

There is a big bunch of leghargic fishermen in Pitt County and Eastern Carolina. They are spending golden hours at the time of the year when the fields call for the best they have to give. Yet it will not do to blame entirely the tenant farmer who leaves his field and goes down to the creek in the faint hope of catching a worthless CATFISH.

Just because he is not a clod but a human being, this fisherman will never leave his creek for the land until he can see in the cultivation of the soil something definite in the way of a future for himself. There are hundreds of the creek fishermen type, who once given a chance to own a small parcel of land would never again consider the creek and the bobbing cork as a means of killing otherwise intolerable time.

To put the man and land in harness requires cooperation of big landlords and possibly a little self sacrifice. But if such a condition could be brought about big results would follow, not only in the full utilization of the soil, but in the production of new men with broadened vision and power of energy.

The experiment is well worth the trial.

PROMINENT GREENVILLE MAN IS DEAD

Joseph F. Tunstall, Dies At Summer Home During Today

Joseph F. Tunstall, for years one of the leading business men of Greenville, died at his summer home at Swannanoa early today, after a lingering illness. Death was directly attributable to pernicious anemia, with which he was stricken last December. His wife, Miss Mamie Ruth Tunstall, a daughter and son C. D. Tunstall were at his bedside when he died.

The body will be brought here on the 10:15 train on the Norfolk Southern railroad tomorrow morning. The funeral will be held Thursday and burial will be in Cherry Hill cemetery. Final arrangements will not be announced until the arrival of the body and Mrs. Tunstall and children who will accompany it.

Led Active Life.

Mr. Tunstall was born in Beaufort county 67 years ago. In 1882 he married Miss Celia Pugh, of Hyde county. For many years he was actively identified with the business life and every civic movement that had to do with the development of Greenville and Pitt county. He was a charter member of Covenant Lodge I. O. O. F. and a member of the original board of trustees of the Christian church, and took an active part in building the first structure that the church had in Greenville.

Five years ago he moved to Rocky Mount, returning here in 1921 to accept a position with Forbes and Morton, tobaccoists.

Death Community Blow.

When Mr. Tunstall left several weeks ago to spend the summer months at his place at Swannanoa, as had been his custom for several years, it was believed that the change would bring about an improvement in his condition. Every effort was made to prolong his life and blood transfusion was employed just a short time before his death.

The death of Mr. Tunstall removes from Greenville one of its best and most progressive citizens, and his passing will leave a vacancy hard to fill.

Besides his widow he is survived by Miss Mamie Ruth Tunstall, Mrs. J. A. Jones, and Mrs. Katie Lassiter daughters and C. D. Tunstall.

The Rev. W. P. Shamhart, pastor of the Christian church will have charge of the funeral services

With an allowance from his father of only $200 a month, he and his bride are living happily in the little railroad town of Jackson, Tenn., where he is learning the railroad business from the ground up.

MOUNT ETNA CONTINUES TO POUR DISASTER FURY ON COUNTRY SIDE, CRATER AT MOUTH GROWS LARGER

CATANIA, ITALY, June 20.—Some of the latest reports from the country side stricken by Mount Etna's eruption give rise to hope that the fury of the mountain may have passed its peak of greatest intensity. However, the situation is generally regarded here as being practically unchanged with a stream of lava bearing steadily but inevitably down upon Linguaglossa. During the night the mouth of the crater was enlarged by renewal of terrible convulsions. A new stream of lava on the western side of Etna menaces the Giarre junction on the Etna railway. According to leading volcanologists six new craters have opened, only two of which, however, are of the first importance. In these can clearly be seen the lava in frightful turmoil being ejected in irregular spurts amid vast clouds of fumes and ashes, forming two streams of liquid death, one of which is rolling on Linguaglossa, the other moving toward Sciaropass, but threatening no inhabited points, though causing immense damage to the vineyards and nut plantations which constituted the wealth of the countryside.

The speed of the latter stream is so slow, however, it is hoped it will no advance far, but rather form a kind of lake in one of the valleys. Numberless heart rending episodes are being enacted in this theater around Etna. The affection of the peasants for their homelands renders their evacuation a difficult and delicate task.

"If the Ku Klux Klan leaders will appear in person with their masks off, and show a real grievance, they will receive consideration and action," said the governor.

Attempt to Lynch Williamston Negro Halted By Sheriff

WILLIAMSTON, June 20.—Fifty masked men made an unsuccessful attempt at lynching a negro here yesterday when they rode into the town from Creswell and demanded that Sheriff Roberts deliver Earl Bascombe charged with attempted assault upon a white girl and cruelly beating a white youth who went to her rescue at Creswell.

News of the advent of the mob reached Williamston ahead of the negro to another county. Telephone wires leading from Creswell to Williamston had been cut. The mob rode up before the court house at 1 o'clock and demanded the negro. The sheriff, with a posse of citizens, awaited their coming.

"The negro has been taken away. Even if he were here I would not turn him over to you Kluckers," the sheriff answered their demands. "We are not Kluckers but we want that negro," several of the mob answered.

