WITH TONIGHT THE LAST EXTRA-VOTE PERIOD IN THE REFLECTOR'S GIGANTIC SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN WILL CLOSE

During the Next and Final Week, Only Original Schedule of Votes Will Apply and a Subscription Counts for Much Less

Retirement of Some of the Early Entrants Relieve Readers of Any Promise of Support That May Have Been Made to Them

After tonight the original schedule of votes will apply in 'The Daily Reflector's' big subscription campaign, and, realizing that money collected today counts double what it will during the next and final week of the drive, the ambitious campaigners are working like bees during the last hours of this Club Offer.

A number of ladies and gentlemen who entered the campaign at the beginning found the pace too swift or the work too hard and have fallen out. Probably some of these secured promises which have prevented prospective subscribers from giving business to one of the really zealous workers, and if this be the case now is the time to help some other campaigner.

The real workers have proven worthy of any help that can be given them. Everybody loves to see a person who tries to make good and the leading campaigners have certainly been making every effort to win. Their friends should rally to their support and show their appreciation of the hard work they have done.

COUNTRY CLUB IS TO BE LOCATED ON AMUZU PARK LAND

That Property and Hart of Gorman Land Purchased by Committee for Country Club

IDEAL LOCATION FOR THE PURPOSE IS NEAR CITY BETWEEN ROADS

Prettiest Golf Course in This Section is Provided on Rolling Land of Gorman Tract

A deal was consummated late yesterday afternoon by which the purchasing committee of the newly formed Country Club acquired the Amuzu Park property and a part of the Gorman tract adjoining, giving the organization about 106 acres of land, including the beautiful lake on the property and a rolling piece of ground on the Gorman tract.

This property is located just outside the city to the north and provides an ideal site for the club. It is between the highways leading from Greenville to Ayden and from this city to Farmville, with a private road through the park land connecting the two. When the proposed hard-surface roads in Pitt are completed the Country Club will be within approximately twenty minutes of any point in the county.

The rolling ground and natural lay of the land will provide the new club with one of the prettiest golf courses to be found anywhere in this section and the lake will furnish bathing and boating facilities that will add greatly to the pleasure of the members during the summer time. There is a dancing pavilion and bath houses already on the park property and other improvements will be added as soon as it is practicable. There is also an old mill building on the property, which was formerly known as the Forbes place.

The Country Club is rapidly getting its plans made and already there are 130 or more members signed up of the 150, which is the full limit of membership to begin. The promoters are elated with the success that has met the proposal and are going ahead with plans to make the club a thoroughly worthwhile institution to the people of Greenville and vicinity.

EIGHTY GALLONS OF BOOZE AND AUTO IN HANDS OF THE COPS

Large Quantity of Liquor Found Hidden Behind False Partition in Negro's Garage

OWNER DESERTS HIS AUTO, TAKES TO THE WOODS AND ESCAPES

Neighbors Tell Officers Jernigan Was Wholesale Booze Dealer, But Sold Cocaine

With the capture of eighty gallons of corn liquor, ingeniously concealed behind a false partition that formed a secret room across the rear of a garage, the city police yesterday afternoon completed one of the very largest hauls of illicit booze in the history of Pitt county in these Volstead days. The owner of the hooch escaped after jumping from his automobile, but the authorities have the car and the liquor.

For some time the police have had George Jernigan, alias George Jennis, under suspicion of dealing in corn juice, and had been trying to catch him when he brought in his stock, which is thought he secured in the direction of New Bern. Yesterday afternoon Chief Lester Jones and Officer Brewer went out to Jernigan's home on 13th and Pitt streets on a searching expedition. The negro saw the officers coming and drove off in his Buick automobile, which he recently purchased new.

The officers began their search, making a thorough examination of the garage. Discovering a false partition which extended all the way across the back of the room they found a secret room about four feet in depth and here the eighty gallons of corn likker was discovered and taken in charge. The room was so cleverly constructed that it required the most thorough search by the officers to discover it and the entrance, which was located near the door.

The officers then started out to capture Jernigan, who had gone across the river. Apparently losing his nerve, the negro deserted his car near House Station and took to the woods. He has not been heard from since, but the police have the car and expect that the negro will return soon. The police were informed by neighbors of Jernigan that he was not only a wholesaler in hooch, but also sold cocaine, which he brought to Greenville on occasional trips to Norfolk, where his wife is said to reside.

Another raid that netted the police three gallons of liquor was made a few days ago, when premises occupied by Vance Walston, in New Town, were searched. Vance was not present to receive the officers and has not been located as yet. The hooch was seized.

