LOCAL KIWANIAN IN REGULAR MEET AT ROTARY HOME

Principal Features of the Evening's Program Were in Charge of Kiwanian Hooker

"FARMERS NIGHT" TO BE OBSERVED AT THE SESSION OF MAY 4TH

International Convention in Atlanta, Convening May 28 Was Discussed at Length

The local Kiwanians were in regular session last night for the first time in four weeks, their meeting two weeks ago being called because of the banquet tendered by the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce. Much of the regular routine of business connected with each meeting of the club was dispensed with in order to give hearing to the feature parts of the program. Then too, several of those present desired an early closing which would enable them to attend the special religious services now in progress in the city.

After a few preliminary remarks leading out to the principal thought of the evening, President Fitzgerald retired from the chair in favor of Kiwanian W. E. Hooker who had the program in charge.

Fulfilling the request of International Kiwanian that this week be observed as "Courtesy Week," Kiwanian W. P. Shamhart was called on for a brief talk on "Courtesy." The speaker presented his subject well, dealing especially with the relationship of courtesy to every walk of life. He defined the word from every angle and closed by impressing the gathering very forcibly that in order to succeed as a man of business affairs or as a private citizen near must practice the meaning of courtesy which if done would always have the proper effect in our business or social relations with others.

Rev. Lewis Entzinger and his brother, Mr. Jim Entzinger, two members of the Baptist evangelistic party were guests of the club and responded to their introduction with a few well chosen expressions of delight in being present. The first named spoke for about five minutes, basing his remarks on the motto of Kiwanis "We Build." The speaker reminded his hearers that organization and concentration were absolutely essential in building. And lastly he placed special emphasis on the importance of the foundation. Other visitors of the city being present were introduced by their hosts, each of whom made a few remarks.

The club's attention was again called to the Atlanta trip, and an effort was made to ascertain just how many members were planning to attend the International Convention which convenes in the southern metropolis on the 28th of May. From the present outlook it appears that the local club will have a large representation at the annual session this year, and the officers are hopeful of sending at least fifty per cent of the membership.

President Fitzgerald announced that the next meeting which falls on May 4th will be observed as "Farmers Night" when two representative farmers out of each of the thirteen townships of the county will be the guests of the club. The program committee is planning to make this an interesting and entertaining event for our farmer friends.

The club made recognition of the presence of Kiwanian Jim Starkey who had been absent from the meetings several months due to being confined in a hospital for treatment.

One of the most enjoyable features of the program was the music furnished by a local orchestra composed of Mrs. M. K. Blount, Misses Bass, Bruce, Long and Savage.

BAPTIST REVIVAL BEGINS TOMORROW MORNING IN CITY

Services Will be Conducted in Forbes and Morton's Warehouse on Dickerson Avenue

SUNDAY SCHOOLS WILL MEET AT 9:45 O'CLOCK AT THE TWO CHURCHES

Afternoon Services Will be Held at 3 O'clock to Permit Crowds to Go to Tent

A large number of interested people gathered at the warehouse last night to again hear the Sunday school discussed. Sunday school work, according to the views presented by Evangelist Louis Entzinger and in which all concurred, is the great branch of the church and through which she must do her work.

"You cannot separate the Sunday school and the preaching services," said Evangelist Entzinger. "They are inseparable." "Practically as much is said about teaching as there is preaching and they go together."

Each of the Memorial and Immanuel Baptist Sunday schools will meet in their respective churches in the morning at 9:45. A large attendance is expected at both schools.

At 11 o'clock the services will be resumed at the warehouse. A large crowd is expected to be at this service as it will be the first of the evangelistic series. Charlie Butler, who is expected to arrive today will sing.

The service at the warehouse tomorrow afternoon will be at three o'clock to permit a large number to attend the Methodist revival at the tent. The pastors of the Memorial and Immanuel Baptist churches are anxious that every one possible be at this meeting tomorrow afternoon at the tent and hear Evangelist Dunaway.

The night service tomorrow at the warehouse will be at 7:45. Concerning so as to get a good text, Charlie Butler will bring another message in song, accompanied by Julian Holloway as pianist. This feature of the meeting will be worth much.