Every Auto Salesman Must Pay Separate Tax, Official Holds

RALEIGH, June 20.—Not only automobile dealers but each individual salesman in their employ are liable for the $5 State tax, according to a ruling made by R. A. Doughton, commissioner of revenue. The commissioner will endeavor to increase the revenue from automobile sales taxes from $45,000, the amount received last year to $20,000, the amount estimated to be due the state, has brought forth numerous inquiries as to just who is taxable.

The statute provides a $500 manufacturer's license for each make of car and that each salesman shall have a duplicate of the license, for which there is a fee of $5. POCAHONTAS, Ark., June 20.—Four priests and one lay official of the Engleber Catholic church, near here, were wounded in a mysterious shotgun attack in the home of one of the priests last night, following a church conference, at the conclusion of a social affair.

Burton Knott, 20, is in jail here and Harry Daniels was released on bond to await a preliminary hearing. A veritable fusillade of shots splintered the house where the men were gathered around a table checking reports of the conference. Great resentment is expressed against the attack, as all the clergymen are well known and popular.

Weird Bootlegger Stories Stir Federal Agents in N. Y.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Federal prohibition enforcement authorities electrified by two of the wildest bootlegging stories that have yet reached their ears, today began planning a campaign to mop up Long Island which, it was disclosed, has been adopted as the newest scene of operations of runners plying to and from the off-shore rum fleet.

The wildest of the stories, almost incredible to the ears of the authorities, although vouched for by Sheriff Amza Biggs, of Suffolk county, involved a pitched battle between eight deputy sheriffs and some 50 or 60 rum runners and New York gunmen, in which the deputies finally were driven to cover, while armed patrols conveyed a fleet of trucks with nearly 600 cases of liquor to New York. This encounter took place at Greensport.

While continued warm weather was forecast generally, some localities may get temporary relief tomorrow from thunder showers.

Local prediction is warmer tonight and tomorrow.

Shipments of strawberries are still being made to North Carolina points. Clinton promises to become the main shipping point for dewberries. S. H. Hobbs has formulated the theory that the same characteristic of soil that makes Sampson the banner huckleberry county gives a higher quality to the dewberry. Roasting aer corn is beginning to move, also Irish potatoes. The big thing for days past has been the huckleberry shipment.

MOB FIGHT PUT DOWN BY MILITIA

Lynching Crowd That Stormed County Jail Dispersed, Report

SAVANNAH, June 20.—The deserted, silent streets today over by the keen eyes of the law and 150 militiamen stood out in marked contrast to the stormy scene a few hours before when a mob of more than 2,000 persons as assembled before the jail where Walter Lee, negro, charged with criminal assault upon a white woman is being held.

Oscar Parker, Jr., was fatally shot in the rush of the mob and George Bart was seriously wounded by bullets. Many others were hurt by bricks. The crowd was finally dispersed by the militia.

Negro Identified.

Lee, a negro about 18 years old, was captured by county police yesterday afternoon after a 24 hour manhunt. He is charged with attacking a white woman living in West Savannah and beating her into insensibility with a sad iron. His capture was effected upon information furnished by a negro who had seen him near the woman's home shortly before the crime was committed. He was rushed to the county jail, where he was identified by his victim. He denies his guilt, but according to the police, every circumstance points to his guilt.

Crowd Defies Sheriff.

Shortly after midnight when the armed forces about the jail had been perceptibly increased the crowd was addressed by Solicitor-General Walter Hartridge, and by Sheriff Merritt W. Dixon, who declared it was his purpose to protect the prisoner and if any attempt was made to storm the jail there would be bloodshed. Sheriff Dixon's address did not quiet the crowd.

"Gun-Woman" Thug Proves to Be Man, Doctors End Question

CHICAGO, June 20.—Fred Thompson, who for several hours following his arrest as the "smiling" woman bandit that shot and killed Richard C. Tesmer, had police officials fooled as to whether he was a man or a woman, was declared to be a man, after a medical examination.

Thompson, posing as the wife of Frank Carrick, was arrested in the Carrick apartment, dressed for the role he is said to have filled over 14 years, was taken before Tesmer's widow and identified as the person who shot her husband during a hold-up.

