GREENVILLE FIVE IS DEFEATED BY NEW BERN QUINT

Local High School Boys Forced to Take the Small End of a 39 to 23 Score

The real cause of the defeat of the Greenville High School basketball team in New Bern last night, could be told in a few short words. The usual pep, which has been characteristic of this year's five, was lacking from the very beginning of the contest, and New Bern lost no time in taking advantage of this omission. From the first blow of the signal of play, the New Bernites started "like a house on fire" so to speak, and they continued at this speed until the close of the first half, which ended with Greenville at the small end of a 21 to 6 score. The locals several times stood practically still, and watched their opponents dribble up and down the court at will.

There was one special cause, probably responsible for the loss of the game, and that was, that three of the local quint were for the first time in their brief basketball career, playing on a foreign court. Then, too the weight of New Bern was too much for the lighter boys of the Greenville team.

The local boys started the second half with more earnestness, putting up a stronger fight against New Bern's at will passing and dribbling. And but for the injection of this pep, the boys by the side of the Neuse would have had a complete walkover. It is true, our boys several times had old hard luck to combat in field goal throwing, when the ball would encircle the inner rim of the basket only to take another sudden course and drop on the outside into the hands of the high leaping opponents.

Roughness was one of the features of the game. Especially is this true of Simpson and DuVal of the New Bern quint, and while some of our boys were inclined to be a bit rough, their efforts were nothing compared with those of the above mentioned duo.

Greenville only scored one field goal in the first half. This was accomplished by Claude Gaskins, who was also responsible for the other four points scored by the locals during that period. In the second half Brown lead his mates by tossing four field goals and for three of the foul variety. In this half, Gaskins added four more foul goals to his string and Satterwhale threw for one field score. This was the total of Greenville's scoring, making in all 23 points to New Bern's 39.

There were fourteen fouls called on New Bern for which Gaskins and Brown made count for eleven points out of a possible 14 which is considered good shooting. There were only seven fouls against the locals. Simpson and Dill for New Bern lead their team in the scoring, each tossing for twelve points.

Greenville's line up was as follows: Gaskins, F.; Brown, F.; Satterwhale, C.; Harvey, G.; Williams, G. Substitutes, Mayo for Gaskins; Hardee for Satterwhale.

Scoring by halves as follows: 1st hf. 2d hf Total Greenville 6 17 23 New Bern 21 18 39 Greenville has two games scheduled for next week on the local court. The first of these fall on Tuesday night with Ayden. The second comes on Friday night with New Bern as their opponents, at which time the home boys state they are going to get revenge for the defeat of last night and pile up a score of a satisfied margin.

COUNTY BANKERS ASSOCIATION HAS BEEN PERFECTED

Bankers Held Interesting Meeting at Rotary Club Last Night

The bankers of this city entertained the bankers of the county at the Rotary Club last night at which time the permanent organization of the Pitt County Bankers Association was perfected. This organization was the outcome of a movement started at a similar meeting last month at which time a temporary organization was formed with J. L. Little, chairman, and H. L. Smith, Secretary-treasurer.

Following the supper the meeting was called to order by the chairman Mr. J. L. Little and the first business transacted was a unanimous vote to make the association permanent. The election of officers was next in order and the temporary officers, J. L. Little, president, and H. L. Smith, secretary-treasurer, were elected for a period of one year. After the election of officers came the adoption of the by-laws and the appointment of committees.

Next on the program was a general discussion in brief of the objects of the association and several suggestions as to the first topics that will be taken up. One of the most important matters brought out at this time was the announcement of Mr. H. L. Smith regarding the carload of cows which the bank of the county have purchased through the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce and which will arrive in this city today. It was decided that the bankers meet here Monday at eleven o'clock at which time the cows will be distributed. These cows were purchased by the banks for distribution over the county in an effort to demonstrate the value of better stock and is the first movement of its kind in this section. Should this experiment prove successful there will be more carloads brought in from time to time until the goal of "A good cow for every farm in Pitt county" is reached.

It was also decided that the association hold four meetings during the year one of which is to be a general get-together meeting for all bank officers and directors of the county. Greenville owing to advantages of location was decided on as permanent headquarters of the association.

New Bern Man Victim Neuse River

New Bern, Jan. 19.—B. D. Borden, age 75 who resides on Hancock Creek near Cherry Point was drowned yesterday morning while setting shad nets in Neuse river at a point near his home. His overturned boat, which was found floating in the river, gave neighbors a clue to what had happened. They dragged the river in the vicinity of the shad nets and located his boy late yesterday evening.

