ROGERS ELECTED POST COMMANDER OF LOCAL LEGION

W. H. Rogers Succeeds Herbert Waldrop As Head Organization

The annual meeting of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion was held at the Rotary Club last night at 7 o'clock and was well attended. The session was one of the most important and interesting of the year, being featured by annual election of officers, a chicken supper, and discussion and final arrangements for the Novelty Minstrel which will be given in White's theatre Friday evening under the auspices of the local post.

W. H. Rogers was elected post commander, succeeding Herbert Waldrop, who presided over last night's session; Dr. A. M. Schultz, of Greenville, W. T. Acree, of Bethel and C. L. Everette, of Grimesland were elected vice commanders; D. C. Moore, was elected adjutant to succeed W. H. Rogers, L. G. Congleton was elected finance officer to succeed Frank Rice; S. L. Bridgers succeeds J. B. Carroll as chaplain; A. B. Corey was elected service officer, and James Allen, sergeant at arms.

The post had as its guest Miss Marie Davenport of Atlanta, Ga., who is directing the minstrel. Plans for the minstrel were discussed and final arrangements made. It promises to be the best home talent production ever presented in Greenville.

The meeting was one of the most successful held in recent months and was attended by a large number of interested and enthusiastic members.

McBrayer To Hold Office Until Supreme Court Rules Appeal

RALEIGH, Nov. 21—Until the Supreme court of North Carolina rules on the appeal of Dr. L. B. McBrayer his tenure of office as superintendent of the state tubercular sanitarium is lawful according to the opinion given by Attorney-General James Manning to Dr. T. W. M. Long, chairman of the board of directors of the institution, and U. L. Spence, member of the board. Dr. Long announced following the conference that he would call a meeting of the board to consider the request of Governor Morrison as soon as the governor returned from New York where he has gone to affix some bonds. The governor will probably be away the remainder of this week and a part of next week.

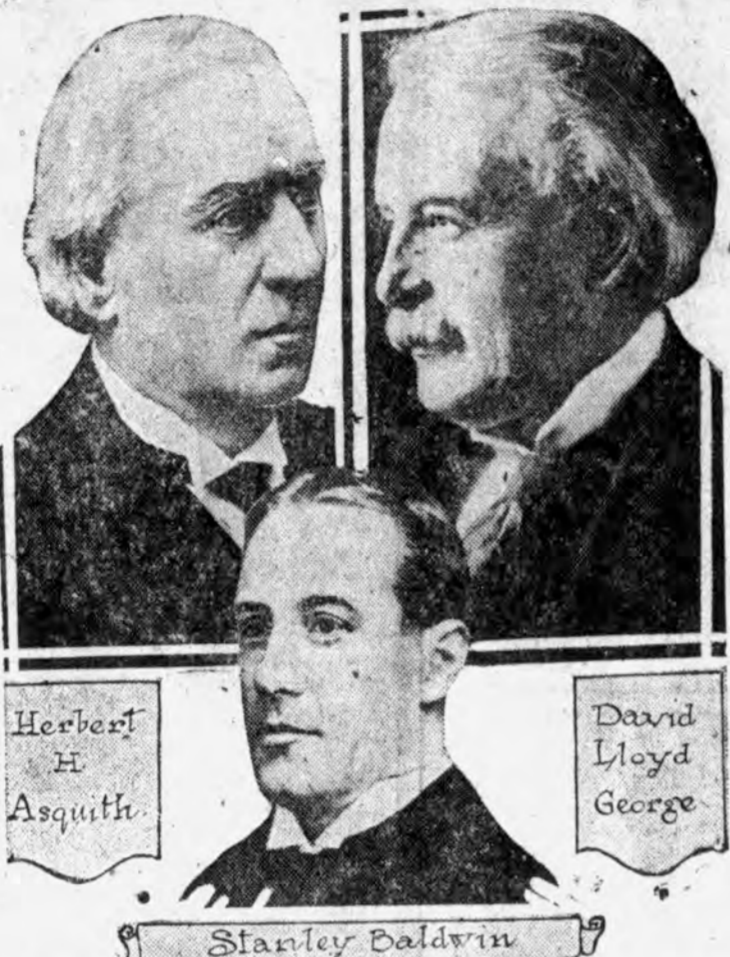

Dr. McBrayer pleaded guilty of the charge of trading with himself and was fined $50 and ordered to vacate his office said the opinion. He perfected an appeal and furnished bond until his case can be heard by the Supreme court and therefore his status is the same as that of any other man convicted upon a criminal charge who appeals to Supreme court.

If a man is convicted of murder and sentenced to be electrocuted on a certain day, but he takes an appeal and furnishes bond you cannot just go on and have him executed until the court returned a ruling and neither can the order regarding the case of McBrayer be carried out until the Supreme court has handed down its decision on the appeal.

