

The Greenville Chautauqua opens in June. Its value cannot be overestimated in educational and instructive return. Listed among the informative persons on the program are the best in the nation. Greenville should show its appreciation by patronage of just what the Chautauqua movement means in an instructive and educational way. The Chautauqua course brings to the community the best thought and experience of the world's best minds. Men and women who are behind the success of the Chautauqua in Greenville are pledging their money and support for the outstanding results that must inevitably follow such a course of instruction and entertainment. If you don't patronize the Chautauqua course you are not a member of Greenville's progressive spirit.

WEATHER.

Showers and thunderstorms tonight and Wednesday warmer.

LACK OF AGREEMENT CAUSES BANDITS TO HOLD CAPTIVES NOW

Americans Still Being Held Captive by the Chinese Bandits

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The military governor of Shantung, the State Department was advised today by Consul John K. Davis, has agreed verbally to call off the attack on the bandits who wrecked Shanhai-Peking express and to take them into the Chinese army. The brigands, Davis reported, had expressed willingness to release foreigners still held captive if this was done. He said the Governor had informed him the siege was raised Saturday.

Although there was said to be a lack of agreement among the chiefs as regards details it was said negotiations were proceeding and that there were good prospects of an early settlement.

A statement issued by the State Department late today said:

"The department has received information from Consul John K. Davis and Major Phillon, at Lincheng under date of May 13 to the effect that the bandits have said they would release their prisoners on the condition that the Paotzeku siege be raised and all the bandits be taken into the Chinese army. The bandits claim that they number 8,000 between Lincheng and the sea.

The military governor has left the details of the settlement to be arranged later, but has agreed verbally to meet the above mentioned conditions. The military governor has stated that the siege was raised on the night of May 12. The Chinese officials, together with Mr. Roy Anderson, have again gone to the bandits to endeavor to further the negotiations. Although the bandits are getting short of ammunition and food, and there are good prospects of an early settlement.

"Under the date of May 14 Consul John K. Davis and Major Phillon report that Mr. Anderson and the Chinese officials returned last night with the report that there is a lack of definite agreement among the chief as regards details. The chiefs are holding a meeting on May 14 and promise to send in a report the following day. The general terms which have been already reported are still acceptable to both parties.

"Minister Schuman reports that the foreign office in Peking has stated that it expects the early completion of negotiations for the release of prisoners. At a meeting of the diplomatic corps on May 14 a decision was reached to the effect that the Dean should remind the foreign office that he requests indemnity has been running since May 12. No definite decision has yet been reached as to whether this progressive indemnity shall be in the form of cash or in the nature of sanctions, that is to say, undertakings for the proper control and policing of railways in the future.

Surplus Gold Put Into Colonial Use

SYDNEY, N. S. W.—Gold coinage is likely to be in circulation again in Australia within 12 months according to financial experts, when exchange will reach parity again. The embargo on the export of gold still is operative, and it is pointed out that Australia could not allow free shipment of her gold if Great Britain did not do the same.

It is believed here that the agreement for funding the British debt to the United States will hasten the resumption of gold payments in the United Kingdom, and it is understood that as soon as the example is set in England, it will be followed immediately in Australia.

HOT SPRINGS IS SWEEPED BY FLOOD

Fire and Flood Cause Considerable Damage Last Night

Little Rock, May 1.—Reports were circulated here shortly after midnight that seventeen lives were lost last night at Hot Springs by flood and fire, following a deluge of rain and heavy windstorm which broke over the city shortly after six o'clock.

The report of the loss of life came through railway men in communication with repairs in an attempt to open a line of communication into Hot Springs and a Hot Springs resident marooned at Benton, fifteen miles west of here, endeavoring to reach his home.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 15.—Hot Springs, Arkansas, was stricken last night by flood which swept down the sides of three mountains which form a triangle about the city and by fire which broke out in the wreckage.

Reports generally place the loss of life at 17, although one report over the railroad telegraph lines estimated the number killed as high as 50.

SAYS DEATH LIST IS NEARING FIFTY MARK

Shawnee, Okla., May 15.—A Chicago Rock Island and Pacific Railroad operator at Wister, Oklahoma, reported to the local railroad offices that the death toll in the Hot Springs flood and fire tonight had reached 50 lives, he had learned.

