JUDGES IN REFLECTOR'S SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN WILL TAKE CHARGE OF THE BALLOT BOX AT EIGHT SHARP TONIGHT

All Business Accompanied by Cash Must be Sealed in Envelope and Deposited in Box by Campaigners Before That Hour Arrives

LAST CHANCE TO SUPPORT FRIEND

But Few Hours Remain of Subscription Drive and One Subscription May Win Automobile for Your Favorite in Race

When the court house clock sounds the last stroke of eight tonight the ballot box in The Reflector's great subscription campaign will be closed and turned over to the judges.

Then there will be a flood of joy and gladness for some, while others must be disappointed. But those who fall short of their ambitions, the ones who fail to win an automobile, will have the consolation of a noble effort well made.

But a few hours remain to give support to your favorite, and the vote is so close now that even one subscription may mean the difference between an automobile and a suite of furniture, or a wrist watch.

All business turned in today must be deposited in the ballot box before the clock finishes striking the hour. Subscriptions and money must be sealed in envelopes bearing the campaigner's name.

Friends of the candidates and the public generally are invited to come to The Reflector office tonight to hear the good news read out, which should occur at about 8:45.

The Campaign Managers desire to express their sincere appreciation of the spirit shown by the candidates throughout the campaign. It has been a pleasure to be associated with such clever and reasonable ladies and gentlemen.

EPISCOPALS HAD RALLY DAY SUNDAY

Presented Splendid Program and Had Large Attendance; Great Day

Easter Sunday was rally day at the Episcopal Sunday school. The attendance was very good and practically all the pupils were on time for they knew something good was in store for them.

Come to Sunday school tomorrow, the contest for on-time attendance is still running and Mr. Harding has one of his best lectures in store for those who are present Sunday morning.

Instead of having an Easter egg hunt for the entire Sunday school, a few of the teachers had hunts for their classes and the Sunday school as a whole had a most enjoyable wienie and marshmallow roast at the over-flowing well last night.

EDUCATORS WILL DISCUSS BUILDING OF CHARACTER

Bar Association Promoting Active Campaign to Compel Teaching of Citizenship

Washington, April 7.—(By Associated Press.)—The recent action of the American Bar Association in promoting an active campaign for a law to compel the teaching of citizenship in the public schools of the land has received wide-spread comment.

Research on the problems of education for citizenship has been carried on by educators for several years, and at the forthcoming World Conference on Education, to be held in San Francisco next June, when delegates from all parts of the world will meet, this subject will be discussed, it was said.

"There is, however," declares the association's statement, "a larger movement going forward than merely the teaching of citizenship. This is 'character education' which has as its fundamental purpose the cultivation of the disposition and purpose to act right as citizens, and not merely or chiefly a knowledge of the constitution and the principles of government."

"The educators of America realize that character forming should be one of the principal aims of our schools. Inculcate in the child the will to do right and act right, and he will grow up to be a worthy citizen. Ignore the moral side and there is always the possibility that the more knowledge a person receives, whether it be in citizenship or anything else, the greater criminal will be turned out to be eventually if the will to wrong doing is present."

The Character Education Association was organized to give impetus to the movement for character training. It is under the control of a board of trustees, all federal educators, and the state commissioners, and superintendents of education, is non-commercial, and works under endowment.

It recently completed a competition for a code of morals for children, and awarded the prize to William J. Hutchins, president of Berea College. This code is now used extensively in various school systems through the country.

COURTS RULE THAT COLLEGE ENTITLED TO LARGE BEQUEST

Raleigh, April 7.—(By Associated Press.)—For third time the New York courts have ruled that Wake Forest College is entitled to the bequest of a quarter million dollars now grown to a million and three hundred and fifty thousand in the will of the late Jatez Bostwick, a wealthy oil man, attorney for the institution was informed by his associate counsel in the metropolis. Bostwick died twenty years ago.

Everybody had to eat what he or she cooked. Burnt marshmallows and raw wienies furnished a delicious menu. None of the crowd was ready to leave when the time came so the camp supper may be enjoyed again this summer.

ODD FELLOWS OF WILSON SUBSCRIBES TO FUND FOR HOME

Raises $420, One Third of the Amount That Lodge Proposes to Raise

Wilson, April 7.—Under the inspiring toastmastership of Mr. Calvin Woolard, a prominent merchant of this city, and a Past Grand Master of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Enterprise Lodge, No. 44, Wednesday night at a Shad supper, in the lodge room, $420 was subscribed towards the $25,000 benefit fund for the Odd Fellows Home at Goldsboro. This is about one-third of the amount that the lodge proposes to raise for the cause.

