F. P. LATHAM IS ELECTED HEAD OF DRAINAGE ASSO.

Next Meeting Will be Held in Belhaven, Home Town of President

New Bern, April 19.—Election of F. P. Latham, of Belhaven, as president for the ensuing year, selection of his town as the place of meeting for the 1924 convention and a speech by Senator F. M. Simmons at the Chamber of Commerce banquet were features of the final day's program of the thirteenth annual convention of the North Carolina Drainage Association here today.

At the afternoon session the following officers were named to serve with President Latham: W. D. Alexander, of Charlotte, vice president, and B. M. Potter, of New Bern, secretary-treasurer, to succeed Col. Joseph Hyde Pratt, of Chapel Hill. Col. Pratt and John H. Small, retiring president, and three others to be appointed by the new president will constitute the executive committee. The association also voted for the appointment of a vice president from each of the twenty-three counties which were represented.

The banquet given by the Chamber of Commerce and presided over by C. C. Kirkpatrick, its president, was outstanding in the day's session because of the address by Senator Simmons. For an hour and forty-five minutes he held his hearers with a discussion of the attitude of Congress toward drainage and reclamation work. Congressional support at present is uncertain, the Senator said, but he expressed the belief that substantial federal aid was coming. This type of reclamation has not taken concrete form with the government, was his view. Reclamation by irrigation was more easily found constitutional because of ownership by the government. This was not the case in the areas needing drainage, however.

The morning program was taken up by addresses by drainage experts. General methods and supervision of construction and maintenance in drainage were discussed by W. K. Allen, engineer, of Wilmington; F. F. Wetmore, of Lambertson, and Pat Johnson, of Pantego. M. E. Sherwin, of the State College faculty, reported for his committee on soil characteristics, and E. W. Gaither, district agricultural agent of Wilmington, told of the possibilities of reclaimed swamp lands.

For construction of tile drainage, Eastern North Carolina clay deposits are very desirable, Col. Pratt told the convention in his report on the manufacture of drain tile in North Carolina. The needs and benefits of tile drainage were discussed by F. O. Bertel, U. S. engineer of the Department of agriculture.

The convention was adjourned at 5 o'clock and tonight delegates are leaving for their homes.

ORGANIZATION OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS BEING EXPLAINED

Rev. Louis Entzinger Delivers Second Address on An Organized Sunday School

Rev. Louis Entzinger who will on next Sunday begin a series of revival services in Forbes and Marton's warehouse, delivered his second address on the organization of Sunday schools, last night, to a large and interested congregation. Tonight he will speak on the administration of the Sunday school.

Mr. Entzinger is a great Sunday school worker and has been successful in all his endeavors to make the Sunday schools soul winning organizations. The church in order to do its best work must have a good Sunday school and in order for the school to accomplish its purposes two things are absolutely necessary, organization and co-operation.

In order for a Sunday school to grow it has to have a plan by which the people can be reached, and in developing this point Mr. Entzinger gave as the three ways to build the Sunday school. First, take a census, know who is to be reached and find out who they are: Second, a graded school-classes of same age with a teacher and secretary; and third, adequate organization. At this point the speaker showed how, if people are interested, they will make room and provide a way for the people to be brought into the work of the Sunday school.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services. They are proving of great help to those interested in Sunday school work, and Mr. Entzinger's experience and knowledge of the work will be of untold value to the Sunday schools of Greenville.

COPPER STILL AND BEER CAPTURED BY COUNTY OFFICERS

Traffic Members Again Feel Strong Arm of Law When Outfit is Taken

The illicit whiskey traffic of this section again felt the strong arm of the law yesterday when Sheriff Jackson and three deputies succeeded in capturing a big still near Galloway's Cross Roads, about three hundred yards back of the saw mill.

When captured the still was in operation and a lard stand into which the beverage was running was two-thirds full.

The still was superior to the usual type employed in the manufacture of contraband whiskey in this immediate section of the state, being constructed entirely of copper and capable of distilling sixty gallons of beverage at a time. The outfit, the second captured in that immediate section within the last week, was one of the most complete captured in several weeks and indicates that the owners are turning out a superior kind of whiskey.

A negro who had been placed on the road as a guard, saw the officers approaching and shot three times, giving the operators time to get away.

The still was brought back to town and placed in the confiscated cell in the county jail. Four barrels of beer were poured out and the barrels demolished.

SHRINERS CEREMONIAL TO BE HELD ON MAY 17 IN WASHINGTON

Washington, N. C., April 20.—Plans are being made to give the Shriners of this section the best ceremonial session in Sudan's history on May 17.

The entertainment will start on the night of May 16th with a public reception to the Potentate at the Elks Home. On the morning of the 17th the business session at the New Theatre will be followed by the big parade. Loving cups are offered for "best appearance in parade," "best float," and "greatest mileage traveled."

