DR. ALBERT QUILTS TASK TO FORM NEW CABINET, GERMANY

Ebert Seeks Bourgeois Aid To Clarify Situation

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—Dr. Heinrich F. Albert who, at the request of President Ebert was asked to form a new cabinet, today abandoned the task after ascertaining that he would not receive the support of the Reichstag.

President Ebert then began negotiations with leaders of the bourgeois parties seeking the formation of a five party cabinet not including the socialists. Up until noon none of the parties had proposed a candidate for chancellor.

Obstructionist tactics by the Reichstag leaders have so far prevented Dr. Albert from winning over sufficient support and available candidates for the cabinet posts to warrant his appearance in an official capacity before the Reichstag or otherwise to justify his position as head of a non-political ministry.

Bitterness Revived.
The three day's crisis again reveals the familiar picture of partisan jealousy and insistence on traditional parliamentary prerogatives which the old party leaders feel have been violated by President Ebert in the selection of Dr. Albert, who is viewed as an intruding outsider, aside from the fact that he is wholly without party affiliation.

President Ebert, however, thus far is apparently determined to permit Dr. Albert to exhaust all possibilities before yielding, or decreeing the Reichstag's dissolution, and late tonight informed the party leaders who sought an interview with him that he would receive them tomorrow.

Plans for an Episcopal seminary have been prepared, it was stated.

Appointment of Governor Morrow to the board was urged last spring when a vacancy occurred and he was offered the place, but it is understood, asked to be allowed to serve out his term as Governor. Judge Barton was then given a recess appointment by President Harding to the board, it was said, until Governor Morrow could take over his duties.

Coolidge Favorable To Self Rule For Philippine Islands

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—President Coolidge looks with favor on the proposal for self government in the Philippines just as soon as the people show the people capacity. The statement of the attitude of the president was made in connection with arrival here of a new Philippine mission seeking independence for the islands. The position of Coolidge conforms to that of President Harding expressed a year ago to a mission headed by Manuel Quezon. Coolidge believes that the United States should keep faith under the provisions of the Jones act pledging free government to the islands.

NEGRO ASSAILANT OF WHITE WOMAN TO DIE FRIDAY

RALEIGH, Nov. 27.—John Gess, convicted of an attack on an aged white woman near Spruce Pine in Mitchell county last September and sentenced to death by electrocution will pay the penalty in the electric chair on Friday, officials here indicated today.

At the Governor's office it was stated that no application for clemency on the part of the executive has been received nor have there been any appeals to the executive on behalf of the negro. Unless a last minute stay of execution is granted by Governor Morrison it appeared today that the sentence of the court would be fulfilled.

The crime for which Gess was convicted to die was committed last September and caused an uprising against negroes in Mitchell county to take place. Immediately after citizens of Spruce Pine received word of the attack negroes working as domestics, in the mines of Mitchell county, and on road construction were ordered to leave the county immediately. The order was generally obeyed and in less than 24 hours the county had been cleared of the blacks, and as a result work on roads and in the mines was halted.

Haynes Says Nearly All Bootleg Liquor Filled With Poison

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Commenting on the recent deaths in Philadelphia and elsewhere from poisonous liquor, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes said it should not be necessary to repeat previous warnings since the most casual survey of the public press reveals the vicious character of the illicit liquor now being peddled for beverage purposes.

Increases of activities of rum runners off the Atlantic coast, Haynes said, should not create the impression that real "imported" liquor will be on the market for the holiday season, for "in reality they are only creating a market for the homemade stuff concocted from re-distilled denatured alcohol or colored 'moonshine'."

Escaped Convict Is Arrested in Honolulu

HONOLULU, Nov. 27.—C. Edwards, according to police admitted today that he was one of six prisoners who escaped from the eastern Pennsylvania penitentiary at Philadelphia, a year ago.

Edwards came to Honolulu recently with the San Francisco chamber of commerce on an excursion. According to his story six prisoners paid $6,000 to a prison guard and were permitted to escape in ash cans. He declared that he was sentenced to 12 years. He is being held pending word from Pennsylvania authorities.

Would End Smuggling Liquor From Canada

OTTAWA, CANADA, Nov. 27.—Representatives of the United States began discussions today with Canadian officials on plans to end liquor smuggling across the border. Opposition from anti-prohibition forces in the dominion will cause delay of any decisive action and before any program seeking to accomplish the purpose can be put into operation.

