ARRANGEMENTS FOR ROTARY CONVENTION BEING COMPLETED

Petersburg Rotarians Over- Looking Nothing That Would Add to District Conference

The Rotary Club is receiving reports from Petersburg regarding the arrangements for the entertainment of the conference of the 37th District when it convenes in that city on the 6th of March that indicate that Petersburg Rotarians are overlooking nothing that would add to the entertainment or comfort of the visiting brethren and also the Rotary Annas whom they accompany their menfolk. The Petersburg club has perfected a complete organization of its members to carry out entertainment plans as well as to form them, and it is announced that everything which can be done before the delegates begin to arrive has been done. In other words, Petersburg Rotary is "all set" for the conference.

The official program of the conference has not yet been sent out, but some of the features are known. For instance, the government has agreed to send a squadron of airplanes up from Langley Field to welcome Ray Havens, of Kansas City, president of Rotary International, and Roger Moore, District Governor, when they attend the conference. Ray will attend but five District conferences this year and has selected the 37th District's as one of the five, which, of course, is an honor fully appreciated.

All the civic associations of Petersburg have been and will continue to co-operate in the work of arranging for the entertainment of the conference. The Chamber of Commerce, composed of over 1,000 members, eagerly seized the opportunity months ago to take a hand in this work, and its officers and members have rendered yeoman service. The Kiwanis Club has taken as much interest in the big meet as though it were a conference of Kiwanians that was coming. The Chamber of Commerce rooms, Y. M. C. A. building, Ellis' home, and the Petersburg Country Club will be thrown open to visiting Rotarians. Petersburg Rotarians are insisting that golfing Rotarians bring their sticks with them and sample the Petersburg links, which are said to be among the finest in the South.

The Petersburg Club has informed the local club a rate of a fare and a half for the round trip to Petersburg and return has been secured from all the roads. Petersburg is reached by the Norfolk and Western, the Seaboard, and the Atlantic Coast Line. Excellent parking arrangements have been made for Pullmans, so that visitors who may prefer sleeping in the cars which take them to Petersburg may do so instead of staying at a hotel. The hotels of Petersburg announce rates as follows: The Petersburg, $2.50 per day for room and bath, two in a room, the Jefferson, $2.00, the Chesterfield, $2.00. Rates are for room and bath, two in a room. Vincent R. Beachy, Petersburg, should be addressed by those seeking hotel reservations. Rooms reserved must be paid for when reservations are made.

The Cockade City, as Petersburg is called, will be decorated most elaborately by the time visitors begin arriving for the conference. Practically every man on the principal streets has signified his intention of decorating the front of his business home for the conference and the committee on decorations has secured the services of an expert to superintend this work with a view to making it harmonious, impressive, and beautiful.

Although Petersburg is a modern progressive city of 40,000 people, historically it probably is the most interesting in the entire country. For ten months held by General Lee's army and besieged by General Grant's there are 68 miles of fortifications surrounding the city, making it until the outbreak of the world war the most extensively fortified municipality in the world. These earthworks are uniformly in an excellent state of preservation. Dozens of automobiles will be at the disposal of delegates every day and every hour in the day

BRITISH FUNDING BILL PASSES THE SENATE, 70 TO 13

Proposition Consisted of Four Republicans and Nine Democrats

Washington, Feb. 16. — Congressional approval of the British debt funding amendment virtually was completed tonight when the Senate passed the House funding bill. The vote was 70 to 13.

The bill was returned to the House for adjustment of amendments in relation to the plan of funding the British debt of $4,604,000,000 over a term of 62 years at reduced interest but providing that settlement with the debtor must have the approval of congress instead of the President. The opposition consisted of four republicans and nine democrats.

The vote was not reached until after seven o'clock and after a continuous session of eight hours and a total of four days of debate. The bill was passed a week ago today by the house after one day's discussion and goes to conference with a certainty of enactment before congress adjourns.

Chairman McCumber of the finance committee, Senator Smoot, Utah and member of the finance committee and also of the Allied debt commission and Senator Williams, of Mississippi, were appointed as the conferees of the senate.

