Al Jennings Testifies To Big Money Deal Chicago Convention

Says Hamon Told Him Harding's Nomination for President Cost Him Million Dollars; Democratic Campaign Fund be Investigated

Washington, March 27.—The story of the big money deal in the Chicago Republican convention of 1920 was repeated with many new dashes of color before the Senate oil committee today by Al Jennings, who became famous years ago as a train robber and since has turned to evangelist and politician. He said that he was only passing on what had been told him by Jake Hamon, Oklahoma Republican National committeeman, killed later by Clara Smith Hamon.

Hamon's story as related by Jennings was as follows:

That Hamon had nominated Harding for president and that it had cost him (Hamon) $1,000,000.

That the cost to carry Oklahoma for Harding had been $500,000.

That Hamon had paid Harry M. Daugherty $25,000, Senator Penrose $250,000 and Will H. Hayes, chairman of the Republican National committee, $25,000.

That Hamon was to become Secretary of Interior and share in the public lands and expected with the money that he would make to later become president.

Jennings said that he had known Hamon for a number of years and had gone with him to the Chicago convention. "We went to a room in one of the hotels," continued the witness. "He told me that Harding would be nominated the next day and that it had cost him (Hamon) a million dollars. He said that he had paid to Boise Penrose $250,000 and in the conversation brought out, I will not be perfectly clear about it, that it was agreed between Harry M. Daugherty, Will H. Hayes and, he named somebody else in Ohio, that he would be secretary of interior. He said it had all been settled. He said that Daugherty was at first in favor of Senator Fall for the position but that he had bought them all over but that it had cost him a lot of money to do it. That is about all I know about it."

"I understand Hamon told you the make up of the Harding cabinet and that Mr. Daugherty was in favor of Mr. Fall?" questioned Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri.

"Yes, but that it had all been arranged and that he (Hamon) was to be Secretary of Interior," replied Jennings.

"Do you think that all the information he gave you turned out with the same degree of correctness as that," asked Senator Spencer.

"That was the whole deal and that was what he expected to get in on. He wanted me to head one of his companies. He said that the Democrats had not left much public land but that he would get the rest of it," the witness declared.

"Did he speak of oil reserves?" asked Spencer.

"He said public lands. Nothing that I can remember about oil reserves. He said that money had been very potent in Washington and that with his money he would be president of the United States. I have talked with people in Oklahoma about Hamon's expectations and I do not think that he kept it from anybody," Jennings concluded.

Al Jennings, former train robber, told the oil committee today that Jake Hamon had told him in Chicago in 1920 that Warren Harding was to be nominated as president and that it had cost Hamon $1,000,000. Of this sum $250,000 went to the late Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania. Jennings said he was told by Hamon then Republican National Committeeman for Oklahoma. "Hamon said he gave $25,000 to Harry M. Daugherty," added Jennings.

Upon resumption of its public hearings today the committee inquired first into the methods employed to make up the deficit of the Republican National committee of 1920.

S. S. President Monroe Floated Early Today

New York, March 27.—The S. S. President Monroe, ashore off the Florida coast since last Monday, was floated early today according to a wireless dispatch received by the local offices of the Dollar Line. The vessel is proceeding to Key West with her passengers aboard.

The committee called to the stand Leroy W. Baldwin, president of the Empire Trust Company of New York, who told of loans to the Republican National committee by that company aggregating $226,520 and of their payment with interest over a period of from two to three years. The first loan for $100,000 was made September 27, 1920. On January 21, 1921 $50,000 of this amount was repaid; $10,000 was repaid April 18, 1921 and the balance was paid December 3, 1923, Baldwin said.

Inquiry into the Democratic campaign funds of 1920 will be made by the committee as a result of a motion by Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri.

Subpoenas have been issued for George White, former chairman of the Democrat National Committee, Wilbur Marsh, former treasurer and E. L. Doheny, who is said to have contributed to the 1920 campaign fund.

