If Germany is superstitious over the number thirteen it will worry over its floating debt which now runs into thirteen figures.

The Democrats are not the only ones knocking the Sixty-Seventh Congress, even some of the progressive Republicans declare that it was practically a failure.

The man who said that optimism should always prevail must be one of Dr. Cone's converts. Optimism is wonderful, but it is human to worry sometimes.

What the country has a "New" master-General, it would like to know what an improvement he will be over his predecessor "Work." A "new" broom always sweeps clean but it requires "work" to keep a house in order.

Barking dogs never bite, but they are proving of an invaluable aid to moonshiners. The Richmond Times Dispatch suggests that the industry of breeding dogs is likely to undergo a great revival.

The new Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem will open sometime during the next month. It will not only be a blessing to the Baptists of the state, but to all suffering humanity. A hospital is Greenville's greatest need and in order for it to administer to the needs of its citizens it must have one.

The late Senator Watson was a man of his convictions and were he living he would, without doubt, still hold to his charges concerning the ill treatment of the American soldiers. Whether true or false he believes he was right and that was all that was necessary, but knowing a thing and proving it are two different things. He never convinced the public and now some suggests that perhaps his fatal illness had so clouded his mind that he wasn't responsible for his charges. Charity is always kind.

The local Rotary Club will be "one of the many" at the District Convention this week, but that it will be seen and heard goes without saying. The Greenville club is composed of men who are wide awake and they always carry with them the determination to make good in all their undertakings. It is indeed regrettable that we couldn't have a hundred per cent attendance, but it was impossible for a few to go. The luncheon which they will have charge of on Wednesday will be one of the outstanding features of the Convention. It is a credit to any town to be able to send such a splendid crowd of representatives as are attending the Petersburg Convention.

ONE MUST YIELD

When two countries or two people are at war with each other, it is a settled fact that one must, sooner or later, yield. In the present controversy between Germany and France, resulting from the French invasion of the Ruhr, it appears that Germany will have to yield. As a result of the seizure the whole industrial life of Germany is paralyzed, or will be if the French continue at the present rate of speed. France has proved financially, but it can stand the strain longer than Germany. The German people are realizing this fact more and more and they know that the world has lost confidence in their country because of broken promises. Germany will have to pay France or come to some terms. If she fails every indication points to a great humiliation.

CRITICISM OF CONGRESS

The work of the Sixty-Seventh Congress which adjourned yesterday is already drawing its part of criticism. In a recent statement from Senator F. M. Simmons, one of North Carolina's most gifted men, and one of its soundest thinkers, concedes that it was the weakest and most inefficient Congress in our history. In criticizing its record, he says: "It has been one of weakness, vacillation, inconsistency, camouflage and subterfuge, and were it not so tragic, the spectacle of the end of this Congress presents would be truly laughable." He further stated that it had not only failed in all its promises, pledges and predictions, but has left a record so barren of accomplishment, so replete in its short comings and pitiable failures, that it is entitled to be characterized the most inefficient Congress in our history. The few helpful things were done by the Democrats and a few progressive Republicans. Instead of growing better and better during the last year of its existence it grew worse and worse and almost became a joke, not only to Democrats, but even to the Republicans. Senator Simmons feels that the distrust engendered forecasts the approaching doom of the National Republican ascendancy.

DEADLY GAS PERIL AROUSES ENGLAND

(By International News.) London.—England is aroused over its "suicidal gas."

Every winter England has a flood of suicides by gas, but this year there are an unusual number. It is charged that the gas companies are furnishing gas which contains such a high degree of carbon monoxide that suicide is made easy, and there is a demand that something be done about it.

Not only is the high degree of carbon monoxide an aid to would-be suicides but it is a danger to those who want to live. There have been a number of deaths of late from gas poisoning. Recently thirty children were stricken with gas poisoning attending a dance.

MISS HILDA RANDOLPH WILL BE "MISS KINSTON" IN WILSON COMPETITION

Miss Hilda Randolph was chosen as "Miss Kinston," to go to the big Eastern Carolina Exposition on Mar. 22 to compete in the "Queen Contest" there. This decision of the committee, composed of Roger Sutton, John G. Cox, J. M. Leonard and Roy Leach, of the Kinston Merchants Association, was announced yesterday by President H. B. W. Canady.