WORD "CONSULT" DELAYS FINAL ACTION ON NOTE

PARIS, Nov. 21.—Lord Crewe, British ambassador, received instructions this morning from London regarding the note which the allies are to send to Germany. It was then announced that the Council of Ambassadors would meet this afternoon. One little word—"consult"—is what has been delaying final action by the council on the note since Monday morning. Decision was reached by the ambassadors on that day that the note to Germany set forth that the allied demands of the military clauses of the peace treaty be complied with and that if Germany did not comply with same satisfactorily that the allies would "consult" as to what steps were to be taken regarding the situation.

BALDWIN FIGHTS FOR POLITICAL LIFE

Premier Stanley Baldwin is fighting for his political life in England, having called for a general election on December 6. Former Premiers H. H. Asquith and David Lloyd George, both Liberals, but implacable enemies since Lloyd George forced Asquith out of the Prime Minister's post in 1916, have reconciled their differences and joined forces, under Asquith, to battle the plan of the Conservatives, under Baldwin, to force a tariff law upon England, which has always boasted of its free trade.

GOLDSBORO, Nov. 1.—A warehouse together with 959 bales of staple cotton were destroyed early today by fire of unknown origin.

The cotton valued at more than $175,000 was the property of B. G. Thompson a local cotton trader and was fully insured. Mr. Thompson estimated this morning that probably 50 per cent of the cotton could be salvaged.

The warehouse, which was totally destroyed, was the property of the North Carolina Tobacco Growers Association and was valued at $75,000.

The fire, which was discovered shortly after midnight, raged for an hour beyond control of the firemen and threatened to spread to several nearby buildings, one of which, the Norfolk-Southern freight depot, caught fire. Reports Royal Palace Never Saw a Bathtub

PRAGUE.—Prague counts as many curiosity shops as the ordinary city does butchers and bakers, and articles of striking interest often are to be seen in their windows. Not long ago one displayed an elaborate bathtub, pewter ornamented with copper, said to have belonged to and been used by the late Emperor of Austria, Francis Joseph, and the exhibit attracted as much attention as would have the actual throne of the royal Hapsburgs.

This piece of imperial furniture was bought by a man who made a fortune during the war by selling paper-soled shoes to the Austrian army, and it became the most valued piece of his collection in his new villa near Prague. He showed it to his visitors with much pride, and related patronizingly how much it had cost him.

Then one day some one questioned its authenticity. The owner at once started an investigation in Vienna, and was in due time informed by his agent that Francis Joseph never used a bath tub, preferring a daily sponge bath with cold water and a brisk rub-down, and that during the days of this emperor there was not a single bath room, or even a bath tub, in the Austrian imperial palace.

U. S. CENTER OF RADIO

The Radio Corporation of America has in the United States five high-power radio telegraph stations employed in transoceanic service. Since 1920 the United States has become the greatest center of radio communication in the world...

WE ARE A LAND OF FIRES

October 7 to 13 was Fire Prevention Week all over the United States, devoted to reducing the record of $521,860,000 losses in 1923. This campaign for safeguarding America against fire losses included organized work by all, from school children to President.

GREAT INDUSTRIAL MOVEMENTS

Probably the greatest movement ever inaugurated in our country for stabilizing finance and utility properties are the establishment of labor banks and customer ownership of utilities. In many of the large cities, large labor organizations have become controlling stockholders in national banks, and members of unions not only own shares but are swelling the deposits into millions.

share in the dividends and interest distribution of these large utility and public service organizations, but have invested $300,000,000 this year in new securities.

Customer ownership financing has been the salvation of these public service industries, supplying the new capital necessary for extensions and improvements.

Some great railroad companies such as the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and Santa Fe and oil and sugar companies, have extended their lists of stockholders by selling their common stock to the men and women on their pay rolls on the installment plan.

By thus welding the interests of their employees, customers and the general public as a link in their financial existence, there is developing an asset of wonderful value, and a system of profit sharing that is based upon sound principles.

GOVERNMENT MUST BE UPHELD

A man is presumed to intend the inevitable consequence of his act. Lawlessness always follows, in fact, is a part of treatment as a common strikebreaker on the part of union labor. Union labor must learn that it has no rights not vouchsafed to non-union labor.

The Constitution guarantees to the meanest citizen life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Representative government cannot long exist except by the control of the majority, and it is the supreme duty of government to preserve itself by protecting its citizens in their constitutional rights.

TELEPHONES IN LARGE CITIES

Detroit, the fourth city in the United States in point of population, stands seventh in the number of telephones within its boundaries.

Standing ahead of Detroit in number of telephones are New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and San Francisco, in the order named, although only New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia lead in population.

