ALLIED PREMIERS MEET TO DISCUSS WORLD FINANCES

Indications Are That Reparations Conference is Not Running Smooth

London, Dec. 10.—The possibility of the four premiers reaching an agreement which will enable the Brussels conference to assemble with any prospect of success seems tonight to hang on an extremely tenuous thread. As with all previous attempts to solve the reparations problem, the main difficulty lies in French determination to secure penalties or guarantees of a military character for the fulfillment of German obligations.

The new British government is considered more favorable towards France than the previous administration, but Mr. Bonar Law, in the present conference, has shown himself to be as warmly opposed to any occupation of the Ruhr as his predecessor, while the Italian Premier, Signor Mussolini, still an unknown influence in European conferences, also opposed anything except what he terms economic and productive guarantees.

Premier Poincare asserted today that France would demand the occupation of the Ruhr as a fundamental guarantee for any moratorium, and the stiffening of the French Premier's attitude changed the hopeful view of the French delegation to one of gloom. M. Poincare reasserted his demand for the Ruhr after receipt of advices from Paris that his attitude in London had been interpreted in the Chamber of Deputies and by a portion of the press as a weakening in the face of Mr. Bonar Law.

M. Poincare went to the Prime Minister's meeting today in a determined mood and informed the others that France flatly rejected Chancellor Cuno's new proposals. Mr. Bonar Law, on the other hand, told M. Poincare he thought the German proposals were at least worth discussing at greater length, but M. Poincare insisted they were vague and were intended as a maneuver to forestall action by the Allies rather than a serious proposal for settlement, adding that Germany had made a similar move at nearly all previous Allied meetings dealing with reparations.

CLEMENCEAU TO SAIL FOR HOME NEXT WEDNESDAY

Noted Frenchman to Complete Visit With Address in Chicago This Afternoon

(By International News)
Chicago, Dec. 11.—Georges Clemenceau will make his last public appearance in the United States this afternoon when he addresses the American farm bureau federation. Immediately after the address Clemenceau will return to New York and sail for France, it was stated. He will be heard by a tremendous crowd here and his message is looked forward to with interest.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING SENDS FLOODS OF MONEY TO PUBLIC MARKETS

Washington, Dec. 11.—Christmas shopping is sending a flood of cash into market, the Federal Reserve board stated today. This was reflected in the heavy liquidation of loans by merchants. The various banks report a small amount of cash being withdrawn for the holiday business.

ROAD BUILDING TO RELIEVE JOBLESS AT NEW BERN, N. C.

Craven County Commissioners Take First Step in Providing Work for Jobless

New Bern, N. C., Dec. 11.—Speeding up the county's part in getting operations on the remaining links of the state highway under way the Craven county commissioners met Friday and voted an extension to the state highway commission on payment of the money now due the county on road built by it and taken over by the state.

During his visit to New Bern Wednesday Mr. Frank Page, chairman of the state highway commission, assured the county commissioners that he would urge the commission to let a contract for the Fort Barnwell-Jasper road at the meeting of the body on December 15th. He said that the use of the money due the county would help materially in getting the contract underway.

The construction of the Fort Barnwell-Jasper road and of the 16 mile stretch in Carteret county to the Craven line will give work for many laborers, and anything that promises to absorb local labor under the trying situation resulting from the fire will be welcomed.

The resolution passed by the Craven board yesterday follows: "Whereas New Bern, N. C., suffered a disastrous fire on December 1st 1922, which swept over an area of about one-fourth of the city, rendering about three thousand (3,000) people homeless and a great many out of employment; and

"Whereas it is the opinion of the members of this board that everything possible should be done to provide employment for these people and, Whereas, Honorable Cameron Morrison, Governor of the State of North Carolina, and Honorable Frank Page, of the State Highway Commission, have offered to begin at once the construction of the Central Highway, from Jasper to Fort Barnwell for the purpose of giving employment to us as many people as possible provided Craven county shall give to the State Highway Commission the extension of time for the payment of the money due Craven county by the State Highway Commission until funds are available for the payment of said loan by the State Highway Commission.

