JUDGES ARE CHOSEN TO TAKE CHARGE OF DAILY REFLECTOR'S SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN AND GIVE PRIZES SATURDAY

After Tonight Contest Goes Out of Managers' Hands and All Business Will be Deposited in Ballot Box to be Counted

OPPORTUNITY IN RACE FOR TOWNS

Eight Municipalities in the County Can Secure Automobile for Their Entrants by Show of Fine Community Spirit

Tonight is the last report night of The Daily Reflector's great subscription campaign. Beginning in the morning all subscriptions and money will be deposited in the ballot box by the candidate and the managers will have nothing whatever to do with these until after the judges count the votes and announce the winners. No more checks will be received and campaigners are advised to have any checks given them made payable to themselves and cash them, in order that they may deposit the money in the box with subscriptions. Subscriptions received through the mails will be deposited in the box unopened, so it is advisable that contestants mailing their subscriptions should register the letters with the cash enclosed.

With only three more days to run there are several workers so close together that the managers are unable to pick the winners of the various awards, even for their own satisfaction. Either of these live-wire workers is liable to be the proud possessor of the Oldsmobile next Sunday and the one that's in the lead today may receive the diamond ring when the judges make awards.

Yesterday's paper told how either of several towns in Pitt county could gain an Oldsmobile or a Star as its property. It is just a matter of how loyally the people of these towns support their ambitious campaigners, all of whom have worked hard and deserve all the aid their neighbors and friends can give them.

There are eight towns in the running, with Greenville having three candidates to one each in the other seven—Grifton, Stokes, Pactolus, Fountain, Bethel, Chicod and Ayden. While the entrants in some of these towns are somewhat behind, all of them have a good chance of being "in the money"—of winning one of the larger prizes—if their friends take sufficient interest in their efforts and support them with true community spirit. That's the way these valuable prizes will be won.

But remember, there are but three more days, so do whatever you intend doing for your favorite RIGHT NOW.

The following gentlemen one representative from each of the three Greenville banks, have consented to act as judges in The Daily Reflector's subscription campaign, and will take charge of the ballot box Saturday night at 8 o'clock, count the votes and award the prizes according to the result of the count:

Mr. J. L. Little, president National Bank of Greenville.

Mr. W. H. Woolard, vice-president and cashier Greenville Banking and Trust Company.

Mr. P. L. Clodfelter, cashier Farmers Bank.

The standing of these gentlemen in the county and their known ability and fairness assures an impartial count of the votes and the management feels sure that their awards will be satisfactory to all concerned.

SIX ARMY PLANES ARRIVE SAFELY IN COMPLETING FLIGHT

Land at Washington Upon Conclusion of a Most Successful Journey

Washington, April 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The six army airplanes which left San Antonio, Texas, a month ago on a six thousand mile flight, to Porto Rico and thence to Washington, landed at Bolling Field today, bringing to a successful conclusion one of the most remarkable pioneer flights ever attempted by the army air service. Secretary Weeks extended the official welcome to the twelve pilots who made the trip and directed that a citation be placed in their records crediting them properly with their achievement.

Air service officials said the flight negotiated by land planes over wide stretches of water and strange land areas without accident and on schedule illustrated the role aircraft could take in the scheme of national defense. Captain Thomas G. Lanphier, in command of the squadron, also pointed to this possibility. He declared Porto Rico formed the logical base of action for an air force against an enemy fleet approaching the Panama Canal from the Atlantic side, adding that it had been proved possible, as a result of the flight just made, to concentrate an air force at Porto Rico within twenty-four hours and attack an enemy fleet or bombard land bases within a radius of 800 miles.

