WORLD COURT URGED

Harding Tells Audience U. S. Must Help the European Situation

PORTLAND, ORE., July 5.—President Harding was the "orator of the day" of Portland's Independence Day celebration, and in his address, delivered this afternoon at Multnomah Athletic Field, he made a plea for re-consecration to American ideals and purposes and urged that the United States move to avoid war by doing "one thing more"—adhering to the permanent court of international justice.

"Every man wearing the habiliments of an American citizen must be an American in his heart and soul," the Chief executive declared. "I would like to acclaim the day when there is no room in America, anywhere, for those who defy the law and those who seek our hospitality for the purpose of destroying our institutions should be deported or held securely behind prison walls."

"There is one thing more we can do," he asserted, after concluding his Americanization appeal. "We want no more of war. To that end I have asked the Senate to give its assent to American participation in the Permanent Court of International Justice. I want America to give of its influence to bring about universal peace."

Ruhr Occupation Interrupts Tourist Travel In Switzerland

BASEL, Switzerland.—Swiss tourists traffic has been hard hit by the French occupation along the Rhine, and the consequent upsetting of through travel from Scandinavia, Holland, Poland and France which formerly drained through the Rhine valley.

Traffic still runs, but they are slow and irregular as compared with the service which formerly connected Ostend, Paris, Brussels, Rotterdam and Copenhagen with the German watering-places along the Rhine and in Switzerland. The public was accustomed to the old route and is slow to start on other lines which are not affected by the French occupation, but cannot offer of old-time de luxe service.

Determining Cab Fares Is A Hazardous Job

BERLIN.—Taxicab fares in Berlin are now seven thousand times the number of marks registered on the taximeters.

Taxicab drivers all carry printed tables showing the totals the multiple produces with various possible registrations on the indicator. Every time the multiple is changed there is endless confusion, and many disputes ensue which the police are often called upon to settle.

Clerks in shops are provided with similar tables. In every trade an agreement is arranged as to the multiple which will be used in computing the price of articles in depreciated paper marks, as against the gold-mark price.

SPORTING WORLD AMAZED AT SHOWING OF GIBBONS IN HIS STAND AGAINST DEMPSEY

SHELBY, MONT., July 5.—The whole sporting world was wrong with the exception of that courteous, smiling individual, Tommy Gibbons, of St. Paul.

The challenger, to the astonishment of the 25,000 spectators in the sun-baked arena on the edge of this oil boom town, was on his feet, still fighting at the end of his scheduled 15-round heavyweight championship battle yesterday with Jack Dempsey, when almost everybody expected him to be knocked out in six or seven rounds.

Dempsey, the champion, was an overwhelming favorite to win by a knock-out early in the battle.

Referee Jimmy Dougherty, of Philadelphia, awarded Dempsey the decision when the gong clangd ending the 15th round, but Gibbons, who did not get a cent for fighting the champion, left the ring with a moral victory. It was the first time that any fighter had managed to face Dempsey and still be on his feet at the finish since he became champion. Gibbons has a reputation made in 86 fights of never having been knocked off his feet. That reputation is still good. Dempsey had him dizzy and weary probably half a dozen times, but failed to knock him out.

The fight had an entirely different ending than any of the spectators expected. Even the enthusiastic Gibbons protagonists, shouting encouragement to their fighter, had not the slightest idea he would last more than seven or eight rounds. In fact, it was the consensus of opinion that four or five rounds would find Tommy on the floor knocked out.

Tommy, a master boxer and constantly on the lookout for the knocking blow, danced and side-stepped around the ring, occasionally slipping a right or left to Dempsey's face and then eluding danger by clinching or stepping backward.

Sees World Remedy In Good Will And Friendship Now

DES MOINES.—Christian good-will and friendship, exercised through the influence of the millions of members of the Christian Endeavor Societies, is the remedy for an existing war-torn world, declared Dr. Francis E. Clark of Boston, founder and president of the movement, in his keynote speech which opened the 29 international Christian Endeavor convention here today.

