VISITORS' NIGHT AT ROTARY CLUB IS AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Inspiring Addresses and a Radio Talk Are Features of the Evening's Program

Last night was visitor's night at the Greenville Rotary Club and it was an occasion that will long be remembered by those who attended. The meeting was presided over by President J. E. Winslow and following the regular supper the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The president then called on Dr. Alfred M. Schultz, the first and principal speaker of the evening. Dr. Schultz used as his subject, "Why we need Rotary," and the manner in which he handled his theme held everyone's attention and brought home the real truths and good of Rotary. His talk was divided into three parts, namely, "The need of the world for Rotary," "Our need of the proper Rotary spirit as an organization" and "The good Rotary does us as individuals." In the beginning he dwelt briefly on the motto of Rotary, "Service Above Self" and going back to the first real Rotarian, Christ, he traced history from its beginning showing how a life of real service and sacrifice had always been an influence for good, and calling to attention many of the happenings of recent times taking place all around us he set forth the lack of influence for good and urged that all Rotarians live the life of service in order that their influence over others will enable us to fight the wrongs which are so numerous throughout our country and the world today. All those who heard his words were greatly benefited by his talk and carried away with them the determination to follow more closely in the footsteps of the first real Rotarian, the "Loving Nazarine."

At this time Prof. R. H. Wright advised the president that during the past week arrangements had been made with Rotarian Fred Havens, of Chicago, to address the Greenville Rotary Club by radio and as the hour for the address was near he requested that the club remain silent while Kiwanian Ed. E. Williams, guest of the club, tuned in, in order that no part of the talk might be missed. Soon the voice from the air began to speak from the horn placed on the table in the end of the hall and after the regular announcement of the station number and place the following was heard, "Hello Jasper, this is Ray Havens talking. I am in Chicago and I want to send a message to you and to the Rotas in Greenville. Growth is the word of words. It explains everything. The minds in our bodies are always changing, your business cannot remain stationary. If you are not going forward you are losing ground. The bicycle is an example of a great truth. The only way to keep up is to keep going; when the bicycle stops it falls over. When we stand still it is an indication that we are about to fall over, just as in the case of the bicycle. Tell the boys I say keep on keeping on. Give them my love." This part of the program was a complete surprise to most of those present and many marveled at the wonderful occurrence.

The next part of the program was the introduction of the guests present many of whom made short but inspiring talks that were enjoyed by all. The principal talks by the guests were made by Dr. J. C. Greene, of this city; W. M. Hinton, of Elizabeth City; Frank De Roe, of Flint; and Judge Henry A. Grady, of Clinton who is now holding court in this city. In concluding his talk Judge Grady stated that he was somewhat of a pianist as well as a lawyer and asked permission to render "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and requested that everyone sing. This as well as the many other songs of the evening were greatly enjoyed.

The guests present were: Messrs. J. Frank Harrington, H. S. Radgale, J. J. Harris, B. E. Sugg and Ed. E. Williams and Dr. J. C. Greene, of this city; W. M. Hinton, of Elizabeth City; Frank De Roe, of Flint; and Judge Henry A. Grady, of Clinton.

PITT COUNTY FOX HUNTERS' CLUB IS ORGANIZED TODAY

Committee Will Go to Raleigh to Request Regulations Regarding Fox Hunting Season

The first hunter's organization ever formed in this county took place at noon today when over fifty Pitt county citizens met and organized the Pitt County Fox Hunters' Club. One of the main reasons for organizing at this time was in an effort to go before the present legislature and urge that they do not act favorably on the bill now pending to materially shorten the fox hunting season. The bill it seems was framed by committee in the western part of the state where there are fewer foxes than in this section and the passage of such an act would be very unjust to the lovers of the sport in Eastern Carolina.