This is one of the opening efforts in the Anniversary Campaign recently inaugurated by the board of trustees of the Orphan Home, under the direction of Grand Secretary John D. Berry, to raise $25,000 for the benefit of the Home by the meeting of the next Grand Lodge in May at Goldsboro.

Out of town guests at this meeting were Grand Secretary John D. Berry, Charles O. Baird, supt. of the home at Goldsboro, and S. B. Currin, of Greenville, Deputy Grand Master, all of whom made talks in the interest of the campaign.

A score or more of local members made talks boosting the effort. Some of the pithy expressions were as follows:

"The Orphan Home is the sunshine of Odd Fellows."

"I wonder what the Odd Fellows talked about before the home was established."

"Go to the Home, look it over and let your conscience be your guide."

Following the last suggestion plans were made to visit the home in a body, Sunday afternoon, April 15, going to Goldsboro by automobiles. According to the plans of the general campaign committee booster meeting will be held in connection with the Anniversary celebration, April 26. The crowning feature of the campaign will take place May 15 at the meeting of the Grand Lodge at the Orphan Home when final reports, with contributions, will be made by the delegates, terminating in a love feast. This will follow an entertainment given by the children of the home on the opening night of the Grand Lodge session.

OFFICERS SEARCH FOR MEN BELIEVED TO BE MURDERERS

Evidence Points to Frantic Struggle for Life By Mrs. Blandino and Miss M'Mahon

New York, April 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Men with scratched faces are being sought by the police as murderers of the two young women found hacked to death on an unfrequented road near Staten Island shore yesterday. The scratches as particular identification were mentioned by the police who said they found evidence of a frantic struggle for life by the two women, Mrs. Irene Blandino, of Jersey City, and Miss Bessie McMahon, of Utica. The theory that blackhand had been involved was advanced after the police learned that Mrs. Blandino's first husband, Frank Bongirani had been killed by a man now dead and buried with her before she met Bongirani.

REV. C. M. DUNAWAY PREACHES HIS FIRST SERMON OF REVIVAL

Special Singing to be Big Feature of the Series of Meetings

Evangelist C. M. Dunaway, accompanied by Mr. Thos. Eden and sister, Miss Ethel Eden, arrived in Greenville last evening over the Norfolk Southern and conducted their first service under the big tent last night.

A congregation numbering several hundred had assembled and all felt well repaid for having attended the opening service of what gives promise of being a great revival. Mr. Dunaway said that he would have this a sort of get acquainted service as he was always at a little loss to know how to proceed till he had first gotten acquainted with the people to whom he expected to preach. With inimitable humor and homely thrusts he won his way to the hearts of his hearers. It is evident that the evangelist is not only a forceful Gospel preacher but an entertainer of no mean ability as well.

He took his text from the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles and spoke on the general theme of witnessing for Christ, stressing the fact that we are not to argue for Christ but to witness for him, and that there is a big difference between being a lawyer and a witness. He made several humorous allusions to lawyers which were thoroughly appreciated by the audience.

The singing of Mr. and Miss Eden was as fine as has ever been heard in Greenville. Many were the expressions of praise and appreciation by various ones present. Their singing will be a feature of each service, and will prove beyond doubt a great attraction in the course of the revival.

It is already evident that the meeting will not be in progress many days till the big tent will be taxed to capacity to accommodate the crowds. Remember, two services daily except Saturday, with a Saturday night service tonight and three services tomorrow. Tomorrow morning at eleven, tomorrow afternoon at three-thirty and again tomorrow night at seven-thirty. Each week-day, except Saturday, at ten in the morning and seven-thirty at night. Everybody is most cordially invited to attend these services. It is hoped that people from the country and other towns of Pitt county will come in and enjoy the meeting with us. The singers of the various churches are earnestly urged to sit on the platform and assist in forming a big chorus choir.

GREENVILLE LOSES INITIAL CONTEST BASEBALL SEASON

Brown Twirls Good Game, But One Bad Inning When He Became Wild Cause Result

The first baseball game of the season was played on the local diamond yesterday afternoon between the local highs and the team of the Washington school, in which Greenville lost by the close score of 4 to 3.

