DEMANDS MADE FOR RESIGNATION DENBY TEAPOT DOME AFFAIR

Montana Senator Wants the Case Prosecuted Criminally

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Demands that Secretary of the Navy Denby resign and a suggestion that he may be impeached for his part in the leasing of Teapot Dome and other Naval oil reserves were made on the floor of the Senate yesterday afternoon in the course of a heated and spectacular discussion led by Senator Caraway, of Arkansas. Caraway again charged that former Secretary of the Interior Fall had leased Teapot Dome to Harry F. Sinclair for "a corrupt consideration."

Taking part in the debate for the first time, Senator Walsh, of Montana, who has been the leading figure in the Senate committee investigation of the leases, announced that as soon as the committee completes its work, he will offer a resolution requesting the President to have suits filed to eliminate the leases and recovery damages for the oil which has been taken from the reserves. "For this purpose" he added "I will ask that special counsel be appointed not under control of the Department of Justice. Whether through blame or misfortune, the country has a widespread suspicion of the present Attorney General. Aside from that, we know that he and Secretary Fall were in the Cabinet together and that there is a close intimacy between them. Moreover, there has been testimony during the hearings bearing upon the conduct of the Attorney General himself in connection with these reserves. He should not wish to have any part in such suits, and he should not be allowed to have any part in them, no matter what he wishes."

Conditional Parole Issued B. T. Webb

RALEIGH, Jan. 24.—Governor Cameron Morrison has granted an extension of the parole of T. E. Lippard, which was originally signed last November. The parole is extended until February in order that Lippard may remain in a hospital longer for treatment.

Governor Morrison issued a conditional parole for B. T. Webb who was convicted in the January term of the Superior Court of Harnett county of violation of the Prohibition law and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and to four months in the county jail, and to be worked on the county roads. Judge Pittman and Solicitor Williams recommended that Webb be relieved of his prison sentence, on account of poor health, if he would pay a fine of $500 instead of the $100. The Governor said that he was not willing to change the man's sentence to a fine but added, "If the prisoner will pay a fine of $300 to the clerk of the court of Harnett county, then I will parole him for the remainder of his jail sentence upon the condition that he shall be of good behavior and respect the law, I reserve the right to revoke this parole any time that I may think the ends of justice require it, without further evidence."

ROOSEVELT CAUSES SENSATION IN OIL LEASE.

Archibald Roosevelt Harry F. Sinclair

Captain Archibald Roosevelt, son of the late President, caused a sensation before a Senatorial investigating committee by declaring he resigned from the employ of Harry F. Sinclair, multi-millionaire New York oil magnate, because he was suspicious of the manner Sinclair leased the Teapot Dome Oil Reserve from the United States Government through Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior.

BUNCOMBE SHERIFF COMMITS SUICIDE

ASHEVILLE, Jan. 24.—After remaining unconscious for 14 hours John A. Lyerly, sheriff of Buncombe county, died in a local hospital at 3:30 this morning from the effects of a revolver bullet fired into his brain yesterday, alleged by police to have been self-inflicted. Despondency over his ill health and also the death of his wife last August was said to be the cause of the suicide.

A motorcycle policeman found Lyerly lying on the floor of the county garage at the rear of the courthouse, his hand clutching a revolver and blood trickling from his right temple. The county commissioners are expected to immediately appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term.

Funeral services for the deceased officer will take place at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Hazing in College South Carolina Under Consideration Board

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 24.—The board of visitors of the Citadel Military College, located here, has taken under consideration the cases of alleged hazing of the younger students by the upper classmen. Much excitement was evoked when the body went into session with the rumor afloat that a score or more of the upper classmen would be expelled as a result of the hazing if the charges were proved to be true. Hazing, while prohibited by the school authorities, has been going on secretly at the institution for some time, it was reported, and the board determined now to take effective means of stopping such activities.