Spencer also caused a subpoena to be issued for John Walsh, brother of Senator Walsh and Washington attorney. He refused to say what Walsh would be questioned about.

"It is well known that he investigated him for months," said Senator Walsh when told that a subpoena had been issued for this brother.

TAYLOR DECLARES THAT JENNINGS STORY FALSE

Washington, March 27.—The story told by Al Jennings before the oil committee today was branded as false and preposterous by Leighton C. Taylor, former secretary to the late Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania. He declared he had been in constant attendance upon the Senator while he was ill in Philadelphia before the Chicago convention and during the convention. Taylor declared that Hamon had never been seen or communicated with Penrose or had the latter ever mentioned Hamon's name to him.

Pope Pious Confers Red Hat Upon Mays, Mundelein

Rome, March 27.—Pope Pius today publicly conferred the red hat upon Cardinals Hayes and Mundelein, the final act in the elevation of the two American prelates to membership in the Sacred College.

The ceremony was performed in the right transept of Saint Peter's and was carried out with all the pomp and pageantry of the Roman Catholic church in a setting the like of which does not exist outside the eternal city. It was the first public consistory ever held in the huge Basilica. It was a truly American lay both from the fact that the Cardinals raised were American citizens and a great many of the spectators were also Americans.

U. N. C. to Participate In Track Meet At the University of Virginia

Charlottesville, March 27.—The University of North Carolina will among the colleges to participate in the track meet that will be held at the University of Virginia on April 10 and 11, according to information received here. This meet will be participated in by five or six colleges that are members of the S. I. A. in lieu of the meet that is to be held in Alabama on the same dates, said D. E. Brown, graduate manager of the University of Virginia athletics. The great distance to the Alabama meet and a desire to strengthen the bonds between the schools of this division were given as the reason for this action. The schools are Washington and Lee, Virginia, North Carolina V. M. I. and V. P. I.

Paroles Issued By Governor Recently

Raleigh, March 27.—Governor Cameron Morrison has issued the following paroles: To the Superintendent of the State Prison:

"The prisoner, William Brewer, was convicted of an assault and maiming a man. He has served a good part of a sentence of ten years. Sometime ago I paroled him. He has been behaving himself, according to my information, splendidly. He was seventy years of age a few days ago. Two sons were convicted with him for the same offense. They are still in prison. The old man, has suffered greatly for his offense."

"In consideration of his age and out of respect for the petitions of many of the best citizens of the county, I hereby parole him for the remainder of his term, on condition that he be of good behavior and respect the law: Reserving the right to revoke it at any time I deem the end of justice require it."

"On account of the serious condition of the health of Grover Henley, and upon advices of honorable physicians and the welfare officer and the recommendation of Judge Finley, I hereby pardon the prisoner for thirty days during which time I will further consider his petition for an extended parole."

Governor Morrison also paroled Jake Brown of Rowan county who was convicted of violation of the prohibition act at the May 1922 term of the Superior Court and sentenced to 12 months on the county road. He appealed his case and during the awaiting time he was convicted by the Federal courts of the same offense and sentenced to serve 12 months in the Federal Penitentiary. He has now served his federal term and abandoned his appeal. Due to his poor health, the executive paroled him.

FIGURES IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

An alleged plot to force Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford, to pay $1,000,000 under threat to blind his three children was uncovered by the arrest in Detroit of a man and a woman after the man had picked up a box full of stage money. William H. Anderson, former head of the Anti-Saloon League of New York and a national figure in the prohibition movement, has been sent to State's prison at Ossining (Sing Sing), N. Y., to serve a sentence of from one to two years after conviction of forgery. Dorothy Gordon, member of an exclusive Boston family and heiress to an estate of $500,000, has obtained her release from the McLean Asylum at Waverly, where she had been held three years. She had been the centre of a legal battle involving her guardian and relatives. It was charged she was "railroaded" to the asylum in order that her fortune might be placed in other hands. Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, summoned to Washington in the oil lease investigation, wined the Senate Committee he could not reach there at the time he was directed to appear and that he did not know when he would go.