"Now therefore, be it resolved by the Board of County Commissioners that the extension of the loan be granted to the State Highway Commission until other arrangements can be made by the State Highway Commission for the payment of said loan.

"Upon motion duly made and carried the foregoing resolution was adopted by unanimous vote of the board.

CITY SCHOOLS NOT HARD HIT BY THE EPIDEMIC OF FLU

They Will Close for the Holiday Season, However, on December 20th

In regard to the influenza situation as it affects the Greenville schools, Superintendent Rose reported this morning that the situation is better today than it has been any time the past week. There are still quite a few children absent from high school, but in the lower grades the attendance is nearly normal. A week ago today there were more absences on account of sickness than on any other day. Since that date conditions have greatly improved.

The Greenville schools will close for the holidays on Wednesday, December 20th, Superintendent Rose also announced, and with the present improvement in the influenza situation there is no doubt but that the schools will be carried on up to the last minute.

SUBSIDY BATTLE PLANNED TO GET UNDERWAY TODAY

Indications Are That Battle Will Be Long and Bitterly Contested

Washington, Dec. 10.—Senate supporters and opponents of the administration shipping bill today measured their strength and laid their plans preparatory to the beginning tomorrow of debate on the measure. Everything pointed to a hard and long fight, possibly continuing with interruptions, until the end of the session next March.

Opponents of the legislation neither on the Democratic side nor among the Republicans propose to show their hands prior to the motion to be made tomorrow by Chairman Jones, of the Commerce committee, to take up the measure. The general belief is that filibustering tactics, perhaps similar to those employed by the Democrats recently against the Dyer anti-lynching bill will be utilized, but no definite announcement has come from either party group or opponents.

Senators, in discussing the matter today, recalled, however, that Senator Underwood, of Alabama, Democratic leader, declared during the Dyer bill filibuster that he personally would not participate in any move to delay a vote on the ship bill.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, one of the Republican opponents, early last week prepared some amendments to the measure, including proposals for free tolls for coastwise shipping through the Panama Canal, and for regulation of railroad rates by the Interstate Commerce Commission on a long and short haul basis. Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin, who is looked upon as one of the strongest Republican opponents, is expected to come forth before the debate gets far under way with a number of other legislative proposals in the way of "riders" to the bill.

The supporters of the measure plan to fire the opening shot in the form of an extended speech by Chairman Jones, explaining the measure in detail, outlining the changes made by his committee, and presenting the necessity, as seen by the administration for its passage.

PREMIERS SAID TO BE ON VERGE OF BREAK TODAY

Probability of Suspension of Conference Seen in Conflicting Views

London, Dec. 11.—Rumors were current today that the conference of premiers might break up or suspend as result of conflicting French and English views.

The French demand the occupation of further German soil. It is also reported that Germany might revise proposals to include mortgage property and a guarantee that reparations payments be made through a neutral bank.

A definite sum will be named for the German indemnity and it is understood that the Germans will request a written pledge from the allies that they will give up German soil now occupied.

Mussolini, it is understood, has offered a new reparations plan based on economic control of Germany containing guarantees.

VETERANS BUREAU OFFICIAL TO COME HERE TOMORROW

V. F. Williams, chief of co-operation, U. S. Veterans Bureau, Raleigh, N. C., will be in Greenville on Tuesday, December 12th, at the Red Cross office, court house, for the purpose of conferring with persons interested in the work of the Veterans' Bureau and aiding claimants in the effectual prosecution of their claims for medical treatment, disability compensation, and vocational training. He will be accompanied by J. O. Howard, assistant rehabilitation supervisor, in charge of work U. S. Vocational Training in this portion of the state.

