

FORMER EXPLORER GETS SENTENCE 14 YEARS FOR FRAUD

Dr. Cook and Thirteen Co-Defendants Draw One to 14 Years

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, Nov. 22.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, S. E. J. Cox and eleven others convicted yesterday in Federal court here and given sentence, ranging from one year to fourteen years and fines from $1,000 to $12,000 will have to remain in jail for a period of at least two months even though they raise bond and effect an appeal it was announced today.

Should Dr. Cook appeal his bond will be in the sum of $75,000 the largest ever on record in the state of Texas.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, Nov. 22.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who first gained fame by his denied claim of discoverer of the North Pole, today faces a cell in the Tarrant county jail with a sentence of 14 years and nine months and a fine of $12,000 and of him and most stinging enunciation ever heard in Texas ringing in his ears.

Dr. Cook is in jail with 13 of his co-defendants who were yesterday found guilty in Federal court here for using the mails for the purpose to defraud in connection with the Petroleum Producers' Association.

Fred K. Smith, treasurer of the concern, drew a sentence of seven years and a fine of $12,000 and S. E. J. Cox a term of eight years and fine of $8,000. Eleven other defendants in the case drew terms ranging from one to six years.

Judge Denounces Cook. In passing sentence on Dr. Cook, Federal Judge John M. Kill said: "What have you to say for yourself?"

Cook said nothing. "So you can say nothing?" continued the court. "You have come to the point where your peculiar personality fails you. The twentieth century should be proud of you. History gave us Ananias and Sapphira. They are forgotten, but we still have Dr. Cook."

"Cook, this deal of yours is so damnably rotten that it seems to me your attorneys must have been forced to hold their handkerchiefs to their noses to have represented you. It stinks to high Heaven. You should not be allowed to run at large. I know that you have your ill-gotten goods put away, but your wife and daughter should not be allowed to touch them. You have stolen this money from widows and orphans. You should start another company and distribute it back to them."

"Cook, have you no decency at all?" the court continued. "Are you not haunted at night by these pitiable figures? How can you sleep? I am not going to do justice in this case, for I think that you will get it somewhere else. You ought to be paraded as a practical warning in every state where you have sold stock."

Judge Killitt then passed sentence.

This does not include many chapters which are holding a Roll Call but have not yet reported to headquarters.

MINISTER PAYS $225 FOR SHOOTING SCHOOL BOYS

HIGH POINT, Nov. 22.—Convicted on the back as a result of the shooting of assault with a deadly weapon on three Ray Street school boys, Rev. Thomas C. Carrick, wealthy retired Baptist minister, was today ordered to pay $225 into the court to defray the expense of medical treatment for the boys and to pay the costs in the case.

This judgment was rendered shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Judge Horace Haworth, who heard the case. The trial began yesterday morning and consumed all of the court's time during the day. Much interest was shown, the court room being filled with spectators.

The 74 year-old ex-preacher, who is well known throughout this section, was indicted for shooting John Wiles and Gilbert Hoskins, two Ray Street school boys, near his home last Friday. It also developed at the hearing that Duncan Bain, another school boy, sustained a superficial wound on the back as a result of the shooting.

Testifying in his own behalf, the aged minister said he shot to mark the boys and not to kill them. He told virtually the same story as that given in an interview published recently. Mr. Carrick declared that for some time he had been annoyed by boys who stole his turpins, broke off the lambs on his trees and damaged his property in other ways.

He declared that he used his shotgun in protecting his turpins only after he had appealed to the police and to the school authorities and they had given him no relief. He reiterated the statement that he did not shoot the boys to kill them. "If I had wanted to kill them, I had a gun better than that," he said.

John Wiles and Gilbert Hoskins, the two boys shot, were not seriously injured and unless there are complications they will recover physicians testified at the trial.

ROLLING LIQUOR ESTABLISHMENT RAIDED BY OFFICERS LAST NIGHT; 21 GALLONS OF LIQUOR ARE TAKEN

A rolling wholesale liquor establishment in the shape of a Ford automobile, belonging to unknown parties was raided by officers last night with the result that sixteen gallons of whiskey were captured, while a five gallon jug was found broken on the street.

