GOOD CROWD HEARS HEALTH LECTURERS AT BETHEL SCHOOL

Public Health Campaign Carried Into Town With Gratifying Results

OTHER LECTURES TO BE DELIVERED ON DECEMBER 21ST

Speakers to Appear at Grimesland, Stokes and Winterville on This Date

The public health educational campaign of the Pitt county Medical society was carried into Bethel with gratifying results the latter part of last week, and physicians are hopeful great good was accomplished. A lecture was also scheduled for Greenville that evening but for some unknown reason there was no audience to greet the speakers at the high school.

Good crowds have greeted the lecturers in all other parts of the county and the people generally have become greatly interested in plans of the physicians to educate the public on vital health questions.

Thursday night, December 21st, the campaign will be carried into Stokes, Winterville and Grimesland. First lectures have already been delivered at these places and an entirely new subject will be discussed by the speakers the next time. All lectures deal with timely subjects and are prepared by some well informed member of the state department of health.

Everyone is urged to turn out in every place visited and in this way show their appreciation of what the medical society is doing for public health development. It has been impossible to get an audience in Greenville and it is hoped the next time speakers are scheduled to appear here at the high school auditorium will be packed to its capacity.

ALLIES DISCUSS CANCELLATION OF THEIR WAR DEBTS

Britain Agrees to Cancel French Debt if America Will do Likewise

London, Dec. 11.—Great Britain is said to look favorably on the cancellation of the French debt due her, provided the United States cancels the French debt to America. It is the belief of British officials that the United States would be willing to at least attend a conference at which such a proposition could be discussed. It also was stated in America cities this morning that a definite agreement to pay the British debt to the United States could or might be accomplished by a proposal for a long period, say 50 years, in which only interest would be paid. It was explained that this was on the theory that the United States was primarily interested in securing the ultimate of the British debt, rather than an immediate settlement.

In conference quarters it was the general view that France has indicated her willingness to give up military penalties in return for the cancellation of debts by the United States and Great Britain and would be ready also to give long and moratorium to Germany.

No request that the United States take part in a conference on cancellation of the great war debt has reached the State Department and there was no indication that department officials say any reason to alter the well-understood position that previously had been taken on the question of the European debt.

Our idea of a good time is sitting around wondering how tired we would get if we were not too lazy.

MANY CHANGES IN PERSONNEL OF THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE

New Clerk and Deputies go in With Amos C. Jackson, Successor to E. R. Dudley

Many changes have taken place in the personnel of the sheriff's office since Amos Jackson succeeded Sheriff Ernest Dudley several days ago. In fact, the change effected every department and entirely new faces greet visitors at the office these days. Miss Ruth Edwards has succeeded Miss Mae Dudley as general office clerk. S. A. Whitehurst, former chief of police of Ayden and a member of the Greenville police department for more than a year has succeeded R. L. Corbett, a former candidate for sheriff, as deputy. M. F. Cox, son of Mr. Marshall Cox of Chicod township, succeeded W. L. Patrick as the other deputy.

Mr. Jackson has seen long service as a deputy in the sheriff's office and business is moving along smoothly under his administration. His deputies and clerks have also had proper training and are capable of serving the public with great efficiency.

RUSSIANS STILL PRESSING CLAIM FOR THE STRAITS

Turks Want Straits Closed But Ismet Pasha Says They Will Remain Open

Lausanne, Dec. 11.—Russia has not abandoned hope of forcing her position on the Lausanne conference concerning the closing of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus, at least of reducing to a minimum the number of foreign vessels which will be permitted to pass through these waters to the Black Sea.

M. Tchitcherin called on Ismet Pasha today with counter proposals. He informed Ismet that Russia would surely never sign a straits settlement which followed the lines of the Allied project. The Allied project is that the straits shall be open to as many warships of each nation as are possessed by the greatest maritime power of the Black Sea, which will certainly be Russia.

As a counter measure, Tchitcherin asked that the Turkish delegation support a plan whereby foreign nations could despatch through the straits only one-third as many warships as Russia maintained in the Black Sea. This, he argued, was only fair to Russia, because the Entente powers could always amalgamate their forces and thus be as powerful as Russia.

Ismet Pasha told M. Tchitcherin that the world wanted the straits that opened on a reasonable basis and that Turkey should not combat the whole world.

