

The bureau of chemistry of the United States Department of Agriculture is pushing a vigorous campaign against manufacturers of medicinal preparations who have been misleading the public into purchasing various nostrums. In a number of recent cases the preparations were ordered destroyed by federal courts, and fines imposed. Many of the concoctions were claimed to be beneficial in treatment of physical disorders.

One tablet "remedy," containing ground celery seed and cocoa with caffeine, said to be a treatment, remedy and cure for poor circulation, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia, diseases of the heart, brain and nerves, despondency or blues lack of vitality, and insomnia was found to be incapable of producing any of the effects claimed, tests proved.

Another "blood purifier" and "nerve strengthener" was found to be composed essentially of plant drugs, including a laxative, sugar, alcohol, glycerin and water. This preparation was "warranted" to be beneficial in a long list of ailments. According to the chemistry bureau, there was not a component in the mixture which could produce any of the results advertised. Still, the public falls for these "cure-alls."

BANKERS FOR PLAN TO MAKE POULTRY INDUSTRY GO HERE

Financiers See Great Future Community Benefit in Business

The high water mark was reached last night when Pitt County Bankers assembled at the Rotary building. It was employees and get-together night, officials and employees coming from the county's several financial institutions.

A short address of welcome, particularly appropriate was delivered by J. L. Little, president of the association. "It affords me a genuine pleasure to address the future bank cashiers and presidents," he said directing his remarks to the younger employees. "Thirty years ago there was only one bank clerk in Pitt county and I was that one" as he spoke about the promising field of banking. There is no doubt that the next 30 years will witness even a more wonderful transformation and development.

Informal Introductions.

So that the bankers, young and old might know every other banker, each one present introduced himself and himself, by giving their names and the bank and town from which they came.

Several of the bankers, at the previous meeting, expressed a desire to organize a chapter of the American Institute of Banking, to be known as the Pitt County Chapter. J. H. Waldrop, who was appointed chairman, made a very thorough report as to the advantages to be had and the requirements necessary. No action was taken and the committee continued.

Julian White Talks Co-operation.

Julian White of the Greenville Banking & Trust company spoke along the line of co-operation between the employees of the bank. He stated that their bank force had held with profit to all monthly meetings, when they took up matters pertaining to the efficiency of their work. This address was suggestive and received in a fine spirit.

TWO TRADE WIVES 'WITHIN THE LAW,' ALL ARE CONTENT

GRAND ISLAND, NEB., Oct. 11.—Swapping wives has not weakened the bond of friendship between Lynn Haller and Paul Hartsough. The swapping was done through legal channels.

A year ago the four became acquainted when Mrs. Haller went to work as a stenographer in Hartsough's office. Soon there were picnics and parties, and their friendship continued even during the divorce suits which both wives filed, charging cruelty.

They waited the legal number of months after the divorce, and Mrs. Haller married Mr. Hartsough and Mrs. Hartsough, Mr. Haller.

Today Hartsough said: "I certainly got the best of the bargain."

Haller replied: "Did I beat Hartsough in trade? I'll say I did."