REV. C. M. DUNAWAY DELIVERS SERMON TO HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Brought a Great Message on "Influence" to Large Congregation

There was another great service at the tent last night. It was High School night and a large tier of seats was reserved for the boys and girls right in front of the speaker. They were present in great numbers. Mr. Dunaway took as his text the words "None of us liveth to himself," and from this statement of Paul he preached a great sermon on the Responsibility of Influence. Among many other interesting incidents related was that of a twelve year old boy who became deeply convicted in a meeting which the evangelist was holding in a small church in Georgia. The little fellow made confession to a neighbor of having stolen sugar cane from his patch and insisted on paying for the same. This incident made such an impression that it was the direct cause of the preacher being invited to hold a meeting in a much larger church some distance away. In this meeting three young men were converted who afterward became preachers themselves and have during their ministry led thousands of souls to Christ. This incident shows how tremendous one's influence for either good or evil may be. The preacher also told of a card-playing Sunday school teacher who had a class of eight boys, whom she had taught to play cards—telling them that there was no harm in social card-playing. Three of these boys were later sentenced to death, three others were guilty of Bigfield, West Va., April 21.—(By Associated Press.)—The pick and shovel was discarded for a hammer and saw by a score of miners of Barbours mining village in Midwell county which was converted into a huge ash heap by flames last night with an estimated property loss of one million dollars. More than a thousand persons were rendered homeless by the fire which destroyed a hundred buildings. The fire was believed to have been caused by a defective flue

KIDNAPS BABY IN AUTO ACCIDENT

One of the most remarkable cases in Massachusetts court has resulted in the arrest, on the charge of murder, of Fred Miller of Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Miller, driving his car at high speed, ran into a group of five persons who were waiting for a car. Miss Mildred E. Holt and John P. Gasson were instantly killed. Mrs. Gasson was hurled far away, and her little baby, Ruth, three years old, was torn from her arms. The baby actually fell into the speeding automobile. Miller did not stop, and it was the discovery of the baby, unharmed, in his home, that led to his arrest. He admits the double killing.

JUNIUS MOORE IS SENTENCED SEVEN YEARS IN PRISON

State Asks for Verdict of Second Degree Murder, But Jury Returns Manslaughter

The major part of yesterday afternoon's session of Pitt Superior Court was taken up with the finishing of the Junius Moore case again whom the State was asking for a verdict of second degree murder. The jury after deliberating for more than an hour returned a verdict of manslaughter, and Judge Grady ordered a sentence of seven years in the State prison. Through his counsel, the defendant made notice of appeal to the Supreme Court, but there is a probability of the appeal not being perfected.

Other matters coming up during the afternoon was the final disposition of some jail cases, in which his honor passed several road sentences.

Noah Hardee, a negro, one of the most frequent violators of the liquor laws in the county was up for possession, and sentenced to the county home where he will again be recognized as the official hog feeder on the plantation. Wiley Clark and Jess Brown, two other negroes found guilty by a jury of aiding, abetting the said Hardee negro in the transporting of the gallon of liquor confiscated, were each given six months on the roads.

Jim Sutton, a young white man of the county being adjudged guilty of assault by a jury upon one Joe Harrington was assessed with the cost of the action, judgment being suspended for a period of two years. Due to unpleasant feelings of the defendant against Harrington the court ordered that Sutton give a cash bond in the amount of $200 for his good behavior over a period of three years.

To Raise $10,000 for Athletes.

Melbourne, April.—(By Associated Press.)—A newspaper fund has been opened to raise $10,000 to ensure adequate representation of Australia at the next Olympia games to be held in Paris in 1924. It is proposed to send a team of 40 athletes.

SEVERAL CASES GIVEN HEARING IN CITY COURT TODAY

Nearly Every Case Was the Result of Some Violation of the Liquor Laws

Alf Tripp, white, charged with being drunk and down. Fined $10 and cost.

Alf Tripp, white, charged with receiving, transporting and possessing intoxicating liquors for the purpose of sale. The evidence was that a gallon jug containing corn whiskey and a lot of coco cola bottles and loose caps were found in the auto belonging to the defendant, which he had just left when arrested. Bound over to county court under $200 bond.

Jason Allen, white, charged with being drunk and staggering about the streets in a drunken condition. Fined $10 and cost.

Grant Taylor, colored, charged with driving insufficiently lighted automobile. Allowed to pay the cost.

