oysters from the boat of Jack Teel. Moses Brown was bound over to county court. Action dismissed as to Wiley Clark.

Lubby Waters, colored, charged with allowing his horse to run at large allowed to pay the cost.

TIMELY MESSAGE DELIVERED AT THE TENT LAST NIGHT

Mrs. McAdams Preached a Splendid Sermon on Second Coming of Judas.

FINE SERVICES HELD AT COTTON MILL YESTERDAY

Mrs. McAdams to Deliver Lecture on Trip Through West Indies Sunday

A splendid message was delivered last night at the tent by Mrs. McAdams on the "Second Coming of Judas." She used as her text the second chapter of Second Thessalonians, "The man of sin revealed."

The entire message exposed false doctrine and showed how people would be deceived by the miracles of the devil. Some men don't realize the devil can perform miracles, she said, and will do more miracles the nearer the end we come.

A splendid service was held at the cotton mill yesterday. Mrs. McAdams said she had preached for years among all classes, but Mr. Brown had things arranged better for the service at the mill than any public place she had ever preached. She will speak to the mill people again Sunday week at the mill school house. It is urged that as many as possible attend these services and lend a helping hand.

A great service is expected at the tent tonight. Mrs. McAdams says Saturday night is the devil's biggest night in every town. A peculiar subject will be used tonight and everyone is invited out to hear it.

Sunday Schedule. Sunday afternoon at three o'clock Mrs. McAdams will give a lecture of their trip through the West Indies. This lecture will be very interesting, especially for the children. Every Sunday school teacher is invited to announce to their children Sunday morning the importance of hearing the lecture. "Grown ups" will be benefitted also.

Sunday night Mrs. McAdams will begin a series of sermons called "Old Time Religion." She says she will continue the subject until a large number get the genuine article.

CRISSINGER TO HEAD FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

Comptroller of Currency to Succeed William Harding, It Was Stated Today

(By International News.) Washington, Nov. 25.—President Harding has decided to appoint Daniel Crissinger, of Marion, Ohio, now comptroller of currency, governor of the Federal Reserve board to succeed William Harding, of Alabama, according to authoritative reports in administration circles today.

The nomination may go to the senate next week. A number of southern Democrats and a majority of members of the farm bloc are opposed to the reappointment of Harding and the president feared he couldn't be confirmed.

The place has been vacant since August 9th when Harding's term expired. It is not known just why the president delayed the appointment such a long time, but it is believed he was undecided as to his choice.

THE FIRST YEAR TO COME HERE SOON

One of the most interesting of the theatrical events scheduled for White's Theatre will be the record-breaking New York success, "The Engagement" is for Monday, December 4th. In this clever comedy, Frank Craven, the author, has kept away entirely from the beaten track of characterization that in the great majority of plays about married life, is supposed to represent the reaction of husband and wife toward each other. In "The First Year," the characters are human first and entertaining afterwards. Also, he has reproduced the little troubles of little people—the sort of people whom George Ade and Booth Tarkington and Zona Gale have made famous in literature, but whom the drama persistently neglects. And it is the little things of which "The First Year" is made up that strike a spontaneous chord in the breast of almost everyone.

Mr. W. P. Shambart returned yesterday from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Ohio and New Jersey. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brille of Newark, N. J.

"A Fool There Was"

"The Home Beautiful" is one of our pet phrases, and its use has become widespread by the great desire on the part of Americans to own their own homes and to make them as attractive as their means will permit. Statistics seem to indicate that more and more people are every year investing in homes and striving to their utmost in the matter of artistic decoration and furnishing. However, the gift of knowing what is artistic is not given to all people, and many have to depend on the assistance derived from household magazines and from motion pictures, unless, of course, their means are sufficient to employ professional designers and interior decorators.

Of special interest to persons who wish to know the proper thing in home furnishing are scenes in the home of "the fool" in the William Fox special production, "A Fool There Was," which comes to White's theatre next Monday night.