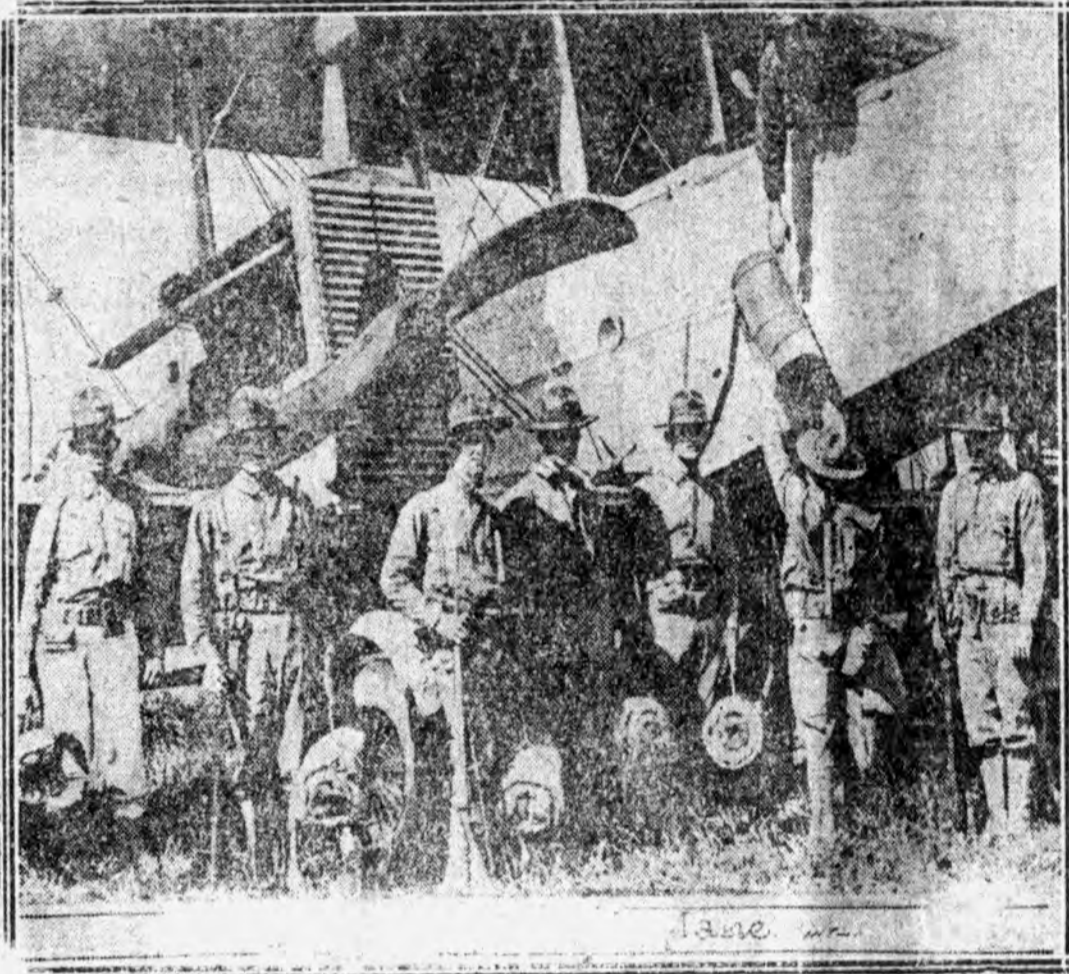

But they didn't quarrel about it. Instead they planned a party.

TROOPS TRANSPORTED BY AIRPLANE IN MANEUVERS

The latest method of troop movement was introduced by the United States Marine Corps in recent maneuvers when huge Martin bombers carried the men, their arms and equipment to a section of the battlefield where the "enemy" was about to break through.

Hall-Mills Murder Case Prober Oddly Disappears, Report

TRENTON, Oct. 11.—P. L. Dickman, New Jersey state trooper and one of the most active of the investigators of the famous Hall-Mills murder mystery in New Brunswick a year ago, has been missing since last June, it was learned here today. While his whereabouts are unknown, he told his mother before his disappearance:

"I know too much about the Hall case and had better lie low."

Superintendent Schwartzkopf of the state police said today that Dickman's pay checks had been accumulating unclaimed, since June. The trooper, he added, had been automatically dismissed from the service because he was not present to re-enlist when his term was up on Sept. 1.

Man Who Gave Up His Dry Country Is Buried In Secret

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 11.—The secret burial of James J. Van Allen, Newport's millionaire "man without a country," was today the chief topic of discussion here. Scarcely a dozen witnesses testified to the burial of the man who gave up his citizenship when the country added the prohibition amendment to its constitution. These included a "mystery woman," who, dressed in court and confided to Judge Boote black and heavily veiled, stood at that wife Mary, has been beating one side of the grave. No one knew where she came from and no one saw her depart.

The late millionaire's son stood on one side of the grave, his two daughters opposite. The family is divided. The latter learned of the burial of their father only by employing detectives. Van Allen died in London. In compliance with one of his dying wishes, his body was brought to Middletown, R. I., for burial.

FREE THOUGHT IS NOT IN DISFAVOR, BISHOP DECLARES

BOSTON, Oct. 11.—Bishop William Lawrence of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, in an address today at a service celebrating the 30th anniversary of his consecration, said that a person who believed in the incarnation was sure he believed in the creed even though unable to accept the doctrine of the virgin birth, because "there is no essential connection between the virgin birth and the incarnation."