ANOTHER REPORT SAYS SEVENTEEN DROWNED

Muskogee, Okla., May 15.—Seventeen persons were drowned in a cloudburst and tornado at Hot Springs, Arkansas, tonight a telephone exchange man at Little Rock told a local telephone operator by long distance tonight. The word was carried by automobile from Hot Springs.

REPORTS STATE THAT LOSS OF LIFE AT HOT SPRINGS HAD BEEN EXAGGERATED

LITTLE ROCK, May 15.—Fragmentary reports received by the Democrat from Hot Springs indicate that reports that there had been a heavy loss of life there had been exaggerated, but one report that six or eight persons were dead, persisted.

Charter Is Granted For the Erection of a Hospital Here; Site Is Not Yet Determined

Greenville is to have a hospital. Dr. E. T. Dickerson of Wilson, and Drs. W. I. Wooten, K. B. Pace, and Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse of this city, today perfected plans which guarantee a hospital for Greenville and the county.

These gentlemen who are the promoters and to whom a charter has been granted, are hopeful that every physician in the county will take stock in the new project. With every road leading out of Greenville hard-surfaced, with Griffon, Shelmerdine, Grimeland, Pactolus Stokes, Bethel Penny Hill, Falkland, Bruce Farmville, Arthur Ayden, Winterville within from 15 to 45 minutes of Greenville by automobile, there is not the slightest doubt but what the institution will thrive with capable people in charge.

In conversation today with a representative of this paper, two of the promoters expressed the opinion that they believed that not only every physician in the county would take some stock in this much needed undertaking, but will give it their constant and hearty co-operation and unqualified support.

Dr. W. I. Wooten, chairman of the building committee is advertising for sites, and while already several have been submitted, no selection has been made.

In this connection, it is where the people of Greenville who have for many years professed an interest in a hospital here, have an opportunity to manifest such an interest. As a suggestion, the town of Greenville could well afford, in fact it should be ashamed to do less than offer a site for the hospital free of all encumbrances. If this were done, it would put some heart into the medical men who are trying to meet the demands of their profession as well as that of humanity.

For several years the need of a hospital in Pitt county has been felt by all classes of people, and now that it has been definitely decided to erect one, will strike the cord of approval in the minds of every citizen of the county.

LOCAL GUARANTORS OF CHAUTAUQUA IN SPECIAL MEET

Appoints Various Committees and Meet Advance Representative

A special meeting of the local guarantors of the Greenville Chautauqua was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night for the purpose of appointing the various committees and to meet the first advance representative of the Swarthmore Chautauqua Association, Dr. Joseph A. Cottam.

The following committee chairmen resulted from the session: General Chairman, Dr. W. P. Shamhart; Secretary H. L. Smith; Treasurer, J. L. Little; Advertising, H. E. Austin; Tickets, J. N. Hart; Grounds, J. W. Higgs; Hospitality, Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale and H. L. Smith; Sunday services, Dr. W. P. Shamhart.

It was understood that a full meeting of the guarantors will be called several days in advance of the opening for the purpose of getting the ticket campaign under way.

Dr. Cottam, advance representative, gave an interesting review of the talent that will appear on the Greenville program. Unquestionably a splendid array of talent is booked for the 1923 program and is of such a nature as to warrant the very best effort toward its success.

The guarantors present at this meeting: Dr. W. P. Shamhart, Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale, J. L. Little, S. E. Gates, K. T. Futrell, J. N. Hart, H. R. Munford, R. L. Humber, E. F. Tucker, Jas. Brown, F. M. Wooten, H. E. Austin and H. L. Smith.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR MASS MEET

Will Protest Against Continued Attacks on Sugar Trade

NEW YORK, May 15.—Plans for a mass meeting to protest against continued attacks on the sugar trade by government officials is understood to have been discussed at a secret meeting on the floor of the New York coffee and sugar exchange. Barring newspapermen and messengers from the floor caused a flurry of excitement in trade and at office of the superintendent of the Exchange. It was said no announcement would be made as to the nature of a secret.

Open World's Largest Aquarium in June

LONDON—England is soon to have the biggest aquarium in Europe, if not in the world. It is located at the Mappin Terraces in London and will be completed in June. It is to cost half a million dollars.

More than 100,000 gallons of water will be required to fill the tanks, which will contain fish and water fauna from all parts of the world. Natural sea water will be used. This will be brought from the North Sea up the Thames and taken to the zoological gardens in barges.

