WILL YOUR NAME BE PRINTED IN THE FIRST LIST OF CANDIDATES IN THIS PAPER'S GREAT SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE

Names Will Appear Wednesday and There is a Big Advantage to the Candidate to Get in This List, as Readers Will Select Favorites From It

MANY HATS ARE THROWN IN RING

But Nominations Are Still Very Much in Order and Winner of Oldsmobile May Not Yet be in List—Act Today

"Come on in; the water's fine."

While a good many fair ladies and ambitious gentlemen have already "thrown their hats into the ring" and become candidates in the special election to be held by The Daily Reflector on April 7th to determine who shall receive the fine Oldsmobile, the Star touring car, the suites of furniture, the diamond ring and the wrist watches being offered in this paper's gigantic subscription campaign there is yet room for more entrants and nominations are now in order.

If you don't want to enter the campaign yourself, use the nomination blank printed elsewhere in this paper and name some friend or relative for the honor. Then you will have first call for a ride in the new car if your candidate is successful, and that will be quite an honor for anyone.

But, whether you want to enter or to name a candidate, take our advice and do it today. The first list of candidates will be printed in Wednesday's paper and, while nominations will not end then, everyone will appreciate the advantage to the candidate to have his or her name appear in the first list. Readers of the paper will be apt to pick out their favorite the first day and decide to whom will go their subscription and support. An early start is half the battle.

There is a fine list of candidate already toting the mark and ready for a grand rush in the opening days of the campaign, when the money collected will count for more votes than will be the case at any other time during the drive. That is the time for the ambitious candidate to get in the best work. Then the field is larger and there are more prospective subscribers to approach and the first to ask will receive the support necessary to win much easier.

There is but one way to win the automobiles and other valuable prizes—by votes in the ballot box at the end of the campaign. And there is but one way to secure these votes—by securing subscriptions to The Daily Reflector.

There is no red tape about getting into the campaign. Just sign the nomination blank printed elsewhere and send it in, write the Campaign Manager that you want to enter, phone 56 and ask for the Campaign Manager, or, better, come to the Campaign Headquarters on the second floor of The Reflector building and get the receipt book and full information at first hand. But the important thing is to act NOW—attend to it this minute.

"Come on in; the water's fine."

SIXTY-SEVENTH SESSION CONGRESS COMES TO CLOSE

During Last Hours President Harding Signs Farm Credits Bill and 98 Other Measures

Washington, March 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The Sixty-Seventh congress, which had spent a greater proportion of its two-year span of life in actual session than any other in the history of the country, adjourned sine die at noon today.

During the last few hours of the session, President Harding, spending part of the time at the Capitol, signed the farm credits bill and ninety-eight other measures. No legislation was vetoed.

Vice-President Coolidge's gavel fell sharply at noon, after an almost colorless morning session for two hours, and the House adjourned at 12:06 p. m., after a concert by a section of the marine band and a chorus of popular songs by members and spectators.

Tonight the departure of members, many of whom today answered their last roll call, was in full swing, with prospective suspension of activities at the Capitol until next December brings in the 68th congress.

Crowds witnessed the closing scenes, adjournment and presence of President Harding, Cabinet officers, diplomats and other high officials bringing hundreds who packed the Senate and House galleries.

The President reached the Capitol at 11:25 o'clock and was kept busy reading and signing the final avalanche of bills. Before going to the Capitol, he signed the farm credits and 48 other bills turned out during the early morning session today. In the Presidential suite of the Senate chamber before the noon limit expired 55 more bills received executive approval.

The last bill to become law was the better butter measure, changing butter fat standards. An important measure placed on the statute books at the last moment was the one providing for return to enemy alien owners of all seized property worth $10,000 or less.

Little was accomplished by either Senate or House in the last two-hour session this morning. Members were hollow-eyed and worn from the long night sessions which lasted in the House until 3:28 a. m., and in the Senate until after 1:30 a. m.

Mayor Clark Calls Attention of Public to Facts Concerning Whiskey

The following cases were given a hearing in police court this morning.