Popular Lady Starts Active Campaign

One of the most popular ladies in Greenville, Miss Nancy King, whose nomination was sent in to The Reflector when the campaign was first announced has just started an active campaign in earnest. Miss King's name was withheld from the first published list of contestants when it was learned that she was out of the city visiting friends. Now that she is back and on the job is a sure sign for all the candidates with Buick aspirations to step on it a little harder. We predict for this lady a place among the leaders within a couple of days if she puts forth the effort that she is capable of.

The Reflector certainly feels fortunate in having such fine candidates here in the city and with Mrs. D. W. Diener, Miss Hannah Dixon, Miss Lillian Hooker, Mrs. Roy Faithful, and Mr. W. G. Teel the city is well taken care of.

The outside candidates have certainly got some strong contenders lined up on their side with Mr. D. W. Alexander of Bethel, Mrs. L. D. Wall of Vanceboro, Miss Margaret Holland of Bethel, Mrs. J. R. Owens of Fountain, Miss Ethel Godley of Grinesland and Mrs. Maggie Jackson of Ayden, all being well known and popular in their respective localities.

The present campaign manager was not in charge of the campaign last year, but we are told that the outside candidates carried away the majority of the big prizes. If they are going to repeat this year they will have to hustle some, but it goes to prove that they can do it if they try hard enough.

The list of candidates appearing in another section of this paper shows a decided reduction from the last list that appeared. Many names have been taken from the list when it was learned that they were not to take an active part. The voting done for them in the past was carried on by interested friends who nominated them and sent in many free 50-vote coupons to be published to their credit in the list of standings that appear in The Reflector three times a week. There are still several names on the list who have as yet taken no active part, and as soon as we learn for a certainty just how they feel about staying in the campaign we will decide accordingly. No name, however, will be taken from the list who has turned in at least one subscription.

Now that the campaign is getting pretty well under way, it is hereby ruled that any candidate so desiring may published 10,000 of their reserve votes over the leader of the previous list. For example: If the candidate who is now leading on the list as published today has 30,000 votes to their credit and your standing shows 28,000, you can publish enough of your reserve votes to equal her 30,000 and 10,000 additional. Candidates can repeat this performance every time the list appears for publication.

For the benefit of the public and those who are thinking about entering the campaign we want to explain what we mean by reserve votes. When a contestant turns in a subscription they are issued a reserve vote coupon good for the number of votes given for a subscription according to the voting schedule as published daily. These reserves voting coupons do not appear to the candidate's standing in the list which is published three times a week, and in order to count in the published list it has to be surrendered to the campaign manager for cancellation. Those reserve votes not surrendered to the campaign manager for publication will be deposited in a locked and sealed ballot box to be installed in the campaign office toward the end of the contest, and the votes deposited therein will be counted by the judges who will be selected and announced later.

Start voting some of your reserve votes now. Get your name well toward the top of the list and let all your friends know that you are in the race. The public too will rally more readily to your support when they see your name at the top of the list. Send in enough of your reserve votes to get at the top of the list, and then stay there by steady voting.

Trouble Experienced In Trapping, Seining In Streams of State

Kinston, March 27.—Considerable trouble is being experienced by the state fisheries commission in regulating the trapping and seining in the streams in this part of the state, it was learned here today. According to J. K. Dixon, of Trenton, the inhabitants of points further down the streams are complaining of the irregular actions of these who make use of the upper streams' game. It is the hope of the commission, it was said, that a closer co-operation between the officials and those who make use of the streams may be effected so that all may profit by the increased number of fishes that will result from the observance of the fish laws.

Enlisted Reservists Organize in Raleigh

Raleigh, March 27.—The Enlisted Reservists Club was organized here last night at a meeting held in the local Y. M. C. A. by a number of the members of the enlisted reserves residing in this city. The purpose of the club is to promote the interest of the enlisted reserves; good fellowship among the members; and to aid in keeping up the standard of the enlisted personnel of the reserve corps.