SEVERAL ACTIONS GIVEN HEARING IN CITY COURT TODAY

Charges of Drunkenness and Assault Feature Session This Morning

Eugene Sinton, colored, charged with driving automobile in excess of the speed limit on Evans street between Third and Five Points. The defendant drives for Mrs. Heber Coward and the evidence produced was to the effect that on Saturday morning about 9 o'clock or a little later while police court was in session, the defendant took advantage of the situation and opened up Mrs. Coward's car to the speed of 30 miles per hour through the business section of Evans street skidding 75 feet at Five Point after putting on brakes before the car could be stopped. Although the police officers were at the time in court, this speeding was so noticeable and apparently dangerous that Messrs E. H. Sheburn, Claude Grant and A. H. Apple voluntarily became witnesses and testified in court to the above facts. The mayor took occasion to commend the gentlemen for taking this interest in the case and thereby assist the police in protecting the public against the follies of speed demons. He stated that if the public would but cooperate generally in a similar manner, such violation of the law could be easily reduced to the minimum. This case constituted such a flagrant violation of the speed and traffic laws, and in such a congested and dangerous section, that the mayor doubled his usual fine for the first offense and penalized the defendant by setting him back $20 and the cost.

Joe Crawford, white, charged with being drunk and disorderly, conducted. Allowed to pay a fine of $10 and cost.

Nathan Johnson, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly. Allowed to pay the fine of $10 and cost.

Thos. Pitt, colored, charged with riding a bicycle on sidewalks. Allowed to pay the cost.

Joe Wooten, Francis Slaughter, colored, charged with mutually assaulting each other. Allowed to pay a fine of $10 and cost.

Ed Langley, white, charged with exceeding the speed limit and reckless driving between the town corporate limits and Cotton Mills. After carefully hearing all the evidence as produced by eight witnesses and defendant, the mayor decided that defendant was not guilty of speeding but was to some extent guilty of recklessness in striking a buggy, but that this second accident between automobile after defendant's car had been stopped and for which he could not be held responsible, it appearing that it was in the nature of an unavoidable accident. The defendant was allowed to settle the damages done to the buggy and pay the cost of the action.

Brownie Brown and Joe Baker, white, charged with mutual assault. The fight occurred in the Busy Bee Cafe, and the evidence was that it started over an argument concerning religion. It appears that Joe Baker had entered into quite a discussion with some one concerning the existence of the region of Brimstone and much agony, and in doing so, quite frequently used the term "hell" and as there was a lady present in the cafe, Brown took offense at the language and cautioned Joe to cut short his discussion, this it seems lead to more words; and finally when Joe opened his mouth again after being told by Brownie not to do so, Brownie tried to put his fist in, it, thus making himself the actual aggressor in the fight. There was also some evidence of an attempt at resistance to the officers when they arrived, by Brownie, who he denied and explained as not an act of unfriendliness. Both defendants bore marks of the conflict, but the cafe seems to have suffered the most. The mayor fined them $10 and the cost as no serious damage was done. There was also another case against Joe Baker for disorderly conduct, by cursing in a public place and in the presence of ladies. But this case was continued for further investigation, as the only evidence of cursing before the court

FITZGERALD HOLDS Y. W. C. A. SERVICE AT LOCAL COLLEGE

Delivered Interesting Sermon Before Young Women of the College Last Night

Mr. Fitzgerald conducted Y. W. C. A. services Sunday night at the Teachers College.

Mr. Fitzgerald read as the scripture lesson the first seven verses of the fourth chapters of Ephesians and the first verse of the 12th chapter of Hebrews.