The voting closed Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Many names were voted on and the voting was quite heavy. Miss Randolph will be in the competition for Eastern Carolina "Queen," outside of Wilson county, where a special selection for the county will be held.

Miss Randolph is one of Kinston's most popular young women and is widely known for her beauty, charm and personality.—Kinston News.

Miss Randolph is well-known in Greenville, having visited here.

SECRETARY WALLACE FORBIDS PACKING MERGER

Secretary Wallace & J. Ogden Armour

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has notified J. Ogden Armour, head of Armour & Company, that he will not permit the Armour interests to take over Morris & Company, declaring this proposed merger of the two great packing businesses would create a combination in restraint of trade.

About 15 per cent of an egg is protein.

During the winter hens need some substitute for the grass and clover and other green food which they get in the summer. Alfalfa leaves, either dry or seamed, are a splendid substitute. Clover leaves may be used in place of alfalfa. Both alfalfa and clover are cheap and easily grown on the farm. They should be used more than they are for poultry feed.

Green Feed Necessary.

Cabbages, beets, kale, turnips, or any root stocks, make good green feed for hens. If you have a surplus of these in the fall, store them and feed them to your hens in the winter.

About 75 per cent of an egg is water. One of the reasons hens do not lay in the winter is that they do not get enough water. Hens should be provided with all the water they can drink. Warm water is better than cold water in the winter time.

Keep a supply of grit, oyster shell and charcoal before the fowls in the winter time. Grit helps to grind the food, oyster shell furnishes the lime few eggs shells; charcoal aids digestion and helps keep the bowels in good condition.

SERVICE IN COURT HOUSE LAST NIGHT LARGELY ATTENDED

Mrs. McAdams Continues to Deliver Splendid Sermons in Revival Service.

The service last night was splendid but no conversions one for prayer. The Bible text and the angel answered and said unto her The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. This is a day and age so many false teachers and preachers are teaching that Jesus was just a man of course, a good man, but so far as being conceived by the Holy Ghost that is done away with. The smart fellow tells in that a new discovery has been made and Jesus is not deity. It reminds me of what the "Bible Students" said a few years ago they met up in New York and decided there wasn't any eternal hell and put the same broad cast over the world. But open your Bible and you will find hell just as long and hot as it ever was. The Bible students didn't change God's word. If a teacher or preacher had a dish pan full of brains, it wouldn't change the birth of Jesus. Heb. 13:8 Jesus Christ, the same yesterday and today and forever I have seen more "white washed" religion in Greenville than any place I was ever in for the length of time and the size of the place. We have good preachers and good people if we didn't Greenville would sink as quick as Sodom and Gomorrah, the trouble we have such a few of pure kind. So many church members that have never been born of the spirit, just members of the local body, but not members of Christ a large percent of our schools are teaching a soft doctrine, that you can raise folks into the kingdom of God. Jesus's precious blood with some is a thing of the past, but if you are ever saved it will be through his blood. I heard a minister of a certain town in North Carolina say he didn't believe Jesus knew any thing about Judas when he called him and that he didn't believe Jesus knew the future at all, John 6:64 says Jesus knew from the beginning who would betray him. Jesus has all power in heaven and in earth and has had all the time, he can save all that will come. One came for prayer.

BRITISH ATHLETES MAY DRINK IN MODERATION

London, March 6.—(By Associated Press.)—College athletes in England do not train so strictly for big events as those in the United States. At Oxford, where the crew is busy every day preparing for the Cambridge race, the oarsmen do not have to shun the delights of drink and tobacco. Cigarettes are discouraged, but not forbidden, and pipes are allowed to glow after meals.

Drinking is all right as long as it is moderate. Last year the students of Oxford paid $7,500 to keep the crews in training at Putney for the last three weeks before the race, and the balance sheet disclosed that the wine bill amounted to $450 and the beer bill to $175.

The coach believes in plenty of food but the boys in the boat have to forego cream puffs and pastry just as do American athletes.

