Sat Twelve Hours By Her Victim

This photograph of Mrs. Oliver L. Jones, of Louisville, Kentucky, was taken in the sitting room of her home, where she shot and killed Oscar Black, 41, early Christmas Eve. She sat alongside the body for 12 hours before she surrendered to the police. Mrs. Jones, a divorcee, has been reconciled with her former husband since the shooting, and he asserts he will stand by her in her trial.

NUMBERS ATTEND ALL NIGHT SERVICE AT COURT HOUSE

Mrs. McAdams Delivered Powerful Sermon at Two Services Yesterday

The greatest service during the McAdams meeting was held at the court house yesterday afternoon and last night. Mrs. McAdams brought a strong message to her congregation at both services and those who braved the threatening elements were fully rewarded for doing so.

Mrs. McAdams used as her subject "The world passeth away and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever." She repeated a portion of the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew and reminded her congregation that every sin loved would pass away. All false doctrines, all the handiwork of man's would come to naught and the only thing that will stand out will be the souls redeemed by the blood of Jesus.

The call was made and souls came. Then the all night prayer meeting followed. It was a glorious services and many persons remained. The power of God came down and a number were saved during the night.

The motive of the service was to pray for a revival in Greenville. Many beautiful testimonies were given and prayers beyond number were said. All classes were remembered in the prayers.

The subject of tonight's sermon will be "Forgive and Forget." This will be one of the most powerful sermons of the meetings over to county court under $100 bond.

E. S. Webb, white, charged with assaulting Warren Morgan with deadly weapon. Bound over to county court under $100 bond.

Lance Edwards, Jas. Butler, Ben Dickerson, Jas. Norris, Ed. Powell, Noah Chapman, col., charged with shooting crap for money. Allowed to pay a fine of $10 each and the cost.

Chas. Harris, Matthew Blue Jim Hill, Jas. W. Staton, col., charged with playing skin for money on Dec. 30th. Allowed to pay a fine of $10 each and the cost.

LeRoy Edwards, col., charged with riding bicycle on sidewalk. Paid cost.

Jerry Barnes, col. charged with allowing dog to run at large. Allowed to pay the cost.

Arthur Hayes, white, charged with parking auto on pavement between hours of 4 and 5 a. m. Allowed to pay the cost.

Chas. Scott, white, driving auto and not having exhaust muffled. Allowed to pay the cost.

J. C. Elks, white, parking auto on pavement between hours of 1 and a. m. Allowed to pay the cost.

FRED MILLS DIES AT HIS HOME NEAR SHELMEKDINE, N. C.

Well-Known Farmer to be Buried This Afternoon at Two O'clock

Fred Mills, aged 48, prominent farmer, died at his home in the Shelmerdine section yesterday morning about eight o'clock. He had been ill several days with the flu which resulted in his death.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home this afternoon at two o'clock interment following in the family burying ground.

Mr. Mills is survived by a wife and several children, two or three of whom have been ill several days. Mr. Mills was one of the best known men of his community. He was active in all things tending to improve conditions in the locality in which he resided so many years, and his death will be received with keen regret in all parts of the county.

COPLON & SONS AT NEW BERN WILL SELL OUT

Large Department Store Owners to Go Into Dollar Chain Store Business Throughout United States.

New Bern, Dec. 30.—After having been engaged in business in New Bern for twenty-eight years, growing from a small establishment doing an annual business of a few thousands of dollars to Eastern North Carolina's largest department store, doing a business of more than a million dollars annually, S. Coplon & Sons have announced that they intend to sell their mammoth establishment on Middle street, together with its stock and to thereafter engage wholly and entirely in the operation of dollar stores, three of which they intend to open just as soon as their big store here and its stock can be disposed of.

INSANE MAN KILLS MOTHER AND DAUGHTER AND INJURES OTHERS

Canton, O., Jan. 1.—Running amuck after going insane, apparently from jealousy, Joseph Fernandez, Spanish laborer shot and killed Mrs. Elizabeth Rich, her daughter Elizabeth and seriously wounded Peter Rich and Dominic Rich in the Rich home here last night.

