

Accountant's Reports Show Oil Speculation Government Officials

Washington, March 18.—The oil committee resumed its hearings this morning with a double barreled surprise in the form of fresh evidence in oil stock speculations by government officials and further testimony about the $100,000 loaned to Albert B. Fall.

Brokers records submitted by expert accountants showed that Daugherty had had dealings in both Sinclair and Doheny stocks since he entered the Cabinet, that C. Bascom Slem, now secretary to President Coolidge, also bought Doheny stocks before he retired from Congress in 1923 and there were records of dealings in stocks by Senators Curtis, Kansas, West Virginia, and a number of Representatives.

Price McKinney, of Cleveland, testified that former Secretary Fall had sought late last year when the committee was inquiring into his finances, asked him (McKinney) to say he had loaned $100,000 to the former secretary. This was before Fall made the same proposal to Edward B. McLean.

Atty.-Gen. Daugherty, Sens. Curtis, Kansas and Elkins, West Virginia, and C. Bascom Slem, secretary to President Coolidge, are among those public officials who had transactions in Sinclair and Doheny oil stocks at times just before or after the leasing of the naval oil reserves.

The names were disclosed before the Senate oil committee today when the committee called to the stand Louis D. Bond, federal trade accountant, who has been examining the books and records of a number of brokerage houses.

Slem, at the time of his transactions was a member of the House. Other Representatives dealing in the stocks include A. B. Rouse, Kentucky; Wells Goodykoontz, West Virginia; Thomas J. Ryan, New York, and J. H. Himes, Ohio.

Before examining Bond, Chairman Ladd read a letter from Major General Lejeune, commandant of the Marine Corps, saying that the expedition to clear trespassers from the Teapot Dome reserve after it was leased to Harry F. Sinclair cost $1,095.

Attorney General Daugherty bought 100 shares of Pan American, a Doheny company that leased California reserves, and sold them for a profit of $543.50 the accountant said. Daugherty himself had previously disclosed that he had had some dealings in Sinclair stocks both before and after he had entered the Cabinet. His account with W. B. Hibbs and Company, of Washington, was opened in November 1921, Bond said, in his own name and was subsequently changed to W. W. Spaid, member of Hibbs and Co. On October 9, 1922, the Attorney General sold 500 shares of Sinclair Consolidated and on October 27 he purchased an equal amount of the same stock, the witness said.

The accountant testified that Senator Curtis, assistant Republican leader in the Senate, bought 100 shares of Sinclair Consolidated February 23, 1922 and the records show it was a straight purchase.

Senator Elkins bought 8,700 shares of Sinclair Consolidated on November 16, 1922, at a cost of $302,355. He sold 7,700 shares of it on May 24, 1923 at $272,024 and took straight delivery of the remaining 1,000 shares.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Regular meeting of the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Baraca class room of the Memorial Baptist Church. A special program has been arranged and every member is urged to be present.

Cuba Draws American Tourists.

Havana.—Cuba has been popular with tourists this year. The traffic so far has been 30 percent greater this season than last, and last winter was one of the best on record.

Most of the visitors are Americans who come over from Florida. As a rule they spend their time in Havana only a few of them going out to some nearby sugar mill or tobacco plantation.

SEN NEELY ASSAILS SEN LODGE'S STAND

Washington, March 18.—Debate over the oil inquiry, the Coolidge-McLean telegrams and the possible political consequences all broke out afresh in the Senate today when in his maiden speech Senator Neely, of West Virginia, assailed Senator Lodge for his stand that the president should be exempt from criticism, and declared that President Coolidge must abide by the unhappy choice of Edward B. McLean as one of his advisers.

Reviewing hostile editorial comment on the oil inquiry, he said that it served to show the intimate connection between big business and corrupt politics. The attack of certain newspapers upon the Senate clearly indicates that their interests are being hurt by the continued exposures, he declared. Lodge's assertions that the president should not be subjected to such attacks as those which he has recently undergone were characterized as efforts to stifle free speech in the United States Senate. The West Virginia Senator declared that such an attitude as that of the Republican leader is similar to that intolerant colony that expelled Roger Williams for his religious beliefs.

Georgia and Auburn Universities May Be On Carolina Schedule

Chapel Hill, March 18.—The University of Georgia and Auburn may find places on Carolina's football schedule for 1925 and 1926, according to Charles T. Woolen, graduate manager of athletics, who has just returned from Atlanta. Mr. Woolen was in Atlanta for the Southern Basketball Tournament and while there attended an executive committee meeting on the Southern Intercollegiate Conference.

For the past three years Georgia and Carolina have desired to meet each other on the gridiron, but graduate managers at the two institutions have found it impossible to arrange their schedules for staging a combat between the Bull Dogs and the Tar Heels.

While no definite announcement to that effect has been made, some radical departures from the schedule of the last few years may be forthcoming in 1925, it is believed, with the proposed games with Georgia and Auburn as two new attractions.

The 1924 schedule has been completed, possible football relations with Auburn and Georgia will not affect it.

House Passes Soldiers' Bonus Bill by Big Vote

Washington, March 18.—The House today passed the Soldiers' Bonus Bill, the vote coming after 40 minutes of debate under the rules requiring a two-thirds majority and barring amendments.