Situated on the South side of Sixth Street and the East side of Venters street, and beginning at the corner of said street, and running an easterly course with said Sixth street 164 feet to a stake; thence a Southerly course and parallel with Venters street 44.86 feet to a stake; thence a westerly course and parallel with Sixth street 14 feet to Venters street; thence a northerly course with said Venters street 44.8 feet to the beginning.

WEDDING FOLLOWS GREENWICH VILLAGE ROMANCE

Mrs. Radu Belian. Photo by G. C.

The charms of Greenwich Village, New York's Bohemian quarter, and the lure of the motion picture are combined to bring about the romance that culminated in the marriage of Miss Anna Ray Chatman to Radu Belian, formerly of Bucharest, Rumania, but now of New York City. Belian came to America to seek his fortune as a motion picture actor. About the same time Miss Chatman left her home in Boston, Massachusetts, with the same general idea in view. Mrs. Belian is the granddaughter of the late Governor Oliver Ames and is socially prominent in Boston and New York. Belian served with distinction in the World War and was several times decorated for gallantry in action.

ATTENTION

Tobacco Farmers!

At a recent meeting of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, it was decided to exert their fullest efforts in the campaign that is being waged against the tobacco bug or beetle by the tobacco interests generally throughout Eastern Carolina.

This beetle has become such an alarming pest to the tobacco industry that it is comparable to the boll weevil menace to cotton, in the damage they do, and it is of mutual interest to the farmers, warehousemen and buyers to take immediate steps to combat the evil.

All factories and warehouses in Eastern Carolina are now conducting a thorough clean-up campaign of their buildings and the farmers are also hereby requested to take similar action in cleaning up their barns, pack-houses, etc. These insects breed from accumulations of trash tobacco, dust, etc., in the corners, crevices and cracks of any place where tobacco has been handled, but once they become active they will leave the common tobacco to feast on the very best grades available, as they seem to be good judges of quality.

As tobacco infested with bugs or borers, which is the worm stage of the insect, is greatly depreciated in value, it is therefore to the farmer's interest to protect himself by helping to eliminate these pests, since they are present in greater numbers this year than has ever been known before.

Three Leading Candidates Will Appear at White's Theatre Friday Night

The Queen's contest for the selection of Greenville's most beautiful young lady to represent this city in Wilson at the Eastern Carolina Exposition, will come to a close Thursday night of this week. The voting has created no little interest and there is much speculation as to who will be Miss Greenville.

After Thursday's voting the names of the three highest candidates will be turned over to a committee composed of one representative from each civic organization in the city and on Friday night these candidates will appear at White's theatre and at that time the committee will decide on the most suitable to attend the exposition in Wilson. The young lady who is chosen will have all her expenses to the exposition paid and a committee will look after her welfare and see that she has a pleasant time.

WORLD WIDE RADIO SOON TO FLASH TO ARGENTINA

Buenos Aires, March 6.—(By Associated Press.)—The big high power wireless station at Monte Grande, near Buenos Aires, the first South American station in the international commercial radio system, is almost completed, and it is announced that service will begin in June or July next. It will place Argentina in direct wireless communication with the United States for the first time as well as with Europe. Radio engineers say there are two strange, static "dead areas," one near the equator off Brazil, and one in the South Atlantic, which only a station equipped like that at Monte Grande can overcome.

The new station has been built entirely with American materials. All that remains unfinished are the control lines from Monte Grande into the city, a distance of twenty-four kilometers, which will be placed in underground conduits leading to the company's office in the business center.

IRISH MURDERER ESCAPES WITH EASE

Dublin, Mar. 6.—(By International News.)—Crime apparently sits lightly upon the conscience of many persons in Ireland. An exemplification of the demoralization of the people in certain districts is afforded by the story of a tragic murder.

A laborer in the Lettermore district of Connemara, drunk with "moonshine," went to the home of Barbara King, who had in her custody six young children, the oldest only ten years old. The woman and the children were sitting by the kitchen fire when the man entered. He looked up the children in a room off the kitchen. The youngsters shrieked with terror, and the woman rose from her seat to pacify them.

The man seized a heavy glass bowl from a nearby table and hurled it at the woman, killing her instantly. Mrs. King's daughter, entered the house a few minutes later. The man attacked her and threatened her with the same fate. She promised him liquor if he would not kill her, and he agreed. Later she induced him to go with her to a neighbor's house, where he was given drink and his dinner, the occupants all the time knowing of the brutal crime he had committed only a few hours before. His meal finished, the man departed without interference.