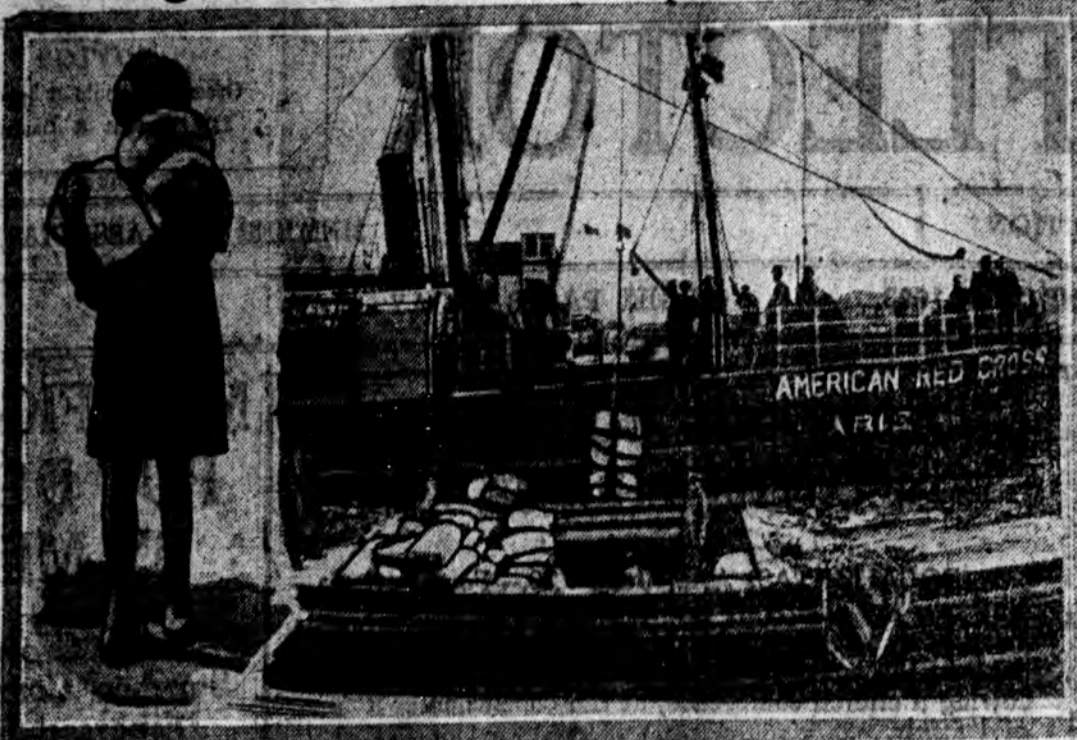

At the request of Mrs. Tesmer, Thompson still dressed in female attire, was ordered to say a few words and then smile. Then Mrs. Tesmer, police say, cried that Thompson was the one who shot her husband, and that his smile was identical with the one that was on the face of the woman bandit as she pulled the trigger.

Thompson, his "husband" and another man and woman were arrested in the Carrick apartment. Thompson played his part so well that police were in a quandary until Dr. Clara Seippel, a city physician, examined him and then ordered that the prisoner be sent to a headquarters for male prisoners and not confined in woman's quarters, as previously had been ordered.

"God gave me a double nature," Thompson is reported to have told the police under questioning. "When I was 18 years old, I was chased out of my home by my father. I am 32 now. Fourteen years ago I was married to Frank Carrick at Crown Point. During recent years I appeared as a singer in a North Side cabaret."

Greek Operation of American Red Cross Is Model of Efficiency For Conduct of Large Scale Relief Work at Long Range

When the American Red Cross withdraws its relief forces from Greece, this summer, it will have established a record for effective emergency relief. Its operations which involved the feeding of 500,000 refugees from Anatolia and Eastern Thrace and the supplying of the medical needs of a million destitute and homeless people are too large to be easily grasped. The photographs above shows the loading of American Red Cross ships at Piraeus for transshipment to Greek Islands, and some of the Red Cross supplies duly delivered to the ultimate consumer.

The scope of the work can be better illustrated by a summary of accomplishments in a particular district, typical of the operation of the relief program throughout the entire Grecian peninsula and the islands surrounding it. Patras district, where American Red Cross work was directed by Henry C. Wolfe of Coshocton, Ohio and the medical phases of the program by Dr. J. C. McKean of El Paso, Texas, affords such an illustration.

Through the months of January, February, March and April the American Red Cross was feeding, in the Patras District alone, 40,000 refugees and on May 1 that number was increased to 43,000 owing to recent arrivals.

The organization has completely furnished and equipped eight refugee hospitals in the district with a total capacity of 325 beds.

It has opened and is operating three ambulatoria at the towns of Zante, Patras and Argostoli. These ambulatoria treat, on an average, between 400 and 500 refugees daily. Medicines have also been supplied to the smaller refugee centers throughout the district.

Three milk stations for babies are in operation in the towns above mentioned, feeding about 1,000 babies a day.

The typhus epidemic, which threatened to become serious has been brought under control and at the beginning of May there were only a few remaining cases in the district.

Every refugee has been vaccinated and the campaign to inoculate the refugees against typhoid and cholera has been started.

Ten Greek doctors are in the employ of the American Red Cross in the district as well as about 50 nurses and hospital attendants. The medical program has been organized so that it can continue to function after the Americans withdraw.

Twenty-five thousand refugees have been bathed and deloused at the American Red Cross bathing plants and their clothing fumigated.

Ten thousand refugees have been clothed and ten thousand have been supplied with blankets.

Thousands of pamphlets giving advice on how to avoid sickness have been distributed among the refugees of the district and posters dealing with various phases of the sanitary program have been posted in prominent places in the towns and villages.

Camp sanitation has been emphasized and enforced.

EUROPEAN STARS PRAISE AMERICAN TENNIS PLAYERS

PARIS.—European tennis stars, with the visit of Tilden to Saint Cloud in 1921 and Johnston's participation in the International Hard-court Championships here in May, have now all had an opportunity of seeing the two foremost exponents of American tennis at work, and their opinions as to the relative merits of their game vary as does the style of play of the two men.