A fully awakened community spirit is the best asset any city or town can possess.

We'll lay a small wager that the promised front tomorrow morning will not keep off the Easter merriness.

If the worst comes to the worst, Greenville and Kinston might form an Eastern Carolina league all by themselves.

Boasting builds bigger, better burges. Say that twenty times every morning and evening and see how much good will do.

There's no use having goods unless the people know it, and there's no better way to tell them than newspaper advertising.

That girl who killed herself after mortally wounding her lover is one murderer even the New York police will be able to locate.

Since there appears to be no other way in which to dispose of the shipping board vessels, we propose that they be sunk without trace.

Recent shooting affairs appear to give a more definite meaning to Kipling's "The female of the species is more deadly than the male."

Even if there was no danger of an accident at Five Points, the increased speed to traffic would be worth the services of a traffic cop on this busy corner on Saturdays.

Aside from keeping the money at home, where you have some hope of getting it back some day, there is great satisfaction in knowing you are helping your neighbor by buying at home.

Uncle Sam's navy department wants other nations to definitely state their naval programs. Apparently somebody in Washington took that naval reduction conference seriously.

It would seem that the nations of the world would learn some day that there is no use to talk to the Turks. It takes something more powerful than conversation to get results there.

One desirable thing about Greenville securing the Eastern Carolina exposition next spring is that all the other towns in the section will know how to stage a real big show thereafter.

But, then, if the price of sugar causes a decrease in consumption, the sugar barons will only have to raise the price again and collect as much profit out of the quantity necessary as they would out of a larger amount of sales. We poor human beings are in their power.

EASTER-RESURRECTION MORN

In the commemoration of that sunshine morning of the far distant past when the gladsome tidings went out to his followers that Christ had arisen from the dead on the third day after his crucifixion—even as was told by the prophets before his birth—the world, and more especially the church, now proclaims anew that fact which means so much to mortals here on earth—Christ is indeed risen from the dead.

All nature joins in the glad refrain. The birds sing their sweetest, the grass and the leaves add their green beauty to the scene, and the flowers in their natural purity and loveliness, lend significance to the story of new life immortal that is promised the human race through the blood and resurrection of the Christ.

Who be there among us who can look upon nature as it arises anew each spring from the desolation and death of winter and hold a doubt of that greater resurrection, which is promised men and women of all ages through life, the death and triumph and resurrection of our Lord. Every bird that sings, each flower that spends its sweet fragrance upon the air and every bud that blossoms forth on the trees, proclaims with beautiful significance that Christ has risen.

Easter a message of hope does bring The birds their sweetest songs then sing,

Flowers of every shade and hue Are all lined up in grand review

Then church bells the glad tidings ring

The children then hosannahs sing Thank offerings there you will find, Gratefully tendered by mankind.

The meadows attract the loving kind They revel in the warm sunshine Wading out in the placid water Contentment reigns in every quarter.

In eagerness chicks burst their shell, Spring into life their joy to tell, The colts, the calves, the lambs, the goats, All sing their praise in different notes.

COAST LINE RAILROAD TO SPEND AN IMMENSE SUM FOR IMPROVEMENTS

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company inaugurated last fall a program for expenditures of approximately $26,000,000 to overcome re-trenchments made during the period of the war, and to care for the increased business induced by the growth of the territory which it serves.

The principal items involved in this expenditure are: Station facilities, shops and shop equipment, 30,000 tons of 100 pound rail, grade reductions, double tracking between Richmond, Va., and Jacksonville, Fla., including automatic signals and interlocking plants, additional yards, yard tracks and passing tracks, new equipment, which includes 95 locomotives, 101 steel passenger train cars, 5331 freight train cars. All of this equipment should be in service by November 1st, 1923.

When the double tracking is completed the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company will have the only double track line between the east and Florida, safeguarded by automatic signals and interlocking plants, so as to insure the greatest possible safety to the traveling public.

New office space will shortly be added to the Greenville station, providing additional room for carrying on the business of the company here.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL MAKING BIG PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR'S WORK

The Presbyterian Sunday School has reached the close of a most successful year with a present enrollment of 160, which represents a substantial growth over previous year. This splendid gain is largely due to the splendid cooperation and enthusiastic spirit which has been put into the work by the officers, teachers and members. God has wonderfully blessed their efforts, and as the New Year dawns plans are being made to push the good work along.