A luncheon will be served on the banks of the Pamlico river and the guests will have a ride around the harbor. The patrol is arranging some stunts that will be especially interesting to the novices and the director of work promises plenty of surprises. The ceremonial session will be preceded by a Shrine sing with band accompaniment. At the same hour the ladies will be given a boat ride down the beautiful Pamlico river. At 5:30 the visitors will be entertained by boat races. The traditional banquet will be followed by a display of Shrine fireworks on the river and the Shrine ball will bring the day to a close. A silver loving cup will be presented to the most attractive young lady at the dance.

THE SUGAR PRICE PROBE MAY RESULT IN PROSECUTIONS

Injunction Suit Filed to Protect Public Against Present Exorbitant Figures.

Washington, April 19.—Criminal prosecutions may follow an injunction suit filed in New York today by the federal government to protect the public against exorbitant sugar prices.

The first phase of the government action against the alleged sugar conspiracy was completed with institution of the civil injunction process to prevent speculative trading on the New York sugar exchange. The criminal phase was held in abeyance, but acting attorney General E. A. Tamm announced that it was under serious consideration.

Final decision regarding criminal action was said officially to be before Attorney General Daugherty, who is now at Asheville, N. C. He was personally active in drafting the injunction suit based on the Sherman anti-trust law and anti-trust provision of the Wilson tariff act and was said to be considered a request upon the federal grand jury for original indictment under the conspiracy provisions of the Sherman act of the defendants named in today's civil suit.

Another development today in the sugar situation was reported to President Harding by the tariff commission, which was found that duties of the new Fordney-McCumber tariff act were not a factor in the recent increase in sugar prices. The commission declared the increase was due to other causes and that if the tariff was reduced or removed, the tendency would be to decrease production of American beet sugar and increase imports of the foreign product.

The government in the New York injunction suit, designed to close the New York coffee and sugar exchange and the New York Coffee & Sugar Clearing Association, Inc., to future or speculative trading in sugar, was unusually speedy and vigorous. It also constituted a new and extraordinary legal development of anti-trust prosecutions in its attempts to stop speculation on a commodity exchange a precedent which, if finally established by the Supreme Court, government counsel said, might lead to important future expansion of the Sherman laws effect. At the White House it was said it would be novel and important to determine for the future whether the government has the power to prevent speculation in food stuffs, and also in fixing prices of which have a tendency to fluctuate abnormally.

COMMUNIST MOBS HOLDING MULHEIM

At Eight-Thirty O'clock Last Night a Steady Rifle Fire Was Being Maintained

Cologne, April 20.—(By Associated Press.)—Communist mobs were holding Mulheim completely in their power at least as late as eight-thirty last evening and a steady rifle fire was being maintained on the city hall in which Cuy officials and a band of Daisburg security police had taken refuge according to an Essen dispatch filed at that hour. The report adds that all Cuy exit were barricaded and that the rioters were armed with regulation infantry rifles as well as with such firearms as flint locks and hunting pieces.

EIGHT PERSONS ARE DEAD AND THIRTY WOUNDED IN DISTURBANCE IN MULHEIM

NEGRO CHARGED WITH MURDER IS ON TRIAL TODAY

New Trial Being Ordered in Case of Junius Moore, Negro Receiving Second Hearing

The fifth day of Pitt Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases opened this morning with the hearing of the Junius Moore case in which the defendant is charged with the killing of a negro youth at one of the warehouse during the progress of a Christmas dance two years ago. This is the second time that this case has been heard in the local courts during the past few months. At the first trial Moore was found guilty by a jury and sentenced to twenty years in the State prison. From this judgment the defendant through his counsel gave notice of appeal. At the next session of the Supreme Court which convened just a few weeks following the adjournment of Pitt court, a new trial was ordered and the present hearing is the outcome of the appeal.

At the noon recess hour the case was practically completed. There remaining but the argument of the solicitor, the charge of his honor, Judge Grady and the verdict of the jury.

Yesterday afternoon was taken up with the final disposition of several minor matters. About the most important thing done was the sentencing of Frank Manning a young white man found guilty by a jury of transporting for the purpose of sale Pitt county corn liquor. The defendant was given eighteen months on the county road from which judgment through his counsel Manning took an appeal to the Supreme Court which convenes for its next session during the latter part of September. He was required to give a cash bond in the sum of $500.00.

The case of Willis Daniel, the negro boy who several weeks ago about 2:30 o'clock in the morning attempted to enter by the way of a window the residence of a citizen on Greene street was disposed of. As shown by the evidence that the negro was somewhat unbalanced, at times hardly responsible for his actions, the judge sentenced him to the county roads for a period of sixty days.

There is yet a few cases on which the presiding judge has not passed final judgment. This will probably be done during today's session. There are several minor actions calendared for hearing on tomorrow. But some of the most important of the two weeks term will be called during next week. Among these are the cases of Guy Sutton who is charged with the killing of Phillip Jefferson in this city about two years, and the hearing of Frank Wilson for the stabbing to death of Troy Harris which homicide occurred in this county only a few weeks ago.