The contest opened with both teams working as smoothly as in mid-season, both pitchers showing stuff not often seen so early after the start. Notwithstanding the fact that the local boys have had but little practice because of the extremely cold weather and the preliminaries leading up to the track meet on last Monday, they put up a good fight and but for old man jinx would have come out winners. Greenville scored in the first inning but the visitors failed to make a counter until the second stanza when they tied the lone tally. The game continued nip and tuck then until the fourth frame when Brown for Greenville, became a bit wild together with Harvey's inability to hold him, and Washington scored three more runs through errors, wild throws and passed balls. This failed to dishearten the local twirler and he fanned five of those that faced him in the remaining three innings.

The score remained at 4 and 1 until the last half of the seventh, which inning it was agreed that the game would be called. In their part of this frame the local boys by hitting the old apple sent two more runners across the pan, and although they had a chance to put over the tying run; they failed in their efforts and the game closed with the result as above stated.

The pitching honors between Brown for Greenville and Potts for the visitors were pretty evenly divided. The former sent eleven to the bench by the strike out route, allowed four hits and gave five free passes. The Washington twirler fanned ten, was touched for seven hits, but gave only two free passes, and one of these were hit by pitched ball. While the players for both teams covered their respective positions in a creditable manner, the fielding of Bilbro in center for Greenville was possibly the feature. He having several difficult ones to handle during the game, all of which he accepted with ease. The weakest spot on either team was the hitting. No one was able to hit the old apple at the right time.

Monday, the locals will go to Washington to meet the team of the Collegiate Institute, and on Friday of next week they go to Red Oak.

THREE PERSONS ARE KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AN AUTOMOBILE

John H. Weathers, Wife and Adopted Daughter are Victims of the Wreck

Raleigh, April 7.—Three persons, all of Wake county, were killed when an automobile was struck by a freight train at Fuquay Springs yesterday afternoon. The dead are: John Henry Weathers, farmer, 55; Mrs. John Weathers, his wife; Miss Irene Weathers, adopted daughter, 16.

Eye witnesses differ as to the exact details of the accident but all of them place responsibility on the inexperience of the driver of the automobile, Miss Irene Weathers, the 16-year-old adopted daughter of John Henry Weathers, a prosperous farmer from near Fuquay Springs. Miss Weathers was horribly mangled and was rushed to Rex Hospital in Raleigh where she died at 7:45, about three hours after the accident. Her foster parents, the only other occupants of the automobile, were killed outright, Mrs. Weathers dying instantly and Mr. Weathers living only about three minutes.

The automobile was purchased at Fuquay Springs last week and Miss Weathers is said not to have mastered its operation. The train, consisting only of one engine, tender and a baggage car was backing at a slow rate of speed, estimated at from eight to twelve miles an hour, and the automobile was also traveling at a slow speed.

According to H. H. Trotti, an employee of the Kahn Tailoring Company of Raleigh, the automobile came to a full stop on the track while Ruffin Nunn and E. G. Richardson, trainmen, who were standing in the door of the oncoming train, say that the automobile gave the appearance of being about to stop but never actually did so. All spectators agree that the flagman was blowing a whistle stridently and that an effort was made to stop the train at the last minute. The light Ford automobile was knocked about 12 feet by the collision.

"My God, why didn't we stop, they were blowing for us," were the first words of Miss Weathers on recovering consciousness, according to Mr. Trotti. Mr. Weathers was about 55 years of age while his wife was a few years younger. They had no children.

Mr. and Mrs. Weathers and their daughter had been in Fuquay Springs shopping and the party was en route to the Weathers home about five miles from Fuquay Springs when it was struck by the train which was running extra to Varina to pick up gravel cars for Lillington. The accident was witnessed by six or eight people standing around the Norfolk-Southern depot at Fuquay Springs, where it occurred.

Miss Weathers and her mother were riding on the front seat of the automobile and Mr. Weathers was on the side next to the train.

Saturday, April 7th, 1923

A politician is like a woman. She likes to be told that she is loved better than anything in the world, and a politician likes to be told that he has the best chance in the world to win.

Coming events cast their shadows before them. Detroit and Chicago, in their city election, went Democratic.
 Just another indication that a Democratic president will occupy the White House in 1924.