Only two important senate adjournments are in dispute between the senate and the house. These are the amendments of Senator Robinson, Arkansas, providing for the approval by congress instead of the President of funding agreements with other nations and one by Senator Harris, Georgia, providing for appointment of three democrats on the Allied debt commission, without record votes. The Robinson agreement was accepted by the administration leaders but opposed that of Senator Harris and said it would be taken out in conference if it threatened to delay enactment of the legislation.

The attack in final debate today as well as in previous discussion centered on the reduced interest provided in the British settlement. This is 3 per cent for the first 10 years and 3 1-2 per cent thereafter.

Opponents rallied finally upon the amendment of Senator Hitchcock, republican, Nebraska, proposing that Great Britain pay the same rate paid by the United States upon its securities, averaged each year.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO HOLD PRE-EASTER SERVICES MAR. 26-31

Services Will be Evangelistic and of Unusual Interest Locally

The week before Easter there will be services every night at the Christian church. These services are evangelistic and will be of unusual interest to the people of Greenville. Careful preparation is being made to have them of the very highest order. Good music will feature these services. The preaching each night will bring forth themes that touch the everyday life and experiences of the people. The disciples of Christ, whose membership now is reaching up toward the two million mark, are putting on a five year campaign for one million additional members. Nation-wide interest is manifest in the movement of this communion in its unique program for the unity of all Protestant Christians. Dr. Jesse M. Bader, of Kansas City is the national director of the campaign of evangelism. (Continued on page 4) to convey them on tours of the fortifications. In short, the Petersburg Rotary Club has informed the local club that the official badge of the conference will be the latching.

LOCAL DISPENSER OF "FIRE WATER" IS NABBED AGAIN

W. J. Bryan, Negro, for Liquor Selling Was Only Defendant in Police Court

W. J. Bryan, one of the negro transient travelers of the city, appeared in the mayor's court this morning for the second time to answer the charge of liquor selling. Bryan, who has several times been in Federal, State and county courts, has attained for himself quite a reputation as dispenser of Pitt county "fire water" in bulk and otherwise. Each time in the past that the descendant of Ham has appeared for trial, he has been so fortunate as to be allowed to pay a small fine and the costs attached.

This time the negro "was caught in act." Thursday night the negroes of the city were conducting a dance in the Pulley Hall, near the old Munford warehouse site, and Chief of Police Jones, accompanied by one or two other officers, ventured inside to observe the crowd and their condition as to keeping the peace. Just in the door is a small cut-out place about 18 inches wide that was originally erected for a motion picture machine. Seated in the door way was Bryan with a glass in his hand, and was in the act of selling a drink when the officers appeared. With him he had one empty quart receptacle and another bottle of the same denomination just about two-thirds full.

Whiskey sales for the evening ceased as far as Bryan was concerned, for he was taken by the officers to the city's "rest room" and required to give bond for his appearance before Mayor Clark this morning. After hearing the evidence, his honor re-ported that to Judge Cooper in the County Court under $300.00 bond where he will be forced to give account Monday morning for his mistake.

ANNIVERSARY WEEK CAPITAL CITY GIRLS WILL BE OBSERVED BY THE ROTARY CLUB

Will Celebrate Eighteenth Birthday Feb 23; Organization Shows Great Growth

Putting the Golden Rule to work in every day life is the way the members of the local Rotary Club explain the world wide citizenship campaign they are staging next week in observance of the eighteenth anniversary of the organization of the first Rotary Club in Chicago February 23rd, 1905.

Ninety thousand Rotarians in twenty-seven countries are observing this anniversary and practically all of them are enlisted in the citizenship campaign which will continue throughout the week.

The role business of Rotary is to make the principle of service to the community as well as to the individual the object of all Rotarians. For this purpose each Rotarian has subscribed to a definite code of business ethics and is striving to put this code into effect in his own business and to bring about the adoption of similar codes in all business associations.

The following are the brief facts of the origin and principles of Rotary:

The need for an organization that would have fellowship and practical service as its objects, emphasized by his personal loneliness in a large city, led Paul Harris, a Chicago lawyer, to suggest to several friends the formation of a club that would have these objects and on February 23rd, 1905, the Chicago Club was started. It was called Rotary because the members met in rotation at their various places of business. Limiting the membership to one person in each business or professional classification brought together representative men of all lines of endeavor who would act as missionaries to their own business associates in the promulgation of the spirit of service. EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL ENJOYING SERIES LECTURES

Delivered by Mr. F. C. Harding Every Sunday to the Bible Class

The day was dark, the weather was cold and rainy yet an enthusiastic crowd was at St. Paul's Episcopal Sunday school last Sunday. The attendance of the whole Sunday school was not up to the number we are striving for, but the Bible class attendance enjoyed a considerable improvement.