Borden was well known throughout the county. He had just completed an attractive home on the creek and was regarded as being well off. It is presumed that he went out early yesterday morning to set his shad nets and overturned the boat while doing so.

J. O. TAYLOR TO SPEAK AT HIGH SCHOOL IN GREENVILLE

Next Monday, Jan. 22, Mr. J. O. Taylor, who has spent several years with the government, in working out the best methods of fighting boll weevils will speak to the farmers, bankers and business men at the High School auditorium in Greenville next Monday, January 22nd, at 11 o'clock.

This is a subject that is uppermost in the minds of all thinking people of Pitt county, and this is a chance to learn of the latest and approved methods of combating the weevil. Mr. Taylor is a good speaker and he promises to tell the farmers how they can make a bale of cotton per acre under weevil conditions. Every farmer and business man is urged to attend this meeting.

LARGE CROWD HEARS MRS. MCADAMS IN SPLENDID SERMON

Had 516 Present at Sunday School in High School Building

The service last night was a glorious one. While the message was being delivered the people were in tears part of the time and part of the time they were rejoicing. Heaven's gates were opened wide by the evangelist and they saw, with many of the prophets and disciples the beauty of what we call the far-away home of the soul. Heaven was no longer a dream or a fairy land, but a glorious place of reality. Where the blood washed though will live on and on forever. John saw a door open in heaven and the beautiful throne, where the king of Kings and Lord of Lords sits and reigns over his great Kingdom. Great men of God that had passed through great suffering and long trials and burdens lived again and were priests and they wore golden crowns upon their heads. John also got another view where thousands were dressed in white robes and palms in their hands, they also had been washed in the blood of the lamb. This is enough to remind people that here on earth is the time to make the reparation. When the Martyr Stephen was stoned and dying, he saw heaven opened and Jesus on the right hand of God. Many have seen the beautiful gates swing open to welcome, then when they were passing out into the great beyond.

Heaven is a place where every burden is forever gone. Think of the weary souls that have never had any of this world's goods, how sweet heaven will be and to meet with those that have gone on before, lets meet them there. The invitation was made and a number come and were made happy. Subject tonight will be "The Resurrection."

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mr. McAdams will preach from the subject of "Modern Wickedness." Sunday night's subject "Set Thine House in Order." The public is invited to attend all these services.

QUARREL OVER THE KLAN'S ACTIVITIES LEADS TO MURDER

Young Man Shot by Friend at Home of Negro Was Son of Capitalist

Monroe, La., Jan. 20.—John Parker, Jr., former sheriff and son of a capitalist died early today from a bullet wound in the head. He was shot last night according to the police by Carey Calhoun, a noted dead shot, and brother of Larry Calhoun, deputy sheriff of Morehouse Parish. The two are known to have quarrelled over the Klan activities. Calhoun has been arrested at his home and held under a murder charge. The two were warm personal friends. The police said that the quarrel was sudden and unexpected, and took place at the home of a negro cook, where the couple had gone to get the negro to accompany them to the plantation.

NYRA BROWN IN "EVE" PLEASURES AT CHARLOTTE

One of Cleanest, Best Dressed Shows in Charlotte in a Long Time

The musical show "Eve," presented by George Wintz at the Auditorium last night, with Nyra Brown and Johnny Getz as the principal stars, was well sung, magnificently costumed and staged, and brilliant from an electrical viewpoint, some of the settings and effects being weirdly beautiful and alluring. Miss Brown has with her this season one of the cleanest, freshest looking choruses that it has been the pleasure of Charlotte audiences to gaze upon in a long, long time.

There is a plot to "Eve." Not much of a plot, it's true—but it's there, and it's just strong enough to hang a lot of first class vaudeville acts on it and not have it sag. The first scenes in a woodland gypsy camp, and the second act, in King Johnny Getz's castle on his magical island where hooch grows in little pills, were sets in which vaudeville after vaudeville was encoored, especially the songs by Miss Brown being received with evident delight by the big audience.

Nyra Brown, is handsome—there's no denying that, and dressed in her varied costume she made a stunning picture in every scene, a picture that was easy to look upon. Her voice is growing better and better each year—yes, that's right, every year in every way it's getting better and better.

Johnny Getz is the kind of a comedian we all like—he just reaches out and you begin the comedy with him from the start. In his kingly scenes, with his little hooch pills and the weird effects they produced, Johnny was immense.

