DIAMOND BROTHERS CONFESS PART IN MURDER, ROBBERY

Actual Slaying Brooklyn Bank Dunners Denied; Others Held

NEW YORK, Nov. 28 — Barlow and his brother Joseph have made a complete confession of their part in the murder and robbery of two West End bank messengers in Brooklyn, District Attorney Dodd, announced this afternoon, after seven additional arrests had been made in connection with the crime.

Barlow denied that he did the actual slaying. Dodd said. It was also announced that Anthony Pantano, one of those arrested today had agreed to make a full confession of the part he took in the killing and robbery, concerning the transportation of the money amounting to more than $50,000 between the West End bank and the branch of the Irving Bank and Columbia Trust company.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—Six additional arrests of men suspected of participating in the robbery and slaying of two Brooklyn bank messengers Nov. 15, last were made today. Five were taken in a raid in the Bronx.

Anthony Pantano, accused of being the "tip off" man for the gunmen was arrested in his home in Brooklyn. Barlow and Joseph Diamond, brothers already are in custody charged with murder and robbery.

Rumors of an impeding confession were circulated throughout today and these gained ground when Jonah Goldstein, attorney for the Diamond brothers, went to the office of District Attorney Dodd, where the investigation was conducted.

Glodstein had declared he would not represent the prisoners until they promised to tell the "100 per cent truth" and his arrival at the scene of the injuiry was looked upon as an indication that the Diamonds were ready to talk.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 28—An old man and an old woman stood in the darkness outside the court house a few minutes after the verdict had been pronounced that sentenced Fred Frnchie Conley, 21-year-old sailor, to the penitentiary for 30 years for the murder of his wife. The former was H. W. Conley, of Sheffield, Ala., father of the boy; the latter was Mrs. Emily C. Owens, of Sneads, Fla., the widowed mother of the slain girl.

"Thank God that wasn't sent to the electric chair," whispered the old man, as he wiped away a furtive tear.

"Yes, thank God for that," breathed the old woman softly. "But thank God he was not allowed to escape punishments."

The woman was little and wrinkled and gray. She was clad in mourning. The man was gaunt and gnarled and walked on a peg leg. He was a hard-working Alabama farmer.

Union Thanksgiving Service To Be Held At Methodist Church

On Thursday morning the 29th, the churches of Greenville will unite in a Thanksgiving service at the Methodist church, with all of the pastors participating. Rev. Leland W. Smith will preside, Rev. Lee Sadler will preach the sermon, and the other ministers will each take part. Rev. V. P. Scoville will read the lesson, Rev. W. S. Harden will offer the prayer, and Rev. L. E. Ballard will pronounce the benediction. The choir of the Methodist church will be in charge of the music, with as many of the other choirs as possible to assist. The hour of the service is 10:30 a. m., and it is expected that it will begin promptly and close promptly. This hour has been chosen so that all housekeepers may have sufficient time to attend the service before the Thanksgiving meal. All of the churches will take up their usual Thanksgiving offering for their various orphanages, and those contributing are asked to place their offering in an envelop marked so that it may go to the orphanage they desire.

The pastors would call upon all of their people and the town people generally to lay aside all business and pleasures in time to attend this service, believing that the future prosperity of this section of N. C. and the spiritual growth of the Kingdom of God depends upon the attitude we assume toward the gifts of God.

Three persons were injured, two seriously. A fireman was knocked from a ladder when the hose slipped from the hands of the hosemen. He fell 30 feet.

THANKSGIVING DAY

In keeping with custom and proclamation of state and national executives Greenville will observe Thanksgiving Day with cessation of business activities as complete as the demand will permit.

Thanksgiving will be carried out in spirit in the churches, in the homes, and in the fraternal life of the city. Possibly there will be some special attractions to mark its observance.

In many homes the family circle will be complete with members returned from other places to partake of the family dinner. School children were given a holiday in celebration of the occasion. Churches will hold special services tomorrow. Commercially the city will be only creeping, railroads closing down as much as possible, warehouses and factories suspending operations and stores granting employes an all-day holiday.

In many instances the time-honored turkey will be supplanted by chicken, duck, and other offerings of the market.

In very truth it should be a day of general thanks to Almighty God for His many unappreciated blessings and benedictions. People without number are prone to wail about their situations in life, physically and commercially. To those it is suggested to look about for a moment and see those who are much worse off than the calamity howlers. The meaning and real spirit of Thanksgiving as founded by the Pilgrim Fathers is not being observed with the same degree of gratitude and piety that marked the day in the life of our forebears. It should be remembered that we enjoy every hour and every minute of the day blessings that we accept as a matter of fact without regard to returning thanks to God from "whom all blessings flow."