SLIGHT EARTHQUAKE VISITS SOUTH WALES

Cardiff, Wales, Jan. 1.—An earthquake was felt at Lanbilleth, South Wales, here last night. A thousand coal miners were thrown into a panic by the shock. Damage was slight and no fatalities have so far been reported.

NEW YEAR GETS THE GLAD HAND IN GREENVILLE

1923 Ushered in by Blowing of Whistles and Ringing of Bells Last Night

The New Year was ushered in with ringing of bells and blowing of whistles in Greenville last night. Many persons who forget about the observance jumped out of their beds startled when the two fire whistles emitted sounds that caused the flesh to creep about of many a nervous soul.

The various churches observed their customary night watches. At the court house the McAdams evangelistic party held an all night prayer service. This continued until after seven o'clock this morning when the service ended with a concluding prayer.

Aside from these observances the old year passed out and the new year came in as quietly as anyone could wish for. While a few persons were on the streets, the crowds were greatly reduced because of a high wind and threatening clouds. The New Year brought with it a heavy downpour of rain, but the clouds cleared during the morning hours and at noon the day was an ideal New Year day.

While numbers of people face the new year with uncertainty and possible apprehension, the majority, it is believed, feel encouraged by favorable reports issued by the various department heads of the nation. An increase in employment and business has engendered a feeling of optimism among a large number of business men and women and the outlook for a good year is bright.

FRANCE REFUSES NEW PEACE TERMS FROM GERMANY

Premier Poincare Issues Statements Regarding Recent Proposals

Hamburg, Dec. 31.—The Franco-German non-war pact, proposed by Germany to France through the mediation of a neutral power, has been rejected by Premier Poincare. This statement was made by the German Chancellor, Wilhelm Cuno, in the course of a significant speech before the Hamburg Bourse today.

The Chancellor's revelation was the first official admission that the German government had recently undertaken serious steps to placate French war apprehensions, and incidentally dispose of the recurrent French accusations that Germany was arming for a new war.

The German New Year's non-war act was proposed to France through the medium of an unnamed power, probably either Switzerland or Holland, and provided for a solemn pledge by all the powers interested in the Rhine that none of them should wage war on the others for a generation without active authorization of their people as expressed through a popular referendum in all the countries involved.

The German government stipulated that a world power which was not interested in the Rhine should be guardian or trustee of this pledge. Such an obligation, Chancellor Cuno stated, would commit each nation which was a party to the pact to a peace policy and would afford the most secure guarantee conceivable.

"To my regret," said the Chancellor, "France has seen fit to reject our proposal."

The major part of the Chancellor's speech was devoted to a discussion of reparations and their effect on the national and international situation. He gave the barest outlines of the new German proposals, declaring that he government had decided to name a definite sum, which it believed it would be able to pay off through the aid of a system of domestic and foreign loans.

FEW CHANGES IN BUSINESS CIRCLE MARK NEW YEAR

Only Few Business Men Changing Jobs With Greenville Business Houses This Year

The beginning of a new year in Greenville finds probably less changes in business circles than in many past years. Everyone, in practically every branch of industry, seem to have anchored at their old posts and will remain there another year.

As a usual thing there are many changes among clerks and salesmen employed by the many business houses of the city, but everything and everybody appear to be satisfied and contented with conditions and plan to trust their present state of affairs another year.

The new year finds the general run of business men encouragingly optimistic, despite the sluggishness of business in the past, and the small number of changes indicate that everyone has confidence in their particular line of business.

Mr. W. H. Horns, who for the past three years has been connected with the Horne Drug Company, has resigned and will become a member of the firm of the Horne-Staton Drug Company, a new enterprise which will be located in the building adjoining Moseley Brothers and Pitt Shoe Company.

J. D. Wilson, who has been connected with Forbes & Baker several years has resigned and will hereafter be connected with the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company.

Mr. R. L. Harris, salesman for S. E. Gates & Company, will succeed Mr. Baker at Forbes & Baker's.

Messrs W. S. Galloway and Don Evans have accepted positions with Blount Harvey Company.

Mr. L. Y. Holliday, who has been employed at the Blount Harvey & Company has resigned and will be associated with his brother in the fertilizer business.

Mr. D. N. Nobles, salesman of the Blount Harvey & Company's store has resigned and will return to the farm.