The Near Eastern conference, which made little progress today, is plainly marking time to await the outcome of the London reparations negotiations. Lord Curzon and M. Barrere, in dealing with Turkey and Russia, have established an Anglo-French entente at Lausanne, which they had hoped would be strengthened by a reparations understanding between England and France at London. There is an interlocking of interests involved which is of great concern to both Turkey and Russia, as well as England and France. If a Christmas recess is decided upon, Ismet Pasha may hasten to Angora to consult with the National Assembly.

EVANGELIST SCORES AMERICA DECLINES THE HYPOCRITE IN TO HELP PREMIERS GRIPPING SERMON WITH REPARATIONS

Mrs. McAdams Preaches Soul-Stirring Sermon to Large Congregation

Mrs. McAdams said last night that excuses and hypocrites were so closely connected that she wouldn't try to separate them.

Her text was taken from the 27th chapter, 8th verse of Job, which reads as follows: "For what is the hope of the hypocrite though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?" She used in connection with this text the 23rd chapter of Matthew and the 14th chapter of Luke. The hypocrite was as thin as a shadow when Mrs. McAdams stopped.

Different lines of business were named and the people reminded that in all these hypocrites were found and that good people didn't stop for a few hypocrites. They kept right on and are not always making excuses. Mrs. McAdams said if she was giving five hundred dollars a night to each person in Greenville that all kinds would be present each night, even the cripples would be brought in and folks on beds and cots also.

She said people go a long ways for money, but they won't go far when it comes to salvation all kinds of excuses are put up. She said the church folks made a few too. She said all could go their way, but what does it amount to when God has called them unto judgment.

The call was made and several responded. Mr. McAdams will preach tonight on the subject of "Your Eternal Exchange." This will be one of the greatest messages of the campaign and everyone is urged to attend.

LOYD GEORGE DECLARES FRENCH MILITARISM IS THREATENING THE WORLD

London, Dec. 12.—The Daily Chronicle, the personal organ of David Lloyd George, in commenting on the collapse of the premises' conference, declared that Poincare's French militarism was threatening Europe. The British press took gloomy view of the situation, holding Poincare responsible. The next conference will be held in Paris in January, it was intimated.

$40,000 RAISED FOR THE RELIEF OF NEW BERNIANS

Health Officer Makes Survey of Conditions as 100 Negroes go to Work

New Bern, N. C., Dec. 11.—Week end contributions bring the total of the New Bern Relief Fund to practically $40,000, it was announced tonight by R. N. Scott, Secretary. Officials are much pleased with the liberal responses to Mayor Edward Clark's appeal for aid. It was stated Tuesday W. Mendelsohn, of the U. S. Public Health Service, arrived today to make a survey of the sanitary conditions after which he will make a report to his Department supplemented by a request for additional Sanitary Engineers. Health conditions so far here are reported good and no fear is entertained of a serious epidemic among the billeted negroes.

One hundred negroes were put to work today clearing ground for tents to shelter the homeless blacks. This work is under the direction of Major Evans.

GOVERNOR FOUND NOT GUILTY IN THE SEDUCTION CASE

Governor Russell, of Mississippi, Exonerated by Charge Brought by Stenographer

Oxford, Miss., Dec. 11.—Luc M. Russell, Governor of Mississippi was in effect exonerated by a jury in the United States District Court here tonight of the charges of seduction and other serious allegations by a verdict finding for the defendant in a suit for damages instituted by Miss Frances Cleveland Birkhead, stenographer.

The verdict—the climax of one of the most sensational law suits ever filed in a Mississippi court—was returned at 6:08 o'clock just 28 minutes after the arguments were concluded, instructions given and the submitted.

Neither of the principals were in the court room when the jury presented its verdict. Governor Russell and Mrs. Russell went to the home of his brother immediately after the jury retired. Members of his counsel also had left the court room. Miss Birkhead and her attorneys left at the same time for their hotel. And the crowd which for a week had packed the court room to its capacity had passed from the building evidently in the belief that no immediate verdict was in prospect.

Several newspaper men, court attaches and a handful of the more determined of those who had followed the trial during its weeks of sensational developments not more than a score of the men remained when the jury filed in with its verdict.

Miss Birkhead had asked for $100,000 damages. $50,000 was asked on each of the two counts, one charging seduction and the other impairment of health as a result of an alleged operation which she declared Mr. Russell had connived at. She was awarded forty cents. The verdict was returned by a jury composed of men ranging in age from 46 to 76 years.

FREE STATES ORDER DE VALERA SHOT ON SIGHT, REPORTS SAY

Dublin, Dec. 12.—Free State military officials have ordered Eamonn DeValera to be shot on sight, according to persistent rumors going their rounds here today. DeValera is said to be in hiding in or near Dublin, but so far efforts of his enemies to locate him have been without success.