The correspondent of The Associated Press asked the leading players assembled for the Saint Cloud tournament how they thought the two Americans compared.

Suzanne Lenglen was the first player approached. "Johnston of course, there is absolutely no comparison," was the great Suzanne's opinion. "Johnston is the greatest tennis player in the world."

Henri Cochet, France's ranking player and Davis Cup team member, said: "Tilden has a greater variety of strokes; he has everything that Johnston possesses, and in addition some strokes that Johnston lacks. I think he is the better man, and the best in the world."

Andre Gobert, the veteran French champion, expressed his opinion as follows: "Tilden's game is more spectacular, one likes to watch him play, but when one sees Johnston, he instinctively says to himself 'How I should like to be able to play like him.' This is not the case with Tilden. I prefer Johnston."

Gibbons Fights 10 Years Without Being Floored Once

ST. PAUL. — When Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul enters the ring at Shelby, Mont., July 4, to meet Jack Dempsey in a 15-round decision contest, he will carry with him a rare boast for a fighter of his experience—he has never been knocked off his feet.

In ten years of his professional career, the St. Paul challenger has successfully withstood all efforts to knock him out, or even down, while he in turn has counted 30 knockouts in his last 34 bouts.

It was back in 1913 that Tommy counted his first knockout, flooring Johnny Shaw in the third round.

For several years, Gibbons was merely a successful boxer, and it was not until 1921 that he began to show a punch that sent opponent after opponent down for the count. It was the start of his successful march toward a championship bout.

Gibbons won 20 straight contests via the knockout route, then was outpointed by Harry Greb in a 15-round bout in New York, in March, 1922, which went to Greb on the referee's decision, and with it the light-heavy weight title Gibbons was striving for.

American Red Cross Restores Roses to Cheeks of Children Who Were Once Doomed to Die

They are not prize-winning children, perhaps, judged by American standards, but their mothers are proud of them and proud of the fact that they are being photographed by an American Red Cross worker in Seres. Seres is in Macedonia and the children are only a few of the refugees who are housed in the flimsy barracks there and fed by the American Red Cross.

It is doubtful if there would be any youngsters visible were it not that America had come to the rescue and sent to Greece great quantities of American milk. It's the milk that makes the little boys' legs look so chubby and gives the little girls their plump cheeks.

And it isn't in Seres alone, but all through Greece and the islands that dot the Aegean, that babies' lives have been saved and mothers have been made to smile again, not by twos and threes but by thousands and by tens of thousands. During the winter and early spring the American Red Cross was feeding in Greece no less than 500,000 refugees from Anatolia and Eastern Thrace, mostly women and children. Not all of them would have actually starved without this feeding but in a case like this it is better to err on the side of safety. The older members of the family got such solid food as bread and beans, rice and corn grits, but for the babies there was "milk"—that was the most highly appreciated gift of all.

The refugees, a million of them all told, came to Greece following the burning of Smyrna and the defeat of the Greek armies last fall. Some of them were able to take care of themselves from the start. Some have since managed to reestablish themselves. It is summer in Greece now. There are vegetables in the gardens and grain is ripening in the fields. The crisis of the emergency has passed. The American Red Cross will end its Greek program on June 30 and its withdrawing will carry back to America the gratitude of the entire Greek nation.

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincer, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. I heard of

Theford's

and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."

Theford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. Try Black-Draught.

Pig's Snout Put Work Farm Labor Shortage

CHICAGO.—The snout of the pig has been put to work by the farm labor shortage, and the saying that everything of the pig is used but his squeal no longer holds entirely good, says the National Institute of Progressive Farming.

The pig now drinks at automatic waterers and manipulates self-feeders with his snout, which he formerly used to root up pastures and emit loud squeals. He need no longer root the ground or squeal when hungry, the incentive having been removed. A certain amount of time and labor also was eliminated by the more simplified way of feeding and watering. The consumer, the Institute says, benefits materially with better pork products through the more general use of sanitary concrete wallows or baths and automatic hog-otters which tend to decrease hog diseases formerly contracted in the traditional mud-wallows. In fact the hogs readily take to the "concrete baths" in preference to the old mud puddlers.

Ships That Pass at Night Ring A Bell On Shore

VIENNA.—Austrian inventors have perfected an instrument which automatically and accurately records the passage of any vessel over a given body of water, night or day, to observers who may be located on shore. As an aid in catching smugglers, and a help to coast defense in war time, the invention is regarded as distinctly valuable.

The device consists of a small search light sending a ray no bigger than a pencil across the space to be controlled, and a receiving apparatus at the other end containing a light-sensitive selenium cell. Whenever a passing vessel interrupts the rays of the search light, the selenium cell closes a relay which starts a bell alarm, or operates a recording device.

Edinburgh Strikers Return.

EDINBURGH.—After a four months strike, during which 10,000 pounds was paid in strike money and 30,000 pounds was lost in wages, 500 paper workers in the Valleyfield mills have returned to work.

INCREASED IMPORTATION OF MANUFACTURING MATERIALS

The growing dependence of the United States upon the foreign world for their raw material is evidenced by the latest figures of our foreign trade. The importation of "crude material for use in manufacturing" will approximate, according to the Trade Record of the National City Bank of New York, a billion and a half dollars in the fiscal year which ends with the current month, against $909,000,000 in the fiscal year 1922, and $1,051,000,000 in the fiscal year 1921.