Mr. E. E. Rawls, who has been connected with the Denton Drug Company, has resigned to accept a position with R. T. Burnette in the sale of the Dodge Brothers automobiles.

BOMB IN PACKAGE CAUSES DEATH IN WISCONSIN TOWN

Farmer and Son Landed in Jail Charged With Sending Bomb to Party

Marshfield, Wis., Dec. 30.—James Magnuson, a farmer living six miles southeast of Marshfield and his 18 year old son were arrested late this afternoon in connection with the mailing of a dynamite bomb to James A. Chapman, County Commissioner.

The bomb exploded while Mrs. Chapman was opening the package blowing off Mr. Chapman's left arm. Mrs. Chapman died later from injuries she received.

Sheriff Walter C. Mueller, accompanied by deputies and postal inspectors, arrested Magnuson in a woods about 40 rods from his house and then found the son at home. Both were taken to Wisconsin Rapids, the county seat.

Magnuson, a Scandinavian settler, was one of the bitterest opponents to a drainage ditch project which Chapman, County Commissioner, had projected.

BRITISH RESIDENTS OF MALTA PREPARE TO DEPART

London, Jan. 1.—Owing to uncertainty in the Near East and the possibility of hostilities sixteen hundred British and other residents of Malta are preparing to depart, said a Valletta dispatch. Malta is the British naval base in the Mediterranean sea.

KERN IS INDICTED IN BOSCH SALE

Martin E. Kern, alleged German alien, who financed the purchase of the Bosch Magneto Co., when it was seized from its German owners during the war, has been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on the charge that he committed perjury when he swore he was an American citizen in an application for a passport.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO RE-OPEN HERE WED., JANUARY 3

Teachers Have Returned and Everything is in Readiness for Opening

Public schools of Greenville will re-open for session Wednesday, Jan. 3rd, according to an announcement made this morning by J. H. Rose, superintendent.

All teachers have returned and everything will be in readiness when the various schools open, it was stated, and it is expected the year will be a most successful one.

The schools have made considerable progress this session despite the epidemic of sickness which has gripped this section the past several weeks, and the outlook for continued progress is very bright indeed. Mr. Rose stated.

TWO MEN IDENTIFIED BY LOUISIANA SHERIFF

Monroe, La., Jan. 1.—A bit of embroidery wrought by feminine hands has provided the means of identification of Watt Daniel and Thomas Richards when the luke here gave up the bodies, Deputy Mulhern told members of the International News Service. Three initials were worked in pink thread on Richard's shirt band established his identity. A belt buckle proved Daniel's identity.

SIMPLICITY MARKS NEW YEAR OBSERVANCE AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington, Jan. 1.—Utmost simplicity and unpretentiousness marked the New Year's welcome at the White House today. This marked a virtual revision to Wilsonian days when state functions were curtailed. Mrs. Harding regretted calling off the reception, but this resulted from strict order from the house physician.

MORROUGE AUTHORITIES BEGIN ROUNDUP OF PERONS IMPLICATED IN MURDERS

Merrouge, La., Jan. 1.—The first unclean thrust into the hills of northern Louisiana began today as federal agents concentrated at the Moore house arish to begin a preliminary roundup of persons suspected of implication with the hooded mob murders August. Two companies of militia are holding strategic positions here and at Bastrop more than three score arrests are expected before the roundup starts.

HOOVER DECLARES NEW YEAR OUTLOOK IS MIGHTY BRIGHT

Commerce Secretary Thinks Story of Economic Progress in 1922 is Favorable

Washington, Dec. 31.—The story of 1922 is one of world economic progress, and the prospects are favorable for 1923, Secretary Hoover, of the department of commerce, declared in a statement tonight in which he reviewed the past and hazarded a forecast of the future year. His statement, compiled from reports of special investigators in all parts of the earth, expressed complete confidence concerning the remodeling of the delicate economic machine so badly wrecked by the world war.

"An economic forecast cannot amount to more than a review of tendencies and a hazard in the future," Mr. Hoover said. "The world begins the year with greater economic strength than a year ago; production and trade are upon a larger and more substantial basis, with the single exception of the sore spot in Central Europe. The healing force of business and commerce has gained substantial ascendancy over destructive political and social forces. There is ample reason why there should be continued progress during the next twelve months."