The following officers of the organization were elected: President, Sergeant Clyde M. Smith; secretary-treasurer, Sergeant Emil I. Priesler, of the Infantry E. R. C. The executive committee is composed of the following: Sergeant John S. Cosgrove, and Sergeant William L. Jordan.

A pistol club was organized at the same time for the purpose of promoting marksmanship by holding practice meets under the supervision of competent officers of the regular army and the Officers' Reserve Corps. Major Pascual Lopez, U. S. A., executive officer of the 32nd Infantry has sent requisitions to the Ordnance department for a supply of pistols and ammunition. It is expected that they will arrive soon when the members of the pistol club will begin practice at a well selected range near Raleigh.

Sergeant Smith, who was elected president of the Enlisted Reservists Club, is a brother of W. E. Smith, linotype operator on The Reflector.

Lawyers' Wrangle When Effort Made to Force Witness to Tell Names of Five Men Who Made Thirty-Three Million in Oil Deals

Washington, D. C., March 27.—Roxie Stinson spent an hour on the stand today under cross examination by counsel for Daugherty. A large part of the time was taken up by a wrangle among the lawyers. Paul Howland and Senator Chamberlain insisted that the witness tell the names of the five men whom she said Smith had told her made a profit of $33,000,000 in an oil deal.

The committee that had already ruled that the names were irrelevant was finally entangled in the argument about it and the witness was excused without further pursuit into the matter.

"My impression," said Chamberlain, "is that the witness is going to say that Jess Smith told her that one of the five men was the President of the United States."

"We are not going to walk into your trap," shouted Senator Aschurst, Democrat, Arizona. You would like to have us charged with besmirching the name of someone now dead but we are not going to walk into your trap."

Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of the late Jess Smith, submitted herself today to cross examination by counsel for Attorney General Daugherty, against whom she has made a long series of charges before the Senate investigators winding up with the assertion that the Attorney General was "morally responsible" for her former husband's suicide.

Paul Howland, long time friend of Attorney General Daugherty conducted the cross examination which was decided upon after the committee held that further inquiry into the story of $33,000,000 profit to five men form a deal in oil stocks was out of its scope. Howland said that he had only a few questions to ask. He first took up the White motor stock which Miss Stinson mentioned in her testimony as being received from Jess Smith. Miss Stinson said that the business deal which A. L. Fink called her to Cleveland about was the reorganization of the Ideal Tire and Rubber Company which Fink had undertaken.

The committee today ordered M. S. Daugherty, brother of Attorney General Daugherty, summoned by the sergeant at arms when he failed to appear in answer to a summons which Senator Wheeler said had been served upon him.

HAMMERS THE TABLE—GETS ACTION

The positions occupied by Chas. G. Dawes and O. D. Young as members of the American committee of the Reparations Commission, working out a plan to rehabilitate German finances, are unique in the world's history.

The American members of this committee are paying their own expenses in Europe, are not obligated to any foreign power and are not hampered through fear of overstepping some point of diplomatic etiquette. The neutrality and independence of both men has made them outstanding figures in this work for world rehabilitation. Unconcerned with political expectations and anxieties of the various European governments, they have been able to play a dominant part in shaping the course of the expert's work.

Dawes, puffing his pipe and occasionally hammering the table, makes his points efficiently and keeps the committee seeking a purely business solution. Young coolly handles the matters as though he were dealing with an ordinary business problem in the board room of a corporation. The keen directness of the men has inspired confidence and also admiration.

Five years of political jealousies and intrigue have almost wrecked Europe. A few weeks of business consideration of its problems by competent men will evolve a business-like solution of the questions at issue, which European kings, presidents or premiers will not dare disregard.

The activities of Dawes and Young are hav-

Solving the Problem of Decorating Walls and Ceilings

Where a finish for walls and ceilings is desired that will withstand rough usage, and yet will not surrender that soft, delicate tone that is so distinctively beautiful in modern homes—use Pee Gee Velkoatt.