DOUG WEST STARS IN DEFEAT GIVEN VISITING QUINT AT STAR WAREHOUSE

Although opposed by a strong, fast aggregation of basket ball artists, the Greenville High School five last night administered to the quint of the Edenton High School the worst defeat they have suffered during their tour to several of the eastern towns. The final count being 40 to 9.

From every position of the court the locals had the visitors bested, and so much so that both the second and third teams were given a chance during the last quarter of play. While each member of the Greenville quint showed up possibly stronger than they have at any previous time of the season, Douglas West, the locals fast right forward is entitled to the supremacy honors in scoring, he having counted for 19 of the 40 points made by the home boys, and his points were made in three quarters because in the last period of play he was replaced by a weaker brother, Forbes and Harvey played their respective guard positions almost perfectly. Satterthwaite as usual played a good game at center and the ever reliable Mayo not only counted for his share of the scoring, but several times block-

TRUE BILL RETURNED AGAINST HINES FOR MURDER MRS. ALLEN

William Nichols, Murderer of Artis Sent to Jackson School

Willie Hines, negro, who on the 12 day of last December, killed Mrs. Lina Flake Allen when his car ditched Mr. Allen's car, had a true bill of murder returned against him in Pitt county superior court yesterday. The indictment read that the negro was exceeding the speed limit and driving recklessly. The murder was committed on the hard surfaced road leading to Farmville. Mr. Allen with his family was returning home late in the afternoon when the car driven by Hines passed him at a fast rate of speed hitting the Allen car with such force that it overturned in a ditch. A baby, in the arms of its mother, was thrown from the car without injury, while Mrs. Allen was killed instantly.

William Nichols, young white boy, had a true bill returned against him for the murder of William Artis. Upon evidence brought out it was proven that Nichols was under 16 years of age and a plea of infancy was entered by his counsel. The court ruling that the boy was under age, sent him to the Jackson Training school. Mr. O. F. Clark left with him this morning for Concord.

Elias Braxton, A. C. L. railroad, charged with failing to flag crossing was found not guilty. True bills were returned against Wesley Williams, charged with forgery; Sam Wilson, charged with larceny; Wesley Williams, forgery, and D. L. Braxton incest.

Louis Patrick, charged with receiving liquor, had judgment suspended upon payment of costs. The case against Peary Bullock charged with giving worthless checks, was not pressed. Clara Mae Whitehead was found not guilty of disorderly conduct. Bessie Cox, charged with vagrancy, was found not guilty.

Hcy Cannon, was found guilty of receiving and possessing liquor and was given a minimum of 10 months and a maximum of 18 months in county jail to be assigned to work on the county roads. Dave Staton was found guilty of having liquor for sale. Judgment withheld.

Raleigh Bradford Lee was admitted to the bar and given license to practice law in the courts of North Carolina.

THE FALL OF FALL

When Woodrow Wilson was president there was one who was constantly making bitter criticisms of the executive because he took the stand that this strong nation should not oppress Mexico or any element of that country, but leave the people to work out their own ideals, with any sympathetic aid they might desire from this country. It was this man who succeeded in creating a good deal of bitterness toward this country among the people south of the Rio Grande. He it was who wanted American soldiers to go down there and kill, and die themselves, for the benefit of American investors.

When the late Mr. Harding became president he put this man, then a United States senator, into his cabinet and gave him direction of our internal resources. One of the first things he did was to engineer a deal whereby great naval oil reserve lands were sold cheaply to a large oil producer.

Demands for an investigation arose in Congress from both Democratic and progressive Republicans and a committee was appointed. It developed that this man borrowed $100,000 on his own note from a millionaire Washington publisher. The publisher says the checks were returned uncashed because the borrower got the money he desired from his oil king friend. It also has been shown that this cabinet member made trips to England and Russia on business for an oil concern or concerns while he was supposed to be looking after all the people's interests. It has been shown that he was practically "broke" when he entered the cabinet but got large sums of money from somewhere to equip and improve a large run-down ranch in New Mexico.

This man was Albert B. Fall, of New Mexico, who has about as completely lived up to his name as could be imagined.—Lexington Dispatch.