Wm. Thomas and Bob Forbes white, charged with receiving and possessing for the purpose of sale and selling intoxicating liquors. Police officers late Saturday afternoon armed with a search warrant raided the stores operated by Wm. Thomas and Bob Forbes at the North end of Tar river bridge and found in possession of said Thomas and Forbes four brand new unused gallons of corn whiskey, and also found much evidence of recent use of large quantities from which it is easily presumed that many sales had been made, for instance, scattered about the store and store room were found two five gallon, two four gallon, one three gallon and one one half gallon jugs also funnel and glass all freshly emptied and smelling strong of the fiery fluid, also under the store were found two large empty jugs and two five gallon empty jugs which still retained the fragrant breath of John Barleycorn (deceased). If Thomas and (Continued on page 4)

Pola Negri, the famous Polish screen star, who recently allowed her engagement to Charlie Chaplin to be announced, told reporters in Los Angeles the engagement had been broken. She declared she was too poor to marry him. But Charlie is a fast worker. As soon as he heard of the broken engagement he rushed to Miss Negri, a reconciliation was effected, and they will be married, after a ll. PLANS BEING MADE FOR FASHION SHOW IN CITY MARCH 15

Evening's Program Will be Brought to a Close With Big Dance; Great Time Expected

The Merchants Association, of this city, will stage a Fashion and Automobile show combined in one of the local warehouses, on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, March 15. The evening's program will be brought to a close with a big dance, music being furnished by the Garber-Davis orchestra.

All the committees which consist of a finance committee, construction committee, decoration committee, advertising committee, program committee and dance committee are busy making plans and all arrangements are nearly completed.

This will be the first Fashion and Automobile show ever held in Greenville and promises to be one of the most up-to-date affairs of its kind ever held in this section. Much interest is being manifested in the undertaking.

The warehouse will be beautifully decorated and besides the living models which will display the spring styles, on a stage, the merchants will have attractive booths in which they will display their latest styles. The automobile dealers will also have a display, several of their newest cars. It is expected that the dance will be one of the outstanding features of the event.

LEGISLATURE MAY STAY IN SESSION UNTIL TUESDAY

Accumulation of Bills in Enrolling Office Clogs Machinery; Calendar Clear Tonight

Raleigh, Mar. 5.—Mountains of bills that have been passed and ordered sent to enrolling clerk's office have clogged that branch of the legislative machinery to the point that adjournment will in all likelihood be postponed until tomorrow afternoon, or early tomorrow night, in the opinion of most of the members who are still in the city. It will be impossible to prepare all bills for ratification before that time.

Between four and five hundred measures are now in the enrolling offices, each to be copied and read by the enrolled bills committee before it is brought down for the signatures of the presiding officers and sent to the office of the Secretary of State. Less than 100 measures remain on the calendars of the two houses, other than a few local bills, most of them public bills of minor importance.

Interest in the sessions today and tonight will center in the action that may develop out of the deadlock between the Senate and the House over the Solicitors salary, and possible insistence that the Senate may insist on the House's receding from its vote not to concur in the Senate amendments to the appropriations bill to keep maintenance appropriations within the income of the State if it should develop that the income is not sufficient to meet the drain upon it. No trouble is likely to develop over the maintenance of a quorum since the constitutional limit and pay of members expired Saturday. More than eighty members of the House have signified their intention to remain in the city as long as may be required to complete the legislative business. The Senate will maintain a (Continued on page 4)

WHITE MAN KILLED AND THREE INJURED IN CUTTING SCRAPE

Galloway's Cross Roads Section is Scene of Tragedy on Yesterday Afternoon

Troy Harris is dead and Thad Harris, Morton Mills and Roy Stokes, all white men of the Galloway's Cross Roads section of the county, are suffering from wounds received in a knife scrape that took place in that vicinity yesterday afternoon in which Frank Wilson, another white man of the same section, was the lone wielder of the knife. Wilson disappeared immediately after the affair occurred, but this morning he presented himself to the sheriff for arrest and was released under bond of $1,000.

The affair was caused by the return of Wilson's sister, Nora Wilson, to the neighborhood after he had sent her away and forbidden her to return. According to information made public Wilson's sister returned Saturday night and was staying at the home of Thad Harris, and Wilson, hearing of it went there yesterday to drive her away again. He met Harris at the door and told him of his intentions and said that he was going to drive her away or kill her. Harris tried to persuade him to go away, but he went on into the house and entered the room where his sister was staying and caught hold of her. According to the woman's statement Wilson had drawn his knife to kill her when Troy Harris entered the room and made an effort to prevent it and it was in that way Troy received wounds which proved fatal.

