Collie Mothers Baby Lioness Rescued by Her From Mother

OAKLAND, Cal.—A baby lioness, born in a cage here recently, has been adopted by a mother collie dog. The cub had two little brothers, but their mother, Simba, perhaps, believing that a life of captivity was not worth while for them, rolled on them and killed them. But the lioness cub was snatched away from this danger by H. A. Snow, African game hunter and curator of the Oakland museum of natural history. He put her in a box padded with a quilt, removed her to the museum workshop and fetched her a bottle of milk, which she took to with avidity.

He then brought in the collie, which promptly licked the cub sympathetically and curled up beside her with a protective air.

COPELAND SAYS SOLDIERS BONUS "MUST BE PAID"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Charging that Secretary Mellon had "attempted to sandbag the bonus by using the most formidable weapon, the pocket book of the people," Senator Copeland, Democrat of New York, declared that he did not agree with Mr. Mellon that tax reduction and the soldiers bonus were so closely related that one must die if the other is to live. The senator pointed out that Secretary Mellon had said that in the long run the surtax would bring an increase in revenue of $142,000,000 and he urged that this be used as a basis of paying the bonus. In declaring himself in favor of an all cash payment of $1.25 per day for every day served, Senator Copeland pointed out that $1,464,277,263 could be retired in 60 years with the payment of $100,000,000—$75,000,000 interest and $25,000,000 principal.

Should the added revenue promised by Mr. Mellon not be realized, said the senator, the surtax could be restored because the "soldiers' bonus must be paid." The real purpose of the Mellon plan, however, stated Mr. Copeland, is to reduce the surtaxes on the rich and the rest of us as usual under Republican administration get only the crumbs.

Woman Confesses Murder Husband

SUMTER, S. C., Jan. 8.—Solicitor Frank A. McLeod today directed that a warrant be sworn formally charging Mrs. Lou China, prominent Sumter woman with the murder of her husband, Dr. Archie China, physician-banker whose body was found in the bath room of his home yesterday morning with two bullet wounds in the head. This action followed the report this morning by Dr. H. M. Stuckey, Mrs. China's attending physician, that the woman had confessed the shooting. The inquest will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

discovered in an apparently unconscious condition yesterday morning. Dr. China was shot in a scuffle in his bath room Sunday morning said Mrs. China in her confession last night which was not made public until today. She did not give any details, however, of the tragedy which ended her husband's life.

Physicians characterized the apparently unconscious condition in which Mrs. China lay throughout yesterday as a form of malingering asserting that she had not taken poison as was reported yesterday. The widow of the slain banker-physician is still in the hospital today. She has not yet been arrested but Sheriff Hurst announced today that he would place a guard over her bed. Aside from manifesting signs of a nervous strain she appeared to be normal, Dr. Stuckey said. Dr. China was 58 years old and his wife is only a few years younger. They had been married for little more than a quarter of a century.

M'Adoo Urges Injection of the Jackson Spirit Into Public Affairs Now

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—Some of the rugged character and leadership of Andrew Jackson injected into American public affairs would reinspire the American people, William G. M'Adoo, war time director general of railroads and candidate for Democratic presidential nomination, told the democrats of Tennessee in a message to a conference of the party leaders being held today in Nashville.

"Please extend my greetings," said the message, "to my friends who are meeting in Nashville on Jackson day. If we can get some of the Jackson integrity, courage, rugged character and leadership into American public affairs it would reinspire the nation. Jackson never offered a sedative when a fight was needed."

Already a partial confession has been made by the negroes and information learned by officials after hours of grilling will lead to more arrests.

Officers stated today that it was believed that the negroes were the leaders of an organized axe syndicate which has operated in this section for over three years with the result that 24 of the 44 persons attacked were murdered.

NOTED ORGANIST TO APPEAR IN RECITAL

Prof Paul Saunier Will Be Heard at Christian Church Next Week

Prof. Paul Saunier, of Petersburg, who was heard in an organ recital here in the Christian church during the spring of 1922, soon after the installation of the magnificent organ, has after much correspondence consented to come to Greenville again on Thursday night of next week.