Della Watson, colored, Will Thompson, charged with prostitution. The evidence was that the defendants were caught co-habiting together at 1 o'clock in the morning on information furnished by the wife of Will Thompson. Both defendants were bound over to county court under $200 bond each.

As yesterday's paper foretold, immediately after adjournment of police court the four kegs containing 15 gallons each and totalling 60 gallons of corn whiskey taken from Geo. Jennis 30 days ago, were rolled from the police vault to the sewer in front of the city offices on the corner of Cotanch and 5th streets and there burst open and poured into the sewer.

There was quite a crowd present to witness the performance and the smell arising was fully ample to satisfy the noses of all spectators. None of the kegs had ever been opened. In addition to this a two gallon jug of other whiskey that was not needed as evidence was also poured out.

Mr. Charles Broughton, of Duke, formerly of Greenville, spent today here.

There will be three services Sunday, 11 a. m. "The Love of God," 3:30 p. m. a special service to men only, "The Worldly Life," 7:30 p. m. On Monday afternoon Dr. Poe will preach to women only.

PRESIDENT WILL EXPLAIN THE PLAN OF WORLD COURT

Convinced That Lack of Information is Responsible for Much Opposition to Plan

Washington, April 20.—Convinced that lack of information is responsible for much of the opposition to the administration plan for American membership on the permanent court of international court of justice President Harding is understood to have decided to explain the proposal carefully and in detail at the first favorable opportunity.

The explanation contemplated by the chief executive is expected to take the form of a letter of an address more probably the latter.

In any event it is considered unlikely that the presidential pronouncement will be delayed until the proposed Western speaking trip to start the middle of June.

Some of the president's advisers are of the opinion that it should be made in the near future and this opinion became decided after Representative Will R. Wood, of Indiana, chairman of the republican congressional committee, during a call at the White House, today asserted that the world court proposition had aroused more opposition by republicans in the middle west than the league of nations.

The president has accepted several invitations to make addresses, some of them tentatively, within the next few days.

When it is thundering and lightning it is a sign of a storm. When sugar prices advance it is a warning that time has come to can or preserve.

Raleigh will be honored with two conventions next year: The Rotary and the North Carolina Medical Society. It is a splendid selection and the Capital City will no doubt gladly welcome them.

Many are the hearts sad tonight. Sixty gallons of "corn" poured in a sewer and only "a small" served. The owner has gone to parts unknown and not leaving a will, nothing more could be done.

We hope that Mr. Harding will enjoy the bushel crate of home-grown sweet potatoes sent to him this week from New Bern. They are from the best State in the Union and the gift of the New Bern Sweet Potato Growers' Association. They will give him good food for thought.

If you call a man a buzzard you insult him, yet he can drink something which the buzzard can't and live. The monkey run which is being made in such large quantities, in this country, has been known to kill a buzzard and not hurt the man. This only helps to deepen the mystery how a man can drink the vile stuff and live to see another day.

SPRING CLEANING

Next week will be Clean-Up Week. It is the duty of every citizen to see that his premises are made as attractive as possible. Prizes will be awarded the boy and girl Scouts who will assist in this work, and by cleaning up we will not only be helping and encouraging the scouts, but we will be improving the health conditions of our city. Trash and filth breeds germs and in order to destroy these a spring cleaning on the outside of the home is as necessary as on the inside of the home. All together for a cleaner and more beautiful city.

DEPARTMENT STORES

Nothing adds to the attractiveness of the business section of a town more than their department stores. Perhaps never before has Greenville realized just what it was missing not having several when they have been needed so badly. Since the erection of the new store which is occupied by the Blount-Harvey Co., people have been heard to express themselves as feeling that they were in a city, thereby enjoying the advantages of same. Our merchants have always carried an up-to-date line of merchandise and things can be found in their stores that are found in the large cities, but the trouble is they are crowded and really the merchants are doing themselves an injustice by not having room in which to display their goods. No town in the State can boast of more popular and courteous merchants than Greenville. They are vitally interested in getting the best for their patrons, and in giving them the best prices possible, but if the stores were larger they would mean more to the merchants, the public and the appearance of the business section. When our present paving system is completed we will have approximately one hundred miles of hard surfaced roads leading into Greenville. With our present educational system we have one which cannot be surpassed. Our industries are attracting attention. Greenville has as wide-awake Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Woman Club and other such organizations as can be found in any part of the country, and in order to keep up with these more department stores are needed. It is to be hoped that the first will be an incentive towards the erection of others. Let's make our business section so attractive that it will be able to compete with cities much larger than Greenville.