Mr. W. L. Hall, our song leader, puts a great deal of life and "go" to all our hymns, you would enjoy joining your voice with those of the young boys and girls who are there.

Mr. Harding's lecture last Sunday was great and though his series of lectures on the establishment and development of the church has been started, he has not got so far in them but what one can enter the class now and easily get right into the subject. Those who were there last Sunday for the first time realized what they had been missing by not hearing his previous lectures. You come next Sunday at 9:45 a. m.

WRIGHT ADDRESSES WOMAN'S CLUB AT SPLENDID MEETING

Spoke on the Present Needs of Eastern Carolina Teachers College, of This City

The Woman's club had with them at their meeting Thursday afternoon Dr. Robert H. Wright, who came before the club with the purpose in view of informing the membership of the needs of the East Carolina College and the importance of the passage of the bill for an appropriation for the enlargement of the college, that is now pending in legislature.

Dr. Wright said in opening his subject, that we could not back or support the bill unless well informed on the subject. He then spoke very clearly on the needs of the college and told the women many enlightening things concerning the work done there.

The East Carolina Teachers College is the only institution of its kind in the state. Many people think that it is doing the same work as the Greensboro College for Women, but such is not the case. Greensboro College for Women is a liberal arts college, teaching many things, while East Carolina Teachers College, is for the purpose of preparing young women for the profession of teaching and for that alone.

The college has far outgrown its present quarters and if it is to do a great and much needed work it must have sufficient funds with which to erect and equip a number of new buildings and to purchase grounds on which to place these buildings.

Heretofore it has been maintained on one hundred thousand dollars a year, they are now asking the state to increase this amount to one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars for this year and the one hundred and thirty-five thousand for next year, this is necessary to meet the growing needs of the college.

The building program that the college has in view include dormitory room for twelve hundred students, a teachers dormitory that will accommodate ninety-two unmarried teachers two faculty houses, a library, and athletic building and a building for men students. The latter have been kept away from the college owing to the fact that there was no place to care for them, but the college is for the preparing of men teachers as well as women, a fact not known by the majority of people.

Dr. Wright spoke of the rapid advance (Continued on page three.)

FIRST TEAM PLAYS LOOSE BASKET BALL AND ARE DEFEATED

Second Squad of the Local High School Are Winners Because of Superior Playing

As a preliminary or rather a practice game to get in readiness for the first of the championship series here on Tuesday night with Belhaven, the first and second teams of the local high school basket ball aggregation last night immediately following the game between the girls of Raleigh and the locals. The second quint were winners 18 to 14 because of their superior playing at every stage of the game.

The first five playing was nothing more than a farce compared with that of their "understudies." As both passed and scored the second team playing rings all around the contenders for the championship of Eastern North Carolina, who will not advance very far towards the coveted goal unless they change their tactics and work more together, thereby applying signals in which respect they have shown weakness this season. This of course does not mean that every member of the first team layed down, so to speak, because with possibly two exceptions, the remaining members put forth their usual efforts. Had they too, manifested as little interest, the score would likely have (Continued on page 3)

STRONG APPEAL IS BEING MADE FOR A COUNTY HOSPITAL

People of This Section Greatly Handicapped by Diseases That Could be Cured

(Contributed)
It is more than probable in a very few days it will be officially announced that the directors of the Pitt County Hospital Association will offer to refund all moneys collected for the construction of the hospital, except that which individual subscribers prefer to leave as a hospital fund to be added to by future subscriptions.

There is about seven thousand dollars in cash and ten thousand dollars worth of real estate which has been gotten together to build a Hospital for the county's working people.

Every man, woman and child who gave this money could let it remain in the hospital fund without any appreciable sacrifice.