When Troy Harris rushed from the room out into the yard, where he fell, Thad Harris, his brother, and Morton Mills and Roy Stokes entered the room to try to overpower Wilson, and end the row. Though they finally succeeded in their efforts each received cuts, none of which proved very serious. In the meantime Troy Harris had been carried into the house, where he died about thirty minutes later. After the affair Thad Harris ordered Wilson off the place and accompanied him a short distance down the road. Wilson disappeared into the woods immediately after Harris left him and no more was seen of him until he appeared at the sheriff's office here this morning.

The coroner was called to the scene for inquest and deputy sheriff Whitehurst was sent to locate the whereabouts of Wilson.

FOUR CASES GIVEN HEARING IN COUNTY COURT HERE TODAY

Though Most of Cases Are Minor Ones Many Witnesses Are Introduced

There were only four cases in county court this morning but the introduction of many witnesses in one of the principal cases made the session a lengthy one.

The cases disposed of were: E. E. Hahan, white man, who was charged with the assault on a female. After the testimony of about a dozen witnesses the defendant was found not guilty.

Ola Ross, white, was convicted on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretense and made to pay a fine of $25 and the costs.

Richard Harris was found guilty of assault on Albion Dunn and paid a fine of $25 and the costs.

Leona Atkinson, fourteen year old negroes charged with assault and the use of profane language upon a negro woman, was turned over to Juvenile court for hearing.

Leatrice Joy Married. Los Angeles, March 5.—Leatrice Joy, molton picture actress, and Jack Gilbert, also acting for the screen, were married for the second time last night.

LARGE CROWDS ARE EXPECTED ATTEND THE GREAT SHOW

Only Two Weeks Before Eastern Carolina Exposition Will Open in Wilson

Goldboro, Mar. 5. Two weeks remain before the biggest event of its kind ever held in the Southeast, will open its doors to the public of Eastern Carolina and in fact this entire section, in the form of the Eastern Carolina Exposition and Automobile Show that will open in Wilson, Monday, March 19th, at 1:30 o'clock with a monster parade. This big undertaking is being fostered and actively put on by the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, whose headquarters are at Goldboro. It is conservatively estimated that this week will draw more people to Wilson, than any other attraction has drawn to any town in this state, even the larger towns not excepted. It will not surprise the most conservative judges of crowds, if 50,000 people pass through the turnstiles during these days of this big show.

More than 200,000 pieces of literature have been sent out from the office in Goldboro, and by the banks, merchants and others in Eastern Carolina, advertising this big entertainment. It is one of those things that every body has fallen in line with, and everybody seems to be pushing the thing along. A wonderful spirit of co-operation has been shown in this advertising campaign, and the management is very much encouraged. More than 2,000 winter tourists in Florida have had advertising matter mailed direct to them, inviting them to stop over at Wilson on their return home from the Sunny South. Many visitors will be attracted in this way, that would never have an opportunity to see Eastern North Carolina.

A selected list of manufacturers and bankers in the New England states has been made out and they too, are being apprised of Eastern Carolina's wonderful opportunity. The slogan that has been adopted by the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce is very appropriate for this section: "Eastern Carolina, where prosperity is perennial." This slogan carries with it the idea that there are no real lean years in Eastern Carolina. They are all plenteous and that's true.

5,000 handsome booklets, filled full of interesting facts about Eastern Carolina, are being mailed out to every section of the country. These booklets are so attractive that each one that falls into the hands of a business man will find a place in his business library for future reference, and will prove interesting reading matter in the future. These booklets are sure to get favorable results in years to come.

When you hear a person kicking his home town, ask him a few pertinent questions. Ask him why it is not his lacking. Ask him what he has done to correct the defects of which he complains. Ask him if he has ever done anything to make this a better town. Ask him why he continues to live and earn his money here. Ask him to think it over and see if he is not mistaken in his judgment. You may convert a pessimist into an optimist. Henry Bulletin.