REV. C. M. DUNAWAY DELIVERS SERMON TO HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

lesser crimes, for which they had to spend terms in prison and the two others were fugitives from justice. The preacher made an earnest appeal for all who profess the name of Christ to live above reproach in order that their influence might be one hundred per cent wholesome.

At the close of the sermon the speaker asked all who wanted to live such lives as that God could bless them and make them a blessing to others to come forward and give their hand, and it looked as if every one under the tent pressed forward. It was a great service and should bear much lasting fruit in Greenville for many years to come.

There was a service for women only at the morning hour, and another great sermon was preached to the large number of ladies present. The preacher spoke very frankly concerning certain pronounced evils, and though he handled his subject with startling plainness his words carried conviction and many were the expressions of approval heard after the service.

There was a well-attended service for children at the afternoon hour. Many adults were present with their children.

The usual service will be held tonight, and though Saturday night is a very busy night, it is believed that a large congregation will be present.

These services will come to a close with three great services tomorrow. After the Sunday school, which will be held in the High School building, all will go to the tent for the eleven o'clock service. The afternoon service will be held at three-thirty and the closing service at night. At each of these three services the opportunity will be given to make an offering for the evangelist and his helpers. Every one who wishes to express their appreciation in this way are urged to come prepared to do so at one or the other of these services. Envelopes will be provided, and contributors are requested to make out their checks or bring pencils with them to the tent to do so at the time when offering is taken. The pastor hopes that the offering will be worthy of the people who have crowded the tent night after night to hear these faithful servants of God preach and sing the Gospel. Just remember that there are three workers among whom the offering is to be divided.

The Methodist people greatly appreciate the hearty spirit of co-operation which we have had from the various members of the other churches, and we sincerely hope that the revival to begin in the Forbes and Morton warehouse will prove the greatest ever held in Greenville.

Northport, Mich., April 21.—(By Associated Press.)—Marooned wood cutters of South Fox Island are eating something besides bread and black strap because out of the sky heralded only by a triumphant war of an aeroplane motor, bags of food rained down through the bleakness of late afternoon and were quickly relieved and opened by nine men and one woman of the stranded party.

PRESIDENT WILL EXPLAIN THE PLAN OF WORLD COURT

(Continued from page 1) few weeks. A dozen or more additional stations have been tendered and among these it is considered practically the executive can find an appropriate occasion to make this explanation.

The opportunities to obtain any detailed information, the President might desire in connection with the preparation of a statement of the administration plan, submitted to the Senate shortly before the adjournment of congress, were accorded today in conferences held by the executive with Elihu Root, and Secretary Hughes.

Mr. Harding was in conference for half an hour with Mr. Root, who was the single American who sat on the commission that drafted the statutes outlining the procedure, membership and other details of the international court.

The former secretary of state at his conference declined to discuss his conversation with Mr. Harding.

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincer, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. I heard of and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition." Thedford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliouness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. Try Black-Draught. EX 91

The following clipping taken from a Texas paper will be of interest to people in this city:

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jarrat was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8:30 Saturday evening when Mrs. Kathleen Lancaster Bland of Austin, the daughter of Mrs. Henry Edgar Lancaster and Maj. B. L. Wilson of the Medical Corps of the United States Army were joined in marriage with Dr. Arthur Jones performing the ceremony.

The home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and tall cathedral tapers burned in artistic candelabra. Only the immediate family and close friends were present at the ceremony. Previous to the entrance of the bride Miss Pearl Wilkinson sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Meadows, who played the wedding march. Miss Evelyn Duerler played, "Song of My Evening Star," on the cello throughout the ceremony.

The bride wore lovely in a gown of beige chiffon over flesh color, with soft girdle of orchid satin. She carried a bouquet of pink and lavender sweet peas. Her hat was pink trimmed with orchids.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Assisting in serving were Mrs. L. Taylor, Mrs. F. L. Hillyer, Mrs. Bruce Martindale and Mrs. H. H. Walton.

Later in the evening Major and Mrs. Wilson left for Nogales, Ariz., where Major Wilson is stationed until May. Mrs. Wilson wore a smart going away suit of brown with a becoming hat to match.