Collar With Two Cars. The wholesale raid was made after the car had collided with two other cars, one of which was a new Overland, at the turn of the Ayden and Farmville road just beyond the Cotton Mill. The driver of the Ford was good his escape and at noon today had not been apprehended. Officers are making every effort possible to locate the guilty party.

It was stated today that it was believed that only about half of the contents of the car were found as it was quite evident that the owner carried a supply with him.

Car Turns Over Twice. The car after colliding with the other cars turned over twice before finally coming to a standstill. It is a miracle that the driver escaped with his life and that all the jugs were not broken.

Late Developments. Tom Johnston, a negro from the Farmville section visited the sheriff's office today and claimed the car saying that it had been stolen. Reports received from Raleigh state that the license number is that of John R. Howard. Officers are still investigating the affair.

PREFER CHARGES CHARLOTTE OFFICE VETERANS BUREAU

Former Medical Examiner Charges Inefficiency, Favoritism

CHARLOTTE, Nov. 22.—Formal charges of inefficiency and favoritism in personnel appointments have been filed with the veterans bureau in Washington against the Fifth district veterans bureau with head offices in Atlanta and offices for the sub-district in Charlotte.

Charges were preferred by Dr. Townsend, of Charlotte, former medical examiner for North Carolina, following a conference with Senator Lee S. Overman and Dr. John Donnelly at the senator's home in Salisbury. An inspector from the veterans bureau in Washington has been in this state investigating the charges.

Dr. Townsend in making his statement declared that scores of men in the Charlotte sub-district suffering from tuberculosis have waited and wasted time for entrance into hospitals while a system under the direction of cheap and inefficient men have performed useless formalities. He also said that many men desperately in need of hospital treatment for tuberculosis have only after a few days stay in the hospitals been discharged as not needing further treatment because the untrained doctors in the hospitals did not recognize the seriousness of the cases. I have personally seen, he said, a great many men immediately back from the hospitals with a temperature of one to three degrees above normal caused by active tuberculosis who had been discharged as not needing further treatment.

Dr. Townsend in his charge said that six prominent Charlotte physicians had recently resigned their connection with the local bureau because of the alleged tactics of the bureau.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The Veterans Bureau here declined today to add anything to the announcement made regarding the charges preferred against the sub-district of the bureau at Charlotte. Officials stated that the matter was already under investigation and that an inspector had already visited the state and returned to Washington with his report. This report it was stated will likely be in the hands of Director Hines within a few days.

Constantinople To Be Cleared of Its Beggars

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 22.—The Municipal authorities have taken control of the city, they have effected the reform of many a buses, that went untouched during the years of the allied occupation.

Most striking is the crusade against beggars who have always infested this place. Under strict police efforts they have begun to disappear, and it is now possible to walk the streets without filthy men, women and children tugging at one's coat in importunate impudence. Now the order is out that the city is to be rid of its gypsies, who are said to constitute the majority of the beggars, sneakthieves and pickpockets that have infested the thoroughfares. They are to be sent into the interior and put to work at agriculture, public works and other unskilled jobs.

WHY WE SHOULD FAST ON DECEMBER 2

The international observance of this day is a very compelling idea. Many thousands of people, residents of at least fifteen countries, will join for this one day, in a common thought and a common purpose, designed to call attention to the need and misfortune of the refugee victims of post-war conditions in Europe and the Near East. They will forego their usual noonday repast and eat instead the frugal ration usually partaken by the refugees and orphans, contributing the difference in cost to their national relief organizations for refugee work.

The world needs sympathy and help. The present danger to civilization is imminent and fundamental. Only the united efforts of all peoples can solve the problems which face us today. Never can they be solved in any spirit of selfishness. The only remedy lies in a united frontlines and helpfulness. This is the spirit in which we shall all gather at a common board on December 2. And it is emphatically the spirit for which the statesmen of America have stood four-square through every succeeding wave of world-crisis. It is the spirit which will conquer.

So, while the world is discouraged by the political failure of the great Powers in the peace, and by the sufferings and greeds and cruelties which have followed, the peoples of all nations are reaching out slowly but surely, toward the fundamental idea of brotherhood, as the solution of the situation.

