

Without qualification veteran tobacco growers and others familiar with the industry predict that Pitt and other Eastern Carolina counties will make a record crop here this season. The same is true of cotton, based on the present outlook. The damage report to the tobacco crop by the recent hail storm, investigation shows was largely overestimated. It now appears that this section promises to get back to a normal era of prosperity.

Unless some unforeseen condition or circumstance arises beyond the control of human agency, the business interests and growers alike of Pitt county have every reason to rejoice. In event all indications are realized it means that farmers are in a fair way to liquidate their indebtedness and still have a reasonable amount of money to their credit. Possibly the severe experience of 1920 may yet have its compensations.

For one thing it has effectually stopped the spending orgy that our people along with others throughout the nation were seized with. Again it has brought home the fact that during prosperity every man should set aside a part of his earnings as insurance against the unexpected that invariably turns up. If every body would follow this suggestion and start a savings bank account a feeling of security ensues.

Jury Selected In Garrett Murder Trial, The Court Picks Entire New Panel

CUMBERLAND, C. H., VA., July 31.—The actual task of selecting a jury in the Garrett murder case was under way here today. Most of the 100 men of the special venire were on hand this morning when Judge White opened today's session of Cumberland county court. The names of the men were selected from the county tax list late yesterday afternoon by Judge White, after he had sustained the motion of the prosecution to quash the regular venire of 24.

This venire had been summoned for the July term of court several weeks ago by order of Judge Hendley, the regular circuit judge, who was incapacitated by illness, and therefore, could not preside at the present term.

Venire Drawn Illegally.
The prosecution moved that the present venire be quashed on the ground that the list of talismans should have been drawn from the jury box instead of by the judge. The motion was overruled.

That the great legal battle in the trial will center around the question of who fired the first shot in the pistol fight between the brothers and the Baptist minister and the claim that the Garretts fired only in defense of their own lives was confirmed by one of the counsel for the defense today.

Larkin Garrett Witness.
According to the defense, who probably will place Larkin Garrett on the stand as one of their first witnesses, they will prove that on the morning of the shooting, June 5 last, the Garretts went to the Pierce home to seek an explanation of some remarks the minister was alleged to have made from his pulpit; that a first fight, resulted between Larkin Garrett and Pierce, and that the minister, defeated in that fight, rushed into the house and returned with a shotgun and a pistol.

Claims of Defense.
They will claim further that the Garretts had started away from the place when they were halted by the minister's reappearance. They say that they will be able to show that Robert Garrett wrested the shotgun from Pierce and that the latter then fired at Robert, the bullet striking a rib near the spine.

Seeing that his brother was hit, Larkin Garrett then fired at the minister, the counsel for the defense will claim, to prevent further harm to his brother or to himself.

Brookheart Asserts U. S. Must Stabilize Farm Product Prices

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., July 31.—Senator S. W. Brookheart, in an interview took issue with E. T. Meredith former secretary of Agriculture, on the agricultural situation by maintaining that the grain farmer is receiving today for his crop than at any time in history, considering the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar.

He said he agreed with Senator LaFollette, who asserted that price fixing is not the remedy for the troubles on the farm. Senator Brookheart took the position that the creation of a government marketing agency does not mean fixing of prices.

Meredith in his statement given to the Associated Press, discounted the lump in prices of wheat. He said this was offset by higher prices for oats and other grains.

Gen. Bowley to Speak.
CURRIE, N. C., July 31.—General A. J. Bowley, commandant of Fort Bragg, will be the principal speaker at the annual celebration of the Moore's Creek battle which will be held on the grounds, near here, on August 2, according to the program just made public.

Skirt Will Meet Shootops In Fall And Winter Modes

PARIS, July 31.—The more simple tastes of American women have repulsed the attempt of the French dress makers to reintroduce the crinolines that went out of fashion with wooden battlements.

This in effect is the meaning of the first whispers that have leaked out of the fashion darkrooms of the Parisian creators of what to wear for the ladies and that hint at the sartorial modes for the coming fall and winter. However, the American victory is only partial, for the French designers will not give in completely to the "straight line" urge of the American women. Practically all the clothing experts have agreed on fuller skirts.

Three-quarter length coats will replace the jumper-jackets of the last snow season and these will be wide to the point of being voluminous at hem, which will be bordered with fur.