That does not mean that Detroit residents use the telephone any less than do the people of other large cities. In all of them the use of telephone service is increasing rapidly. The telephone development in New York, Philadelphia, and Chicago is so much heavier than in Detroit because their populations greatly surpass that of Detroit.

The Boston telephone area, on the other hand, includes practically all of Boston's suburbs, or a total population, including that of the city, of 1,600,000, compared with Detroit's estimated 1,250,000. Boston, too, is a city of long established residents and is without the great industrial population characteristic of the center of automobile manufacture.

Western cities, particularly those visited annually by hundreds of thousands of tourists, naturally have a large telephone development because of that transient population, which does not, by the way, figure in the census records.

STREET TO REAR ATLANTIC COAST LINE DEPOTS NOW BEING PAVED

Work has been started on the grading preparatory to the paving of the street to the rear of the Atlantic Coast Line passenger and freight depots.

This is a work which has been needed for quite awhile as it was awfully bad in rainy weather making it hard for traffic to pass in and out from the station.

The need of the paving was advocated by the Chamber of Commerce several weeks ago and it has been very active in putting it across.

During Armistice Week, Blount Harvey Company, of this city, decorated the window in honor of the occasion paying special tribute to the Gold Star Boys. In the center of the company sent a picture of the graph of Woodrow Wilson, our war president. Mr. J. H. Blount, treasurer and manager and the employees of the company sent a picture of the window to Mr. Wilson.

The letter which accompanied the picture and Mr. Wilson's answer follows:

Greenville, N. C.,
November 16, 1923.
Honorable Woodrow Wilson,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Wilson:
Armistice Day has been most appropriately celebrated, with enthusiasm and loyalty, throughout our great country.

Every appropriate celebration of Armistice Day brings back to the mind of the American people, a deep sense of gratitude for the splendid work you have accomplished, for the peace of the world. While the full fruition of your great vision for world peace has, for a time, been somewhat delayed, the American people have the utmost faith that Providence will in the near future permit the American people and the world at large, to come into the full possession of a heritage, which your policies and your vision, have so clearly outlined, to the world.

As a testimonial of our deepest appreciation and regard, and as an evidence of our abiding faith and loyalty to you, in your great work for humanity, permit us to send you this photograph of our most prominent Armistice Decoration, in Greenville, North Carolina.

With assurances of our utmost faith and highest regards for America's foremost citizen, we are,

Most cordially yours,
EMPLOYEES OF BLOUNT-HARVEY COMPANY.

Washington, D. C.,
November 19, 1923.

Mr. Blount:

The generous message of confidence and friendship which accompanies the interesting photograph you were kind enough to send me has cheered me greatly and I hope that will have an opportunity to express to the employees my heartfelt appreciation. It is delightful to me to think of you and of them as friends and comrades in the great faith by means of which our country must be redeemed from the mistakes which have relegated it to so unenviable a place in the world.

With grateful appreciation,
Faithfully yours,
WOODROW WILSON

Greenville High Lose Last Game of Season To Washington Team

The Greenville High School football team lost the last game of the season yesterday in Washington with the High school team of that city defeated them by a score of 2 to 0.

The Greenville boys played a fair game but not up to the standard. They were handicapped in two ways, first on account of not having enough practice and on account of having one of their best players, Roy Hardee, out of the game.

The local team has played seven games this season. They have won three games, lost three games and tied one. This shows that they have made a good record and their coach and friends are well pleased with the season.

"The Last Hour" White's Thursday

"The Last Hour" now playing at White's Theatre is a very powerful story. Also it is told in an effective way. Milton Sills and Carmel Myers who play the leading roles have never done a better piece of work according to our recollection. With such players and with such a story "The Last Hour" should easily rank as one of the leading photoplays of the year.

"The Last Hour" deals with two brothers, one of whom at the opening of the story returns from South America where he has amassed a fortune and the other who has broken into the local bank and is about to leave the country with his ill wife.

The story goes on with the subsequent career of the elder brother who in spite of his desire to lead a normal

SHOT DOWN IN STREET FIGHTING IN GERMANY

This photograph, taken at the imminent part of the photographer's life, was snapped when police opened fire on the Separatists who had attacked the Greifeld Town Hall in their effort to overthrow the forces of the Reich and set up a new state in the Palatinate. Two men are shown down, wounded. Life apparently means little to these desperate Germans, for they seem to be laughing at their own danger.

Electric Lamps Keep Hens Awake, Produce More Eggs

RALEIGH, Nov. 19.—Announcing today the results of a series of experiments in chicken feeding, Dr. B. F. Kaupp, poultry investigator of the North Carolina experiment station at State College, declared that the experiments showed that it pays to keep Rhode Island Red hens awake over-time by the use of 120 watt electric lamps.