Need Younger Statesmen, He Asserts

Progressives Ready To Block Program G. O. P. Regulars

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Opposition to the organization plans of Republican leaders in the House and Senate began today to take more definite form. Likewise, there was increased evidence that the Progressives and many Democrats are determined that any tax revision at the coming session shall depend materially from the program suggested by Secretary Mellon.

House Progressives began a series of conferences to map out their campaign for liberalization of the rules and committees, while Senate Progressives started a backfire on the Republican organization plan to continue Senator Cummins, of Iowa, as chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee and elect Senator Curtis, of Kansas, president pro tem of the senate.

KLAN MEMBERS SCORE VICTORIES IN LEGISLATURE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 27.—Opponents of anti-Ku Klux Klan legislation scored victories in both houses of the Oklahoma legislature bringing bitter denunciations of their methods from the presiding officer in each branch. Senator Tom Anglin, president pro tem of the Senate, assailed the members for what he termed their obstructive and destructive tactics. The president's speech was directed at Senator W. M. Gulley, of Muskogee, whom he asked:

"Why don't you vote for something constructive instead of voting against everything?"

Gulley replied heatedly, declaring that his action was the will of his constituents. In the lower house, Speaker W. D. McBe, accused by former Governor J. C. Walton of being a member of the Klan, threatened to "break with every man in the legislature" unless adequate Klan legislation is passed. He referred to talk that anti-Klan laws are "Walton measure" branding it as "absurd" and declaring that satisfactory anti-Klan legislation must go through.

German Mark Takes Another Big Tumble

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—A letter in an envelope a foot long and six inches wide with the envelope plastered with stamps aggregating 6,144,551,010 German mark and addressed to a man in Elgin, Ill., was received by the Chicago post office. The stamps represented ten cents in American money.

While the stamps represented a dime the letter was posted, when the misive was received ten cents would have purchased about 77,000,000,000 marks and the marks on the envelope had declined until they were worth about eight-one-thousandths of a cent.

Urges Painer Federal Courts Be Curtailed

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The City Board of Estimates tonight forwarded a letter to President Coolidge urging him personally to review the case of Comptroller Charles L. Craig, sentenced to jail by Federal Judge Mayer for contempt of court, "in the belief that such review will result in the correction of a grave injustice."

The communication further suggested that the President consider making a "recommendation in your message to congress that the revised statutes and law be properly amended to the end that the constitutional guaranty of American citizens shall be preserved and the right of freehanging shall forever remain inviolate."

Mrs. McAdoo's mother is the second wife of Captain E. Emerson, bromo seltzer manufacturer, of Baltimore, and is half sister to Mrs. Raymond T. Baker, formerly Mrs. Smith Hollis, McKim, and Mrs. A. G. Vanderbilt.

Fire Loss In State For October Shows Substantial Decrease

RALEIGH, Nov. 27.—The fire loss in North Carolina in October, according to approximate estimates of Insurance Commissioner Stacy W. Wade will not exceed $325,000, as compared with a recorded loss for October, 1922, of $740,329. The number of fires, however, Mr. Wade stated, will reach 200 for October of this year, while during the same period in 1922 there were only 158.

Among the towns that up to this time have reported having had no fire losses at all during October are: Henderson, an old stand by, Statesville, Concord, Rockingham, Aberdeen, Louisburg, Southern Pines, Greenville, Graham and Thomasville.

First Clash Won By Birth Control Clinic

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—A victory for the proposed birth control clinic to be established in Chicago as the first of its kind in America, was won by its advocates when Circuit Judge Fisher granted a petition for mandamus to compel city authorities to issue a license to the clinic. The case is expected to be appealed to the appellate court, although Frank M. Padden, declared that "the lawfulness or unlawfulness of the matter should early be determined in a criminal prosecution."

Turkeys Pleading.

RALEIGH, Nov. 27.—Turkeys are plentiful this year, according to reports received here from the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C. The turkey crop is heavy, particularly in Texas, and the birds are quite plentiful in Maryland and Virginia, it is reported. Storage stocks, it is stated, are around 5,000,000 pounds this year while last year they were but 2,000,000. Many farmers are said to be holding their turkeys for the Christmas trade, the area sown with winter wheat in that country during the coming Autumn may be considerably reduced.

SEIZURE BY U. S. OF BRITISH RUM RUNNER VALID, SAY OFFICIALS

No Discussion to ensue With Britain Over the Capture of Schooner

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Complete confidence was in evidence in official circles today that the seizure of the British schooner Tomako would not become a subject of controversy with the British government in spite of her unusual capture.

