

Author "Principal" Telegram Appears Before Committee

The oil committee was told today that Attorney General had sent a reassuring message to Edward B. McLean the day the publisher was summoned here to testify in the oil inquiry.

Ira E. Bennett, editorial writer on McLean's Washington Post, testified that such a message was conveyed in a telegram he sent McLean after a conference with the Attorney General. The message placed before the committee included such phrases as "All that can possibly be done will be done by us" and "you know what to depend on."

Bennett then declared that similar assurances had been conveyed thru him to McLean on January 29 in the famous "principal" message. The "principal" referred to was not President Coolidge as some Democratic Senators guessed, but Senator Curtis, Bennett said. He further testified that Curtis told him that the publisher would not be disturbed. That it would be all right.

Bennett quoted Daugherty as saying, tell Ed not to worry. He's a side issue. In two or three weeks I'll be in the center of the whole thing. I'll do what I can to help. "Help in what?" asked Senator Bursum, Republican of New Mexico. "Help McLean not to come up here to testify," the witness declared. As partially decoded and read into the record the message that Bennett said that the Attorney General sent to McLean through him was "I am at Y's elbow and standing at the guns. All that is possible to be done will be done by us, so you should worry. Give Evelyn (Mrs. McLean) my love. I don't want Evelyn to be disturbed as long as I am on the job. The fight is against me and I am ready for them. Feeling fine."

The "principal" telegram sent by him on January 29, Bennett said, was meant to convey the assurance of Senator Curtis. The message said, "Saw" principal, delivered message. He says he greatly appreciated and sends his regards to you and Mrs. McLean. Says there will be no rocking of the boat and no resignations. Expects political reaction from the attacks. Ira Bennett, author of the "principal" in the McLean code messages was questioned by the oil committee today. "Apples" in the cipher telegram is the code for the name Albert E. Fall, he said. The cipher "Count" referred to himself, said Bennett, and expressed it as a jocular term because of some recognition that he had received from the king of Italy.

Burton Will Not Be Sec'y. of Navy to Succeed Denby

Washington, March 7.—Representative Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, who has been mentioned as possible successor to Edwin B. Denby as Secretary of Navy, has informed administration officials that he preferred to continue as a member of the House rather than to accept a cabinet position. His name has therefore been eliminated from the list of those under consideration.

White House officials said today that possibly no decision regarding Denby's successor would be reached until next week. Secretary Denby attended his last cabinet meeting this morning, his resignation being effective next Monday.

ATTORNEY GENERAL AT CABINET MEETING

Declines to Discuss the Movement in Regards to His Retirement

Washington, March 7.—Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty would make no statement upon his arrival here today from Florida. He went direct from the station to the cabinet meeting.

"I am feeling better than I have for five years," said the Attorney General, "although I notice the newspapers have reported me to be a very sick man."

Daugherty arrived at the White House just in time for the 10:30 cabinet meeting.

The meeting of the cabinet lasted only a little over half of an hour. The first members to leave the meeting said that the questioned Daugherty's retirement had not been discussed.

When Daugherty left the meeting he said that he could hardly answer the question whether the situation in Washington relative to him had changed since his departure for Florida.

"That question can hardly be answered," he said. "I do not know whether the situation in Washington has undergone any changes while I was away."

He declined to discuss the renewed move to bring about his retirement. He declared that he had been out of touch with all of Washington except matters relating to the Department of Justice.

He remained in the cabinet session 40 minutes leaving after Secretary New and Denby had departed but before other members left.

Later he modified the order. The boom to secure the Republican nomination for the Governorship of New York for U. S. District Attorney William Hayward has been started in New York City. Hayward commanded the 15th New York Infantry, composed of negro troops and attached to the French Army, in the World War.

"Roads to Social Peace" to be Subject Series of Lectures

Chapel Hill, March 7.—"Roads to Social Peace" will be the general subject of a series of lectures which will be given at the University of North Carolina by Professor Edward Alsworth Ross, of the University of Wisconsin, under the auspices of the Weil Lectures of 1924, according to announcement made public here today. Professor Ross' opinion has been likened to that of the late Woodrow Wilson in his "The Road Away From Revolution," that the greatest need of the ages is the making of the world safe from revolution as well as safe for democracy. The lectures will begin on April 11 and continue through the 13.

Professor Ross, it was stated has been for many years a careful student of social and civic problems in this country and has had a wide experience in travel and study in other nations. He is now preparing a text book on teaching and citizenship, it was explained, and is the author of several volumes along these lines. It is the opinion of many here that the lecturer will find a ready response to his subject which is thought to be a timely one and his discussions of the problems of liberty and liberal thinking will be accepted by an eager group of listeners.

Live Stock Situation in North Carolina Is Very Discouraging

Raleigh, March 7.—The livestock situation in North Carolina is discouraging at the present time, according to Frank Parker, State Agricultural Statistician. Beef and feeder cattle are bringing very low prices and there is little demand for them, it is reported. This sets up a condition whereby livestock farmers feel that they are overstocked, it was explained, but the dairy cattle situation continues good in the Piedmont area of the state, extending from Guilford to Cleveland county and interest continues in good blooded stock.

Langley, Zihlman To Prove Innocence if Charges are Made

Washington, March 7.—Representative Langley, Republican, Kentucky, on the floor of the House today demanded an investigation of the published charges that he had received money for exerting his official influences.