This school boasts of the splendid records that have been made by some of the members, they have recently given out pins for 10 year, 11 year, 12 and 14 years perfect attendance, having many that are holding perfect records from 3 months to 5 years. This idea is especially featured, and the school and the holders of these records have every reason to be justly proud of same.

As the new year dawns tomorrow, plans are being made to do a great work in the coming year.

In order to stimulate the work by prompt and punctual attendance, increasing enrollment, adding new interest, and in other ways, further the activities of the school, they are starting the great Airship Flying Contest in which all of the classes will be participants. The plan is based upon a map of the world, each class will be represented by an airship bearing the name of some outstanding Christian leader. All of these ships will start at New York City for a trip around the world stopping stopping at 13 principal cities of the world which are identified by reproduction of pleasing land marks which are distributed on the map. The ships will return to their starting point, the first to arrive being the victor. There will be five a minute talk from different classes of some of the outstanding features in the lives of men, by which their planes are known. These talks should be very interesting and helpful.

Special song will be used frequently during the contest.

This is an exceedingly interesting contest and should keep an active interest in the school. If you are not attending Sunday School you had better go down Sunday morning and join the Presbyterians in their trip around the world. Don't forget that these ships leave promptly at 9:45 o'clock, plenty of room for every one.

It's a glorious cruise, you'll find; Come, and don't be left behind. All aboard, and we will go To London, Athens, Tokyo, And many another famous place, On the way to win the race. Win or not, you're sure to gain Many a prize for heart and brain.

ROTARY-ANNS WILL ENTERTAIN ROTARY MEMBERS ON MONDAY

The Rotary-Anns have invited members of the Rotary Club to a reception at the Rotary building on next Monday evening. This is a semi-annual affair, and they always prove interesting and enjoyable occasions.

Mr. Wyatt Brown came in yesterday from Trinity College, Durham, to spend Easter with his parents.

FEW FLASHES FROM THE KIWANIS CONVENTION OFFICE ABOUT GREAT MEET IN WAY

The "On-to-Atlanta" committees are beginning to function in great shape, from the news reaching the convention office in Atlanta. Some of them are getting out folders, with pictures and everything, announcing special trains and reminding the fellows to grab a lower berth while the grabbing is good.

Atlanta will be ready and waiting for you Henry C. Heinz, chairman of the General committee, is holding meetings of his charmen every day or two, and they're not merely talking—they're doing. Some definite progress is being made every week, and they won't overlook a detail which will help make your stay pleasant.

Jules Brazil, of the Toronto Kiwanis Club, the liveliest little song leader and pep-producer who ever wore a kilt is coming of course. You fellows who haven't met him have heard about him. Better come down and get acquainted with Jules. It's worth the trip.

Do you radio-bugs know Fiddlin' John Carson? Maybe you've heard him render "Billy in the Low Grounds" or "Chicken in the Bread Tray" over W. S. B. or W. G. M., the Atlanta broadcasting stations. Well, Fiddlin' John will be among us, with a dozen more of his mountaineer fiddlers, right from the moonshine district.

We're making arrangements to give you some more Kiwanis chat and music over radio too. Keep your eye on the radio pages in your favorite paper, and watch for announcements in this bulletin.

Some weeks ago we announced that Atlanta visitors would hit just the right season for "chicken and fixins," and one of the Eastern club bulletins came right back and asked, "What-ter-you-mean by 'fixins'?"

Why the stuffing, of course! What did you think we meant?

Did you ever hear a real bunch of darkey jubilee singers bear down on the close harmony and the tonorial minors in a good old-fashioned "hymn chune," like, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot Comin' for to Carry Me Home?" Well, you're going to on "Plantation Night" in Atlanta. And you will wonder why Atlanta bothers to import Metropolitan Grand Opera every spring, with voices like that in her midst.

Atlanta is the center of Automobile distribution for the Southeast, and has some ten blocks devoted to nothing else but automobile display and selling. She has more privately owned cars than any other city in the South, and the Kiwanians average one car to a member. Not that you're interested in statistics—but we want to remind you that you'll need walking shoes only for golf. If you don't see a Kiwanis car handy, just whistle!