SOME PLANKS FOR THE NEXT DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

Recent events show the necessity for the Democratic party to make a plain deliverance of the fundamental doctrines of the Democratic party, applicable yesterday, today, tomorrow, forever. Principles are immortal. Application of sound principles can be made to every generation. There are some planks that evidently need emphasis in view of the fact that some legislatures have been seduced into voting for special privilege for the rich and powerful. The following planks may sound revolutionary to those who think the rich should be allowed to transfer the taxes to the many in order that their stock in foreign corporations may be exempt from all taxation, but they will sound familiar and sound in the ears of all who believe in the utterance of the Declaration of Independence, and the policies supported by Vance and Aycock in this state:

- 1. Equal rights to all and special privilege to none. 2. No bonds shall be issued except by the approval of a majority of the voters of the state in a referendum. 3. We demand just government in the interest of all economically administered. 4. No exemption from taxation shall be granted to any class of individuals or any class of property. 5. No inducements shall be held out to people to come to North Carolina except the one eternal principle that equal laws, equal protection and equal taxation shall rest upon all alike. 6. No appropriation shall be voted without provision for taxation to meet such appropriations. 7. Interest laws shall bear alike on individuals and corporations. 8. No secret societies, whose members are disguised, shall be permitted to usurp the functions of public officials. All reputable lawyers who appear before legislative committees shall be registered. All lobbyists shall be excluded from the State Capitol. There are fundamental Democratic policies to secure "equal rights to all and special privilege to none." Upon that principle the Democratic party was organized. Its followers today stand upon this eternally sound doctrine. But they must be prepared to fight for its defense. "To your tents, O Israel." If the doctrine of equality is eliminated from Democratic policies, what will there be left that distinguishes the Democratic party from the Republican party, which for forty years has been the agency of Privilege? The country does not need two parties standing for Privilege.—News & Observer.

MRS. HARRILL TELLS OF GAINING 24 LBS.

Declares Tanlac Restored Her After 5 Years of Suffering From Stomach Trouble

"I was almost a nervous wreck, but Tanlac has built me up twenty-four pounds, and I never felt better in my life," declared Mrs. Z. A. Harrill, 309 W. Graham St., Shelby, N. C. "I suffered from stomach trouble five years, and was in a terribly nervous, run-down condition. Almost everything I ate refused to digest, but soured on my stomach and kept me in misery. My appetite left me entirely, and I simply dreaded to eat, because I would suffer so badly afterwards. I was so unstrung the least little thing would upset me, a good night's sleep was impossible, and nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Tanlac. "Six bottles of Tanlac made me a well and happy woman. My nervousness is gone, I sleep soundly, and fearful headaches that used to nearly drive me frantic have never bothered me since. My stomach trouble has been completely overcome, I have a splendid appetite, and I think Tanlac is simply grand." Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Over 25-million bottles sold.

REMAINS MR. JAMES T. MAYO INTERED IN FAMILY BURYING GROUND NEAR GREENVILLE

The remains of Mr. James T. Mayo 24 years old, who was found dead at the wheel of an automobile in a garage in Detroit several days ago, reached this city Friday and the interment took place yesterday afternoon in the family burying ground about seven miles from Greenville. Mr. Mayo was a native of this county and an account of his death was carried in this paper last week. The following clipping from a Detroit paper gives an accurate account of his death.

James T. Mayo, 24 years old, 6926 St. Paul avenue, was found dead at the wheel of an automobile, the motor of which was running in a garage in the rear of 1441 Helen avenue, Saturday at 5 p. m. The doors of the garage were closed. Death was due to carbon monoxide poisoning from the exhaust of the car.

The car belonged to Vernon Gardner, a roommate of Mayo, and it was he who found the body. Mayo went to the garage at 1:30 p. m. Neighbors heard him working on the car but paid no attention to his continued presence there. He was a machinist, employed by the Timken-Detroit Axle Co., and unmarried. His parents live in Greenville, N. C.

Edward Conely, deputy coroner, Saturday issued a warning to motorists not to close garage doors when starting automobiles. "This is the third case of carbon monoxide poisoning due to the exhaust from automobiles reported in the last two weeks," he said. "For the sake of warmth, motorists have kept the doors of their garages closed when working on their cars. It is a dangerous practice."