Mr. Saunier, who is considered one of the best organists of the south, is, and has been for some years master of the huge instrument in the Washington street Methodist church of the Cockade City. During the winter months for several years past Prof. Saunier has rendered semi-monthly recitals, and these have attracted music lovers from other cities from all over Virginia.

The program selected for the recital next week will appeal to all lovers of music as it will consist of numbers both of a classical and simple nature.

There will be no charge made to those who wish to hear this noted organist, but a free will offering will be taken to help defray the expenses necessary to bring the organist here.

C., after it had put in for repairs with a cargo of intoxicating liquors aboard, is the subject of a new inquiry filed with the state department by the British government through the British Embassy here. The inquiry has been forwarded to the Treasury and Justice departments with the request that information concerning the seizure be furnished immediately. Meanwhile the State Department is awaiting information from the Treasury Department concerning the seizure of the British steamers Tamooca and Island Home beyond the three mile limit. Inquiries regarding these two cases have already been filed by the British Embassy.

A. G. COX RESIGNS CHAIRMAN BOARD OF EDUCATION HERE

Served Most Efficiently for 27 Years; E. G. Gardner Succeeds

Mr. A. G. Cox, member of the Pitt County Board of Education for 27 years, twenty-five of which he has served as chairman, tendered his resignation at a meeting of the board yesterday. Mr. E. G. Gardner, of Grifton, was elected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Cox's resignation although expected for sometimes, was accepted with the keenest regret by the board. He has been contemplating such action for several months and only by the earnest solicitation of his many friends has he been persuaded to stay in office. His presence was always an inspiration to the board and his sound and practical advice was always appreciated.

When Mr. Cox came on the board twenty-seven years ago there was not a single two teacher school incorporated in the county, not even in the town of Greenville. One of his greatest desires being the growth and improvement of schools, Mr. Cox has given the movement of consolidating schools, his untiring efforts with the result that since 1905 the number of schools has been decreased from 80 to 55, with more teachers and better equipment. No one is better informed of the time when the little log school house was the seat of learning than Mr. Cox, and he takes great pride in telling of "their passing," to give way to greater schools.

In 1905 there were 80 elementary schools in the county. These have been decreased to 44. At this time there wasn't a single high school in the county where there are now eight. There were no brick school houses in 1905, since which time eight have been erected. When Mr. Cox accepted a position on the board there were sixty-nine one teacher schools. With his keen insight and vision for the future, he worked diligently with the board at the problem of doing away with the one teacher school, lending the movement his support, and as a result the number now stands at twenty.

Although each passing milestone has seen Mr. Cox aging physically, it has seen him growing younger mentally and no improvement for better educational advantages for the children of Pitt county has escaped his notice and always received his undivided attention.

He has served his county through the administrations of the late county Superintendent W. H. Ragsdale, Superintendent S. B. Underwood and the present Superintendent R. G. Fitzgerald.

Mr. Gardner, who succeeds Mr. Cox is one of the county's most prominent and influential citizens and will no doubt fill the vacancy most creditably.

Although retiring from active work as chairman of the board, Mr. Cox will always be interested in those things which make for better and higher education.

Negro House Damaged By Fire On Yesterday

Fire of unknown origin practically destroyed the two story dwelling of Sallie P. Norcott on the corner of First and Pitt streets late yesterday afternoon. When discovered the fire had gained such headway that it was an impossibility to check it before the entire interior with all its contents had been destroyed. The total estimate of the loss has not been learned. It is thought that the fire started from a defective flue.

WHY NOT "OUR" GOVERNMENT?

Walter W. Head, President of the American Bankers' Association, in an address before Chicago and Cook County Bankers' Association said:

We speak reverentially of "Our Country." What do we mean? Are we thinking of the service which we owe to our country, of the love which we bear for it, or are we thinking only of the protection which our country can afford us, only of the benefit which we may derive from it? Are we thinking of what we may do for our country, or of what our country may do for us?