So far the proponents of the Mellon plan have not explained or attempted to explain in what way capital would be released for investment in industry under the Mellon plan. They have not named the industries needing such capital or into which such capital would go. Their assertions rest almost entirely upon theory, and no concrete illustrations are given to sustain or prove their theory. The public is expected to believe that the Mellon plan contains some kind of magic which is not understood by the ordinary person, through which some sort of miracle is to be wrought. They are asked to take Mr. Mellon's word for it, and not examine the matter too closely. Fortunately, for this propaganda, Mr. Mellon presents no figures nor statistics in this matter of releasing large sums of capital, now alleged to be bound hand and foot.

In this connection it should be recalled that Secretary Mellon's estimates and forecast on Treasury receipts and expenditures for 1923 were more than a billion dollars wrong.

The Mellon plan is predicated on the estimate that he will have a surplus of $323,000,000 next year. On July 1, 1922, the Treasury Department estimated a deficit for 1923 of $823,000,000. On January 29, 1923, President Harding in an address cited Treasury figures to show that there had been an estimated deficit of $698,000,000 for 1923, and then said that the situation then indicated a deficit of $92,000,000 for the year. At the end of the fiscal year Secretary Mellon showed a surplus, largely a paper surplus, of over $200,000,000—more than $1,000,000,000 difference from the original estimate.

In view of this billion dollar error in the estimates of the fiscal operations of the government for one year, what assurance is there that a cut in the higher surtaxes from 50 to 25 per cent will bring the results predicted by the Mellon propagandists?

The trouble with a perfect set of natural teeth is that everybody thinks they're false.

If the little things are always done right, the big things will take care of themselves.

AVOWS COMMUNISM MAY DEVELOP INTO RELIGIOUS DOCTRINE

MOSCOW. — Rituals and ceremonies for christenings, marriages and funerals are gradually creeping into the life of the Russian communists, and some students of Russian affairs see in this tendency a drifting of Communism into what they say it inevitably must become, a religion.

There is no pure Communism practiced in the daily life of Russia today, not even among members of the Communist party. I treat as a theory, as an ideal toward which certain enthusiasts are striving, just as religions of the past have remained theories and only exceptionally have been practiced.

"It is not a far cry," said one observer recently, "from Communist ceremonies at christenings and marriages to regular 'Labor Temples' with five-pointed red stars above them, instead of churches bedecked with crosses."

Leon Trotsky, the Soviet war commissar, wrote some months ago that Communism must provide something to take the place of church ceremonies. These had a hold on the people, and were enjoyed. The people, he said, would not be content with marriages bare of ceremony.

A dispatch from Ural provinces recently described one of the new marriage ceremonies. Instead of a church, there was the Workmen's Club. The young couple, both factory workers, stood under a canopy of red bunting and the chairman of the town executive committee made an address. "Greatest happiness will be yours if you go your way, together, struggling for the happiness of the whole of humanity," he said. "Neither God nor clergy can give you happiness. You must create it for yourself."

There were no rings and none of the crowns and other paraphernalia used in church marriages, but there was something of a Communist substitute in that two red stars, the symbol of the Soviet Russian regime, were presented to the young couple. Some weeks ago the first public Communist christening occurred in a big Moscow theater. The tiny baby girl of a young working couple was held up in the arms of N. Bokharin, a Communist leader, and solemnly dedicated to the service of Communism.

Mr. K. T. tral treasurer, and approved by his office. The need of such co-operation is being felt each year as cases of sick and poor are appealing to the churches and other organization for help. Many of these organizations have expressed approval of this plan, and of their intention to meet at the time designated. All of the churches are asked to be represented by their pastors and other officers that might like to assist in this movement. It is hoped that an executive committee can be elected at that time to keep in touch with Mr. Futrell and with him see that no worthy case is neglected. There are at present some hospital cases that cannot be taken care of until the funds are supplied. All who are interested in such work are invited to attend this meeting, as it will be open to all who care to attend.