In a five minute speech Langley emphatically denied that he was guilty of any wrong doing. He was cheered by the House when he concluded with an appeal for a square deal.

Washington, March 7.—Representatives Langley, of Kentucky, and Zihlman, of Maryland, denied today that they had ever improperly exercised their official influence and received money for doing so. The denial followed publication of their names as the two members of Congress referred to in the finding of the Chicago grand jury in the recent Veterans' Bureau hearings.

Both representatives stated that they had heard rumors that they were implicated and had discussed the matter with newspapermen, but declared that they had received no official communication that they were involved.

They declare that they are innocent and will be able to prove their innocence beyond any doubt if charges are preferred against them.

Rep. Langley is chairman of the Public Utilities committee, and represents the Tenth Kentucky District.

Rep. Zihlman is chairman of the Labor committee, and represents the Sixth Maryland District. His home is in Cumberland.

$11,000,000 Cargo Liquor Off Long Island Coast

New York, March 7.—Sir Broderick Cecil Martwell, baronet, internationally advertised rum seller is believed by federal officials to be aboard the liquor running steam yacht Istar personally supervising the peddling of a shipment of Scotch whiskey. The Istar, a veteran rum runner is one of the 28 boats at anchor off the Long Island and Jersey coast outside the 12 mile limit. It is estimated that the fleet has aboard 224,000 cases of various kinds of whiskey valued at $11,000,000.

In circulars that have been distributed the baronet offers to sell stock in his liquor selling enterprise offering 20 per cent profit every 60 days. Dispatches from London shortly after the first of the year said that announcement had been made by the baronet that he would soon ship his fourth cargo to the Jersey-Long Island rum row. I have arranged with an American syndicate, he said, to take from me at least 10,000 cases of high class whiskey. The syndicate has deposited United States gold bonds valued at $50,000 to guarantee that the goods would be purchased, and paid for in cash upon arrival at a point 25 miles off shore, he announced.

DANIELS ENDORSED FOR PRESIDENT BY BOARD ALDERMEN

Re - Enact Ordinance Prohibiting Filling Stations Fire District

The Board of Aldermen at its regular meeting last night unanimously adopted resolutions endorsing Josephus Daniels as Democratic candidate for President of the United States.

L. L. Hearne presented a petition asking for a permit to erect a filling station on Five Points. Action was deferred until the April meeting. No action was taken on the second reading of the Dail permit for the erection of a filling station on Cotnach street. Immediately after this the board re-enacted the ordinance, prohibiting the erection of filling stations in the fire district and school zone, which had been repealed in the February meeting. The board then expressed a desire for the public to express their opinions regarding the erection of filling stations in the school zone, so they can determine if the re-enactment shall be permanent.

The cemetery committee reported that several other sites had been offered and asked for an extension of time in which to purchase a site. J. L. Hassell, chairman of the cemetery committee, was instructed to get prices on the repairing of the fence around Cherry Hill cemetery.

Mayor Clark was instructed to advertise for bids for paving the side walks on Chestnut street and was also directed to proceed with the pavement of side walks on Washington street between Second and Third; Evans street between Second and Third; Second street between Washington and Evans; Holly Lane between Fourth and Fifth.

The sewer committee reported that work on the sewer extension was progressing nicely. A letter was read from Judge Burgaw stating that there was no question about R. A. Blackwood's acceptance of the gas franchise but that perfecting plans, organization and several other matters required so much time that an extension of 30 days was requested. The request was granted.

The mosquito eradication and malaria control was placed in the hands of the mayor with power to act.

Poultry Association Holds Interesting Meet in This City

The presence of Mr. Henry R. Brown of Greenville, Tenn., added much to the interest of the monthly meeting of the Pitt County Poultry Association, which was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday afternoon.

Among other things, Mr. Brown, in a short address, gave expression to the following: "Greenville, Tenn., is one of the greatest poultry centers of the United States. Greene county, of which Greenville is the county seat, produces two and a quarter million dollars worth of poultry products annually, practically all of which is net profit. Almost every farm has a small flock of chickens.

Milk-fed Chickens

"We have a cold storage plant with 4,000 capacity. This plant specializes in milk-fed chickens. Every week 2,000 are shipped. During the winter months they go, these 2,000 milk-fed chickens to Pinehurst, N. C. In the summer months they are shipped to the leading hotels in Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New York.

"Friday is shipping day of each week and 15 car loads go out regularly on this day. At other times the increased amount makes it necessary to have solid train loads going to the consuming centers of population.

Pitt Ideal Section

"I have remarked to my son-in-law, Bert James, many times that this section seemed to me to offer unusual opportunities for poultry development. You people have a wonderful climate, not subject to the extremes that we have in Tennessee. Unquestionably it is a profitable business. First every farm (Continued on page 4)

COOLIDGE AND THE MELLON PLAN

Republicans in Congress are beginning to regret—if they ever have welcomed—the candidacy of President Coolidge. Their losing fight for the Mellon bill, which the President sponsored and made the test of Republican fealty, has revealed to the leaders of his party more than anything else his weaknesses and liabilities.