There were present at the meeting over fifty representative citizens of the county and names were turned in by those present of about fifty more who had expressed a desire of becoming charter members of the organization. The purpose of the meeting was set forth by Mr. Gus E. Forbes of this city and the following officers were elected: Gus E. Forbes, president; J. J. Satterthwaite, of Páciolus, vice-president; W. Z. Morton of this city, secretary-treasurer and L. L. Smith, of Bethel, chaplain.

The next and most important business receiving attention was the adoption of resolutions for presentation to the legislature requesting that the fox hunting season in Pitt, Beaufort, Martin, Edgecombe and Greene counties be from August 15 to March 1st inclusive. These resolutions with over one hundred signatures of the lovers of the sport in this county will be carried to Raleigh by a committee of the club tomorrow evening and every effort will be made to have the law passed accordingly. It is expected that like petitions will be presented from the other counties mentioned above through their representatives in the legislature.

Though today is just the beginning of this organization it is expected that it will grow into one of the greatest of its kind and no doubt the near future will see the membership over double that the charter list of eighty four. The club requests all those who were not represented today and desire to join the organization to get in touch with the secretary immediately.

It was suggested this morning that the club have a fox hunt and barbecue with every member present sometime in the near future and this will probably be the biggest hunt ever held in the history of Pitt county.

GERMAN IS KILLED SEVERAL WOUNDED BY FRENCH ARMIES

Fighting Follows Efforts of the French to Enter Bochum, a Small Enemy Town

Essen, Jan. 16. — French troops have occupied Dortmund, completing the seizure of all the Ruhr Valley. Feeling is high at Bochum where one German was killed and several wounded in a clash with the French forces last night. Further fighting is feared.

Following adjournment many remained to hear the concerts by radio then taking place.

EVERETT ACCEPTS TENDER OF OFFICE SECRETARY STATE

Succeeds to Office Held by His Life-Long Friend, Col. J. Bryan Grimes

Raleigh, Jan. 15.—Facing his colleagues in the House of Representatives here tonight, W. N. Everett, of Richmond county, tendered his resignation from that body and announced his acceptance of the appointment to Secretary of State, to succeed the late J. Bryan Grimes. The announcement came as the climax to a short but interesting session at which several new bills were introduced, others passed their third reading and the Neal resolution or an investigation of State Printing came up for discussion.

The resignation of Mr. Everett, which was announced earlier in the evening, did not come as a surprise. The Richmond county member rose to his feet after the clerk had read the announcement of his resignation and in a voice charged with feeling he expressed his regret at severing his connection with the House and expressed the hope that the position which he was now called upon to fill would be an opportunity for him to better serve his state in a broader capacity. He expressed his desire that the educational program be carried on to its fullest extent and stated that "the people everywhere point to us with confidence and pride" in view of the policies which the last legislature had shaped and which it was his hope this body would carry on.

In recognition of the service of Mr. Everett, Representative Everett, of Durham moved a rising vote, which was duly recorded.

ONLY ONE ROAD SENTENCE GIVEN IN COUNTY COURT

Other Defendants Released Upon Payments of Fines and Costs

Charged with carrying a concealed weapon and assault with a deadly weapon, Elisha Brady was on yesterday found guilty of the charge and sentenced to county roads for a period of twelve months. The defendant appealed and was placed under a five hundred dollar bond.

This was the only road sentence of the morning's session, the other defendants being released upon payment of costs.

The case of Biggs Cannon and Clinton McLawhorn growing out of the collision of their automobiles was thrown out of court as both defendants plead not guilty and the judge declared the accident as being unavoidable.

Z. W. Brown, charged with trespass, was released when the prosecuting witness asked that the warrant be withdrawn. The defendant and the plaintiff paid one half the costs each.

Luther Kenney was transferred to Juvenile court.

UNITED STATES DISTURBED OVER BOYDEN'S ACTIVITIES

Washington, Jan. 16.—Persistent reports from Paris that the American government has approached the powers with a plan for settling the reparations controversy has led the positive announcement that the United States has not submitted a plan neither does it intend to. The State Department is completely mystified over the reports that Colonel Boyden is laying a new plan before the commission apparently disturbed has cabled for reports of Boyden's activities.