CLOUD BURST HITS RICHMOND HARD, DOES BIG DAMAGE

RICHMOND, VA., July 31.—Thousands of dollars, of damage but just how many thousands cannot be stated with any degree of accuracy at an early hour today was caused by a cloudburst the most rain and electrical storm that has ever visited this vicinity. The local weather bureau reported the rainfall for the period 2.26 inches.

Scores of persons were rendered temporarily, if not permanently homeless. Stores, residences, manufacturing plants in the low lying sections of the city were flooded, and much damage to buildings, bridges, railroad tracks, roads and streets by the water, which reached depth of 10 feet in front of the union station. At other points the water reached a depth of 15 feet, according to reports of firemen who were occupied for more than six hours rescuing persons from their homes.

PITT COUNTY FAIR TO LEAD IN TRACK EVENTS THIS YEAR, W. H. DAIL TELLS ROTARY CLUB

Track events during the Pitt County Fair, both in importance of entries and purses will be the best in the history of a half mile course Haywood Decl, declared last night at a meeting of the Rotary Club. He explained for a similar track the racing events would far exceed anything ever before undertaken in this section of the country.

He urged that farmers set aside their best products to be exhibited in the agricultural display. Aside from individual awards other prizes will be given for best community exhibits, he said. Speaking from an intimate knowledge of comparative conditions throughout the nation, Dail expressed the confident prediction that the county fair could, and would be developed into one of the best in educational advantages in the country. No section, he added, compared with the potential possibilities of Pitt county.

R. H. Wright, president of the Teacher's College, reviewed the work of the institution and pointed out its value, to the state, in giving it more and better qualified teachers.

Analyzing the motto of Rotary "He profits most who serves best," The Rev. W. H. Moore, Richmond, Va., a guest of the club, said the ideals of service as set out and practiced by Rotary served to take the real measure of manhood. It was not a question, he said, of knowing how much knowledge one has or how a man is rated commercially, but individual value, to communities and the big spirited attitude of fellowship towards humanity at large was what really counted. The principles upon which Rotary are founded is what is making it such a useful organization on an international basis, he said.

Paul L. Clodfelter, gave short and interesting talk on his observations of what the Rotary Club of Richmond is doing in that city, during a recent visit there.

S. L. Bridgers, also a guest, addressed the organization briefly.

Members Railroad Labor Board Split

CHICAGO, July 31.—A. O. Whar-ton and E. F. Grable, labor members of the United States railroad labor board, in a dissenting opinion to a decision made public today, declared that the federated shop crafts strike of 1922 was due probably to the "in-capability of Chairman Ben W. Hooper and R. M. Barton to understand the value placed upon trade union ethics by bona fide trade unions."

Chairman Hooper and Judge Barton are members of the public group of the board.

"Giant" Klucker Gives Bond In U. S. Court

High Water Damages Big Maryland Area

BALTIMORE, July 31.—Cloudbursts and a series of terrific thunderstorms, sweeping the counties of Western Maryland, caused the Patapsco river to overflow its banks sweeping bridges and buildings before it, driving hundreds of families from their homes and causing damage that will run into millions of dollars.

One entire town, Mariottsville, is reported under water. Property damage is very heavy, but no loss of life has been reported. Many towns have been cut off from other parts of the state.

No word has been received from them since late afternoon. Many pieces of furniture are floating down the river.

According to word from Sykesville and Pikesville, on the south branch of the river, these towns are also under water.

Seven miles of track of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad are reported submerged.

SHIPMAN HITS A T MORRISON FOR CRITICISM

HENDERSONVILLE, July 31.—Commissioner M. L. Shipman, of the department of labor and printing who has spent two weeks in the mountains of western Carolina, reached Hendersonville today from Transylvania county on his return to the state capital.

He appeared little perturbed over the reference to him by Governor Morrison in the latter's speech to Secretaries of the Chamber of Commerce at Asheville Saturday and called to his attention in Brevard.

The governor had denounced Mr. Shipman for alleged responsibility in the defeat of the proposal fostered by the Governor for the establishment of a department of commerce in the State Government, and had called on the secretaries of the commercial organizations present to remember this when Mr. Shipman is again candidate for office.

"I have been enjoying the mountains too much to be drawn into a quarrel with anybody," said the commissioner when asked for a statement. "But since the Governor has gone out of his way to provoke me, I shall try to oblige him with a brief rejoinder.

