Reparation Committee To Report Tomorrow

CONTROL OF RAILS HELD BY ALLIES

Payments to Scale Upward As Germany's Ability to Pay Improves

Paris, France, April 8.—The Reparation Committee of which Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes is chairman are to present their report to the Reparation Commission at ten o'clock Wednesday morning.

From such advance information as it has been possible to get, the recommendations of this committee seem to meet with very widespread approval.

Annual payments are to be tapered upward as the improved economic condition of Germany warrants. However in the event of industrial or economic disturbances which interfere with the payment of the annuities the control of the various sources of revenue pass automatically into the hands of the allies, who will have extensive powers conferred by the Reich.

The report emphasizes the dependence of economic reconstruction and its re-establishment on a durable basis on Germany's internal control of her coal mines, customs and state industries, but the control of the railroads are to remain in the hands of the allies to assure normal traffic and to safeguard French troops.

Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes, the unofficial American representative of the first committee which examined into the economic and financial situation in Germany, in a covering letter to the report of his committee tells the reparations commission that the committee's recommendations "must be considered not inflicting penalties, but as suggesting means for assisting the economic recovery of all European peoples and the entry upon a new period of happiness and prosperity unmenaced by war."

The following letter of General Dawes follows:

"To the President of the Reparations Commission:

"Sir:

"Your committee has unanimously adopted a report upon the means for balancing the German budget and the measures to be taken to stabilize its currency which I now have the honor to submit.

"Deeply impressed by a sense of its responsibility to your commission and to the universal conscience, the committee bases its plan upon those principles of justice, fairness and mutual interest in the supremacy of which not only the creditors of Germany and Germany itself, but the world also have a vital and enduring concern.

"With these principles fixed and accepted in that common good faith which is the foundation of all business and the best safeguard for universal peace, the committee's recommendations must be considered not as inflicting penalties, but as suggesting means for assisting the economic recovery of all European peoples and the entry upon a new period of happiness and prosperity unmenaced by war.

"Since, as a result of the war the creditors of Germany are paying taxes to the limit of their capacity, so also must Germany be encouraged to pay taxes from year to year, to the limit of her capacity. This is in accord with the just and underlying principle of the treaty of Versailles, reaffirmed by Germany in its note of May 29, 1919, that the German scheme of taxation must be fully as heavy proportionately as that of any of the powers represented on the commission." More than this limit could not be expected and less than this would relieve Germany from the common hardship and give to her an unfair advantage in the industrial competition of the future. The plan of the committee embodies this principle.

"The plan has been made to include flexible adjustments, which from the very beginning tend to produce a maximum of contributions (Continued on page 5)

Railroads Grant Wage Increase

Chicago, April 8.—Wage increases approximating five percent, less certain compensations and concessions, are reported today as virtually agreed upon between the representatives of thirty-three western railroads and their subsidiaries, and the Order of Railroad Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Approximately 80,000 men would be affected by the increase and it is claimed that the annual payrolls of the railroads would be increased by about five million dollars if the terms of the outlined agreement are incorporated in a contract.

WILL PRESENT NEW BID MUSCLE SHOALS

Offer is Compromise Between Government, Private Operation

Washington, April 8.—A new bid for Muscle Shoals will probably be presented to the Senate Agricultural Committee by James T. Lloyd, Washington attorney, in behalf of a private corporation.

The bid is described by Lloyd as a compromise between government and private operation and he says that it provides for the lease of the Shoals property for fifty years, with other provisions somewhat similar to the Ford Bid, including the manufacture of nitrates.

The new offer provides for direct supervision of the property by the Department of Agriculture.

Washington, April 8.—Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, notified the Senate Agricultural Committee today that unless the Ford Muscle Shoals bill was taken up by the committee for consideration by Tuesday April 16 he will make a motion on the floor of the Senate that the committee be discharged from further consideration of the bill and that the bill be put on the Senate calendar as unfinished business.

The committee has agreed to begin consideration of all Muscle Shoals bids on Wednesday and to continue the session for one week unless it is found necessary to extend the time.

EVERYTHING IN READINESS FOR ARRIVAL MONDAY OF THE HAM-RAMSEY EVANGELISTIC PARTY

These Great Gospel Messengers Will Conduct the Initial Service Here Tuesday Evening

Mr. Earl S. Rodgers, of the Ham-Ramsey evangelistic party spent yesterday in Greenville conversing with the chairman of the various committees who have in charge the preparations for the opening of the revival campaign here on Tuesday night of next week, April 15. Mr. Rodgers was very much pleased with the work already accomplished by the women, and expressed the belief that with the concerted efforts of all people leading up to and throughout the campaign that Greenville and the vicinity will experience one of the great religious awakenings in its history.

Several of those representing the publicity committee began yesterday the distribution of advertising material in the various sections of the county, and their work will be conducted within a few days.

