McLean Testifies Before Senate Oil Committee Today

Publisher Emphatically Denies He is Connected in Any Way With Oil Transactions

Washington, March 12.—Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, insisted under questioning before the oil committee today that he had told the truth when he testified in Palm Beach that he had loaned Albert B. Fall $100,000 in 1921, the checks afterward being returned to him uncashed. Although his bank balance did not show that amount on deposit his credit was good, he said and Fall had agreed to notify him before attempting to cash the checks. This procedure was nothing unusual he said and had nothing to do with the oil leasing program. When he first erroneously informed the committee that he had made the loan in cash he did so because Fall had requested it last December.

Attorney General Daugherty was identified by McLean as the author of the message received by him in Palm Beach telling him not to worry and he knew what to depend on. McLean said that he had invited C. Bascom Slemm, secretary for President Coolidge, to come to Florida last December. He declared that he never had anything to do with the million dollar slush fund which rumors said was sent to Washington for government officials.

McLean was excused from further attendance at committee hearings after he had been on the stand for more than two hours. At the outset McLean read to the committee a prepared statement. His statement in part is as follows: "Having in mind the subject of this investigation and having also in mind the widespread use by the press of my name as one who might have some connection with the naval oil leases, the oil companies, some individual of government department or public official who did have connection with the leasing of naval oil reserves I want to make the following detailed and emphatic statement of facts.

"I have absolutely no knowledge of the leases of any oil reserves made at any time to any person or company except such knowledge as I, in common with the rest of the American public, have received from the press.

"As to the so-called Sinclair leases and companies. I have never known anything about the leases to the Sinclair companies and know nothing today about this except what I have read in the newspapers. I do not know Mr. Harry F. Sinclair and have no recollection of ever having met him even casually. I have never had an interest of any kind directly or indirectly either for myself or with any other person in any of the so-called Sinclair companies. I did not even know there was such a thing as the Mammoth Oil Company until it was mentioned in the press reports in connection with this investigation. I did not know, as anyone who reads the newspapers knows, of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Companies but I have never had any interest whatever or owned a single share of stock in it or any company connected with it. In a word I had no knowledge of the Sinclair companies or their business.

"I do not know E. L. Doheny and so far as I am aware have never seen him in my life. I did not know that he was connected with any leases until I read it. I do not know the names of the Doheny companies but I am informed that they are the Mexican Petroleum Company and Pan American Petroleum Company and like most large companies they have branches. I have never owned directly or indirectly for myself or with anyone else a single share of either Mexican Petroleum, Pan American or any dependent companies or so far as I know any company in which Doheny is interested or which he is in any way connected.

"I know nothing of the contract for leasing between the government and the Doheny companies. Again in brief I have had no connection with and no interest in any transactions with E. L. Doheny or any company or business of his at any time in all my life.

Former Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall for several years has been my personal friend. My relations with him have been personal and never official. I have never at any time had any official transactions with the Interior Department with regard to the Navy Department and Secretary Denby will say the same as I have already said regarding the Interior Department. My personal acquaintance with Edwin Denby is a slight one. I have never had any business with the Navy Department and have never been interested in any contract made by that department. The newspaper with which I am connected many times have carried (some government advertising but this matter of course is not handled by me personally.

Because there have been published indefinite and unfounded rumors from which inference might be drawn that I had participated in the purchase of stocks, though any stock transactions are my own personal affairs, and have no relation to the subject the committee is investigating, in order to show the lack of foundation for these and other reports I will show what stock transactions I have had. Only twice in my life have I bought and sold New York stocks. In November 1922 I purchased 2,000 shares of Pure Oil stock through Hibbs and Co. of Washington, and sold them in February 1923 through Hutton Co., of Palm Beach, Fla., at a profit of $5,000.

H. E. McKenna, chief door keeper of the White House executive offices, was called before the oil committee today and questioned regarding the telegrams he sent to Edward B. McLean, in Florida, informing him that Secretary Slemm had departed for the South. McKenna said that McLean had asked him to send such notification and that Secretary Slemm had said that it would be all right.

E. W. Starling, of the White House secret service detail, who also communicated with the publisher by telegraph, followed McKenna on the stand. Starling testified that the message related to the employment of E. P. Wilkins, of Hopkinsville, Ky., in the McLean household. Wilkins, Starling said, was his life long friend. The committee then called E. W. Smithers, chief of communications at the White House, who operated the Washington end of McLean's private wire to Palm Beach.