Delegates in attendance from every state in the union, the provinces of Canada and many foreign lands, were told that the theme of the convention, would be "The Harvest Time is Here." A "Friends of Christ" campaign also is to be inaugurated.

"Members of the Christian Endeavor in all lands must band together for the promotion of world-wide Christian fellowship," said Dr. Clark. "There is unbroken unity in our ranks. Some organizations within the first four decades of their existence have lost their early zeal, soft-pedaled their Christian purpose, and divided into two or more factions. Not so Christian Endeavor. Its activities and methods have multiplied ten-fold, but its fundamental purpose, to train the young for Christian service in the church and for the church, never has been altered or overshadowed."

Engineer Would Make Sahara Desert Bloom

LONDON.—Continental engineers think large tracts of the Sahara Desert may be made fertile by artesian borings similar to those employed in the arid parts of Australia.

Pointing out that the sinking of wells had made Australia one of the greatest pasture countries in the world, Gaston Imbeaux, chief engineer of the public works department of the French government, says similar methods would cause a number of fertile oases to spring up in the Sahara, providing pasture for sheep.

Merge Farm Service Under State College

RALEIGH, July 5.—At a joint meeting of state officials here today, it was decided to merge the work of the agricultural extension service under one head. Hereafter the work will be conducted under the supervision of the state college.

Dr. B. W. Kilgore has been named dean.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Mrs. Syrus McCormick, mother of the head of the International Harvester died here today.

Mrs. Charlie Whichard, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Braswell and Mr. William White spent yesterday at Morehead City.

Earnest Simplicity Marks New Premier On Visit Monarch

LONDON, July.—Mrs. Stanley Baldwin, wife of Britain's new prime minister, was as calm and collected as her husband the day he was called from the serenity of the cool English countryside to the heat of a boiling political cauldron and, in a half hour consultation with the sovereign, elevated to a summit of politics. And yet she and her children and her husband all acted in those important hours just as one who hasn't forced himself into an aristocrat's shell usually acts in the times of such excitement, such personal thrill, such emotional happiness.

The king had hurried into town from the military manoeuvres at Aldershot to name a new prime minister, and the Baldwins, like the competing Curzons, had also come up from the country about the same hour.

From his outing garb the man who went to America not long ago to settle the debt changed into the long baggy trousers, the silk-faced overcoat and the top hat of diplomacy. From Number 11 Downing Street, his official home that day as chancellor of the exchequer, he and Mrs. Baldwin walked outside to an ordinary taxicab stand, summoned one of the machines and set off for Buckingham Palace in answer to the important summons from the king. On the way Mrs. Baldwin got out, and her husband went alone to the door of the palace. His own private car did not come for him until later, but his use of an ordinary taxicab caused no surprise, for on several occasions he has gone afoot to see his sovereign.

Guards Secret of Grave of J. W. Booth, Lips Sealed

MOLINE, Ill.—With lips sealed by an oath he said he took more than half a century ago, E. H. Sampson of Moline, claims to be the only living man who knows what disposition was made of the body of John Wilkes Booth, assassin of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Sampson, who is now 81 years old, was a member of the United States secret service detailed to duty at Ford's theatre the night Lincoln was shot there. He had served as one of Lincoln's bodyguards for several months. He saw Lincoln shot, saw Booth jump to the stage of the theatre, was in the party that pursued him, saw Booth shot and helped transfer his body to a United States wardship in the Philadelphia navy yard, according to a recital of the events he has just given out.