State, treasury and department of justice officials interested in the seizure regard the matter as a closed incident so far as international interest is concerned. Treasury officials declared the capture belonged in a classification with the celebrated Marshal case in which the British government declined to interfere because the owners of the Marshal failed to establish the validity of her registry.

A comprehensive report of the charges laid against the Tomako and against individuals interested in her operations was submitted some weeks ago by the department of justice to the state department with the request that it be brought to the attention of the British diplomatic representatives. As a result department of justice officials were given the impression that the British embassy would not oppose the seizure of the Tomako in the vicinity of the American coast in view of the substantial character of the evidence against her.

It is generally held that incident will not be the cause of any international discussion.

May Double Red Cross Roll Call

The Red Cross Roll Call, which has been in progress in Greenville since Nov. 13, will come to a close this week. Speaking of the fine work done by the several committees, Dr. Paul Fitzgerald, chairman for Greenville said this morning that he was anxious to have the report from the remaining committees, so that the final returns could be made known.

"According to the present outlook we are to have a creditable showing" stated Dr. Fitzgerald.

K. T. Grell, county chairman, stated that unusually fine reports are already coming in from the different sections. Bethel, Grimesland, Stokes, Arthur, Falkland and Simpson have forwarded their reports.

Farmville, Ayden, Winterville, Grifton and Fountain will complete their canvass this week and submit final count.

With the support that has been accorded by the public it would now seem that this year's Roll Call will approximately double that of last year.

Expert Says Europe Must Purchase More Argentine Grain

BUENOS AIRES.—The tendency of exchange makes it probable that the wheat importing nations of Europe will find it more advantageous to purchase their wheat in Argentina than in the United States or Canada, says a report prepared for the Ministry of Agriculture by Leon Estabrook, formerly of the American Department of Agriculture, who came here some months ago to reorganize the Argentine crop reporting system.

Mr. Estabrook points to various factors in the world wheat situation which he says should tend to help Argentina, and referring to the United States, says that on account of farm labor conditions, the relatively high cost of production, and the discontent of the farmer with prices, the area sown with winter wheat in that country during the coming Autumn may be considerably reduced.

THE DAY OF THE GUNMAN

In an effort to curb an epidemic of hold-ups and other crimes, New York City police have just issued an order that all holders of permits to carry guns must submit to having their finger prints taken for police records. This is equal to classifying gun totes as potential criminals.

In Boston recently one man was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for carrying a loaded pistol. Another was given a year in prison.

Down in Louisiana four Klansmen were found guilty of "carrying firearms on the premises of another."

Such instances of the law's attempt to cope with a desperate situation sound revolutionary. To be sure, there are laws on the statute books to regulate and provide punishments for illicit gun toting, but the free and easy American does not think of such a law as applying to himself.

Probably no country other than America has ever become so steeped in the traditions of gun toting. As a nation we have a calloused trigger finger and a boastful pride of our ability to be quick on the draw. Lurid fiction and tales of pioneer prowess with the six-shooter have persisted until the myth of the American and his gun has become a national fetish. America, her vaunted culture and civilization notwithstanding, is still regarded by other nations as the land where a revolver as a pocket piece excites no comment and is, indeed, the necessary jewelry of a gentleman.

We have grown used to a complacent placing of blame on that nebulous class whom we call "foreigners," supposed to have brought the habit of shooting early and often from their native lands. That blame is unjust. There is no problem of concealed firearms in Europe.

When an alien is haled before the courts on a charge of shooting somebody, it is because he has adopted the custom of his country. He is constantly reading about Americans, either of history or the present, who are firing at one another; he sees representations of gun play on the stage or screen, and he learns to feel the joyous acceptance we make of the pistol pocket. It is not in the least surprising, then, if he conceives the notion that to be a true American he must have a gun. What he is doing represents his crude idea of 100 per cent Americanism, a misconception of wild freedom such as he never knew on his native heath.

We have laws enough to regulate carrying firearms. But they are too little observed. A permit to carry a revolver is regarded as a trivial thing. The stock explanation, "He was finally locked up on a charge of carrying concealed weapons," is commonplace in police news of the day. It is evidence that the revolver law is regarded only as a convenient excuse when it is advisable to detain a person against whom no other charges can be made at the moment.