CONGRESS WILL PROBE CHARGES TWO MEMBERS

Washington, March 12.—Congressional investigation of the criminal charges, said to have developed before the Chicago grand jury, against two members of Congress was ordered today by the House.

A resolution offered by Representative Garnett, Democratic leader, to create a special House committee to conduct an inquiry was adopted today. By this act the House reversed its decision of yesterday to leave the investigation to the Department of Justice and to make no further effort to have the names of the accused members disclosed.

Grand Jury Investigates Racial Troubles in the Vicinity of Elco, Illinois

Carlo, Ill., March 12.—A special session of the regular February grand jury of Alexander County circuit court, convened today to investigate racial troubles in the vicinity of Elco, Ill.

The investigation is a result of disturbances incident to the bringing of negro cotton pickers from the south to this district by Israel Coble, merchant and farmer and include an effort to dynamite the Coble home, the wrecking by dynamite of one house occupied by negroes, the burning of another house and the firing into a negro tenement building resulting in the injury of one negro.

MEN AND WOMEN WHO FIGURE IN DAY'S NEWS.

Hugo Stinnes, Germany's greatest industrialist and richest man, is seriously ill at his villa near Berlin. Mrs. Jake Hamon, who killed her millionaire husband, Jake Hamon, Oklahoma oil magnate, and was acquitted, will probably be called by the Senate investigating committee to ascertain what she knows concerning the report that oil interests offered to nominate Leonard Wood for the Presidency in 1920 if he would promise to make Hamon his Secretary of the Interior. William A. Brady, noted New York theatrical manager, heads the Producing Managers' Association, which has locked horns with the Actors' Equity Association. The latter body, headed by John Emerson, has demanded a "closed shop" by June 1, declaring a strike will occur then if their demand is not met. Friends of Governor Clifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, declare his hat is definitely in the ring for the Republican nomination for the Presidency in the Cleveland convention. Jack Hendricks, one-time manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and winner of many pennants in minor leagues, has been appointed manager of the Cincinnati Reds, following the death of Pat Moran.

Ward Liner Is Sunk 60 Miles Off Hatteras

Charleston, S. C., March 12.—The S S San Diego has sunk 60 miles south of Cape Hatteras according to a radio message intercepted by the Charleston naval wireless station.

The wireless sent by the Norwegian freighter Cissy reports the picking up of one life boat containing 11 survivors. The message said: "Picked up life boat six seamen, four firemen, one carpenter S S San Diego sunk 60 miles south of Hatteras. No other life boats seen. (Captain) CAPTAIN."

The Cissy's message was routed by Savannah to Morehead City, N. C. No other information was available here as to the circumstances of the sinking of the San Diego.

New York, March 12.—The S S San Diego, reported sunk off Cape Hatteras, is believed to be the Ward Line freighter which left Cienfuegos, Cuba for New York March 4. The only other San Diego sailing from this port was recently sold for junk.

Everett, will serve as the honorary chairman of the committee to raise $250,000 throughout the state for the North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro, it has been made known here. According to Julian L. Foust, president of the college, the fund will be used to erect an alumnae and student social center building on the campus which the college has been in great need of for some time.

It was also reported that the faculty and the students had within four days oversubscribed their quota of $25,000. In a letter to President Foust, Secretary of State Everett expressed his pleasure at serving on the committee said that he thought the campaign was advisable inasmuch as the state funds were entirely used fixed expenses.

UNDERWOOD WINS ALABAMA PRIMARY

Birmingham, Ala., March 12.—Senator Oscar W. Underwood has the privilege of naming Alabama delegates to the Democratic National convention on the basis of yesterday's primaries in which he defeated L. B. Musgrove by a majority estimated to be 20,000.

Incomplete returns from 59 out of 67 counties of the state gave Underwood 49,209, Musgrove 27,285 and M. A. Dinsmore 8,201.

Musgrove has refused to concede defeat and has declared alleged frauds will be exposed immediately. He also charged that the vote in the black belt and other counties, especially Mobile, had been manipulated in the interest of his opponent.

Returns as tabulated gave Musgrove a majority in five counties in the state.

In a formal statement Musgrove said, "Sufficient information is at hand to show that I have carried the state."