Secretary Mellon, like Denby and Daugherty, is a heritage from Harding. He framed his tax plan while Congress was in adjournment—that is, last summer—and without acceptance and apparently without solicitation of advice from the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House or the Finance Committee of the Senate. Congressman Fordney, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee and Senator McCumber, chairman of the Finance Committee, retired from Congress last March—one of his own volition and the other through defeat at the polls.

It developed that while Secretary Mellon was preparing his plan, Congressman Green (Rep., Ia) who succeeded Fordney was out of sympathy with its failure to provide a sufficient reduction of taxes, and Senator Smoot, who became chairman in place of McCumber, was hostile to any decrease whatever.

The plan came to Congress, therefore, without the cooperation or concurrence of those responsible Congressional leaders who should have had a large part in its making. It was Mellon's proposal in every essential particular. The Secretary of the Treasury however got President Coolidge's approval for his scheme and seemingly that was considered enough.

It was evidently Mellon's belief that Republicans in the House and Senate would be seduced or driven into support of the plan by the vast propaganda which was to capture or coerce every one else.

Now there is resentment against President Coolidge because he used his influence to commit the Republicans of Congress to a measure which was not only unpopular but impossible.

THE HARNESS WE WORK IN

It does not make half as much difference what kind of a harness you work in as what kind of work you do in your harness.

A young fellow I knew had a good job in one of the departments at Washington. He got his pay twice a month, sometimes in bills that never had been wrinkled and sometimes in gold right from the mint. The hours of work were short and folks said there was a good deal to see around the national capital.

But somehow that young man longed for the pine-clad hills of his native state and one day he wrote the most important document to which he ever put his hand. It contained just two words, "I resign." And he and his young wife and little boy went back to the old country home. He pulled on a pair of overalls and went to work to make that farm one of the best in all that part of the country. He began to whistle. His home was a little bit of paradise. He was known and loved and respected for miles around. He had begun to live. I had a talk with him one time. This is what he said:

"My harness down there in Washington used to hurt to beat all! My neck was always sore and my heart a lot sorer. Now my harness fits first rate. I like it, and I know I am where God wants me to be. I am doing my best to be happy and to make other folks happy."

Could anything be finer than that?

If ever a man was an honor to his profession, that man is; and that is all there is to success.—Edgar L. Vincent in Farm Life.

ENGLAND WILL COMPETE FOR SPEED MASTERY OF AIR

London.—With a view to capturing some of the big speed events of the year, and possibly to challenge for the Pulitzer trophy, a local aircraft company has decided to build a speedy airplane.

This will be a biplane with a Napier Lion engine giving nearly 600 h. p., and it is believed it will attain a speed of 270, and possibly 300 miles an hour. The machine already has been entered for the Beaumont Cup near Marseilles June 22, and the British Air Derby later. Its performances in these two events will enable an estimate to be made of its chances in the Pulitzer trophy contest.

Safe Fat Reduction

Reduce, reduce, reduce, is the slogan of all fat people. Get thin, be slim, is the cry of fashion and society. And the overfat wring their hands in fortification and helplessness; revolting at nauseating diets, afraid of violent exercise, dreading the unwelcome and unsatisfying diet, until they hit upon the harmless Marmola Prescription and learn through it that they may safely reduce steadily and easily without one change in their mode of life, but harmlessly, secretly, and quickly reaching their ideal of figure, with a smoother skin, better appetite and health than they have ever known.

And now comes Marmola Prescription Tablets from the same famous harmless formula as the Marmola Prescription. It behooves you to learn the satisfactory, beneficial effects of this great, safe, fat reducer by giving to your druggist one dollar for a box or sending a like amount to the Marmola Company, 4612 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Mich., with a request that they mail to you a box of Marmola Prescription Tablets.

A word about Wilson's Spring Suits prices!

This ad was prompted by a remark we heard this week delivered by a local man who said—"Yes, your new Spring models ARE beautiful—but I'll bet the prices are beautiful too!"

Our reply was this—

We asked him if he would kindly try on the model he most admired and step to the mirror and look at everything except the price on the sleeve.

"What do you think would be a fair price for that suit?" we asked him.

"Oh, I'd say that $50 was about right." And then we showed him the sleeve ticket—it read $35.

Yes, men, the new Michaels-Stern Spring Suits ARE beautiful—but their real value is in the value you see when you come in.

Michaels-Stern Value First Spring Suits $35 to $45

SANCTIONIN MOVIES FOR CITY OF CHICAGO ENTAILS MUCH LABOR

Chicago.—Children who pay out their nickies and dimes to get behind the closed doors of the movie theatre sometimes envy members of the board of moving picture censors of Chicago, who see every picture before it is released for showing in this city. But if they were to take up the duties of the censors the task possibly would be found no labor of choice.

For much work is necessary before the approval or disapproval of the board is placed upon a picture. Viewing the picture is not only required, but numerous conferences are necessary before final action is taken. As an example, 589,500 feet of pictures were examined last January. In one day 51 reels of pictures, each one thousand feet long, were passed on.

When the picture is received from the moving picture exchange, which is required to submit every picture brought into the city to the board, a record is made of its title, number of feet and the producer, along with other data. The picture is then taken to the projection room, where three screens, three projection machines and three operators are used to speed up its showing.

While the picture is being shown, members of the board take notes, after which they confer on action to be taken. The picture is taken up in a chronological manner, the objection of each censor being thoroughly discussed. Then a vote is taken as to whether such and such a part of the picture is to be cut out. A majority vote rules.