"Do we not make a mistake in thinking that it is the creeds that bind us together in unity?" he said. "The unifying power is prayer, worship and a loyalty to the personal Christ. There is no essential connection, for example, between the virgin birth and the incarnation, and so, if one believes in the incarnation is not essential to it, such a one may accept the creed, even though unable to accept the doctrine of the virgin birth."

He Stands Wife's Beatings 33 Years, But Finally Rebels

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Assuming that his patience was exhausted, Theophile Blasewitz walked into "mystery woman," who, dressed in court and confided to Judge Boote black and heavily veiled, stood at that wife Mary, has been beating one side of the grave. No one knew where she came from and no one saw her depart.

SON STARVING ON BRIDE'S COOKING, HIS MOTHER SAYS

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, OHIO, Oct. 11.—An elderly woman called at the office of County Prosecutor Herbert A. Mitchell and told the prosecutor that her son, living in a remote section of Belmont county, was being slowly starved to death because his bride, of a few months would not bake as his mother did during his single life. She demanded that something be done to save the young man's life.

The prosecutor refrained from accepting any suggestion that might lead him into trouble and told the mother the young man should speak for himself. In fact, he said, it was the young man's duty gently to inform his bride that her cooking was not all that it should be and that she would do well to take a few lessons from the mother-in-law.

"That's just the trouble," the worried mother remarked. "The poor boy seems to like her cooking, but I know what's good for him. I cooked for him for 26 years."

"In that case," declared Mr. Mitchell, "the law has no jurisdiction. Nothing can be done. I advise you to let the young couple alone. They probably know what they want."

Hens Yield More Than Wheat Crop Value of Nation

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—The world's hens and her numerous sisters in the United States contributed more than one billion dollars to the national wealth in the last year, according to statistics made public in advance of the annual meeting of the National Poultry, Butter and Egg Association here this week.

This is the biggest yield in the history of the egg industry and is in excess of the wheat crop.

The average per capita consumption of eggs in Illinois is seventeen dozen a year, and of poultry 3 and one-half pounds. Illinois last year produced 110,000,249 dozen eggs.

GOLFERS AROUSED BY ARREST UNDER BLUE LAW OF 1794

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 11.—Upper Darby, suburb of this city is feverishly discussing the probable results of the action of two of its township commissioners, when a Sunday golfer was arrested for violating the blue law after police broke up a soccer game and took into custody one of the players.

Fred Jackson was arrested first by Commissioner Drews, James Wolfenden, whose brother is manager of the Foffenden Shore team and who himself a commissioner, was on the sidelines.

"There is no use of making fish of one and fowl of another," he smiled grimly, his pleasure spoiled for the afternoon. He walked a short distance to where a man stood with a golf bag and clubs and made the second arrest.

Now all golfers in Philadelphia are up in arms. The laws violated were the result of legislation in 1794. The golfers want 1923 intelligence.

POWER COMPANY TO QUIT STATE UNLESS GIVEN RATE BOOST

J. B. Duke, Says He Has Spent 60 Millions Without Profit

CHARLOTTE, Oct. 11.—Announcement that the Southern Hydro-Electric Power company was through with its program of development in the state unless the state corporation commission permitted a wholesale power rate of $1.40 against $1.25, now allowed, was made by J. B. Duke, president of the company and financier, here today.

Duke added: "I have put approximately 60 million dollars of my own funds into the Southern Power company. So far I have never taken one cent out of it, and do not expect to. The average return on the investment is not more than four per cent. These small earnings have always been put back into the organization and many millions more."

In announcing that he was leaving in a few days to inspect several great hydro-electric plants which his company is building in Canada, Duke said: "I am ready to proceed with construction of more plants to create more power for the benefit of the development of the Carolinas, but am not willing to spend it on the basis of the records of the Southern Power company now allowed."

He explained that the records of the company had been laid before the corporation commission, and declared that he did not expect to send a representative to Raleigh, or engage in any controversy with officials about the proposed rate increase.

THOSE FIERCE SIRENS AGAIN!

When public attention was invited to the loud and continued blasts of Greenville factory whistles it was believed that the unearthly noise starting before 5 a. m. and continuing until 7 o'clock, would at least be abated. However, it seems that the wist was father to the thought.