The vote indicated that there are enough votes in the House to override a presidential veto should it occur.

As the Bill goes to the Senate for adoption it provides for a paid up endowment life insurance policy and cash payment for those veterans not entitled to more than $50 adjusted compensation.

Adjusted service credits are figured on the same basis as in the two former bills passed by the House, $1 per day for each day's service at home and $1.25 per day for overseas duty, the first 60 days not counting.

Williamston Nominated Republican Candidate Congress 7th District

Lexington, March 18.—Carter Williamson, of Yadkinville, was nominated for Congress from the Seventh North Carolina district by the Republican district convention here today. W. C. Hammer, of Asheboro, Democrat, is the present Congressman from the district.

The convention voted full endorsement of President Coolidge's administration and pledged support of the party in the district.

MEN AND WOMEN WHO FIGURE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

Below: MAL DAUGHERTY, MRS. MC HAMILTON & GASTON B. MEANS

Gaston B. Means, former Department of Justice investigator, told an amazing story of alleged bribery to a Senatorial Investigating Committee in Washington. Mal Daugherty, Washington Court House, O., banker, was summoned as a witness before the same committee, which is investigating the actions of his brother, Attorney General Daugherty. Tewfik Pasha, Minister of Home Affairs in the Nationalist Government of Turkey, is reported to have been assassinated. With the consent of his mother, Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, world famous architect, has instituted proceedings to have himself declared sane and released from the Pennsylvania Hospital for Mental and Nervous Diseases in Philadelphia. Thaw is now in his mother's Pittsburgh home on parole. Mrs. Anne Urquhart Stillman, wife of James A. Stillman, former president of the National City Bank of New York, America's greatest financial institution, won a signal victory in the divorce suit instituted by her husband, who sought to show that Baby Guy Stillman was the son of Fred Beauvais, a Canadian Indian guide. The courts have ruled that the child is legitimate and that Stillman, himself guilty of misconduct, cannot have a divorce. Mrs. Mary E. Hamilton, head of New York City's women police, has picked a dozen of her best-looking operatives and started them out on a crusade against masher. She ordered them to scratch up every male flirt, and asked every woman approached to do the same thing. If her finger nails aren't sharp, she urged women to use hairpins.

New York Herald and Tribune Merge

New York, March 18.—The New York Herald and New York Tribune, two of the nation's oldest newspapers, published their last separate editions today. Tomorrow they will appear as the New York Herald-Tribune.

The Herald was sold yesterday by Frank A. Munsey to J. Ogden Reid, owner of the Tribune for a consideration not disclosed with a provision that the name of the Herald be perpetuated in the merged property.

Coolidge and Cabinet Urge Assistance for The Wheat Growers

Washington, March 18.—President Coolidge and his cabinet decided today to ask the Agriculture Corporation recently formed with a capital of $10,000,000 to assist the wheat growers of the Northwest in diversifying their crops.

$183 Weekly For First Prize Winner

The returns are certainly large for those who use their spare time to advantage in The Daily Reflector's $2,500 prize campaign. The candidate who is so fortunate as to win the Buick automobile, the first prize which is to be awarded on April 19th will have made money at the rate of nearly $183.00 per week, and all this during spare time at a pleasant occupation—the occupation of voting for themselves and making new acquaintances.

Second prize will have earned for the winner an equivalent of about $100.00 per week for the six weeks work as the Ford Coupe, which is second prize, sells for $597 at the Flanagan Buggy Co., and the winner of the $250.00 Bed Room Set will be nearing the $43.90 a week class. How many positions in Greenville will pay that much money? And how many of them will allow a spare time arrangement like this campaign offers? The beauty of winning a campaign of this kind is because it can be carried on without any interference with one's regular occupation. In other words the campaign is a source of additional income as well as of great entertainment and new friendship.

Several new candidates have entered their names within the last twenty-four hours, and have started out in earnest, and it is expected when they report that they will have accomplished the results necessary to put them up with the leaders. A few more names have been added to the list since the last publication, but this has in no way increased the number of candidates now listed as several names have been taken from the list who have expressed a desire not to run. Just as get in and get your campaign started as the campaign manager can't.

German Actors Idle in U. S.

Berlin.—The Actors' Association has issued a warning to theatrical performers against going to the United States unless they have sufficient funds to tide them over several months. The warning followed the receipt of many hard luck letters from German actors now in the United States and unable to get work.

Angora Restricts Foreign Boats

Constantinople.—Motor launches and houseboats belonging to foreigners have been prohibited from operating in Turkish waters in accordance with the Angora law restricting foreign ships. Americans have asked the captain of the port to permit their launches and houseboats to sail in the Golden Horn and in the Bosphorus.

Mellon and Weeks Subpoenaed Today In Daugherty Probe

REP. CONVENTION OPENS TOMORROW

Raleigh, March 18.—Delegates were arriving today for the Republican state convention that opens here tomorrow.

The convention will be called to order by W. G. Branham, chairman of the Republican State Executive committee, as temporary chairman. Thomas W. Miller, of Washington, will deliver the keynote speech. In addition to this the convention will adopt a platform and elect delegates to the National convention to be held in Cleveland.