It is a finish in itself when used on wood. It dries with a satin or eggshell effect. It has the appearance of hand-rubbed enamel, by reason of its hard, non-porous surface.

While you are giving thought to refinishing walls and ceilings, or perhaps woodwork, Velkoatt offers a solution to your problems. It is sanitary, washable, and has a semi-gloss finish.

ing a greater effect on Europe today than the work of any American since Woodrow Wilson.

A REAL SHIPPING BOARD

The act of Congress creating the federal Shipping Board especially provides that any one having a direct interest in a shipping corporation shall be ineligible.

Hence we find advertising men, criminal lawyers, professional politicians, anything but practical and experienced professional shipping men on the Board.

Retired Senators and other federal office holders have composed its membership in the past and our country's four billion dollar investment in ships has been lucrative as a political plum tree.

It is a clear case of political administration of a trust that is purely a matter of expert business ability and should have non-political business management.

Could railroads, public utilities or great industries be managed by other than experts in those lines and succeed?

Would not public ownership or control of such industries mean the same kind of management as in the shipping board, with resulting heavy losses to taxpayers.

A PIPE DREAM

What a wonderful thing it would be for the taxpayers if an honest-to-goodness business investigation, free from the hampering strings of politics, could be carried on in every department of the government. It is probable that such an investigation, if the investigators had the power to hire and fire as occasion demanded, would result in annual savings to the taxpayers far in excess of any savings that may be hoped for as a result of investigating private business which is subject to private competition and which must sink or swim on efficiency in management.

To avoid the greater part of America's fire loss, whether it be in town or country, does not require any specialized knowledge, but only the quality of ordinary carefulness and the exercise of common sense.

Strikes and lockouts in United States during 1923 cost American public, including employes and employers, $703,839,575 and consumed 20,551,140 working days. During the eight years from 1916 to 1923, inclusive, entire loss was $12,522,203,365, consuming 424,329,088 full working days.

The most recent example of his readiness to help out in difficulties was aiding a group of building co-operators to retrieve a pile of building material, buried by a heavy snowstorm which tied up virtually everything in the Balkans.

New German Oil Formula Rubs Out Rheumatic Pains

Local Druggists Give Written Guarantee to Refund Money if First Application Fails to Bring Relief.

A remarkably new discovery now promises quick, soothing relief to Rheumatic Sufferers. German chemistry that has given to the world the boon of Aspirin for the relief of headache pains, and Novocaine for painless dentistry, has now come forward with another scientific discovery that is absolutely guaranteed to end rheumatic pains.

This marvelous discovery, known as Buhler Oil is a new combination of certain rare oils, which produces a clear amber liquid that is applied with the finger tips. It is so penetrating that it disappears within a few seconds, so it must be entirely absorbed by the body tissues. Results are truly amazing! Tired muscles regain life, creaking joints become supple, annoying twinges cease. Even the most advanced, stubborn cases show astonishing improvement almost at once.

Rheumatism, it has been found in an enormous number of cases, is due to toxic poisons formed in the tissues, which are carried by the blood to the muscles and joints—and the new German oil is designed to neutralize these pain-causing poisons.

So amazing have been the results from this German discovery that American distributors have authorized local druggists to offer it under a positive written guarantee, signed by the druggist himself, to refund the purchase price if even the first application fails to bring prompt and gratifying relief.

If you suffer from stabbing rheumatic pains in the arms, legs and muscles—if your back sometimes feels as if it would break in two—if your joints rasp and torture you—then by all means try a bottle of Buhler Oil today. You'll never want to be without it.

Remember—it is sold under an absolute written guarantee from your druggist. If it fails to give you relief after the first application, your druggist will refund the money without question. In this city Buhler Oil can be obtained under this written guarantee from good druggists such as Greenville Drug Co., Denton Pharmacy, Chas. O'H. Horne and B. S. Warren.