LAST SUNDAY AT TENT; MEETING CLOSES FRIDAY

Sunday afternoon 8:30 subject "Greenville Before the Judgment." The service last night at the tent was one of the best this week, a large crowd was present the rain didn't stop them. Every person brought a string and these strings were different colors and represented different sins, some were large and some were small. A chair with arms was placed on the platform and a boy placed in the chair. The scripture about Samson was read and illustrated. The boy was first bound with small strings and he could break them, so could Samson but after while the devil got such a hold on him he could not break the part of illustrating. She bound the boy fast to the chair and asked the congregation if the boy could be baptized bound and all had to say yes, but that didn't free him. Then she put money in his hand and let him put that in the collection plate, but he was still bound. Then she brought forth a large knife, with a red handle representing the blood of Jesus and asked the boy if he had faith to believe the knife would cut him loose and he said yes, and as you saw the strings flying as she cut them it was a great lesson. A call was made and a number came for prayer and some were converted. Subject tonight will be "Ten Women."

Sunday afternoon, "Greenville before the Judgment," Sunday night a special to young ladies, but all are invited.

Sunday morning at sun rise there will be an Easter service at the tent—come!

MRS. CHLOEY ANN MILLS DIES AT COUNTRY HOME

Mrs. Chloey Ann Mills, aged 69 widow of the late W. P. Mills, died last Saturday morning at 6 o'clock at her home near Cox's Mill. Her death was due to heart dropsy and came as a great shock to the community in which she lived, although it was not unexpected, as she had been in bad health for the past year. She made her home with her youngest daughter for the past four years. She leaves eight children, three daughters and five sons. They are: Mrs. H. B. Hardee, of Martin county; Mrs. J. H. Hardee Deane Ross, of the Cox Mill section; Messrs. M. W. Mills, S. F. Mills, E. B. Mills, C. A. Mills and M. M. Mills, all of this county. She is also survived by one sister and three brothers. Mrs. Mary L. Tucker of Simpson and Messrs. L. S. Edwards and J. R. Edwards, of Simpson, and Mr. H. C. Edwards, of Greenville, and a score of friends to mourn her passing.

FULL SET OF KIPLING ADDED TO THE LIBRARY

Lovers of Kipling will be glad to learn that a complete edition of his books has been added to the Library. The library commission has also added "Memories of the Court of Europe" and "The World's Great Events in History." Students of history and the public at large will find these most readable. High School students will be particularly glad that they now have access to the latter books. Fiction readers will soon find a large number of the year's best novels on the library shelves.

Greenville surely has in her young generation a splendid number of book lovers. The librarian says that often as many as seventy-five young people come in one afternoon for books, and worth while ones at that. Through the price of golf be prohibitive to many of us, there is surely compensation in the thought that there is always the treasure house of facts and fancy found in books, accessible to all of us. We should provide even more liberally for the eager young folks who visit our Public Library weekly.

SPECIAL SERVICE AT THE JARVIS MEMORIAL SUNDAY SCHOOL FOR THE EASTER

The Jarvis Memorial Methodist Sunday school had a large attendance last Sunday. There were 508 present when the count was made at the beginning of the lesson period. There were a number of classes with an attendance of 100 per cent. The spirit of the school was better than was ever seen before. The school is proud of the fact that it is maintaining its high standard of attendance and work in spite of the fact that it has been meeting in the high school building for a number of months instead of its regular home. The new home will be ready soon however and then every member is looking forward to having attendance of around 700 at every service. It is now planned to get into the new building by May 1. On the first Sunday that the school meets in the new building, a big program is planned.

For tomorrow, Easter Sunday, there is a special program prepared. This special program is made up principally of music. There will be a mixed quartette that will sing the Easter number, "Awake." Then there will be an orchestra number. Next a solo, and then a chorus. All this in addition to the regular musical program.

The school will meet at 9:45 at the High School building. The time is from 9:45 till 10:45.

METHODISTS WILL BEGIN EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN ON NEXT FRIDAY EVENING

Rev. V. P. Scoville, the pastor of Jarvis Memorial Church, announces a series of evangelistic services beginning next Friday night, April 6. These services will be held twice daily, probably at ten in the morning and at 7:30 in the evening, and will continue for about eighteen or twenty days. The McAdams tent has been secured for the occasion and every advance preparation will be made to insure a successful outcome.

The preaching will be done by Rev. Charlie Dunaway, the well-known Georgia evangelist, who has been in the evangelistic work for more than twenty years. He is a personal friend of Mr. Scoville and has been eminently successful as one of the general evangelists of the Southern Methodist Church. Mr. Dunaway will be assisted by Mr. Thos. F. and Miss Ethel Eden. Miss Eden will preside at the piano and Mr. Eden will direct in the singing. Mr. Eden and his sister will render many beautiful solos and duets during the meeting and will prove a great attraction.

Mr. Dunaway is a strong Gospel preacher, who hits straight from the shoulders and delivers telling blows