Raw material for manufacturing formed in the 9 months ending with March no less than 39% of the total merchandise entering the country as against 35% in the fiscal year 1922 and 29% in the fiscal year 1921. These figures relate exclusively to crude materials and do not include the group "manufactures for further use in manufacturing," which formed 19% of the imports of the 9 months ending with March as against 15 1/4% in 1922 and slightly less than 15% in 1921. Combining these two groups of crude material and manufactures for further use in manufacturing, it appears that material used in the manufacturing industries of the United States formed no less than 58% of the total merchandise entering the country in the 9 months ending with March, 1923, against 50% in 1922. The total value of manufacturing material crude or partly manufactured, drawn from abroad in the fiscal year which ends with the current month will exceed $2,000,000,000, the exact figures for the 9 months for which details are now available being, crude material for use in manufacturing $1,070,631,000, and manufactures for further use in manufacturing $511,378,000.

The principal articles forming this enormous total of manufacturing material entering the country are raw silk, wool, cotton, fibers, india rubber, gums, hides and skins, furs, mineral oil, nickel ore, and copper, while the partly manufactured articles for further use in manufacturing include lumber, vegetable oils, nitrate of soda, wool and cotton yarn, pig tin, and diamonds cut but not set. There is also a limited quantity of iron ore of a class especially suited for mixing with the domestic ore. The ore of late has also formed a factor of considerable importance, coming in this form from our neighbor at the south, Bolivia, which exports most of its tin in the form of ore, while other tin producing sections of the world smelt their ore and export it in the form of pigs and bars.

A large proportion of the articles which we thus import for use in manufacturing are, it will be observed, tropical or sub-tropical products, and as they are not the outturn of climatic conditions which exist in the United States, the money sent abroad by our manufacturers for this class of material continues to increase. The total value of crude material imported for use in manufacturing in 1900 was $276,000,000; in 1910 $566,000,000; in the fiscal year 1914, all of which preceded the war, $633,000,000, and will be in the current year, in round terms, one and one-half billion dollars, to say nothing of the more than a half billion dollars worth coming in the partly manufactured form.

The whole world, however, adds the Trade Record, contributes in greater or less degree to the wants of our manufacturers. The raw silk of which we imported $285,000,000 worth in the first 8 months of the current fiscal year, came chiefly from Japan, which alone supplied $208,000,000 worth, China $55,000,000, and Italy $8,000,000 worth. Wool, of which the imports of the 8 months in question were $87,000,000, came largely from Australia, Argentina, Uruguay, and certain of the European countries, which drew from their colonies at least a part of that which they sent us. India rubber, of which the value imported in the 8 months in question was $79,000,000 against $55,000,000 in the same period of last year, came largely from the British and Dutch East Indies, and in limited quantities from Brazil, also from the United Kingdom and Netherlands, which sent us a part of the rubber which they had drawn from their own colonies. Of cotton, of which we are the world's largest producer, our total imports in the 8 months were $44,000,000 worth against $31,000,000 in the same months of last year; Peru Egypt alone $33,000,000 worth, Peru nearly $2,000,000, and China nearly $2,000,000. The tin which, as above indicated, came largely in the form of pigs and bars was the product of the Malayan Peninsula, the Dutch East Indies, while that coming in the form of ore was from Bolivia. The fibers came chiefly from India and other extremely tropical sections; the gums are chiefly tropical, while petroleum, of which the imports of the 8 months ending with February were over 3,000,000 gallons, came chiefly from Mexico.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

The big Community Sale of Greenville merchants opens tomorrow and continues until Saturday.

WORD OF CHEER TO FISHERMEN

In dismissing a man charged with vagrancy a Georgia court remarked: "The evidence shows that the defendant did some considerable work during every month prior to his arrest, and that his only relaxation from too constant toil was in plying his finest art to lure from dark haunts, beneath the tangled roots of pendent trees, the alert and wary denizens of the river. Surely it will not be said that while thus engaged he was idling. If he was not successful, all the greater proof of his patient and hopeful labor?"

THE COMMUNITY SALE

Everything is in readiness for the formal opening of the Greenville and Pitt County Community Sale, which will be inaugurated tomorrow and will continue through until Saturday. Merchants have been preparing for this event for several weeks, and the culmination of their collective efforts will be reflected in the varied assortment of quality goods which will be offered buyers during the period of the sale.

If indications count for anything the event promises to be epochal, not only in bargain giving values but the wide influence it is going to exert on future trading as between dealer and purchaser. This underselling project is expected to realize just what its sponsors desire, stronger development of COMMUNITY INTERESTS.

You cannot well afford to miss these bargain days. Those concerns who are responsible for the event can be easily designated by the COMMUNITY COP placard which is on conspicuous display in windows.

Read over the bargains, see the fine window trims, then fall into line and join the COMMUNITY SALE PROCESSION.

HE KNOWS HIS "STUFF"

There was some plain speaking at William and Mary College in Virginia, by John W. H. Crim, assistant attorney-general of the United States.

