EVERETT WILL ASK FOR INCREASE IN APPROPRIATION

Teachers' College Granted Appropriation of $700,000 Against Request $2,000,000

SENATOR TO INSIST UPON HALF OF THE ORIGINAL REQUEST

Appropriations Bills as They Now Stand Will Exceed Budget Estimates

Raleigh, Feb. 24.—The general appropriations bill will be introduced in the House of Representatives this morning in blank and the items to be carried in the bill providing for bond issues will be threshed out at a full meeting of the joint committee on appropriations Monday afternoon so that the measure can be placed on its second reading in the House Monday night. The companion bill providing appropriations for maintenance for the several institutions will follow shortly. Every indication is that the bond bill will probably carry a total in excess of the $8,775,000 recommended by the Budget Commission.

At the suggestion of Representative Murphy, chairman of the House committee, the joint committee yesterday authorized introduction of the blank bill in order to save a legislative day and authorized the same subcommittee that has conducted the hearings upon the various appropriations to draft the general bills in time to present them to the full committee Monday afternoon.

The House sub-committee was not instructed by its full committee, but at a meeting of the full Senate committee following the joint meeting, the recommendation of Governor Morrison and the Budget Commission for a bond issue of $500,000 for dredging inlets to promote commercial fishing and to establish fisheries in the interior of the State was unanimously approved and the sub-committee instructed to write the full amount into the bill.

The fisheries item was the only one upon which the committee took definite action, but Senator Baggett served notice that he will insist upon a larger appropriation for the Caswell Training School than that recommended and Senator Everett indicated that he will advocate an increase for the East Carolina Teachers' College, of Greenville.

For the Caswell Training School, the Budget Commission recommended a bond issue of only $377,000 as against a request of $1,291,000. A legislative committee of about 20 members headed by Senator Hargett and Representative Whitaker which visited the institution recommended an increase of $500,000 over the amount carried in the Budget Commission's report and Senator Baggett stated that he would stand on this latter recommendation. Senator Everett, a member of the sub-committee, stated that in his opinion the small recommendation was due to the fact that the matter was not fully presented and Senator Varner, the only member of the Budget Commission now in the General Assembly, agreed to this view.

The East Carolina Teachers' College was granted an appropriation of $700,000 against requests for approximately $2,000,000 and Senator Everett indicated he will insist upon at least half of the original request.

The sub-committee yesterday completed its hearing of representatives of the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina in their request for $350,000 for permanent improvements and $150,000 a year for maintenance in order that the medical course of the university may be expanded from two to four years. Decision as to where the hospital and other facilities are to be located is reserved for the future. This item was not included in the report of the Budget Commission.

Senator Giles and Representative Murphy, as chairmen of the two committees, yesterday urged that a full membership be present Monday in order that a united front may be presented for whatever bill the committee adopts.

The presentation took place on the French cruiser Waldak Russo, at Constantinople.

LOSING LAST NIGHT ELIMINATED LOCALS FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Greenville Basket Ball Team Drops Last Contest of Series to Washington Quint

The Greenville High School basket ball team was eliminated in the championship series last night when they were defeated by the Washington quint by the score 23 to 20.

The game was hard fought from the beginning to the close by both teams, and several times the locals took the lead but was able to retain it but a few minutes. The first half ended with Greenville in the lead with one point, 13 and 12. While this advantage was close, supporters began to feel optimistic as to what the outcome would be, believing the locals would accept the lead with the determination to increase it during the last period of play. Unfortunately, the visitors took the second half apparently with more seriousness than did the home boys, and as a consequence their efforts were rewarded with the championship honors of group one, which entitles them to go up another step in the races for supremacy in the state.

The Greenville boys can attribute their defeat principally to their failure to guard their respective positions as close as they had in previous games. Too often they would leave the opponents took unguarded and each time the Washingtonites lost no time in making the locals mistake count on their side of the tally board. There were no special features connected with the game unless it was the foul goal throwing of Gaskins who placed eight through the basket out of ten tries. Kugler for the visitors scored fourteen points of the twenty-three made by his team.

While this eliminates Greenville in the race, the locals still have other games on their schedule to be played. The first of these is with Scotland Neck here on Tuesday night of next week. Tonight the boys second team and the girls quint will motor to Tarboro where they will play the teams of that city.