The real essence of Thanksgiving is not only in outpouring prayers of sincere gratitude, but in trying to make the day brighter and happier for those who do not enjoy the same measure of material things.

—o—

Instead of a responsible majority, the republicans in the Congress about to convene will be an aggregation of factions, opposing the President and fighting each other in behalf of their several candidates for the republican nominations in 1924. In this competition for delegates, it is forecast, the administration's legislative program, if it has one, may fail of adoption.

Already there are three rpeublican presidential candidates with followers in the new Congress—Mr. Coolidge, Hiram Johnson and Governor Pinchot. Senator Watson of Indiana, it is expected, will make the fourth.

The struggle by these factions to gain political advantage for their respective candidates will begin, it is felt, with the attempt to organize the house of representatives. All the cabals and coteries of the republican party are represented in the house. They will all have to be consulted and placated somehow, since the margin by which the republicans exceed the democratic strength is so small that no element can safely be ignored.

Most of the republicans who deprecate the President's candidacy will have as an excuse for weakening him and helping their own favorites by joining the movement to "end control by New England"—the slogan of certain republicans from the Middle West.

Senator Hiram Johnson's following among the dissenters is expected to be the largest at the beginning because he seems to have heavier financial backing than any other contender against Mr. Coolidge. His supporters have begun to work—and spend money in various parts of the country, including New York and Pennsylvania. There is a prediction as well as an expectation that the "quarrel" being opened for Johnson will attract adherents in Congress and outside of it.

The President's recommendations regarding taxation—if he offers any—his proposals with reference to the World Court—if he consents to speak on the subject—his suggestions for agricultural relief—if he should communicate them to Congress—and his views on certain purely domestic problems—if they are forthcoming—will each present to the boosters of other republican candidates an opportunity to make capital for Mr. Coolidge's opponents.

COMMENDING THE GOVERNOR

We have not always agreed with Governor Morrison in his official acts. His administration has been an eventful one, fraught with many difficulties which naturally would have followed anyone who obtained his nomination after such a bitter struggle with opponents and partisans. His appointment of Watts was inexcusable, for instance, and many have wondered why he appointed a board that would retain Dr. McBrayer, head of the State Sanitorium for the tubercular. We have never heard of Watts trading with himself, nor with having his private car repaired at state expense, not with buying King Eight automobiles, or other automobiles and charging them to maintenance and expense accounts, all of which McBrayer is credited with saying was no wrong, with tears in his eyes. Dr. McBrayer was given a decent opportunity to retire when the legislative committee whitewashed him without all this disgrace coming to light, but he failed to save himself. So now the governor has demanded his removal, and justly so. Cameron Morrison's action in the matter will be approved by all people who believe in clean government.—Kinston Morning News.

Makes Oats the Quickest Breakfast

Your grocer now has 2 styles of Quaker Oats—QUICK QUAKER and regular Quaker Oats, the kind you've always known.

For a hot breakfast quick, ask for QUICK QUAKER.

Cooks in half the time of coffee — scarcely longer than simple toasted bread.

Same plump oats as regular Quaker Oats. But cut before flaking, rolled very thin and partly cooked — smaller flakes that cook faster, that's the only difference.

All that rare Quaker flavor. All the joy of hot breakfasts without bother or delay.

Grocers now have two kinds of Quaker Oats—Quick Quaker and Regular Quaker Oats, the kind you have always known.

Emigration Will Be Discussed At Rome

GENEVA.—Close collaboration by the international labor bureau whose headquarters are at Geneva will mark the international conference on emigration and immigration to be held at Rome early next year. The large mass of material which the labor office has collected on these questions will be placed at the disposal of the Italian government, which has convoked the conference. The Rome reunion will be of a technical and not a diplomatic character, and will endeavor to establish coordination between the services of emigration and immigration of the different countries, and frame principles which will serve as the basis for later international agreements.

Following the agitation in England, Swiss newspapers are now publishing letters from Swiss citizens who recently landed in New York and were confined for a day or more at Ellis Island.