Addressing the alumni of his venerable alma mater, Crim charged that "the crooked politician" had to be combatted virtually every time the federal government moved in the courts to enforce the law.

"I can count on my fingers," said Crim, "the professional politicians in my long experience who at any time rendered substantial aid in law enforcement."

Crim's address was an attack on the archaic system under which the department of justice is conducted. He declared it needed renovation from top to bottom.

One of his recommendations was that the attorney-general's office should be taken out of the cabinet and the post turned into a non-political one, with a long-term, if not a permanent, incumbent.

The Amoskeag Mills, largest manufacturing plant in New Hampshire announces a shut-down of its cotton mills for 16 days, beginning June 29. The mill was low American bidder for 500,000 yards of uniform cloth for the United States Marine Corps, but Manchester, England, underbid them by 60 cents a yard and was awarded the order. Foreign and Southern competition is causing considerable uneasiness among New England textile manufacturers.

Something to swat besides the fly: The bird who asks you whether it is hot enough?

Sisyphus whose job in hell was to roll a stone uphill which constantly rolled back had nothing on mere mortals in these days to keep from burning up.

WETS FAIL TO ENLIST GRAIN MEN

Attempts to line up the Grain Dealers' National association, Chicago Board of Trade and thousands of grain growers, dealers and millers of the west and middle west on the side of the liquor interests has failed.

Following repudiation of an appeal issued by the San Francisco Grain Trade association, which, it is charged, attempted to win support for the return of light wines and beer by urging that prohibition has caused a slump in farm values and prices, these two organizations, through their presidents, have registered protests and refused to support any plea for modification of the nation's dry law.

F. E. Watkins, president of the Grain Dealers' National association, which has 5000 members, asserts that the poll being taken by the coast grain men will have no official standing with the national organization.

John J. Stram, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, declared that the board would take no part in such a movement and would repudiate any attempt to involve it in the anti-enforcement issue.

THE AUTO CAMPER

We have heard the lure of the outdoors preached as long as we can remember. And while no one disputed the value of time spent close to nature, it remains a fact that only since the automobile has come into universal use have appreciable increases been made in the number of people who spend a part of their spare time in the open.

A few years ago the auto camper was a rare specimen—a curiosity that would attract attention at any crossroads. Today he is a fixture to be found on every highway and byway of this broad land. Each season he is carrying more and more of his fellows out into the open, thus aiding, to a great extent, the purpose that the out-door press has so long advocated.

The auto camper is to be encouraged for through him a great fraternity of out-door sports lovers is being built. The community which as not made provisions for the camper and is not ready to welcome him is far behind the times, not only in the way of failure to co-operate in a growing movement, but from a selfish standpoint also. The auto camper, depending on the treatment he receives, can become a great asset to a community.

Yes, the auto camper is a fixture and it seems to be up to the various communities to receive him well and to send him on his way pleased with the courtesy shown him—an ardent booster for the communities which he has visited.

The Brown company, pulp and paper manufacturers of Portland, Me., and Berlin, N. H., is taking steps to acquire the title to 30,000 acres of state lands in the Everglades of Florida, and 30,000 additional from the private owners on which peanuts will be grown, the oil from which is to be marketed as a cooking fat.

Funny, since the war there's only two kinds of men left, majors and minors. The majors say they cannot do any work, the minors won't. Quite a few of the latter in Greenville.

Somebody remarked yesterday that the most important thing going on now in Greenville is light underwear.

George Bernard Shaw, English playwright and socialist, in his introduction to one of his books makes the ingenious suggestion that we have tried everything else, why not try the Christian religion and see if it will work. It is working wherever tried.

The retail cost of food increased from April 15 to May 15 in 15 cities about 4 per cent. Five cities showed a slight decrease. During the past year prices have increased from 1 per cent to 8 per cent, with an average of 4 per cent for all sections.

The federal treasury rejoices that it has collected over a half billion dollars in customs during the first 11 months of the fiscal year. Don't hear anything about Secretary Mellon cutting a melon for the benefit of us all.

Belgium joins France in a willingness to take less from Germany if the United States will cancel the debts they owe us. This is a piece of characteristic cheek. The American taxpayer has paid a plenty for saving Europe from German barbarism.

The National Wheat conference which meets in Chicago this month will do much to increase the purchasing value of the farmer's dollar and to decrease dissatisfaction within agricultural population. The conference is far more important in scope than anything that has been done in this direction. Its benefits are going to be felt among our growers this fall.

DUNCAN-HIGGS.

Beautiful Wedding Solemnized in Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

A wedding which will long be remembered for its beauty and attractiveness was solemnized in Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, Tuesday evening at nine o'clock, when Miss Annie Higgs, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Higgs, became the bride of Mr. Herman H. Duncan, Rev. V. P. Scoville, the bride's pastor, performed the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony.

The church was artistically decorated with yellow daisies, smilax, white tapers and evergreen. Pink maline streamers, entwined with smilax were gracefully festooned from a large wedding bell, from which suspended a shower of miniature wedding bells, and fastened to the columns which were veiled with maline and smilax. The candles were used in large numbers and with the beautiful shaded lights cast a mellow glow over the entire scene.