CHICAGO EXCHANGE WANTS TO EXCLUDE CATCH-PENNY TRADE

Chicago, April.—(By Associated Press.)—Chicago Board of Trade recognizes the existence of two kinds of speculation. That of the competent it wants and encourages; that of the incompetent, it does not want, according to the annual report of Robert McDougal, president of the board.

"Speculation by the incompetent is contrary to the policy of the board," says the report. "Care will be exercised by board members to prevent such persons as are incompetent from speculating. Under the term incompetent are included all persons in positions to trust, such as cashiers and bookkeepers; all financially unable to bear the losses which they risk incurring; all persons lacking in a study and understanding of grain market conditions; all persons whose families or dependents may be injured by such speculation.

"The Board of Trade welcomes speculation from the competent and from them only," the report continues. "This class includes men with intellectual and financial ability to make speculative investments, and who can, if necessary, bear the losses without injury to themselves or others.

The United States supreme court has said that speculation by competent men has value in avoiding or mitigating catastrophes, equalizing prices and providing for periods of want."

In discussing the subject of short selling, president McDougal says in the report: "Short selling, being an indispensable feature of future trading, ought to be defended and explained. It is almost universally approved by economists and practical grain men. The chief benefit to the market of short selling is to put on the brakes against an undue fall or rise in price, thus keeping prices on a more even keel. It is beneficial to all interests to have the big fluctuations thus eliminated, for grain can then be handled at smaller risk, on smaller margins, that is more to the producer and less to the consumer.

"Without short-selling there could be no effective future trading and, if short selling should be abandoned, future trading would vanish with it, which would be a costly step backward."

President McDougal is of the opinion that farmers are generally either uninformed or misinformed as to the Board of Trade's nature and functions. He says:

"Not one farmer in a thousand knows the fact as established by instrumentalities of the federal government, that the middleman's toll on grain through the marketing terminals like the Chicago Board of Trade are under open and free competition, lower than on any other agricultural product. Farmers are not our friends, only because they don't know all the facts. Representatives of farmers' companies, who wish to use our facilities for marketing their grain ought to be encouraged and invited to join the board when they are of the right character and credit, and will agree to obey our rules and follow established practices in letter and spirit, the same as all others.

"To admit them on privileged terms would be to destroy the present market and turn the grain business from the hands of the many on very small margins over to the hands of a few on wide margins, with resultant lower prices to the producer and higher prices to the consumer."

COTTON SPINNING SET NEW RECORD IN MARCH

Committee Named To Study Business Cycles Urges Caution In Boom Periods In Report Just Issued

MATTHEW WOLL

MISS MARY VAN KLEECK

The Federal Reserve banks now hold a much larger amount of gold than is needed to support all the credit requirements of American industry and agriculture, according to the committee on Unemployment and Business Cycles, appointed by Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, which has just made its report. One of the propositions brought forward by the investigators, who have been seeking a way to guard against future periods of depression such as those which have always followed prosperity in the past, is to set aside a special reserve of this gold against the foreign demands that will come with resumption of normal world business, thus removing from the field of temptation an easy means of inflating American credits to the danger point.

Banks are urged by the report to use extreme precaution in granting loans near the peak of the business rise. Individual business men are warned that their best protection is to study all available sources of authentic information regarding world and national stocks of their respective commodities guiding their purchases accordingly. The Federal Government and the states are asked to delay public works and not compete with private building expansion during the current boom.

Many other interesting correctives are advanced by the committee, whose personnel makes the report carry weight. Owen D. Young, president of the General Electric Company, is chairman. The other members are Joseph Defrees, former president of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Mary Van Kleeck, of the Russell Sage Foundation; Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor; Clarence M. Wooley, president of the American Radiator Company, and Edward Eyre Hunt, secretary of the President's Conference on Unemployment, of which the committee is part.

The National Bureau of Economic Research gathered the mass of facts from which the findings were deduced. Its material, edited by Wesley C. Mitchell, nationally known authority on the business cycle, is shortly to be published in book form. The committee report itself will be part of the book, and can be had separately by applying to the President's Conference on Unemployment, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.

FARMERS PROFIT THROUGH SELLING CORN FED STEERS

Washington, April.—(By Associated Press.)—Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska corn belt farmers averaged 35 cents a bushel more for the corn they fed to steers during last winter than they would have received for it at local market prices.