Ace Brown, who has been with Miss Brown for several seasons, could not be improved upon in looks, figure and voice as the musical show lover. He was heard in several songs that brought encores. Aubrey Alibright, as "The Dancin' Fool," lived up to his name in two numbers, and Edith Monet, as "Cuta Cura," the "movin' pitchur gal," was a dream in a blue frock.

This is Nyra Brown's first visit to Charlotte, and we hope it will not be her last. It was a clean, bright, brilliantly dressed musical show, with some haunting melodies and the prettiest bunch of chorus girls we've seen in years. And that's some years.—Charlotte Observer.

DEATH CLAIMS FATHER OF A LOCAL CITIZEN

Mr. F. A. Jones, local manager of the Standard Oil Company, who was called to Suffolk, Va., on Thursday in response to a summons there owing to the extreme illness of his father, wired the local office this morning that his father died on yesterday.

While Mr. Jones has been in Greenville but a short while he has made a large number of friends who will be grieved to learn of the death of his father.

BOSTON GAITER MAKERS SWAMPED WITH ORDERS

Boston, Jan.—The latest shortage in this vicinity is for gaiters. The Malden Gaiter Company reports they are swamped with orders for overshoes and gaiters, and that long before the orders can be filled the winter will be ended. At one plant every person desiring work in the gaiter department has been hired, and night and day shifts are working.

Mr. James Cash, of Apex, was a business visitor to Greenville today.

LARGE NUMBER OF ACTIONS IN THE MAYOR'S COURT

Number of Minor Cases Given Hearing by Mayor D. M. Clark Today

Quite a number of cases appeared on docket in Mayor's court today. Cases growing out of careless driving of automobiles and obtaining money under false pretenses featured the session.

Joe Smith, white, charged with driving auto while in an intoxicated condition.

Joe Smith, white, charged with reckless and careless operation of auto. The defendant produced a statement showing he settled all damages by the payment of $110.00 to Mr. Will Nobles of Ayden, owner of car damaged. The Mayor fined him $50.00 and the cost in both cases.

Nellie Peyton, colored, charged with not having sanitary toilet installed on her premises. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the cost and defendant given until February 1st, to comply with the law.

Harry Hyman, Lonnie Langley, Bill Langley, Maggie Albritton, charged with mutual assault. Allowed to pay cost.

J. A. Merritt, white, charged with speeding. Fined $10 and cost.

A. E. Hardison, white, charged with obtaining $20. from J. A. Wingate by means of false pretense on worthless draft. Bound over to county court under $100 bond.

A. E. Hardison, white, charged with obtaining $2.00 from J. A. Wingate by means of false pretense on worthless check. Bound over to county court under $100 bond.

John Allen, white, charged with receiving and transporting intoxicating liquors. Bound over to county court under $100 bond.

Clara Moye, white, charged with exceeding the speed limit. Fined $10 and cost.

CAR LOAD OF COWS TO BE DISTRIBUTED MONDAY MORNING

Expected That 500 High-Grade Cows Will be Bought Within Twelve Months

The car of cows, which was bought this week, will be distributed among the banks of the county next Monday at 11 o'clock. The distribution will take place at Wingate's stables.

Inasmuch as milk constitutes one of the principal items of diet and since it is impossible to rear healthy children without it—a statement supported by the best authorities of the country—every farmer in the county should lay his plans to have a high grade milk cow.

This initial car will not begin to care for the demand that will soon be made, as it is confidently expected that at least 500 high grade cows will come to this county during the next 12 months. However, you are invited to take this up with your banker so as to be cared for in a future shipment.

METHODISTS MADE SPLENDID RECORD ON LAST SUNDAY

Continues Discourse on Beauties of Heaven; Sunday Schedule is Announced

Last Sunday was the best day that the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Sunday school has had since it moved over into the High School Building. There were 516 present. The orchestra music and singing were both better than they have been before in a number of Sundays. There were five classes with every member present and on time. They were as follows: Philathes No. 3, class of college girls, taught by Mr. Fitzgerald. They had every member present also two new members, and two visitors. Their total attendance was 55. 10 b taught by Mr. Marvin Blount; 6h taught by Mr. Sam Bridges; 7h taught by Mr. Luther Whitehurst and 8b taught by Mr. J. H. Rose. The following classes had only one member absent.

6a taught by Mrs. Milton White. 7a taught by Miss Doss. 4a taught by Miss Novella Moye. 2a taught by Mrs. Zahniser.