Judging from the number of divorces being granted throughout the country, one would believe that romance is away on a long vacation.
 If she was conscious of the fact that she is very necessary in keeping the homes in question, intact, she would return immediately.

Show us many towns the size of Greenville that can successfully conduct three splendid banquets in one week's time and we will show to the world towns that are destined to become great cities. We don't say that no other town can do it, but we can venture to say they can't do it any better. Greenville is on the map and it is there to stay.

Governor Trinkle sounded a great truth when he said that although Thomas Jefferson was a great Virginian, that he belonged to the entire nation. It is most fitting that his home "Monticello," should be made a national memorial to the author of the Declaration of Independence.

Stories of automobile accidents are pushing murder stories and other such incidents into the back ground.
 There seems to be a wave of accidents sweeping over the country just because drivers think that in order to be experts they must speed. It appears to have become a mania with some of them and such a violation of the law should be stopped, if it requires jail sentences to do it.

President Harding must have evidently been tomorrow." He has purchased a farm, and according to friends, will return to the scenes of childhood when he leaves the White House. His administration has been so trying and has required so much mental labor, that he will need the farm life "when his labors are over and his trials are ended."

According to the figures and facts given by President R. H. Wright at the Pythian banquet, regarding the Eastern Carolina Teachers College, it is destined to become the greatest institution of its kind in the country.
 It is already one of the greatest, considering its age, and it is growing by leaps and bounds. Under the able supervision of such a capable leader and splendid faculty, the college is compelled to grow. Great accomplishments are predicted in the near future.

Roger W. Balsam, statistical expert says that United States should be a better neighbor to Canada, because some day we must turn to her for natural resources. He is convinced that we are passing through our readjustment period entirely too rapid, while Canada is going about it in a slow deliberate manner. "United States should be a good neighbor to all the world, not because she may need help at some future date, but because the Scriptures say, "Love Thy Neighbor."

Greenville has indeed been fortunate this spring in not having cyclones nor serious accidents from speeding, but unless some steps are taken in regards to the speeding on the hard surfaced roads something serious is going to happen. The accounts of deaths caused by reckless driving, which are occurring daily in the papers should be a warning to the county officials. There is only one solution to the problem and that is to place motorcycle cops on the roads and see that those violating the speed laws receive punishment in proportion to the offense.

Now that Lord Carnavon has died there are people superstitious enough to say that it is a curse because he dastinated a sleeping Parash. We are quite sure that if Carnavon had believed all this superstition that he would have preferred life to the honor of becoming great over night.
 Everyone likes to do noble things but not many people are willing to die for the sake of bringing themselves into the lime light.

ADDING INSULT TO INJURY
 In a review of the general agricultural situation, the United States Department of Agriculture hands out to the farmer the cheering bit of information that he has a chance to make both ends meet this year if he handles his resources to best advantage. "Farmers who are well situated and who produce efficiency at low cost per bushel or per pound have at least a chance this year," the statement says. "Farmers who are too low down the scale of efficiency will hardly find salvation in cheap credit, cheap transportation, cooperative marketing, tariffs, price fixing, or all of these combined."

Well, we should say not; yet "cheap transportation," enlarged facilities for "cooperative marketing," "cheap credit," and a "scientific tariff," that would bring untold prosperity to every farm, were among the things that the Republican party promised when it deluded the farmers into voting its return to power. Having failed to make good on any of its promises of improving the position of the farmer by its quack legislative remedies, the administration pats him lovingly on the back and consoles him with an offering of business philosophy as old as civilization and admonishes him to apply it liberally to his needs—a cure being guaranteed.

"Handle his resources to best advantage," indeed! How can the farmer handle his resources to best advantage when the administration has enacted a vicious tariff that restricts the market for the products of his toil and forces him to pay two prices for everything that he needs in a monopolized home market?

The farmer has been bamboozled, and now administration spokesmen add insult to injury by advising him that he must get efficiency down to a fine point, otherwise he cannot expect to succeed.—Richmond Times Dispatch.

MR. EDITOR:
 Please answer the following questions:
 There has been quite a lot of discussion in regards to the supposedly traffic officer that is now operating on roads outside of Greenville. Has this man authority to make arrest?
 Has this man a right to take $10.00 or so from a supposed offender of the speed laws? While all hands agree that a traffic officer is needed on these highways, don't you imagine that by publishing notice of same and having man in uniform would have great effect on the public's mind and serve at the same time as a constant reminder to the drivers that said officer is on the job? We are merely asking for information and in no way criticizing. Any way, what township gets credit for enforcing the law and to what township does the proceeds go if there are any? Thank you.