Cost figures compiled by the Department of agriculture show feeder steers averaged $7 per 100 pounds in cost. A margin of $1.20 per 100 pounds was necessary on the average to pay for feed, labor, interest, equipment, and marketing charges after certain credits. The finished cattle sold on an average for $8.37 per 100 pounds, so that the feeder made a profit of 67 cents per 100 pounds.

Returns in individual instances came perilously near to the loss column due to bad markets and other causes," says the department, "but the average farmer received more than the market price for his corn and enjoyed a small profit which in some measure should retrieve his losses of two or three years ago. The streets made unusually good gains in weight because of the extraordinarily favorable feeding weather in the corn belt during the fall and winter up to March 1. The average gain in pasture, stalk fields and feed lot was 2.13 pounds a day, which cost 13.1-2 cents a pound. The average weight of the 1,600 steers sold was 1286 pounds; thus each animal showed a profit of $8.62."

HAITI VOTES $500,000 TO BUILD NEW ROADS

Port-Au-Prince, April.—(By Associated Press.)—The Haitian council of state has voted the extraordinary credit of $180,000 for road and bridge construction in addition to the extraordinary credit of $300,000 authorized last December for similar purposes. With this total of nearly a half million dollars, the public works program for the physical rehabilitation of Haiti will not only outstrip former estimates, but the problem of unemployment in the districts affected will be greatly ameliorated, and the money put in circulation will stimulate the island's improving economic condition.

Tokio Plans Festivities.

Tokio, April.—(By Associated Press.)—The wedding of the Prince Regent and Princess Nagako, the greatest social event since the coronation in 1912, will be the occasion of public festivities of various kinds. There will be lantern parades, electric floats at night, mass meetings and songs sung by thousands of school children. Flags and arches of evergreen will decorate the city.

The Prince Regent is planning a tour in Formosa during April. He is recuperating from his recent illness at the seaside, riding and playing golf every day.

Warsaw Movies Closed.

Warsaw, April.—(By Associated Press.)—Movie tickets in Warsaw are taxed 100 percent, and as a protest to the authorities all the movie houses recently got together and closed. The government is losing 20,000,000 Polish marks a day as a result.

The authorities came back with an order on the movie men to reopen at once, or have their premises confiscated for use as schools. Public opinion, however, is with the picture men, and it is believed the dispute will be compromised by the collection of a 50 percent tax.

Greenville Wins From Scotland Neck by Good Margin on Latter's Diamond Friday

The Greenville High School baseball team scored their second victory of the week yesterday by defeating Scotland Neck on the latter's diamond by the count of 11 and 7.

While much hitting was in evidence the game was hard fought and exciting throughout. The nearest Greenville came to scoring in first inning was having one of their number walked; but in the second frame they shoved enough across to make up for their omission in the preceding inning. Out of a total of six hits and one free pass in this inning, they scored four runs, and in the third they almost duplicated their scoring of the second. During the remainder of the game they added four other tallies for a total of eleven. With the willow, the locals were there with the goods, two of the members batting for a thousand. Cecil Birbro, the club's centerfielder was at the plate six times received four free passes and smacked out two singles.

Charlie Forbes who is credited with being up twice secured two singles. One of the principal features of the game was the pitching and all round playing of Bob Forbes, besides twirling in excellent form, he scored three of the runs and hit the apple for even five hundred.

Following is the score in detail:

SWEDISH QUEEN FOUNDS REST HOME FOR WOMEN

Stockholm, April.—(By Associated Press.)—Queen Victoria of Sweden has just begun the establishment of a rest cure for women as her investment of the $45,000 which she received on her sixtieth birthday, last year, as a gift subscribed by the women of her country, and her popularity has been enhanced more than ever by this act.

The site of the new rest cure is the picturesque island of Oland, in the Baltic, just off the southwest coast of Sweden, where the Queen's favorite summer villa, "Sollden," is situated. She has purchased three houses, which will be reconstructed for the new institution.

There will be 50 comfortably equipped rooms, together with the corresponding dining room and assembly hall. Swedish women who are in need of vacations, but have limited means, will be received for periods of varying length.

The whole island of Oland is a charming health and pleasure resort, and not the least of its attractions is the romantic atmosphere about the ruined Borgholm castle, which was built some 700 years ago, and has been taken and retaken time and again during the Swedish wars.