Pageant Will Be Outstanding Feature Eastern Exposition

Kinston, March 12.—Nothing of the kind more ambitious than "Eastern Carolina in Action," colorful pageant to be staged here the evening of April 11, has ever been undertaken in this part of the country. This is the opinion of Newell G. Bartlett, secretary-manager of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, promoting the Eastern Carolina Exposition. The pageant will be a feature of the exposition. The exposition will be open a week beginning the 7th. The pageant will be the topline for the fifth day, Friday.

"We are banking a great deal on this pageant," Bartlett stated today. It will be an attraction for thousands of people who would not respond to any ordinary attraction, he said. "I suppose, and I am guessing conservatively, that a thousand men, women and children will participate in the undertaking. You see, there are 13 separate troupes rehearsing that many separate acts and these are in 13 different counties. Each act will portray a different phase of the history and industrial development of the section. The outstanding events of more than two centuries

WILLIAMS RESIGNS POSITION WATER LIGHT COMMISSION

Goes to Charlotte to Accept Position With the Southern Power Co.

Mr. E. E. Williams, superintendent of the local water and light commission since March 1920 has resigned to accept a position with the Southern Power Company of Charlotte. His resignation becomes effective April 1.

Mr. Williams has made an efficient superintendent and the progress made during his administration has been most satisfactory. During the past two years the local plant has begun to furnish power to two towns, Winterville and Bethel and Mr. Williams has been untiring in his efforts in endeavoring to make this the best plant in the entire state.

In accepting a position with the Southern Power Company he receives quite a promotion. He will be general superintendent of steam plants in Greenville, S. C., Spartanburg, S. C., Mount Holly, N. C., Greensboro and University, with a total capacity of 110,000 kilowatts.

The successor to Mr. Williams has not been appointed.

of time is approximately half of the state will be depleted.

"For instance," Bartlett said, "Edgecombe county actors will present a reproduction of a famous banquet that occurred at Tarboro in the closing decade of the 18th century. George Washington was the guest of honor. A descendant of the master of ceremonies on that august occasion will impersonate the colonial toastmaster. And conjure to mind the colonial costumes of the ladies and gentry, the powdered wigs and all such. Real histrionic talent from Wayne will present thrilling military incidents of colonial times. Duplin folks will depict the 'finding of gold. This episode will sound a tragic note, however; there was no zonzanza at the foot of that rainbow. Other troupes will portray ante-bellum and civil war phases of the district's and others still other age-marks in its history. Miss Olive Jackson, of New York has been at work for weeks on this feature.

"The pageant will be elaborately staged. It will be replete in all respects. Some of the scenes will present extravagant displays of color and the staging and costuming along patriotic and historical organizations are co-operating in the undertaking."

INVESTIGATION OF DAUGHERTY WILL BE STARTED TODAY

Washington, March 12.—Daugherty investigation will be opened at 4 o'clock this afternoon, according to a decision reached today by the special Senate committee. Chairman Brookhart announced that the testimony of witnesses would be begun at that hour.

The part played in the Department of Justice by Jess Smith, friend of Attorney General Daugherty who committed suicide in Daugherty's apartment a year ago, will be inquired into in detail by the investigating committee. Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, who is preparing the case announced that at telegrams sent and received by Smith at Columbus, Ohio, following the election of President Harding had been subpoenaed.

Dempsey and Firpo In Boxing Bout In N. Y. Labor Day

Chicago, March 12.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavy weight champion boxer, will defend his title against Luis Firpo, South American fighter, in New York on labor day. Dempsey announced upon his arrival here last night. The Argentine will be his only opponent during the year, the champion said.

The decision to fight Firpo was reached at a conference with his manager Jack Kearns just before he left New York, said Dempsey. The public wants the match he asserted.

Judge W. S. Kenyon May Succeed Denby As Navy Secretary

Washington, March 12.—Former Senator W. S. Kenyon, of Iowa, now judge of circuit court, is understood to be under consideration for appointment as Secretary of Navy to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Edwin B. Denby.

Judge Kenyon arrived in Washington last night and shortly after his arrival went to the White House to confer with President Coolidge. Friends said today that they had not reached a decision but that he has another appointment with President Coolidge tomorrow morning.

Aycock Memorial to be Unveiled Thursday

The memorial exercises will be held at noon in the City Auditorium. Approximately a thousand teachers who here this week attending the fortieth annual meeting of the North Carolina Educational Association, will be in attendance at the services.