Noted Health Experts Join In A National Crusade To Make Life Safe For Mothers and Children

COURTENAY DINWIDDIE

As officers of the American Child Health Association, Courtenay Dinwiddie and Dr. Thomas D. Wood are associated with Herbert Hoover, the president, in a great undertaking, the slogan of which is "To Save the Mother and Child." Mr. Dinwiddie is the general executive of the Association and Dr. Wood one of the three vice-presidents.

Both these officials are splendidly equipped for the tasks they have undertaken. Mr. Dinwiddie was connected from 1904 to 1907 with Bellevue and its allied hospitals of New York, whence he went to Duluth, where for three years he was active in developing social service and health bodies. He was superintendent of Public Welfare there and was responsible for its celebrated housing code.

From Duluth Mr. Dinwiddie went to Cincinnati. At first he was superintendent of the Anti-Tuberculosis League, but later fathered the Public Health Federation. He was also associated with a health experiment in the Mohawk-Brighton district, which established new standards and methods for the protection of the health of babies and younger children especially. As executive secretary of the National Child Health Council, a group of six big organizations formed in 1920, he was prominently identified with the first successful step in the coordination of National health activities, a movement which led directly to the recent amalgamation which brought about the American Child Health Association.

Dr. Wood long has been recognized as an authority on child health and has devoted much of his time to this work. He is college physician and professor of physical education at Teachers' College, Columbia University. As chairman of the Joint committee of the American Medical Association and the National Education Association he has been especially active in developing standards for the health of school children.

The American Child Health Association has taken the "Children's Bill of Rights," drawn up by Mr. Hoover, as a declaration of its purposes.

The American Child Health Association's national headquarters is at 532 Seventeenth Street, Washington, D. C. Applications for membership may be made to the treasurer, Corcoran Thom, at that address.

DR. THOMAS D. WOOD

WAS LIKE HAMLET

"Dreary, flat, stale and unprofitable blessings to me all the uses of this world."

These words of Hamlet represent somewhat the feelings of Diann May, chief character in "The Young Diana" a vivid Paramount picture starring Marion Davies, which comes to White's Theatre next Tuesday.

At least these were her feelings until she took herself in hand, decided to begin life anew in a foreign land. She had read of marvelous elixir of life—a rejuvenating process offered by a famous doctor in Switzerland who was advertising for patients. And what had she to lose? she thought the man she loved had left her, she was told her father was cruel and her life was a mockery.

What happened in the mysterious laboratory—what supernatural forces came into play—what a reborn young Diana accomplished, are captivatingly divulged in this gorgeous and unforgettable photoplay. In support of Miss Davies are Forrest Stanley, as leading man; Gypsy O'Brien, Maclyn Arbuckle and Pedro de Cordoba. Robert C. Vignola and Albert Capellani directed.

PICTURE IS BASED ON KYNE'S NOVEL

Peter B. Kyne's "Pride of Palomar," besides appearing in book form, ran as a serial in Cosmopolitan magazine. It is familiar to many thousands, and the announcement that it has been produced on the screen by Cosmopolitan Productions for Paramount is one which will greatly interest local picture fans. The picture comes to White's Theatre Thursday.

To many also the fact that Frank Borzage who created "Humoresque," and other notable pictures, directed "The Pride of Palomar" will be an assurance of the high quality of this production.

The picture has a powerful theme. It deals with the struggle of a young Californian for possession of the family ranch in California against the father of the girl he loves. The girl, played by Marjorie Daw, has to face the consequences of her stand, between her father and her lover, and it is absorbing and thrilling to see how she solves the problem.

Forrest Stanley and Miss Daw are the featured players of an all star cast, which includes James Barrow, Joseph Dowling, Warner Oland and other artistic screen artists.

"$5.00 BABY" COMING STARS VIOLA DANA

A photoplay which has been heralded as one of the season's best is coming to White's Theatre Wednesday. It is Metro's "The Five Dollar Baby" with the charming Viola Dana in the stellar role. Irvin S. Cobb wrote the story, which appeared some time ago in the Saturday Evening Post.