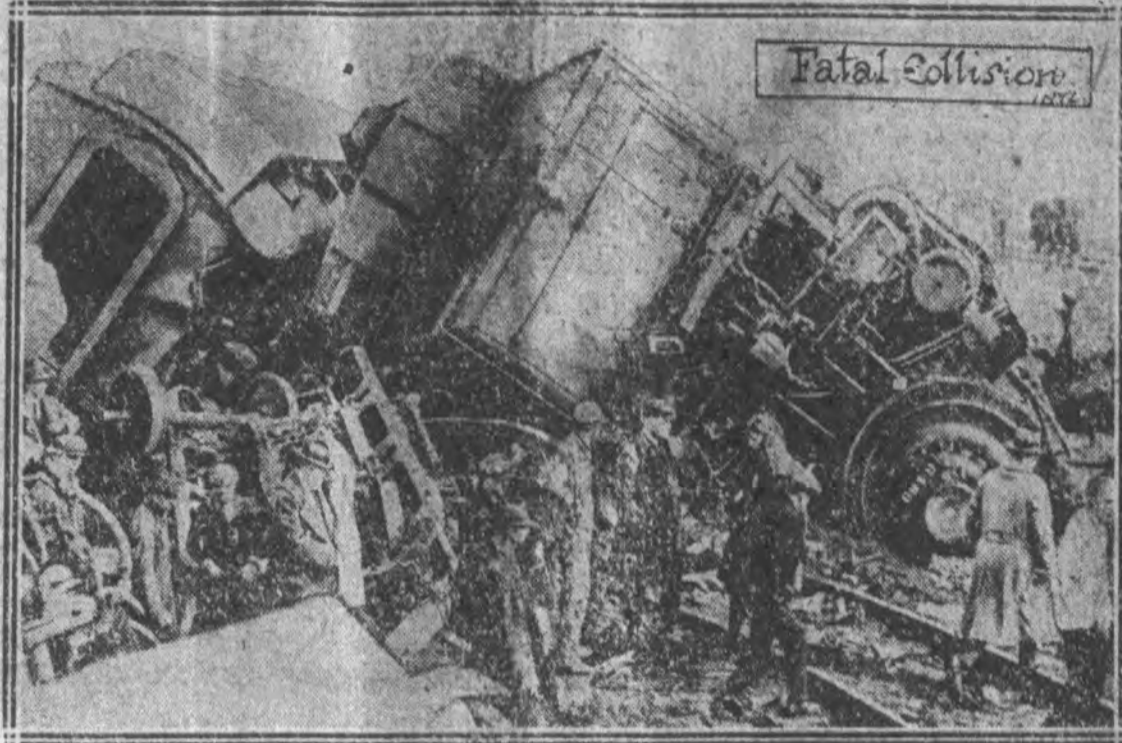

Major General Patrick, chief of the army air service, also called attention to the part aircraft could play in defending the country and providing means of quick communication between the continental United States and the island possessions.

"The twelve army air service pilots who flew from San Antonio, Texas, to the island of Porto Rico and who landed at Bolling Field at noon today, ending their flight, have accomplished something really worthwhile," General Patrick said. "I am naturally proud of the enthusiasm with which they undertook their task and the skill with which they carried it through flying over strange countries, piloting land planes over considerable water areas, and without accident and on schedule time.

"They have given a remarkable demonstration not alone of the role aircraft can play in aircraft defense, but also of the possibilities of quick and easy communication by air with this one of our important island possessions. The flight could easily have been continued for the few remaining hundreds of miles to the main line of South America."

The officers will remain here several days before they return to their post of duty, they will take their craft from Bolling Field to the Fairfield, Ohio, station where they will separate. Lieuts. J. A. Woodruff, E. T. Selzer and I. Q. Moorman and D. H. Dunton going to Kelly Field, Texas; Lieuts. C. B. Austin and R. K. Stoner to Langley Field, Va.; Lieut. E. H. Nelson to McCook Field, Ohio; Lieut. G. O. McDonald to Brooks Field, Texas; Lieut. N. Longfellow to Mitchell Field, N. Y.; Lieut. G. V. Bolling Field here. Captain Lanphier will return to his station at Fort Sill, Okla.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF PYTHIAN LODGE THURSDAY NIGHT

Many Prominent Men Will be Featured on Program for Event at Teachers College

One of the biggest and what has promised of being one of the most enjoyable events of the spring season is the Knights of Pythias banquet which is to be staged tomorrow night in the dining hall of the East Carolina Teachers College at seven o'clock. The program committee has spent much time in preparation of the occasion, and everything possible is being done to carry out the program as first planned. There will be many features connected with the evening. Among these being the presence of out of town guests, some of which being State officials of the Pythian lodge will be heard in short addresses. The Pythian sextette and a local orchestra will be heard in several musical numbers. There will be some surprises for the three hundred Pythians and friends attending, as those in charge of the program have something up their sleeves that will not be revealed until the gathering at the banquet table.