In the beginning Mr. Fitzgerald stated that he wanted us to connect with our anticipation along educational lines some of the meaning of the fourth verse of the "Walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called," and the verse taken from Hebrews which reads: "Wherefore seeing ye are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, run with patience the race that is set before you." The speaker declared that the profession of teaching deals with the most valuable things in the world, the little boys and girls who are later to be leaders. He stated that teachers are responsible for nine tenths of the misfortunes of the ones they teach as they shape their thoughts, direct their ways, control their moral standards, also influence their Christian life. Quoting from Luke 17:2 he said, "It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and he cast into the sea, than offend one of these little ones." Mr. Fitzgerald said that we had connected teaching with too much sentiment and high sounding phrases, although he stated that these were a vital part of one's life. Unless our profession is put on a religious basis we cannot succeed and we shall do more harm than good. Nothing affords the same opportunity for honest effort as teaching. There is nothing unclean nor spotted in the teaching profession that will cause a real live red-blooded Christian to regret her choice of this line of work.

The teachers influence goes into every home, hill and dale and more people are influenced by it than by any other profession. Mr. Fitzgerald stated that as teachers we could not afford to incorporate into our method of living all the liberties which the splendid new freedom has caused society to tolerate. The question was asked, "Would you for the sake of society cause girls and boys who are looking to you for guidance to fall?" Many of the girls attended the services and declared that it was one of the most interesting and appropriate talks of the season.

BATTLE CONTINUES BETWEEN OFFICERS AND MOONSHINERS

Well Armed Liquor Makers Hold Officers at Bay in Kansas Mountains

(By International News)
Mount Sterling, Kan. Dec. 11.—Moonshiners, well armed, are holding at bay prohibition forces in the mountains in Manfrec county. The battle has been raging for three days. Casualties include two government agents.

Governor Morrow has been notified of the situation, but no request for troops has been made. Prohibition forces are armed with machine guns. Local authorities are members of the posse. The moonshiners are expert with the rifle and it is believed they will never be taken alive.

What makes a chicken made like being killed is because turkey is high. Several of our latest books were not late enough.

was the use of the word "hell," which had been used only in a descriptive sense.

MR M'ADAMS IN TIMELY SERMON SUNDAY EVENING

Preached Soul-Stirring Sermon on Modern Evils Confronting the Young

Mr. McAdams preached a soul stirring message on the subject of "Wild Oats" last night at the court house and those who braved threatening clouds and chill winds were amply rewarded.

He didn't fail to tell how modern evils loom in the young hearts and minds would soon develop into cases of crime and perhaps would reap the crop of wild oats behind prison bars, or in the electric chair. A fair warning was given to mothers who allow their daughters to engage in the porch dance and joy rides and all kinds of traps the devil sets for the young.

He didn't fail to stress the reaping part of life, proving by different bible characters that when the harvest comes, the sin, no matter what it was, would be greater and that we would gather more than we had sown.

A number requested prayer after the sermon was delivered. Mrs. McAdams will preach tonight on the subject of "Excuses and Hypocrites." Everyone is cordially invited to hear this sermon. Services yesterday afternoon were postponed on account of a gathering of colored people to raise funds for the fire sufferers at New Bern.

ONLY ONE ROAD SENTENCE GIVEN IN COUNTY COURT

Two Other Defendants Released Upon Payment of Fines and Costs

Charged with carrying a concealed weapon and assault with a deadly weapon, John Davis was this morning sentenced to serve eight months on the county roads by Judge Louis G. Cooper in county court.

This was the only road sentence of the morning's session, the other defendants being released upon payment of fines.

While there were only a small number of cases before Judge Cooper this morning considerable time was required in disposing of them. Much testimony was involved in each of the cases and this required much time.

Willie Little, charged with larceny, was released upon payment of $20 and cost of action.

John Cannon, Ernest Phillips and Joe Washington, charged with trespass were released upon payment of fines. Phillips was required to pay $50 and one-third cost. Washington and Cannon were released upon payment of $25 and a third cost. They immediately filed notice of appeal to superior court.

MUNFORD'S SALE STARTS DECEMBER 13

Greenville is just on the eve of a seasonal bargain event—a sale during which thousands of dollars worth of merchandise—the very latest styles in Ladies' ready-to-wear, Men's and Boys' clothing, shoes, dry goods, etc., will be offered. The entire stock will be put on the bargain block according to the announcement of Mr. C. T. Munford, the merchant who is to thus sacrifice his stock; it will be the greatest bargain event in the history of Greenville.