After a picture is passed upon the exchange is notified what parts have been cut and the picture is returned to the exchange, with a record of what is necessary to delete. After the objectionable parts are removed, they are returned to the board for final approval and a permit issued for the showing of the picture. If an exchange has ten different sets of pictures a separate permit is necessary for each set.

Traditions of Old Spain Gone From Philippines

Washington.—American occupation of the Philippine Islands for a period of less than 25 years has virtually eliminated the Spanish language as well as Spanish traditions, from the archipelago, according to Manuel Roxas, head of the Philippine commission now in Washington working for independence.

Centuries of Spanish control had made Castilian the tongue of business, industry, the courts and social and religious life throughout the islands. Today, in considerably less than a generation, Spanish, both the language and the tradition, are tremendously on the decline. Mr. Roxas said recently before the Senate committee on territories and insular possessions. The Spanish influence has receded and is no longer of importance in the life of the people.

"Whereas, the Japanese in their country have adopted English as a commercial language," the speaker declared, "we have gone farther and taken it into our homes. We use English in our social life, and so great has been the spread of English in the islands that we conducted our election campaigns almost entirely in English. Even the Spanish priests grant the advance of the English language and the American tradition, and bow before it. Whether we are independent or not, English will be the language of the islands, not so much for its commercial value as for its power as a unifying influence as a means overcoming the dispersion of our people through the speaking of dialects.

"Where once Spanish books had a large sale in the Philippines today the sales are almost nothing. I, myself, for example, have not read a Spanish book in fifteen years."

Stockholm.—Discoveries made in China by J. G. Anderson, a Swedish scientist, establishes in his belief that China had a stone age. At Fenstien, the expedition headed by Professor Anderson, excavated a cave about eight by 18 feet. In it were found bones from about 40 human bodies and a large number of objects, none of which was of metal.

The objects included arrowheads, stone axes, bone awls, curious stone rings and a tiny piece of animal sculpture made of marble, fragments of remarkable vessels, some with pressed geometrical patterns and others with a polished red surface ornamented boldly in black. Professor Anderson dates the cave to the transition between the stone age and the bronze age, or about 2,000-1,500 B. C.

Cherries Came to U. S. With First Jesuit Priests

Chicago.—The romance of the cherry pie from its immigration from France to a dining table in this country, has just been traced by the research department of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.

"Historically and geographically the cherry has left its mark on the face of America," says a bulletin just out. "Jesuit priests brought pits from the cherry growing districts of France and grew seedlings where they established headquarters along the Great Lakes and the Mississippi river during their early explorations in the sixteenth century.

"The towns and cities named Salem in Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Oregon mark the trail of the propagation of the great cherry business that has been built up in Oregon. The covered wagon of the Oregon trail not only carried the plow but seedling cherry trees that somehow withstood the months of heat and jolting until transplanted at the end of the historic journey.

"The cherry pie that daily wedges its juicy path into the luncheons of millions of city workers is the culmination of pioneering, intensive cultivation, battling bugs with sprays, picking by colorful bands of 'diver gypsies,' and finally freezing of the fruit in crates in cold storage until the pie maker calls for the filler for his daily baking. Until the cold storage houses began the freezing process for cherries, all cherry pies, except at harvest time, came from the can.

"Door County, Wisconsin, is the greatest producer of pie cherries, though Michigan also supplies a big share. In these sections the growers have put their orchards on a business basis, tractor-driven tillage spraying equipment being employed to give a No. 1 bright, red, juicy cherry that will be entirely free from the ravages of insect enemies.

Keep Sinks, Drains and Pipes Clean

TRAPS and drain-pipes will clog. Ordinary soap is practically useless to clean them. The best way is to sift a little Red Seal Lye into the sink. Its powerful cleansing qualities quickly loosen the grease and dirt and the rinse water washes away the sediment, leaving the drain-pipe clean and sanitary. A can of Red Seal Lye saves many plumbing bills.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS Things Our Readers Want to Know Red Seal Lye cleans sinks, toilets, pots and pans with less time and trouble than any other cleanser.

Red Seal Lye is a big help in washing clothes. By softening the water, the dirt is loosened without any rubbing being necessary.

Crevices and corners where roaches and vermin abound should be sprayed with a solution of Red Seal Lye.

ELIZABETH CITY BUSINESS MEN ENDORSE

and recommend his nomination in the Democratic primary to represent the First District of North Carolina in Congress TO ALL FIRST DISTRICT DEMOCRATS—

As a man of keen business judgment who stands for careful and economical expenditure of public funds and who will work for tax reductions while protecting the public need for schools, good roads and ample protection of person and property, E. F. Aydlett of Elizabeth City is peculiarly fitted to represent this District in Congress.

In 30 years of active work for the best interests of the people of this section, sponsoring every worthy cause and energetically opposing every move disadvantageous to the public, Mr. Aydlett has shown himself to be the champion of the public weal. He stands for progress along economical lines, for education and for development of the farming country by means of good roads and improved farming conditions and for the lightening of the burden of taxation now borne by every citizen of the country.