John J. Parker, of Monroe, Republican gubernatorial candidate in the last election is slated to succeed C. A. Reynolds, of Colfax, as National committeeman from North Carolina. Republican leaders stated today.

Four delegates at large to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland will be chosen.

Among the early arrivals are J. J. Britt, Asheville, Congressman from the Tenth district, I. M. Meekins, Elizabeth City, candidate for gubernatorial nomination, W. G. Branham, of Durham, Thomas W. Miller, of Washington and C. A. Reynolds of Colfax.

The Fourth district Republican convention will be held in the court house here this afternoon. Delegates to the National convention will be elected.

K. T. Futrell Gives Facts Concerning Red Cross Donation

Executive Committee, Pitt County Chapter Red Cross, Greenville, N. C., Gentlemen:

I herewith enclose a report of the activities of work made possible by your appropriation of $600 made at the February meeting 1923 for Corrective Health Work with Indigent Children Under 16 years of age. Since there are two children at Gastonia at the present time and seven children being treated by Dr. Paul Jones at Farmville and one or two of the children recently treated at the State Orthopaedic Hospital may have to be returned for re-examination, I am unable to state the exact expenses of work completed and in process of completion. This makes seven children treated at hospital in Gastonia. Twenty-seven treated at clinics. About $475 have been expended to date and the cases at the hospital and the work now being done by Dr. Jones at Farmville not yet closed and paid for. Since two cases at Gastonia were financed by relatives no case record was made for them. By my assistance expense of travel etc, including free beds at hospital, was made possible for them. Therefore case records for 23 children have been completed.

I wish to state this work has very pleasant and the children treated have been very greatly benefited. Without a single exception, so far as I have been able to learn, not one child operated on for adenoids and tonsils has been absent from school on account of being sick as was the case last year in so many of the adenoid and tonsil cases. Every case has been investigated before being handled and an appropriation was made where the greatest good could be accomplished.

I wish to state that I have a record of about 35 children in need of clinical attention for Corrective Health Work at present but the funds on hand from the original appropriation is not sufficient to even contract this work. The worst cases of Orthopaedic clinical work has been handled and the cases in view at present will not cost as much per child as has been the case in handling the cases completed or in process of completion.

Respectfully Submitted,
Signed, K. T. FUTRELL,
Supt. Public Welfare Pitt County,
Greenville, N. C.,
March 15, 1924.

Washington, March 18.—Subpoenas were issued today for Secretary Mellon and Secretary Weeks for appearance before the Senate committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty.

The two secretaries will be questioned regarding government contracts with the Standard Aircraft corporation in connection with which Gaston B. Means testified that he had received $100,000 for the late Jesse Smith to stop legal actions. Commissioners Hands and Blair will also be summoned presumably for questioning about Means' assertion that he "got Secretary Mellon" in connection with the issuance of liquor permits.

Alfred R. Urion, Washington lawyer named in the light film deals, will also be subpoenaed and also H. H. Votaw, superintendent of federal prisons and relative by marriage to President Harding.

William A. Orr, former secretary to Governor Whitman, one of the parties in the alleged light film deals, was the first witness in the Daugherty investigation today.

Orr said he was present in answer to a subpoena and not to volunteer a statement regarding the film affair, but after hearing Holdridge's testimony yesterday he told Paul Highland, one of Attorney General Daugherty's counsels that he wanted to testify. He did not recollect asking Highland to force Senator Wheeler to put him on the stand, he said. The witness stated that he was sore because Holdridge had classed everyone in the film deal as crooks.

Scanning a note book, he referred to the testimony of Fred C. Conroy, New York film producer, he denied that he (Orr) had represented Smith. "I wish to deny that Jesse Smith had any membership in this picture," he said.

Another Oil Inquiry Urged By Fletcher

Washington, March 18.—Another oil inquiry was urged today by Senator Fletcher, of Florida, who recommended the repeal of the Watson Act of March 9 1923 conferring certain oil rights in the bed of Red River the boundary line between Texas and Oklahoma.

The Watson Act was passed during the closing act of the last session of Congress and was signed by President Harding just before the close of the session notwithstanding the recommendation by Attorney General Daugherty that it be vetoed.

Knuston and Hull Given Preliminary Hearing, Arlington

Washington, March 18.—Representative Harold Knuston, Minnesota, and Leroy H. Hull, 29 years old government employee, had a preliminary hearing in Arlington, Va., court this morning on grave charges preferred by officers who arrested them on March 9 on the Virginia road just outside Washington.

Knuston appeared in court accompanied by his counsel and Representative Newton and Larsen, of Minnesota. Knuston had entered a plea of not guilty last week and in a statement declared that he was the victim of a terrible mistake and that he was wholly innocent of the charge.

John Wise, one of the officers who made the arrest was one of the witnesses at the hearing. He testified that he and another traffic officer came upon Knuston and Hull parked about 150 feet from the road and that Knuston had offered to put up his automobile as collateral until he could go to Washington and obtain $100, but told him that there was nothing doing, that he would have to go to jail.

Arriving at the jail, Wise testified, Knuston made further offers to settle outside of court and even tendered a blank check telling the officer to name the amount.

a private wire between Palm Beach and Washington, so that Mr. McLean could "have easy and quick access to the White House." An explanation has been given of this telegram saying that the sender had misunderstood the conversation upon which the telegram was based. The public will accept this for what it is worth.