ITALY AND WESTERN UNION SIGN CONTRACT FOR CABLE BETWEEN N. Y. AND ROME

Washington, Feb. 24.—A contract providing a direct cable between New York and Rome has been signed by Italy and the Western Union, it has been learned officially. The Western Union contract will carry the cable to Azores and the Italian government will construct the cable from there through the Mediterranean to Rome.

THOMAS POLLARD FOUND NOT GUILTY MURDER CHARGE

Sensational Murder Case Comes to Close With Jury Staying Out a Short Time

Richmond, Feb. 23.—Thomas Pollard, prominent young business man, was found not guilty of the murder of Mrs. Thelma Ham Richardson by a jury tonight.

The verdict was reported at 7:10 o'clock after the jury had deliberated the case less than two hours. A silence swept the crowd which filled the court room as the jury filed in and reported to Judge David C. Richardson that they had agreed. The defendant sat with his counsel, his fixed on the 12 men in the jury box. Sobs shook his body as the clerk of the court read the words which meant liberty.

When the verdict was read and before the jury was discharged, Pollard's friends closed about him to shake his hand. His two brothers were among the first to congratulate him and a few minutes later he left the Hastings court building a free man.

The acquittal of Pollard ended one of the most sensational trials in Virginia criminal court history rivalling even the famous trial of Henry Beattie who paid the death penalty for the murder of his wife. The sordid details of Pollard's relations with the dead woman, extending over a period of months, were brought out by witnesses and admitted by the defendant himself.

Mrs. Richardson, formerly Mrs. Thelma Ham, of Atlanta, was shot to death on the lawn of the Pollard home on the night of December 11th, following a quarrel with Pollard. She had gone to the Pollard residence with J. M. West for the purpose of a prosecution alleged to seeking an understanding with Pollard concerning his attention to Mrs. Bertha Louise Beck. There was a quarrel and a struggle and the flash of a pistol and Mrs. Richardson was killed by a bullet which penetrated her head.

EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LARGELY ATTENDED SUNDAY

First Sunday of the Lenten Season Shows 33 1-3 Percent Increase of Last Sunday

Last Sunday was the first Sunday of the Lenten season and it seemed that the Lenten spirit had entered the hearts of many for the attendance at St. Paul's Episcopal Sunday school was a thirty-three per cent increase over the attendance of the Sunday before. There is no contest on but there is an earnest effort on the part of all to make the Sunday school bigger and better than it has ever been before. There are reasons why the school is bound to grow. The superintendent is Mr. E. G. Joyner who is an excellent one for his untiring efforts and zeal mean much to the Sunday school's success. He is ably assisted by Mr. W. L. (Continued on page 4)

HEAD OF ROTARY SPEAKS BY RADIO FROM KANSAS CITY

Address a Part of Observance of Anniversary of Establishment of First Rotary Club

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 23.—President Raymond M. Havens of Rotary International set a new mark in history when he addressed simultaneously hundreds of Rotary Clubs in as many different cities on the continent of North America tonight by radio phone as a part of the observance of the anniversary of the establishment of the first Rotary club. In addition to speaking simultaneously to Rotary Clubs in the East, Middle West, Pacific Coast, Canada and Mexico, the address of Rotary's president went into thousands of homes.

Through the cooperation of broadcasting stations throughout the country which courteously agreed to leave the air free for this experiment, and with the assistance of powerful stations in different sections, the address was heard with great clearness wherever the atmospheric conditions permitted.

President Havens spoke of the organization of the first Rotary club in Chicago, February 23, 1905, and the growth of the organization from that one club, which started with a few Chicago business and professional men, to the organization that exists today of 1325 clubs in twenty-seven countries with a total membership of approximately ninety thousand of the leading business and professional men of the world. The object of Rotary, he said, was to spread the gospel of service and to translate into terms of practical every-day life the spirit of the Golden Rule. He said that on this anniversary of the formation of the first club, Rotary is giving its principal attention to the business of transmitting to the citizens of every community in which Rotary has established a club, special messages on the responsibilities of the individual citizen for the various branches of his government. In the United States these messages come from President Harding, Speaker Gillet of the National House of Representatives and Attorney General Daugherty. In other countries the heads of the principal branches of the government are the authors of the messages.