Churches and Sunday Schools, paved streets, white ways, hard surfaced roads, libraries, play grounds, and money for education are all necessary, but nothing is more essential than a hospital, where working people can get modern scientific treatment for the alleviation and cure of diseases. There is no industry or business that a hospital will not help. Not a living soul but what will be made safer by it. Those who call themselves Christians should not let this seventeen thousand dollars dissolve and leave no nucleus for the completion of this great need. Capitalists who have accumulated what they have through the sweat and toil of the laboring classes should get busy and hold this fund in tact and add enough to it to construct a place for the sick among those who earn by labor.

Ministry, doctors, dears, stewards and vestrymen can lift their voices in more self respecting prayer if they do their best to make a safe and modern scientific place to take care of the sick among God's working people and God's poor. Fifty thousand dollars added to the seventeen thousand dollars already in hand will do it. If every religious denomination in this county will join hands and put a hospital across, all people will feel that church folks are indeed doing God's will by serving humanity as God would have them serve.

Masons, who profess such love for humanity, should no longer hold themselves aloof from this necessary thing.

Pythians, Odd Fellows, Red Men, Macabees, and all other organizations, who preach such wonderful doctrines should begin now to do their bit.

Rotarians who serve, and Kiwanians who build, cannot render finer service or build more to the glory of God and humanity than by perfecting a hospital that will open its doors to those handicapped by sickness and pain.

Women with their federated clubs, should do something that will show that their hearts go out in helpfulness to their own kind, particularly when they go down into the valley of pain and into the very shadow of death in order that they may give to the county, future sons and daughters.

King's Daughters, who do things "in His name" should no longer sit with folded hands and let the hospital die.

The Pitt County Chamber of Commerce has done its part to get the ticks from the cows. It is now time to fight fevers in folks. The county is having too many deaths. Too many of its people are handicapped by chronic disease that could be cured if there was a place in which to cure them. Delay and no place to treat disease is causing coffins to be sold in this county nearly every day.

If the sixty thousand people in the county will give one dollar and a half apiece, it will be enough. If the seven thousand people in Greenville will give ten dollars apiece it can be put across.

It is up to you good people. This too prevalent feeling, "let George do it" has already prevailed too long.

"I was hungry and you gave me meat; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was sick and you ministered unto me."

Reparations is a big word for the children in Germany to understand, but we fear that they will realize sooner or later, that it is to play an important part in their lives.

'Preparation' was the slogan of Germany for years and years, now 'reparations' is destined to cause tears and tears.

'Fiction in preference to truth,' may please some people, but North Carolina prefers the truth. Only those whose deeds and thoughts are evil fear the truth. Here's hoping that the facts will be given in every issue, for the benefit of the public.

Miss 'Investigation' used to be a great stay at home somebody, but since she made her debut she is being rushed to death. What would become of this country if she stayed away for a year? With all her popularity she has been a failure in most undertakings.

Senator Borah's resolution declaring it to be the sense of the Senate that 'war be outlawed' is a great resolution if it could only be accomplished. Peace can't be found anywhere but in the dictionary and trouble, of some nature, is everywhere.

Dr. Chester set forth the duties of the health officer in a most attractive and interesting manner in yesterday's issue of this paper. Dr. Chester is one of the most efficient officers of the State and Pitt County considers herself very fortunate in having a man who is so vitally interested in those things which help promote better health conditions. He isn't only a good health officer but a splendid citizen and has been known to go out of his official duties to accommodate those who needed his services. Health conditions of the county have showed marked improvement under his leadership.

ANNIVERSARY WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED BY ROTARY CLUBS

(Continued from page 1) feature of membership the penalty for failure to attend meetings and rigidly enforcing the rule makes a passive membership impossible. No Rotary Club has ever surrendered its charter, or lapsed its membership in Rotary International. Rotary trains its members in community service; and Rotary clubs and Rotarians have helped in every commendable cause with both time and money.

Rotary is not a mere luncheon club, Rotary is a philosophy of life. Rotary not only teaches the doctrine of service, but Rotarians practice it. In Rotary the static ethical principle of the Golden Rule becomes dynamic.