FRENCH WAR HEROON VISIT AMERICA

Gen. Gouraud + Gen. Bullard

General Henri Joseph Eugene Gouraud, who lost his arm in the Gallipoli campaign and who commanded the Forty-second American (Rainbow) Division when that organization upset his whole plan of battle on July 5, 1918, by refusing to retreat before the assault of the Germans, is shown here greeted in New York, by Major-General R. L. Bullard, commander of the First Corps Area. General Gouraud comes to be the guest of the Rainbow Division at its 5th anniversary convention. General H. J. Kelly, of the Rainbow division, is shown in the rear.

South Carolina's Negroes Rapidly Migrating North

COLUMBIA, S. C.—South Carolina, long a state in which the negro greatly outnumbered the white, is experiencing a decrease in its colored population that is gradually gaining in volume, according to railroad and other officials in position to observe. One railroad official recently estimated that fully 22 percent of the negro population of the state had left for northern points, and a newspaper in a recent article, estimated that for the first time in more than 100 years, the white population of the state exceeded the negro.

Mennonites Plan Confab at Freeman

FREEMAN, S. D.—Preliminary arrangements have been perfected for the national meeting of the Mennonite General conference to be held here next month. This little town of scarcely a thousand persons is preparing to entertain between four and five thousand visitors who will attend the conference. The meetings will last a week and will be held on the campus of Freeman college a Mennonite school.

Freeman was chosen as a meeting place because there is a Mennonite colony, Wolf Creek, near here. This is the third such meeting to be held in the United States, members of the sect declare.

Drinks Own Medicine, Dis Martyr to Science

TOKIO.—Taking a dose of his recently discovered medicinal preparation which he believed to be a cure for hookworm, Tachū Okumura, attached to the Epidemic Laboratory, sacrificed himself to science. Mr. Okumura, with others, had been working for some years in an effort to find a cure for the disease. It is believed he was making a test on himself when the fatal dose was taken.

Former Emperor Reluctant to Pay the Dutch Taxes, Claim

AMSTERDAM.—William Hohenzollern is quarrelling with the Dutch over the payment of taxes. He is now engaged in a dispute with the municipal authorities of Doorn over the question of local assessments. The former German emperor refuses to pay contending that the municipality is not entitled to its demand because he came to Holland under compulsion. The Doorn city fathers maintain that he came there voluntarily, and have decided to enforce the law with retrospective effect. The municipal council of Amerongen, where the former emperor resided the first year of his exile, has not been slow in following up the decision of the Doorn council, and proposes to submit its claim for arrears in taxes.

Boy Guard to Protect Canadian Forests Now

OTTAWA, Ont.—One hundred and forty thousand Canadian school boys have been banded into an "army of guards to watch for and prevent forest fires in the Dominion this year, according to an announcement made by the Canadian Forestry Association.

The new organization, which is known as the Young Canadians Forest Guard, will, it is expected, save several million dollars worth of timber from fire ravages.

Parker Boy, Pitt Co. First in Grand Circuit July 4, Pacing Classic

Lawyers Gather For Annual Convention

BLOWING ROCK, July 5.—Attorneys from all sections of the state arrived here during today and many more are expected for the 25th annual meeting of the North Carolina Bar association which convenes here tomorrow and for two days thereafter will be in session.

The address of welcome will be delivered tomorrow morning at the opening session by Frank A. Linney of the Watauga county bar and the response will be handled by John G. Dawson of Kinston, L. R. Varner, president of the association is on the schedule for tomorrow for the annual president's address, his subject having been announced as "The North Judicial System."

Others on the three days' program include Walter Clark, Jr., Charlotte; T. W. Rebu' emfwyp vbkaj j j R. E. Denny, Greensboro; Judge W. F. Harding, Charlotte, and A. Mitchell Palmer, former United States attorney general.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, July 5.—The grand circuit was thrilled yesterday with a genuine surprise when Parker Boy entered by W. H. Dail, Greenville, won first money in the pacing classic.

This horse, it is conceded, by followers of the grand circuit to be in a distinctive class because of his past performances. He was not regarded good enough in the line up yesterday to be put in the favorite class, but after the first two heats the North Carolina pacer showed that he clearly outclassed his competitors.