News from Canada indicates that the Dominion Government will shortly take further measures to prevent the exportation of liquor from Canadian provinces to the United States.

NEW TRIAL IN DIVORCE OF "DREAM CHILD'S" MOTHER

Mrs. John Russell, wife of Mon. John Hugo Russell, son and heir of the rich and powerful Lord Amphill.

Mrs. John Russell, wife of Mon. John Hugo Russell, son and heir of the rich and powerful Lord Amphill, former Viceroy of India, faces a retrial of her husband's divorce suit, which resulted at first in her favor. Russell now charges alleged misconduct with a man named Mayer, who was not mentioned in the first suit. A strange feature of the case is that both Russell and his wife appear to be "unconscious" as to how their child was born. Testimony at the trial tended to show that they had agreed the marriage should be platonic, and Russell swore he lived up to this agreement, denying paternity upheld the "Dream Baby" may be denied a share of the great Amphill fortune.

HELL TO BE SUBJECT OF EVENING SERMON AT THE COURT HOUSE

Mrs. McAdams Continues to Preach Strong and Forceful Sermons Against Sin

The message last night was strong and far reaching. The subject "Greenville Asleep on the Bosom of the Devil," was expounded in simple words, so every one though spiritually asleep could tell whether he was guilty or not. We are commanded to forsake the world when we become Christians but some have to be tagged to tell where they belong. Mrs. McAdams tells her congregation that every one will know when he becomes a Christian, he knows other things he does, why shouldn't he know when he is a Christian? The devil has so many fast asleep, that are professed Christians. They call themselves taking a vacation. It is time for the professed man to go after the lost and bring them to Christ. But if a church member drinks monkey rum and goes after the outsider and says come on he can say I am better than you. We are not excusing the sinner, if every ten were hypocrites, get right with God. Church member and lets take the old town for Jesus.

Some came when the call was made for prayer. The subject tonight will be "Hell"

Prayer Meetings for Wednesday. Wednesday morning at Mr. Savage's stables at 10 o'clock; Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Zanhyzers on Second and Cotanch street. Mrs. J. J. Corey's 1113 Evans street, Mrs. W. R. Jones, Evans street.

JIM MILLER WHO KILLED J. SUTTON LANDED IN JAIL

Baltimore Officials Catch Miller Who Confessed to Killing Lenoir County Farmer

Kinston, Jan. 15.—Bert Jones, the negro who shielded Jim Miller, alias Jim Smith, while the latter was seeking a way to escape from this section after the killing of John Sutton, a prominent farmer, was lodged in jail here last night about 11 o'clock, after having been found at a farm near Centerville, Pitt county community near Grifton by a number of deputies of this county. Ace Hawkins, Tom Stroud and W. L. Carson, made up the trio that went over to near Grifton, on the information of a Kinston man, who was there on business and heard of the catching of Miller in Baltimore. They found the negro on a farm, just where they had been told he would be found. He protested his innocence and said that he hadn't anything to do with it at all.

Local officers believed that if they had not taken Jones at the time they found him, even a half hour's delay and the negro would have learned of Miller's capture through the press and probably escaped.

Jim Miller, alias Jim Smith, wanted here for the murder of John Sutton, prominent white farmer who lived near here on the Pink Hill road will be brought back to Raleigh by Sheriff Arden W. Taylor and Deputy Sheriff Thos. Conway, who left last night from here for Baltimore where the negro is being held for the Kinston authorities. The negro will be placed in the State penitentiary for safe-keeping till the January 22nd term of Superior criminal court here. Baltimore authorities wired here today to the effect that Miller would be turned over to the Kinston officials without requisition. Governor Morrison on October 4, last offered a reward of $400 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the killing of John Sutton, a farmer, near Kinston last September.