ELECTRICIAN OFFERED $1000 FOR A VERDICT

New York, May 15.—Bedleman, an electrician who served on the jury which at the third trial of Edward Fuller, broker, accused of bucketing orders, was unable to reach a verdict last week, today told the district attorney that he had been offered $1000 for an acquittal verdict. He will be called before the grand jury, the district attorney said.

CAPACITY HOUSE TO GREET ORIENTAL PLAY HERE TONIGHT

Katcha-Koo to be Given Under Auspices the King's Daughters

When the curtain rises on "Katcha-Koo" which trends the boards of the White's theatre for the first time tonight, it looks as though there will not be a vacant seat in the house. The play has been in preparation for weeks past and seldom has so much interest been apparent as that manifest in the present production.

Katcha-Koo combines the mysteries of the far East with the practicality and patriotism of our native land. In the first part of the play there are oodles of pretty young ladies garbed in the silken bloomers and bewitching draperies of the far East, while over all is the strange spell cast by the Oriental mystic "Katcha-Koo isn't a real honest-to-goodness Fakir, but then that's part of the story and it wouldn't be fair to tell.

You'll have to come yourself tonight and see Mr. Ned Laughinghouse disport himself in this mysterious but hilarious role.

Colorful stage pictures, excellent voices and attractive dancing, to say nothing of the stunning costumes and exquisite stage settings will put Katcha-Koo on the plane of the best professional road shows.

Katcha-Koo is being given as benefit for the King's Daughters. While the prospects are for very large houses, because of the excellence of the production the personnel and popularity of the players and the excellence of the cause, not a seat should be left vacant for the performance.

Captives Will Be Killed Unless Terms Are Guaranteed

Shanghai, May 15.—Unless the foreign diplomatic representatives in China guarantee by tonight the Chinese Government will carry out all terms fixed by bandits in the Shantung Hills, the foreigners held captive will all be killed, Father William Lenfers, the aged priest, who conferred with the bandit chieftain Sunday reported to the American Consul at Lincheng.

TORNADO SWEEPS MITCHELL COUNTY; SIXTEEN KILLED

One Hundred Injured; and Many Homes Are Levelled to Ground

COLORADO, Tex., May 15.—Sixteen dead and 100 injured were reported late today as a result of the tornado which tore through Mitchell county, south and east of here early today. The injured are in the hospital, churches and many private homes here. Some were hurt so seriously their deaths are expected.

The tornado descended in Mitchell county between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning and caught most of its victims in bed. It levelled buildings and left death and injury in its wake for thirty miles. Starting south of Westbrook it continued for seven miles through the county and passed just west of Lorraine.

All the deaths were in more or less isolated farms. Due to the distance between farms and demoralization of wire communication, it was expected here it would be many hours before the entire district could be heard from.

Citizens of towns near the storm swept areas rushed first aid, provisions and relief supplies for the victims.

The known dead: Luther Brindle, Mrs. F. Brindle, H. J. Standifer, three Standifer boys, age 5 to 13 years, infant son of Joe Anderson, infant daughter of Jim Womack, C. L. Simpson, 25 years old; L. C. Sheffield, 65; Jesus Brionex; Joe Richburg and son; daughter of Joe Richburg aged 14; W. S. Spelton, Westbrook, Texas a baby girl.

Work on organizing rescue parties was almost completed late this afternoon.

Declamation and Recitation Contest Will Be Held Here

On tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the High School auditorium there will be a Declamation and Recitation Contest held. There will be seven towns competing in this contest as follows: New Bern, Elizabeth City, Rocky Mount, Washington, Kinston, Tarboro and Greenville. The first prize in both the Recitation and Declamation Contest will be $10 in gold. Greenville's representative in the Recitation Contest is Anne Shields Vandyke, while in the Declamation Contest her representative is Wayland Hart. This contest was inaugurated last year at Washington, and at that time New Bern carried off the honors. There will be judges from the neighboring towns not represented. The exercises will be open to the public and the friends of the school are urged and invited to be present.

WHAT GREENVILLE NEEDS

From time to time a great deal has been said about a hospital for Greenville. How ever until the present moment no definite action has been taken.

A survey of the field shows that almost without a single exception towns of similar size and similarly situated have hospital facilities that are a credit to all concerned.