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS AS RESULT OF PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT CAUSES TROUBLE

Washington, Feb. 24.—Criminal prosecutions incident to prohibition enforcement have brought about considerable disorganization in the courts of the United States and are contributing seriously to the general dislocation of the entire judicial system, according to a statement of former Governor Herbert Hadley, of Missouri. Statistics indicate one fourth of the criminal cases before the Federal Courts are prohibition, the prosecution said.

The message congratulated the Commandant. There were seven disorders in Dublin last night. One was killed and another wounded.

FIRST EXPERIMENT CUSTOMS HATCHERY PROVES A SUCCESS

Citizens Express Gratification at Splendid Results Obtained From First Setting

(Auspices Chamber of Commerce.) The Custom Hatchery, which was recently launched in Greenville for the development of the poultry industry in Pitt County, has fully met the expectation of those in touch with hatcheries in different sections of the county.

Every particle of space was taken for the first setting on Feb. 1st, at which time eggs came in from several sections of the county.

On the 22nd, the first hatch was taken off. It was a beautiful scene to watch the chicks and hear their chirping. Mr. W. L. Hall, the manager, stated that several hundred people have been in during the week to see the chicks and also those having compartments were in to carry their chicks home.

The per cent hatch of the first setting was indeed creditable, in fact it corresponded with results that come from hatcheries of years' experience. A good many things help determine results of hatching eggs from strong healthy hens, eggs from a good blood line, eggs kept in an even temperature and not too cold, fresh eggs, etc.

The Wishbone Mammoth, the large incubator in which these eggs were hatched, proved to be easy of operation. The management saw to it that the temperature registered in keeping with instructions from the factory. Every effort was put forth by the management to give the customers the very best hatch possible.

Mr. W. B. Pace, county agent, in speaking of the hatchery, said: "I had some eggs in this hatch and the results obtained were very satisfactory. I am convinced of one thing and that is that the management of this hatchery will deliver the maximum number of chicks in proportion to the different steps necessary on the part of those

RANSOM INTERVIEWS DISABLED RESIDENTS OF THIS COUNTY

Find Fifteen Disabled With Thirteen of Number Subject for Assistance

Mr. Paul J. Ransom, assistant Supervisor Vocational Rehabilitation, was in the city Thursday conferring with Mr. Futzell of the welfare department, where he interviewed fifteen disabled residents of Pitt county. Thirteen of this number were found to be subjects for assistance under the Rehabilitation department.

Mr. Ransom is following up the survey made jointly by the department of public welfare and vocational Rehabilitation Bureau of physically disabled residents of the state. From Greenville he went to Lenoir county where he will interview a number of disabled persons.

While in the city yesterday Mr. Ransom stated the object of the department of civilian Rehabilitation was to render assistance to disabled persons to become self supporting. Many persons have been left disabled by accident or disease and thereby are not able to maintain a livelihood unless given vocational training or fitted to some particular line of employment.

Mr. Ransom stated he would be in the eastern part of the state again later in the spring to interview persons falling under the provisions of this bureau. Crippled or otherwise physically disabled persons whose minds are good are subjects, he stated, for assistance. Names and address of worthy subjects in Pitt county should be sent to the Supt. public welfare at Greenville

AMERICAN TO BECOME BRITISH PEER

Charles E. Pellew

Professor Charles Ernest Pellew, formerly Professor of Chemistry, at Columbia University, New York City, a native-born American citizen, is in line for a British peerage through the death, in Washington, of his father, Henry E. Pellew, the Sixth Viscount of Exmouth, who succeeded to the title last August. The father retained his American citizenship and refused the title which the son will accept. Professor Pellew, who was born in 1863, added, however, he would spend half his time in America.

FIVE CASES GIVEN HEARING IN POLICE COURT HERE TODAY

The Cases, All of Different Natures, Consumed Only Short Time This Morning

Five cases were given hearing in the city court today and the session consumed only a short time.

J. B. Jones, white, charged with speeding on business streets. Fined $10.00 and cost.

Will Dixon, colored, charged with trespassing on premises of Richard Teel. Allowed to pay the cost.

Ola Ross, white, charged with obtaining merchandise valued at $40.00 from Barr Filling Station by means of false pretense. Bound over to county court under $100.00 bond.