ONE CASE CONSUMES ENTIRE SESSION OF MONDAY'S COURT

Case of Rouse vs. Manning Given to Jury Late Monday Afternoon

Yesterday's session of Pitt county Superior court for the trial of civil cases was taken up almost entirely with the case of Rouse against Manning. The case went to the jury late yesterday afternoon and up until noon today no verdict had been returned.

The trial is the outcome of an accident which occurred about three years ago when an automobile driven by W. J. Manning ran into a buggy and horse belonging to Mr. Rouse, inflicting such injuries that the horse died shortly afterward. Mr. Rouse claims that Mr. Manning intentionally ran into him while Mr. Manning claims that it was an unavoidable accident. The defendant is suing for two hundred and fifty dollars.

WELFARE OFFICER WARNS THE PUBLIC AGAINST IMPOSTERS

Says People Are Soliciting Funds for Organizations That Do Not Exist

(By K. T. FURELL.)
From time to time persons come into the community soliciting funds for organizations that do not exist, or if they do, are in bad standing. A case of this kind came to my attention Saturday afternoon when a nice appearing young woman came to my office soliciting funds for "The American Children's Aid Society," Washington, D. C. She had all sorts of credentials, even a splendid endorsement from local officials. She asked for my endorsement to solicit funds in the county and I informed her I could not endorse her work unless approved by the State Commissioner of Public Welfare. I investigated this organization through the State Board of Public Welfare and received the following telegram:
"Supt. Public Welfare,
Greenville, N. C.,
The American Children's Aid Society known to have solicited funds under false pretenses not endorsed by Associated Charities of Washington, D. C.
MRS. KATE BUBB JOHNSON,
State Commissioner,
This is one of several imposters on our people for money. A few weeks ago some colored women were here soliciting funds for an organization that did not exist. They had several dollars when approached by the writer. An investigation of their organization showed they had reported headquarters at Rocky Mount, North Carolina and were depending on distance from where they were then soliciting funds. Another case is the American Relief Workers, similar in appearance to Salvation Army officials, whose representatives are not allowed to solicit funds in North Carolina. In passing through the state, these workers usually take advantage of the ignorance of the people in certain sections and solicit traveling expenses. Still another case was one of a young brunette about eighteen years of age taking subscriptions for a journal published somewhere in the west at one dollar per. This money was to go toward her college expenses the following year. She took in about twenty-five subscriptions in Greenville. About one week later her game was ended when she was arrested in Charlotte.

During the past month two able bodied men of about thirty years of age, one leg gone, were seen on the city streets begging. The writer asked them to come to the welfare office where the assistance offered by the State Rehabilitation Bureau could be explained to them. These men promised faithfully they would come up and fill out application blanks but they failed either to do so or let me see them again. These men are not interested in learning a trade to support themselves. So long as the public will patronize them they will follow their trade—that of a professional beggar.

The above cases are cited to call the public attention to disreputable persons soliciting funds. When a person comes in soliciting money the first thing they should present is credentials from state officials. If the organization they represent is outside the county or state, then state officials approval is mandatory before such solicitation for money is legal. The public is hereby warned against these professional imposters.

EDUCATION FOR USE.

America was begun by pioneers. Democracy is never a finished order. The pioneer's work is never done; it changes its direction—that's all.

Democracy wants an education that is for use as well as for possession, for understanding as well as adornment.

YOUR HOME TOWN FIRST

Work for your own town. Beautify it. Improve it. Make it attractive. The world war and the Treaty of Peace, the Protective Tariff and all such things, are important subjects; but what's the good of cleaning up the world unless you sweep your own door steps?

The Germans who live in the little towns of Buer, evidently surprised the French when they failed to "say it with flowers," and welcomed them with a "stone shower" if reports are true that is exactly what happened.

Pitt county can boast of one of the best road systems in the state. When the new road leading to Bethel, which is now under construction, is completed only another link will be added to the already splendid chain.