MISS PRITCHARD CONDUCTS SERVICE TEACHER'S COLLEGE

College Will Send at Least Three Delegates to Conference in Raleigh

The college girls were very fortunate in having Miss Virginia Pritchard, a student volunteer, to talk to them Sunday evening, March 4th. Miss Pritchard was graduated from Randolph-Macon College for Women in June 1922 and has been traveling in the interest of the Student Volunteer Movement since September.

The president, Ruth Barbee, had charge of the meeting and read from the Scripture the 28th chapter of St. Matthews. After the Scripture reading a vocal trio was rendered by Misses Hazel Kennedy, Mary Lou Grier, and Lucretia Tuttle.

Then Miss Pritchard talked awhile in the interest of the Student Volunteer Movement and Missions. She expressed the three-fold purpose or aim of a student volunteer as being to declare, to prepare, and to share. This was developed for the most part through concrete incidents of the struggles and work of recent missionaries. The outstanding characters of whom she talked were: Paul Harrison, a medical missionary in China; John Anderson, a missionary in Arabia; and Cyril Haas, a medical missionary in Turkey. Paul Harrison and Mrs. John Anderson are to be at the Student Volunteer meeting in Raleigh March 9, 10 and 11th.

ROANOKE RAPIDS DEFEATED LOCALS BY A CLOSE SCORE

THEY PRODUCE BETTER CROPS

The basket ball team of the High School returned yesterday from a two-day's trip to Raleigh and Roanoke Rapids, where they met the school squads of those two cities. They played one game in each place and lost both. Their first defeat Friday by the state could have piled up such a count as 67 to 11 against Greenville. The second contest which was at Roanoke Rapids, on Saturday night, was far more interesting from every viewpoint of those that witnessed it. The Greenville boys were in the lead practically throughout the game, until the last few minutes of play when personal fouls called on the locals netted Roanoke Rapids several shots from the foul line, out of which they garnered in about five points. This placing them in the lead by three points and winners of the game. The final score being 27 and 24.

Zeno Brown, Bob Forbes and Satterwhite were unable to make the trip with the home boys on account of sickness, and as a consequence the team was crippled considerably. Especially is this true of Brown, who had played a conspicuous part in practically every game in which Greenville has participated this season.

Claude Gaskins was the outstanding star for the locals in both contests and besides playing his usual consistent game, he several times startled the spectators with sensational shots from the field.

Although being defeated the Greenville boys enjoyed their trip and returned home in excellent spirits.

CAT AND CANARY MYSTERY PLAY TO BE PRESENTED HERE

Will be Shown in White's Theatre Tuesday Evening; Considered Best Show of Season

"The Cat and the Canary," the famous New York success that Kilbourn Gordon, Inc., presents at White's Theatre on tomorrow evening is a melodrama replete with mystery that begins almost immediately after the rise of the curtain and remains unsolved until the very last minute of the play. The story revolves about the strange events that follow the reading of the will of a rich and eccentric old man. It begins in the library of the old mansion on the Hudson, continues with increasing dramatic tenseness in the room in which he had died, twenty years before the action of the play, and reaches a happy though exciting climax in the library. The action all takes place between 11 p. m. and 1 a. m. but in that time a murder is done, a necklace worth a fortune is taken from the neck of a sleeping girl, while suspicion is deftly turned upon first one and then another of the characters with bewildering rapidity. Throughout all this mystery there is woven a delightful love story any many humorous situations to relieve the tenseness of the exciting plot.

Did You Know?

That the Volstead act has been adopted in substance by the General Assembly of North Carolina, and is now a State law on prohibition and that this law prohibits the possession of any amount of intoxicating liquors for any purpose at any place, except in the home or residence, it is presumed to be there for the purpose of sale, and the possession of any amount even in the residence or home makes out a Prima-facie case of possession for the purpose of sale but in such case where it is found in the home the defendant will be allowed the defense that it is possessed for beverage purpose only, but the burden will be on the defendant to prove this.

For distilling a second conviction is declared a felony, the punishment for which shall be imprisonment in the State prison not less than four months and not more than 5 years in the discretion of the courts. For other than the second offense and for selling or possessing the punishment is in the discretion of the court, not exceeding two years on the roads.