Cottage prayer services have already begun among the religious people of the city and these will continue until the arrival of the evangelistic party and probably afterwards. The ladies assisted by the pastors and laymen of the different congregations have these services in charge. And realizing that the success of the campaign must come through the prayers and efforts of the Christian people. These short meetings will no doubt receive the hearty support of those interested in the great good that is

NEXT MEETING OF ROTARY CLUB TO BE FOR ROTARY-ANNS

Club Elects New Directors at Last Night's Meeting; Greenville's Queen Is Unanimously Endorsed

The election of a new board of directors followed by the endorsement of Greenville's Queen for the Eastern Carolina Exposition now in progress in Kingston, echoes from the 37th District Conference held last week in Raleigh and decision to entertain the Rotarians' wives and sweethearts at the meeting to be held on Monday night April 21 consumed the time of last night's regular business session of the Greenville Rotary Club.

Following the regular dinner was the election of the following board of directors R. H. Wright, J. E. Winslow, J. N. Hart, S. T. White, C. J. Ellen, W. M. Dail and D. L. Turnage. Under the by-laws of the club the new board of directors at its next meeting will elect two of its members to fill the offices of president and vice-president.

Announcement of the recent selection of Miss Elizabeth White as Greenville's queen at the East Carolina Exposition was greeted with much enthusiasm and the club unanimously endorsed the selection and promised its hearty support in Kingston on Thursday.

The chair announced that the board of directors had decided upon the next meeting night, April 21, as ladies' night and this recommendation was heartily endorsed by the club. Every member is determined that it shall be a big night for the Rotary-Anns and themselves as well.

The remainder of the meeting was taken up with echoes from the Raleigh conference many of the Rotarians making short talks.

AROUND THE WORLD FLIERS HOP OFF AGAIN TOMORROW

Seattle, Washington, April 8.—The American aerial squadron engaged since March 17 in an attempted flight around the world will depart from Prince Rupert, British Columbia, its commander Major Frederick L. Martin stated in a telegram today to David Witcombe, president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

Destructive Floods In New England

Boston, Mass., April 8.—Swollen by hours of rains and by melting snows, the rivers throughout New England have overflowed their banks today, causing one death and bringing injury to many persons. Property damage is estimated in excess of two million dollars. The Connecticut, Merrimac, the Nashua and other rivers are reported to have risen during the night. Transportation and communication throughout New England are badly hampered.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON REVENUE BILL

Senate Committee Favors 25 Per Cent. Reduction 1923 Taxes

Washington, April 8.—The new revenue bill was ordered favorably reported today by the Senate Finance Committee.

The bill, as reported, provides a retroactive reduction of 25 per cent on the 1923 income taxes which are payable this year.

Permanent revision of income tax rates were according to the plan of Secretary Mellon which specified a reduction of 25 per cent and included the repeal of many miscellaneous excise taxes.

The scope of the tax reduction was narrowed considerably from that originally recommended by the house under a warning that there would be a Treasury deficit under the provision as proposed, and the committee was forced to restore some taxes stricken out in the house consideration of the measure.

A straight party vote of nine to seven is reported. Democratic opposition was based on the Mellon income tax schedule of the bill.

The committee will be called tomorrow or Thursday on the Soldiers' Bonus Bill. It is predicted that it will take not more than three days to get a report on this bill.

The chairman does not expect to call the tax bill up for consideration by the Senate before the middle of next week.

Savage Feed Co. Suffers Fire Loss Late Last Night

Fire of undetermined origin late last night did considerable damage to the stock of the Savage Feed Company and the building which the firm occupies. The fire when discovered had gained much headway in the rear of the building where hay was stored.

The fire department responded promptly and soon extinguished the blaze. The damage to the building and its contents is estimated to be about $3,000 with insurance to cover. The building is the property of Mr. F. V. Johnson.

Asheville Threatened By Serious Fire Today

Asheville, April 8.—Gaining headway in the early morning hours a fire of undetermined origin swept two three-story buildings on Depot street occupied by McConnell Brothers, wholesale produce; Charles M. Brick Co., merchandise brokers, and G. H. Masters, wholesale grocers, damaging the building and contents to the extent of $1250,000.

Fire Chief Duckett placed the damage to the two buildings at $50,000 and the loss of stock is estimated at $100,000. The structures were largely of frame construction.

The location of the fire threatened the business section.

Nine-Year-Old Boy Drowns At Play

Gastonia, April 8.—Graham Hawkins, a nine-year old boy, of Cramerton, near here, was drowned yesterday afternoon.

He and two playmates of about the same age had built a dam across a small creek and while at play in the pond created, got in over their depth and in spite of all efforts of his companions to save him, was drowned.

H. L. SMITH RESIGNS AS SECRETARY OF THE PITT CO. CHAMBER

Has Served Efficiently for Three Years; Future Plans Are Not Announced

Mr. H. L. Smith, who for the past three years has served most efficiently as secretary of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce has resigned, his resignation to become effective, May 1.

Mr. Smith came to Greenville from Dublin, Ga., in which state he had had wide experience in the workings of the chambers of commerce. He soon became acquainted with people throughout the county and the work of the local Chamber moved smoothly and progressed rapidly under his leadership.

Gae of his slogans, "Advertise Greenville," has become such an important factor in his daily life that he has attended meetings, far and near, and by his writings has brought Greenville to the forefront in different ways too numerous to mention.