Other telegrams, however, do not admit of such ready explanation. One of these concerns the employment of one Smithers, the official White House telegrapher, to operate the McLean private wire; another is from F. W. Stirling, a secret service man on duty at the White House wiring to Mr. McLean the address of a man who is said to be employed to guard the McLean children. Another is from H. E. McKenna, chief door-keeper for C. Bascom Slemm, Private Secretary to the President, notifying McLean that Mr. Slemm is leaving that night for Palm Beach. Still another from Ira E. Bennett, an editorial writer on the Washington Post, to notify Mr. McLean that he has seen the "Principal" and that there would be "no rocking of the boat, nor any Cabinet resignation." Mr. Bennett named Senator Curtis, the Republican "whip" as "Principal" which Senator Curtis indignantly denied.

Then there is the visit of Secretary Slemm to Palm Beach, his meetings with McLean and Fall, and the fact that he was corresponding during this time with the White House. According to McLean, "Slemm went to Palm Beach on McLean's invitation, but Slemm testified he only met McLean accidentally and casually."

There could have been no more startling climax to this situation than the messages of President Coolidge himself to McLean. They show that McLean is still consulted in District of Columbia affairs. They show that McLean's conflicting stories of the "loan" to Fall had not made him personal non-grata at the White House, because one of the messages was sent after McLean had told Senator Walsh the story of giving three checks to Fall, which he could not produce, nor even the stubs. They show further that McLean's social connection with the White House occupants remains unbroken. They account in part for the subservieny of White House employees to McLean's interests. They were the links that completed the chain between the White House and Palm Beach.

THE WHITE HOUSE AND PALM BEACH

Almost as great in its intensity as the shock felt by the public at the revelation of the Doheny-Sinclair loans to former Secretary Fall in the naval oil scandal has been the shock experienced at the disclosures made in telegrams showing the close and numerous connections between the White House and Palm Beach, at which latter place Edward B. McLean has been spending most of the winter months.

Mr. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post and Cincinnati Enquirer, which are recognized as the official mouthpieces of the Republican National Administration, was also the social arbiter of the administration to which he played the host on many occasions. That the White House employes as well as members of his staff, retainers and satraps, regarded him as an integral part of the Republican national administration is shown by the numerous messages, some of which were in the secret code of the Department of Justice, keeping him informed of developments in the investigation of the oil scandal and in the movements of persons connected therewith.

The most interesting and important of these telegrams are those that show a direct connection between the Palm Beach abode of McLean and the White House. One of these telegrams had reference to the installation of

CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF COUNTY COURT

To the people of Pitt County:
After mature deliberation, I have consented to become a candidate for the office of Judge of the County Court of Pitt County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary. I seek the office not for the gratification of selfish ambitions, but opportunity to honorably and faithfully serve the best interest and welfare of the people of my native county.

In presiding over the County Court with this ideal in view it shall be my purpose:

1. To extend to all attorneys at law, and other officers of the court, proper respect and courtesy, with equal rights to all and special privileges to none;
2. To give all persons and parties a fair and impartial trial to the best of my ability and according to law;
3. And generally to conduct the court and administer the law in a fair, equal and impartial manner to the best of my ability and in accordance with what I conscientiously believe to be right and just under all the circumstances.

This March 13, 1924.

Man Believed to Be Escaped Convict Held in Kentucky

Greenville, Ky., March 17. — A man believed by county officials here to be Gerald Chapman, escaped convict from federal prison in Atlanta where he was serving a 25 years' term for a mail robbery in New York, is held here today for arrival of federal authorities. Government agents in Louisville are expected to come here for the prisoner.

The man says that his name is Charles Chapman but denies that he is the man wanted. He has admitted a prison record and officers say that his physical appearance tallies with that of the mail robber.

Boys Can't See Baseball Games Without Money in Asheville

Asheville, March 18.—Black shadows were cast over the great American professional sport insofar as the small boy is concerned here when the City Council passed an ordinance prohibiting the "peeping through knot holes to see a baseball game" and also declared "illegal the climbing of fences for the purpose of securing entrance to the ball field without paying the price of admission." The City Council of this city termed the ordinance a "protection to the new South Atlantic Baseball Association."

Disagreeable parts of the ordinance to the small boys are those which prohibit the throwing of rocks, the seeking of vantage points on high grounds; using the city property to see the game without entering the gate; and sliding down the banks.

The ordinance provides that it shall be illegal to: Peep through knot holes to see the game; seek vantage points on high ground in order to evade paying the necessary fifty cents to see the game; climbing over fences; Betting or gambling in any way; sitting on city property to witness games without entering by the gate; drinking intoxicating liquors or beverages; using profanity; breaking bottles; throwing rocks or other missiles; scattering refuse about the grounds; walking on the grass; destroying shrubbery; climbing up or sliding down any bank; defacing building, fences or chairs; parking in city park or on the streets adjacent to or near the park except under police regulation. Fines of $25 for each offense are provided.

Scores Teachers As Diffident, Ashamed

London.—Schoolmasters, "shy and retiring souls that they are," ought to buck up and be arrogant and aggressive and take hold of the world, for they are the most important people in the whole civilized community says H. G. Wells.