Mr. Farmer—Why not get the best Bigg's seven-year corn re-improved; the result of 10 years very careful field selection, nubbed, tipped and hand shelled. For sale at the Farmers Supply Company of Kinston, N. C. or at my farm, price $1 pk., $3 bushel. The best lands for success are those planted with my corn; the man who doesn't get it doesn't get all he can from his land. It is better to get the best seed than to wish you had. Help solve the labor and weevil problem by making more on less land. Increase profits as well as crops; make every acre do its duty; make farming easier by using my seed corn at planting time. Don't save a dollar at the risk of losing ten at harvest. R. T. Lanston, Kinston, N. C., R. F. D. No. 1. 27 2f

Better Homes Aim of Nation-Wide Drive Headed by Prominent Women; Ownership for Wage-Earners Urged

To promote better homes throughout the United States for families of small incomes that must make both ends meet is one of the outstanding aims of Better Homes in America, recently incorporated as a national educational institution, with Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, as president, and James Ford, National Housing Specialist, as executive director.

Associated with the organization in its effort to make attractive homes available for wage-earners and for families of rural sections, as well as for those of cities and towns, are some of the best-known women of the United States. Dr. Louise Stanley, chief of the new Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, was recently appointed a member of the advisory council of Better Homes in America. Miss Lida Hafford, Director of Headquarters of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has given notable service as a member of the advisory council since the inception of the Better Homes in America movement. Mrs. W. C. Martin, Chairman of the Women's Division of the Federation of Farm and Home Bureaus, and Mrs. Charles Schuttler, former chairman, both members of the advisory council of Better Homes in America, are particularly interested in the improvement of rural homes.

May 11-18 has been set aside as Better Homes week, and in these seven days hundreds of communities in every part of the nation will carry on Better Homes demonstrations, as a vivid means of educating the public in methods of home betterment. Demonstrations of home betterment, worthy permanent homes that lighten the burden of housekeeping," declared President Coolidge. "We need homes in which home life can reach its finest levels, and in which can be reared happy children and upright citizens."

home libraries, home play and home music, are mentioned as possible features for demonstrations in rural sections. Another possibility for farm communities is the progressive demonstration, in which several homes of the community will combine as demonstration houses, each of them showing one salient feature essential in an attractive and well-equipped rural home.

President Coolidge, who heads the advisory council of Better Homes in America, recently issued an endorsement of the movement, urging participation in the Better Homes demonstrations upon communities throughout the United States.

"We need attractive, worthy permanent homes that lighten the burden of housekeeping," declared President Coolidge. "We need homes in which home life can reach its finest levels, and in which can be reared happy children and upright citizens."

and that all official notices are conducted in English, sued in both languages, the use of Deputy Patrick Hogan of Clare Irish up to the present time has been very limited. Not more than one in 500 of the affidavits sworn in the Law Courts are in Irish, and the debates in the Dail are almost wholly conducted in English, every amendment, except one, has been moved in English, and the entire life of the nation is maintained by artificial respiration—a foreign language." His suggestion is that both houses of the Parliament should adopt a standing order forbidding any member to speak unless his or her remarks are prefaced by at least 20 words of Irish relevant to the discussion.

It is pointed out that this would mean that all deputies and senators must have some considerable knowledge of the Irish language, which many of them today are without.

Scotch Uniform In Theatre Makes Hit With Bulgarians

Sofia.—It has become a tradition in Sofia that the troops which occupied the city after the signing of the armistice on the Salonica front maintained toward the citizens the attitude of guests rather than of victorious troops. Among the allied Scotch Highlanders appeared to be forces during the occupation the the favorites.

These stirring times in the history of the city were recalled recently in the Free Theatre when Mlle. Maria Iurieva, a Russian dancer, appeared in the uniform of a Scotch Highlander. There was a spontaneous pro-ally demonstration in which Premier Tsankoff and other officials took part. The dancer was recalled many times before the curtain and finally by gesture begged the audience to release her.