The Secretary declared that outside of "three or four states in Central Europe," the whole world had shaken itself free from the great after-war slump. Social stability has gained, he said, urging that the exceptions in Europe be not allowed to obscure "the profound forces of progress elsewhere over the world." In the main, he added, even in the areas referred to as "sore spots" the difficulties are to a large extent physical and political rather than commercial and industrial.

In addition to the social betterment, Mr. Hoover mentioned as other net gains for the year 1922 and guide lines to 1923, the following:

"Bolshevism has greatly diminished, and even in Russia has been replaced by a mixture of Socialism and individualism.

"Active war, at least, has ceased for the first time since 1914.

"Famine and distress have diminished to much less numbers this winter than at any time since the great war began.

"Production has increased greatly during the year.

"Unemployment is less in world totals than at any time since the armistice.

"International commerce is increasing.

"The world is now pretty generally purchasing its commodities by the normal exchange of services and goods, a fact which in itself marks an enormous step in recovery from the strained movement of credit and gold which followed the war."

AMERICAN BEGINS NEW YEAR FACING FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

Washington, Jan. 1.—The United States started the New Year by racing gigantic financial problems. Nearly a billion and a half of public securities mature within the next six months and must be refunded by the treasury department. The nation must also struggle to meet expenditures with bounds of receipts of the treasury. Payment of 25 million in war savings is another big feature.

FRENCH TIGER LIKES FLORIDA GRAPEFRUIT

Orlando, Fla., Dec. 31.—Georges Clemenceau, former Prime Minister of France, fell so in love this country recently that he arranged for regular shipments to Paris until the close of the season, according to an order received by a local citrus fruit concern from its New York office.

Several who did their Christmas shoplifting, too late were caught.

In York, Pa., bandits carried off the postoffice safe, but there was only money in it no coal.

New Year's resolutions will be one day old tonight—if they should hold that long.

New Year's resolutions won't get you anywhere. The thing that spells success is determination to do the best we can under all circumstances and to serve others as we would have them serve us. Selfishness and constant thought of self will get us nowhere and the only way to get anything out of life is to serve long and well.

The New Year holds nothing but the very best for the man and woman determined to do their best in behalf of the community in which they reside. Everyone owes the community something. There are various ways by which we may serve the people and these are presented from time to time. We must always be on the lookout for our chance to serve and be ready to do what we can in the interest of our fellowmen.

Business men should look forward to the future with optimism, having faith in the greatness of the section in which they live. Times may be rather hard, but they will be even more so if everybody gets scared and stops spending. Money must be kept in circulation if conditions are to be what they should. The man that hides away every cent possible will be the one to miss the opportunities offered from time to time. This section is too great to experience real hard times, and if every man keeps his hand and brain busy things are bound to improve.

PUBLIC FORUM

"PUBLIC WELFARE" (?)

On the 21st instant the public's attention was called to a ruling of the Public Welfare Officer of Pitt county, which appeared in The Daily Reflector requiring all children under the compulsory attendance law, to secure a doctor's certificate showing that the child who had been absent from school was absent on account of sickness.

I dare say that fully 75 per cent of the sickness of school children are of such a nature as not to require the attention of a doctor, yet are too sick to be in school. But Mr. "Public Welfare" Officer says you must have the doctor whether you want him or not, or whether it is necessary. It is too absurd to be funny.

The idea of having to call a doctor 10 miles in the country to secure a doctor's certificate when a school child has a slight rise of temperature or whooping cough, etc. There are plenty of people in Pitt county who have children in school, who are not financially able to have a doctor in severe cases of illness, without some land-lord having to become responsible for the fee, much less having to pay a doctor's certificate on account of their children being absent from school by reason of some minor sickness.

It is no wonder we grumble and complain over our high taxes and people are mean and not law abiding when their taxes go to the support of an officer who thrusts upon the people such an unreasonable ruling.

If this is "Public Welfare", God pity the "Bad Fare."