When Mr. Wells delivered himself of these opinions, in an address to the annual meeting of the Incorporated Association of Assistant Masters in Secondary Schools, some of the assembled teachers applauded and others laughed.

But Mr. Wells did not laugh. "I want to teach shamelessness to school teachers," he said. "I want to teach them arrogance and aggression. Arrogance and the disposition to take hold of the world is not a characteristic of all school-masters. A lot of them seem to be unconscious of the amount and range of their functions. They don't seem to realize that the world is not a going concern, but a finished affair in which they have a very subordinate and supplementary part. They are a shy and specialized people who keep together even on their holidays. Then Mr. Wells turned his thoughts to this "new and better world," this "reconstructed human life" that "highminded people" talk so much about these days. Earth's Crest Weak In Number of Spots, Says Oregon Savant

Eugene, Ore.—There are several especially weak places in the crust of the earth, said Dr. Warren D. Smith, professor of the University of Oregon here, in a discussion of earthquakes.

"One of these," he explained, "is the Straits of Messina, between Sicily and Italy, where in 1908 a very destructive earthquake took place. Another is the junction of the Pacific arc with the Indo-Malayan arc. This is in the region of Java and the Philippines. Some exceedingly devastating earthquakes have taken place in those regions. Another place is the Chilean coast and still another is along the San Andreas Rift in California.

"Perhaps the most unstable part of the earth's crust today is in the northwest part of the Pacific, bordering the great Tuscaraora Deep. A broad belt of folded rocks includes the entire archipelago of Japan, the Philippines and New Guinea in the western Pacific, and this belt runs right around the Pacific ocean. This is the first major feature of the Pacific.

"East of this region is the great trough known as the Tuscaraora Deep. To the south of this, just east of the Philippines, is a still greater deep, which is a continuation of the one east of Japan. With a depth of slightly over six miles, this is the deepest place known in any ocean. To the east of this trough is a submerged mountain range, in fact several, but one, in particular which apparently is rising and some day will form a new festoon of islands paralleling Japan and the Philippines.

"According to the latest investigations in the Pacific, great thrusts, to accommodations in the outer shell of the earth, are taking place in the direction of the Asiatic continent."

Radio Broadcast for Japan. Tokyo.—Radio broadcasting, an old story to Americans, has yet to be introduced to Japan, but the introduction is promised to come soon. Two Nagoya millionaires, Kimnosuke Kanno and Tominosuke Kadono, have applied to the government for license to form and operate the Nagoya Radiophone Company, capitalized at 800,000 yen. The company expects to serve all central Japan with daily news, market and weather reports, later adding lectures and concerts.

Street Car Transfers Wasted. Los Angeles, Cal.—More than 90,000 street railway transfers are wasted daily, according to the Los Angeles Railway. Its figures show that during one month 9,886,353 transfers were issued, of which 7,911,975 were used and 2,794,380 unused or wasted.

"The New Shopping Center"

A splendid new store for you to shop in is now officially dedicated to your service

FOR more than a year we have been looking forward to the time when workmen would have ceased their hammering and sawing and left with their tools; when the new store would be completed and we could invite you to come in and inspect the South's greatest and handsomest department store.

Now that time has come. This splendid new store is complete. The last nail has been driven, the last fixture is in place and we are ready for the long and eagerly anticipated opening.

A whole week of shopping days, March 24th to 29th inclusive, has been set aside for you, who do not live in Richmond, to visit the store. That week Miller & Rhoads will hold open house for visitors from out of town. Come in and let us show you the nicest place to shop you have ever seen.

What a transformation you will find in the whole store! More than half of it is new—new from roof to basement, new fixtures and new merchandise. And the old building, too, has been rejuvenated. You will hardly know it—refurnished, redecorated and beautified from top to bottom. It is practically a new store from Broad Street to Grace Street, from Fifth Street to Sixth Street.

We are justly proud of our store. We feel that you, too, have a right to be proud of it. For without your loyal friendship and the loyalty of thousands of friends throughout the Virginias and Carolinas, it would not have been possible.

The week of March 24th will be a week of dedication of the greater Miller & Rhoads Store to the service of the public, to the comfort of its customers and to the principle of fair dealing. You will find here the same standards of quality and value that have always characterized Miller & Rhoads Store. But you will find it a far more comfortable and pleasant place to shop for the things you want.

Spring styles lend color and enchantment to the busy streets of the old capital. It is the most delightful time of year to visit Richmond. Plan to spend at least a day or two in this, one of the most beautiful cities of the South. And spring, too, is a delightful time of year to visit Miller & Rhoads. You will find it convenient to make your headquarters here. Check your bags and parcels here, rest in comfortable rest-rooms, lunch in pleasant tea-rooms and shop at your leisure. In the new store, just as in the old, there is a friendly welcome and a willingness to serve.

If you can't get what you want in your own locality, try

SCHOOL BOND ISSUE A VITAL QUESTION FOR PARENT-TEACHER ASSO.

At the sixth meeting of the Evans Street Parent-Teacher Association Friday afternoon a large number of patrons were present.