F. P. Stafford white, charged with being drunk and committing acts of disorderly conduct and trespassing on personal property of one J. R. Whickard. Fined $10.00 and cost in each case making a total for both cases of $27.10.

Miss Novella Mobley, white, James Starkey, charged with driving auto in a reckless and careless manner at the intersection of Washington Street and Dickinson Avenue, and thereby causing collision and destroying public property, to-wit a white way fixture valued at $10.75. The evidence all being that Miss Mobley was driving on the left side of Washington street, and close to the curb in turning from Washington street up into Dickinson Avenue towards Five Points and at a greater rate of speed than five miles per hour in making the turn, and that Starkey while driving down Dickinson Avenue on the right hand side, being met by Miss Mobley coming in from Washington street, dodged his car to the left and being struck by Miss Mobley was forced into the white way post, thereby causing the damage. Miss Mobley being in fault both in driving on the left side of Washington street at the intersection of Dickinson Avenue and in making the turn at too great a rate of speed and it being shown that Starkey was complying with the law in every particular until he dodged to the left to avoid a head on collision, the mayor dismissed the action as to James Starkey, and allowed Miss Mobley to pay the damages to light post amounting to $10.75 and the cost of the action.

FUN FEATURED AT REGULAR MEETING OF KIWANIS CLUB

With "Doc" Shambhart in Charge of Program Much Merriment Was Furnished

COMMITTEE NAMED TO SERVE WITH ROTARY ON HOSPITAL PROJECT

Property Owners Agree to Pay Proportionate Part in Paving Expense on Fifth Street

The Kiwanis Club met in regular semi-monthly meeting last night at the Rotary home with a good percentage of the membership present, and several visitors in attendance. President Fitzgerald presided at the opening, and after the invocation by J. D. Rogers and the appointment of W. E. Hooker as sheriff, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

As one meeting of each quarter is programmed as fun night, last night's session was observed as such with Kiwanian W. P. Shambhart in charge of the principal part of the program. "Doc" was well filled with the kind of fun it takes to dispel the blues, and he proceeded to make an equal distribution among those present. Nearly every member without any warning was called on to contribute to the "barrels of fun" and much merriment was furnished. Perhaps the feature stunt was a Ford and Oldsmobile race which was run by the route of the dining tables with Ed. Flanagan and Henry Sugg as chauffeurs. Both cars were forced out at times to be re-coiled, but the Oldsmobile finally won out, but by only a few feet.

At the conclusion of the fun program the president again resumed his place in the chair, and matters of a business nature were brought to the attention of the club by various members. The question of a minstrel was discussed but finally deferred until some future time.

Kiwanian J. B. James advised the club that he had been requested by committees from other organizations of the city to present to the Kiwanians some thoughts relative to the new proposed hospital for Greenville, which project received its birth at a recent meeting of the Rotary club. Upon suggestion of Mr. James, the club voted that the president appoint two members to act with representatives from other organizations of Greenville in perfecting plans of a concrete nature to present to the public. Messrs. E. G. Flanagan and G. B. W. Hadley were chosen to represent the club.

Kiwanian H. A. White, chairman of the public affairs committee reported that through co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and other organizations of the city, they had procured the signatures of the property owners of fifth street extended, agreeing to pay their proportionate part of the paving to connect the city streets with the county highway.

Several visitors were present and each responded to his introduction with a few timely remarks.

Dr. Paul Fitzgerald, chairman of the program committee stated that the second meeting in March would be observed as child's night, and that the ages of the children must be between 6 and 14 years. All members without a child within this age limit are supposed to borrow a guest from some fellow Kiwanian.

Out of stock, what? The foreign policy. It looks like the present administration would make an effort to hatch a foreign policy if it hasn't one.

Play ball! can be heard in the distance, and if everything we hear means anything, then Greenville will soon be saying to players, "our Greenville, yours if you come."

There may be a big cotton shortage next year as some people predict, but we believe that if farmers will take the advice given them and combat the boll weevil, that "king cotton" will still rule the field.

Pitt County is not envious. It has no need to be as it is blessed as few counties are, but when we see hospitals being erected all around us we can't help but feel that the county is missing something which it needs.