MICHAEL O'HALLORAN TO BE PRESENTED BENEFIT OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

On Tuesday, January 29, Mr. Jackson will give one of his best feature pictures as a benefit for the Woman's Club. This is "Michael O'Halloran," a dramatization of Gene Stratton Porter's popular novel.

The story is of Mikey, the little news boy, whose motto is "Be Square." How he rescues and cares for "Peaches," how he mediates between unhappy couples; and how he finally comes out on top, with a happy love affair of his own, makes an interesting and touching picture story.

Fox Picture Called Screen Masterpiece

Could Longfellow see the William Fox motion picture adapted from the Cambridge poet's immortal "Village Blacksmith," he would be as pleased as a three-year-old child with a lily-pop. Little could the master poet realize, when he wrote the immortal lines which have come down to this age, that the wonderful adaptation could have been made.

Paul H. Sloane, who wrote the scenario from the poem, has compiled a screen masterpiece. All through the scenes of the photoplay the sterling qualities of Longfellow's hero are preserved. The picture has been proclaimed by Broadway critics as a screen masterpiece.

One of the critics has aptly described the picture as "doing for father what 'Over the Hill' did for mother." Throughout the trials and tribulations of a lifetime the father stands out as the heroic figure in a story about a typical American family. "Toiling, rejoicing, sorrowing, onward through life he goes," sang the poet and so has Paul Sloane depicted the central figure of the story.

In every way "The Village Blacksmith" is a screen masterpiece and it is destined to be one of the greatest film attractions of a year replete with photoplay successes. It will be shown at the Strand theatre at an early date.

FRENCH COMMITTEE REVISES SCHEDULE FOR OLYMPIC GAMES

PARIS, Jan.—Competitions in the Eighth Olympic Games in Paris this year will occupy the greater part of May, June and July, according to the revised schedule just published by the French Olympic committee.

Beginning in May with the Rugby and Association football trials, the culminating point of the Olympics will come with the great athletic week, July 5 to 13.

After the conclusion of the winter sports at Chamonix Feb. 26, the next Olympic competition will come with Rugby football, from May 3 to May 19 and with soccer football from May 15 to June 9. These matches will take place in the new Colombes Stadium for the semi-finals and finals, the elimination trials having been held at Pershing Stadium, the Velodrome Parc des Princes, the Buffalo and Bergeyre Stadiums.

Then will come the ceremonial opening of the games, which will be preceded by a festival commemorating the thirtieth anniversary of the resumption of the Olympiad. The festival will be celebrated June 23. Two ceremonies, one in the Notre Dame Cathedral in the morning and the other in the evening at the Sorbonne, will be the main features of the day. The following day a gala performance will be given at the Opera.

The delegates from the Federations of Sports and Athletics represented at the games, after having been officially received by President Millerand at the Elysee on July 3, will be the guests of the French Olympic committee at a banquet.

Motion Pictures Used Teach Mothers How to Dress Babies

PRAGUE.—Motion picture films have been brought into use in various parts of Europe designed to break up the practice of mothers and nursing home attendants who for generations have bound babies in clothes at night so tightly that they could not move their arms or legs.

Czechoslovakia, German and Austrian scientists have co-operated in putting out a film, the purpose of which is to educate mothers and nurses as to the proper methods of wrapping babies who, it is contended, should be allowed the freedom of their limbs at all times. Both the old-fashioned custom and the proper way to wrap by the swaddling bands are illustrated. A lecturing physician accompanies the film which has already been shown in Berlin, Vienna, Prague, Warsaw, Bucharest and other cities.

Give us the chance to supply you with explosives this year. We carry large stocks of du Pont dynamites for all blasting purposes on the farm. Tell us your job and we'll tell you the cost.

The NEW ESSEX A SIX

Built by Hudson Under Hudson Patents

The smoothness and long life for which Hudson is famous is now shared by Essex. It is an important advantage to bear in mind.