FOUR KEGS CORN WHISKEY WILL GO INTO THE SEWER

Sixty Gallons Will be Poured Out Tomorrow Morning After Adjournment of Court

Mayor Clark says, that the four kegs of corn whiskey, representing 60 gallons taken from Geo. Jennis about 30 days ago will be poured into the sewer in front of the city offices on the corner of 5th and Cotanch streets tomorrow (Saturday morning) immediately after the adjournment of police court, and that any one desiring to observe these proceedings and wishing to sample the juice, by smell only, can do so by being on hand at said time and place. The reasons for destroying this liquor at this time are that the owner Geo. Jennis has not been apprehended and has left the state and that the time limit for holding the liquor in such cases under the new Turlington Act, has expired.

FRESHMEN TEAM OF UNIVERSITY HERE TOMORROW

Will Meet Local Highs at the Fair Grounds Saturday Afternoon at 4 O'clock

What has promise of being the best game of baseball in which the Greenville High will participate this season, is that of tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock at the Fair Grounds when the Freshmen team of the University of North Carolina will serve as their opponents.

The college boys are playing several teams through eastern part of the State during this week, and the last game scheduled on their itinerary for the present tour is with the locals. The coming visitors have one of the strongest lineups that the Freshmen outfit has presented for several seasons, and this fact alone assures the lovers of the national past time that tomorrow's contest will be interesting from the beginning to the close.

The Greenville boys have during the past ten days showed marked improvement over their previous work on the diamond for the season, and the supporters of the boys predict a close fight if not a win for Greenville. With the class of fielding and hitting now being done by nearly every member of the local high, and the invincible Zeno Brown on the mound, the Freshmen will discover that Greenville is the toughest proposition they have met during their trip eastward.

TRAFFIC OFFICER RECOMMENDED BY THE GRAND JURY

Board of Commissioners Requested to Place Authorized Officer on Surface Roads

To Honorable Henry A. Grady, Judge Presiding:

We, the Grand Jury for the April term, 1923, of Pitt County Superior Court, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have visited the offices of the Sheriff, the Clerk of the Court, the office of the Register of Deeds, the office of the Board of Education and the office of the County Auditor, and we find these offices in good shape, the records well and neatly kept. We also visited the county jail and find the same well kept. We recommend that an iron fence be placed on each side of the jail, in place of the old board fence, so as to give more light and ventilation to the prisoners.

A committee from the Grand Jury visited the convict camps and found them clean and in good condition otherwise, the prisoners well fed and satisfied with their situation as far as one could expect.

We found conditions at the county home very good. The inmates are all well cared for and seem to be happy. The sanitary condition of the home is very good. We recommend that the plastering, which is now in bad condition, have attention at once. It is loose overhead and likely to fall at anytime. We also recommend that there be sufficient help given to the keeper of the county home to assist him in planting and taking care of his crop and stock.

We recommend that the county health officer make monthly visits to the convict camps.

We recommend that the county auditor require the Superintendent of the county work to take an inventory of all tools, check up and report the same once a month.

We recommend that the Board of Commissioners for the county of Pitt see to it that a duly authorized officer is placed on each of the hard-surfaced roads of Pitt county vested with full authority to arrest any person violating the speed law or who drives a vehicle recklessly and while under the influence of liquor. The Grand Jury makes an earnest request that prompt action be taken in this matter.

We wish to thank the presiding judge, the solicitor and all court officers for their courtesy and kindness extended to us during our work as Grand Jurors at this term.

Respectfully submitted, C. W. HARVEY, Foreman.

VALUABLE HISTORIC DATA FOUND IN MOON GOD SHRINE

London, April.—(By Associated Press.)—Recent dispatches from C. L. Woolley, director of the joint archaeological expedition sent to the ancient city of Ur, in Babylonia, by the University of Pennsylvania and the British Museum, show that the Temple of the Moon God has been almost completely uncovered and that the main wall of the temenos, or enclosure, has been traced for a considerable distance. Inscriptions and tablets have been found in large numbers. These tablets are of unbaked clay and highly fragile. Mr. Woolley has devised a new method for their preservation, which is more elaborate than any hitherto applied.

The few tablets that have been examined so far are of the Sumerian period, about 2000 B. C., and relate to accounts, money and so forth. It is impossible however, to estimate their value until they have been subjected to a more careful examination. Sculptures of some size were discovered toward the close of the excavations, but particulars of these have not yet been received.

Under a floor of the Persian period (650 B. C.) a hoard of jewelry was found. It included gold and silver bracelets, gold rings, a gold statuette of a woman, silver bowls, necklaces of semi-precious stones, and other objects.

THREE-SIDED EVENTS TO FEATURE EASTERN VARSITY CREW RACES

New York, April.—(By Associated Press.)—This year's college rowing program in the east reveals a marked trend toward triangular races instead of dual events. Five of the eleven major varsity contests scheduled between April 21 and June 28 are three-cornered affairs. They promise to develop some of the most interesting competition in recent years.

The first triangular event is the Childs Cup race at Philadelphia, Apr. 28, when Columbia, Pennsylvania and Princeton renew their old rivalry. The date is earlier this year than usual.