One of the most important topics under discussion was the bond issue. They went on record as being most hearty in favor of it as both the patrons and the teachers of that school realize the urgent need of better school facilities. Under the present crowded conditions the work can not be done effectively. The enrollment of that school this year has been 710 which is more than twice the number for which the building was intended. We feel sure if the town could realize the necessity of more adequate school buildings there would be no question about the bond issue being carried by a large majority.

MISSSES WINSLOW ENTERTAIN JUVENILE MUSIC CLUB

On Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the Juvenile Music Club was entertained at the home of Louise and Elizabeth Winslow.

After a short business session a study of the Violin and Victrola was entered into with much interest. Several Victrola records were used as illustrations, and at the close of the discussion Miss Wedmore delighted the class with a sweet violin number entitled Dialogue by Drda.

A musical program followed in which the following took part: Ruth Davis, Mary W. Davenport, Julia Brown, Elizabeth Winslow, Paul Fitzgerald, Louise Clark and Hazel Carson. Readings were given by Lillian Hardee and Imogene Ricks.

At the close of the program, hot chocolate and cakes were served by the hostess and the class voted the afternoon a most enjoyable one. The club will meet again on April 9th, with Hulda and Jack Nobles.

Attention Pythians.
We are meeting twice a week now, Tuesday and Thursday. The session tonight opens promptly at 7:30 o'clock, work in second rank. Every member is urged to be present.

SMALL FIRE AT POWELL'S

Yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock the fire company was called to the dry cleaning plant of Powell's Cleaning, Dye Works to extinguish a small fire, originating from static electricity in one of the dry cleaning machines.

Barnhill, colored employe of the plant had just finished cleaning several suits of clothes and dresses, and was taking them out of the dry cleaner. He had taken all out except one suit of clothes and a dress when all at once the fire blazed up, burning his arms and face, not seriously.

The damage, said Mr. Powell, did not exceed $250.00, which was fully covered by insurance.

GETTING TOO FAT? TRY THIS; REDUCE

Try this—reduce. Who who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome you will be wise to follow this suggestion, when is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your Druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave. Detroit, Mich.

By doing this you will be safe from harmful drugs and be able to reduce steadily and easily, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise. Warren Drug Co.

If You Need A Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfil the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost ever case it shows excellent results. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for also at all drug stores.

Best for Rest KINGSDOWN MATTRESSES and SPRINGS

Take rest; a field that has rested gives a bountiful crop. —Ovid.

When you use a nerve cell, you exhaust some of its stored up energy. When you allow it to rest, it stores up new energy in place of what has been used.

Night after night spent on uncomfortable mattresses and springs breaks down health, spoils good disposition and keeps you from doing your best.

KINGSDOWN Mattresses and Springs are built to conform naturally to the curves of the body, allowing complete relaxation of every muscle. You rest—and nature repairs.

A patented adjustable hanger; a heavy steel center frame wire to prevent wobbling; 96 double-deck steel coils; crossed helical top springs that allow freedom of action to each coil are some of the features of KINGSDOWN "The Spring Supreme".

The KINGSDOWN Mattress is made of layers of fine, downy white cotton felt, scientifically placed. It is covered with high grade ticking.

You owe it to yourself, if you're not getting Restful Sleep, to buy KINGSDOWN TODAY. We have them on display. Come in.

THE M.B.C. MATTRESS COMPANY, GREENVILLE, N. C.

RULES AND CONDITIONS

Any man or woman of good reputation over sixteen years of age, in Greenville or surrounding territory may become a candidate.

No employee of The Daily Reflector or member of his immediate family is eligible.

Candidates may enter their own names or be nominated by friends without any cost.

The name of a person who places a candidate in nomination will not be divulged under any circumstances.

The campaign manager reserves the right to reject any nominations without giving any reason for doing so.

Votes are obtained either by being clipped from the paper or by procuring paid subscriptions to The Daily Reflector.

Votes cannot be transferred or purchased.

In the event of a typographical error it is understood that neither the newspaper nor the campaign manager shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction on discovery of the same.

Subscriptions may be procured anywhere. All subscriptions must be paid in advance in order to vote.

Every participant in the campaign has an equal chance of winning any one of the seven prizes on the list.

In the event of a tie, prizes of equal value and identical with the one tied for will be given.

No candidate will be allowed to pay for any subscription or any part of any subscription in order to secure the same in competition with another candidate.

All subscriptions must be turned in to the campaign manager within 3 days from the time such subscription is secured. Penalty for holding subscriptions past this limit will be severe.

This campaign will and must be a fair and square proposition, with those securing the most votes, according to the rules of the campaign, winning the prizes. No sharp practice of any kind will be allowed under any circumstances.

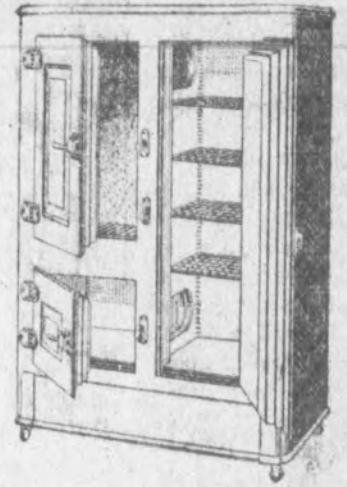

The campaign manager reserves the right to make any ruling which may be, in his opinion, necessary for the success of the contest.