REDUCTION IN FIRE LOSSES

A moderate reduction in fire losses was established in July, according to figures compiled by the "Journal of Commerce." According to this paper the fire losses in this country and Canada in July reached a total of $27,490,750 for the month, as compared with $31,851,900 in June of this year and $36,667,750 in July a year ago. This is the first reduction of any such magnitude in the monthly record figures during the past two and a half year.

The fire losses for the first seven months of this year are still far above the normal, reaching a total of $253,541,950, as compared with $229,527,350 for the same months of 1922 and $198,282,050 in 1921. The losses for the first seven months of the year afford an interesting comparison with the monthly records of the previous year, disclosing as they do the close relation of business depression and uncertainty of trade liquidation to fire losses.

SHIP PHONES IN DENMARK

The United Steamship Company, of Copenhagen, Denmark, plans to install wireless telephone equipment on all boats plying between Copenhagen and the provincial harbors for the traveling public's convenience. Travelers will be able to secure direct communication, through the land telephone service, with their own homes or offices similar to the service planned for the S. S. Leviathan.

GREAT GROWING INDUSTRY

Next to development of electricity, production of fuel and illuminating gas is becoming a great national industry.

Consuming crude oil and coal in large quantities as raw material, it produces many valuable by-products.

There are coke, briquettes, coal tar and scores of chemical materials and commodities.

And what do you think of burning gas to make ice without a motor?

The great increase in gas consumption does not include natural gas, carbide or gasoline, but just manufactured gas.

WASHINGTON—Sunflower seeds, 14,000,000 pounds of them, worth almost three-quarters of a million dollars. That is this year's crop of the three important producing states, Missouri, Illinois and California, according to the Department of Agriculture.

The yield this year is about 4,000,000 pounds more than last year. From four to six million pounds are imported annually, principally from Holland, Argentina and Russia.

"The poor man's peanuts" are what sunflower seeds are called in some sections. In New York City many Russians buy and roast them to eat. They are used principally, though, in poultry feed mixtures and for parrot feed.

Kansas, the "Sunflower State," produces practically no sunflower seeds for commercial use but in the three principal producing States they are considered a profitable crop as about 600 pounds per acre can be produced and sold for around $4 per 100 pounds.

Would Unify Efforts Help Needy Litigants

GENEVA. — Further evidence of the desire of American organizations to co-operate with the League of Nations in humanitarian efforts, is found in the fact that a United States national association which is devoted to obtaining civil justice for the poor and needy has asked the League to convene an international conference of all world agencies, which are dedicated to protecting the rights of the poor.

At the recent general assembly of the League the Norwegian delegation brought up this subject officially, and it was decided to place it on the agenda of next year's assembly. Mean time the secretary-general was requested to procure all possible information bearing on the possibility of securing international co-operation on this question. Norway has submitted a communication showing that organizations to secure legal justice for the poor exist in most countries, the general aim being to furnish legal assistance to people who are too poor and helpless to employ lawyers.

An invitation has been extended the public to attend the Sunday school and the following invitation comes from Mr. Branch, "We will be glad to see you at Rose Hill. We may not expect to prosper in our daily life if we fail to have Christ with us. Promise yourself and God that you will live a better life, and come to our Sunday school where you will receive a cordial welcome."

Daring Actress Leaps Four Stories to Safety From Burning Bldg.

Alice Calhoun, Vitagraph star, who will be seen in "The Midnight Alarm" at the Strand theater soon, has set an example for motion picture luminaries which won her praise from her director, David Smith, whose cardinal principle is realism.

Miss Calhoun has made it an inflexible rule that doubles for her should not be used in any picture.

"I do not think it is fair to employ another woman to do the dangerous stunts and then give me the credit," Miss Calhoun holds. "I believe I should enact every bit of action demanded of me, whether it is dangerous or not, and if anyone must risk her life to enhance the value of the picture I feel I am the logical person to do so."

Miss Calhoun risked her life in making "The Midnight Alarm" in concluding the fire scenes, which are the most spectacular ever made. Miss Calhoun actually leaped four stories from a burning office building into a fireman's net. Miss Calhoun was singed in passing through the flames that shot from the structure. She also suffered slight bruises and was badly shaken up on striking the net.