Much as we find reason to deplore high taxes, to lament the interference of government in business, to condemn radicalism, our duty to ourselves and our country requires positive as well as negative action, dynamic direction rather than static obstruction. We must be constructive.

As business men we go before Congress with justification—opposing this bill or favoring that; as business men we decry the acts of "politicians" who are elected to office or who procure the election of others to office. Yet, as citizens of our country, do we fulfill the obligations incumbent upon us? Do we exercise our right to vote—and when we do, do we always place intelligent, efficiency and patriotism in government ahead of every other consideration?

We cannot delegate our responsibility in government to some one else. The main-spring of a watch operates through a series of wheels and cogs to move the hands on the dial. City councils, legislatures, congress, executive officials carry on the government—but the main-spring of government is the individual citizen. The main-spring may transmit its impulse through elected or appointed officials, but the mechanism will not operate if the main-spring is removed. There is no substitute for individual interest in government and individual responsibility for government.

TAX EXEMPTION FARCE MUST END

Will congress adopt a program for tax reduction which includes a reduction in income tax and the doing away with figure issues of tax-exempt bonds?

The President and the people are in favor of tax reduction. The politicians, through their blocs and parties in congress, are pulling and hauling to try to gain personal prestige through delays and log rolling in the tax reduction program.

A constitutional amendment to do away with tax-exempt securities passed House of Representatives last winter but died at expiration of congress. It is now necessary to pass it again. This takes valuable time and chews waste and expense resulting where public officials play politics instead of expediting the business of the nation.

At the present time it is estimated that the income from approximately $30,000,000,000 in capital invested in government tax-exempt securities, escapes all forms of taxation. The fact that cities, counties, states and nation can issue tax-exempt bonds drawing a low rate of interest has caused a reckless increase in public debt and has furnished the loop-hole for billions of dollars to escape taxation.

After an amendment to the United States constitution is passed permitting the taxation of income from future issues of public bonds, it will be necessary for legislatures of the various states to ratify the measure. For this reason, quick action in Congress is essential in order that state legislatures which are in session or which will be in session in the near future may be able to act on the measure and put an end to the present obsolete system which is an invitation for the reckless piling up of debt on one hand and lawful tax dodging on the other hand.

It would seem as if Republican, Democrats and Progressives would be on common ground when it comes to a measure of this kind would assure in the future that every person would pay his share of income tax. Is it not possible for congress to cut out politics and get down to business on this measure?

A New York patrolman will be recommended for promotion because he held up all traffic on a busy street long enough to pick up an injured dog which had been run over, render first aid treatment and call an ambulance to take the poor animal to a hospital. The world would be much happier and better off if more people in the hustle of business would follow his example by pausing long enough to render aid to some unfortunate person or dumb animal.

Now that congress has had a tax reduction plan presented by each of the parties—we hope that the windjaming and dilly-dallying will cease and some agreement reached where by the tax payer may get relief.

An appropriate name for the next picture setting forth the life of Hollywood would be "The Land of Shooting Stars."

Warning For Crossings Successful in Sweden

STOCKHOLM.—Swedish railroads have tested recently, and found successful, a device to warn automobilists, as they approach grade crossings, of the coming of a train. When a train is 1,000 feet from a crossing electricity is called into play to drop a bar over the vehicle road. The bar is 80 feet from the crossing, and atkes a position seven feet above the road. From it hang light chains which, striking against the car, give warning of the oncoming train. After the train has passed the bar automatically is raised. Red and white lights help to emphasize the warning.

Lord Mayor Of London German Police
Lord Mayor Against Restrictd Pleasures

LONDON.—The Lord Mayor of London, Sir Louis Newton, believes the people should be permitted to do as they please on Sunday so far as work and entertainment are concerned. He gave practical emphasis of the idea recently by breaking the tradition of a Mansion House Sunday and attending on that day a dinner of the Eccentric Club.

In a speech he acknowledged the "gift" of being made an honorary member, and said one feature of the club which he appreciated was its unrestricted hours, "for on this day of grace it ought to be left to the people to choose the hours they desire for work and entertainment without eternal parliamentary restrictions."