Three days later the police and the coroner heard casually of the crime. On their arrival they found the woman had been buried. Relatives of the slain woman said they had not reported her death because the feared reprisals on the part of the slayer. Arrangements were made for the examination of the body and the Free State police now have in custody the man who is believed to have committed the murder.

VIGILANT COMMITTEE OF BOYS ENFORCES LAW

Buffalo, March 6.—(By Associated Press.)—This city has a full-fledged vigilant committee with a membership of several hundred. The members do not wear masks nor do night-riding but form a very earnest organization that believes it has mission for better citizenship and law-observance.

The committee was formed by students of Lafayette high school after a number of boys of the institution had been arrested and convicted of stealing automobiles for joyrides. One case resulted in the slaying of a police officer who tried to arrest a trio of boys in a stolen car.

Repeated offenses by Lafayette boys, the student body and faculty decided, were giving the school a black eye, and plans were discussed at assembly to break up the wave of lawlessness. The outcome was the vigilant committee, an oath-bound organization for law enforcement and the protection of the school name.

Offenders are brought before the Vigilants for trial, but sentences imposed, if any, are carried out by the faculty.

CLAIMS TO HAVE ROUTED ENEMIES OF OLD AGE

London, March 6.—(By Associated Press.)—Professor Burton Scammell, of the Dover Radium Institute, has discovered that by the use of radio-phosphate of potash, a man can be rejuvenated in a remarkable manner, according to the Westminister Gazette's correspondent. It is claimed that as a result of the treatment a man can live to be 125; always feel as fresh as a daisy, and develop the square jaw which is an essential feature of the American movie hero.

A retired banker of Wokingham gave an interviewer a remarkable account of his mental and physical transformation as the result of taking advantage of Professor Scammell's discovery. This man, who is 77 years old and who took the treatment for three years, says his eyes are stronger than they were 16 years ago. He can read without glasses, his voice has become deeper and stronger, and he never experiences that "tired feeling" any more.

BRITISH ARMY WILL OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

London, March 6.—(By Associated Press.)—The king has approved that permanent instructions be issued to the army regarding the observance of Armistice Day. The following new paragraph will be added to the regulations: "Each year on the morning of Armistice Day, November 11, at 11 o'clock, all troops will stand at attention for a moment and

EASTERN ENTRY WILL WIN DERBY, THINKS BURLEW

New York, March.—An Eastern entry will win the Kentucky Derby again this year, in the opinion of Fred Burlew, one of the keenest judges of thoroughbred horse-flesh in the land. Burlew was the trainer of the meteoric Morvich, and making use of methods that were described as unorthodox, he brought the Black Colt to his ultimate condition for the one big moment of his racing career—the famous eDrby at Churchill Downs last May.

As a result Morvich just breezed through the mile and a quarter distance to an impressive victory and then being a sprinter at heart, was beaten off badly in subsequent starts by all manner of inferior horses. In brief the Derby was a personal triumph for Fred Burlew. He realized that Morvich had only one good race in him at a distance and hence declined to send the colt above a mile in training, in spite of unsolicited advice to the contrary.

So much for Burlew as a track-wise individual. His opinion in the present instance is not influenced by any particular partiality for the section of the country in which he now resides—merely by the fact that that section happens to be responsible for the colt he favors. The entry in question is Enchantment, of the Harry Payne Whitney stables.

"I believe Whetny has the next Kentucky Derby winner in Enchantment," Burlew declared recently. "I will be sadly mistaken if he does not win or, if by the time the race is held, he is not as topheavy a favorite as Morvich was. Of course, there are many others that must be regarded seriously. Sally's Alley is a wonderful filly and Messenger a great colt, but neither can be favored to win the Derby and Messenger went wrong at Saratoga last year. Wilderness and a half dozen other colts may be strong contenders.

"At any rate," he added, "I look for the winner to score as handsily as Morvich did. As a result of sickness and accident there was no outstanding two-year-old in 1922, and because of this competition will be keener in the three-year-old division this season. It will only be a case of action deferred to an older class."