Filibuster seems to be a good word.
At any rate it gives the senators time to talk as long as they please and about everything they please, while the poor ship subsidy suffers from the knockouts which it has received.

France hasn't asked America nor Great Britain to help her out of her present trouble. This is a case where foreign diplomats are trying to attend to some one else's business when they should be attending to their own.
When France asks for help then will be time for "outsiders" to interfere.
"You stay in your own back yard,"
has been her attitude so far.

William J. Bryan sounded a great truth when he said that prohibition had come to stay. It is here and it is the duty of every citizen to uphold
it. When a man gets to the point that he violates it to the extent of illicit distilling he has reached the limit of violation.

The announcement of the opening of the Curb Market will be received most gladly by a large number of people of this immediate section. It is our first attempt but present indications point to a good beginning. Anything new always attracts attention and for this fact, and several others also, the opening is being looked forward to with a certain degree of interest by everyone.

This is considered by some people as being the day of high living. The world is getting faster and faster while living prices are advancing and advancing. From all appearances life is about the cheapest thing, when we consider how many people commit suicide every day and how many are killed in accidents that could have been avoided. Nothing is more valuable than a human life and no value,
too great, can be put on it.

The Richmond Times Dispatch says:
"A British dry bill would require the labeling of alcoholic drinks as "poison." If British liquor deserves that label, what sign should be pasted on our American brand? We will add another question by asking what sign would be pasted on the Pitt county brand if they went by the "small" or it

NOT INTERVENTION BUT NEGOTIATION

In urging his motion for a joint intervention by Great Britain and the United States in the Ruhr affair, Mr.
Lloyd George delighted in his freedom from official responsibility. But he cannot divest himself of responsibility for a course which is plainly mischief-making, and which is, moreover, based on a blithe assumption which everybody knows to be unfounded. It is common knowledge that the United States Government has no thought of intervening. The British Government has officially announced that it will do nothing to interfere with France.
The French Government has let it be known that it would regard any proposal of intervention as unfriendly.
Mr. Lloyd George is perfectly aware of all this, so that the inevitable inference is that he simply is ready to catch up any club with which to beat Mr. Bonar Law over the head. Were he himself still Prime Minister he would pour vials of reproach and wrath upon any political leader who had taken a stand in the House of Commons so reckless as his own is at present.

What we are to watch for is the hour not of intervention but of negotiation. The French Government has from the first day of the advance into the Ruhr declared its readiness to come to terms with Germany. Yesterday we had the statement from the former German Chancellor, Dr.
Wirth, that the whole aim of German passive resistance to the French is to "bring about negotiations." He urged the Cuno Government not to miss the first opportunity to open them.
This is a somewhat obscure utterance since France is disposed at any time to give ear to German offers, but the intent of it is not doubtful. It is in line with the reports that the German Socialists in the Ruhr are now advocating an "honorable peace" with France on the basis of payment of "reasonable reparations." These signs of promise may not be trustworthy, but they point to the conclusion which ultimately must be reached. Either directly or indirectly, Germany will in the end have to seek to find out what she must do to satisfy the demands of France under the Treaty of Versailles. — New York Times.

CAT AND CANARY THRILLS CROWD

Duval Audience Grasps, Shivers and is Delighted With the Play

"The Cat and the Canary" is a play in three acts and a thousand shrieks.

Most of the cries come from the audience, it is needless to remark. Electric fans are not needed at any performance of John Willard's remarkable mystery drama. A sufficiency of chills romps up and down the spine to freeze the warmest blood.

Patrons of the Duval theatre at the Jacksonville premier of "The Cat and the Canary," Tuesday night, gasped, shivered, and sometimes screamed. And when it is stated this play begins where "The Bat" leaves off—and the Rinehart work has its breath-taking moments—the reason is not so hard to understand.

The entire action of the play takes part in a gloomy old manor on the Hudson, between the hours of 11:30 p. m. one night and 1 a. m. the next morning.

The six heirs of an eccentric old millionaire assemble to hear his will read. A pretty girl inherits the estate, but it is made plain if she shows insanity, the estate goes to the next in line. Right after the reading of the will comes word that a dangerous maniac has escaped from a nearby asylum.