Southern University To Be Opened In Autumn

BATON ROUGE, La.—The new Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, designed to become ultimately one of the greatest educational institutions in the south, will be opened in the fall of 1924, according to plans of the building committee. The complete project cannot be carried out at this time, however, because of a shortage of funds. About $2,000,000 already has been expended.

Ten buildings have been completed and under construction are two administration buildings, the George Peabody hall with the teachers' college, and four buildings for the agricultural department.

Laying of the drainage system on the athletic field is under way and construction of concrete stands will begin February 1. The initial construction will provide for the accommodation of 12,000, and it is planned to build temporary stands to accommodate an additional 8,000.

The new university is two miles south of Baton Rouge and occupies a tract of 2,000 acres on a plateau about thirty feet above the normal water level of the Mississippi river. The tract has an abundance of magnolia and other semi-tropical trees. All of the principal buildings are connected by tunnels and bridges which permit passage between them without exposure to the weather.

Suspected Killer

DRESDEN.—Elga, a famous police dog of Weimar which has become known throughout the German republic for her ability to track criminals, has just furnished evidence in a murder of which Oscar Nicht, of Dittersbach, Bohemia, was suspected.

Nicht, in prison here for theft, has been suspected of two murders in Bohemia, although courts were unwilling to accept the evidence against him as conclusive.

A year and a half ago an innkeeper in a little Bohemian town was killed and the hat of the murderer was found at the scene of the crime. Nicht crossed into Bavaria after the crime. The Czechoslovakian police officials believed him guilty and have been working constantly on the case.

A few days ago Nicht was led into the courtyard of the Dresden prison with 20 other criminals and a number of detectives in plain clothes. Elga had been allowed to smell the hat found at the scene of the murder in Czechoslovakia, and immediately rushed to Nicht and announced with a loud howl that he was the owner of the hat.

Merry Makers Munich Rushed to Workhouse

MUNICH.—Wine, women and song have been banned by Commissioner von Kahr, who has started a campaign to rid the Bavarian capital of highrollers who enrage the public by giving champagne parties while so many persons are without bread. Private wine-rooms in leading restaurants are being raided nightly, and war-profiteers who are trying to spend their earnings in riotous living are having a hard time.

In a recent round-up of luxurious restaurants which were catering to roisterers who violated closing hours the police arrested a number of overdressed and bediamond merry-makers who were transferred immediately to the workhouse and put at hard labor.

NOTED NOVELIST'S DIVORCE ANNULLED.

Nina Wilcox Putnam

The divorce decree granted in Providence, R. Mrs. Sanderson, who writes under the name of Nina Wilcox Putnam, was ordered to explain the charges in court, and her attorney was informed that unless she did the matter would be laid before the Attorney-General for action.

sters and desiring to show some originality, the heads of Berlin's largest orphan asylum revived the old idea of naming foundlings for the street or the district in which they were abandoned. A baby boy discovered recently tucked into a basket in Alexander Platz was given that name exactly, and a baby girl picked up on a door step in Charlotten-

Chinese Editor Pays for Insult. PEKING.—Dr. Wang Hsi-nien, editor of the Ching Pao, was fined twenty dollars, Mex., recently and in addition had to pay court costs of one

His defence was that he did not mention the name of any individual, and that the word "pigs" has long been employed in Canton to indicate slaves.

From time immemorial, leavening gas has made the "touch" which made the paste of flour and water a digestible food—the staff of life. A flat and soggy loaf or biscuit is an unleavened food. So it is that leavening agents such as yeast or baking powder are employed.

To insure to the American housewife complete leavening of her biscuits, cakes, muffins, etc., which is so important to perfect digestion, the pure food authorities found it wise to require a certain standard of leavening strength in baking powder.

To maintain this guaranty of digestibility—to insure minimum deterioration of leavening strength, baking powder is packed in tin. This prevents absorption of atmospheric moisture. Dampness produces premature reaction in the can—results in loss of leavening gas.

The food official, would properly condemn baking powder if packed in cheap sacks.