Rotary, besides teaching Service to its own members, has become the model for a number of similar organizations, which are inculcating the principle of service among their members; and at the Rotary Convention held in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1921, Rotary International resolved that it 'hereby affirms its belief the Principle of Service as an educational factor, and expresses the hope that it will one day be taught in the schools of the world; and counsels the friendly auspices of Rotarians everywhere to that end.'

Rotary is not so much an organization as a great social movement; it has already found congenial soil among the diverse peoples of 27 nations. Rotary International may be the means of a new social order; and with the further extension of Rotary, a force of great potentiality for world peace and good will.

When you buy a Closed Car ~ Be Sure its price covers EVERYTHING

Oldsmobile Brougham is the most complete car of its price and type

Here's the proof—Let's talk facts. You owe it to yourself to check each competitive car point by point before you decide.

All Steel Covered Body. No composition panels to warp and deteriorate rapidly. The Brougham is standard closed car construction—steel panels from floor to roof.

Front Seats are Pullman Type Chairs. The backs are non-folding. The two who ride in front are as comfortable as the three on the rear seat.

Luggage Should be Under Cover. The locked luggage compartment under the rear deck is just right for two travelling bags.

Headlights that Spell Safety. These headlights are brilliant and powerful, yet legal in every state. The anti-glare corrugations in the reflectors make lenses and visors obsolete. A distinctive Oldsmobile feature.

Match this Equipment. Heater, door locks, cowl ventilator, sun visor, windshield wiper, high grade upholstery, satin silvered hardware, cowl lamps, nicked radiator, one piece crown fenders, transmission lock, dome light, window lifters and shades, walnut steering wheel and walnut finished instrument board.

Chassis Endorsed by General Motors. Built by Oldsmobile and approved by General Motors—a double assurance of high quality—the Brougham Four chassis is famous for its economy and endurance records. See the Brougham at our showroom—drive it—test it. You'll find it the most complete car of its price and type.

B. Y. P. U. OF MEMORIAL BAPTIST ENTERTAINS WITH DELIGHTFUL BANQUET

On Friday evening, at the Rotary building, the B. Y. P. U., of the Memorial Baptist Sunday school delightfully entertained the B. Y. P. U., of the Immanuel Sunday School and a few friends at a banquet. The dining room was artistically decorated with silver baskets containing American Beauty roses and red carnations, carrying out the color scheme of red and white, suggestive of the Valentine season.

Mr. J. B. Kittrell as master of ceremonies presided in his usual graceful manner and his remarks were both timely and witty.

After singing America, Mr. Kittrell, announced that the introduction of those present would be made by the person sitting to the right of the other, introducing his friend telling his name and age. Quite a bit of merriment was caused by this unique method and "Fiction to Truth" was the order of the day.

Miss Louise Fleming, president of the B. Y. P. U., of the Memorial Baptist Sunday School, in a few appropriate remarks delivered the address of welcome which was responded to by Mr. W. B. Pace.

Miss Macie Southall spoke on "What is a B. Y. P. U." bringing out the all important fact that it was a training ground, on which the raw material of the Sunday school, was turned into leaders for the church. Miss Southall, possesses an attractive personality, and her talks are always enjoyed. Mr. H. L. Smith discussed "What a B. Y. P. U. means to the church." His remarks were along the same line as those of Miss Southall, only they went a few steps further, and showed how badly the church needs leaders and just what the B. Y. P. U., is doing in training these leaders.

Mr. Julian White developed his subject, "What a B. Y. P. U. means to me," by bringing out the three points, namely, increased his knowledge of Bible, helped in training him to do public speaking and increased his knowledge of mission. Mr. Richard Gorman, in telling what the B. Y. P. U., had done for him used practically the same points, and told how it had inspired him to nobler and better things. Both talks were thoroughly enjoyed and showed that young people should be doing Christian work in order to broaden their lives and make more useful citizens.

Miss Wilkinson, of the Graded school faculty, spoke most interestingly in "What Socials can do for the church." She impressed the guests with the importance of churches having socials and told how they bring people, especially young people together. Mr. Chambers, pres. of the Immanuel B. Y. P. U., delivered a short address, bringing out the fact that no one should say "I can't." He emphasized the importance of putting the shoulder to the wheel and going forward. His remarks were timely and to the point and put "new pep" in the members of both organizations. Miss Mary Benton, who is known as a splendid cook was asked to tell the girls present, how to be better cooks. She only spoke a few minutes but her remarks were enjoyed.