That North Carolinians have a high respect for law and order was evidenced by the lynching statistics recently given out when it was made known that the "Old North State" had a clean record.

It would be of invaluable aid to every Sunday school worker to attend the Training school which will be held in this city at the Immanuel Baptist church, beginning next Sunday.

W. M. EVERETT'S APPOINTMENT

In the list of great men of the future of this state appears the name of W. N. Everett, of Richmond county, who on Sunday was appointed by Governor Morrison to fill the unexpired term of the late and lamented J. Bryan Grimes, as secretary of state.

Pitt county was proud of the late secretary of state who was one of her own sons and today joins with the other counties of the State and with Mrs. Grimes, in expressing her gratification at the selection of such a capable man to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Col Grimes.

A thankful spirit is one of the greatest assets a man can have. We get back exactly what we give out. A pendulum to a clock never goes so far but what it has to come back. Our deeds always return to us.

This coupon and 25c will admit any person 12 years or over to the matinee at White's Theatre, Thursday afternoon at 3:30 to see Dorothy Dalton and David Powell in "The Siren Call," also Harold Loyd in the best comedy you ever saw—"I Do."

THE FULL TRUTH.

North Carolina the most progressive state in the Union. And how do you like that statement? Fine, for it is true that North Carolina is the most progressive state in the land. The world is finding it out, though some of us at home have been very slow about realizing the truth.

Let's stop complaining, get in behind the state, and make it all that the best state should be.—Salsbury Evening Post.

Some people are born with silver spoons in their mouths while others seem to have been born with spoons labeled "hard luck." Constantine of Greece must have had the "hard luck" spoon as it seems that everything he did was absolutely out of place and as a ruler he was a complete failure.

It is to be hoped that the appropriation of $1,900,000 which the trustees of the Eastern Carolina Teachers College will ask the legislature for will be given. The school which is the only one of its kind in North Carolina, and which only has seventy-one sisters throughout the United States is one of the best schools for its age, in the entire country.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASS'N.

HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Parent-Teachers Association meeting met at the Model school on January 10th, with a good attendance.

The third grade gave a delightful Thrift play. Master James Burton James was "Father Time," and took his part well. The other children of the grade were seconds, minutes, hours, weeks and months, and the children were taught to save time. Miss Hallie Scoville is their teacher and much credit is due her.

Miss Kate Lewis was next on the program and told us of her work in Art and Manual training from the first on through to the seventh grades, showing samples of each grade's work. Her talk was interesting and instructive.

The parents were counted and the Third grade pupils of Miss Hallie Scoville's room were given a prize of $2 for having most parents present. Mr. Moon made some very appropriate remarks about the benefit of Manual training.

The meeting had to adjourn, the hour being late, and the remaining part of the program was postponed until next meeting.

The entrancing musical score includes every phase of lilted harmony from the jazzical to the classical—the kind that keeps haunting the memory after you have left the theatre. Seats for this popular attraction are now on sale, and from the interest shown so far, it looks like an old time sell out.

Only one marriage license has been issued by the register of deeds since the report of yesterday it being John Edwards to Claudine Murphy, of Swift Creek township.

Attention, Hotel and Cafe Managers

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacted a bill in 1921, which provide for the inspection and rating of all cafes and hotels in North Carolina which come within the meaning of the act.

The state makes it a misdemeanor if the sanitary conditions are bad enough to make a rating below 70.

The sanitary ratings are counted according to the cleanliness of the hotels or cafes, walls, flooring ceiling, cooking utensils, water, hot and cold, table ware, linens, garbage cans, kitchen help, surroundings, and employees, doors and windows required to be screened so will keep out flies and other insects.