MISS TALMADGE "The Covered Wagon" EXPERT DUELIST Pleases Capacity House

Constance Talmadge and Conway Tearle "The Dangerous Maid"

Fred Cavens, famous Belgian fencer, who prepared Norma Talmadge for the slashing sword scenes of "Ashes of Vengeance," has had a still more difficult task in coaching Constance Talmadge for her role in "The Dangerous Maid," a First National picture, which will be shown at the White's theatre Friday.

Constance plays a cavalier's role for many scenes, and in one sequence it is only by her skillful use of the sword that she prevents her enemies from penetrating her male disguise. But two solid months of instruction for an hour and a half daily under Cavens' direction made her an expert swordsman.

GOLDEN VICTORY LODGE MAKES CONTRIBUTION TO INDIGENT FUND

Mrs. Richard Williams, secretary and treasurer, says Golden Victory Lodge No. 2321 Grand United Order of Odd Fellows through their representative, Prof. Eppes makes the first contribution for colored people to the hospital fund for indigents.

This particular lodge answers the call of the community. They led in every effort during the war and the same lodge is putting forth every effort in having negro people pay their taxes.

Prof. Eppes also states that the Masons contributed $2.00 to the fund with Peter Teel, representative.

The scenes in which the settlers were attacked by the Indians, the crossing of the Platte and the prairie fire were very gripping and graphic and were wonderfully presented.

An interesting love story, made the picture more enjoyable. Lois Wilson and Warren Kerrigan headed the thoroughly capable cast while such stars as Tully Marshall, Charles Ogle, and Ernest Torrence furnished with and comedy throughout the picture.

A special orchestra added much to the effectiveness of the picture each number being appropriate and in perfect keeping with the different scenes.

HON. LINDSAY C. WARREN FOR CONGRESS

The business men of Greenville or Pitt County whose names appear below heartily endorse Lindsay C. Warren for nomination in the Democratic Primary as the Representative from this, the First District of North Carolina, in Congress.

We believe that in Lindsay C. Warren we have the man of the hour—one whose record is without stain or blemish and one who is broad-minded enough to represent the whole district. His record in the State Senate as well as in the House of Representatives, shows the vigilance and diligence with which he has studied the needs of his constituents.

Lindsay C. Warren is DEPENDABLE—and it is in such times as these, with scandal and shame hovering over the Capitol, that we need men we can trust to safeguard our interests.

The South needs strong men—men with energy and ability to secure larger appropriations for our many needs—to enable us to grow and prosper that we may attain to the ambitious heights our part of the country should reach. If the South is to come into its own, we must have strong men to stand up for us in Congress, and that man is. LINDSAY C. WARREN.

THIS ENDORSEMENT IS PUBLISHED BY THE FRIENDS OF LINDSAY C. WARREN WITHOUT HIS KNOWLEDGE OR SOLICITATION.

Miss Anna Case To Give Recital Eastern Carolina Exposition

Kinston, N. C., March 27.—The question, "How old is Anna?" is causing a lot of speculation in this part of the country now. It has arisen since announcement of the engagement of Miss Anna Case to sing here the night of April 7. Miss Case is under contract with the Eastern Carolina Exposition management.

But everywhere in the section, keenly anticipating the pleasure of hearing the great soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, people—particularly women—are asking about her age. And it is good press agency, if it must be admitted, as well as an interesting fact, to realize Miss Case is young, young indeed for one of such renown. "Plain American girl" describes her to an extent, but it does not convey an adequate idea what a strikingly handsome woman she is. There are several pictures of her in circulation in this part of the country just now and it is said that only one of them does her justice—a full length likeness from which one gets the impression Miss Case is rather slender and graceful, with finely chiseled features and charming of manner. And the great secret's disclosure, to end all talk upon that score Miss Case was born in Plainfield, New Jersey, October 29, 1892. She has appeared in some of the foremost operas. Her professional career was begun with the Metropolitan and she never severed the connection with the New York company.