Instead of respecting the public feelings and the practice is quite the reverse. Only this morning one whistle started to let go shortly before 5 o'clock and continued to run the scale of all it could do until the hour struck. This continued until 7 o'clock. It is unbelievable to think that heads of these plants directed such wanton disregard of the vast majority of Greenville residents merely to notify a few hundred laborers and other employes that it is "rising time."

Apparently there is an animated contest in among the several whistle "pullers" to see which can create the most disturbance. They vie with each other, it would appear, in making the early hours of the morning hideous to the distress of men, women and children. Compliant has reached this office from relatives of sick persons stating that after restlessness nights and just at the time when repose is possible patients are startled by the bedlam that breaks loose from the factory sirens.

As a matter of course, every one is delighted to know that these plants are in operation, providing livelihood for so many employes, but at the same time it is not believed necessary to rouse the entire community to announce the fact. Most persons who think enough of their employment do not require all of that unnecessary and protracted racket each morning to take them to their respective jobs. Just why it has become a practice here has not been disclosed. Even granted that the entire group of employes were deaf and dumb, the uproar would certainly be more than sufficient to impress defective hearing and possibly restore speech.

Possibly following the same example set by the factories, passenger and freight trains which forget all about announcing their approach to the city during the day, invariably select the time between midnight and 6 o'clock to give forth long shrieks that they are arriving. The Reflector is always open to conviction, but in this instance for the benefit of all Greenville it would certainly like to be in on the "WHY" of this whistle nuisance.

If those factory workers whose favorite indoor sport is to pull the blast cords have formed a "whistle disturbance league," and their present individual records are maintained it promises to be a merry pennant race. If such is the case, we cherish the hope it will shortly be put out of existence. The price is too much for majority opinion to pay.

Reports from Constantinople say that Turkey is hunting a new name. Why worry about that, a Turk by any other name would smell the same.

Backers of Papyrus are strongly of the opinion that what Zev has won by the preliminary decision is the opportunity to show that he is a good loser.

The fact that there are enough people to do a little heckling will appear to Lloyd-George merely as a phase of the unemployment problem in America.

Some fine legal points are involved in the Oklahoma incident, but the parties thereto are in too excited a frame of mind to give them deliberate attention.

"Clean out that strainer in your vacuum tank"

A CAR had just been towed in. It took the Fleet Boss only a moment, with his long, practical experience, to find the trouble. Motor would gradually die down and stop. If they waited a minute it would run again, but only for a few seconds. Most every driver has to have it clog up once with dirt to know there is a vacuum tank strainer in his "gas" line. Experience locates the unusual things, as well as the obvious.

Long years of refining and study have shown us a thousand and one practical things about motor oils that couldn't be learned in any other way. You give your motor the benefit of it when you use Polarine regularly. The reasonably-priced, quality oil, developed by experience to meet all requirements.

DIPHTHERIA INCREASING IN GREENVILLE AND SURROUNDING TERRITORY

This is to inform the citizens of Greenville and the surrounding territory that diphtheria is increasing. Some time ago we mentioned the fact that diphtheria was preventable. This is to call the fact again to your attention. At a recent meeting of the board of health, which is composed of three doctors and two laymen, the board was unanimous in urging that the health department make every possible effort to get the people acquainted with the preventative treatment for diphtheria. This treatment can be obtained from your family physician or from the health department. Do not delay as every day we count for the future protection of your child.

Mrs. Wallace Reid Crusades Against Strongest of Evils

Why did Mrs. Wallace Reid leave her house of mourning for the glare of the studio spotlight?

Why has she broken the usual rule of widow's retirement, to re-enter moving pictures?

The answer is this: Because she, of all women, has had brought most forcibly to her the need of a moral awakening—another great reformation—a twentieth century crusade against a foe many times stronger than the infidel of old.

She has made a supreme effort to collect the broken threads of her life and piece them into one fabric—to carry on a noble work. To see her in her present aspect of crusader, one would say she was a Gibraltar of stoicism. Yet it is sheer grit and determination that is keeping her sorrow-benumbed faculties together.

Her devotion as a wife and mother, her talent as an actress, her convictions as a reformer—all these innate forces she has combined in building up the greatest achievement of her career. "Human Wreckage," which will be shown at White's theater next Monday and Tuesday.