EPIDEMIC OF FLUE ON THE WANE IN THIS TERRITORY

Department of Health Reports the Situation to be Clearing up Considerably

The epidemic of influenza which has ripped Pitt county the past two or three weeks is clearing up to no little extent, according to a report given out this morning by the department of health. The situation has undergone quite an improvement the last several hours and today there is little indication of the development of new cases.

While the epidemic this time has been more extensive than ever before it is mild compared to the first time it paid the county a visit. No deaths have actually occurred from the flu this time, although exposure in some cases has developed into pneumonia and death.

As a general thing the flu this time has been nothing more severe than a heavy cold. Some cases, however, have possibly been more severe as a result of lack of precaution. The department of health believes the situation has cleared up materially and is anticipating even more pronounced improvement within the next few days. Epidemics have been reported from other parts of the state but they are not severe enough to occasion undue alarm. In fact, it is stated that no one need fear had results from the illness if they take care of themselves and avoid unnecessary exposure.

Active pall bearers will be N. O. Warren, B. W. Moseley, Charles Harvey, L. R. Meadows, W. C. Dresbach, R. H. Wright, W. T. Bryan and C. T. Mumford.

Rowlett, Spruill Spain, J. K. Proctor, J. B. James, H. E. Sugg, Thad Mangum, J. B. Spillman, Guy Smith, D. M. Clark, Zeb Whitehurst, Mr. Willard, James Ficklen.

Mrs. Pulley is survived by beside a husband, two sons, Ralph Moore and E. J. Pulley, Jr., five sisters and one brother, Mrs. Ida Harper, of Richmond, Mrs. F. L. Croom and Mrs. A. Viccello, both of Suffolk, Mrs. H. L. Clifton, of Faison, Mrs. T. J. Horton, of Aberdeen and Mr. E. E. Giddens, of Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. Pulley was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church and was active in its development.

She was one of the most beloved women of the city and did much to promote the social and religious life of the community.

PROSPECTS SLIM FOR AGREEMENT ON REPARATIONS

Allied Premiers Will Make Effort to Reach Agreement by January 2nd

BONAR LAW WILL SPEAK IN BEHALF OF ISSUE SOON

Former British Minister Amused at Premier's Failure to Get Lined Up

London, Dec. 11.—The London conference on German reparations, generally described as the critical conference, ended today in agreement only on another conference. The next link in the long chain of the Allies' struggles to get together will be forged at Paris January 2. There will be a fortnight then left for the Allies to agree upon some program.

The moratorium granted the Germans expires January 15th, and the next payment on account of reparations, which Germany protests she is unable to meet, will be due on that date.

Another futile round table session of the diplomats would seem to mean only fulfillment of the French plan (or independent action, which British opinion believes would spell calamity for the tottering edifice of European prosperity and sow the seeds for a future great war.

The agreement to disagree—only temporarily, the diplomats asserted—was consummated in three days, embracing four meetings of the Allied Premiers. The rock on which harmony founded was the British refusal formally to countenance the French project for partial occupation of the Ruhr and the taking charge of important German industries. The British cabinet met this afternoon and registered its refusal to co-operate with France in such measure.

Premier Mussolini's proposals for a settlement were treated courteously, as was due the head of a powerful nation, but were not taken seriously as a panacea for the German sick man of Europe. The German note was rejected unanimously, with the general comment that it meant merely sparring to gain time.

The British government submitted no general plan to solve the deadlock; it practically offered to cancel France's debt to Great Britain as an inducement for scaling down the amount of the monetary demand upon Germany. The French, Italian and Belgian Premiers, with their staffs of experts, will embark for home tomorrow.

JOHN WANAMAKER DIES FOLLOWING LENGTHY ILLNESS

Merchant Prince and Philanthropist Passed Away at Philadelphia Early Today

(By International News.) Philadelphia, Dec. 12.—John Wanamaker, merchant prince and philanthropist, owner of the Wanamaker stores at New York, Philadelphia and Paris, died this morning following illness of two months.

Strong hope had been entertained for his recovery, but his advanced age of 85 proved greatly to his disadvantage.

Mr. Wanamaker was one of the best known business men in America, having taken an active part in early development of many branches of industry. He was one of the pioneers of American industry, and is known far and near as result of his gifts to the more unfortunate.

A PUBLIC MENACE.

