TIME IS GROWING SHORT FOR WINNING SPECIAL CASH PRIZE AND FRIENDS CAN ASSIST CAMPAIGNERS MOST RIGHT NOW

Campaign Has Become An Endurance Test and Many Who Lack Stamina and Energy Will Soon Drop Out of the Race

NO EXTRA VOTES AFTER SATURDAY

Only Schedule Votes Will Be Given on Business Secured Next Week, But Much Can Be Accomplished Before Then

Time is getting short now for the winning of that special cash prize of $50 in The Daily Reflector's great subscription campaign, and the ambitious candidates are making every minute of the few remaining hours count. This special money award will be made Wednesday night of this week.

A Test of Real Friendship.

Friends of the campaigners will redeem their promises of support during the time between now and then, because they naturally want their subscription to count most with their favorite. This is the test of real friendship, because the person who wastes the candidate's time in unnecessary calls reduces the chances of success just that much. All who really want to see a worker win the money and a valuable prize will not delay longer and cause such a waste of minutes that are extremely valuable at this stage of the race.

Pluck and Courage Will Win

The campaign has become an endurance test now and some of the weaker entrants who show lack of stamina and energy will be dropping out from now on. This is to be expected, because it takes the highest degree of pluck and courage to stand the strain and fight on to the bitter end. When those who fail to show the required energy and pluck fall by the wayside a large field is left for those who have mapped their course and stick through the battle and of these a worthy list will be left to divide among themselves the valuable prizes that will reward them for their efforts.

It is a Pretty Race.

Of these courageous ones there are a number that are running in such a close bunch that it is a delight to watch their climbing vote. An extra good report on any one night would place either of these in first place and no one could possibly make a reasonable estimate of who will be the successful one under the wire first. It's as pretty a race as anyone could care to see and the winners at the end will have the consolation of knowing they have proven their metal in a battle with worthy opponents.

Last Week of Extra Votes.

This is the last week in which extra votes will be given. Next week regular schedule will prevail. Until Saturday night 15,000 extra votes are given for each club of $15 in subscriptions and the ambitious campaigner will turn in every penny possible during the remaining days of this week. It is votes that win the prizes and subscriptions this week count twice what they will next. Help your favorite NOW.

SARAH BARNHARDT'S LIFE HANGS IN BALANCE SAYS HER ATTENDING PHYSICIAN

Pitt, March 26.—(By Associated Press.)—The condition of Sarah Barnhardt was described by Dr. Prevost as hopeless at 3:15 this afternoon and that she might die at any minute. She was then sleeping under an opiate and a priest had arrived to administer the Extreme Unction.

NATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO MEET IN NEW YORK

Annual Meeting to be Held From May 7-10 Expected to Accomplish Great Things

H. L. Smith, Secretary of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce, Greenville, N. C., one of the representative business organizations connected with the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, declared today that he expected the annual meeting of the National Chamber in New York, May 7 to 10 to bring out constructive suggestions for the solution of national business problems. With from four to five thousand representative business men from all parts of the country in attendance every aspect of these problems will be considered, he said, adding:

"American business is out of the rut of depression that held it a year ago. It's up to us now to keep out, and the business brains of America can do it.

"What is needed is a pooling of our genius for business to formulate a progressive program. We should translate business experience into safe and sane plans. The New York meeting will bring together men who have had experience in every thing that makes up American business and focus their attention on the overshadowing business problems of today, transportation and Europe's economic condition.

"The transportation problem at home is purely a business problem. The carriers of whatever kind, rail, truck, or waterway, are the product of business. They were created to serve business. Where they impede instead, the system is wrong and the nation denied that degree of growth and advancement to which it is entitled.

"It certainly is possible for business men to discover where and how the transportation shoe now pinches. That is the first necessity if the shoe is to be made to fit. Sound legislative measures to improve the transportation situation can raise only from complete understanding of business experience with transportation. Business itself must find the way to the creation of adequate facilities for interchange of goods at reasonable rates.

That is the road to be followed at the New York meeting.

"No one can deny that the European tangle affects American business. How and where an adverse influence on American prosperity is felt should become quite plain to every intelligent man when the testimony of American business on the point is recorded at the New York meeting. That is where the formulation of American views on the subject should start, with a full understanding of the effect of Europe's unrest and economic disturbance on matters here at home. It will be the business of the New York gathering to bring out the facts, then to consider any proposals for American activities that may be made."