"Human Wreckage" is not the story of a weakling. It is the story of a man, big both in nature and stature; a man bitterly opposed to the illegal traffic in narcotics; a leader, in fact, in the ranks of those who strive to wipe this evil from the face of the earth. His downfall coming through overwork, as it does in so many cases of similar nature, he fights the same fight that others have fought before him—for health and recovery. It is to these silent fighters, who, in solitary places, wage war against the unseen Beast, that Mrs. Reid pays tribute in "Human Wreckage."

STATISTICS SHOW FEWER STUDENTS SPURN HIGH SCHOOL

CHICAGO. — If the boy or girl who formerly "quit school" at the end of the seventh or eighth grade is not actually becoming extinct his ranks are being decimated annually, according to reports covering an average ten year period compiled from the offices of public instruction in ten central states.

The percentage of increased high school attendance for the period was taken as the medium for estimate. The average increase figure for the decade was found to be 96.4 percent, with extremes ranging between 1,000 percent, the figure reported by Oklahoma, to 40 percent, that of Iowa.

While the figures do not unqualifiedly represent the increased proportion of grade school students entering high schools—the factor of increasing population applying largely in newer states—they do indicate that the former gulf existing between the eighth grade and high school gradually is being eliminated.

In Oklahoma, according to a statement issued by Luther Russell, state high school inspector, the increase in 11 years from 1910 to 1921 was from 6,125 to 62,021, or 1,000 percent. Figures supplied by the department of education of Kentucky set the increase from 11,856 in 1913, to 36,000 in 1923—an advance of 203 percent, while in South Dakota the total number of high school students in 1922, 19,683, represented a jump of 12 percent from the 7,509 enrolled in 1912.

Vernon M. Reigel, state director of education for Ohio, gave the increase in that state as 120 percent, an advance from 80,609, the figure for 1912, to 178,705, that for 1922.

SHREWD CRIMINALS EASILY OVERREACH EUROPE'S POLICE

VIENNA.—The many frontiers of central Europe, in some cases no farther apart than state lines in America are a great help to criminals, and much of the recent increase in a certain type of crime in this part of the world is laid to the ease with which a forehanded offender can skip into another country and claim sanctuary.

This aspect of things has been brought out clearly at the International Police congress that has just come to an end in Vienna. It would appear that defraudations, forgeries, embezzlements and thefts are committed with relative immunity, granted the criminal has a valid passport in his pocket, and gets a start of a few hours on the police. False passports sometimes serve just as well as legitimate one. The pursuing police often as not are unprepared to follow, and must go through the slow channels of diplomacy to get permission to cross a nearby frontier.

Criminally has assumed vast proportions since the close of the war. Vienna is on the crossroads leading to many countries, and has become the sporting ground of innumerable bands of international thieves and adventurers. The Vienna police admit that the city is overrun with foreign criminals from all parts of the world, and every day discloses new methods of operation. In 1919, of 193 persons implicated in the forging of currency, only 15 were foreigners. In 1921 the ratio of foreign criminals was 303 out of 486. There are issuers of false checks, pickpockets, hotel and railroad thieves, burglars, safe-crackers, adventurers, and imposters without number. In nine cases out of ten they make good their escape because of the inability of the criminal officers to follow them beyond the frontiers of their own country.

Washington Bureau Announces Program Educational Week

WASHINGTON.—American Education Week will be observed this year from November 18 to 24, and suggestions made by the Bureau of Education include the designating of certain days for the stressing of special topics connected with education. The American Legion, the National Education association and other organizations have sponsored the movement, and co-operation with these societies should be the first step in a community program, bureau officials declare.

Sunday, November 18 is styled For God and Country Day, and ministers in all pulpits are invited by the bureau to preach at least one sermon on education.

Monday is "American Constitution Day," set aside for stressing obedience to the law, man's struggles for liberty, the duties of citizenship and education and the ballot. "The Mar Without a Country," is a good topic suggested for plays and essays.

Tuesday, "Patriotism Day," is allotted to discussing the duty of voting honor to the flag of the country the duty to the foreign born, and American ideals.

Wednesday, "School and Teacher Day," is devoted to questions about local schools and teachers, the relation of education to civilization, and better training for rural teachers.

Thursday, "Literacy Day," is for devising ways and means for the eradication of illiteracy. Data showing the extent of illiteracy and its dangers to the nation and loss economically, are suggested as subjects of exhibits and essays.