In the house are gathered an oddly assorted group. Aside from the heiress is the family lawyer, the two cousins desirous of her hand, a catty old woman, a grimly terrible West Indian servant, a garage-keeper who wears hornrimmed glasses, and another girl.

The thrills and chills comes thick and fast. Clutching white hands, ominous rappings, sliding panels, strange disappearances—and a final denouncement which comes as a complete surprise. It isn't supposed to be ethical to tell the plot of the play, so no more of the story will be divulged. See it for yourself.

The cast is fairly competent. Every body is too busy shivering to take much notice of the actors, anyway. However, Emily Taft, a former Jacksonville stock favorite, is an attractive and clever leading lady, and Grace Dorthea Fisher makes the role of the "catty cousin" stand out. M. J. Briggs is easy and polished as Harry Blythe and Buford Armitage does good work as the other cousin. Robert Toms is the "boob" hero of the drama, but his performance of this difficult role is sometimes not all that could be desired.

Harold Sterling is the grim West Indian adds many to the chills the audience endure, and a rinky-dink Fox does well in the small role of the weird doctor in the last act.

"The Cat and Canary" will be repeated tomorrow night and Thursday, with a matinee Thursday. It will give you the creeps, but it certainly is worth seeing.—Jacksonville Journal.

The "Cat and Canary," will be presented in White's Theatre on March 8th.

WILDCATS DEFEATED THE PANTHERS ON YESTERDAY

With yesterday afternoon's victory over the Panther Patrol, the Wildcats sewed up the championship in the Troop Two League and can lose the three remaining games to be played and still not relinquish their lead.

In the second game, the Eagles who were minus the services of Tripp, were forced to bow to the Wolves and as a result they are now sharing the cellar with the Panther Patrol.

The remainder of the season will be a fight between the three trailing teams to see which ones can pull out from the bottom of the ladder.

Besides the games, Troop Two carried out its regular program of activities at Friday's meeting. After a competitive drill in the open, James Albritton was elected as Flag Bearer for the troop.

The boys have been busy planning for some time to stage a reception and exhibition of scout work with their parents and friends as their guests. On yesterday special drill was given them in calisthenics, in the scout laws and oath and in first aid work. The open meeting which is to be held soon promises to be the biggest night of the year for Troop Two.

The line-up and scores in Friday's games were as follows:

Panthers—Rice, Taft 1, Wilkerson 0, Hodges 2, Total 7.
 Wildcats—Brown 2, Forbes 3, Critcher 2, Turnage 0, Hadley 0, Total 12.

Eagles—Perkins 1, Skinner 0, Sauced 2, Norris 0, Burnette 6, Total 9.
 Wolves—Overton 1, Hearne 8, Albritton 0, Lassiter 3, Dunn 2, Total 12.

The standing in Troop Two League is now as follows:

	W.	L.	Pc
Wild Cats	10	3	77%
Wolves	6	7	46%
Eagles	5	8	38%
Panthers	5	8	38%

BETTER METHOD TO FEED ELK IS URGED

(By International News.)

Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb.—The State of Wyoming is all wrong, or nearly so, in its system of feeding wild elk in the famous Jackson Hole country, according to Representative W. C. Deloney, of Lincoln county, who desires the appointment of a legislative committee to go to the elk country and look into the matter.

Deloney's legislative hobby is game protection. He lives in the heart of the big-game region. He believes that the state's feeding designed to fide the elk herds over periods when natural forage is too deeply covered with snow to be accessible, is not begun until it is too late to save many of the elk. By the time the State begins providing hay for the elk, he stated in an illuminating speech to the House, many of them are too far gone from starvation to be saved by the delayed aid; so weak from hunger that they fall easy prey to coyotes and other predatory enemies. He believes that a study should be made of the feeding problem and a system adopted whereunder feeding would begin in ample time and be continued until spring is sufficiently advanced for the elk to subsist without assistance.

The present feeding system, Representative Deloney stated, not only results in the loss of great numbers of elk that should be saved, but in loss to the ranchmen of the Jackson Hole country. The elk, driven to desperation by hunger, raid the ranches and consume large quantities of hay stored by stockmen for the consumption of domestic stock. If State feeding were begun in proper time, he pointed out, these desperate raids would not take place.

No action was taken on Representative Deloney's suggestion for an investigating committee, but he will bring the matter up again later.