Three of every 10 persons living between Fifth and Twenty-Eighth streets in New York City are drug addicts, according to a prominent physician formerly attached to the state narcotics division.

COMMUNITY SING IN FARMVILLE WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

First Sing for 1923 Given in High School Auditorium Proved Great Success

The Pitt County Community Sing held in Farmville yesterday afternoon was splendid. The Red Cross Chapter feels that they were most fortunate in securing gratis so fine a sing leader as Mr. J. Oliver Bryson, a leading representative of Community Service, Inc., from Washington, D. C., and it is hoped by all present that Mr. Bryson will return to Pitt county and lead another sing before the summer is over.

From the minute you entered the High School building every one felt at home. The Farmville reception committee could not have been surpassed. They welcomed every one in a most hearty manner, and Mr. Walter G. Sheppard's Boy Scouts distributed the song sheets to every one. Mr. Bryson stated that he had never had a better accompanist than Mrs. J. M. Hobgood, who played for all of the hymns.

The sing leader was introduced by Prof. G. W. Wheeler of Farmville, who gave the history of community singing in Pitt county, stating that it had begun two years ago when Prof. C. W. Wilson of East Carolina Teachers College had the first county sing. The value of such meetings was realized to such an extent that Miss Louisa Hubbard, executive secretary of the Red Cross Chapter, was asked by a number of people if she would not get up the sings more often in Pitt county. Miss Hubbard asked that the matter be taken up with the Red Cross executive committee, and they decided to continue the sings. Last summer they were held from time to time under auspices of different organizations in Greenville and once in Ayden. This year the committee decided to hold the regular Pitt County Sings in different parts of the county which make a special request to have the Sing held in the community. This will not only keep up a greater interest in the sings, but will bring a feeling of county wide unity which nothing else can. Mr. Wheeler then introduced Mr. Bryson and Mrs. Hobgood which brought strong applause.

Mr. Bryson has led sings all over the county and gave a short talk on the value of group singing, giving the psychological effect all choir leaders had over the masses they led every Sunday in their respective churches all over the world. America was the first hymn sung, after which all remained standing while Rev. C. C. Ware of the Atlantic Christian College gave the invocation.

The Greenville Orchestra, directed by Miss Eleanor Bass, Mrs. Blount, pianist, gave two special numbers which were greatly enjoyed and appreciated. Miss Kate Dotson's vocal students gave a number of Tosti. The harmony and shading was beautiful, and the chorus showed splendid training. The Red Oak Church under the leadership of Miss Topping, sang a pretty old-fashioned hymn. By special request, Mr. Brinson gave a solo, "Home," which was beautiful. As an encore he gave "Mother March." The last special number which was received with usual hearty hand clapping, was the Ayden Quartette composed of Rev. R. F. Pittman, Roy Turnage, G. W. Prescott and L. E. Turnage. Mrs. R. F. Pittman was accompanist. The first number was "Come Where the Lilies Bloom." They were not allowed to leave, and gave their county-wide famous song, "Jerusalem Morning." The applause was so great that Rev. R. F. Pittman was persuaded to give "The Holy City" as a solo. Beautiful old hymns were led between the special numbers by Mr. Brinson. He had the gallery and the floor sing different parts in several hymns and the effect was beautiful.

Mr. J. H. Rose, chairman of the Pitt County Community Sings, announced that the next Sing would be held on the second Sunday afterwards in May, and that Dr. R. H. Wright had given an invitation to hold same in the new auditorium of

MISSION PAGEANT GIVEN AT COLLEGE SUNDAY EVENING

Mission Study Classes Present Pageant Entitled "The Torch Bearers"

On Sunday evening March 25th a Mission Pageant was given by the mission study classes of Misses Sharpe and Hallie Seoville. The name of it was "The Torch Bearers." The countries of Africa, India, China, Korea, Burma, Palestine, Syria, Siberia, Persia, Arabia and Turkey were represented. The girls representing each country were dressed as nearly as possible like its inhabitants.

The leading part was taken by Leah Cooke, who introduced the people of other nations and told of their conditions. After the introduction by Leah Cooke, ten girls representing angels slowly marched down the aisle and took their places at the back of the stage.