Percy Marmont, who plays opposite Miss Calhoun as a fire captain, was not to be outdone by the daring actress; so he, too, leaped from the building into the net.

This scene forms the thrilling climax of "The Midnight Alarm," in which Cullen Landis and Joseph Kilgus appear. The photoplay is unique in that it is a series of breathtaking scenes that are built to hold a story.

Machine Separates Oil from Water.
BIRKENHEAD, England.—A new marine oil separator, which promises to save much money, was recently demonstrated here.

Oil and water pumped from a ship's bilge pass through the machine, and by a certain process the oil is returned to the vessel's tanks and the water to the sea. Beside saving fuel, the practice will reduce the danger of oil fires in the water of harbors and rivers.

College Coeds Earn Way in Various Lines

EVANSTON, ILL.—Six hundred men and women students at Northwestern University are working their way through school this year, according to figures prepared by university officials. Fifty percent of the men on the campus are employed in part time jobs and 20 percent of this group depend entirely on their own earnings to pay their way through school.

The range of work being done by men students includes clerking and waiting on tables, house work, washing dishes, cleaning windows, serving as chauffeurs, night watchmen, motormen, tutors, hotel clerks and switchboard operators.

The old fashioned college girl who regarded work outside the curriculum as "demeaning," is disappearing from the university and a new type is taking her place, said officials announcing that maid service in the homes of Evanston families is one of the more popular positions that many Northwestern girls have accepted. Taking care of little children during the afternoon hours is another job in which a number of girls are engaged. Secretarial work also has a strong bid for favor among the young women students and not a few are working in the capacity of clerks and stenographers on Evanston business offices.

Blocks of Harding Memorial Stamps Sought for Framing

WASHINGTON.—Blocks of unperforated Harding memorial stamps in any number up to 400, were placed on sale recently at the government philatelic agency here.

Owing to the demand from collectors, members of congress and others who desired the unperforated stamps for collection purposes, Postmaster General New gave orders for the preparation of the stamps without perforations. Many of the requests were based on a desire to obtain the stamps in that shape for the purpose of framing in memory of the late president.

Cooperative Scheme Hits German Food Profiteers, Is Said

FRANKFORT-ON-THE-ODER.—The profiteering middlemen dealing in foodstuffs have been blow by the cooperative efforts of a committee representing city and labor officials and a committee of the Landbund, or farmers' organization. Under the new scheme certain quantities of potatoes and meats are delivered weekly at fixed prices and distributed through municipal authorities.

The result has been that the city workers and farmers have eliminated the middlemen; retail prices of potatoes and meat to consumers have been reduced nearly 50 percent and the farmers are receiving better prices than before. Another advantage is that the supply of potatoes and meat is made certain.

Professor Gagel and other economists are urging extension of the plan to other municipalities.

FUNERAL OF BONAR LAW

Donar Law Funeral.

The funeral cortege of the former British Premier, Andrew Bonar Law, is shown proceeding slowly along Victoria street, London, on the way to Westminster Abbey, where the ashes of the great statesmen were laid to rest near the bier of the Unknown Soldier. The Prince of Wales may be seen directly behind the flag-covered coffin, while to the left is Herbert H. Asquith, former Prime Minister, and to the right is Lord Balfour.

Duke Seeks U. S. Millions For The Hanover Treasures

VIENNA.—Duke Ernst August of Cumberland, 78 and hard up, is said to be negotiating with Paris jewelers for the sale to an American of treasures of the Guelphs. These he brought to Austria when he was forced to leave Hannover, over which principality he ruled until it was absorbed by Prussia after the Austro-Prussian war in 1866. The price mentioned is $30,000,000.

Austria has objected to the exportation of the art objects, but the duke has replied that they were never in public museums, that Austria has no claim on them and that the country will lose the 59 percent export tax if it interferes. He claims the right to dispose of them as he pleases.

The duke's son, the Duke of Brunswick, married the only daughter of the former king in 1912. The duke's willingness to sell the Hanover plate is regarded as an indication that he has abandoned all hope of having his family restored to power in Hannover.