The monument was erected in honor of Charles Brantley Aycock, at one time Governor of North Carolina and considered one of the State's greatest educators and did much during his administration as governor to develop the schools of the state and to start them on their upward path of progress. The monument was designed by Gutzon Borglum, who is now working on the Confederate Memorial at Stone Mountain, near Atlanta.

The exercises will be simple and brief but will pay to the great educator a significant respect and honor which all the state feels as well as owes to him. The exercises will be under auspices of the Aycock Memorial Committee.

WHO WILL WIN THEY ASK AS THE CAMPAIGN OPENS

Entries Received Indicate Hot Fight Between City and Outside Candidates

Everybody seems to be wondering just who the owners of all the wonderful prizes that The Daily Reflector is offering to the ambitious folks who are willing to spend their spare time clipping and having their friends save for them the free 50 vote coupons that appear in the paper each day, and to solicit their acquaintances for subscriptions.

We at the paper would like to know just who the ambitious folks are going to be, but we know whoever they are they will not have won the prizes on account of being lucky. A lot of folks will tell you when you ask them about entering, that they were never lucky. Now we want to make it perfectly plain at the start of this contest—there is no luck connected with it.

Over $2,500 in prizes and commission checks are provided for, and of course to share in this free distribution will require a little effort. Nobody gets something for nothing these days. We are giving these prizes as an incentive for folks to help increase our circulation. It is worth that much to us and the prizes are certainly worth anyone's effort.

Several names have been sent in to the campaign manager during the past twenty-four hours from the city proper and from the adjoining towns. From the list of names received so far, it looks as though it will be a merry fight to see whether the leading prizes come to those in Greenville or if they go to some of the folks living out of town. However, it is too early in the campaign to hazard a guess as there are many more names yet to come in, and it may be that the winners are yet to be nominated.

On the list as it now stands are several sterling candidates who will give all a hard fight for leading honors. The picking of the winners when the time comes will all be done by three of the most prominent business and professional men in Pitt County, folks whom everyone knows, and their decision will be final and we know unquestioned.

It is the intention of the campaign manager to publish the first list of candidates about Friday or Saturday and we hope to have all on this list who are still thinking about entering, but who have not quite made up their minds about it. Don't keep thinking about coming in. Send in your name without further delay. All the successful folks in the country are those who act and think quickly. By acting right now you can win the leading prize. Don't keep thinking to yourself that you have no chance.

The winners will be folks right here in Greenville or will come from one of the neighboring small towns and you all have the same opportunity. The supplies are all free and the campaign manager will help all as far as possible. But the big idea is to help yourself. Send in your name and then go out and get any one of the prizes that your heart desires.

Don't lean too much on the support of someone else, but get out and hustle for one of these worthwhile prizes. Friends and relatives will rally to your support in surprising style when they learn that you are anxious to win.

Remember the campaign office is located just over The Daily Reflector, first door on the right hand side going down the hall, and the office hours are from 2 to 8 p. m. Come on up and get acquainted.

THE MUSCLE SHOALS SITUATION

The Manufacturers Record, published at Baltimore, in commenting on Muscle Shoals in its issue of Feb. 14, says:

"The Tennessee River and Muscle Shoals are one of the nation's great assets. The development of hydro-electric possibilities at Muscle Shoals would result in opening a long stretch of Tennessee River for navigation, and thus a two-fold service would be rendered the country. In both respects here is an asset of measureless value which should be utilized not for individual profit alone but for the broadest service to the great stretch of country in which the river and Muscle Shoals are located.

"The advocacy by the Manufacturers Record of the offer by the three Southern power companies, and in connection therewith an offer for the production of nitrates and the manufacture of fertilizers, has attracted widespread attention throughout the country, and voluntary letters have come to us from many sources in enthusiastic praise of this position, urging that the Government should accept this offer in preference to the one made by Henry Ford.

"Mr. Ford's plan has been in our opinion unwise from the beginning. He has demanded a hundred-year lease on Muscle Shoals, and this should not be given to any individual or combination of individuals on earth; for it stretches into three generations the ownership or control of a power of such measureless value. The terms of his offer have always been indefinite, and the Congressional Committee has tried in vain to get him to appear in person and explain in detail his offer, and meet the questions that would be raised. He is asking Congress to transfer Muscle Shoals to him for twice the length of time which water powers are granted by the laws of the land.