The big sale starts Wednesday, Dec. 13th at 9 a.m., and this big store is to be the succeeding days, the centre of interest to shoppers in this section.

Mr. Munford has secured the services of A. E. Maddox, an expert, to conduct this sale.

The store will be closed on Tuesday, Dec. 12th for the purpose of arranging the final details for the opening day, and promptly at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, the doors will swing open to admit the wise shoppers who will pay the big store a visit.

The feature of opening day is the giving away of $100 in merchandise coupons to the first one hundred customers who enter the store.

Mr. Munford's announcement appears elsewhere in this issue of The Reflector.

BROADEN THE WORK OF SUMMER SCHOOL

Three Courses Will be Offered in the Work of the Country and City Church Against One Last Year

Durham, N. C., Dec. 11.—The addition of new courses and a general broadening of the work of the summer school for ministers conducted annually at Trinity college under the supervision of the Western, North Carolina and Carolina Conferences was planned at a meeting of the board of managers here recently. June 6 to 16 was named as the date for the school. The coming term will mark the sixth year that the school has been held at Trinity. More than 200 ministers from several states were in attendance last year.

Three courses will be offered in the work of the country and city church. Only one course of this nature was given last year. Two courses in Sunday school work will be offered, and a new course in the study of the English Bible scheduled. The regular four year course in undergraduate conference work will be continued, and an additional course on conference entrance requirements offered.

The managers are now closing arrangements with leaders in various lines of religious thought to deliver inspirational addresses at the school. In previous schools some of the best minds of the country have been secured, and those brought this year will be no exception.

The board of managers is composed of committees appointed by the Western North Carolina conference and the Carolina Conference. Only two members were absent from the meeting held at Trinity.

Mr. Munford's Message To You

To be frank, we, like many other concerns, have been hit hard through financial conditions generally affecting our usual volume of business. While our stocks have been piling up, our obligations have been piling up also. High wages and high prices, necessitate the wholesaler demand his bills to be paid in full within 30 days. Formerly, it was 60 and 90 days. Our banker advises us to liquidate our stocks even at a sacrifice, to keep our good name and our credit good, and so we have SLASHED PRICES—TORN THEM TO PIECES.

The world is in a whirlpool. Thousands are running around in the rings. The times necessitate change in the method of business. Consequently, if we sacrifice our stocks to the extent of 60 per cent during this sale, we can meet our obligations, and still go into the markets and buy our spring merchandise for cash on account of the big business this sale brings.

NO TIME—ANYWHERE—ANY PLACE has there ever been such an opportunity to make such welcome savings. When you stand face to face with price tags, on the merchandise, you'll need no further urging to buy. You will never let such an opportunity get beyond your grasp.

C. T. MUNFORD.

Little Girl Improving

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sugg will be glad to learn that their little daughter who was taken to a Kingston hospital last week for treatment is much improved. While the hope was entertained for the child's recovery when it was taken to hospital it is now thought she will live and soon be on the road to full recovery.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The following students were successful in making the honor roll the third month in High School: Minnie Lee, Thomas Willard, Mary Forbes, Elsie Hardee, Emily Mason, Henry Manning, Blanche Evans, Mattie Mans, Ella Fleming, Ruth McGowan, Cecie Foley, Elizabeth Morton, Wilma Snell, Charles Skinner, Mary Perrette, Elba McGowan, and Joseph Esbach.

Superintendent Fitzgerald of Pitt County spoke at Monday morning meeting on the work of the Pitt county school system. He made a strong appeal for county children urging that they be given the same opportunities as those received by city children. Three members of the high school faculty are confined to their homes by influenza, Miss Tillet, Mr. Dunbar, and Miss Greene.

Plans are now being made for the Christmas program to be given at high school Tuesday night before the holidays begin. As the program is to be open to the public, a large crowd is expected to attend. A detailed announcement of the program will be made at a later date.