The banquet will be served by the Teachers College and this is suffice to say that the spread will be all that could be wished for.

SHERIFF IN CHARGE OF KU KLUX OFFICE

Order Signed by Judge Dispossesses W. J. Simmons, Who Took Charge

Atlanta, April 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Sheriff Lowry, of Fulton county, with a force of deputies, this morning took charge of the "Imperial Palace" headquarters of the Ku Klux Klan, under an order signed by Judge E. D. Thomas dispossessing William J. Simmons, the imperial emperor and organizer of the klan, who took charge of headquarters and the klan yesterday under a temporary injunction obtained against Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans.

The order directed Simmons and others to show cause this afternoon why the temporary injunction against Evans and other officials of the klan should not be dismissed.

Acting under the temporary injunction against Evans, Simmons yesterday appointed Dr. Fred B. Johnson, of San Antonio, Texas, chief of staff and placed him in charge of the imperial palace.

SHIPPING BOARD WANTS GUARANTEE SHIP OPERATION

Announces No Ships Will be Sold for Less Than Would Cost Otherwise

Washington, April 3.—(By Associated Press.)—Formal announcement was made by the Shipping Board today that no plan now under consideration for disposal of the government fleet contemplated the sale of ships "for unrestricted service" at less than world market prices. Suggestions that a sale at any price policy might be adopted was said to have resulted in a natural hesitancy on the part of operators to venture at this time upon operations designed to build up new lines or to take over some of those now maintained by the board.

"It is true," the board's statement added, however, "that studies are being made for offering government owned ships on lines at a considerable reduction from world market prices in those cases where the purchasers will guarantee to maintain the services in foreign trade for a term of years."

The policy committee, headed by Commissioner Lissner, was understood today to have agreed upon the basis of the report to be submitted to Chairman Lasker when he returns to Washington about the middle of this month. Beyond the statement that there will be no bargain sales of good ships offered and that the market will be relieved of the competitive threat held in the unadaptable tonnage there has been no suggestion as to the scope of this report.

Valuation Reports

Reports are being received daily by the valuation committee, of which Commissioner Plummer is chairman in the form of replies to the exxxff in the form of replies to the exhaustive questionnaire sent to operators of ships in active service and custodians of those tied up. No compilation has yet been attempted but estimates have been made which place the total obsolete and undesirable shipping in the government fleet at upwards of 2,500,000 dead weight tons of nearly 30 per cent of the entire fleet. The last official report showed about 3,350,000 tons in active service and twice that in "ordinary" or tied up but presumably available if sudden demand arose.

AEROPLANE MAKER ASKS BIG DAMAGES

James Martin Alleges Conspiracy to Destroy His Business and Asks Large Sum

Washington, April 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Alleging a conspiracy to destroy his business James Martin, of the Martin Aeroplane Factory, located on Long Island, has filed suit under the Clayton anti-trust act to recover $51,510,000 from the Manufacturers' Aerial Association, incorporated, twenty-seven other corporations and thirty-eight individuals.

The plaintiff declared his business had been damaged to the extent of seventeen million dollars and under the Clayton law he claimed triple damages plus attorney's fee. He charged that the defendants had conspired to monopolize the air craft trade, had slandered him, burned his planes, lied about his accomplishments, destroyed government reports commending his devices and even made plans against his life. Among the individuals named are Benedict Crowell, former assistant secretary of war; Major General Patrick, Chief of the Army Air Service and Rear Admiral Moffet, director of naval aviation.

He worked as a coolie in Manila, performing all sorts of menial tasks, for nearly three years. After accumulating a few hundred dollars Ong went into the business of buying and selling junk. PITT COUNTY BOARD OF COMMERCE ENJOYED IN THIS CITY LAST NIGHT

MR. COLVIN B. BROWN OF NATIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DELIVERS ADDRESS

Several Stunts and Speeches Featured the Evening's Program

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season, held in Greenville, that of the annual meeting and banquet of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce, held last evening in the New Blount-Harvey building, where both a splendid program and a sumptuous dinner were enjoyed. The principal address of the evening, delivered to the two hundred in attendance, consisting of members of the organization, their wives and friends, was made by Mr. Colvin B. Brown, of the United States Chamber of Commerce, Washington, D. C. who proved to his audience that he was not only a pleasing and entertaining speaker but also was a man abreast the times in his line of work.