Miss Dana's newest characterization is that of a miss who has been adopted as a foundling by paybroker, with whom she has been left. She appears in the play first as a tom boy of thirteen causing havoc among the children in New York's Ghetto, where the story has its setting. Later, she appears as a grown-up miss, with her boarding-school days behind her, and she promptly falls in love.

The life of the Ghetto is remarkably pictured in the photoplay. Harry Beaumont, who directed the picture, has introduced a number of types which provide much amusement.

Ralph Lewis appears as the Jewish pawnbroker in an exceptionally fine characterization. Others in the cast are John Harron, Tom McGuire, Estro Hoffman, Arthur Rankin and Marjorie Maurice. Rex Taylor adapted the story for the screen. John Arnold was responsible for the photography and A. F. Mantz was art and technical director.

CROOK FIGHTS TO SAVE A PRINCESS

Fancy a crook fighting for a princess? You don't have to fancy it, though you can see it if you go to see "The Face in the Fog" at White's Theatre next Friday. Lionel Barrymore playing the part of Boston Blackie Dawson, is the crook, and his princess, the Grand Duchess Tatiana of Russia, is in real life beautiful Seena Owen.

Seldom has Mr. Barrymore had a more advantageous opportunity for the display of his histrionic talents. In this picture he depicts the change of a crook into a peaceful citizen and back to a crook again—but this time he is not a crook for the crook's sake but a crook for a woman's sake. It is the only way in which Boston Blackie can save the life of the Grand Duchess Tatiana.

EASTER LILY SEEDS NOW GROWN IN U. S.

Washington, April 7.—Easter lilies can now be grown from seed in this country. Once it was necessary to depend upon imported bulbs from Bermuda. Then Japan got into the market and ten million bulbs have been imported from the Orient.

But now, say the scientists of the American Nature Association, better as well as earlier maturing lilies can be produced right at home. This is the result of six years of study at the Arlington Experimental Farm in Virginia at the foot of the hill crowned by the Memorial Amphitheater, where lies the body of the Unknown Soldier.

The individual grower can raise his own seed by purchasing imported bulbs either in the early winter or at Easter when most of the plants are in blossom, and grow seed for planting the following January. The Americanized lilies blossom in from 15 to 18 months. This decreases the exposure of the bulbs to disease and markedly speeds up their commercial production.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET MONDAY

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Memorial Baptist church will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the church.

MEXICAN PUBLIC AROUSED AGAINST BULL FIGHTERS

Mexico City, April 7.—(By Associated Press.)—The bullfight season in Mexico City has come to an in-schedule time, with the management in disfavor, the toradors dissatisfied, and the public in general disgruntled. "El Torero" arena has been turned over to prize fights and grand opera, and the sports loving public, if it desires to see bullfights, must journey to other cities in the republic where corridas will be continued. The situation is causing more discussion and speculation than riot or revolution of almost any magnitude could command.

Grumbings against the local management started early last fall when it was discovered that no Spanist bulls, considered the best fighters in the business, had been contracted for the Mexico City corridas. Native stock is good, but Spanish bulls are better. Then, Rodolfo Gadna, the idol of Mexican bullfight fans, had an off season. He committed the unpardonable sin several months ago of allowing the animal to be returned to the corral. His former worshippers turned to jeer him, and after another futile effort to regain his popularity Rodolfo suddenly announced that he would never again appear in a Mexico City arena. His decision put a decided crimp in the sport which received another blow when Marcial Lalanda, considered the best product of Spain this year, announced that he, too, would abstain from fighting in the Mexican capital.

With Gaona and Lalanda out of the game and others of the lesser fighters showing slight indication to please the management decided to close the season prematurely. It was ever hinted that there was a well contrived conspiracy to discredit Gaona and Lalanda in favor of other matadors who were seeking to replace the top-notchers.

At any rate, the season closed during the latter days of February and sport writers are serious in predicting that if the season next year is no better, bullfighting in Mexico will be an abandoned sport.

English Taxes Are Overdue.

London, April 5.—(By Associated Press.)—Many million pounds are due the British treasury from unpaid super-tax and income tax assessments, according to the chancellor of the exchequer, Stanley Baldwin. The total amounts to about $118,500,000 or approximately $590,000,000. The income tax arrears alone amount to $95,000,000.

In Great Britain and northern Ireland there are approximately 5,000,000 people with incomes above the exemption limit, but the tax liabilities of roughly one-half of this number are covered by personal allowances, deductions and reliefs.