During this time an invisible choir was singing, "Hark! Hark! My Soul." Following the angels the women and children of other nations marched in and took their places in front of the angels. The girls representing India sang, "He Leadeth All," and those of China sang, "Jesus Saves Even Me." Miss Cooke introduced to the audience the representatives of each country. Then the women and children of other nations marched off the stage while the invisible choir sang, "The Morning Light is Breaking."

A recitation was then given by Clara Dowdy. Immediately after this, the choir began singing, "O Zion Haste" while girls dressed in black and representing Pilgrims of the night advanced one by one. Girls representing Heralds of the Dawn carried lighted candles in one hand and a Bible in the other marched down the aisle. These girls met in the center of the stage. Each Herald of Dawn gave her Bible to a Pilgrim of Night and they marched off the stage together. There were many Pilgrims of Night left graping in the darkness while Rachel Lee sang, "Nobody Told me of Jesus." After they had left the stage the audience stood and was dismissed with prayer.

POLICE SEEKING FOR BLACK MAILER IN KEENAN CASE

Spreading Dragnet Over Broadway for Blackmail Murders in Sensational Case

New York, March 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Claiming to know the identity of the man who sought to engineer the blackmail plot against John Kearsley Mitchell, son in law of E. T. Stotesbury, of Philadelphia, and the mysterious Mr. Marshall of the Dorothy Keenan murder mystery, the police, through the by-ways of the underworld, sought for others believed to have been implicated in the scheme. They said that the action against the yet unnamed blackmail principal was being held in abeyance pending efforts to obtain evidence to support their theory that the blackmailer, bailed in his plan, dosed the model with chloroform that he might get Mitchell's letters to her.

New York, March 25.—(By Associated Press.)—Police spread their net over Broadway tonight in their search for the person or persons who are believed to have attempted to blackmail John Kearsley Mitchell, the mysterious "Mr. Marshall" in the Dorothy Keenan case, and who are thought to have murdered the model because she refused to participate in the plot.

Although District Attorney Pecora has said that he has "a very definite idea" as to who the blackmailer is, and has declared that he is convinced that Dorothy was murdered as the result of the alleged plot, no arrests were made today. It was indicated that while they may have their suspect under surveillance, the authorities are searching for others who may also have been implicated in the plot to obtain a large sum of money from wealthy Philadelphia clubman whose wife is the youngest daughter of Edward T. Stotesbury, a partner in the firm of J. P. Morgan and Company.

Mr. Pecora today reiterated his belief that Mr. Mitchell had no part in the crime other than the intended victim of the blackmailers. He said the story told both by Mitchell and Mr. Jackson, who was the "Mr. Wilson" described as a bodyguard for the former and who is a New York attorney was most straightforward and frankly told.

Palm Beach, Fla., March 25.—E. T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia, father-in-law of J. Kearsley Mitchell, identified as the mysterious "Mr. Marshall" in the Dorothy Keenan murder case at New York, today told the Associated Press his confidence in Mr. Mitchell was unshaken as the result of yesterday's developments.

"We are pained and mortified of course," Mr. Stotesbury said, "but we still believe in Mr. Mitchell, who has always been all that was right and we are not inclined to believe newspaper reports of his digression now."

Mrs. Mitchell declares as do the members of her family her unbounded faith in her husband.

Reiterating her lack of knowledge of any relationship between her husband and Miss Keenan, Mrs. Mitchell asserted her faith in her husband. "Why we are the best of chums, my husband and I, and I know he could not have been unfaithful to me," she said. "What if he did dine with a woman or two, in the company of friends, is there anything in that?" she queried. "As for Mr. Mitchell giving any woman money or presents without my knowledge I simply do not believe it," she exclaimed. "I do not mind these reports except for our two children, because I know that all of our friends will understand," she said, and a choking sob stopped further talking.

The Mitchells have two children, Francis 12, and Jack 10. Mrs. Mitchell has been in constant communication with her husband, but had not heard from him since Friday, which distressed her she said. All the friends of the Stotesbury family here where they are very popular are as one in expressing the opinion that some mistake has been made and that Mr. Mitchell's connection with the New York affair can be only most casual sort.

Greenville and Kinston apparently have all the baseball spirit in this section, but there is yet time for other towns to speak up. The door is wide open.

Those persons who are in control of the sugar market seem to think this is a sweet time to sweeten their own bank accounts.

Republicans may think it is easier to let President Harding meet defeat than it will be to select some other victim.

It appears to be the general sentiment that Greenville won out in the queen contest because she sent a real queen to represent her.