TORNEY'S EFFORT TO AID CONVICT GETS HIM INTO FURTHER TROUBLE

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 11.—One swift kick for one Tennessee attorney—that probably is the vow of Joe D. Wright, who will be released from the Kentucky Reformatory December 5—if ever he gets free of serving sentences.

And at that the Tennessee attorney is doing his best for Joe. He wrote a letter to the Georgia Prison Commission making application for full pardon of Joe D. Wright, alias James Lewis. But secretary Bell, of the commission, looked high and low for one who would vouch for the man. He did find that Joe had escaped from a Georgia chain gang a Georgia deputy.

Woman's Club Meeting.

Greenville was in such a ferment of activities among its women citizens last week, that the regular meeting of the Woman's club was postponed from Thursday until Friday afternoon. The attendance was not up to the standard that the club has been holding so faithfully at the previous meetings, but as the time of meeting was out of order and a great deal of sickness is prevalent among the members the falling off in numbers present can be accounted for very readily.

As is the custom the executive board was in session from three until three thirty o'clock, when the meeting was called to order by the president, and was opened by the usual routine work of reading minutes of last meeting and roll call.

In response to the request for reports of committees, the membership committee presented the names of four ladies for membership. These were voted upon and readily accepted. This committee has been very active this year, and at every meeting a number of new members have been added to the list. The corresponding secretary was advised by the president to always notify new members of the days of meeting, until they become real active, live club women.

Mrs. W. Z. Morton reporting for Fine Arts, stated that two meetings had been held for the children, and were well attended. This department is growing rapidly, and the children of the city are intensely interested in the work.

Report of the Library committee was brief but very telling, as they brought the glad tidings of the fifty dollars per month, that the city board of aldermen had given to the support of the library.

Mrs. James Moore for the Civics department made known the results of the crepe myrtle planting campaign. She knew that a hundred trees had been planted, and was confident of the fact, that a great many had been put out of which she had not been notified. Altogether the campaign was accounted a success.

Mrs. T. A. Person acting for Mrs. J. K. Brown had on hand, for the health department, the Red Cross Christmas seals, these were distributed, each member taking a package.

A tubercular patient has been recently sent from Stokes, in our county, to a sanatorium, by funds derived from the sale of these seals. This patient a woman, the mother of ten bright, promising children, has thus been enabled to go to a place of comfort for treatment, and at the same time the lives of the children are spared the danger of contagion. Surely money spent for these seals is "casting bread upon the waters."

At the request of Mr. R. L. Carr the president authorized the treasurer to purchase the Model school the sum of ten dollars for the milk fund. This money was promised some time ago. To be paid when called for.

The Ways and Means committee reported a hundred and ten dollars paid into the treasury as the proceeds from the home talent play given several weeks ago. At this time the club took its first step toward making their dream of a club home come true, by voting to invest this money in Building and Loan stock. Now that something definite has been done toward starting a fund for building, the club's motto from this time on should be "Watch us Grow."

It was voted upon and carried that a cut of the club's first president, the late Mrs. M. H. Quinerley be made and published accompanied by a resume of her work as a club woman. Mrs. Quinerley spent much time and real thought on the Woman's club, when in its infancy and but for her zeal and untiring efforts it would never have lived through its first years of struggle and weakness.

A donation of twenty-five dollars was voted to be given to the Sallie Southall Cotten Loan fund. Fifteen dollars is to be spent for magazines for the boys at Oteen.

Donations of both clothes and money have been sent the New Bern sufferers.

The Civics committee asked that the matter of the ever present garbage can, which like the poor we have always with us, making ugly, our otherwise good-looking streets, be mentioned to the mayor and board of aldermen, to see if they can not devise some better plan and place for this necessary evil other than the sidewalk.

The club will not meet again until after the holidays. The program committee has numerous interesting things planned for the new year and every member is looking forward to it with pleasure.