The North Carolina stable that is featured by Dail on the grand circuit is proving not only an innovation for Southern entries, but that Dail is becoming a strong competitor for first honors on the grand circuit meet.

Railroads to Open Two Million Acres of Farming Land

MEXICALI, Lower Calif., July 5.—Bids for the construction of 150 miles of railroad through Lower California by the National Railway of Mexico will be open during July, according to an announcement of Jose I. Lugo, military governor of the northern district of Lower California.

The construction of this railroad, governmental officials state, will make available more than 2,000,000 acres of farming lands, particularly adapted to cotton for which water can be obtained from the abundant flow of the Colorado River. A total of $2,000,000 has been made available for the work, and an additional $2,000,000 has been set aside in the treasury of the northern district of Lower California for future work.

This pioneering railroad construction, according to Mexican officials, is the biggest piece of constructive work since the United States built its Alaskan railroad. The conditions contended with are equal in hardship and opposition from nature, but at extremes in their variety. Cold, snows and the conquering of mountain fastnesses prevailed in the north. This southern operation involves combat with terrific heat in the summer season, death dealing sand storms, miserable chill in other portions of the year, and at all times absence of water or living thing upon which to subsist, except at the shores of the gulf, where water fowl, fish and shell fish abound.

In addition to opening up farming lands, government officials state, the construction of this railroad will make possible the development of a wonderful area of mineral land, rich in surface showing of gold and silver, heretofore too isolated to permit of profitable operation. It will also bring within the reach of rail transportation several million acres which has been passed upon by the geologists of the Mexican government as potential oil bearing lands, live oil seepage, structure, and oil sands yielding petroleum at surface tests.

Want Dry Law Repealed.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 5.—A bill was introduced in the legislature today by Dr. Craig Arnold, repealing all prohibition laws now in effect in that state.

Statue of Lincoln Cast In 1905 to Be Unveiled

CHICAGO—Illinois will soon again pay honor to Abraham Lincoln through the erection of a statue of the emancipator cast almost 20 years ago by Augustus St. Gaudens, who died shortly after the work was completed.

Strange as it may seem, Chicagoans have never had an opportunity of seeing the statue, although it has been in this city almost continuously since it was cast.

While the nation honored Lincoln last year with the erection of the Lincoln Memorial at Washington, and there is a monument with a sarcophagus effect now over the final resting place of the martyred President at Springfield, the St. Gaudens statue will be the first of Lincoln to be erected in his home state.

This statue, completed in 1905, has been stored in a shelter house in Jackson Park here, awaiting final action by the South Park commissioners as to its location. They have about come to the conclusion to place it in Grant Park on the Lake front.

Ask Federal Troops To Protect Tuskegee

TUSKEGEE, ALA., July 5.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has made a request to the government for federal troops to protect Tuskegee Institute and the negro doctors recently sent to the veterans hospital in Tuskegee.

The request was the result of the parade of 7000 members of the Ku Klux Klan before the institute yesterday afternoon. The spokesman of the Klansmen stated that the parade was a symbol of protest from 60,000 Klansmen of the state against the negro personnel the veterans hospital.

Mexican Bandits Pay With Lives for Crime

Mexico City.—Summary vengeance has been exacted by the government for the attack on the Interoceanic Railway passenger train June 8 between Amozoc and Senoret, near Puebla, in which two lives were lost. Five Indians, two of them residents of Amozoc, have been shot after summary court martials and 12 others, whose names were given by those executed as members of the band of robbers, are being harried through the mountains by numerous detachments of federal troops.

Dink James left today for Ocoola Camp where he will be an instructor during the summer months.

JUSTICE IS MOCKED

The remaining indictments against those charged with murder and conspiracy in the Herrin mine massacre have been quashed. They may as well be. It is useless to try them in Williamson county. The prosecution cannot ask for a change of venue. "Bloody Williamson" is a farming-mining community, the two industries being woven together in the life of the region. When a representative of Illinois' attorney general says "justice cannot be obtained in the county," he speaks the plain truth.