Reared on the farm, Mr. Aydlett has first hand knowledge of farm life and conditions. His business and legal experiences enable him to judge wisely in questions of finance and trade, public policy and diplomacy. His years of service as trustee of Wake Forest College, as County Superintendent of Education in Camden and as Chairman of the School Board in Elizabeth City, combine to give him unusually clear views of the educational needs of this section. As Superintendent of one of the city's largest Sunday Schools, as a deacon in the church and moderator of the Chowan Baptist Association, he has ever been allied with the church and is known everywhere as a morally clean and upright Christian gentleman.

We, the undersigned business men of Elizabeth City, do not hesitate to recommend E. F. Aydlett to the Democratic voters of the First District. We believe he will represent this district in a manner that will prove to its advantage from every standpoint, and that he will devote all his energy to the best interests of this section and the entire country.

RECEPTION GIVEN BY MRS. T. A. PERSON AND MRS. W. B. TILGHMAN

A roscate glow pervaded the beautiful new home of Mrs. T. A. Person on Tuesday afternoon, when the doors were opened to receive the guests invited by Mrs. Person and her sister Mrs. Tilghman, to meet two of Greenville's recent brides, Mrs. R. M. Garrett and Mrs. Dail Laughinghouse.

One color, rose, was used throughout the house, and the effect was most lovely. In the big living-room, the punch table stood between two windows, entwined with lace fern and sweet peas.

The reception room was decorated with carnations and potted primroses, and the conservatory, opening from this room, was a bower of ferns and blooming plants. Carnations adorned the dining-room, occupying the centre of the table and sideboard,—combined with the lace fern.

The chandelier was especially attractive, draped with rose tulle and sprays of lace fern, and dotted with sweet peas.

In every room the rose shaded lights and burning tapers gave a soft glow which made the scene indescribably beautiful.

Welcoming the guests at the front door were Mrs. E. G. Flanagan and Mrs. J. L. Kilgo. In the living-room they were greeted by Mrs. S. T. White and Miss Ward Moore, who invited them to the punch table. This was presided over by Mesdames Graham Flanagan, William Bradsher, E. J. Garrett, and Miss Martha Adams.

Next, everybody was asked to register in a little book in charge of Mrs. C. M. Teler and Mrs. W. L. Best.

At the door to the reception room, the guests were met by Mrs. J. L. Little and Mrs. H. A. White, and presented to the receiving line. The gracious hostess, Mrs. Person, made each one welcome, and presented the two brides, Mrs. R. M. Garrett and Mrs. Dail Laughinghouse, who were followed by Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Mrs. F. G. James, Mrs. V. P. Scoville, Mrs. H. F. Moye, and Mrs. J. K. Brown.

Passing the conservatory, a new line was formed, where Mrs. W. B. Tilghman greeted the guests, and presented them to two brides-elect, Misses Marguerite and Hortense Higgs, also Mrs. J. L. Hassell and Mrs. J. E. Winslow.

Entering the dining room, Mrs. J. S. Norman and Mrs. C. T. Munford stood on one side of the door, and Mrs. J. R. Hodges and Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley on the other. Mrs. H. E. Austin was hostess in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. F. J. Forbes and Mrs. Louis Cooper, who sat at either end of the table, serving the ices, and Misses Novella Moye, Dorothy Norman, Ada James, Helene Higgs, Nancy King, Hannah Dixon, Mary Bagley Overton and Mary Warren, who passed the plates. Ices and cakes were in accord with the color scheme.

Mrs. Claude Grant and Mrs. R. L. Smith were at the door leading to the hall, and Mrs. Carey Warren and Mrs. H. L. Hodges were under the colonade.

Strains of music, under the direction of Miss Louise Burton, were heard, interspersed with the murmur of voices and peals of laughter, so that "whether you look, or whether you listen" it was apparent that all were having a good time.

Passers-by had their curiosity aroused by the gay laughter of the departing guests. This was occasioned by the "fortunes" which were distributed by Mrs. M. H. White and Mrs. Ray Tyson, as each one said "good-by." These ladies each held a basket of favors, wrapped in rose tissue. The "favor" was a candy kiss, around which was a piece of paper with a fortune or prophesy written on it. Some of these happened to be very appropriate, and some were ludicrous, while some were so ideal that the recipients hoped they would come true. This bit of gaiety added much enjoyment to an altogether pleasant afternoon.

"VENUS" WILL BE SHOWN AT WHITE'S ON MARCH 13

"Venus" which is scheduled to appear at White's theatre on March 13, comes heralded by paean of praise sounded by newspaper reviewers in cities visited on the tour. From these sources, as well as trade reports that have reached him, Manager Jackson is confident in the belief that "Venus" will be the red-letter event of the entire season.

Coupled with this source of information, Geo. E. Wintz, the producer, writes:

"I give you my personal assurance that 'Venus' is the best attraction I have ever sponsored. If you don't say so after we finish our engagement, keep the gross receipts."

Mr. Wintz's offer, taken with the other information at hand, led Manager Jackson to issue the following statement to the theatregoers of this section:

"To the various fine reports that have preceded 'Venus' I must add my personal guarantee. This is without question one of the best attractions that has ever been booked to appear in this city. I wish to state that 'Venus' has been enjoying crowded houses everywhere and suggest the early purchase of tickets, to secure choice locations."