But what about self rising flour? It comes to the southern housewife from remote northern mills packed in porous bags. What happens to this mixture of baking materials and flour?

Chemical analysis shows that much of it has lost its leavening strength before it reaches the consumer.

Breadstuffs made with such self-rising flours cannot rise properly—they come to the table heavy, flat, and soggy.

Why don't the pure food officials demand that self-rising flours contain 0.5% leavening gas, the equivalent to the 12% required of baking powder?

Calumet Baking Powder is scientifically and legally correct—the last spoonful is as pure and sure as the first.

Packed in tin—keeps the strength in

GARRETT-DWIGHT.

Madison, Wisconsin, Jan. 8. — A beautiful home service at which more than one hundred guests were present united in marriage on Wednesday evening Miss Frances Elizabeth Dwight and Radford Marvin Garret of Greenville, N. C., at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Corydon G. Dwight, 423 North Pinekey street. Throughout the residence elaborate floral decorations were used in the drawing room white carnations and roses in tall vases, greens, and palms prevailing and in dining room masses of pink roses.

Preceding the ceremony the Lohengrin march was played and a formal wedding procession made up led by Corydon Dwight, Jr., little brother of the bride accompanying little Ruth Dwight, flower girl and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dwight, Milwaukee. Following were the bridesmaid, Miss Esther Dwight, then the maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Dwight, both sisters of the bride, and the bride on the arm of her father, Dr. Dwight, who gave her in marriage.

The bride met the bridegroom and his best man, Edward Batchelor of Greenville, N. C., at an improvised altar, arranged with palms and white flowers placed in tall carnucopias at the end of the living room, before which the Rev. H. H. Lumpkin of Grace Episcopal church performed the ceremony at eighty-thirty o'clock.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white chenille broche simply fashioned with bateau neck and a veil of tulle with a coronet of rose point lace and orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of roses and orchids.

Miss Dorothy Dwight was gowned in peach taffeta made in bouffant style with Chantilly lace overskirt and carried a Colonial bouquet. Miss Esther Dwight wore a green taffeta gown also fashioned in bouffant style with a lace overskirt and also carried a Colonial bouquet.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Dwight wore a gown of embroidered crepe of a soft grey blue shade and a corsage bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The flower girl was dressed in a frock of pale blue taffeta fashioned in Kate Greenway style and carried a Colonial bouquet.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding supper. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. R. Sholes, Harrison Sholes, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sutcliffe, all of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dwight and daughter, Ruth Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. J. C. Clark, Lyman Dwight, all of Milwaukee; and Miss Mary Roach, Pasadena, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Garret are spending several days in Chicago from where they will go on to Asheville, N. C., for an extended sojourn at the wintering resort there. Later they will establish their residence at Greenville, N. C., where Mr. Garret is associated with the Southern States Tobacco company.

The bride graduated with the class of 1921 from the University of Wisconsin and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.

Fashion Borrows a Leaf From the Log Book

If we happened to be an old maid, and this young woman sailed into view, we would undoubtedly heave a sigh for our lost youth and remark, "Shiver my timbers, there goes a neat little craft". For there is something eminently ship-shape about this charming costume which reminds us of a trig little schooner. In the first place, our heroine is full-rigged with the minimum of sails, so to speak. The dress, while giving the appearance of a tunic costume, is in reality a one-piece coat dress, whose fur and braid trimming applied "a la Russe", gives a perfect semblance of a separate blouse. But, really, this costume has as many new ideas as a recent college graduate, with the added advantage that they are entirely practical. Made of lustrous black satin panne with trimming of cinnamon colored braid and beaver fur, it illustrates one of the newest and most favored color combinations for afternoon wear—brown and black. The color scheme is further carried out by Mademoiselle's chic chapeau of cinnamon colored felt, with the inevitable mask veil affected by the Parisienne. Let us should fail to notice it—as if this were possible—the beaver banding kindly points an arrow head to the new square neckline of a particularly crafty and flattering cut which is making a bid for some of the popularity so long accruing to the bateau.