One week later, Yale, Pennsylvania and Columbia will meet on the Housatonic River at Derby, Conn., in their first triangular event. This race will be repeated in the next two years, under a three-year agreement by the colleges to scrap their former dual races and substitute the three-crew event on the "home and home" basis. Columbia, Harvard, Navy and Princeton will get together on Lake Carnegie at Princeton.

The fourth and fifth three-cornered regattas are scheduled for May 19. Navy, Syracuse and Pennsylvania will row at Annapolis, while Cornell, Princeton and Yale races on Lake Cayuga, Ithaca. If Princeton beat Harvard May 5, the latter event will settle the crown for the Big Three. If Princeton loses in both, it will remain for the Yale-Harvard classic June 22, on the Thames river at New London, to decide the question of supremacy.

May 19 also is the date for two dual events on the Harlem river at New York—one between Columbia and Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the other between the 150-pound crews of Columbia and Pennsylvania.

The opening races of the season, April 21, is a dual race between Pennsylvania and the Navy on the Severn river. A week later, M. I. T. crosses blades with the midshipmen at Annapolis.

Second crews of the M. I. T. and Harvard are slated to meet on the Charles river May 12. On the same date an interesting interscholastic race among leading eastern "prep" and high school crews is scheduled at New Haven.

Harvard and Cornell will seek supremacy on the Charles river May 26 and four days later the Crimson's 150-pound eight will meet the lightweight Yale boat at Derby for the first time.

Several college teams will enter the American Henley regatta on the Schuylkill river, Philadelphia, May 26. Princeton already has entered three crews, junior, third varsity and 150-pound eights.

The intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson at Doughkeepsie, June 28, will furnish the climax of the rowing season. The redoubtable Navy eight, which closed its brilliant career by winning the championship for the second consecutive time last June, will not be represented this year but the competition promises to be none the less keen.

Cornell, Columbia, Pennsylvania and Syracuse—the four members of the I. A. A.—will compete, while it is possible that the Pacific Coast champions, either Washington or California University, may come east for the blue ribbon classic of the season. The University of Wisconsin also was invited to take part, but declined not to do so.

DR. E. C. BROOKS HEADS CLOTHING DRIVE IN STATE

State School Head Asks North Carolinians to Save Human Lives By Sending In Cast-off Clothing.

A campaign for old clothing, to keep Armenian sufferers from freezing to death next winter, will be held during the last week of April in every county in North Carolina, announcement has just been made from State Headquarters of the Near East Relief in Raleigh.

Dr. E. C. Brooks, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has been appointed state clothing chairman for this drive, which will come to its climax May 1. Asaphus Dunfells, honorary state chairman, and Col. George H. Bellamy, state chairman of the financial campaign, will actively assist Dr. Brooks.

Most of the county chairmen who raised their quotas in the campaign just ended for money to feed these children and refugees, will handle this campaign for old clothes. It is pointed out that housewives in their spring cleaning will be more than glad to get rid of this cast-off winter clothing, and at the same time save human lives thereby.

Lack of clothing was so acute last winter that, in spite of the generosity of the American people, hundreds of women and children were found who had dragged themselves for miles suffering from acute rheumatism and pneumonia, simply for lack of clothing. Others just froze to death by the wayside. North Carolina made a generous response last year, but some of the other states failed to do their duty by humanity.

May 1st has been designated as "Jumble Day" by Dr. Brooks, and everyone in this county is asked to take or ship their cast-off winter clothing to the Near East Relief county chairman, or send it by parcel post or freight to the Near East Relief Clothing Warehouse, Raleigh, N. C.

Dr. Brooks believes that everyone should have at least one complete suit of clothing which they are about to cast-off for the winter, and points out that if sent to the Near East Relief this suit will save a human life in the battle between Christianity and Mohammedanism. Every complete suit of warm clothing—coat or sweater, trousers, heavy socks, shoes, heavy underwear, woolen shirt and cap, or the equivalent in women's clothing will save a life.

North Carolina's goal is set by Dr. Brooks as 29,000 lives.

167, in the office of the register of deeds of Pitt county, the undersigned commissioner will on Saturday, the 21st day of April, 1923, at 12 o'clock noon, expose to public sale before the court house door in Greenville, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real property, to-wit:

All that certain tract or parcel of land situated in Chicod township Pitt county, N. C., and being tract No. 5 in the subdivision of the O. C. Nobles Farm, as surveyed and plotted by F. C. Slurs, C. E., as appears of record in Map Book No. 2, page 4 in the register's office in Pitt county, said lot No. 5 containing 24.5 acres.

This sale will be made for the purpose of satisfying the terms of said deed of trust.

This the 19th day of March, 1923.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION HELD INTERESTING MEETING

The Parent-Teacher Association of Evans Street school held its regular meeting April 18th. The meeting was opened with a piano solo by Miss Edna Smith.

A matter of interest to all was a report showing the gain in weight made by the children who have been drinking milk. Each child had gained as much as half a pound, while some had gained three, four or five pounds.