For further information, write the North Carolina State Board of Health at Raleigh, N. C. and ask for Bulletin No. 250. It will be mailed to you free.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WELFARE REPORTS DECEMBER'S WORK

Report Shows Increase in Number of Activities of Board During Past Month

The Board of Public Welfare met in the office of the Supt. Public Welfare yesterday afternoon and the work in the county discussed. The work during the month of December showed an increase in the number of activities of the office. A brief report follows:

19 children came to attention of the judge of the Juvenile court during the month. Eight of this group were delinquent while the others were neglected or dependent or both. Nine colored and ten white. The following disposition made: Two ordered to Jackson Training school, three separated from relatives and placed with other relatives. Three delinquents placed in private homes under bond. Five others were legally placed in the custody of responsible relatives. The other delinquents were placed on probation. A general oversight will be kept of the families where the neglected children were found.

In school attendance 22 warrants were served during the month of December. It was explained these were cases of indifference and the law used as a means of last resort. In most of these cases suspended judgment with payment of cost, with the promise of co-operation afterwards, closed the matter.

Investigations for the county commissioners for poor relief numbered eleven during the month. Eight were found deserving of assistance and four accepted at county home. Four county charges left county during this period and two died.

Five patients were arranged for hospital treatment. Two for "TB." Payments on four of these cases are paid through the welfare officer. One case of "TB" at sanatorium is being paid by local sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals. Dr. McBrayer writes favorable about this case responding to treatment. Nine important cases were investigated and adjusted for other counties during the month. Two of these regarding hospital bills for supposed to be Pitt county paupers.

During the Christmas season the Methodist church and city schools made a splendid collection of food and provisions and asked the welfare department to make distributions. Individuals and organizations contributed about eighty dollars in money with which to buy clothes and necessities for worthy poor people. All the food supplied was perhaps worth a hundred dollars making a total of one hundred eighty dollars. When all money and supplies were in hand a list of worthy needy families was made out and clothes bought suitable for each family and a box of provisions made and sent out. More than thirty families were reached with the things they were in greatest need of. The merchants gave reductions on goods purchased that would reach the most people. Miss Lil Wilson rendered valuable assistance in this work in purchasing and delivering boxes. Friends assisted in delivering boxes. Friends assisted in delivering boxes. Friends assisted in delivering boxes.

For the State Child Welfare Commission eight physical examinations for work permits were ordered and eight work certificates granted. Fourteen inspections of plants and stores were made under this commission.

HUGH CONTRACT OFFERED JACKIE COOGAN

Jackie Coogan, child film star.

Jackie Coogan, child film star, has been offered $500,000 advance to join the United Artists, of which Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford are moving spirits. In addition, he will receive 60 per cent of the profits of his pictures, according to Los Angeles reports. The child's huge income is held in trust for him by his parents, who recently had themselves made his legal guardians, so they would have to report annually to the courts, thus settling at rest malicious rumors that they were using his money for themselves.

The board was pleased to learn of the Christmas collection given the welfare department by the Bethlehem Commandry during their Christmas festivities in the city. This collection amounted to $42.87 and is to be used in the discretion of the Supt. Public Welfare for construction work in the county.

Class Meeting.

Mesdames Currin, Tucker and Buterton were hostesses to the Fidelis class of Immanuel Baptist church at the regular monthly meeting Friday evening, Jan. 12th in the church parlors.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with red carnations, geraniums and ferns.

After the business meeting the guests were served delicious chocolate and sandwiches.

The social hour was a very enjoyable one. Many of the guests were called upon for some stunt or story of themselves. The stunts were very original and caused much merriment.

The class served an elaborate salad course after which they reluctantly said good night to their hostesses declaring it the best and most enjoyable class meeting we ever had.

Mrs. Barzell, Dr. E. P. Spence, Miss Reba Whitehurst, Miss Eulalia Perkins, Miss Mary Huggins and Miss McGuire were guest of the class.

This was the first meeting of the new year and many plans were made for more work and better work during the year.