While vitally interested in the plans and progress of the commercial body, Mr. Smith has also been prominently identified with the religious and social affairs of Greenville. Shortly after his arrival he affiliated himself with the Memorial Baptist church and has served as deacon of the church and superintendent of the Sunday school.

He is held in high esteem by a host of friends who will learn of his resignation with keen regret. His future plans have not been announced.

SULLIVAN LUMBER CO. IS VISITED BY FIRE

The Sullivan Lumber Company, Shelmerdine was visited by fire last week which destroyed two planning mills, a saw mill and two trucks. Work of rebuilding will begin in the near future.

Hold Tight Advantage Gained In The Contest

The first period in The Daily Reflector subscription campaign is now a thing of the past, and the candidates are now working in the second period, the time from April 7th to April 12, inclusive.

Several of the contestants have entered this period with very important gains made during the past week; gains made by earnest effort on their part with the support of loyal friends. If you are one of those candidates who turned in a good work during the past week you can rest assured that your position on the list has improved; you have worked your way up a few notches on the list and are now in a position to make a final drive for one of the automobiles if you have the ability to carry on!

If you had a good week during the past one you have made a gain for yourself. Whatever advantage you have gained during the past few days you want to hold tight now. From now till the end of the campaign will be one of action. Hold tight to your advantage and by steady plugging gain every subscription possible. It's just a question from now on as to who can make the most progress; who has the winning spirit left.

This week the votes have decreased making some little difference in the voting value of a subscription over last week. Extra votes are also down from 50,000 to 35,000. But the votes given this week on subscriptions are high compared to what they will be next week. Your subscriptions after this coming Saturday will go down approximately one-fifth and the extra votes will be 25,000 instead of the 35,000 to be had now on every $20 turned in. You can't afford to let these decreases go by without taking full advantage of the time before the reduction goes into effect.

The last free 50-vote coupon appears in the paper today and these

Gets Four Year Sentence For Assault On Family

PROHIBITION AGENT ON WITNESS STAND

Tells Senate Daugherty Committee of Failures to Prosecute Violators

Washington, April 8.—Continuing the inquiry into the prohibition situation in Illinois Senate, Daugherty investigating committee today heard further charges of lax enforcement and protection by Federal and state officials. Bryce F. Armstrong, prohibition agent, who testified at length in yesterday's session, was again on the witness stand.

One complaint was that the West Brewery case was not pressed on Otis G. Dodge of Washington, although local investigators believed the case should have been pressed.

He said he and other agents seized eighteen and a half barrels of 3 1-2 percent beer from brewery.

W. O. Potter, U. S. Attorney in East St. Louis told the committee he had instructions from the department to drop the case and that he had done so. Armstrong added that the secretary of the brewery had stated that offer of $5,000 in settlement of the case had been accepted by the government.

Armstrong also told of the failure to prosecute in the Garden City Brewery case and of the effort made to remove him as agent because he would not stop buying liquor at the saloons "they" did not want to prosecute. He estimated that he had reported between 1000 and 1500 but had never been called as a witness in a criminal case until six months ago and that the cases were dismissed or given very small fines.

UNDERGOES AN OPERATION

Little Miss Nannie Johnston Rowlett underwent a tonsil and adenoid operation this morning. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she is getting along nicely.

Wright Jefferson Under Suspended Judgment of 4 Years on Roads

Wright Jefferson, of Fountain township was found guilty of two charges, assault on wife and baby, and assault with deadly weapon, in yesterday's session of Pitt county court and was given a suspended judgment of two years on the county roads, on each charge.

According to evidence Jefferson, on last Thursday, went to Fountain and while there became intoxicated. When he reached home he found his wife and a neighbor tacking a quilt. He went in and immediately began to raise a "regular rough house" by tearing up the quilts and scattering the cotton. A baby aged about 12 months, was next attacked. Taking it from the cradle he administered such blows that the infant's face showed signs of the beating yesterday. A little three years old child was given a severe beating which was followed by an attack on Mrs. Jefferson.

Later in the afternoon Jefferson went to Fountain for another load of fertilizer at which time a relative of Mrs. Jefferson, having learned of the attack on the family, found and gave him a severe thrashing.

Judge Cooper was very much wrought up over Jefferson's brutality and would have no doubt given him an immediate sentence on the roads if Mrs. Jefferson had not pleaded for him, stating that, when sober, he was good to her and provided for her and the children. Other witnesses substantiated her testimony and the above sentence was pronounced. The defendant shall totally abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors, be of good behavior and remain law-abiding toward all persons. If any of these are violated the defendant will begin his sentence of four years on the roads of Pitt county.

Willie Stanley, Vick Daniel and Willie Mayo, charged with gambling. Defendants Vick Daniel and Willie Mayo failed to appear. Caspas and continued. Willie Stanley pleads not guilty. Adjudged guilty and fined $1 and cost.

Jim Dunkin was found guilty of driving car while drunk and was fined $50 and the cost of this action and was ordered not to drive an automobile on the highway of Pitt county for a period of six months.