The Junior Philathes Class taught by Mrs. W. E. Hooker had 36 present. Philathes No. 1 taught by Mrs. Herring had 40 present. Mr. Futrell's class of young men had 18 present. The young men's class taught by Mr. Bert James had a rejuvenation. They revised their rolls, had 23 present and determined to have thirty-five tomorrow. A pleasing incident of the class was the bestowing of a gift upon the teacher. Sheriff Dudley was the one who was supposed to present the gift in the name of the class. But he said he could not make a speech because during his terms as sheriff he had had to listen to so many speeches in the courtroom that he had a great horror of ever trying to learn to make one. He therefore passed the buck to the superintendent who came into the class for a few minutes and presented the gift in the name of the class. The Baraca Class had 62 present.

The orchestra had a practice during the week and they will have some special music for tomorrow. Miss Bert Moye will also render a violin solo. The time is 9:45 at the High School building on Fifth street.

Mrs. J. H. Boyd Hostess.
On Friday afternoon Mrs. Jack Boyd entertained the Daughters of the Confederacy—this being the annual celebration of the birth of General Robert E. Lee.

A few brief matters of business were disposed of. The sending of boxes of oranges and other delicacies to the old soldiers at Raleigh and also to the home for Confederate women at Fayetteville were reported, to the Veterans of Pitt county cards had been sent Mrs. R. L. Smith and Mrs. W. L. Hall gave their names for membership.

The program consisted of a paper on the life of Jefferson Davis by Mrs. R. H. Wright and one on the life of T. J. Jackson by Mrs. Richard Williams both of which were beautiful and instructive and were thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by those present.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Hall served delightful sandwiches and tea.

The next meeting will be the fourth Thursday in February at 8:30 p. m. Hostesses: Mrs. Ficklen, Mrs. A. J. Moore, Mrs. Moseley and Mrs. Hines. Subject: Gen. J. E. B. Stuart, by Mrs. Ed Harvey.

Have you seen that beautiful car in Hines Motor Co's. window? 20-21

"Well! Strong!" Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and was afraid I was going to get in bed. I suffered with my head, back and sides-a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of CARDUI The Woman's Tonic I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me." If you have been experimenting with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you too. Try Cardui. 22 1t

Mrs. M. H. Quinerly First President of Woman's Club of Greenville

Below is a resume of the club work of Mrs. M. H. Quinerly, the highly esteemed first president of the Woman's club of Greenville, whose useful and well spent life came to an end last September, when she fell on sleep and went to her eternal rest.

It was the purpose of the club to publish this article several months ago, but owing to unavoidable delay it was not possible. However, it will in no wise be less interesting to those who knew and loved Mrs. Quinerly.

The Woman's club of Greenville was formed in April, 1917, with Mrs. M. H. Quinerly president. Hers was no easy task to guide and direct the tottering footsteps of this new enterprise, but so well did she perform this task, that when she retired at the end of two years, the Woman's Club stood as one of the dependable institutions of Greenville. In loving tribute to the faithful service of our first president, the club wishes to enumerate some of the activities and accomplishments of the first two years of our history, under her administration war work was our chief activity, and the members of this club took part, as individuals or committees in every phase of war work to which the community was adapted-selling Liberty Bonds, War Saving Stamps, Red Cross Seals, directing or helping in "drives" for Red Cross membership United War workers, and collecting clothing for refugees, sending magazines, delicacies, and money to hospitals and cantonments, conservation was encouraged by lectures and demonstrations of war cooking, canning of fruit and vegetables, prizes given for school and home gardens. A rest room was established and maintained on main street, play ground equipped at Evans street school and at the Cotton Mills, and a play ground supervisor furnished for two months in the summer.

Night school was maintained for employees at Cotton Mills, and regular day school established. Parent Teacher meetings started.

The club co-operated with the county Health Department in various health measures and held a welfare meeting and a Better Baby Day.

Petitions were circulated among store keepers for 6 o'clock closing, and the first movements made in that direction. The handsome gavel used by our presidents was the gift of Mrs. Quinerly, made from wood from the historic Williams home.

Several public speakers appeared before the club and the community under club auspices, Miss Winfield, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, and Hon. Wm. J. Bryan. The old saying "as the twig is bent, the tree will grow," applies to the Woman's Club of Greenville, and we feel we owe a large measure of our success as a club to the untiring efforts of our beloved first president, Mrs. M. H. Quinerly.