Friday, "Community Day," is given over to consideration of equal opportunity in education for every boy and girl, the needs of the community as to public libraries and community center.

Saturday, "Physical Education Day," is a day for the study of the value of exercise, correct posture and health habits. A "Health Parade" of children is suggested by the bureau.

Farm Renting Gains Slightly In Past Decade

MADISON, WIS.—Farm tenancy in the United States increased but one percent during the last decade, contrary to the general belief that agricultural lands were rapidly passing out of the hands of owner-operators into the hands of tenants, judging by a report of the Institute for Research in Land Economics and Public Utilities. This body, directed by Dr. Richard R. Ely, well-known economist, is organized specifically to conduct research in land problems.

Basing its conclusions upon 1920 census figures, the Institute concludes that "an increase in tenancy can be expected in the normal development of a nation, a fact neglected by many who look upon tenant farming as something absolutely undesirable."

The report showed that tenants operated approximately one-fourth of the farms of the country in 1880, with a jump to 28 percent in 1890, and to 35 percent in 1900. A more gradual increase came in the next two decades, the proportion in 1910 being 37 percent and in 1920, 38 percent.

Measured in terms of acreage of land in farms, about 28 percent of farm land is being cultivated by tenants, according to the institute statement. Measured in terms of improved acreage, tenants are said to occupy almost 35 percent of the improved land.

The south is shown to have had a steady increase in tenant farms, with some states showing over 60 percent of farm tenancy.

"The reason must be sought in the prevalence of one crop farming, particularly cotton and tobacco, and in the human factor," the report declared. "Three-fourths of the negro farmers and a large proportion of the whites are renters. The boll weevil and the migration of negro labor to the North is bound to produce great changes in the present renting arrangements."

"However, in the last decade seven states in the south have had a decrease or else practically no change in the proportion of tenants to owners. They are: Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and Maryland.

ATLANTIC CITY.—Municipal, state and federal officials were vigorously assailed for their extravagance in a special tax report made today to the American Electric Railway Convention here. William H. Malbie, of Baltimore, is chairman of the committee making it.

The report declared that owing to governmental extravagance, in part, every workingman in the United States is paying an average tax of $4 a year which is hidden in his car fare. This is about two-thirds of a cent out of every fare.

"One of the most serious problems of the day is that of municipal, state and federal extravagance," the report said. The check upon public extravagance is to be found only in a demand on the part of the public for economy, and one of the first and most important steps in the development of this public demand is the elimination of indirect taxation.

Greenville, discussed the exalted plane of the banking business. "As employees and officials, we must reach the point when we will have a clear appreciation of character, honesty, credit standing and last, but not least, thrift. When these fine traits are believed in and practiced by all, it is then evident that customers of such a bank will become imbued with the same spirit," he declared.

Woolard Discusses Teamwork.
W. H. Woolard of the Greenville Banking & Trust Company gave expression to some facts that every one had to take cognizance of. By way of summary, he emphasized honesty as of primary importance. This, as will be concurred in by every one, is one of the fundamental principles underlying all enterprises.

"The employes and official force must also evidence interest in their work. At whatever cost, we must acquire and maintain that interest that will be manifest in our daily accomplishments. Unless we believe in our work wholeheartedly and devote ourselves and our energy unreservedly, the highest place in banking circles is not in reserve for us. 'Clock watchers' will never mount the highest round," he explained.

"Mistakes will sometimes occur, but the bank, where teamwork prevails, will cause the number to be on the decrease all the while and thus contribute toward efficiency.

"Courtesy," he continued, "is one of the finest assets of any bank. There is hardly anything that so appeals to the general public as courteous treatment accorded by the officials and the clerical force of the various banks.

G. W. Prescott of Ayden followed Woolard on the same subject of teamwork. (His address will appear in a separate article, in The Reflector).

Urges Poultry Development.
Knowing F. J. Forbes' interest in raising poultry, President Little called on him for an expression. Forbes put to flight the oft repeated statement that there is nothing in poultry by citing what Greenville and Morristown, Tenn., are doing in this line.

According to the statistics given by Forbes, Greenville, Tenn., which is about half as large as Greenville, N. C., and Greene County, (Tenn.) with their eight banks have on deposit over $20,000,000. It was also pointed out that Morristown sends a solid train load of poultry products every Saturday for the eastern markets. The Morristown district ships annually over $4,000,000 worth of products.