Daugherty Says His Private Papers Rifled

Washington, April 8.—Former Attorney General Daugherty today said that he had been advised that his residence in Columbus, Ohio, now occupied had been entered by force last week and many of his private papers had been rifled.

Nothing of value in the house was stolen, he said, but it appears from the advices that some papers had been extracted from his files. All of them applied to his private law practice before he entered the Cabinet, he said, and had been stored there in 1921.

The former Attorney General did not indicate whether the matter would be called to the attention of state or federal officials.

Bethel Man Badly Hurt By Dynamite

Mr. Sam Carson, farmer residing in the Bethel section of the county, was badly injured yesterday from a dynamite explosion that occurred while he was blowing stumps on his farm.

According to Mr. Carson's report of the accident he had placed a stick of dynamite under a stump and covered the fuse with leaves, and after setting fire to the leaves he failed to get away before the explosion took place. Fortunately the stump was blown in the opposite direction and did not strike him but he received severe burns to the face and eyes. He was rushed to Greenville for medical attention after which he returned to his home.

Dr. C. J. Ellen to whom the patient was brought for treatment, stated this morning that the injury to the eyes, though painful, would not prove very serious.

THE BALL OPENS

With the election on Saturday of the delegates to the various county conventions throughout the state, the boiling point was reached in North Carolina Democratic politics. County conventions at which delegates to the state convention will be selected, will be held on next Saturday, April 12. The state convention will be held here on April 17.

Politics has been convened several weeks with the announcement of Josiah Bailey and A. W. McLean of their candidacies for the nomination for governor at the primaries this summer, but this merely is the start. The election of county convention delegates started the ball really rolling, in that this was the first step toward determining the policies on which the candidate finally selected by the rank and file of the party to oppose I. W. Meekins, of Elizabeth City, Republican candidate for governor, must stand or fall upon.

County party officers will be chosen at Saturday's conventions and when the state convention meets the state party officers will be chosen as well as four delegates at large to the Democratic National convention.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

The United States has taken on a new responsibility in its relation to world economic affairs, in the opinion of the Federal Reserve Board which in its annual report made public today indicates a belief that increasingly greater influence on world economic progress will emanate from these shores.

The great influx of gold into the United States which now has four tenths of the world monetary stock, the growing use of the American dollar with its gold standard as a trade basis, gradual expansion of American foreign trade, the adoption by many foreign interests of American trade and commercial policies—these and other reasons—are cited by the board as showing the responsibility that must be borne and accounted for by the leaders in the United States.

Since the federal reserve system is accepted as charting the business course at home, its correspondingly increased power and responsibility in the latter field is examined by the board in its report, and it has set itself to the task of explaining the peacetime functions of the system. It indicates a belief that the general conception of how the system can give full force and effect to its chartered powers of aiding commerce and industry is too limited and makes a definite move toward a policy of promulgating such information hereafter.

The year 1923 as a whole has provided a good perspective of post-war readjustment, and the board says of conditions that economic readjustment has proceeded rapidly, "and is now nearing completion." This condition, a near-peacetime basis, has caused the board to omit from its report the usual discussion of administrative matters and to turn its full attention to a discussion of the broader aspects of the workings of the reserve system.

"The year covered in this report," it says, "is of more than ordinary interest since it has afforded an opportunity for the Federal Reserve system to function under circumstances less influenced by conditions arising out of the war than any previous year. In the absence of these major disturbances which so profoundly affected business and credit conditions during the war and early post-war readjustments, federal reserve credit policies, in response to prevailing economic conditions and on the basis of earlier experience, have undergone a fuller development.

"The volume, character and occasion of rediscount operations and open-market transactions of the Federal Reserve Banks, the extent and influence of gold movements upon the credit and currency situation, rate policy and the basic factors underlying general credit policy—these and other related matters that will be of continuous importance in the future have held an important place in the year 1923 in the functioning of the Federal Reserve Banks and in the deliberations and decisions of its governing authorities.

"Taking the year as a whole and regarding it in the perspective of the post-war readjustment period, there is abundant evidence that, so far as the United States is concerned, economic readjustment has been proceeding at a rapid rate and is now nearing completion. The economic balance as between various industries and sections of the country is not yet fully restored but during the past two years there has been rapid progress in the direction of a more stable equilibrium and of a better alignment of prices between different commodity groups."

Turning to the question of gold movements, the board says great concern is manifest because of their probable future extent and direction. It says that no future inflow such as that that has taken place can be expected because of the restrictive measures taken by the European powers which are designed directly to control gold exports from their territorial jurisdictions.

Then, too, the board asserts that in international trade gold has maintained its conventional position throughout the decade of currency disorganization and with the growing necessity for a common basis for calculating commodity prices there has been a marked tendency to equalize values on the basis of the American dollar because of the gold that backs it.

"Thus," the report adds, "the American dollar has become the link between countries on a paper currency basis and the gold standard. In this adjustment the American dollar, not only because of its convertibility into gold but because of its stability and because of the trade position of the United States, has become increasingly the unit of account in international trade."