There is, of course, the argument for having a gun that was advanced by the fictional Texan: "You may never need it, but when you do need it, you'll need it like hell." American life is violent and beset with dangers. But personal preparedness has made it so and will keep it so until it becomes unusual to go armed.

The greatest individual play of the season is about to be made by the Grand Turk himself.

"Doc" Cook probably will have plenty of time to work out another philanthropic scheme before he bids the prison warden farewell.

With William G. McAdoo taking some of the delegates away from Henry Ford, it begins to look like preparations for a campaign.

The New York boy who threw a cat out of a second-story window and was sent to jail for five days ought to be glad he didn't throw her off the Woolworth building.

A man paid the cost for not keeping his backyard in a sanitary condition in city court the other day. He was also admonished by Mayor Clark to keep his premises clean. That particular backyard is not the only spot in Greenville that needs cleaning up. The mayor would do well to keep this work alive.

It is becoming more patent each day that drivers cannot violate the traffic laws in Greenville and get away with it—excepting bright lights.

Alice Calhoun Charms In Swift Moving Film The Midnight Alarm

Harry Westmore — Percy Marmont
Sparkle — Alice Calhoun
Chaser — Cullen Landis
Silas Carrington — Joseph Kilgour
Aggie — Maxine Ellet Hicks
Mr. Tilwell — George Pierce
Mrs. Tilwell — Kattie Bradbury
Springer — J. Gunnis Davis
Mrs. Thornton — Alice Calhoun
Susan — Jean Carpenter

No finer bit of work has ever been done by any actress than that displayed by Alice Calhoun in one of the swiftest-moving photoplays produced, "The Midnight Alarm," which will begin a two-day run at the Strand theatre Wednesday. Whimsically charming as Sparkle, lost daughter of wealth, Miss Calhoun gives a characterization that wins its way into the sympathetic hearts of spectators.

"The Midnight Alarm" reacts with the creative genius of the famous Vitagraph director, David Smith. It is a melodrama so rapid in its action—so tense in its scenes that frequently the spectators find themselves actually breathless.

"The Midnight Alarm" is a story of a plotting business man, Silas Carrington, who slays his partner Thornton to obtain his wealth. Mrs. Thornton is driven to death before an onrush in grain in trying to escape from Carrington in an automobile. Susan, her daughter, is tossed to safety and is picked up lost by Mrs. Berg, who raises her as her own.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilwell, her grandparents, and Carrington keep up an intermittent search for the child, who is known as Sparkle. Carrington learns she is alive and seeks to destroy evidence of her identity so that which on her death is to go to Carrington.

Chaser, a lovable crook, played by Cullen Landis, and Harry, Westmore, a fire captain, impersonated by Percy Marmont, save the heroine after many daring adventures. The film, scenes are the best ever shown in any photoplay.

Regulation of Winds By tunnels Helps In Aeronautics Course

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Tunnels through which wind will die into a gentle zephyr or rood into a "double-barreled cyclone" with a velocity of 500 miles an hour, are part of the laboratory equipment for the University of Michigan's courses in aeronautics, engineering. The tunnels, according to Prof. Felix W. Pawlowski, in charge of the aeronautics course, are the most efficient yet provided for testing wind currents and other atmospheric conditions met in flying.

The tunnels for the gentle breezes and for higher velocity up to 150 miles an hour are completed and in operation. The "double-barreled cyclone" equipment has not been installed. The "wind tunnels," Prof. Pawlowski believes, are most valuable in the instruction of aeronautical principles, but their construction was easy.

Because of the force of a 150-mile wind, it was necessary to install a series of doors giving access to the tunnel chamber. In each door, 70 feet high by 2 feet wide, is a small valve. To enter, the valve of the outside door is opened, and the person enters. The door is then closed and the second door is opened when the air in the two rooms is stable. This operation is continued through three chambers.

The tunnels are so arranged that most of the experiments are prepared outside and wheeled into the laboratory winds, which are manufactured by airplane propellers attached to motors of varying power.

"Sandy" Roms in Ahead.

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Earle Sand, who rode Zev to victory against Papyrus, the pride of England, first appeared at a race track eight years ago when at the state fair here he asked for a chance to ride. Finally they gave it to him, and mounted the slim, freckle-faced boy on a horse with a reputation of pulling up at the end of a race with its rider missing. "Sandy" let loose pandemonium in the stands by thundering across the white line several lengths ahead of them all.