Dr. Kaupp took two flocks of poultry, giving one group 14 feeding hours by the use of electric lamps and allowing the other flocks only the normal daylight hours.

When the test was concluded, he announced, it was found that the hens kept awake 14 hours with artificial light laid 147 eggs per hen during a year, while those having no artificial light laid only 116 eggs per hen during the same period.

Each hen in both flocks was given 50 pounds of feeding mash, or approximately two ounces a day. In addition to this however they had free access to the dry mash hoppers and each bird could eat as freely as desired. The hens under lights ate an additional 46 pounds while those under normal conditions ate only 43 pounds, additional. This made a total of 96 pounds consumed by the fowls under the lights and 93 pounds by those not having the artificial light.

The cost of the feed for the hens under lights amounted to $2.15 per hen and the value of the eggs produced was $6.10. The cost of feed for the other flocks was $2.08 and the value of the eggs produced $5.13 per hen. Dr. Kaupp, claims, therefore, that one group of hens, those kept awake 14 hours, produced a value of $3.05 each above feed costs, while the other produced only $3.05 each above food costs, thus making a difference in proceeds of 90 cents a bird in favor of those kept awake over-time.

Hunters Awarded Medal to Pup Facing Mountain Lion Alone

PRESCOTT, Ariz.—A hound pup has been awarded a medal for bravery. The dog, alone and unprotected recently held a mountain lion at bay in a Colorado river canyon until a party of hunters appeared. Ramsay Patterson, noted big game hunter of the Southwest, killed the lion with his revolver.

The lion had been driven to a flat rock by the pack of hounds, but when it turned, snarling, at the pursuers except the one young dog drew back in terror. The lion pup scrambled up on the rocks and growled at the men, bluffing the menacing beast into worried inaction. The hunters arranged to attach a medal to the hounds collar.

Cooperative Selling Proves Successful With Portuguese

WASHINGTON.—A band of 100 Portuguese farmers, who can neither read nor write English and who are working out their economic freedom through co-operative marketing, is engaging the attention of the Department of agriculture.

Officials here say these Portuguese, who live about Cape Cod in Massachusetts and call themselves the Cape Cod Strawberry Growers' Association understand the true principles of co-operation. The secret of their success is a high quality product, carefully graded and packed which has created a demand that takes practically all the berries the association can market.

This year more than a million quarts of berries were marketed with a gross return of $133,000. The association has been in existence eight years.

Perpetual Light Proposed At Tomb Unknown Poilu

PARIS.—The tomb of France's unknown soldier beneath the Arc de Triomphe will become a more impressive symbol of sacrifice if the proposal to keep a flame under the arch burning day and night is adopted. The unknown soldier's tomb continues as a national shrine and is visited by thousands Sunday and holidays.

In this connection it has been pointed out that time has effaced many memories connected with the war. It is a rare thing to see a war ribbon in a man's buttonhole, while during the first years after the war every winner of a war cross displayed its ribbon.

Germans Fail In Efforts to Buy Up The Old Warships

HAMBURG.—America's decision not to sell any cast-off war ships to foreign buyers on the ground that such action would minimize war, has attracted much attention in Europe. Several German firms made inquiries in Washington concerning battleships which were to be scrapped, as the vessels were desired by them for the iron and steel they contained.

About the time the policy of the United States government was announced, it was learned here that several battleships upon which construction began during the Czar's regime, but which never were completed, had been sold by the Soviet government to a British wrecking concern to be used as scrap iron and melted down. Work to this effect came from Petrograd to German shipping companies who were interested in the deal, but whom, it appears, were outbid by the British.

Included in this Russian sale were 15 war ships and 5,000 locomotives, some of which had been the pride of the Russian state railways in the days when the trans-Siberian express was in its prime.

American Cavalry Regiments Showing Great Improvement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Readiness for active service and morale among American cavalry regiments has shown distinct improvement "due to the very devoted efforts of the officers and non-commissioned officers," Major General Willard Holbrook, chief of cavalry, declared in his annual report made public today. General Holbrook added, however, the "regrettable observation" that there has been marked deterioration of cavalry mounts due to the advancing age of troop horses and lack of necessary remounts.

The morale of the cavalry "can be characterized, without qualification, as high," General Holbrook said. There was conspicuous spirit during the year in the first cavalry division posted on the border which had attracted attention of the Inspector General also noted "visible improvement during the year in all border cavalry."

General Holbrook said the work of the cavalry division had already proved this to be an excellent training school for officers and demonstrated that the division occupied "a conspicuous place in our scheme of preparedness."

I took twelve bottles (of Cardui) and haven't had a bit of trouble since.