The campaign manager reserves the right to eject any candidate from the campaign at any time if after being given due warning such candidate continues to violate any rules of the campaign or to circulate any unfounded rumors which may tend to mislead the public or the other participants. In such a case votes will be cancelled.

The campaign manager will decide all questions which may arise during the course of the campaign and his decision must be final. Contestants by entering this campaign thereby agree to abide by the rules of the campaign and all rulings which the campaign manager may make.

No money will be accepted for votes under any circumstances unless accompanied by a bona-fide subscription to The Daily Reflector.

BARACA CLASS OF MEMORIAL BAPTIST HOST AT RECEPTION

Have as Guests Glad Girls and Philathea Classes

The Baraca class of the Memorial Baptist Church was host on last evening at a most delightful reception complimentary to the Philathea and Glad Girls classes, the evening's entertainment being the result of a three cornered contest in which the Glad Girls and Philatheas were winners.

The Sunday School rooms, en suite, were appropriately and artistically decorated with jonquils, pine boughs and magnolias, carrying out the color scheme of yellow and green. Circle number one of the Aid Society had charge of the decorating and it could not have been improved upon.

Upon arrival the guests were given a most cordial welcome by Misses Louise Wilkins, Clara P. Perry, Mary Holt, and Mr. John Ivey Smith, who introduced them to the receiving line in which were Rev. and Mrs. Leland W. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Plemmons, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Ellen, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Gorman, Mrs. O. L. Joyner and Mr. H. L. Smith.

From the receiving line the guests passed from room to room and were received and welcomed by Miss Ernestine Forbes and Mr. June Rose; Miss Nannie Bowling, Mr. F. R. Elmore; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lee; Miss Mary Burton and Dr. A. M. Schultz; Miss Evelyn Smith and Mr. Frank Rice; Miss Josie Barnes and Mr. Julian White; Miss Macie Southall and Mr. Herbert Waldrop, Mrs. Albion Dunn and Mrs. Loula Fleming.

Dr. C. J. Ellen, teacher of the Baraca class acted as master of ceremonies, introducing first, Rev. Leland W. Smith, who in a few appropriate words, delivered the address of welcome. This was responded to, in an attractive manner, by Mrs. J. B. Spilman, teacher of the Glad Girls class.

After invocation by Dr. T. H. Flemmons, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Mrs. George Woodward, Miss Maggie Doughty, Mrs. Pattie Forbes, Mrs. R. J. Cobb, Mrs. Mary Fleming, Miss Ward Moore, Mrs. Earle Carter, Mrs. C. C. Coppage, Mrs. W. L. Hall, Mrs. R. T. Burnette, Mrs. S. E. Gates, Mrs. J. P. Moss, Mrs. Ernest Pittman, Miss Nell Lawrence, Mrs. Garner and Mrs. John Hodges, served a tempting three course luncheon which consisted by chicken salad, tomatoes with mayonnaise, saltines and pickles; block cream and home-made cake; black coffee, cheese and crackers.

Mrs. L. A. Stroud, representing the Philatheas toasted the Glad Girls being responded to by Miss Morris, of Newport News, Va., on behalf of the girls. Both toasts were splendid and brought forth much applause. Miss Morris then delighted the guests with a solo.

J. B. Kittrell, representing the Baraca class, in his usual witty way, toasted the Glad Girls, and was responded to by Miss Barnhardt, of Salisbury, N. C.

After the toasts the guests sang "Smiles," which had been written especially for the occasion and which was dedicated to the Glad Girls. Mr. P. K. Miles, teacher of the Philatheas class delivered a most inspiring address on, "Esprit de Corps," and urged a greater spirit of devotion, and interest in the Sunday school work. Mr. Miles is deeply interested in those things which make for a better church and knowing that the Sunday school is the beginning point he emphasized the importance of same and appealed to all present to co-operate and make the Sunday school better than ever.

Mr. H. L. Smith, superintendent of the Sunday school introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Sentelle, superintendent of public instruction of Edgecombe county, who for a short while held the audience almost spell bound with his inspiring address. He commented upon the growth of Greenville along industrial and educational lines and brought out the fact that he was proud of the progress which the city is making. He also congratulated the Philatheas and Glad Girls for the record which they had made stating that he was glad that the time had come when social affairs could be given in the churches. He touched briefly upon the morals of the present age showing how each generation had had its weak and strong points.

Mr. Sentelle has a broad conception of what Sunday school work should be and he urged co-operation along all lines of church work. His address was greatly enjoyed and furnished much valuable information to the large audience.

FIRST BIG ROLE FOR BABY PEGGY IN CROOK DRAMA

THE DARLING OF NEW YORK Starring BABY PEGGY A UNIVERSAL-JEWEL

There must be several dozen children of more or less prominence in the motion picture field, but every once in a while public fancy becomes so centered around a particular child player that it is heralded as a star.

The producers, quick to grasp this sentiment, immediately capitalize it to the satisfaction of the motion picture public. For the public has undoubtedly its favorites among child players as well as among grown-ups and insists on seeing them in featured roles.

This demand on the part of the public, it would appear, has brought about the transfer of Baby Peggy, heroine of Century comedies, to the starring role in a Universal-Jewel production, "The Darling of New York," at White's Theatre Wednesday.