"On the other hand, the associated power companies of the South, and some of the leading chemists of the nation, have united in propositions which lift the whole undertaking far beyond anything that has ever been promised or suggested by Mr. Ford, or by any one else. The acceptance of this offer would guarantee the production of nitrates and of fertilizers by men whose ability and whose achievements rank as of national concern, and by the acceptance of this offer this power would be developed to the utmost extent feasible, and by a super-power system be made available for the great stretch of territory from the Carolinas to Mississippi, and from Mobile on the Gulf through Tennessee and the adjoining region. It is an offer fraught with tremendous possibilities for Southern development. Its acceptance would result in concentrating all of the influences and all of the capital back of these power companies and their associates into hastening as rapidly as possible the industrial and agricultural development of the South in order to create a market for this enlarged hydro-electric power development. "The very suggestion stimulates and quickens the thought of every man interested in the broadest utilization of the limitless resources of the South."

DON'T PLAY POLITICS

The two most urgent public questions at present time are tax reduction and dealing with corruption which has been unearthed in official circles in Washington.

President Coolidge feels with all his fellow countrymen a depressing sense of humiliation at the gross betrayal of public interest that has been disclosed.

The taxation question as well as lax or criminal action of officials performing public duty is a problem for both Republicans and Democrats. The people of the whole United States have an interest from the standpoint of lessening tax bills and securing honest administration of public affairs regardless of what party is in power.

The pity is that self-seeking politicians will attempt to use present situation to further political ends rather than to advance the best interest of our government.

We must register our approval of honest public officials and demand tax reduction if we expect to eliminate dishonesty in public office, or increasing tax bills.

"We are only casting bread upon the waters when we boost for our city. We do not need to concern ourselves about who holds title to certain properties. All instrumentalities which minister to the comfort, service and education of our citizens are assets of the city and its people."—Council Bluffs, Iowa, Nonpareil.

HON. LINDSAY C. WARREN FOR CONGRESS

The business men of Greenville or Pitt County whose names appear below heartily endorse Lindsay C. Warren for nomination in the Democratic Primary as the Representative from this, the First District of North Carolina, in Congress.

We believe that in Lindsay C. Warren we have the man of the hour—one whose record is without stain or blemish and one who is broad-minded enough to represent the whole district. His record in the State Senate as well as in the House of Representatives, shows the vigilance and diligence with which he has studied the needs of his constituents.

Lindsay C. Warren is DEPENDABLE—and it is in such times as these, with scandal and shame hovering over the Capitol, that we need men we can trust to safeguard our interests.

The South needs strong men—men with energy and ability to secure larger appropriations for our many needs—to enable us to grow and prosper that we may attain to the ambitious heights our part of the country should reach. If the South is to come into its own, we must have strong men to stand up for us in Congress, and that man is. LINDSAY C. WARREN.

THIS ENDORSEMENT IS PUBLISHED BY THE FRIENDS OF LINDSAY C. WARREN WITHOUT HIS KNOWLEDGE OR SOLICITATION.

 On last Wednesday afternoon, March 5, at 3 o'clock the marriage of Miss Glennie Harrington and Mr. J. E. Brewer was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harrington. Immediately at the appointed hour the bridal party composed of Misses Allie Harrington, Bertha Lee Allen, Messrs. W. H. Moye, Clarence Manning entered the parlor, preceded by the bride and groom. The bride never looked lovelier than on this occasion. She wore a beautiful dress of gray satin with accessories to match and carried a bridal bouquet of brides' roses.
 The ceremony was performed by Rev. V. P. Seville before an improvised altar of ferns and cut flowers. Miss Harrington possesses all of those traits of character that make for her a lady of the highest type of Southern Womanhood. Mr. Brewer has many friends in Greenville and is held in high esteem by those that know him. After a short bridal tour Mr. and Mrs. Brewer will make their home in Greenville. The many handsome presents received show the popularity of the couple. Quite a number of relatives and friends attended the wedding.
Pupils of Greenville Negro School Have An Interest Aycok Mem.
 Tomorrow at the Capital City of Conservative North Carolina an event will take place, that will emphasize the loftiness of character possessed by the state's citizenship. It evidences also the fact that two races in this are united in paying tribute to "Charles Brantley Aycok" who after waging a great campaign for the governorship more bitter, by far than the "Vance and Settle" campaign of 1876 was elected. When first and forwarded it to State Treasurer Lacy and hold his receipt for arrest of negroes among negroes the same. Thus the people must know that Greenville, N. C. has an error assured the race that the duty of the great white race was to regenerate North Carolina and educate and protect all classes.