At a cost of approximately $75,000 the library, dining room, living room, grand stairway and nursery of a millionaire's home have been built. Much time and care also were expended by Flynn and Richard Shilly, his art director, to make these scenes unusual and strikingly attractive. The "fool's" home is not gaudy or garish, nor does it represent the "nouveau riche." It is a remarkable example of good taste coupled with luxury "en masse" and can be followed by the most fastidious person of wealth in his own home.

Fashionable School Show in Picture

A fashionable girls' school figures prominently in "A Girls' Desire," which comes to White's theatre on Wednesday. In order to secure the best possible results, her director secured permission to film scenes at one of the most elite finishing schools for girls in Southern California.

The cast chosen for support of Miss Calhoun embodies some noted stage players, numbering men and women most admirably adapted for the comedy parts which enter into the picture. Warner Baxter, a typical looking young American of most pleasing appearance, plays opposite Alice Calhoun as Lord Dysart. Victory Bateman, James Donnelly, Charles Dudley and Sadie Gordon, who rank among the best character people in pictures, are also prominent in the cast.

Superb Costumes Seen In "Blood and Sand"

Three richly embroidered costumes weighing 165 pounds provide much of the interest attendant upon Rudolph Valentino's colorful and varied Spanish wardrobe in his new Paramount picture, "Blood and Sand," by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, which comes to White's theatre next Thursday. Thirty five pounds each, weigh the gorgeous silver, gold and satin torador costumes worn by the star in his appearances as "Juan Gallardo," a bull fighter of Spain. When fully dressed with the addition of his cape of pink silk, a Spanish bull-fighter tinkles and rings like a battery of bells on a busy Sunday.

But the torero suits are not the only colorful features of the Valentino impersonation in this picture. There is a ragged outfit of the young street gang, with bull fighter costume worn at Gallardo's country place. All have been figured to display at its best the vivid, exotic touch which has created the sudden county-wide Valentino vogue.

The Valentino genius for romantic love-making has adequate opportunity with the two widely differentiated feminine leads, played by Lila Lee sweet and gentle and Nila Nilda, volcanic and tempestuous. "Blood and Sand" is a Fred Niblo production, adapted by June Mathis. Alvin Wyckoff photographed.

JOHN SCOVILLE SUFFERS ATTACK OF APPENDICITIS

Rev. V. P. Scoville left this morning for the Wilson Sanatorium taking his son John, who has developed appendicitis and will perhaps undergo an operation.

John is quite a young boy only 14 years of age and very popular as a student in the high school.

His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Wright of Ayden will preach at the morning hour.

This is the second of the family to have appendicitis in the last few months as Rev. Scoville suffered an attack only a short while ago.

REV. J. M. WRIGHT TO PREACH IN METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. J. M. Wright, of Ayden, will occupy the pulpit of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church tomorrow morning in the absence of Rev. V. P. Scoville, who is in Wilson at the bedside of his son, John, who is very ill in the Wilson sanatorium. There will be no evening service.

TROOP TWO HOLDS REGULAR WEEKLY MEETS

Troop Two held its regular weekly meeting last night, meeting first at High School to attend a lecture in first aid by Miss Hubbard of the Red Cross, and going from school to the Rotary Club for the remainder of the evening.

Patrol meetings were held and a number of Scout songs were sung. After the basket ball games were over a get-together meeting was held for the purpose of enjoying several gallons of cream, the treat of the Wolves under Patrol Leader "Mutt" Perkins. The Scouts enjoyed the cream so that they called up Mrs. Perkins, the donor of the cream, and gave her a yell over the telephone.

The games were unusually exciting last night, the Panthers lowering the colors of the Wildcats who up until last night had been undefeated. Evans Rice, Wilkerson, Taft and Madrin worked together well and had little trouble in defeating the leaders 19 to 9.

In the second game, the Eagles came through with their first win of the season by taking the Wolves into 17 to 12. For the Eagles, "Big Jack" Tripp led in the scoring while M. Hearne found the basket the most times for the losers.

The league standing is as follows:

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|----------|----|----|------|
| Wildcats | 3 | 1 | .750 |
| Wolves | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| Panthers | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| Eagles | 1 | 3 | .250 |