At seven thirty, those availing themselves of the opportunity that had been afforded them began to assemble on the second floor of the Blount-Harvey building and gather around the tables that had been constructed and decorated for the dinner that was to be served by the ladies Aid Society of the Memorial Baptist Church. The various courses of the dinner was so interspersed with features of the program that every moment of the occasion was filled with entertainment.

The program, which was in charge of Toastmaster P. L. Clodfelter, President of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce, consisted of the following: Song, America; Invocation, Rev. V. P. Scoville; Selection, Greenville Orchestra; selection, Male Quartette; Stunt, given by a member of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs; introduction of the speaker of the evening by Mr. H. A. White; the address by Mr. Brown; expressions, as to the past, present and future work of the organization, by citizens from various sections of the county; a talk by Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse; song, "Till We Meet Again."

The menu for the evening consisted of the following which was splendidly prepared: Grape fruit, celery, pickles, roast turkey, cranberry sauce candied yams, green peas, hot rolls congealed fruit with whipped cream cake and coffee.

Mr. Brown after being introduced by Mr. White arose from his seat and at the very outset expressed the fact that he was greatly impressed at the gathering of the ladies on such an occasion which fact itself, he stated, made him believe that the women of America would make the most of their opportunities in the future, and that there was so much for them to do.

The subject of Mr. Brown's address was: "Value to Nation of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce." He stated that a nation was the sum total of the community units and that when anything advantageous was added to any one of these units it was added to America. He stated that there are two opposing forces at work in every community, (1) Those of Disintegration

Now that Washington has decided to enter the Eastern Carolina League with Greenville and Kinston all that is needed is one more live town like these three to assure baseball for this summer.

"Don't Speed, This Road is Not Fool Proof" is a sign on one of the hard surfaced roads of an adjoining county. If such a thing as a fool proof road is possible Pitt County should surely build several for some of its automobile drivers.

A SEASON OF CHURCH REVIVALS

In the springtime all nature awakes afresh from the lethargy of winter; modern communities stage city-wide cleaning days for the purpose of clearing up all the accumulated trash, and everything puts on anew the brightness and cleanliness of the season. It is therefore meet and proper that the churches, designed for carrying on the work of Almighty God on earth, should align themselves with the general spirit of newness of life and nature by choosing this season for conducting revival services.

to re-consecrate old members to the work of the Master and bring into the fold young blood—to save from the world the youth of the community while giving the older membership the benefit of the reviving influence that will strengthen their affiliation to the church and cause them to gird their armor and go into the world with stronger faith and a new desire to serve the Christ better.

Several of the city churches have announced revivals in the near future and The Reflector bids them Godspeed in the good work. May the meetings result in a great spiritual awakening that will rebound to the credit of the work of our Heavenly Father here on earth and be of greatest benefit to the youth of Greenville and a momentous awakening of the present church membership.

A SEVERE INDICTMENT

The Charlotte News suggests that when we come to the conclusion that things are not going as they should, and when everything seems dead wrong, we might consider the following statistics as a reason:

We spend every year $2,100,000,000 for tobacco; $1,000,000,000 for the movies; $2,000,000,000 for candy; $1,500,000,000 for perfumes, cosmetics etc.; $500,000,000 for jewelry; $350,000,000 for furs; $300,000,000 for soft drinks; $50,000,000 for chewing gum; $3,000,000,000 for joy rides, pleasure resorts and the like. For luxuries we spend $22,700,000,000. Against this we spend over $1,000,000,000 for education; $650,000,000 for graded schools; $150,000,000 for colleges and professional schools; $100,000,000 for public high schools; $20,000,000 for normal schools and $25,000,000 for all church schools and colleges.

And these statistics cause The News to remark further that where one's treasure is there one's heart is also. The above statistics would indicate, therefore, that we have little heart, proportionately at least, for those things that would bring about the conditions we desire, the social loyalties, the political adjustments, the moral stamina, the religious steadfastness and all those more permanent attainments that we know in the innermost depths of consciousness.