So also is the fact that the Essex "Six" possesses other notable Hudson qualities. It has the same type clutch, the same axles, the same provisions for long life and easy care of all working parts. Essex reliability is retained. Essex economy of fuel, oil and tires is greatly enhanced.

We ask this test—take a ride.

You will enjoy it—that's certain. See how handling is simplified. Starts at the touch of your toe. Steers easily as a bicycle. And how easy gears shift. Easy to park too. Its low center of gravity makes safe and comfortable driving on all roads at all speeds.

Simple to keep in first class condition. Requires little attention. Lubrication for the most part is done with an oil can.

You, too, will say: "the New Essex provides ideal transportation."

Novel Way Found to Extricate Car

LUMBERTON, Jan. 24.—A novel way in which to extricate a car from the mud was adopted by an Indian near Pembroke the other day. John Floyd, William Caldwell, V. Townsend were held up by the Indian with 38 calibre pistol and made to push his car out of a ditch of mud. After the car was put again on level ground, the Indian thanked them and drove away.

NEW YORKERS MAY TURN TO G. G. BATTLE FOR PRES. CANDIDATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—An interesting report to the effect that after New York state has voted for Governor Ale. Smith a number of names in the Democratic nations' convention, to be held in New York City in June, and sees the fulfillment of its efforts, the delegates will turn to the George Gordon Battle, prominent lawyer of New York and attempt to put his name over. Remarks around the Capital regarding this prophesy are a bit cynical at present or at least sarcastic. It is said that it at least furnishes food for thought.

William Begins to Unbend.

LONDON.—The attitude of William Hohenzollern toward his fellow-townpeople is daily becoming more congenial, says the Doorn correspondent of the Daily Express. His visits to the village for afternoon tea or dinner are increasing, and he is becoming more sociable, paying or receiving many visits every week.

Raleigh Observing Thrift Week With Much Enthusiasm

RALEIGH, Jan. 23.—Merchants of Raleigh as well as the school children and homes and business firms are observing Thrift Week this week with much enthusiasm. The stores of the city are having special sales for the week and the business firms of other natures are instituting new methods of economy suggested by the government and of their own initiative.

Housewives and other members of the household are practicing thrift in many ways. Some housewives are beginning the purchase of groceries on the cash basis plan and seeking the store where a small percent on each purchase is saved.

Children in the schools here are following the plan, urged by the government for the schools throughout the nation, of practicing thrift in various ways. Talks are given to the pupils on how to save and to be thrifty without at the same time unnecessarily depriving themselves of anything.

The plan as set forth by the government and being practiced this week in Raleigh is to be followed in the years to come, it was stated by officials of the campaign in this city. The idea is not to teach the country to deprive themselves of things they need, it was said, but to teach the country to stop the great amount of waste now going on in this nation.

Fertilizer must be "cured" Great bins of Royster Fertilizer "cure," or "age," for months so that your results from its use will swell the earnings from your land. PERHAPS you didn't know that fertilizer should be "cured" or "aged" in order that the food for soil can be more readily available when that food is needed. This is one of the details of the fertilizer industry that few people know, but it's mighty important. Such "details" as this represent the difference between Royster's Fertilizer and less carefully prepared foods—and the difference between profitable crops and crops that are not so profitable. To keep vast quantities of fertilizer for months represents an enormous supply and a tremendous capital. Therefore, only a large company like Royster's can offer this more effective "cured" fertilizer. Rid yourself of the idea that all fertilizer is alike. This is no more true than that all land is alike. The truth of this can be proven—not alone by the enthusiastic praise of successful farmers who have used Royster's, but by your own experience. Use Royster's this year. Give it a fair test—and don't guess about fertilizer any more. Grow better and larger crops by using fertilizer that has been "cured"—that is free from lumps—that has been proven chemically correct by forty chemists—and that has established a record for good works over a long period of years. Look for the name "ROYSTER" on the bags. F. S. ROYSTER GUANO CO. NORFOLK - COLUMBIA - ATLANTA - MONTGOMERY ROYSTER Field Tested Fertilizers