By virtue of the vast shipments of gold to the United States during and since the war, this country has assumed the "high responsibility of managing the vast stock domiciled here, that it may be available for redistribution by export or otherwise as occasions arise. This situation, the board adds, warrants serious thought for if the power thus concentrated here is improperly employed it may result in disturbances in this country's own economic affairs as well as the economic and financial affairs of the world.

Why Are Drugs Standardized?

They are standardized in order to bring about uniform therapeutic efficiency to the patient whenever required. This efficiency is most needed in the sick room—not merely in the laboratory.

What is true of drugs must be true of foods. Purity and efficiency in the can is only part of the problem—purity and efficiency in the kitchen is the true test.

The law requires that baking powder contain 12% leavening gas at the time of sale to the consumer. This measure insures uniform leavening efficiency and protects the health of the public.

In order to comply with this fixed standard for baking powder, manufacturers must produce and pack their product so as to avoid the deterioration which may result from absorption of atmospheric moisture.

Baking Powder manufacturers to avoid violation of the law, also spend thousands of dollars yearly in testing grocers' stocks and removing "spent" goods from his shelves, in spite of the fact that every possible precaution had previously been taken against deterioration.

With the exception of Texas, the pure food laws are not applied to baking powder mixed with flour at the mill and sold in bags as "Self Rising Flour." There is no penalty on the manufacturers if this fails to "self rise"—the consumer is the "goat"—he is the one that pays the penalty through indigestion and ill health that comes from eating bakings that are not properly raised. The standardization of baking powder is a protection to both the consumer and the manufacturer—who welcomes such laws and co-operates in every way possible. But!

Not so with the self rising flour manufacturer—he resents such laws and fights such legislation. Why? Because a standardization of self rising flour would require moisture-proof containers instead of cheap sacks—because low grade "clears" could no longer be sold as "fancy patent flour." It would also mean he must maintain expert chemical control such as is now maintained by baking powder manufacturers.

Calumet Baking Powder contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the U.S. Food Authorities.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS EXPECT ACTIVE MEETING

Sunday school workers of all evangelical denominations in twenty-seven counties of Eastern North Carolina will gather in Tarboro on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 15, 16 and 17, for the Eastern Regional Sunday School convention of the North Carolina Sunday School association. The convention will open on Tuesday afternoon, April 15, and will continue through Thursday night, April 17.

Reports from Tarboro indicate that the people there are very enthusiastic over the prospects for the convention. Arrangements have been made to entertain all delegates on the Harvard plan, lodging and breakfast being furnished free. Those in charge of the arrangements for the convention are expecting a good attendance from the different counties included in the region. The territory covered by the region includes Pitt county, the attendance at the convention will not be confined to the district counties, as workers from any other county convenient to the convention are urged to attend.

On the program of the convention will be four prominent Sunday school experts. M. Mrs. W. L. Blankinship, Atlanta, Ga., associate superintendent of the Tabernacle Baptist Sunday school, will have charge of the special conference and addresses for workers with children. Mr. Frank

A Feeling of Security

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.

Such a medicine is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

The same standard of purity, strength and excellence is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.

It is scientifically compounded from vegetables herbs.

It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses.

It is not recommended for everything.

It is nature's great helper in relieving and overcoming kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

A sworn statement of purity is with every bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

If you need a medicine, you should have the best. On sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to try this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.

D. Getty, Philadelphia, Pa., associate director of Young People's work for the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., will give instruction to those who work with young people between the ages of 12 and 24. Dr. E. B. Quick, Atlanta, Ga., Sunday school secretary for the Southeastern district of the Christian Disciples church will give special instruction to the workers in Adult Bible Classes. Prof. A. M. Locker, Chicago, Ill., Field Superintendent for the International Sunday school council of religious education, will have charge of the conferences for superintendents and other executive officers, as well as for those who are especially interested in Daily Vacation Bible School work. A special feature of the program will be a "Song Festival of the Twelve Months," which will be presented by the Sunday school children of Tarboro, under the direction of Mrs. H. B. Whitlark. This is expected to be a most helpful and inspiring feature of the convention.

Tanlac Good Health Insurance for Obaugh

Richmond Man Testifies That Relief From Stomach Trouble Was Permanent.

B. A. Obaugh, well-known insurance agent, 1317 Porter St., Richmond, is among the hundreds of Virginia people who have derived both immediate and lasting good from the Tanlac treatment.

"I could not say a better thing for Tanlac," says Mr. Obaugh, "than that I am still enjoying good health it brought me two years ago. I had suffered from stomach trouble, having frequent attacks of gastritis, for years. At these times my stomach would fill with gas and keep me in pain and misery for hours.

"In this condition food seemed to do me very little good, as my strength gradually failed, nerves weakened, I could not sleep well and felt tired out most of the time. Tanlac relieved my trouble in almost no time and left me eating, sleeping and feeling fine. Tanlac gave me new strength, new energy and endurance that enabled me to walk many miles a day and scarcely feel it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

They have stood the test of time

Repeated counts made at service stations and on the road prove the large percentage of motorists who standardize on "Standard" products. After all the true test of an article is: "Does the public keep on buying it?" "Standard" products have stood this test for over 50 years.