FAMOUS MYSTERY PLAY THE CAT AND THE CANARY TO BE SEEN HERE NEXT MONTH

"The Cat and the Canary," the famous New York success that Kilbourn Gordon, Inc., presents at White's Theatre on Tuesday, March 6th is a melodrama replete with mystery that begins almost immediately after the curtain and remains unsolved until the very last minute of the play. The story revolves about the strange events that follow the reading of the will of a rich and eccentric old man. It begins in the library of the old mansion on the Hudson, continues with increasing dramatic tenseness in the room in which he had died, 20 years before the action of the play, and reaches a happy though exciting climax in the library. The action all takes place between 11 p. m. and 1 A. M. but in that time a murder is done, a necklace worth a fortune is taken from the neck of a sleeping girl, while suspicion is deftly turned upon first one and then another of the character with bewildering rapidity. Throughout all this mystery there is woven a delightful love story and many humorous situations to relieve the tenseness of the exciting plot.

COUNTY WELL ORGANIZED FOR ANTI-RAT CAMPAIGN

The county has been well organized for the Anti-Rat Campaign and every one is urged to join in ridding the county of these pests. It will not do much good for you to kill your rats unless the neighbors kill theirs also. Therefore it behooves us all to boost as hard as we can.

W. B. Pace, county agent, has procured the services of the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service of the State College and the Biological Survey of the United States, who sent Mr. C. Carr this county to outline the campaign. This department is also sending all publicity material to our county to use during the campaign. Mr. Pace asked the Pitt county Red Cross to push the campaign throughout the county and every branch has assured them of their willingness.

W. L. Hall is chairman of the county drive, G. T. Gardner, E. A. Moore, and R. E. Nelson are in charge of campaign in Grifton. Dr. W. M. McKinney, G. A. Johnson, and J. J. Lawrence in Ayden. Mrs. C. M. Jones and A. O. Clark in Grimesland.

Hiss Mabel Barnhill, chairman of Red Cross Civic committee has work in charge in Bethel. Mrs. Jasper Shackelford, Mr. W. H. Moore and Joy Scouts in Farmville. The chairman of every school committee in the county has been asked to distribute the poison and to see that systematic account is kept of all rats and mice killed by the children so that every one will have a fair chance at the $25.00 prize offered by the county. Local prizes will be given in many places. These will be announced next week.

NEGRESS DIES AT AGE OF 128 YEARS

(By International News.)

Atlanta, Ga., Feb.—Eveline Bolton, negress, who was nearly three years old when George Washington died, and who would have remembered the war of 1812 had she ever been told of it, died recently in Oglethorpe county, Georgia.

The State Board of Health accepted as authentic the record that she lived for almost 126 years. She was born on March 13, 1897, and died on December 24, 1922, as her grave marker will record it. The statistics have been carefully checked.

Justice H. H. Glenn found that the birth record had been furnished by N. H. Bolton, descendant of Noah Bolton, to whom "Aunt Eveline" belonged. He also found that she had been a member of the Mount Zion church in good standing for 115 years.

He also found that her third child is still living at the age of ninety-eight. She had sixteen children, forty-eight grandchildren, and 191 great-grandchildren.

ATTENTION

Tobacco Farmers!

At a recent meeting of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, it was decided to exert their fullest efforts in the campaign that is being waged against the tobacco bug or beetle by the tobacco interests generally throughout Eastern Carolina.

This beetle has become such an alarming pest to the tobacco industry that it is comparable to the boll weevil menace to cotton, in the damage they do, and it is of mutual interest to the farmers, warehousemen and buyers to take immediate steps to combat the evil.

All factories and warehouses in Eastern Carolina are now conducting a thorough clean-up campaign of their buildings and the farmers are also hereby requested to take similar action in cleaning up their barns, pack houses, etc. These insects breed from accumulations of trash tobacco, dust, etc., in the corners, crevices and cracks of any place where tobacco has been handled, but once they become active they will leave the common tobacco available, as they seem to be good judges of quality.

As tobacco infested with bugs or borers, which is the worm stage of the insect, is greatly depreciated in value, it is therefore to the farmer's interest to protect himself by helping to eliminate these pests, since they are present in greater numbers this year than has ever been known before.