U. S. MAGICIAN IN JAP LEGAL SUIT

Tokio, Jan. 16.—Charles J. Carter, an American theatrical magician, has filed suit in Tokio District Court against the White City Company, Y. Minakawa, president, and Y. Kushi-biki, director, for damages amounting to $22,500, charging breach of contract and illegal detention of his property. The institution of this suit, whether or not judgment will be obtained, marks a victory for Carter, the first victory through legal channels that an American showman has been able to get in Japan during the last several years. A large number of American actors and athletes are said to have been duped by Japanese promoters.

Carter's company showed in Tokio and then travelled through Western Japan. At the end of nine weeks, when his contract had half expired, he was released. Moreover, the company alleged that they had lost money on the attraction, filed suit for $28,000 and turned over Carter's property to an express company, which could not release them until the White City Company consented, and they refused to consent. Police seized the clothing and other possessions of the members of the Carter troupe, and they were left at a Tokio hotel with only the things they had on. Due to legal action and aid from the American Embassy (the preliminary court did not accept the case against Carter. The only recourse then left the White City Company was retention of Carter's apparatus, and this they sought to do. Several times Carter tried to regain it, and once his men moved everything from a storehouse, into the street before express colliers drove them off. Thru legal channels, however, the goods were recovered after five weeks, and before leaving for China Carter filed suit for damages.

Several semi-professional baseball teams have been left stranded here, the promoters skipping out with all their gates after a successful tour.

WEALTHY AMNESIA VICTIM IS FOUND

(By International News.)

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 15.—J. C. Todd, a wealthy banker and planter of Hogansville, Ga., whose mysterious disappearance recently aroused a nation-wide search, has been found and his story to relatives proved he was suffering from amnesia.

His mental condition, brought on by an hallucination of debt, even though his financial condition was excellent, caused him to leave his home, tour around over a number of Southern States, in an effort to lose his creditors in the opinion of the medical authorities.

Dr. W. D. Todd, his son, whose home is in Marietta, Georgia, stated that his father, even now, was unable to give an account of his trip. His father, Dr. Todd states, will be placed in the hands of local specialists.

WESTERN STOCK SHOW OPENS IN DENVER, COL.

Denver, Col., Jan. 15.—The seventeenth annual National Western Stock show opened here January 13, with one of the largest entry lists in the history of the exposition. The show will continue through to January 20, with nightly performances and several matinees.

In addition to the five-day exhibits the National Western includes the greatest horse show in the Western country, with exhibitors from many widely-known stables in Illinois, Missouri, Texas and Montana. The entry list this year indicates the growing importance of this great Western exposition. There will be bedded down in the spacious barns on the show grounds a large 1,500 individual animals that are entered in the various classes of the cattle, swine, sheep and draft horses divisions of the show. In addition to these, there will be stabled on the grounds no less than 250 horses that will assemble to make the National Western Horse Show the most brilliant equine event ever staged in the West.

In the pens on the show grounds there will be on display 231 carloads of beef, pork and mutton. A part of the beef display will be delectable steaks all ready for the epicure, while others will be beef foundations on their way to feedlots for the final finish.

To more to Denver for this exposition the cattle, horses, swine and sheep required 500 standard size railway cars, which would form over a dozen long trains.

Hundreds of the animals on exhibition will be sold during the week. Some will go to the packing houses, others to feedlots, while many of them will go forth to stamp their excellence upon the coming generations of livestock all over the West. The breeders, who sent twelve train loads of livestock to the "West's Own Big Show," hail from nineteen states, coming from Ohio, to California and from Texas to Montana and Minnesota.

Colorado leads in number of exhibits entered, with a total of 420. Next comes Nebraska, with 2 groups of entries to be found in every division of the show.

Wyoming is represented by sixteen entries, while from Missouri will come ten exhibits of her best production in purebreds. Nineteen breeders from Kansas are represented, and from Faraway Ohio comes a herd of shorthorns and a herd of Aberdeen-Angus cattle, known the world over for their breed excellence.