Herrin is a familiar story. On the bright forenoon of Thursday, June 22, 1922, twenty-one non-union men were killed by a mob of more than 1000 men. There were hundreds, maybe thousands, of witnesses. The actual killers are known to hundreds.

Few who have watched the two trials held will be surprised at the failure of the juries to convict. The verdicts in both instances represent Williamson county's feelings, wishes and determination. They are in line with the verdict of the coroner's jury on Sunday, June 25, that found the dead came to their end at the hands of parties unknown, and that the deaths of the decedents were due to the acts, direct and indirect, of the Southern Illinois Coal Company. This was the community attitude; strip mine owners had brought workers and armed guards into a union and striking area; the blood of these men, therefore, was on the hands of the mine owners. Herrin was broodingly exultant; what had been done was done, what had happened was no business of courts or outsiders. There was a ray of hope when a grand jury indicted 214 men and denounced local officials who stood by, watched the trials. No convictions were obtained.

The county is overwhelmingly union. The will of the unions was more powerful than the will of the state of Illinois. Illinois officials did their best. Working in the midst of open hostility they brought a dozen men to trial. They faced and fought prejudice, perjury and a conspiracy of sullen silence, concealment and intimidation. They could not tear the truth out of hostile witnesses nor reach the evidence buried in the memories and locked in the consciences of hundreds of people. They have thrown up their hands.

Quibbling over the conduct of the trials is of no moment. There are twenty graves in Herrin's "Potters' Field." Hundreds saw these dead die and know their slayers. "Bloody Williamson" wins.

Justice loses and is mocked. Herrin walks a pariah's path. Mer Rouge and Herrin! Twin symbols of hatred, savagery and blood.

Makers of watch cases must mark on their product the amount of gold that each contains. That is not nearly as embarrassing as would be an order requiring dentists to register a similar record of fillings!

American automobile factories have again broken all records for production, but are behind on deliveries, which shows that the so-called point of saturation of the automobile market is somewhat theoretical.

A soft answer turneth away wrath; but nowadays a soft drink is liable to engender hard feelings.

Those Parisian actresses who gilded their nether limbs justified the phrase "twinkling legs," until then rather pointless.

WORLD'S BEST TIME PIECES TO BE TESTED THIS SUMMER

BERNE.—One hundred and forty-four chronometers have been deposited at the Observatory of Neuchâtel to undergo the international Breguet chronometer competition test. Thirty-one of them are to be tested for marine service and 113 for land. Four countries have supplied the entries for the test. France, England, Denmark and Switzerland, represented by 20 competing firms, 1 French, 2 English, 1 Danish and 16 Swiss.

The results of the test will be made known in September at a public gathering to commemorate the centenary of A. L. Breguet, the famous Swiss clock-maker of Neuchâtel.

Cut Working Hours.

SALISBURY.—The working hours of the Salisbury policemen have been cut from twelve to eight hours a day. Under a new plan put into operation by Chief of Police Gallimore this week, there will be three eight hours shifts. The addition of four patrolmen brings the force to a strength of 12 men.

KING'S DAUGHTERS HOLD AN INTERESTING MEETING

The Patient Circle King's Daughters held a most interesting meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. O. F. Clarke with Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Ella Greene and Miss Nannie Bowling hostesses.

Mrs. W. E. Hooker conducted the devotional exercises after which the business session was enjoyed. Quite a number of reports were made showing the wonderful work which is being done by the order for the sake of suffering humanity.

The Cotton Mill Sunday school committee reported that on Saturday July 14th, the King's Daughters will be hostesses at a picnic for the people of the Cotton Mill. The day's outing will be enjoyed on Mr. O. L. Joyner's farm and the little children of the Sunday school as well as their parents are looking forward to the picnic with great pleasure.