July 26, 1920, and that the commission after a fruitless search for him had closed his case. But now—thanks to Mr. Tennessee Attorney—Joe is located and when he is released from the Kentucky institution he will be met by a Georgia deputy.

MILLIONAIRE PUBLISHER IN LOVE TRIANGLE

Eugene V. Brewster, of Morristown, N. J., and New York Millionaire publisher of a number of nationally-known motion picture magazines, is defendant in a separation suit of his wife, who asks $18,000 yearly alimony. Mrs. Brewster alleges that pretty Corliss Palmer, formerly clerk in a Macon, Ga., cigar store, has won her husband's affections. Miss Palmer was victor in a beauty contest held by Brewster's magazines. Brewster and Miss Palmer have frankly avowed their love for each other.

COLLEGE GIRL DRESS DOLLS TO CHEER TOTS WITH YULETIDE GIFTS

Defiance, Ohio, Dec. 8.—Inquiry as to whether they have made a mistake and strayed into a nursery has been made by visitors to Trowbridge Hall, women's dormitory of Defiance College.

In every room dolls—dear celluloid babies—smile at you. Little mothers are industriously arraying their children in laces and silks, with here and there a tiny boy in overalls.

However, these college girls are not lapsing into premature second childhood. They are preparing dolls to be turned over to the Child Conservation League, of Defiance. The dolls will gladden the hearts of unfortunate youngsters on Christmas Day.

ANCIENT HURDY GURDY BARRED IN NORTHSIDE, PITTSBURGH COMMUNITY

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 8.—Gone are the happy days in old Allegheny, now known as the Northside, this city. Police Commissioner William Kane banished the hurdy-gurdy because the proprietors of several business establishments have complained that the organ grinders always gave their concerts in front of their business places, thereby attracting crowds and making it difficult for store employees to keep their minds on their work.

The hurdy-gurdy man against whom the order is directed has long been free from molestation, and school kids have been his chief patrons. Kane says he expects violent protests from the children when they hear of his order.

SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

By virtue of a power of sale contained in that certain mortgage deed executed by R. A. Dixon and wife Harriet Dixon to F. C. Harding, dated November 19th, and duly recorded in the Register of deeds office in Pitt county in Book C-13, page 69, the undersigned mortgagee will, on Saturday, the 23rd day of December, 1922, expose to public sale before the court house door in Greenville, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real property, to wit:

"Lying and being situated in the town of Ayden, county of Pitt and state of North Carolina and described as follows: Beginning at a stake on the road leading from Ayden to Elm Grove Church and running an easterly course with the Nobles line to Walter Barfield's line, thence a northwesterly course with said Barfield's line to a ditch, thence with said ditch to the beginning and being the same house and lot conveyed by F. C. Harding to R. A. Dixon upon which lot there is now situated one large two-story 8 room house with dining room and kitchen attached." This sale will be made for the purpose of satisfying the terms of said mortgage deed.

This the 23rd day of Nov., 1922.
F. C. HARDING,
Mortgagee.

SAYS NEW BERN FIRE FIGHTERS ARE NOT BLAMED

Mayor Clark Says Criticisms Against Department Are Unjust

CHARGES OF STATE COMMISSION DENIED BY MANY SOURCES

Insurance Adjusters Are Working on Claims of Half a Million Dollars

New Bern, N. C., Dec. 10.—N. R. Canady, Deputy Fire Insurance Commissioner, and Mayor Edward Clark today came to the defense of the City Fire Department following the statement issued by the State Fire Insurance Department, at Raleigh, which charged negligence in the handling of the disastrous fire here. Mr. Canady termed the State Department utterances "unjust criticism." In a statement he declared the local fire department had done everything within its power. He stated it was true the department went outside the city limits to combat the Roper Mill fire. Any other department in the state would do the same thing when the necessity arose, he said.

The fire forces were concentrated at the mill when the big fire started, which destroyed more than a thousand structures. Deputy-Commissioner Canady praised the quick work of the department in reaching the scene on the west side. He stated there was but a little delay. The New Bern Fire Department was not to blame.