"I think Miss Case will sing a mixed program for us," Manager Bartlett stated today. "That is, some hits from the operas, heavy and light, and a few diverting little songs will catch the ear of the person who never heard of Carmen or N. Trivatore and that of the ever-so-cultured intellectual alike. Miss Case is democratic, they all say that about her. What is very interesting to me is that uninterested individuals who have seen her declare her photographs fail to do her justice. They tell me she is beautiful. We are not concerned with that, however, and we are willing to accept the judgment of the critics and the Metropolitan management as to her talent."

Tuberculosis Menace In Germany Certain Unless Kin of Sufferers Dispatch Relief Without Delay

Germany has been characterized by no less distinguished an authority than Dr. Haven Emerson, former Commissioner of Health of New York City and an authority on community health, as "a perfect organization for the spread of tuberculosis." Dr. Emerson made this statement recently on his return from a tour of Germany, made at the request of the American Committee for the Relief of German Children, of which Major-General Henry T. Allen is chairman, for the purpose of learning the truth about distress in that country.

The accompanying photograph shows graphically why these once healthy people are becoming prey to dread diseases. The pinch of poverty has compelled them to acquire more cramped and squalid living quarters and, compelled as they are to subsist on meagre rations, it is not long before their bodies give way to the strain upon them.

The couple shown are of the middle class, the husband a clerk, and for former years were comfortably housed and fed on his earnings. Now they find difficulty in procuring food of any sort and are dependent absolutely upon outside assistance if they are to be saved from illness and possible death.

It is the purpose of the American Committee to provide relief through its funds only for children, hence the financial burden of caring for adults must be assumed by others who have an interest in the grown-ups. For this reason the committee has established a food package department, through which persons in America who have relatives or friends in any part of Germany may, by paying ten dollars, assure the delivery to them of 119 pounds of substantial American food, including 49 pounds of flour, 25 pounds of rice, 10 pounds of sugar, 8 pounds of cooking fats, 3 pounds of cocoa and 24 one-pound tins of evaporated milk. The packages are insured and transported without cost in Germany by the government there.

What such a contribution would mean to the man and wife shown in the above photograph is obvious. A package would last them for weeks with judicious use and might save them from serious illness.

Applications may be made either in person or by mail to the Food Package Department, American Committee for Relief of German Children, 42 Broadway, New York.

Robber Gang Opens Store to Sell Stolen Jewels, Says Report

Berlin.—Ingenious thieves ransacked the palatial home of Baron von Plessen in Berlin recently, and so successful was their one night's work that a dummy jewelry store was opened a few days afterward to aid in disposing of the stolen goods to a few selected customers. Among the precious stones obtained by the robbers was a 250 carat aquamarine, said to be one of the most valuable in all Europe. The stone came originally from Russia, and at various times has been in possession of European royal families.

The plans to rob this dwelling were carefully laid, detectives say, and the gang consisted of 18 or 20 men and three or four women. They planned the job for months. Confederates posing as servants were installed in the house, and the leader of the robbers knew the habits of every member of the family; in what bank each person kept his account, where their jewels were locked, and other intimate details.

Besides the aquamarine, the stolen goods consisted of precious stones, gold and silver service sets, much jewelry, furs and bits of antique ivory pieces, china, glassware, and other valuable household and personal effects.

Fearing Faulty Title Man Moves House During the Night

Rocky Mount, March 27.—Fearing a faulty title to the lot upon which he had erected his home, Tom Powell, with the assistance of a large number of friends moved his house during the night from the lot on which it was located to one just across the road of which title he was sure as to its clarity. Mr. Powell, it was said bought the lot some time ago thinking that the title was clear. It developed later however that J. T. Nichols had obtained a judgment against the former owner of the lot which complicated matters to some extent.

Despite the fact that Mr. Nichols had told the purchaser that he would not interfere with his occupying the lot, Mr. Powell became restless and uneasy. He solicited the aid of about 100 friends and during the night moved his home from the doubtful lot to one of surety, a distance, said to be more than 50 feet. The act caused a great deal of surprise as well as comment. While passersby were marveling at the sudden change, members of Mr. Powell's household went about the preparation of the morning meal as though nothing had happened.