Mr. Herington presented an interesting plan for our next meeting. A set of questions relating to school and home are to be issued. These are to be discussed at the next meeting. It is hoped that much will be gained by both parent and teacher.

The prize for attendance was awarded the G. A. grade.

REGIONAL SECRETARY OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH HERE

Mrs. Downey, regional secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Christian church with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga. was in Greenville Thursday and met the executive committee of the local organization at the home of Mr. Woolard in the afternoon. The members of this committee present were Mrs. W. P. Shastar, Mrs. T. D. Parcell, Mrs. H. H. Sattie, Mrs. J. B. Moore, Mrs. W. H. Wagland, Mrs. B. B. Euge and Mrs. J. A. Jones.

She gave an address on missions in the church auditorium at 7:30. All who had the pleasure of hearing this address were impressed with her energy and capability of handling her subject and the manner in which she delivered it.

She gave in connection with her general topic of missions, a very beautiful version of John's narrative of Jesus at the Well and his conversation to the woman of Samaria. She emphasized the fact that he had a commission, even for the most lowly, if they will only hear his voice, when he speaks. She omitted the usual statistics that we generally expect in a talk on this subject and gave only interesting and touching facts and illustrations that were helpful and entertaining.

I am sure Mrs. Downey will always be welcomed with enthusiasm by those who had the privilege of hearing her last night.

MRS. J. A. JONES, Secretary.

WOULD YOU MARRY JUST TO BE POLITE?

If you happen to save a lady a cool million dollars, does politeness demand that you marry her?

Herbert Rawlinson endeavors to solve that problem in "One Wonderful Night," the Universal film which will be presented at the Strand Theatre on tomorrow.

Lois Tracy, who wrote the stage play by the same name is noted as one of the leading writers of romantic mystery stories in the world, and "One Wonderful Night" is one of the most popular tales he has ever written.

The story is woven around a young American who returns to New York City after five years spent in China. On his first night in the metropolis, he is plunged into a thrilling series of experiences.

Stuart Paton directed the production in which Rawlinson is supported by such players as Dale Fuller, Lillian Rich, Sidney Bracy, Spats, woods Aitken and Jean De Briac.

Laziness and patience are not synonymous but they are often mistaken for each other.

Eat potatoes and grow fat. Be courteous and scatter a little happiness. This is both "potato" and "courtesy" week.

The day has been when people considered the airship one of the most dangerous ways to travel, but if automobiles continue to collide with trains, wagons and horses and even a crowd of people standing on the street, thereby killing and injuring them, the public will only be safe "up in the air."

Now the railroad men will have to learn the lesson that two trains can't meet on the same track without a "smash-up." It was a terrible collision which resulted in two freights going together with the igniting of three cars of alcohol, the destruction of eleven cars, by fire, and the fatal burns received by two men.

Greenville's curb market will soon be a reality, but in order for it to be a success, the hearty support of all classes is absolutely essential. It has proven a great success wherever it has been given a fair trial, and it can and will do the same thing in this city. It is the duty of every business man and organization to provide marketing facilities, and to encourage them in every way possible so that benefits can be derived from same. All together for a great and successful curb market.

The Republicans claim that the tariff was not intended to raise the price of sugar, and perhaps they think that they are right, but if a protective tariff accomplishes its purpose the consumer is bound to get the worst end of the bargain. "Sweets" come high when they sell at an ordinary price, not mentioning what happens when a tariff comes into it.

Mr. Hoover is about as changeable as the weather. First he was for the League of Nations regardless of which party was in power. Now he has changed his views and a few days ago advocated the World Court. It is doubtful, in the mind of the public, if he really knows what he does want. At any rate his influence isn't going to count much either way.

Belgium is little, but it is loyal to its friends. She has declared that she will stick to France until complete satisfaction has been obtained in the Ruhr. If any country has any right to hate Germany, then Belgium is certainly entitled to the privilege. She has seen the day when Germany considered her only a door mat at the entrance into France—and they used the mat to their advantage. "Everything comes to him that waits"—perhaps Belgium will some day be rewarded for its loyalty when it threw out the challenge, "You Shall Not Pass," to that great and terrible army of Huns.

and Loan Association is making a remarkable growth was evidenced from its advertisement yesterday. Thirty-nine homes were erected, by and while under the influence of the Association during 1922, which perhaps would never have been erected had not the money come through this channel. The prospects for this year are even brighter, the goal being fifty if not more homes. When we consider nearly a hundred houses being built in a town the size of Greenville, within two years time, by a Building and Loan Association, the figures seem almost impossible, but figures in this instance tell the truth. It is a great Association and has been of untold value to hundreds of people.

"The man without a country," a picture from the novel by that name, by Edward Everett Hale, and which teaches a great lesson of Patriotism and Americanism will be shown in Greenville in the near future, under the auspices of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion. The production should receive the support of every man, woman and child throughout this section—not only on account of the lesson it teaches, but because "our post of the legion," one of which we are justly proud, is endeavoring to give to the people something really worth while. This will be the eleventh town in the state in which the wonderful picture will be presented.