REGULATING RADIO

Secretary Hoover has been asked by a special committee of the National Radio Conference to make certain changes affecting broadcasting by radio. Enthusiasts, using at least 1,500,000 receiving sets this year as against some 600,000 last year, will welcome a readjustment that should bring order out of chaos. Regulation is equally to the interest of the broadcasting companies. They have increased from 60 to 538 in a year. It is as important to harness radio as it has been to harness fire and water. A question that was bound to arise sooner or later is that of payment for music. It was natural for companies manufacturing sets to offer, in free programs, inducements to buyers, but it is now asked if these companies can be reasonably expected to go on furnishing free entertainment. Without doubt, there will always be some free music broadcast by musical bands, department store organizations and the like. This is on one side of mere transmission. But what are they going to play? If modern copyrighted music is used, royalties are justly demanded by its owners. Use of copyrighted music for profit, unless compensation is given, is an infringement which reputable companies will avoid.

This favor of royalties does not enter into the use of most the classics. Yet the question does arise, Who is going to play these classics, and upon what terms? It is obviously not to be expected that highly paid performers, whose fees often run into the thousands, will permit their concerts to be broadcast or that they will often be tempted into radio studios without getting well paid. The mechanics of reproduction must be greatly improved and the performers must be compensated. But the efficacy of the whole system will rest with Government control and the inventors of secrecy devices.—New York World.

New York, April 3.—(By Associated Press.)—Junior Naval Reserve cadets are to have opportunity this summer to gain sea experience in a practical way. Arrangements have been made with a steamship line crossing the Pacific to accept cadets

A SPECIAL SERMON WILL BE PREACHED TO YOUNG MEN TONIGHT

The service at the tent last night was splendid. The subject "Six Modern Devils," covered a large territory and modern sin was fought from start to finish. A special service will be held Thursday afternoon for old people and it will also be for the sick. Any wishing to be 'anointed' come, Jesus is just as able to heal today as ever. We also ask the Christians to fast Thursday and pray much for the meeting now closing and the one to begin. We invite all young men to come tonight and hear the message.

ROUND TABLE CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Round Table Club had a most delightful meeting on last Tuesday with Mrs. Milton White. In the absence of the President Mrs. W. B. Tighman presided. After a brief business session the program committee presented the topic — Western Stories. Mrs. T. A. Person read "The Outcasts of Poker Flat," by Bret Harte. This was discussed at length after which Mrs. J. W. Higgs gave a very interesting and instructive paper on Mark Twain. Miss Dorris Overton rendered delightful vocal selections while Mrs. White served delicious frozen salad with all the trimmings and beautiful as well as delicious home made candy.

WASHINGTON WILL JOIN THE LEAGUE

Kinston, April 4.—The report published in a local paper yesterday to the effect that the prospects of league baseball for this section this year were dead seems to be erroneous according to a prominent Kinston man and baseball promoter, who told the Morning News that he was in receipt of reliable word that three Washington sportsmen were interested and that they would attend the next meeting to be held here shortly and formally enter that city in the embryo organization, making the third city to enter.

Local promoters are confident that at least one other city will come into the fold shortly, with a possibility that a six-club league is not out of the question. Goldsboro and Tarboro are both confidently expected to "reform" and Greenville and Kinston are already in. As that old young man give their fans some sport this summer. "Lish" Lewis would say, things seem to be incubating. It takes time to hatch baseball.

All Methodists: Attention.

Your pastor very earnestly urges you to attend the special service to be held at the church tonight in the interest of the Centenary program. You are not going to be asked to make any new pledges or subscriptions.

Two of our most interesting speakers, Dr. Jolliff of the Virginia conference and Dr. Elliott of Nashville, Tenn., are with us to tell us of the great work that has been already accomplished through our Centenary offerings and to inform us as to future plans. Every Centenary subscriber should be deeply interested and it is hoped that every one will manifest his or her interest by being present at this service. The hour is eight o'clock.

MEETING OF PASTORS AND SUPERINTENDENTS CALLED FOR TOMORROW

A meeting of the pastors and superintendents of the different Sunday schools of the city has been called for tomorrow afternoon at 5:00 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. A full attendance is expected.

Attention, Troop Two.