Wealthy Chinese Forced Ransom Dead Kinsmen

PEKING.—A practice almost as old as China itself—that of extorting money from well-to-do Chinese by threatening to desecrate or by actually desecrating ancestral graves has been revived by Honan bandits.

Nanyang, in the middle of Honan province, offers an outstanding example of this revival. Once a thriving town and the home of Chu-ko Liang, famous hero and strategist of the time of the Three Kingdoms, has become a bandit stronghold. Virtually all wealthy Chinese have long since left the place to escape extortion. But the bandits still have a grip on them.

By threatening to exhume the bones of their parents or other ancestors, the most sacred things conceivable to the mind of the Chinese, and to burn them or scatter them to the four winds, the bandits are virtually certain of receiving ransom money from these wealthy people. They are just as certain of the money as if they had possession of the victim of extortion himself or of his living relatives.

MAINTENANCE AUTOMOBILES REDUCED IMPROVED HIGHWAYS

WASHINGTON.—Some of the most important ways in which highways have a demonstrable earning capacity, Secretary Wallace of Agriculture declares, are the potential savings in cost of operation, maintenance, and depreciation of motor vehicles.

It is estimated the annual fuel bill paid by motor vehicles amounts to $1,000,000,000, and the annual tire bill $450,000,000. The annual depreciation may be computed on an estimated investment of $8,767,500, in motor vehicles.

"Zaza" Star Role Of Many Noted Actresses

Gloria Swanson in the Paramount Picture "Zaza" An Allan Dwan Production

When "Zaza," the great French play was produced in Paris some twenty-five years ago, and which was the starring vehicle for Madame Rejane, it was believed by many critics that it would be impossible for any American actress to portray that arduous role as artistically as the actress named, but these critics were in error as the evidence showed. The play was for many years a reigning success on the American stage with many notable actresses in the title role.

The picturization of this charming play by Paramount with beautiful Gloria Swanson in the title role is said by many to be a far more powerful characterization than has ever been seen on the American stage or screen. In this splendid picturization, which will be shown at White's theatre next Thursday, Miss Swanson relies entirely upon the power of pantomimic art in which the French always have been adepts, but those who have seen the great screen artist in her wonderful emotional interpretations, in which she has appeared for several years, will be the first to declare that Miss Swanson is the only American screen star who vests the role of "Zaza" with a power never heretofore witnessed in silent drama productions.

Condition of German Masses Pictured As Extremely Pathetic

BERLIN.—While politicians quibble and delay the German masses starve or live on insufficient rations. Unemployment grows at a rapid rate and millions of Germans face a winter of want and privation.

Berlin and other cities and towns have established municipal kitchens. Limited quantities of free fuel are provided for by cards. But the meals and the fuel are dependent upon cards whose issuance is irregular and shares the general disorder which has spread throughout the control of food supplies.

With the abolishment of the bread card and the subsequent rise of German blackbread to figures which are fanatic in comparison with the unemployment doles, the situation became more acute than ever and gave political agitators their opportunity to incite riot.

The condition of the unemployed is pathetic in the extreme. By degrees the old people, many of them middleclass, have been forced to go upon the street for alms.

But the rioters are not of this class for the most part. It is the youngsters, many of them Communists, and many of them not Germans, who have organized the riots. However, the grounds for violent demonstrations against officialdom are so valid that the extremists have the sympathy if not the actual support, of men and women of nearly all classes.

New Apparatus May Be Answer Question Ocean Salt Content

WASHINGTON.—The old question of how salt content is measured soon be answered. Coast guard cutters are to make surveys of various parts of the North Atlantic for salt content, and additional data on ocean currents, is expected to be gained, as different currents are said to differ appreciably in the amount of salt they contain.

The Bureau of Standards has developed a unique apparatus which will be used in the survey, and preliminary trials have already indicated it will be successful. It takes advantage of the fact that electrical resistance of seawater changes markedly with change in salt content. A cell in the instrument is first filled with water whose salt content is known, and then with a sample of the water to be tested. The difference in the two electrical resistance readings taken is a measure of the difference in salt.

The salt of the seas varies considerably with location, it was said. For instance, the Gulf stream, which has been exposed to the hot tropical sun will have lost much water through evaporation and will be saltier than the Labrador Current, which is fed by fresh water from the ice and snows of Greenland.