Mayor Clark declared the Raleigh statement was unjust to the city, its fire department and citizens.

Insurance adjusters are working on claims, but so far no adjustments have been made. Mr. Canady stated his investigation showed there will be approximately $500,000.00 in insurance claims. Police are investigating the charge that explosives were found in negro homes.

Work on the clearing away of the debris is being rapidly pushed. Semblance of order is beginning to appear out of the chaos.

HARDING DELIVERS PRINCIPAL ADDRESS BEFORE CONGRESS

Chief of Executive Discusses Prohibition, Railroad and Other Important Issues

Washington, Dec. 8.—President Harding addressing congress in person today placed the transportation situation, prohibition enforcement and farm credits in the forefront of the National problems pressing for solution.

Also he took occasion to reply directly to those whom he said had assumed that the United States had taken itself "aloof and apart, America had assumed in international relations."

On the prohibition situation the executive asserted there were conditions of enforcement "which savor of nation-wide scandal." He made no recommendations on this, but announced his purpose to call an early conference of the governors of the states and territories with the federal authorities to formulate definite policies of national and state co-operation in the administration of the laws.

Declaring there was no problem exceeding in importance the one of transportation, Mr. Harding told congress there was need to begin on plans to co-ordinate the transportation facilities—rail, water and motor. As to the relief of the railroad problem he suggested merger of the lines into systems and a consolidation of the facilities generally.

KEMALISTS MUST CAST THEIR LOT WITH THE ALLIES

TURK FACED WITH SHARP DIFFERENCES AT LAUSANNE CONFAB

Turkish Leaders Are Fighting Hard to Defeat Plans of the British

Lausanne, Dec. 10.—The Turkish delegates to the Near East conference today faced the difficult problem of deciding whether Turkey, in formulating her plan for control of the Dardanelles, should cast her lot with Russia or with the Entente Powers and the United States. Turkey's suggestion for the solution of the perplexing Straits question will be made public tomorrow at the Hotel Du Chateau.

Ismet Pasha and his associates, in formulating their plans, were faced in the sharp differences of opinion between Great Britain and Russia in the discussion of the Dardanelles question. If Turkey, on the one hand, goes over to the British camp she fears the irate Russian army on her Eastern frontier; if, on the other hand, she sides with Russia in demanding support control of the waterway, she fears the British navy in the Straits.

The Turks thus far have temporized by saying they favor M. Tchiterin's plan; but they took this attitude before they had heard the solution offered by the powers.

Ismet Pasha and his associates were impressed by the plan presented by Lord Curzon yesterday in behalf of the entente, which was approved in general by the statement of the position of the United States. The Turks apparently cannot forget that Russia is Turkey's traditional enemy and that Premier Lenine's government may not be less covetous of Constantinople and the Straits than was Russian in the days of Czars.

Turkey has always found protection in numbers. She has played the European countries against each other to her great advantage time and again and she hesitates to trust her fate to Russia alone while the rest of Europe supported by the United States, opposes an effort to turn the Black Sea into a Russian lake.

M. Tchiterin, fighting hard to defeat Lord Curzon's plans, urged that it would enable a combination of powers like the entente to keep a great navy in the Black Sea, as each member of the combination could maintain there as many ships as belonged to Russia, or whatever Black Sea power happened to have the largest navy at the time.

Turning to the recent railroad strike, the President proposed that the Federal Tribunal dealing with disturbances between carriers and their workers be given ample authority to enforce its decision. He voiced a preference of abolition of the railroad labor board and the placing of it's function under an enlarged Interstate commerce commission.

Should the decision continue this board in existence, however, he suggested that the partisan membership be abolished to the end that the Tribunal be impartial and the headquarters moved from Chicago to Washington so there might be direct contact with the commission.

Women powder their noses in public so why can't men shave on the street cars as they ride to work?