Business men know the importance of time as the final test of the value of a product. Only those products survive which fill the public need year after year. Standard Oil Company's kerosene, lubricating oils, gasoline and greases have stood this test.

These products have been leaders in their respective fields for two generations. They are accepted as standards today. Why? Because they are produced by the most experienced refiners in the country, men who for 54 years have left no stone unturned to improve the quality of their products. The Standard Oil line is standard in fact as well as in name. You can make certain of getting the right oil or gasoline only by using the name. It is easy to remember.

Capacity House Is Expected To See "Blossom Time"

Mr. H. H. Jackson, manager of White's theatre, stated this morning that a capacity house would greet "Blossom Time" here on the night of April 22. The seat sale begins tomorrow and Mr. Jackson states that already mail orders for more than 150 seats have been received.

He said that it was his desire that those people of Greenville who wish to see the show do so and he advises that they do not delay in checking off seats.

BISHOP DARST PREACH HERE THIS EVENING

The Right Reverend Thomas C. Darst, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, will arrive in Greenville this afternoon, and will preach tonight at 8 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal church. This is the Bishop's second visitation to Greenville this year. He will also confirm the candidates for confirmation who will be presented by the Rector of St. Paul's the Rev. James E. W. Cook. Bishop Darst is known as an eloquent speaker all over the continent. For several years he has been selected as the Holy Week preacher for the Lenten mid-day services held in the Garrick Theatre, Philadelphia, Pa., and next week he will address thousands there.

The Bishop is going to Europe for several weeks this summer, and it is expected that his many friends in our city will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing him once more before his departure. A cordial invitation is extended to the service this evening.

REVIVAL AT JOYNER'S BEING WELL ATTENDED

The services last night at Joyner's School on the Falkland road was well attended, and much interest was shown, congregational singing was a feature of the service. Social music will be given each evening. The sermon was from Mark 10:51 "What Will Thou that I Should Do Unto Thee?" The hour is 8 p. m. each day. Several people from Greenville attended the evening services. It is expected that large numbers will attend during the week. The subject this evening will be: "Do It Now."

TREMENDOUS POPULARITY OF "BLOSSOM TIME"

Several new pages of theatrical history have been written this season by "Blossom Time," the famous musical comedy which has been touring the country under the direction of the Messrs. Shubert and which comes to White's theatre Tuesday, April 22.

Three times it has played this year in both Atlanta and Birmingham and return engagements have been made to scores of other cities of the south. "Blossom Time's" popularity has been unprecedented as witness the following newspaper comments:

Said Ralph T. Jones in the Atlanta Constitution: "It is hard to recall how long it is any theatrical entertainment has scored such an overwhelming hit in Atlanta as to make it necessary for the same aggregation to fill three separate and distinct engagements in this city in one season."

"Blossom Time" that unique, supreme and perfect musical comedy—almost light opera—came back for its third visit of the season Monday night. It opened to a full house and it is a sure bet there will be few vacant seats at any of the remaining performances. To those who have seen the show, its phenomenal success is not surprising for it is the universal comment that there never was anything like it."

Hunter Bell wrote as follows in the Atlanta Journal: "Blossom Time," with its exquisite music woven from the immortal melodies of Franz Schubert, is back at the Atlanta theatre for the third time this season. Such popularity is unparalleled in the history of musical shows playing here, but is entirely deserving because of the wide spread appeal of the play. The same excellent cast as seen on the two previous occasions reappear.

"Blossom Time" is a play that men will take their sweethearts, wives and mothers to see because it is constructed around that tenderest of all themes—love. It has a wider appeal than probably any other show of the season, and more than anything else, the appeal is clean and elevating."

Even more enthusiastic was Ed Danforth in the Atlanta Georgian. Said Mr. Danforth in part: "That amazing 'Blossom Time' opened its third engagement of the current season Monday night. Outside a gale, brewed in polar regions, whistled; radiators, surprised without alcohol, quietly froze to death! Pleurisy and pall bearers stalked hand in hand. Yet Atlanta came to see and hear the sweet, clean melodies of Franz Schubert again. The same cast, some in even better voice, was greeted with warm applause, indicating that many were seeing the performance for the second and maybe the third time. No musical production in history has approached the record set here by this company. Margaret Merle, Fenita De Soria, Greek Evans, Arthur Geary, Gregory Ratoff are names that have become as familiar hereabouts as grand opera stars who visit us every spring."

Dolly Dalrymple added to the chorus of praise by singing thusly in the Birmingham News: "Blossom Time" is apparently like Tennyson's brook, which 'goes on and on forever,' for even though this tuneful and beautiful opera is now making its third visit to the Jefferson this season, the audience greeted it just as enthusiastically as though the opera had never been heard before. This is remarkable for there are few operas of any kind or description which can be heard the second time with any degree of enthusiasm in the same season, and when the third performance proves as enjoyable as the first, the credit must go to the operat for being really unusual. "Blossom Time" is just 'Springtime's sweetness set to music'—enchanting, captivating, alluring, lovely."