JOHNNY ONLY "WALKER" "BAR" ASPIRANT KNEW

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—Applicants for permission to practice law in Ohio were taking the examination prescribed by the State Supreme Court. On a board of examiners. Among the questions were: "Who was Walker?" "What were some of his writings?" "The only Walker I know anything about was Scotch. His only writings are the labels on the bottles," answered one would-be lawyer, evidently familiar with the bar.

New Year's Resolutions.

January the first, is the day you resolve, To cast aside bad habits, and from then dissolve. They are then placed before you in tempting array. Ere you realize it, their commands you obey.

In a hasty moment you make a resolution, After deliberation, you seek a dissolution. Not realizing it requires determination, To take a firm stand and defy all temptation.

Whatever you determine that you will not do, That is the very first temptation, that faces you, You may try as you will, to avoid it each day, It keeps in your wake, finally lures you away.

You are fully decided, to stand your ground, To overcome all temptation, you are bound, But so often in its meshes you are caught, All of your resolutions amounted to naught.

Though you keep on trying temptation to do, To forestall its coming, no way has been found, Crestfallen, chagrined, defeated in every way, Disheartened all resolutions you cast away.

Local News

EVERYBODY IN TOWN TAKES PART IN PICTURE

Residents of "Jintown," Calif., Aid in Filming of New Photoplay. Most of the residents of Jamestown, Cal., known in fiction as "Jintown" were employed by Tom Forman, director of "If You Believe It, It's So," when he took Thomas Meighan and a company of Paramount players to that place for location scenes representing a small town. A good many night shots were made and to properly illuminate these, in addition to the arcs, about a dozen flares, similar to those used on the battle front during the world war, were burned for every shot. The flares last about two minutes and make a brilliant light. When the first ones were set off, the director found he had more extras than he needed, for everybody in town turned out to see whether the town was on fire. As a result the crowds were greatly augmented and the effect was more realistic than could have been hoped for. As a matter of fact, practically every inhabitant of "Jintown" who was not bedridden, came out to see the fun. The scenes for the most part were taken around the town hall and at the railroad station. Everybody was most hospitable and helpful and the work of the company was rendered extremely pleasant as a result. Perley Poore Sheehan wrote the story from which Waldemar Young adapted the picture version. It deals with the reformation of a crook portrayed by Mr. Meighan, "If You Believe It, It's So," will be the feature at White's theatre next Thursday night. Pauline Stark plays opposite the star.

HERMAN HARDEE'S CHILD BURIED THIS AFTERNOON

The two month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs Herman Hardee, who reside in Swift Creek township, will be buried in the family burying ground this afternoon. The child was found dead in bed yesterday morning, having been ill with the flu a few days.

COTTON MARKET TO OBSERVE SHORTER HOURS

Owing to the light receipts at the present time, after January 1st there will be no weigher or buyers on the cotton yards, except of from 1.30 to 4.30, according to information issued today by the cotton board of trade.

WANDERING STAR CREATES INTEREST

Somebody saw a star in the heavens this morning about nine o'clock and after that time hundreds peered upwards to see the stranger. The star appeared in the south and was plainly visible when not obscured by the fleeting clouds. It was the usual morning star staying out rather late possibly because of the New Year. But anyhow, it furnished plenty of interest for the hundreds passing up and down Main street during the morning hours. Some thought it was a good omen and there were others who thought otherwise. At any rate the star was there and it twinkled brightly, just as if glad to welcome the first day of the year. It wandered on through the heavens until about the noon hour when it disappeared.

OHIO MAN GLAD TO BE HERE WHILE BLIZZARD GRIPS HIS SECTION

Mr. P. M. Brill, of Toboso, Ohio, who is spending the winter with Dr. W. P. Shamhart, today received a copy of the Newark American Tribune, telling of the severe blizzard which recently swept over the entire Muskingum Valley, from Zanesville to Marietta. Mr. Brill lives in the section affected by the blizzard. While it is home sweet home to him, he said he had rather be in the balmy south right at this time.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION HERE TODAY

The board of county commissioners were in regular session this morning, but nothing of unusual importance was considered. Payment of bills and general routine business featured the morning session. Practically every member of the board was present.

TODAY IS PRETTY WELL LOADED WITH FIRST

Today should be an unusually lucky one, as it is the first day of the week, first day of the month and first day of the year. If it isn't lucky, then it ought to be a downright unlucky one.