"Venus will be given in two acts and twenty-one unique and distinctive scenes. Music of the lilting kind, comedy, amusing and captivating dances will be found in this attraction. Some of the song hits are 'Venus,' 'South Sea Island Mood,' 'Girls, Girls, Girls,' 'Polly Oh,' 'Hello My Radio,' 'Wait for the Silver Lining,' 'Tut Tut,' 'Beautiful Baby,' 'Oh Daddy Mine,' 'Here is a Winter Garden Doll For You,' 'Check-A-Dee-Clack,' 'A Kiss For You,' and several others.

J. B. Tucker Winner.

It was disclosed at this meeting that Mr. J. B. Tucker exhibited champion pullet of all breeds competing at the recent tri-state poultry show which was held at Kinston. In addition, Mr. Tucker won every first prize offered on white leghorns and had best pen in the Mediterranean class. This is a signal honor for Pitt county and easily shows what can be done. Mr. Tucker is devoting quite much thought to the poultry business and doubtless will gradually develop a large farm. Mr. Tucker is also thoroughly convinced that standard-bred fowls are the only ones to deal with.

J. J. Jenkins Takes Prize.

Mr. J. J. Jenkins also exhibited at the Tri-State Poultry show at Kinston and won every first prize on minorens, including best cockerel in Mediterranean class.

Mr. Jenkins in commenting of Mr. Tucker's best pullet, said: "Judge Weaver stated that this pullet was the best he had ever seen even including those exhibited in the famous Madison Square Garden shows and at Chicago."

Back Yard Flock.

"During the past two or three weeks I have sold $60.50 worth of standard-bred eggs" said Mr. Jenkins. Mr. Jenkins only has a small back yard flock.

From many points of view yesterday's meeting was one of the very best the Poultry Association has had in many months.

"THE LADIES' STORE"

Faithful Dog Sole Friend of Devoted Social Worker

Paris. — Sister Leonide, the nun who for 53 uninterrupted years has been in service attending to the needs, both physical and moral, of the unfortunate women confined in the prison of Saint Lazare, was recently decorated with the Legion of Honor.

"This is a great surprise to me," the sister said upon receiving the decoration, "I have not a friend in the world who might have proposed my name."

Those who have come in daily contact with Sister Leonide say she has only one intimate friend, a dog. Deeply offended by the ingratitude of mankind—in this particular case that of women—she has devoted all the treasures of friendship held in her charitable heart to a sad looking mongrel of the fox variety named Riquet. It is the only animal allowed within the confines of the sombre prison.

The dog pines Sister Leonide when her presence is desired in any part of the prison. In the sisters' waiting room a bell rings once when any member of the staff is wanted at the office. The one ring denotes that any sister will do. For Sister Leonide the bell rings twice.

That bell might clang all day long in single rings, but the dog pays no attention to it. When he is drowsing he won't even open an eye. But let the bell ring twice and the dog, awake or asleep, immediately answers with joyous barks. Should Sister Leonide be absent he at once starts out to locate her and escort her to the office.

WOMAN TELLS WOMEN TO WIN ON MERITS OF WORK

Berkeley, Cal.—Miss Ardella Pritchard, of Portland, Ore., national president of the Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs addressing the local business and professional women recently, handed out some pungent advice.

"Quit talking about yourselves," she advised; "ask for recognition as citizens, not as women."

Among the opinions expressed by Miss Pritchard were:

"No self-respecting business woman wants to be a liability and place any time.

"We have been told that women have not been great poets, great artists and musicians, but we know that for every great man that has been made some faithful woman has watched by his side, giving love, service and sacrifice.

"Never permit the flag of womanhood to trail in the dust. Carry your standard with colors unfurled.

"Let us never disappoint those who look to us for help and strength.

"Unless a girl makes good on her job in the business world, she cannot make good as a wife or a mother.

"Remember, always with headwork must go heart work. When we lose human sympathies, we lose a whole lot of the battle on the long way to success."

GERMANS STILL TALKING ABOUT WHO LOST WAR

Ein-Jin.—Arguments as to "who lost the war" have been one of the favorite indoor sports in Germany this winter. Discussions of this kind for some reason appear to have seized the press and public about the time cold weather began. It was the same last winter, but not to such an extent as this year. These arguments are heard in street cars and on trains, in the shops and cafes, and would seem to be more popular than playing Mah Jong in the United States. Nearly everyone has been accused at various times, from the sergeants in the trenches and the peasants in the fields to the former emperor and most of the men of his family.

The most recent member of the ex-royal household to be attacked and accused of being a slacker is Ernest August, former Duke of Brunswick who married Princess Victoria Louise August by inheritance retained the title of prince royal of Great Britain and Ireland. He is accused by newspaper writers of having evaded service in the fighting lines and of having displayed pronounced pro-British tendencies.

Ernest, of course, denies all the charges brought against him, and his friends rally to his support. The arguments lead nowhere, and serve only to fill the press with the vehement letters of partisans.

MOTOR DRIVEN SHIP FORCE SAIL AND STEAM FROM SEAS

Stockholm.—The romance of the sailing ship will soon become a thing of the past in Sweden, Denmark and Veritas, which keeps the official shipping record of Scandinavia. Of the tonnage under construction in the yards of the three countries on January 1, not a single vessel was designed for sailing. But the steamship also appears to be doomed, for over one-half of the vessels now building in Scandinavian countries are to be motor driven.