Idaho is also in the lists, as are the following states, with one or more exhibits each: Montana, Minnesota, in Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Illinois, Iowa and Indiana.

CRUSADER'S ORDER

Famous Mystic Order of America Reported to Have a "Cousin" in England

By LUTHER A. HUSTON,

International News Service Staff Correspondent.

London, Jan. 15.—Has the Ku Klux Klan, famous mystic order of the United States, a "cousin" in England?

If tales being told in London about the Most Noble Order of Crusaders are true the answer would seem to be in the affirmative.

The English have been inclined to poke fun at the situation in the United States that has arisen out of the activities here of the Ku Klux Klan. Newspapers have given considerable space to chronicling the doings of the Klan and there has been much editorial comment with regard to what Britons have been pleased to regard as this "crude outcropping of American life." Now, it would seem, England has fathered a twin to the Ku Klux. Whether the activities of the Crusaders will follow the pathways blazed in America by the Klan remains to be seen, but the fact is that the order has been founded along lines strikingly resembling the outstanding features of the American organization.

The Supreme Grand Lodge of the Crusaders is in London and it meets behind closed doors in a big West End hall. It is reported to have a large membership already and to be recruiting rapidly from all classes of English life. A conclave of Crusaders in every ward in each town and in every village in England to the ultimate hope of the order's organizers. It is announced that the Crusaders desire their order to be composed of "real leaders of public opinion, chosen without reference to politics or social standing."

The ritual of the Crusaders is weird mystical and elaborate. On ceremonial occasions the members wear picturesque robes. The habiliments of the grand officers are crimson, the robes being adorned with a large cross. Other members wear a surcoat, a tabard and a belt.

The initiation ceremony is declared to be most impressive, and no effort is evaded to impress the candidate with the solemnity of the obligations he undertakes in allying with the Crusaders. Members are understood to be required to take the following oath:

"Our sword shall ever be used to the glory of God, the defense of the right and the maintenance of equality and justice."

As yet there have been no outward manifestations of the activities of the Crusaders and even the fact of its existence is not widely known. The fact that it has been able, within a short time, to build up a formidable membership, however, has caused a few chills of foreboding to wrack the spines of those Britishers who would not like to see a Ku Klux Klan functioning actively in England.

PARIS BARROOM LIKE
LITTLE BIT AMERICA

By ALICE LANGELIER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Paris, Jan. 15.—Follow a little street near the Place de l'Opera, where the night life of Paris hums between the hours of nine and midnight, pass by the fashionable little theatre of Jane Renouardt and Philippe's new restaurant, with its shiny new facade as brilliant as a perfumier's shop. For this one evening avoid the places you know too well, the poulet a la creme at Ciro's, etc., and slip into a modest little bar which bears the name of one of the world's greatest cities.

The door is easy to open — you push it or pull it and you are in the bar. C'est fini you are no longer in France—you have crossed the Atlantic, and you are on the other side of the pond!

There is no barman from Naples or Montmartre, who has learned his English in the Berlitz School and prepares his cocktails without gin, and in front friendly Americans talking with a broad accent.

Go downstairs, by a little narrow stairway, where you will be greeted by a noisy piano and a great cloud of smoke. About a dozen men and women are seated around tables, with champagne in ice pails and goblets half full of whiskey.

Where do they come from and to what class do they belong? Are they bank clerks, business men or globe trotters only? It is difficult to say, but it is certain they are not French—all ceased about listening to an American "jazz" singer, who accompanies his song with a little dancing. Some of the onlookers pick up the refrain and help him along. "Just like on Fifty-fifth avenue—remember the little bar and Benson, who was so droll!" muse some of the crowd. Others just think. Then a Parisienne appears on the stairway, descends prudently and, with her escort takes a place in the rear of the bar. The barman follows her and offers champagne, while the others—from New York Philadelphia and Chicago—all cry for soda, gin and "black horse."