SIXTY SEVENTH SESSION OF CONGRESS COMES TO CLOSE

Senate heard "swan songs" by Senators Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey, and Sutherland, Republican, West Virginia, a tribute to Senator Williams, Democrat, Mississippi, by his colleague, Senator Harrison, of Mississippi, and tried vainly to pass a few more bills. A fifteen-minute filibuster by Senator Dial, Democrat South Carolina, enlivened the proceedings before the Vice-President's gavel fell in the mist of Senator Dial's speech against an omnibus pension bill proposed by Senator Bursom, Republican, New Mexico.

Previously Senators Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Robinson, of Arkansas, Republican and Democrats leaders, appointed to confer with President Harding, advised the Senate that the President had "no more communications to make." When Mr. Coolidge declared the Senate adjourned "without day," Senator Smith Democrat, South Carolina roared "good night" amid laughter.

The final hours in the House were more colorful. The Marine orchestra, playing into the "well," veid for favor with a hastily organized quartette of members whose rendition of old favorites soon drew into a mighty chorus the entire House and most of the spectators who overflowed the galleries on the floor. The quartette and orchestra soon established a working agreement, with Representative Winnifred Mason Huck, Illinois, joining the musicians as a violinist, playing a borrowed instrument.

LEGISLATURE MAY STAY IN SESSION UNTIL TUESDAY

quorum also without difficulty. Most members prefer a short session tonight and orderly adjournment sometime tomorrow rather than the hectic scenes that usually accompany the demise of an assembly.

Today and tonight the House will endeavor to clear the calendar, and the morning session in the Senate will likely clear it of all pending business, leaving it to await the completion of the House calendar for possible amendments to Senate bills, or belated passage of House bills.

Nothing now remaining on the House calendar is likely to precipitate any lengthy fight, but prediction to that end is always dubious. In the temper of the House, anything is likely to happen, and it might develop that a seemingly inconsequential measure may develop disagreement that could last for a whole day. The possibilities will not be exhausted until the gavel falls on the session.

BABY'S COLDS are soon "nipped in the bud" without "dosing" by use of VICK'S VAPORUB Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Tonight will be devoted to measure of gift-giving in the House. The speaker is likely to get something by way of remembrance from his colleagues. Committee chairmen who have been through the thickest of the work are also likely to have something by way of fine words to remember. The House will miss the Old Tiger tonight more than it has ever missed him.

The period of Psalm singing, descended upon the assembly some days ago. It is always an indication that adjournment is impending when the members gather in the great rotunda in the Capitol before session at night and sing. Tonight will be the most likely a night of singing.

LARGE CROWDS ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND THE GREAT SHOW

Monday afternoon, March 19th, is already a regular house word with all the children as well as the grown-ups in this section. For they are all interested in seeing and hearing this wonderful soprano. The prospects now are that every seat for her two performances will be sold before the doors open, for the first recital. Orders for tickets have been steadily coming in for three weeks, although the actual allotment of tickets does not begin until Monday March 5th. Miss Case is booked as the most beautiful and most popular soprano in America today. No doubt she will have her best and most enthusiastic audience at Wilson to greet her.

In fact it is hard to say which attraction is the best. One citizen of one of the towns said: "I told my wife I would send her over to Wilson on Monday, and I would come every night to go with her to the Exposition. I want to take it all in." This is pretty much the sentiment all over the district. Along with Anna Case, will be Lois Long Riker, Carolina's own product, who made good in the musical world and comes on Wednesday night to delight her hundreds of admirers of Eastern Carolina with a concert. Carolinians believe in using "Made in Carolina Products" and they are going to demonstrate this when they hear Mrs. Riker.

Yarborough's famous Hussar band and orchestra will furnish the music for the week. This aggregation of musicians have played practically all the important indoor shows for several years in the South and Mr. Yarborough has with him some soloists, both vocal and instrumental, that will be worth going many miles to hear. This famous band will give two recitals daily, one in afternoon and one at night.

The program committee has packed more real entertainment, enlightenment and culture in this one week than has ever been assembled for an occasion like this before, and it goes without saying that the public will show their appreciation of this effort by turning out in large numbers. Eastern Carolina has a wonderful opportunity to demonstrate what she can do. It is predicted what she can do. It is predicted from every source that she will make good.