 He at every turn of public opinion during his administration preached the gospel of universal education. When he left office, he was more generally loved than any previous Negro Governor.
 But to keep history straight, when his last message was spoken on earth and followed the fortunes of Charles Brantley Aycok.
PORCUPINE AS FOOD SAVES LIVES OF MAROONED SAILORS
 Saxon people, not far from the Arctic of the north, never to kill a porcupine except for food, was recalled to old-timers here when four men with two gasoline boats were cast up on a rocky and inhospitable shore on Cook Inlet, on the other side of Kenai peninsula from here, and remained a month before they were rescued. They lived on porcupines and clams. When they were brought off by the halibut boat Jugoslav, they were in tip-top condition.
 "To slay a porcupine wantonly is, in the code of the prospector and hunter, as wicked as to depart from a shelter without replenishing the supply of dry kindling. Porcupine immu-munally was founded on the frequency with which man whose provisions became exhausted in the wilds were succored by the flesh of these animals. The Alaska porcupine, a sluggish being, is easily overtaken by man and succumbs quickly to a clout with a stick.

BALL FANS WATCH FOR SIGN SLOWING UP IN COBB'S WORRY

Detroit.—Ty Cobb manager of the Detroit Tigers, has been attracting the attention of baseball fans since his second year in the American League. That was back in 1906. He joined the Tigers the year before much the same as any recruit breaks into the big leagues, but it did not take the Georgian Peach long to demonstrate that he was quite different from the ordinary rookie.

During the 1905 season Cobb failed to hit in the 300 class. Since then he has not failed to hit in the select class of batters. Next spring the Tiger leader will begin his 20th season with the Detroit team and he is attracting nearly as much attention as he did when he was earning his reputation as the greatest all-round player in the game. However, the attention he now is attracting is a little different. Baseball fans have become accustomed to Cobb batting .300, but now they are asking: "Is Cobb slowing up?" "Will Cobb bat .300 next season?" "Will next season be Cobb's last as an active player?" To the first question the answer is "Yes," without qualification. Baseball players in the major leagues are regarded as old at 35. Few of them ever attain the age of 40 in the big show. Cobb in between those two figures, hence there is no doubt that he has slowed up considerably from the years when it was regarded an ordinary feat for him to steal not only second, but third base.

There is no reason why Cobb should bat .300 next season. He has done it for 18 consecutive seasons and by doing it last year established himself as the only player in the history of the major leagues who has hit for .300 or better for 18 years in a row. The late Captain A. C. Anderson did it for 20 years, but there was a break of two years in each of which he fell below .300.

Whether the next campaign will be Cobb's last as an active player is up to Cobb himself. Judging from his physical condition he should be able to play the outfield for at least three more years, barring accidents.

One of the ten big scenes seen here soon in the New York Musical Comedy, Success VENUS with Nyra Brown and Johnnie Gets.

If friend husband asserts he is going to a lodge meeting next Thursday night and returns home complaining of a stiff neck, just set it down as a fact that he played hockey and spent an interesting three hours witnessing the exposition of feminine loveliness in Geo. E. Wintz's "Venus" at White's Theatre.

What is more, it will be the "Cristal Promenade de Volupte." For those who have grown rusty on their French it may be remarked in plain old United States this means "Glass runway of the Senses."

A huge walk, built entirely of steel and glass, runs out from the stage over the heads of the audience. The double dozen Wintz beauty contingent romp out upon the structure, which by the very material of its construction lends itself to a most intimate visualization of the personable coryphees. Hence, if Pa thinks he caught cold in his neck just figure it out that he had a seat directly beneath the promenade.

As may be gathered from its Gallic name, "Cristal Promenade de Volupte" is an importation from Paris. Mr. Wintz saw it in use at the Folies Begere and immediately arranged to bring it to America. By the arrangements of the lighting effects some of the boldness of the French original has been eliminated.

Nyra Brown and Johnnie Gets are the stars of "Venus," and will be supported by many other prominent metropolitan artists. A rare treat is promised.