Mr. Wilson, when he was so anxious for the United States to enter the League of Nations, and saw his hopes fade away, intimated that at some time we would find it hard to keep away from the League. He is not a prophet, nor does he claim to be one, but his prediction seems to be true—even if the Republicans are trying to camouflage the issue to the extent that it does not sound like a Wilson idea. They are trying to use the same pattern on a different piece of goods. Still some little narrow-minded law breakers say that the "judge is too hard on them." If some of the offenders were given their just deserts they would never come out of prison again. They had better take their medicine and keep their mouths shut. When Judge Grady pronounces a sentence, that is one time when silence is golden.

AUTO IMMORALITY

A well-known farmer of Wake county is making vigorous complaint of the immorality practiced by Raleigh people in the country and almost under the eyes of the country people, and declares that the country people are up in arms against the practices complained of and are disposed to take drastic measures to abolish the evil, which is going on when automobiles park on the side of the roads for hours, while their occupants can not be found.

We feel that even if all this is going on in Wake, that our county, of which we are so proud, is guilty of having just such night riding and just as much immorality. It is no unusual thing to go on the Greenville-Morrisville or Ayden roads, at night, and see cars parked in the church yards (there is no preaching going on) and up in the woods or along the side of the road. The occupants are missing, they are out of sight and are not visiting. These facts are deplorable, but they are true, and if the mothers and fathers do not put a stop to it, then who can blame the country people? The roads were paved for their benefit and not to become a nuisance. The youth of this country are to be the men and women of tomorrow and unless some drastic steps are taken to stop just such practices of immorality or questionable acts it is sad indeed to think of what is going to happen. The farmer in Wake county is right in denouncing such a menace to the morals of the youths of the country, and he will no doubt put the people on their guard.

STOP THE SPEEDEES

The Grand Jury in its report, yesterday, is certainly to be commended for recommending to the Board of Commissioners that they have a duly authorized officer placed on each of the hard surfaced roads of Pitt county.

LET'S PAINT UP

While Clean-up Week is in progress it would also be most appropriate to have a Paint-Up Week. Nothing adds to the appearance of any city as much as newly painted houses and public buildings. Several years ago while a religious campaign was in progress in this city and the singer was complimenting the people for their hospitality and co-operation during the meeting he added by way of expressing his appreciation, "You have the most wonderful city, for its size, which we ever visited. Everything looks so clean and sanitary and your homes look as if they all had a new coat of paint, and this alone has added much to our pleasure." Evidently Greenville had just had a Paint-up Week. If owners of residences on the edge of town and especially those on the streets, which lead into the hard surfaced roads, would put a new coat of paint on their homes and out houses, then the approach to our city would be beautiful indeed. First impressions last, and visitors coming to Greenville will always remember how Greenville looked when they first entered it. It is surprising to know just how a little paint will improve the looks of a home.

BOY SCOUTS IN CHESTER, PA., ARE DRILLED IN TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

Boy Scouts of Chester, Pa., received a practical lesson in civic government when they took over the town and managed its administration as part of their big celebration held in that city recently. The earnest Boy Scouts had spent considerable time studying civic affairs, so when it was time to take charge of the city fathers and all other public officials simply stepped out and gave them free rein. Scout Harry Johnson, pictured above halting a Speed Wagon, was detailed to direct traffic at one of the main street intersections of Chester. The nature of his discussion with the driver of the Red product is evident from the position of the traffic sign.

SAYS SNOBBISM IN MUSIC HURTS AMERICAN OPERA

Chicago, April. — (By Associated Press).—Artistic snobbism should be abolished at once and for all time, or as a nation we can leave no trace behind, declared Mrs. Archibald Freer, chairman of the Opera in our Language Foundation in an address to the Affiliated Clubs of Chicago.
"There is patriotism in art, or there is no patriotism at all" continued Mrs. Freer. "Had the countries of Europe followed our past policies, there would have been no Wagner, no Verdi or DeBussy."
"We as a nation have a language; we have American trained singers and more than 70 American operas fit for hearing in any opera house in this country and to have them banished from companies incorporated in the United States is an injustice every true-hearted American should resent."
"Every country of Europe is singing its own vernacular, which means they are building up their own national music and literature. They take good or bad translations, but insist on their own language."
"But we must go still further. How can we build up good citizenship with a condition existing such as three score foreign language newspapers in Chicago in which no word of English appears? We cannot carry facts or art to the citizen who does not know our language.

"These newspapers and all like them by governmental decree, should be bilingual. Our children will have no careers in this artistic field if we do not demand opera in English of all companies incorporated in the United States.

"Poor translations are being harped upon, but without cause, for in the private library of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, masterly translations are being made of the foreign operatic repertory, later to be given to our public opera companies. Cooperation of the public, every small community that has singers, choral

unfortunate accident which happened at a maternity home in Lwow
A woman gave birth to a healthy boy, but the baby returned to her after it had been bathed, proved to be a girl. A search was ordered, but the finding of the right baby was not an easy matter, as the mother could not recognize her child from the six boys and three girls born that day.