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE PEOPLE OF GREENVILLE.

The prettiest, nicest and best Onslow county Hams of different sizes that has been seen in Greenville this season. To be offered to the retail trade Wednesday April 9th almost at jobbers prices, 35 cents per pound. Owing to the urgent and pressing demand for these excellent Hams in Rocky Mount, Wilson and Goldsboro, my time has been taken up there so far this season to supply the trade in job lots. But through numerous request of my former patrons and customers I have decided to have a retail day once a week from 8 o'clock a. m. to 12 m. in Greenville and to make the retail price almost jobbers price 35 cents per pound as it will take the balance of my time attending to the trade in other places.

"Bill Allen special selected Onslow county Hams smoked and saturated with Hickory and sassafras' wood." It has been truly said, "Reign Supreme" Why, because the very best people of unquestioned veracity have time and again assured me that its flavor and delicious taste excels any hame on the market.

Because they are the pick and perfection of the very best to be found in the finest fields of smoked hams. A ham that, once tasted, your appetite does not forget. Rich and juicy, its flavor is just grand. A product of uncommon quality. It is just bound to win preference over all other hams by those who have a high sense of taste and quality. Proof of which I have sold over five thousand pounds of these hams to the best recognized citizenship of Wilson, Rocky Mount, and Goldsboro in job lots, during last month.

I could get hundreds of testimonials as to the excellence and quality of these hams wherever they have been introduced and tried if necessary.

Be sure to come to the sale on Wednesday, April 9th and see this nice lot of hams, or call phone 203 and have one delivered to your home. After this week retail sale day will be Saturday instead of Wednesday.

Yours to serve,
W. H. Allen,

The district meeting of this district will meet at this place Friday, April 11th, 1924. There will be a meeting in the court house at 10 o'clock to which the public is cordially invited at which time the Hon. E. H. Bain, mayor of Goldsboro, N. C., will deliver an address, immediately after the public meeting the representatives and members will meet in the lodge room for the closed meeting of the district, at which time a number of speakers both local and visitors will make timely talks for the benefit of the fraternity. During this meeting the degree work will be amplified, also the unwritten work. It is very important that every member be present at both the public and closed meeting. We hope to have as many of the citizens of the Town of Greenville and the community to hear Mr. Bain as can arrange to do so. We are quite sure that he will have a message worth while.

GRIMESLAND NEWS

Mr. A. O. Clark Returns From Hospital

Mr. A. O. Clark, who has been a patient in Johns Hopkins Hospital for five weeks, returned home last Saturday night. No one knows how to appreciate a good citizen until they are deprived of his influence. While the people of Grimesland realized that Mr. Clark, a farmer merchant and leader in social and church affairs, as well as secretary of the school committee and foremost in all movements for the benefit and progress of Grimesland was a worthy and unequal citizen, they did not realize to what extent he would be missed until his few weeks of absence. Nothing could speak better for the esteem which Mr. Clark is held by his fellow townsmen than the welcome they extended him upon his arrival.

Mr. Clark has been suffering for some time with kidney trouble, but not until recently did the attacks become so painful and frequent that his friends and relatives became uneasy about him. Upon being advised by his physician that his only chance for recovery was to take a treatment, or be operated on, he decided to go to Johns Hopkins Hospital. At this hospital he was under the care of Dr. H. H. Young, who is known nationally as a kidney specialist, and Dr. J. A. C. Calston, who is equally as prominent in his profession. While for several weeks death seemed inevitable, by a strong will and the skill of his attending physicians, Mr. Clark is out again.

It is encouraging to see Mr. Clark on the streets, and especially pleasant to hear him say, "I am feeling fine." His many friends sincerely hope that he may continue to use that expression, and after a short rest for recuperation, as Mr. Clark has explained, that he will be able to resume his work.

Presents Play

The High School students presented a play at Bath on last Sunday night. This play has been given in several towns, but last Friday night was the most successful. The students, under the leadership of the principal, are trying to secure money enough to equip their playground. It is hoped that this may be done this spring, but is not assured yet.

Reparation Committee To Report Tomorrow

consistent with the continued and increasing productivity of Germany; the conservative estimates of payments to be made in the near future are dictated by business prudence in outlining the basis of a loan—should not destroy the perspective as to the effects to be registered in the aggregate of eventual payments which will annually increase.

"With normal economic conditions and with productivity restored in Germany, the most hopeful estimates of the amounts receivable are justified. Without such restoration, such payments as may be obtained will be of little value in meeting the needs of creditor nations.

DON'T WAIT

Take Advantage of a Greenville Citizen's Experience

When the back begins to ache—Don't wait until backache becomes chronic:

"Til kidney troubles develop:
"Til urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Profit by a Greenville citizen's experience.

Mrs. Jacob Wilson, 1112 Evans St., says: "I had trouble with my back. During the day there was such a heavy bearing-down feeling in my kidneys, I had to rest occasionally. Occasionally when I stooped, a severe stab of pain shot through my kidneys. Many times I got dizzy and specks floated before my eyes. My kidneys were annoying also as they didn't act as they should. I sent to the Greenville Drug Co., and got Doan's Pills. One and a half boxes of this medicine soon relieved me of the complaint."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"To insure the permanence of the new economic peace between the allied governments and Germany, which involves the economic adjustment presented by the plan, there are provided the counterparts of those usual economic precautions against demoralization which are recognized as essential in all business relations involving express obligations.