Mrs. R. A. Tyson, Jr., beautifully gowned in rose chiffon and lace with bouquet of pink premier roses, presided at the organ and while the friends were gathering, rendered a beautiful musical program which consisted of "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Even Song," and "Andantino." During the ceremony she played "I Love You Truly," Miss Jessie Moye, a cousin of the bride and who has been studying voice under Albert Jeanette a famous teacher of New York, sweetly and charmingly sang "Beloved it is Morn."—Ayward. She wore a lovely gown of beige chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of pink premier roses. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party entered. First the pages, Masters Richard Burnette, of Rocky Mount, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Burnette, and Billy Tolson, of Des Moines, Iowa, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tolson. They wore attractive suits of white satin. They were followed by the ushers, Messrs. D. C. Moore, Jr., Phillip Goodson, Danville, Va.; John Short, Dr. Bennett Poole, Clayton; Ed Williams and Donald Kirby.

Misses Iva Shelburn, Alice Whitehurst, Madeline Higgs and Novella Moye, bride's maids, were the next to enter. Misses Shelburn and Whitehurst wore beautiful gowns of jade chiffon, with slippers, while Misses Higgs and Moye were attractively gowned in peach chiffon and silver slippers. They all wore bandeaux of maline entwined with flowers and carried arm bouquets of Russell roses. They entered down opposite aisles crossed in the center and with the ushers formed a semi-circle on the steps and around the chancel.

Mrs. Alex Jones, of Rocky Mount, as dame of honor, wore a handsome gown of honeydew chiffon with silver slippers, and carried as arm bouquet of pink snapdragons and dark blue delphinium.

Misses Helene and Hortense Higgs, sisters of the bride, were maids of honor. Miss Helene wore a lovely frock of orchid chiffon and silver slippers with a bandeau of maline entwined with flowers to match her gown. She carried a semi-shower bouquet of Columbia roses. Miss Hortense, wore an attractive gown of canary chiffon, with silver slippers, and a bandeau of maline and flowers. She carried a semi-shower bouquet of Ophelia roses.

They were followed by little Misses Mary Dorcas Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harding and Jean Abbit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Abbit, of Wilson, as flower girls. Mary Dorcas presented a beautiful picture in her little frock of pink chiffon, over silver cloth with the maline veil which was held in place with a wreath of roses while Jean was equally as attractive in a frock of blue chiffon over silver with the blue veil and wreath of roses. They carried small baskets filled with rose petals. Master Harry West Abbit, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Abbit, of Wilson, preceded the bride. He wore a beautiful suit of white satin and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The bride entered with her father Mr. J. W. Higgs who gave her in marriage.

She was never more beautiful than on this her bridal evening. She wore a handsome bridal gown of Mole skin satin with court train. Her veil was arranged most gracefully and was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, orchids and valley lilies. As she entered she presented a vision of loveliness befitting only a bride. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man and brother, Prof. J. L. Duncan, of Mebane.

After the beautiful and impressive ceremony the bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Mrs. Duncan is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Higgs. She has always made her home in Greenville, and with her lovely traits of character and attractive personality, has endeared herself to a host of friends. She was educated at St. Mary's school, Raleigh, being a member of the '20 class. She also attended Trinity College and is a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority. She is one of the most popular members of the younger social set.

Mr. Duncan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Duncan, of Clayton. He was educated at Wake Forest College being a member of the '21 class. He has been a member of the faculty of the Greenville graded schools for the past two years and possesses those qualities which go to make a successful teacher. For several summers, prior to his graduation, he was a member of the Eastern Carolina baseball league. He was a lieutenant in the world war and saw much service overseas. Mr. Duncan is very popular in the religious and social circles of the city and is held in high esteem by a host of admiring friends.

Immediately after the reception which was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan left for a six weeks tour of western Carolina. While away Mrs. Duncan will attend the Kappa Delta convention in Bristol, Va.

The Reception.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Higgs delightfully entertained at a beautiful reception on Tuesday evening, at their attractive home on Dickinson Avenue in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Duncan.

The home was decorated with all kinds of spring flowers, smilax and burning tapers. The entire lower floor was thrown into one and presented a beautiful scene.

Upon arrival the guests were given a cordial welcome by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Moye, Rev. and Mrs. V. P. Scoville and Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse who invited them into the reception hall which was attractively decorated with daisies and white tapers, carrying out the yellow and white color scheme. As the guests passed from the hall into the drawing room they were received by Mrs. Joe Nobles and Mr. S. J. Everett. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Higgs, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Duncan, Mrs. G. R. Dixon, of Rocky Mount, grand mother of the bride, Mr. James Higgs, Raleigh, a great uncle of the bride, the members of the bridal party and several out of town visitors. The hostess wore a beautiful black and silver sequin gown, with a corsage of orchids, while her mother Mrs. Dixon wore a handsome gown of black lace. The drawing room was attractively decorated with wedding bells, bride's roses and smilax. From the drawing room the guests passed into the library where they were received by Mrs. B. T. Rouse. The punch bowl was arranged on a table beautifully decorated with daisies and smilax. Other spring flowers were used in profusion while the burning tapers added much to the attractiveness of the room. The punch bowl was presided over by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. James Fiedler.