AVIATORS REPORT NO LOSS OF LIFE DURING 3 MONTHS

Rantoul, Ill., April.—(By Associated Press.)—Not a fatality has been checked against the air service during the three months that have elapsed since Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the United States Air Service issued orders to the commanding officers at Chanute, Bolling, Langley, Mitchell, McCook and Selfridge Fields to inaugurate regular scheduled flights over a model airway over the eastern and middle western states, according to records here.

The model air course takes in New York, Hampton, Va., Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Kokomo Ind., and Rantoul. Each field dispatches a plane bi-weekly.

The records show that the first flights were not all completed on schedule time but each trip has shown an improvement. A trip recently completed was from Chanute Field to Dayton, O., to Columbus, O., back to Dayton, to Moundsville, W. Va., to Washington to Cumberland, Md., to New York, back to Washington, to Moundsville, to Cleveland, to Detroit, to Toledo, back to Detroit, to Kokomo, Ind., and return to Chanute Field. The distance covered was more than 2200 miles and the total actual flying time was 22 hours and ten minutes.

While no aviator was killed, yet the flights were far from devoid of excitement and hairbreadth escapes.

Major F. L. Martin in a recent trip left Chanute on a route which covered 1800 miles. He was furnished with trip maps, covering the entire route, but only for territory a few miles on each side of the route. The only landing place between Zanesville, O., and Washington is Moundsville, the remaining landscape being almost continuously mountains. Being behind schedule, Major Martin tried a more direct route than that outlined and almost immediately ran into a strong headwind and dense clouds. He was blown off his course while flying over mountains. After some time of aimless flying, trying to obtain his bearings, he suddenly realized his gas was getting low, his oil was almost gone, and that he had no place to land. He was rather high at the time and dropped down to try for a landing. Just before his gas gave out he saw a town and recognized it as Moundsville, his original objective. On landing safely he found he had only three gallons of gasoline left and no oil.

Lieutenant Floyd A. Lundell started the only flight in the three months that was not carried to a successful conclusion, but fellow aviators look upon him as having a charmed life. His first mishap on his route from Chanute to New York was when a spark plug went wrong and he was forced down near Wheeling, W. Va. He repaired the damage and took off again only to find dense clouds confronting him. When he had climbed above them he learned he was out of oil. He again landed safely, replenished his oil tank and was off again for Washington. He arrived there a day late, but went on immediately to New York intending to make up time by returning to Washington the same afternoon. Lieut. Lundell started from New York just before twilight and a strong wind almost immediately blew him off his course. He finally found himself on the edge of Chesapeake Bay fighting an outgoing wind. He was forced to land, but it was too dark to see the ground. He finally decided to go it blind and lane in a field, but Lady Luck had her back turned the other way and he hit the only tree in the field. His plane crashed and was demolished, but the aviator escaped with a slight cut over the eye.

TRADE BOARD REPORTS BETTERMENT IN SWEDEN

Stockholm, April.—(By Associated Press.)—The clearing-up process of the years of depression has laid a firm foundation for improvement and general prosperity in Sweden, and the critical period of liquidation has passed through its final phase, according to the official economic review of the first quarter of this year, which has just been issued by the Swedish Board of Trade.

Significant facts set forth in the review are the stabilization in industrial stocks since the beginning of the year, and the notable rise in industrial production, though labor conflicts and the Ruhr situation have caused temporary reaction. Considerable progress has been shown, especially by the lumber, wood pulp, and paper industries. The iron, steel and machine shop industries, however, have had only a slight increase in production.

The number of business failures and bills protested has been steadily decreasing. The banks report that the withdrawal of savings by small depositors has now been reduced to normal proportions.

Some alarm, however, is caused by the present labor conflict which involves 65,000 men in the wood and iron industries. If prolonged this strike may materially influence Sweden's exports during 1923, and may cause a rise in prices for these Swedish staple products for which the marketing prospects are otherwise good.

A statistical analysis of Sweden's total foreign trade for 1922 based on volume instead of values, shows that both exports and imports have been increasing since the middle of 1921, and at the end of last year had passed the normal line for 1913. This, the review says, is one of the most trustworthy evidences that normal conditions in foreign trade have been restored.

GOV. MAY SAVE MONEY BY COORDINATING ITS LEASES

(Associated Press.)—Plans for saving the government large sums of money in rent and realty transactions, through co-operation with the National Association of Real Estate Boards, have been mapped out by the Federal Real Estate Board.

The government has about 9,000 leases, representing an aggregate rental of $21,000,000. Co-ordinating work will eliminate duplication, utilize waste space and in other ways effect a material saving in Uncle Sam's rent bill.

One instance, where three separate departments of the government were leasing space in one building at three different scales of rent, is cited as an illustration of the possibility of saving large amounts by co-ordinating all of the government's rental activities in a central board.