It is reported that a movement is on foot to establish a hospital in Greenville during this year.

This is good news and that it crystallizes into a glorious reality at an early date would be most gratifying to everyone.

When the leading men of Greenville get behind a proposition it usually goes "Over the Top." Now is the time for this splendid spirit to manifest itself in the actual erection of a hospital.

It is unthinkable that so progressive a town as Greenville should be without this recognized facility and essential, and it is believed that the Greenville spirit will awaken and demand that the hospital proposition be put over at an early date.

Co-operation and team-work will show results here as it inevitably does in all worthwhile enterprises. Not criticism, but immediate action is needed.

What will be Greenville's answer?

INFLATED LABOR WAGE SCALE

Labor, supported by market tactical advantages, is not slow in enforcing demands for increased wages. This renewed output of manufactured products, coupled with restricted immigration has absorbed the floating labor supply, according to press advices.

Thus the situation today is the complete reverse of what it was a year or more ago, when more than 5,000,000 persons were said to be out of employment. It is not to be denied that the laborer is worthy of his hire, but in view of the adverse effects brought about by the price inflation of 1919-1920, which resulted in the buyers strike of 1921-1922, it would be well for those who direct labor movements to consider the lesson of experience.

Evidently logical promptings are not to be suppressed at least, not until signs of crimped demand for goods are discerned. At the moment the wage factor is dynamic, whereas that other important factor, the cost of living, is almost static.

I is probable that wages for the more urgently needed crafts have been advanced more than 10 per cent, since the present upward movement set in, but retail prices for commodities have ascended only 2 per cent, a recent study shows. On the heels of increased wages it is only natural and fair to expect advances in prices. Then the ultimate consumer—those whose wages have been advanced and those whose compensation has not changed for the better, will pinch to the point of unequal distribution.

If the price scale works upward to the point of inordinate levels within the next few months, organized labor will be tapping for further gains, because of the necessity of maintaining a so-called "standard of living," while the less fortunate will be forced to curtail buying. Were productivity increased by applied efficiency, wage demands could be borne, but with jobs in some sections rather more numerous than applicants, psychological rather than economic factors dominate.

If the country is to be saved by the wholesome experience from which it is just emerging, it would appear rather necessary for employers to put forth some effort to teach the rank and file of their employes that it will be prudent and profitable to keep the unit cost of production from mounting to inordinate heights.

Those who have touched shoulders with workmen know that education when properly imparted is invariably absorbed with good effect.

China Promises to Wage War on Bandit Hordes—Headline. Chinese are noted for promises, if not for anything else.

Ambassador George Harvey, says he will not take the job of managing Harding's next campaign. Like Will Hays he also knows how to side step a useless undertaking.

Every day, in every way, the Pitt County road system is getting better and better. The last road opened, the one leading to Falkland, is a splendid piece of pavement and a credit to any county. Just as soon as the short strip is completed which leads into Greenville, the road will be one of the best of the entire chain.

All things come to him that waits. Greenville is really to have a hospital. It is needed and the sooner a site is selected and work begun the better it will be for all concerned. Pitt County has always had things that helped promote the comfort and happiness of its citizens except a hospital, and when that becomes a reality then we will live in the most desirable spot on earth. We wish for the hospital every success and predict for it a bright future.

The announcement that work is soon to begin on the erection of new buildings at the Teachers College will be received with genuine delight by people of Greenville and Pitt County. Although it is a state institution, we appreciate it as much as if it were our own and always take pride in helping promote its work. It is a great school in a great community and Greenville considers nothing too good for its college. After the work is completed it will be enabled to do a greater work towards training efficient teachers for the schools of our state.

 Wendell, May 15.—A wedding distinguished by its unusual beauty was that of Miss Selma Perkins of Wendell and W. David Turner, of Greenville, which took place at the Christian church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. S. L. Saddler, pastor of the bride, officiating.

Preceding the ceremony an appropriate musical program was rendered by Mrs. M. C. Todd, organist, Mrs. J. Knott Proctor of Greenville and Mrs. Pauline Griffin Scarborough, soloists. Mrs. Proctor sang "Until" followed by Mrs. Scarborough, who sang "Calm As the Night." The wedding march from Lohengrin was used as processional and Mendelssohn's as recessional. During the ceremony, Mrs. Todd played Mendelssohn's "Organ Sonata."