Of the three nations Sweden is the only one that shows a net increase in the merchant fleet as the result of all construction, purchases, leases, sales, etc., during last year, the net increase being 16 vessels aggregating 57,000 gross tons, or Norway there was a decrease of 48 vessels totalling 36,000 gross tons, and for Denmark a decrease of 14 vessels totalling 24,000 gross tons in Norway, however, steamships and motorship taken by themselves showed an increase of 17,000 tons.

MUCH OF ENGLISH HISTORY MADE IN DOWNING STREET

London, Mar.—Ramsay Macdonald is the 50th prime minister to take up his residence at 10 Downing street in the 180 years the building has been the official residence of the head of the government. The historic structure was the residence of Lord Litchfield until George I took possession of it. He presented it as the official residence in perpetuity of the first lord of the treasury.

Sir Robert Walpole was the first occupant, but several promoters did not live there, some preferring to live in their own private homes. However, all held their cabinet councils there and more history has been made in the conical room at 10 Downing Street than in any other building in the country. Downing Street takes its name from Sir George Downing, a member of parliament in Cromwell's time.

SEEK TO HONOR WOMAN WHO SAVED MEN'S LIVES

Newport, Rhode Island.—The fame of Ida Lewis, brave lighthouse keeper, will be perpetuated in a way to make her name familiar to all mariners of the future, if a movement under way in this city and Washington is successful. Admirers of the woman who repeatedly risked her life to save seamen shipwrecked off the harbor here are trying to have the names of Lime Rock Light and Lime Rocks, in the southern part of the harbor, changed to Ida Lewis Light and Ida Lewis Rocks.

For many years Miss Lewis was keeper of the Light. Not content with merely keeping the beacon burning, she personally assisted in the rescue of more than 20 men by rowing out to wrecked ships in her small boat.

Don't let constipation make you an invalid —relieve it with Kellogg's Bran

Few people realize how dangerous is constipation until this dread disease tears down their health. Did you know that more than forty serious diseases can be traced to constipation?

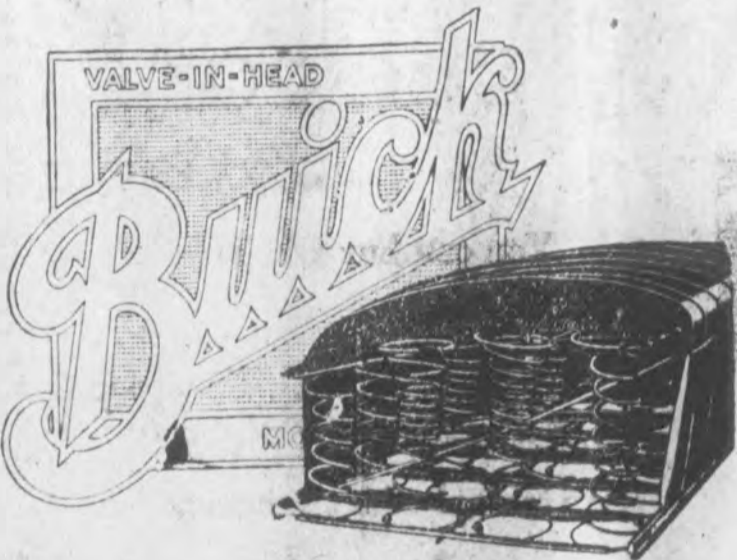

Keep your health, or restore it, with Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krummled. It brings relief in mild and chronic cases of constipation. It is effective because it is ALL bran. That is why it is recommended so highly by doctors. They know that only ALL bran can bring 100 per cent results. Part bran is, at best, only a halfway measure.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran will bring permanent relief—even in the most chronic case. It is guaranteed to do so. If it fails, your grocer will return your money.

Because it is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. Like nature, it acts naturally. It makes the intestine function regularly.

Eat it every day—two tablespoonfuls—in chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Enjoy it in those wonderful recipes given on every package.

The flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krummled, is delicious. It is crisp, nut-like. Quite different from ordinary bran, which are so unpalatable. Kellogg's Bran is made in Battle Creek and served by the leading hotels and clubs everywhere. Sold by all grocers.

Buick Cushions Are Comfortable On All Roads

The cushions on Buick open ears are supported on double-deck springs. The upper springs, light and easy acting, smooth out slight road irregularities, while the larger and stronger lowers absorb the bumps that cause the ordinary seat to "strike bottom". Two pads of curled hair between springs and French plaited upholstery give that final softness and assure the purchaser a cushion that will stand up.

No matter what brand of baking powder you use, you may have success with your baking today—but what about tomorrow or next week. Uniformity—unfailing success every day in the year—that's the biggest mark of merit a leavener can have—and that's the very thing that has made Calumet Baking Powder the preferred bake-day aid of America.

If you doubt the unusual quality of Calumet, make a test—bake a cake with any baking powder you may select—then use the same recipe and employ Calumet.

This very test has caused millions upon millions of women to turn from a baking powder they had used for years—it has proven to them that the "Best by Test" leavener is the purest that money can buy. For better bakings—day in and day out—use Calumet.

LINCOLN'S OFFICE BOY ADDS TO LORE ABOUT LIBERATOR

Omahas.—Eppenetus Webb McIntosh, 79, civil war veteran and former office boy for Abraham Lincoln when the latter was a lawyer at Springfield, Ill., became a painter because the Emancipator started him at this trade. He continued as a painter until his age no longer would permit him to climb ladders and paint buildings.