James Gorham to Roberta Smith, both of Greenville.

Deaths of Transfer.

The following deaths of transfer have been filed since last report: H. W. Turnage and wife to Frank Thompson, consideration $750. H. W. Turnage and wife to Nelson Hopkins, consideration $200. S. T. Hooker and wife to Frank Thompson, consideration $300. Elijah Edwards and wife to R. D. Edwards, consideration $10. B. L. and S. T. Ruth Carson et al to Lester Brown, consideration $230. I. H. James and wife to R. W. Vainright, consideration $4000.

College composed of Misses Jeanette Wedmore, Rosaline Fair and Marjorie Snowden, furnished delightful music throughout the entirety of the evening.

Before departing the guests gave a rising vote of thanks to the orchestra and the Ladies Aid Society.

One of the most enjoyable musical selections of the evening was rendered by a quintette of College girls. The Baraca class proved an ideal host and the hour for departure came all too soon. The Philatheas and Glad Girls enjoy being honor guests so much that they are determined that if the Baraca ever get up "nerve" again to challenge them, that they will leave nothing undone to be victors.

The reception was one of the most delightful ever given in the church and was attended by a large number of guests.

RED CROSS HELD INTERESTING MEET HERE ON MONDAY

Miss Moxley Gives Data on Work Throughout County

The monthly meeting of the Pitt County Chapter of the American Red Cross convened in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Greenville yesterday morning, with chairman H. E. Austin, presiding.

The executive secretary, Miss Jane Moxley, gave her report, which showed that the interest of the organization has been steadily looked after during the past thirty days.

Miss Allie McNeil, Field Representative of the American Red Cross for Eastern North Carolina, was with Miss Moxley for one week during which time various points in the county were touched and the different Red Cross leaders communicated with. As a result of this week's visit by Miss McNeil, Miss Moxley is confidently expecting some plans partially agreed on to materialize.

It was stated by Miss Moxley that Farmville had practically decided to employ a full-time Red Cross Public Health Nurse, which, if carried through, would take over all Red Cross activities at that point.

Bethel, according to information given, will conduct its future Red Cross work through a specially appointed Civic Improvement Committee. The Red Cross Committee will affiliate with town officers for a program of general beautification including Clean-Up Campaign and Rat Killing Drive. Prizes will be awarded through the schools in this work. Too much credit cannot be given Miss Mabel Barnhill, who has taken an active part from the very beginning.

Superintendent of county schools, R. G. Fitzgerald, has agreed to have First Aid in the different high schools next fall is satisfactory arrangements can be made.

The pond, at the Greenville Country Club, which proved such a delightful rendezvous for the Life Saving Corps during the summer of 1922, according to an announcement by H. A. White, will be tendered the Red Cross for similar activities for just one week during the approaching summer. Mr. White stated that the motor was presented to the directors of the County Club Saturday and this special arrangement was made. Miss Moxley expressed her deep appreciation for this courtesy and said that entire arrangements will be made at an early date. A. B. Corey, chairman of Life Saving Corps, will conduct the class and Captain David Yates of the Southern Division will also likely be present.

Probably the most interesting report, from the standpoint of accomplishment, was given by K. T. Futrell. Mr. Futrell has been working with the Red Cross in certain phases of corrective health work and the results recorded are of such a nature as to move the deep emotions of all Pitt county citizens.

Mr. Futrell's letter, accompanying report, appears as a separate article the columns of this paper. Also to acquaint the public with the type of cases handled, from time to time, brief accounts will appear in the columns of this paper.

Those attending the above meeting: Chairman, H. E. Austin, A. B. Ellington, Mrs. Bruce E. Beasley, K. T. Futrell, Dr. W. I. Wooten, H. A. White, Mrs. R. Williams, Miss Jane Moxley and H. L. Smith.

Finds Her "Dead" Baby in Blackmail Plot.

MISS MAZIE DRING.

After the World War, when she was a nurse with the British Army in Flanders, Miss Mazie Dring came to America to marry an American she had met in France. He deserted her when he learned she was to become a mother, and she gave her baby to a Chicago woman, who later told her it was dead. Recently attorneys for Joseph Baum, wealthy Kansas City, Mo., packer, informed her the baby was alive and was being used to attempt to blackmail Baum. Miss Dring has her baby back and the police are seeking the other woman.

Bombing of Cities Seen As Feature of Next War

Cleveland — Belligerent nations will not try to kill enemy soldiers in the next war, Benedict Crowell, assistant secretary of war under former President Wilson, declared here in a recent address.

"The League of Nations is failing," declared Mr. Crowell. "The nation or group of nations which enters the next war adequately equipped with tanks, gas and airplanes, will win a quick and probably decisive victory. In the next war, governments will use sneezing or laughing gas, or anesthetics, to put men temporarily out of the fighting. Death dealing gases were used less and less as the last war progressed and that shows the tendency. A high ranking German officer said after the armistice that it was General 'Tank' and not the genius of Marshal Foch, that turned the tide against the Germans. 'Airplanes will jump over armies and attack the directing brains behind. I believe that bombing of cities is not only justifiable, but will be carried out in the next war. Supply depots and junction points will be destroyed and the morale of the civilians behind the lines impaired.'