Meatless Days for Refugees.
Manila, April.—(By Associated Press.)—The Russian refugees under Admiral Stark who are held at the Mariveles quarantine station, have decided to observe two almost meatless days a week in order to reduce the cost of living.

A small ration of bacon is the only meat they will receive on Tuesdays and Fridays and by limiting the diet to this extent the supply officers of the ships which brought 800 men women and children to Mariveles from Vladivostok, say that the daily cost of rations per person will be reduced from 24 cents to 22 9-10 cents

FRANCE ANTICIPATES POLITICAL GUIDANCE BY YOUNG CHIEFS

Paris, April 19.—(By Associated Press)—Look forward and not backward; build resolutely upward with no complaint about the past...

No parliament in a republic will be real without an opposition, and the fact that Tardieu heads the party that keeps its eye on every move of the cabinet does not mean that in these days of troublesome reconstruction he is in any sense less patriotic than his fellow countrymen.

The ultimate object of the Association, which has Herbert Hoover as president, is to give every American child an equal chance to be healthy. It will deal with the health of the child from nine months before his birth to his final arrival at maturity.

French occupation of the Ruhr was insufficiently prepared and acts adequate organization. The United States, which Tardieu knows so well, strikes him from this angle. He deems that an urgent need of the French people is that they should know America and Americans better.

He does not believe in propaganda. He knows France has nothing to hide, but fears that the impression of "something to conceal" gets abroad because of the difficulty foreigners have in obtaining facts which interest them.

Such are some of the ideas of younger France as represented by Tardieu. All France is watching him. Everybody seems convinced that until the Ruhr problem is settled in a way favorable to France, every Frenchman will stand solidly behind Poincare, and the existing government of France, but when this crisis is over younger leaders may be called to carry on the work of building the great France of the future, and it is then that Tardieu's friends expect to see him in the front ranks.

To enable priests to know which are allowed, the Bulgarian church has issued a catalogue of names. This list is placed at the disposal of parents. Baptism is obligatory in Bulgaria, and the priests are the official registrars.

BESEECH CITY JAILER TO GIVE BED AND BOARD

Vienna, April — (By Associated Press.)—It is hard luck to be out of work these days in Vienna, but to be out of work and out of jail at the same time is a sign that your hoodoo is working overtime. For Vienna jails are not unduly uncomfortable, and once within their gates the prisoner must be fed until the happy day of his release rolls around.

The city courts sometimes sentence men to jail terms, leaving open for future determination the date upon which the sentence is to begin. Hence there is always a number of prospective prisoners about. Recently several hundred of these men appeared before the central jail one mornin, and demanded of the governor that he let them in to begin serving their terms. They were out of work and assured beds and meals, and some warmth, looked mighty good. The governor looked mighty good. The governor stood on the jail steps, argued that the jail was crowded to overflowing, and requested the petitioners to exercise some little patience. "You will all get your turn," he pleaded, "and if perchance you are pardoned altogether, surely you'd like that."

"Indeed we will not stand being put off; we are out of work, and we want to be fed until there are jobs again for us" they shouted back. The governor finally had to create room for a few dozen, and he promised to take hte rest in as soon as he had room.

BELIEVES CHINESE WANT RESTRICTIONS ON OPIUM

Peking, April (By Associated Press.)—The suggestion by Sir Francis Aglen, head of the Chinese customs administration, that China legalize the opium traffic in order to control it, has elicited a protest by Sir John Jordan, for many years British minister in Peking, who regards such a proposal as "retrograde." His comment, cabled from London, expressed the belief that Chinese public opinion would be strong enough to "resist a relapse which would stigmatize the Chinese for all time as an opium-ridden race."

Sir John's criticism impelled Sir Francis to further expound his views, authorized publication of the statement that, just as after 50 years of opium prohibition and repression, backed by the full weight of imperial authority, China in 1853 was obliged to take the retrograde step of legalizing the opium traffic, so, he believes, China again will be forced by rapidly increasing demoralization growing out of the vast illicit trade, to retrace her steps. He added that he did not advocate legalization for purposes of raising revenue, but as the only practicable means of controlling and finally suppressing the trade.

The Peking directors of the International Anti-Opium association called a special meeting to consider Sir Francis' suggestion. The result was adoption of a resolution stating that the association is opposed to legalization.

ERUPTION OF MAUNA LOA PREDICTED BY OBSERVER

Honolulu, April. — (By Associated Press.)—A new summit eruption of the intermittently active volcano of Mauna Loa before 1925 has been forecast by Thomas A. Jagger, Jr., government volcanologist at the Kilauea Observatory. Mauna Loa is on the island of Hawaii.

Dr. Jagger says that the Kilauea laval and that of Mauna Loa rise and fall in concert. Both volcanoes connect with the same underground course, the pulsations of which bring about a nine-year cycle of activities.

In connection with this forecast Dr. Jagger urged the construction of a trail to Mauna Loa as a safeguard which would permit quick investigation of activities.

Mauna Loa's last great activity was in 1919, when the lava overflowed the crater and swept down to the sea thirty miles away.