The visiting committee also reported several visits and in each case showed some work accomplished.

After a most inspiring and helpful session the hostesses assisted by Mesdames E. F. Tucker and C. W. Foushee served an ice course.

MR. AND MRS. C. W. FOUSHEE LEAVE FOR GOLDSBORO

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Foushee who for the past four years have made their home in this city left this morning for Goldsboro where they will make their future home.

During their stay in Greenville Mr. and Mrs. Foushee have won a host of friends who will regret to see them leave.

Every success is wished for them in their new home.

COLORED JUDGE WILL BE HEARD IN COURT HOUSE ON SUNDAY EVENING AT 8 P. M.

Judge William H. Harrison, of Chicago, one of the most prominent characters of the negro race in our nation today will speak in the courthouse here on next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

This well known jurist of the west is making a tour of some of the southern states, and fortunate for the negroes of Greenville he has included this city in his itinerary. He is a wonderful speaker according to the information of the press, and his plea for a better co-operation of the races in the south has been well received by those who have heard him.

Special seats will be reserved for the white people.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method to express to our friends our sincere thanks for their many acts of kindness during the recent sickness and death of our dear father, John T. Jenkins.

HIS CHILDREN.

Remembrance of John T. Jenkins.

John T. Jenkins, son of William and Susan Jenkins was born in Martin county October 10, 1845 and died June 28, 1923, making his stay on earth some over 77 years. He fought bravely in the civil war for 18 months, even going before he was called at the early age of seventeen. Soon after the war he married Miss Fannie James and moved to Pitt county near Leans, where he spent the remainder of his life quietly on the farm. To this union were born three children, two W. J. and J. R. Jenkins are still living.

His second wife was Miss Malinda Whichard who died about 12 years ago leaving three children Mrs. Eli Rodgers, Mrs. Ernest Carson and B. E. Jenkins, all who are still living. He was very industrious, energetic, and economical working has until the day he was stricken with pneumonia and later pneumonia from which he died three weeks later. He is remembered for his patient and beautiful evidences that all was well with his soul and that he was going home to rest.

The funeral was conducted by his pastor, Rev. John Rodgers and Rev. B. S. Cowan. The pall bearers were his grandsons E. L. and V. A. Andrews, Jr., his nephews, W. C. D. and Heber Jenkins assisted by a very dear friend of the family J. Latham.

The large crowd attending the funeral and the lovely flowers showed to some extent the esteem in which this good man was held. He had been a member of the Primitive Baptist church at Flat Swamp fifteen years and always enjoyed going to church and having his church funds visit him.

American Women Growing Way of Penniless Barons

BERLIN, July.—International match-makers, the men and women who used to do a thriving business marrying off ties and high social position to wealthy plebeians, have been hit by the war and the resultant financial distress. Marriage among humbler folk all over Europe has increased under the distress, but not so with the leaders of fashion.

June, the month of weddings, has not produced the large number of society weddings which always characterized the month in peacetime. This is especially noticeable in central Europe. Fashionable churches, hotels, cafes, dressmaking shops, jewelryshops and flower-shops do not show the old-time June activity.

Foreign tourists are not visiting central Europe in large numbers, and the residents of central Europe are not traveling abroad. The romances which used to begin in ocean trips are fewer and fewer. American and English women with comfortable fortunes are not wondering about as they did in old times. Travel is not so inviting as it used to be, and families from the lands of gold exchange apparently have little desire to expose their daughters to the sort of tragedies which have grown out of many international marriages recently. Titles which carry with them bankrupt estates are apparently at a great discount. The uncertainty of titles to bronial possessions makes ambitious mothers hesitate. They have seen too many penniless princes and counts and barons rattling about Paris and other European capitals, trying to market their family tree.