Coming closer home, Forbes recited a statement made by F. F. Latham, of Belhaven who addressed the Pitt County Poultry association last Thursday afternoon. In his he pointed out the enthusiastic interest being taken in poultry in Beaufort county.

Bankers Asked Aid Industry.
Forbes urged the bankers to assist their customers in getting started with a small flock. He pointed out that prospects were bright for a 12,000 capacity mammoth incubator for Greenville and if it was established the people would have an opportunity of having their eggs hatched close at home and begin immediately in this promising field.

P. L. Clodfelter, of the Farmers Bank of Greenville followed Forbes and voiced his approval of the possibilities in the business. "I cannot begin to supply the demand for standard-bred chickens, Clodfelter" said.

Stomach Felt Like A Weight
But, John C. Beisswanger, of Reading, Says Paw Paw Tonic Made Him as Well as He Ever Was
"I have been home, under the doctor's care, from December 19th to February 18th, with severe stomach trouble," writes John C. Beisswanger, 608 Tulpehocken St., Reading, Pa.
"My stomach felt like a heavy weight, which moved as I moved my body. This caused a distressed feeling constantly and, after eating, would cause pain."
"On Saturday, February 18th, I called on the Paw Paw Man at the drug store. I purchased a bottle of Paw Paw Tonic and gave the Paw Paw Man my symptoms, which were sent to the Munyon medical staff. The following Thursday I received their instructions to continue with the tonic. I did this until I had taken three bottles.
"Today I can honestly say my stomach is as well as it ever was. I can conscientiously recommend Paw Paw Tonic to anyone suffering from any form of stomach trouble."
What Munyon's Paw Paw Tonic did for Mr. Beisswanger, it can do for YOU. Try it. It may spare you hours of suffering. It improves the appetite. It helps digest what you eat. It rests your nerves. It remedies stomach troubles. It produces restful sleep. It is recommended highly by thousands for indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, weak blood, stomach gases, heavy headaches, distress after eating, bloated feeling, sour stomach, rheumatism, kidney and liver troubles.
Try a bottle of Paw Paw Tonic now. Do not delay any longer. It costs only $1 a bottle. You can get Paw Paw at any good drug store.

He has the Parks strain of the Banded Plymouth Rock. "I want to see the proposed mammoth incubator materialize," he added.

Favors Diversification.
J. C. Galaway of Grimesland spoke on the importance of crop diversification. He let it be understood just what he meant by diversification. "I do not mean a large variety of crops, but I do mean to have a sufficiency of corn, hay, meat and all other crops necessary for the family and stock on the farm, raising our cotton and tobacco as our clean surplus, but 'I have yet to buy a barrel of corn or a bale of hay.'"

"To diversify and make our farms self-sustaining will create confidence and make it easier to acquire legitimate accommodation at the bank. I want to see the time come when it will be necessary for a man to have poultry, livestock, etc., as a means of collateral for credit."

"The time system, so long in vogue in this section, is unquestionably a menace to our prosperity," he said. "With the present conditions confronting us, it is most unwise to depend on a single one or two crop system."

C. T. Gardner Talks Advertising.
"So far as I am concerned, our calendars from now on will portray poultry, livestock, etc. To keep this subject before our people through this medium will make it easier for the program to be put across."

A rising vote of thanks was given the Pitt County Bankers association by the large number of employes.

BOY OF 12 PREYS ON SCHOOLMA'IMS AND STEALS $700

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 — School teachers to most boys of 12 are more or less hostile beings who insist upon lessons being learned and recited good behavior, clean hands and faces and other unpleasant things. But the yusplid Harry Schobie, although unwittingly, so he told detectives, with $700 in the past two months—and this meant hotels, taxicabs, expensive meals in restaurants and everything else comprised in his idea of a general high old time.

Harry explained his methods to detectives after they arrested him as a juvenile delinquent.

"I'd go into a school," he said. "Oh any old school would do, and go into the room of a teacher, who had the little fellows. Then I'd say, 'The principal sent me to tell you he wants to see you in his office.' And the teacher would call a monitor and leave the room."

"Then I'd have to work fast. I'd go back and tell the monitor, the teacher sent me for her pocketbook, and then I'd take the pocketbook and skin. Sure, it worked every time except once, when she took her pocketbook with her."