Members of Troop Two will go on their first spring camp on Friday, April 6. The scout master and patrol leaders have selected a splendid site for the camp. A comfortable three-room house has been secured on the banks of the river. This house is in good repair and is furnished with a heating stove.

Members of the troop plan to leave high school at 4:30 on Friday afternoon and to return to Greenville on Saturday. Each scout is to provide himself with two blankets, a frying pan, and sufficient food for three meals. Scouts are urged to bring their fishing tackle. Besides fishing, there is to be boxing and several new scouts are to be initiated on that night. An opportunity will be given Scouts to pass tests. Do not bring guns. There will be only one gun permitted in camp. Scouts who can not leave with the troop will be given directions by the Scout Master as to where the troop will be so that they may come out late Friday afternoon or early Saturday morning.

There will be a special meeting of the troop at the high school on Thursday afternoon at 3:15.

BETHEL PROPERTY BROUGHT GOOD PRICE AT AUCTION

The auction sale conducted yesterday by the Atlantic Coast Realty Company in Bethel for Mr. M. O. Blount of that city was a success in every respect. A good crowd was in attendance and the property brought approximately twenty thousand dollars. Besides several desirable building lots one beautiful residence and the former Methodist church site was offered.

This is an incident in which history repeats itself. It was just thirteen years ago this spring that the Atlantic Coast Realty Co., conducted their first auction sale. It was held in Bethel and was some residential lots belonging to Mr. M. O. Blount.

NEIL O'BRIEN'S MINSTREL ENJOYED

Presented One of Best Programs Offered by the Company to its Patrons

Neil O'Brien's great American Minstrels appeared in White's Theatre last night and presented one of the best programs ever presented by this company. The first part which consisted mostly of songs and jokes was greatly enjoyed. Those in attendance heard some of the best singing ever heard on the local stage, the choruses and solos both being splendid. The second part was divided into two parts, "Rufus in the Lion's Den" and "In the Days of Old." The first recalled most vividly the days of youth when a circus was the center of attraction. The second which consisted of Belles and Beaux and old time songs recalled the days of "Grandma," when the world was yet young. Roy Francis as the Dancing Duce was wonderful in his part as was Fred Miller in acrobatic eccentricities.

The one act play contributed by Mr. O'Brien was a short one called by the suggestive title of "Put and Take, Bankers" and showed a couple of Darktown capitalists hard at work extracting coin from their fellow citizens. It was a laughable act and each character played his part in a commendable manner.

The performance was brought to a close with a big scenic playlet in three scenes called "A Certain Party." It revealed in mystery and uncertainty and entailed the services of the entire company.

The large audience thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the evening and the encores showed that the performance was appreciated.

COAL FIELDS YIELD IS SMALL

Tokio, April 3.—(By Associated Press.)—Although immense coal fields exist in South Saghalien, the portion of the island ceded to Japan by the Portsmouth treaty, the output reaches only 140,000 tons a year. The consumption being 200,000 tons, the balance has to be imported from Japan proper. The best fields are under state control.

SPLENDID BANQUET ENJOYED IN THIS CITY LAST NIGHT

tion, (2) those of Integration and growth. All men he stated, are much alike and are interested in their job whether great or small and are honest and honest in their endeavor to serve those with whom they do business. The thing that makes a nation great, said he, is not the laws passed by its legislative bodies but the individual efforts of the individual business men to build their business so as to serve the public. The modern chamber of commerce, said he, realizes that their community extends outward to cover its retail trade and that the modern business men of every community strives to advance its interest. Here Mr. Brown gave several specific instances where wonderful results have been derived through efforts put forth by the various Chambers of Commerce. The modern chamber of commerce, said he, realizes the necessity of a good name for the town in which its patrons are to trade, and work with the end in view of building up and maintaining a good name for its towns. It also realizes the obligations it owes to the young men within its bounds. Here he touched on the value of character in business and stated that every chamber of commerce should have some plan by which character among its citizens might be builded.

Mr. Brown referred to the great advancement that has been made in America during the past twenty years. American genius, said he, is equal to any occasion no matter how direct the calamity may be and is able to solve the problem. The people abroad said he, have a very exalted opinion of the American people and are expecting great things from them, and should not be disappointed in any manner. American industry in manufacture, said he, gives employment to thousands of people, makes a market for the product and all prosper together. No individual can greatly prosper, said he, without all being benefited.