Day by day, in very way, North Carolina is getting greater and greater. You can almost see the State progress in good roads and education—the twins that make most for greatness.

Any resident of this God blessed section who fails to appreciate its wonderful climate should be sentenced to spend a few years in most any other part of this mundane sphere.

A little work around Cherry Hill cemetery would make that a spot of beauty and joy forever. It would be money well spent.

Man may or may not want but lit-

that most of us keep right on wanting it.

baseball. And for once the old man's thoughts are right along the same line with youth.

CITY DWELLERS NOW HAVE
OUR SYMPATHY

In the cold winter weather we may some of us look with envy upon the lot of the dweller in the big cities,
with their advantages of better heating systems and warmer transportation service. But with the arrival of the beautiful spring sunshine and the song of the birds, we who reside in the smaller cities, towns and country places have all the advantages and can afford to sympathize with the poor city dwellers with their hot pavements, absence of trees and the beauties of nature, not to mention the song birds and easy access to the old swimmin' hole which are ours.

Only the very wealthy among the city residents can afford the delights of the long vistas of roads, the spacious airy houses, the delightful stretches of green grass and trees which are our natural heritage by the simple process of having chosen wisely in selecting a place of residence. These things count heavily in the pleasures of life, more especially in the develop-

GIRL'S 118-DEGREE FEVER A HOAX

Evelyn Lyons &
Dr. Harry J. DeKnef

The medical world was startled by the statement of Dr. Harry J. DeKnef, of Escanaba, Michigan, that the fever of Miss Evelyn Lyons, a former nurse, had actually blown out the top of his clinical thermometer, and that a specially built one showed that she had 118-degrees of fever. Specialists rushed there from Chicago, ascertained that the girl was febrile and that she was placing the thermometer against a hidden water-bottle to show the phenomenal temperature. She said she started the trick for fun and then didn't know how to get out of it.

ALBANIA SHUNS TURKEY;
TURNS TOWARD WEST

Tirana, Albania, Mar. 24.—(By Associated Press.)—Little Albania, with her narrow strip of mountainous territory and her scant one million people, rebels against paying any of the debt of Turkey for the reason that the former Ottoman Empire, after collecting its tribute here, never so much as built a bridge, constructed a road, or erected a school, according to members of the newly constituted Albanian parliament, which has been meeting in laborious sittings
since the New Year.

The sum assigned to Albania for payment was 750,000 gold francs, or about $150,000, but this sum, the deputies say would make a very serious
drain on the public finances.
Albania is still the wild undeveloped country she has always been—without a mile of railroad, almost impassable roads and but one or two schools at most. The government, constituted on the order of a republic, is bending every effort to collect sufficient revenue to meet the annual expenditures, figured at 18,000,000

gold francs, or about $3,600,000, which represents but a fraction of Twenty-five years of indignation was ended for her when she took Tanlac, declares Mrs. M. F. Streeter, well-known resident of Newark, in remarkable statement to the public.

"Tanlac has made me feel like a new person and I wouldn't be without it," declared Mrs. M. F. Streeter, 273 S. 9th St., Newark, N. J. "Off and on for twenty-five years I suffered terribly from stomach trouble. My food disagreed with me and often I could hardly retain a thing. Gas bloated me till my heart palpitated so badly I feared I had heart disease. My nerves were on edge, I couldn't sleep, suffered awful headaches and was simply all worn out. But five bottles of Tanlac put me in the finest health. I eat hearty without trouble afterwards, sleep soundly and have no more nervousness or headaches. My gratitude to Tanlac is unbounded."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Over 35-million bottles sold.

DEATH LIKENED TO THAT OF VIRGINIA RAPPE

Mrs. Frances Love Beckwith

Another death mystery, with principals drawn from New York's Gay White Way, is confronting police officials. Examination of the body of Mrs. Frances Love Beckwith, former chorus girl, member of a prominent Philadelphia family, who died in a New York hospital, revealed that her death had been caused by acute peritonitis, under circumstances similar to those which caused the death of Virginia Rappe, for which "Fatty" Arbuckle was arrested but acquitted. She admitted before her death that she had just attended a wild drinking party in the "Roaring Forties."

Card of Thanks.
Mrs. M. G. Moye and family desire to express their sincere and grateful appreciation of the many expressions of sympathy and kindness extended to them during the recent illness and death of the husband and father.