Be that as it might, we will say this for Mr. Burlew and his predictions: Picking winners at this stage of the proceedings is a precarious occupation. According to some expert on affairs of the hoof, five hundred things can happen from the paddock gate to the wire to prevent a horse from winning a race. If this be true only Mr. Burrough and his kidding contraption can do justice to the total of disasters that might befall a race horse between now and May 30.

HONOLU MAY DECIDE WHEN CAMEL IS WILD

Honolulu, Mar.—(By International News.)—When is a camel wild? That is the question which recently agitated official circles here to the accompanying tune of $250. It will have to be paid as a tax to the Federal Government by the city and county of Honolulu if it is decided that the three "wild" animals which are the subject of the tax controversy were domesticated until they came to Honolulu to appear in a Shriners' parade and later, as gifts from the local temple, to grace the Zoo in Kapiolani Park. The same amount will have to be paid into the Federal Treasury through Harry E. Murray, Collector of Customs at this port, by Aloha Temple, of the Mystic Shrine if it is proved that the three "ships of the desert" and proposed new national pets, broken to labor and domesticated in their own country, were wild some time before leaving the scene of their domestication and coming to Honolulu.

The watchful Government distinguishes between wild and domestic animals when it comes to obtaining revenue from them. The wild ones get in free, but it costs the domesticated beasts 10 per cent of their valuation to leave their respective native habitats to be curiosities in the United States or its possessions.

Exciting Moments in a Famous Play

Some Scenes That Make "The Cat and the Canary" the Most Thrilling of Mystery Dramas

ANNABELLE WEST, the young heiress around whom the hair-raising episodes revolve.

LAUGHS and thrills are united successfully in "The Cat and the Canary," the famous mystery melodrama by John Willard. Its action has to do with a series of exciting midnight events that happen to a group of people in a spooky old manor house.

NO SMALL amount of the mystery is contributed by "Mummy" Pleasant, the old negro caretaker of the manor. Here she is making one of her voodoo visitations upon the juvenile hero, Paul Jones.

ONE of the exciting climaxes is at the close of the second act when the heroine hysterically tells the others how a claw-like hand reached through the wall near her bed and tore a priceless necklace from her throat as she dozed.

SHILD IDENTIFIES MAN AS SLAYER OF SISTER

Mrs. Lilly Gilmore & Dorothy Gilmore, and William R. Morgan.

William Morgan, alias Texas, of Philadelphia, has been positively identified by Dorothy Gilmore, aged four, as the man who took her and her sister, Lillian, aged six, on an auto ride from in front of their Philadelphia home, and after driving them into the country, attacked them both and threw Lillian on to a stretch of ice at a lonely spot. The kidnapper was caught after an all-night search and later identified also by Elsie Gilmore, aged thirteen, who saw her sisters ride away with the strange man. Morgan confessed, and led the police to the child's frozen body.

SOME ONE STOLE TUTANKHAMEN'S PURSE

Luxor, Egypt, March 6.—(By Associated Press.)—Of all the fine things found in the outer room of the disturbed resting place of King Tutankhamen, the finest, from the antiquarian standpoint, is the "Ushabti," a small image of the king himself. That, at least, is the opinion of Lord Carnarvon.

The "Ushabti," or "Answerer," showing the defunct monarch in the guise of Osiris, was customarily placed in royal tombs with an inscription stating that the image was prepared to do any work imposed upon it. Then the tomb was sealed so tightly nobody could get to the "Ushabti," and request it to do something.

RUSSIAN SHOP KEEPERS CLOSE THEIR DOORS

Moscow, March 6.—(By Associated Press.)—High rentals exacted by the government, and high taxes imposed upon business brought about the closing of scores of shops all over were smiles of contentment and felt that the era of free trade meant high profits and a return to the conditions of the days before the war, are now lugubriously wondering how to make ends meet.

In some localities of Moscow, particularly in the principal shopping streets, the rentals imposed for 1923 are three times the gold value of before the war. One dealer in agricultural implements closed his shop when he found that the space occupied by one plough during one month cost more in ground rental than the value of the plough.

Protests against this situation have been made by a number of private merchants, but the openly announced policy of the government which contemplates the favoring of government trusts in order to drive private competitors out of the market, appar-