Mr. Brown said that America is rapidly growing and every city must be awake if they are to get more than their share of the expense. A good citizen is one who does something for his community. No man, said he, stands out great who thinks of himself alone but must let his thoughts reach others. The light, to be held before the modern chamber of commerce is the light of the city of the future which must always be held where it can be seen.

Mr. Brown stated that he was glad that the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce had been started and started right.

NEW AIRPLANE CHASSIS ASSURES SAFE LANDING

London, April 3.—(By Associated Press.)—An airplane undercarriage that is practically "unrushable" is the remarkable product of a British inventor. The new landing chassis looks to the uninitiated like any ordinary two-wheeled undercarriage, but it is fitted with an ingenious system of pneumatic cylinders which prevent accidents even when the machine is being landed by an inexperienced pilot.

You will be amazed to see how the use of "Bull" Durham will out down the cost of your smoking.

How is it possible to give you quality at the low cost of 10 cents for 50 cigarettes?

Here's one reason: The government tax alone on 50 machine-made cigarettes is 15 cents—5 CENTS MORE THAN THE COST OF 50 "BULL" DURHAM CIGARETTES TO YOU!

The average smoker saves $1 to $1.50 a week by "rolling his own" from "Bull"—or from $52 to $78 a year. This makes quite a Christmas fund—or pays for a fine trip.

THE EMPTY HOOTCH BOTTLE AND OUR TOM CAT

A few days ago some careless rum hound threw out an empty hootch bottle in the street. Later on we noticed a big rat taking a sniff at it. Next thing we knew he come tearing across the street and through a pane of glass landing on our old Tom Cat who was sleeping in the window. For about thirty seconds there was something doing, and before we managed to shoot them out of the garage, they had busted a show case, dumped five gallons of that good Sinclair Cylinder Oil, knocked down two hundred feet of that one year guaranteed brake lining, and scratched the paint on a new Chevrolet.

Last we saw of the Tom Cat he was hitting on 'em all like a Buick always does, just about two jumps ahead of that rum-headed rat, going over the hill toward Grimesland and we thought a lot of that Tom Cat, too.

Special: We urgently request that motorist refrain from throwing empty Hootch bottles out around our place.

If you are not fully satisfied as to the truth of this statement, stop in and while we show you the empty Hootch bottle we will drain your crank case, (we mean your cars crank case), and put in good clean cylinder oil of the correct weight for your car. 4 1t

MODERN WOMEN SAY THEY SPOONED BEFORE MARRIAGE

Replies to Questionnaires Show That 47 Per Cent of Married Women Spooned

New York, April 3.—(By Associated Press.)—The prevalence of spooning is shown in replies received by the Bureau of Social Hygiene, founded by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to a frank questionnaire circulated in what is termed the first exhaustive scientific investigation that has been made of the sex life of the normal educated woman.

A report prepared by Dr. Katherine Bement Davis, general secretary of the bureau on replies received from one thousand married women in various parts of the country, shows that 375 admitted having spooned prior to marriage with other than fiancées 208 spooned with fiancées only and 389 never spooned prior to marriage. The question was left unanswered by 28.

Eleven of the 675 failed to specify the extent of their spooning; 21 wrote "not far," 50 "kissing only," 104 "hugging and kissing"; 45 "hugging, kissing and fondling," and 144 admitted more unrestrained spooning. Of the 1,000 married women, 872 proclaimed themselves happy. Of the happy group 41 per cent did not spoon, 47 per cent did and 22 per cent spooned only with their fiancées. Of the married group, 38 per cent admitted the extreme.

Included in the 1,000 married women with which Dr. Davis' reports deals, 691 were college graduates, 47 college under-graduates 41 high and normal school graduates and 12 private school graduates.

Of the 691 college graduates 49 per cent admitted practicing birth control. Health and economic grounds were the reasons chiefly given.

Dr. Davis said that it would take several months to tabulate the answers received to the questionnaire sent to unmarried women.

"We have received more than 1,000 answers, comprising more than 12,000 pages of manuscript, to the questionnaire sent to unmarried women," she declared. "I do not believe the tabulation of those answers will be completed before summer."