England Will Double Her Aerial Strength

LONDON.—Civilians will form a large part of the personnel of the British Royal Air Force which is being increased to more than twice its present strength. Two-thirds of the men in the reserve squadrons are to be civilians, and the auxiliary squadrons are to be organized on a basis similar to that of the Territorial Army, comparable to state militia in America. It is planned to have civilian labor care for all the repair work, other than minor running repairs, in most of the regular squadrons, all the special reserve squadrons, and all the auxiliary squadrons.

By thus calling on the civilian labor reservoir, Great Britain would more than double her air power with an addition of only one-third of the present personnel, according to Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary of State for Air.

Colleges Solve Problems to Aid the Scientific Farmers

BOSTON.—The agricultural experiment stations at the University of New Hampshire and Rhode Island State College have solved two problems which have puzzled the scientific farmer. At the former investigations have been in progress to learn the contrary actions on different plants from the use of bordeaux mixture, a combination of copper and lime. This has been used universally to prevent plant disease.

Experiments have disclosed beneficial results in darker foliage, especially on very dry soil, which was found to be helped by shade. The mixture when sprayed forms a film on the plant and the more lime used in it the less transparent more used in it the less transparent it becomes to the solar spectrum.

SAN FRANCISCO.—In San Francisco's Chinatown the traffic in girls to thrive by making dainty dishes for Chinese slave girls. But now, police report, this trade has declined to the point that the Chinese girls are appealing to the Y. W. C. A. secretaries to get them employment in American families, wanting to learn

JAPANESE SENTIMENT PREVENTS DESTRUCTION OF SHIP

TOKIO.—Public sentiment has prevented a movement for the destruction because of its historic of the battleship Mikasa, flagship of Admiral Togo in the battle of the Sea of Japan in May, 1905 during the Russo-Japanese war.

The ship was lying in the Yokosuka navy yard when the recent earthquake occurred and was badly damaged, since then her pumps have been overworked and was badly damaged sinking. It was announced that the vessel would be repaired and used as a target ship, but the public sentiment has saved the Mikasa from this fate.

DUAL GOVERNMENT MAKES TEXARKANA UNIQUE CITY IN U. S

TEXARKANA, TEX.—When the governor of Texas comes to Texarkana one-half of the ct iye city celebrates, and when the governor of Arkansas makes an official visit it means a holiday for the other half of the city. The reason for this is that Texarkana is divided by an imaginary line running north and south in the middle of an avenue named State Line. On one side of the line the city is governed by the laws of Texas; on the other side by the laws of Arkansas.

The postoffice straddles the state line as does the railroad station. Letters are formally addressed "Texarkana, Texas-Ark," and mail clerks grow nimble jumping from one state to another. There are two full sets of county offices, two mayors, two city councils, two police departments, two police courts, two health departments, two United States courts, each occupying its own federal building, two United States Commissioners and two United States bankruptcy courts.

About the only things publicly owned that serve both halves of the city are the fire department, individually owned as separate units by each city but operated as one department under one fire chief, and a joint sewage disposal plant. The same utility companies also serve both parts of the town.

ALASKA AIMS CREATE TRADE BALANCE FAVOR TERRITORY

ANCHORAGE, Alaska.—Alaska used to buy all its manufactured articles in the United States, depending for commercial existence solely on its ores and placer gold fisheries and furs, which found a ready export market. But now the vast territory is turning its attention to industrial enterprises, with a view of cutting down imports and increasing exports.

MISS SWANSON IS 4TH STAR IN "ZAZA"

Gloria Swanson and H.B. Warner in a scene from the Paramount Picture 'Zaza' An Allan Dwan Production

The character of "Zaza" probably has been played by more actresses in stock companies than any other role on the American stage in the last twenty-five years, yet there have been but three outstanding performances in this country. Mrs. Leslie Carter originated the role in New York in January 1899, a few months after Mme. Rejane created the role in Paris. In the operatic version of the play Geraldine Farrar was the star and in the first Paramount screen production of the play, made in 1915, Pauline Frederick was starred.

Gloria Swanson will be the fourth "Zaza" to be given to the public in a stupendous production. The picture which will be on view at White's theatre, produced under the direction of Allan Dwan and it is said to be the greatest picture of her screen repertoire. For lavish settings and picturesque investiture the present production of the famous French play, which, according to reports, was suggested to Charles Simon, one of the authors, by Sarah Bernhardt, surpasses anything Miss Swanson has ever done on the screen.

This Nov. 14 1923.
A. C. JACKSON,
15 1tw 2w Sheriff of Pitt County.