But the professional matchmakers have not given up hope and are still active. Vienna has a number of such matrimonial agents who are hard at work, and with the revival of Vienna which has come about as the result of foreign assistance, their opportunities are improving. Vienna's old gaiety is coming back. Its fashions attract foreign women, and music-lovers flock to its opera. Tourists who visit Italy also go to Austria in large numbers. In Berlin commercial matchmakers are having a harder time. The decline in travel and upset political conditions work against them to a greater degree than in any of the other European capitals, and the failure of war hatreds to pass away makes it difficult to do anything with principals who were enemies in the great struggle.

One professional marriage agent, a titled woman who was once a great success in her profession, is constantly seen about the prominent hotels in Berlin, and she has not lost her ability to meet nearly all promising visitors. But she has collected a commission only once in the last twelve months.

The agencies which advertise extensively and arrange marriages on a strictly business basis, without social trimmings, are faring far better than the agents who specialize in aristocrats. Throughout central Europe daily papers are filled with the advertisements of marriage agencies which describe their clients in great detail.

How times have changed

Just a few years ago the old fashioned, barrel top, zinc covered trunk filled with trays was the "Creme de la luxe" of all trunks, but today a Hartmann wardrobe is the choice of the elite because a Hartmann will travel garments without wrinkles and serve as a modern clothes closet the year around.

Well-Known Lynchburg Citizen Gains 35 Lbs. On Tania

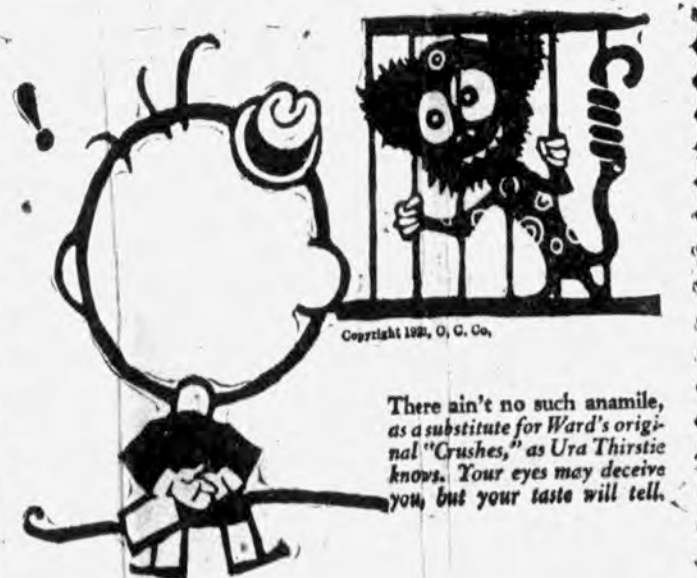

"Three years ago Tania restored me to perfect health, with a gain of 35 pounds in weight and I've been feeling fine ever since," said W. M. Eubank, 200 Wall Street Lynchburg, Va., popular floor manager of the Lynchburg City Market.

"Flu and pneumonia led me so run down that I lost nearly three months from my work and was unable to do anything. I had no appetite, what I did eat always caused gas to form on my stomach and I could hardly ever lie down at night without having awful suffocating spells. I was also extremely nervous and often had dizzy spells when everything would turn black before my eyes."

"Tania has put me back on my feet in such fine shape. I haven't missed a meal or a day from work in three years."

Tania is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tania Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

There ain't no such animal, as a substitute for Ward's original "Crushes," as Ura Thirstie knows. Your eyes may deceive you, but your taste will tell.

If necessary INSIST

Why play tricks on your taste? Accepting a substitute for a genuine Ward's "Crush" is like taking a grind organ to grand opera. Why do it? Just insist on the genuine. Ward's Crushes owe their distinctive and delightful flavors to the natural fruit oils of oranges, lemons and limes. To these have been added pure cane sugar, citrus fruit juices, U. S. certified food color, fruit acid and carbonated water. Everybody likes them.