N. C. Trade is Holding Up Good, Survey Says

RALEIGH, July 31.—June witnessed the normal slackening in trade, but on the whole the developments of the month were not unfavorable, according to the regular monthly review of the Richmond Federal Reserve bank made public here today. Midsummer is usually dull in business circles in comparison with the preceding spring months, it was stated.

"June trade was not more below that of May than is normal at this season," the review continued, "in comparison with June of last year, the current month this year shows up well in practically every industry for which information is available.

Ford Is Not Issue Says Senator Couzens

NEW YORK, July 31.—Senator James Couzens, of Michigan, sailed for a vacation trip to Europe on the Leviathan today, declaring railroads, agriculture and the Volstead Act are the three greatest issues before America today. European affairs, he declared, rank behind these. Beer and light wines will soon come, he said.

Commenting on the chances of Henry Ford, his former business associate for President, Mr. Couzens said: "Mr. Ford is not an issue, and I never discuss anything but issues."

SAN FRANCISCO, Presidential Headquarters, Palace Hotel, July 31.—President Harding today, appeared to have won the first preliminary skirmish in his fight for life against broncho-pneumonia and attending complications. The official bulletin of the attending physicians said, that there had been no extension of pneumatic areas during the latter part of last night and today, and that his heart action was definitely improved. The statement also added, that the patient had benefited by a fairly comfortable night.

President Harding said that he felt better and less exhausted. His temperature at 9 o'clock this morning was 100 degrees; one degree less than reports of yesterday; pulse 120, or five degrees less than yesterday's report; respiration 40 and regular, as contrasted against 44 and irregular from the report of yesterday.

That the president is in "clear sailing," and unless new complications arise he is expected to show continued improvement is the belief of physicians.

FORMER LOCAL MAN IS HELD IN DRUG CASE ON RACING FRAUD

COLUMBUS, O., July 31.—M. W. Price, Richmond, Va., Steve Butash, and Ernest Myer, Ohio men, were released here today in connection with violating the state narcotic law. Australian Fruits Prosper.
SYDNEY.—The annual fruit production of Australia has increased from about 1,000,000 bushels in 1918 to 4,762,876, the figures for last year. The fruit finds a ready market in England, where it has already served to lower the price on all classes of fruit.

With characteristic calm and determination the president is today fighting the greatest battle of his career—a struggle in which his life is at stake.

Shows Fighting Spirit.
Arrayed against him broncho-pneumonia, which developed last night and other complications, while on the other hand in his fever is his determination and the subsiding of the abdominal symptoms, caused by the effects of recent ptomaine poisoning. His weakness was believed to be his worst drawback. All of the physicians in attendance early this morning had made no definite statement yet, optimistic as to the outcome.

At 9:15 last night a bulletin issued after the consultation of the five attending physicians contained the first announcement of broncho-pneumonia developments in the right lung, although the bulletins four hours before had stated that there was evidence of some congestion in one lung. The statement also mentioned the first authoritative information that the president's condition was considered to have changed from serious to grave. There was a word of hope in the bulletin as it stated nourishment was being taken regularly and that the abdominal symptoms were becoming less noticeable.

Mrs. Harding Nurse.
Mrs. Harding the woman who was expected to be nursed has become the nurse. Her husband has been stricken by illness. Five physicians have been called to his bedside in the hotel here, in serious consultation. Mrs. Harding has cheerfully assumed the burdens of the sick room, still smiling in the face of adverse fortune, displaying a courage that has won for her the admiration of every member of the Presidential party and, in addition, lending an effective hand in the business office where secretaries and clerks labor with the work of cancelling arrangements made in advance points, of acknowledging hundreds of messages of solicitude and responding to continuous telephone calls from anxious friends everywhere in the country.

'Penrod' On Screen Humorous Revel For Children, Grownups

For years the cynics have declared that Booth Tarkington's inimitable characters of American boyhood, involved in his "Penrod" stories, could never be successfully brought to the screen in a complete feature picture. They pointed out the impossibility of getting the juvenile actors that the story called for, the lack of connected sequence between the episodes and the absence of court action to make a story of dramatic value for the screen.