GREENVILLE SOON TO HAVE BAND AND ORCHESTRA IN CONNECTION SCHOOL

Although Sunday and Monday opening last week as they had lost were the two coldest days that Greenville has had for many years, the city schools were able to keep going all day Monday without having to dismiss a single class. The fact that the buildings were warm was due to the fact that the furnaces were started Sunday night and were kept going steadily from that time on. There were no mishaps any of the school buildings save one broken pipe in the Domestic Science room of the High School. The only loss that the school suffered was that of a number of flowers. The pupils and the teachers, since September, have been filling their rooms with flowers of every kind. A great number of these, particularly in the rooms on the north and west sides of the building, were killed. This is the first time in the history of the schools here that flowers have been killed by cold in the school buildings. Teachers and children have already gone to work however, and are replacing the dead flowers with new cuttings.

Orchestra and Band.

It is doubtless interesting to the public to know that within a few months, Greenville will have a band and orchestra. Mr. E. T. Roberson, formerly of Morehead City and Jacksonville is in Greenville now and is teaching band and orchestra music in connection with the city schools. Work began about three weeks before Christmas and results are already appearing. There are about forty boys and girls taking this work. This work is on the same basis as piano work, that is, a tuition fee of five dollars per month is charged. Each student also furnishes his own instrument. Through the courtesy of the Fire Department and the Hope Fire Company, the Firemen's Hall has been turned over to the schools as a place of instruction. This makes an excellent room for the purpose because it is accessible from all three of the schools. The band and orchestra will hold its first practice this afternoon, and the instructor states that by April or May Greenville High School will have an organization of musicians that will reflect credit upon the school. The instructor, Mr. Roberson has moved his family here and is now living on Greene street. Wherever he has been, Mr. Roberson has done an excellent piece of work, and the people of Greenville are expecting splendid results from his efforts here.

"Shuffle" Now Ended.

The mid-year "shuffle" has just ended and in the exchange of families with other towns there can be no question about the fact that Greenville, has gained in population. This is proved by the fact that the Greenville Schools gained about twice as many new pupils at the

Ask Measures Protect Birds Migration Flight
NEW YORK—National Legislation which would provide finances to carry out the provisions of a treaty entered into with Great Britain several years ago to insure the protection of migratory birds, both insectivorous and game which travel between Canada and the United States, is sought by American sportsmen.

A bill sponsored last February by Senator Harry S. New now postmaster general, providing for the issuance of government licenses at $1 each for the privilege of hunting migratory game birds, which was defeated in the House by a small margin after passing the Senate by a large majority, is to be presented to the Congress by Representative Daniel Anthony of Kansas.

Approximately half of the proceeds of the license, under the provisions of the bill, will be used for the purchases of areas suitable for bird refuges, and the remainder expended for affording them proper care and protection.

Powerful Ray Tube Invented.
LONDON—Dr. Holst and Dr. Bowers of Amsterdam, have invented a new tube which generates a powerful beam of X-rays practically like a searchlight, and which is said to eliminate any danger to the operator handling it. The rays can be directed on any local spot of the flesh for treatment with the greatest ease, as, in spite of the high tension of the electric current, the tube can be held quite safely in the hand.

Brattleboro Ready For Ski Jumping Contests

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. — Brattleboro's ski hill, claimed as the finest natural ski-jumping course east of Denver, has been selected as the site of the annual National Ski-Jumping Championship, which takes place February 14 and 15. The greatest array of American and Canadian ski-jumpers ever to assemble is expected to participate.

The course is 740 feet long. The record jump made upon it is 160 feet, or nearly 40 greater than the winning jump made in the National Championship at Minneapolis last year.

The 1924 championship will mark the first time the national title competition has been conducted in the east.

Among the jumpers who have signified their intention of competing are: Anders Haugen, present national champion; Henry Hall, holder of the world's record jump of 229 feet; Victor Berger, of Montreal, who established the Brattleboro ski-jump record; Nels Nelson of Revelstoke, British Columbia, and Gnar Michelson, of Durham, N. H., the Intercollegiate title-holder.