In passing from the library back to the hall the guests were given a cordial welcome by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bryan, and shown to the dining room door where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Higgs. The dining room decorations carried out the color scheme of lavender and yellow, with yellow candles being used in large numbers, and lavender sweet peas being used in profusion. The table was covered with a lovely madder's cover. Silver candle sticks tied with lavender tulle containing yellow tapers were arranged on the four corner while the center piece was formed with a large silver basket of yellow roses tied with a yellow and lavender maline bow. Mrs. Lewis Skinner and Mrs. A. W. Gill, of Rocky Mount, aunt of the bride, sat at either end of the table and served an ice course from large silver platters. The cream was frozen in shapes of wedding bells and bride's slippers while the cakes were made in heart shape and decorated with valley lilies. The mints carried out the prevailing color scheme. Mesdames Skinner and Gill were assisted in serving by Misses Ada James, Hennie Long, Bessie Brown, Hannah Dixon, Elizabeth Higgs, Gertrude Taft, Emily Moye, Mary Harding and Dove Burnette.

From the dining room the guests passed into the gift room where they were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. W. E.

Hooker and received by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Abbit, Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Burnette, Rocky Mount. The array of gifts was large and beautiful. Every article necessary for housekeeping was included in the selection, many of which were very costly. They showed the popularity of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and the esteem in which they are held by their large hosts of friends.

Mr. and H. E. Austin, in their usual charming manner, welcomed the guests as they passed from the gift room to the hall and invited them to register in the guest book which was presided over by Mr. Herbert Waldrop and Miss Nancy Arthur.

Edmunds orchestra was stationed in the rear hall and furnished delightful music throughout the evening. After all the guests had called an hour of dancing was enjoyed.

A large number of friends called during the evening to wish Mr. and Mrs. Duncan a long and happy life, and to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Higgs.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. James A. Higgs, Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Abbit, Wilson, and Mrs. A. W. Rupert Hughes' story
With Patsy Ruth Miller, Claude Gillingwater and
"REMEMBRANCE"

"Remembrance" is a picture every father should bring his whole family to see. Rupert Hughes puts the father where he put the mother in "The Old Nest." But the majority will like "Remembrance" better, because it has a lot of pretty scenery and beautiful gowns that "The Old Nest" did not have, and yet you have a story that is wonderfully true to life. All fathers fifty years and over admitted free.

GIRL SCOUTS GIVE AN INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF RECENT CAMPING TRIP

After a three hour ride we at last arrived at Pamlico Beach and our good times started right then.

There were so many things we wanted to do so we started early in the morning by going for a swim before breakfast. After breakfast we were required to clean up our rooms for inspection and then we were free to do anything we pleased. Several of the girls would go crabbing others boat-riding but we'd leave all this to walk to the mailbox for news from home. The bell-boy, Herman, could "rag" a piano so whenever we could get him to play for us we would dance. He was very accommodating and was always willing to play for us.

At night our girls and the Rocky Mount Scouts would have a "hen party"—some would dress like "cake-eaters" and make dates with the "flappers. We would dance till 9:30 then go to our rooms. From 9:30 to 10:00 we had evening prayers and Bible reading. "Lights out" by 10:30.

When Dr. and Mrs. Carr came they immediately started planning trips for our pleasure. One afternoon we secured a motor boat and fastened three rowboats to it and all of us went boat riding. We planned a picnic over at Indian Island and were disappointed when the could't go.

One morning, the last day the Rock Mt. Scouts were there. Misses Wilkinson and Pattie Smith gave us a party. We played Hearts and Dree and Elizabeth Andrews won the prize for having the highest score. Coca-Colas and salted peanuts were served. All of us enjoyed it so much.

The Greenville Scouts played Rocky Mount Scouts baseball and it was a very exciting game. The score was 5-5 and we thought it best to let it stand so we never played the tie off.

The Rocky Mount girls left Tuesday and we were all sorry to see them go. We were planning to leave Thursday morning through the country but at about 8 o'clock that morning the "Duray" anchored at the pier and Mr. Justice, Mr. Sachse and Wyatt Brown informed us that they had come to take us home. We packed and were ready to leave by 9:30. We got to Washington in time for lunch and hit Greenville about 6:30, tired and sunburned but a happy bunch of girls and we all agreed that "Be it ever so humble there's no place like home."

"Nix on that stuff!" Will B. Thistle paid real money for a real Ward's "Crush," and he'd be "!!!!" if he'd take a counterfeit drink. He just insisted and he got the genuine.

Just INSIST !!$?!

Your taste is the surest test. The genuine Ward's "Crushes," mellow, soothing, cooling, just smooth all the thirsty-wrinkles—from your throat. A sip; a swallow; S-A-Y, there just isn't any drink nearly so good. Ward's Crushes owe their distinctive and delightful flavors to the natural fruit oils of oranges, lemons and limes. To these have been added pure cane sugar, citrus fruit juices, U. S. certified food color, fruit acid and carbonated water. Everybody likes them.