Despite their protests it has been done, for "Penrod," the first National attraction produced by Marshall Neilan, showing at the Strand today is one of the most genuinely human, appealing and interesting pictures that has been seen. The director has taken Booth Tarkington's characters and given them a lifelike interpretation breathing the very essence of youthful rascality and roguishness. He has taken the separated episodes of Penrod's existence and moulded them into one coherent story. He has preserved for the screen the one story that should never be allowed to disappear—the epic of American boyhood. It is a revel in humor—one which everyone will enjoy.

A four piece orchestra is an added feature of the Strand performances this week.

Dodge Brothers Plan Larger Production

New Buildings Greatly Increasing Present Capacity Almost Completed

Expansion Program Will Cost $5,000,000; New Closed Car Building Erected in Record Time.

An immense new assembly building duplicating the present structure in size is announced by Dodge Brothers as the principal unit of the 1923 expansion program.

The building is six stories high, 1,000 feet long and 75 feet wide, with more than one-half million square feet of floor space. Construction work which started some months ago is now nearly completed. The new assembly building, paralleling the old structure, is just across the street which formerly marked the boundary line of the great Dodge Brothers factories.

Factory executives would not comment on the number of additional cars contemplated in this extensive addition, but it is believed that the immediate aim is a capacity of 1,000 cars a day. In the face of the greatly over-sold condition which prevailed throughout the entire year just past, it is not unreasonable to assume that this number mentioned could be absorbed easily by Dodge Brothers dealers.

Other units of the expansion program are the new cyanide building, a million dollar addition to the power house, and a mammoth new closed body building. The latter is completed several floors having been occupied for some time. It is estimated that the total investment represented by these additions in buildings alone will reach $5,000,000.

The erection of the body building in the short space of four months established a record. Considering the fact that it is an eight story building 400 by 200 feet in dimension, with a total floor space of 500,000 square feet, the time is exceptionally short. It is a striking tribute to the efficiency and financial independence of Dodge Brothers, as all the work was done under the supervision of the factory's own construction department.

Some idea of the magnitude of the undertaking may be gleaned from the fact that 30,000 barrels of cement and 16,000 cubic yards of concrete were used in the building as well as 4,000 tons of construction steel; 1,464 tons of reinforcing steel; 18,000 window lights; 500,000 feet of maple flooring, and 600,000 bricks. There are seven traveling cranes ranging from five tons to twenty tons in capacity, and four 10-ton high speed elevators, capable of traveling 100 feet a minute loaded. The building is heated by the indirect system, fans forcing the washed air down various ducts after it is heated by steam pipes on the roof. Fire protection is insured by 10,000 sprinkler heads. All stairways are safety treaded.

While this unit is an enormous building in itself it is really only half a building. The other half was completed two years ago. Taken as a whole, the building is one of the largest single factory units in the world, with a floor area of a million square feet. It will be devoted entirely to the production of all steel bodies—a type of construction originated by and for Dodge Brothers.

PAW PAW CALLED THE PERFECT DIGESTER Scientist Explains Its Tonic Effect Upon the System, Saying It Makes Dyspepsia Impossible. In condensed form, the following is what Professor Willard H. Morse, LL. D., F. S. S., a Fellow of the London Society of Science, wrote to Robert Halford, an eminent therapist: "Munyon's Paw Paw is scientific in that it properly presents to the materia medica—to the medical profession and to the sick and suffering the active principle of the fruit of the caricacopaya (Paw Paw) in its most eligible form. "It accomplishes digestion surely and perfectly. It makes the most of the food. Makes the best of the food. Assures perfect assimilation. It perfects the several fluids that have to do with digestion and makes dyspepsia impossible. "Munyon's Paw Paw disposes of from the blood all faulty acids or poisons, because the blood made from the food treated by Paw Paw is a true vital fluid, which refuses to contain the acids, germs or poisonous taints, and as most diseases arise from impure blood, it makes all of them impossible. ## Britain Gloomy Over Settlement Reparation Issue

LONDON, July 31.—The French and Belgian ambassadors today handed to Lord Curzon, secretary of state for foreign affairs, the replies of their governments to the British note proposing negotiations with Germany to solve the problem of the Ruhr and the greater problem of German reparations. Thus, common plac, enough, ended one chapter in the trying negotiations.

Yet it is a question in the mind of the British public whether these notes do more than open another chapter in the wearisome process. If Premier Baldwin has brought about any change resembling finally an allied agreement, he will be claimed as a miracle worker. But there are no signs that a miracle has been worked.