Insurance Experts Till Inform Public How to Live Longer

NEW YORK.—Subjects of human interest will hold first place at the 17th annual convention of the association of life insurance presidents to be held in this city December 6 and 7. There will be presented facts and figures of current experience among the life insurance companies as to what diseases are killing policyholders and how some of those causes particularly high blood pressure diseases, can at least be reduced. While this subject will be discussed from business and economic angles, it is expected to develop, incidentally, a sentimental appeal to the individual with his desire for longer life.

Edward D. Duffield, president of the Prudential Insurance Company of America, Newark, N. J., will preside at all sessions of the convention. Life insurance executives, representing 95 percent of the fifty-five billion dollars of old line life protection now outstanding in companies domiciled in practically every state of the Union, are expected to be in attendance. Canadian life insurance companies also will be represented. Federal, state and provincial officials and educators, economists and business men will join in this two-day conference on various national problems.

Gil Dobie As Coach Has Unique Record Of Winning Elevens

NEW YORK.—A unique football coach with a remarkable record is Gilmore Dobie, now serving his 17th year as a builder of successful football teams, the last four of which he has lifted Cornell to the pinnacle of gridiron glory.

In the 16 years prior to 1923, Dobie coached elevens won 81 victories, scored three ties and were defeated but three times, rolling up a grand total of 2,931 points as against the 252 for their opponents. And, as this season has witnessed other Dobie victories and the scoring of more than 200 points by his Cornell eleven, his list of triumphs now is close to 90 and the total points scored by his teams is well over the 3,000 mark.

As "Gloomy Gil" he is known and referred to by eastern football writers and that sobriquet is made the subject of a sketch appearing in a recent issue of the Cornell Alumni News.

The article takes issue with stories which have depicted Dobie as a morose, and somewhat profane, individual. It states that while he can "cuss" on occasions and does, he "cusses out" the play and not the players. It adds his players have unbounded confidence in him and that the faculty agree he is an inspirational leader.

Dobie began his coaching career in 1905 at Minneapolis High School. The next year he became coach of North Dakota Agricultural College, and in 1908 he signed as head coach at the University of Washington, serving in that capacity to 1916. In 1917 he became coach at Annapolis, and remained at the Naval Academy until 1920 when he was signed by Cornell. In that period Georgetown, which defeated his 1919 Navy team 6 to 0; Dartmouth which defeated his 1920 Cornell team, 14 to 3, and Pennsylvania, which defeated that same team, 28 to 0, have been the only institutions to boast a victory over "Gloomy Gil."

Locomotive Firemen To Observe Founding Nation-Wide Union

CLEVELAND.—The 50th anniversary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, a fraternal insurance and labor organization, will be celebrated in 15 large railroad terminals in the United States and Canada, in private and public gatherings, on December 2. These meetings which are to be addressed by officers and members of the organization and by men prominent in public life, will be held in the following cities: Atlanta, Boston, Buffalo, Denver, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Montreal, Pittsburgh, Port Jervis, San Antonio, St. Louis, San Francisco, Seattle and Winnipeg. These celebrations immediately follow an intensive organizing campaign of several months' duration, according to the Brotherhood, which announces that practically every fireman and hostler on every railroad in the United States and Canada is now a member of the organization.

"Much of the success of this institution can be ascribed to the fact that its agreements are held inviolate," a statement given out today by the Brotherhood relates. "During the 50 years of its existence, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen have never repudiated an agreement and where such repudiation has been attempted by individual members, the penalty provided by law has been enforced."

British Golfers Play With Old Style Balls

LONDON.—Nearly all of Britain's most famous amateur golfers went down to working the other day to test their skill with the old gutta ball, which disappeared from the tees 21 years ago upon the invention in America of the rubber-core ball.

A competition was held between the "Hasbecens," and the "Never-wasers," those of the grey-haired school who had learned the game with the solid old gutta, and the younger men who took up golf after the appearance of the more resilient ball. It ended all square.

Curiously enough the day proved a triumph for youth and genius, rather than for experience.

GERMAN CREW WILL BRING FRIEDRICHSHAVEN.

Among the Germans who opposed as impractical the idea of County Zeppelin, when his dirigible airship plans were announced some 20 years ago, was Dr. Hugo Eckener, now one of the chiefs of the Zeppelin company here which is building the ZR-3 for the United States navy.

According to the present schedule Dr. Eckener, it appears, will act as the pilot of the ZR 3 when the big ship starts her trans-Atlantic flight next spring. He will have under him a German crew of about 24 men, all expert in their respective lines, and including several officers who saw much Zeppelin service during the war.