In commemorating the birthday of the former president McIntosh, who was the first member of the Grand Army of the Republic, recited that Lincoln had mixed his first white lead for him and then described how he spent two days painting Lincoln's fence. When the job was completed Lincoln selected McIntosh to clean out his office, which he continued to do for about three years.

"Sometimes he would give me a quarter and then again he would give me fifty cents, but in those days you could buy a bushel of potatoes for three cents," said McIntosh in telling of his pay.

When he was seven years old, McIntosh related, Lincoln bought him a drum, carried by the aged veteran throughout the war, and which now hangs in the national museum in Washington.

When Lincoln was debating the wool question with Stephen Douglas his opponent for the presidency in 1860, McIntosh accompanied him as his drummer on several of his campaign tours. The only compensation he ever received, McIntosh declared, were his expenses.

"After Douglas had completed his talk, Lincoln got up, in sections, took off his coat and laid it behind him. As he did so he stretched his long arms above it and said: 'Lie there, American wool, while I stone Stephen.' He won this debate by a wide margin," McIntosh asserted.

DANES CALL CARS LUXURIES FOR TAXATION PURPOSES

Copenhagen.—The new law establishing a 15 to 30 percent tax on automobiles has been severely criticized in motor circles, particularly by the heads of American car making companies with branches in Denmark. They claim that their companies have recently acquired large plants in Denmark with the intention of employing hundreds of Danes and using Copenhagen as a collecting and distributing center for Scandinavian, Russia and other European countries.

Some prominent Danes have expressed the opinion that Americans, whose government apparently taxes necessities, have no moral right to upbraid Denmark for placing a temporary tax on luxuries.

LIGHTHOUSE KEEPER AND HIS AIDSMEN MAROONED BY STORMS SEVENTEEN WEEKS

Amazance.—After being marooned in the Longships Lighthouse at Land's End at the entrance to the English Channel for 17 weeks, the lighthouse keeper and his two assistants have been rescued and brought to land. The men had been cut off from land by the storms which have raged off Land's End since early in September. All previous attempts to reach them failed and they were rescued as their supplies of canned beer and biscuits were about exhausted.

The men were taken to a hospital for an extended rest after the nervous strain of having waves, often 110 feet high, breaking continuously over the lighthouse.

STATE DENIES ARMS CHARGE ULSTER SUSPENDS INSPECTOR

Belfast.—The Ulster Constabulary authorities have suspended District Inspector Nixon for speeches he made at Orange meetings, regarding Free State preparations on the border.

On January 30, at a meeting of the Orange Lodge in Belfast, Nixon declared that the border between the Free State and six counties was surrounded by Free State artillery, armored cars and airplanes.

The next day General Mulcahy issued a statement that the Free State authorities had no artillery or airplanes nearer the border than Dublin and no armored car nearer than Donegal or Mullingar, adding "Don't mind Nixon; he must have something on his conscience."

Miss Lindsey was chosen from a list of about 100 applicants. The scholarship is tenable for 12 months and was given to promote better understanding and good will between the two English speaking peoples.

Brilliant Colors Enliven Berlin Press Club Ball

Berlin.—The greatest fashion show in this city since 1914 was the recent ball of the Berlin Press Club. Men and women from the four corners of the world were present; the costumes were beautiful, ornate and bizarre, and the affair was reported at length and after the most modern methods by the local papers.

Many German diplomats were among the 5,000 guests of the club, as well as numerous representatives of foreign nations. But Germans predominated. Youthful colors prevailed, sky blue, pink and cerise being popular. One society reporter wrote: "The matrons of yesterday in Germany suddenly came into their own again last night, and were dresses and danced in a manner to do justice to their rivals, the girls of seventeen."

Slender and straight lines characterized the dresses of the women, setting off the figure to advantage. Marabou was the favorite material for trimming. Ermine, once popular, and generally attributed to royalty, was a poor second. Aigrettes were plentiful, which has led to some rather pointed criticism of the lack of laws in Germany to protect the birds from whom these feathers are taken.

But the ball was a success from every standpoint, and the proceeds are to go to charity.

Apartment House to Be Erected On Site Thomas Dixon Home

Shelby, N. C., March 1.—Another landmark of North Carolina, remembered as the ancestral home of the prominent Archer family of this state but made more renowned as the birthplace of Thomas Dixon, author of the "Birth of a Nation," will soon pass into the class of those other places that are only remembered. The Archer property has been purchased by a local contractor and soon a modern six-story apartment house will be erected on the site. Although Shelby welcomes the strides of progress many of the inhabitants, especially the older ones, look with regret upon the passing of the old home where once its favorite son, now a national figure in the realm of literature, once dwelled as a boy and a tall "lanky" youth.

BANK REPORTS SHOW PROFITS FOR LAST YEAR

Stockholm.—Industrial and financial circles of Sweden are gratified over the healthy condition of Sweden's banks as shown by their annual reports for 1923. Nine of the banks which have thus far reported show a combined net profit of $11,000,000, with dividends ranging from six to 15 percent and an average dividend of 9.6 percent. The reports indicate that the expense accounts of the banks were considerably lower in 1923 than in 1922.