Speeding has assumed serious proportions on the hard surfaced roads of Pitt county and unless something is done there is no telling what the outcome will be. Within the last thirty-six hours there have been at least four wrecks resulting in almost complete destruction of all cars and injury of a child. Fortunately the occupants of most of the cars escaped without injury, but only providence prevented serious injury or death.

We have been hammering away for relief almost daily since the roads were constructed. But so far nothing has been done to improve the situation. The time has come, however, when action must be taken and it is up to the county commissioners or members of the highway commission to get together and see what can be done. We don't know who is responsible for the roads, but we do know the commissioners should find out and see if arrangements can't be made for providing a traffic cop for the roads where traffic is the heaviest.

The general increase in automobiles and also in mileage of roads increases the seriousness of the situation, and the time at last has come when action must be immediate. There is no use to talk about checking speeding without the presence of a traffic officer. To ask a man to run his car slowly, or within the specified limit, would be a waste of breath. Therefore, it is the duty of our county officials to take charge of affairs and see if some effective measure cannot be provided.

The loss of life and property eventually to result from the speeding will be far greater than the expense of keeping an officer on the roads. One life would be of greater value than an officer's salary for several years. This fact should be taken in consideration, and we are looking to our commissioners to see the matter in this light.

Speeding has convinced long enough and if something isn't done we can't begin to predict what the outcome will be. There is only one alternative. That is to either provide traffic cops or see death and destruction reach appalling proportions.

Have you done that Christmas shopping? With only eleven more days before you it might be advisable to get busy immediately if you would get the pick of the many fine things the merchants have on display. We have all made the mistake of delaying Christmas shopping, but there is no excuse for such today. The merchants have gone ahead and displayed their stocks far in advance of the usual time in order to avoid the last minute rush and unless you take advantage of this thoughtfulness there is no one to blame but yourself. So get busy and get the best Santa has to offer.

United States will be broadcasted by radio to an audience of more than one million persons tonight. The air will be cleared for the French statesman's final good will message in this country from 8:30 until 10 o'clock.

The Tiger's speech will be delivered at the annual dinner of the American Committee for Devastated France to be held in the Hotel Pennsylvania here. His talk, given before 2,000 persons expected to attend the dinner, will be picked up by microphones in the banquet hall and relayed by Western Union wires to station WJZ in Newark.

The words of Clemenceau will be broadcasted from the Newark station. That station, which is operated by the Westinghouse Company, covers the United States east of the Mississippi and, under favorable conditions, San Francisco and London.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSO. OF MODEL SCHOOL HOLDS MOST INTERESTING MEETING

On last Wednesday afternoon at the Model School the Parent-Teachers Association held a most interesting meeting with Mrs. J. E. Winslow, president, presiding.

The pupils of the second grade presented a health play with little Elizabeth Carr taking the part of health. She played her part splendidly and delighted her large audience. All others taking part deserve their part of praise.

Pres. R. H. Wright, of the Eastern Carolina Teachers College spoke most interestingly along educational lines impressing upon his hearers the importance of having consolidated schools and trained teachers.

Prof. June Rose followed Mr. Wright with a few remarks about the work of the school and the assistance which it is receiving from the Parent-Teachers Association.

The second grade, for the third consecutive time, was awarded the prize of $2.00 for having the largest number of parents present.

Mrs. Winslow, during her administration has exerted a wonderful influence over the association and has been such an inspiration to the parents that they are very enthusiastic over the school and the progress which their children are making. The teachers also deserve praise for the work which they are accomplishing.

"No More Ruined Shirtwaists for Me," said Mrs. Southlee

"I've discovered a most wonderful water softener"

A group of young housewives were discussing washing materials. One said that her clothes had been fairly eaten to ribbons by patent washing fluids and chemicals.

"No more of that in my home," said Mrs. Southlee. "I've discovered a most wonderful water softener that does not harm the fabric. My maid says it makes the washing easier than anything she has ever used. She just dissolves a 1/2 teaspoonful of Red Seal Lye in each bucket of water. This softens the water, and makes the clothes snowy white. She uses less soap too."

"That's quite true," chimed in another. "I've always used Red Seal Lye as a water softener, but that's only one of its many uses. Red Seal Lye makes an excellent soap. I tell my cook to save all the waste grease. One can of Red Seal, when mixed with grease and water, makes enough soap to last several months for all laundry and scrubbing purposes. It's really quite fun to make. The directions are in the can."

There are many household uses and recipes for Red Seal Lye described in the Red Seal Booklet, which will be mailed you free. Send for it today.

Ask your dealer for the old reliable granulated Red Seal Lye. Get the genuine. Take no other.