The first of the bridal party to enter was W. A. Scarborough of Wendell and P. R. Hatch of Raleigh, ushers; C. E. Hornaday and Dr. C. J. Edwards of Raleigh, groomsmen. They were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Gladys Hersey of Belair N. J., and Miss Christine Whitley of Wendell.

Mrs. Henry Bullett Rauterberg of Louisville, Ky., sister of the bride, came next.

Miss Eva Perkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Norris Linwood Perkins, Jr., nephew of the bride, acted as ring bearer carrying the ring in the heart of a calla lily. He was followed by his little sister and brother, Eleanor Virginia and Edwin Rose Perkins who carried a basket of rose petals which were strewn before the bride.

The bride, escorted by her brother, N. L. Perkins of Smithfield, and the bridegroom, accompanied by his best man, George W. Byars of Raleigh, met at the chancel steps where the marriage vows were spoken.

The bride is the young and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Perkins.

The bridegroom is the son of J. M. Turner of Smithfield and a prosperous hotel man formerly of Raleigh but now of Greenville.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Turner motored to Raleigh and took the train for Washington, New York, Niagara Falls and Toronto, Canada.

They will be at home at the Proctor Hotel in Greenville after June 1st.

REFLECTOR PRESENTED CRATE OF CHERO-COLA

The Reflector wishes to acknowledge receipt of a crate of Chero-Cola which was sent to the office today by the Chero-Cola Bottling Company. The carrier boys as well as the other members of the force thoroughly enjoyed "the drinks" throughout the day. The treat was greatly appreciated.

PROMINENT MEN EXPRESS OPINIONS CONCERNING "MACK"

The following clipping taken from the Mebane Enterprise will be read with interest by the many friends of McLendon who have been conducting a revival service in Mebane for the past four weeks and will go to Durham in a few days.

"Among the distinguished guests in the meeting this week was General Julian S. Carr, of Durham, who, after hearing Mack, stated he had heard he was a great preacher, but, 'I had no idea he was as great as he is—Mack is fine,' continued General Carr and I am glad he is coming to Durham."

"Another guest of the meeting Monday evening was Mr. Jim Intzinger, of the Intzinger Party, who has the reputation of being America's greatest Sunday school workers. He had driven 250 miles to hear Mack and stated after the sermon to men only: 'I have heard every great evangelist in America; I have been in evangelistic work for years and have just recently been in a six weeks meeting with Billy Sunday, at Columbia, S. C., and there is no comparison between McLendon and Sunday or any other evangelist I have ever heard. He is simply in a class by himself.'—Mebane Enterprise."

Presbyterians Vote On Council Move

INDIANAPOLIS.—Nine hundred and eighty-seven commissioners, representing approximately 1,800,000 members of the Presbyterian church in the United States, will attend the 135th general assembly of the denomination in this city May 17 to 24. The commissioners will be from 307 presbyteries.

An important denominational problem to come before the meeting will be the consolidation of the executive work of assembly. At the present time this is performed between assembly periods by 13 missionary, educational and benevolent boards and numerous permanent and special committees divided into four boards.

As a part of the plan of consolidation, the assembly will take final action on the establishment of a general council, consisting of 27 persons, which will supersede the present executive commission of 15 members and the promotional organization known as the new era movement, it was said. The general council is proposed as an authoritative body to act on denominational problems between

REO

The Gold Standard of Values

SEATING comfort for seven, with generous knee and elbow room for all. Yet the wheelbase is not excessive,—120 inches! Pleasant roominess has been created by clever body designing, which has put waste tonneau space to work.

A compactly arranged instrument panel and the unique Reo dual control gives unusual front compartment neatness and roominess.

Beauty to match its comfort qualities is strongly suggested by body lines of graceful simplicity. Steel disc wheels, step plates and four 33x4 1/2 cord tires are standard equipment.

As assurance of mechanical goodness is the Reo double-framed chassis, with its inner frame mounting of power units for longevity and driving smoothness.

For protection against weather inclemencies are improved curtains,—metal framed, close fitting and which store flat in a readily-accessible but out-of-the-way compartment.

And guaranteeing a full source of power is the famous Reo "six" 50 h. p. engine, which—because of a 4-bearing crankshaft, ground cylinders, correct valve placement, large ports and remarkably efficient cooling system, gives greater meaning to engine flexibility and economy.