Rev. Leland W. Smith and Rev. T. H. Plimmons both made short talks on the work of the young people and encouraged them in their efforts. Both ministers have been of invaluable aid to the organizations and have been a great inspiration to their members.

Miss Annie Bett Smith, toasted the Memorial, and Misses Southall and Morgan, the Immanuel.

Several songs, with Miss Morgan at the piano, were participated in, the last being, "Till we Meet Again."

The menu consisted of creamed chicken, tomatoes, creamed potatoes, garden peas, celery, strawberry short cake, and coffee. The favors were red and white caps, which each guest was requested to wear throughout the evening.

WRIGHT ADDRESSES WOMAN'S CLUB AT SPLENDID MEETING

(Continued from page 1) vance of the state in its educational program and remarked that the aim of East Carolina Teachers College was to train teachers so that the day would come when every school room would be presided over by a fully equipped man or woman and that when the people became sufficiently educated, money for educational purposes would be forth coming without the asking for appropriations, and that a state that could pay $122,000,000 federal tax, for war, (enough with which to run the state building program for ten years.) could certainly give enough to make it possible that every child should have a chance to become the best citizen possible.

To illustrate his talk Dr. Wright had with him a blue print of the college grounds and the intended improvements, and if the appropriation is made Greenville will have cause to swell with pride.

East Carolina Teacher College is one of seventy-two of its kind in the entire United States and is recognized throughout the country as a distinctive college. Greenville has always been proud to be the home of this fine school and it has meant a great life of our city as well as the surrounding community.

The Woman's club thanks Dr. Wright for this most interesting talk and it will do everything possible toward getting the bill for the appropriation passed.

"Feeling Fine!" "I was pale and thin, hardly able to go," says Mrs. Bessie Bearden, of Central, S. C. "I would suffer, when I stood on my feet, with bearing-down pains in my sides and the lower part of my body. I did not rest well and didn't want anything to eat. I felt miserable. A friend of mine told me of CARDUI The Woman's Tonic and I then remembered my mother used to take it. After the first bottle I was better. I began to fleshen up and I regained my strength and good, healthy color. I am feeling fine. I took twelve bottles (of Cardui) and haven't had a bit of trouble since." Thousands of other women have had similar experiences in the use of Cardui, which has brought relief where other medicines had failed. Try Cardui. It may be just what you need. EX 92

SECOND GROUP MEETING OF TEACHERS HELD IN

The second group meeting of the teachers of Chicod township was held at Grimesland Wednesday, February 14, 1923. In the absence of the Supt. the meeting was conducted by Miss Southall, the County Supervisor. Observation Lessons, Discussion of reading circle work and plans for the county commencement were the chief features of discussion.

One of the most enjoyable features of this meeting was the delightful luncheon given to the teachers by Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Jones. The lunch was served in the school building and consisted of stewed oysters, sandwiches, coffee and whipped cream. Mrs. Jones was assisted in serving by Mesdames. Elijah Proctor, Rufus Galloway, Fred Elks, and J. Heber Brooks.

All the teachers agreed that this was the most enjoyable and instructive meeting during the year, and regretted the fact that this was the last meeting of the Grimesland center.

Mother-Love Theme Finely Developed

In Gloria Swanson's Big Picture, "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew"

A story of mother love, beautifully developed, is said to be "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew," a new Gloria Swanson Paramount picture, which will be the feature at White's Theatre next Monday Matinee and night.

"The Impossible Mrs. Bellew" is the story of a wealthy young mother's love for her little son and her reactions when the child is torn from her by the decree of a divorce court after an evil light has been cast upon her really innocent part in a murder committed by her husband. Called "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew," shunned as a pariah wherever she goes, the pathos of her love for her son forms the "motivating force" to a "mother love" story decidedly different from the usual—and thoroughly modern. "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew" was adapted by Percy Heath from a story by David Lisle. Sam Wood directed. Included in the supporting cast are Robert Cain, Conrad Nagel, Richard Wayne, Helen Dunbar, June Elvidge, Herbert Standing and Clarence Burton, all members of the Paramount Stock Company.