"The existence of safeguards in no way hampers or embarrasses the case of ordinary business contracts. The thorough effectiveness of these safeguards should not embarrass the normal economic functioning of Germany and is of fundamental importance to Germany and her creditors.

"Great care has been taken in fixing the conditions of supervision over Germany's internal organization so as to present a minimum of interference consistent with proper protection, the plan submitted is fair and reasonable in its nature, and, with various features of its report, if accepted, is likely to lead to ultimate and lasting peace. The rejection of these proposals by the German government means the deliberate choice of a continuance of economic demoralization, eventually involving her people in hopeless misery.

"In the preparation of this report the committee has carefully covered a broad field of investigation. It has had the constant co-operation of able staffs of experts in gathering information, digesting it and presenting the ground and examination of officials of the German government and representatives of German labor, agriculture and industry. It has received from the German government and its representatives voluminous and satisfactory answers in response to written inquiries. In connection with the purpose of gathering information and for advice, the committee called for its assistance outside German experts of international reputation. The published reports and statements of the committee have been given largely to investigation and study.

"In speaking of my colleagues and as bearing upon the value of this report, I feel that I should make known to the reparation committee and to the world that their governments have in no case limited their complete independence of judgment and action, either before or after their appointment by the reparation commission. Limited only by the powers granted by the commission, each of my colleagues has performed his work as a free agent; these means searching for truth and advice thereon were answerable only to their conscience. In granting this freedom the governments have on the same lines followed the commission's spirit and intent in constituting the committee but in so doing they have paid the highest tribute which governments can bestow, namely, complete confidence in a time of crisis in human affairs. In their vision, in their independence of thought and above all, in their spirit of high and sincere purpose, which rises above the small things over which the small so often stumble, my colleagues have shown themselves worthy of this trust.

"That their work, which I now place in the commission's hands, may assist in the discharge of the commission's great responsibility, is their prayer and the knowledge hereafter that it has done so will be their full reward.

Signed "CHARLES G. DAWES, Chairman."

Spend a Glorious Easter in Richmond

Glorious Easter in Richmond

The State House—designed by Thomas Jefferson and later used as the Capitol of the Confederacy. It is one of the interesting sights of Richmond, within a short distance of Miller & Rhoads Store.

OF ALL the days in the year, Easter, with its lovely traditions, its joy and its optimism, is the time to visit Richmond. The streets of this interesting old capital are radiant with the color of spring styles. Grace Street, the "Fifth Avenue" of Richmond, is the brilliant scene of a fashion parade reminiscent of the old South. It is a sight worthy of a trip to this delightful city.

Of course, a trip to Richmond means a visit to Miller & Rhoads Store. Now, decked out in complete new spring stocks of merchandise and the newest Fifth Avenue styles, it is The Easter Store. Every department, with its new stocks displayed on counter and shelf, is full of the suggestion of Easter and spring! It is a delight just to wander through the aisles and see the new spring goods. The ready-to-wear sections on the second floor are a veritable fashion show of women's wear—definite proof that Miller & Rhoads are Fashion-First and Fashion-Right!

If you come to Richmond, you are welcome at Miller & Rhoads. Shop or rest in our comfortable, big store as you wish. If you have not been here recently, you will find it greatly changed. The new addition, for which you waited so long and patiently, is now at your service. You will find practically everything new—except the spirit of fair dealing and good value. That is just as it always has been and always will be!

You may, perhaps, find the salespeople more willing, if possible, and more helpful than ever. For this splendid big store is a more pleasant place to work as well as shop. There are comforts here for employees as well as customers. We are always glad to show you the cheery big lunch-room where we serve meals to our employees at cost, and the big, roomy rest-rooms for their recreation. They are just as much a part of our store and as necessary to our best service to you as the rest-rooms and tea-rooms we have provided for our customers.

While in Richmond for Easter, make Miller & Rhoads your headquarters. Check parcels and baggage free at our check-room, refresh yourself in one of the rest-rooms, and shop at your leisure. Luncheon or tea is served in the beautiful tea-rooms on the fifth floor. One of the six centrally located elevators will take you there in a jiffy.

If you can't get what you want in your own locality, try

Broad Street Station. This is where you arrive if you come in on the R. F. & P., the Atlantic Coast Line or the Norfolk & Western. It is one of Richmond's most beautiful buildings. A ten-minute ride on the street car will bring you directly to Miller & Rhoads.

JAMES L. EVANS FOR COUNTY JUDGE

TO THE MEN AND WOMEN OF PITT COUNTY:

Is it a crime in Pitt County for a native son to aspire to be County Judge? Is it a disgrace to stand for Law and Order in Pitt County? Must every candidate for Judge pledge himself to give special favors to the lawless who seek to control our courts? Do the majority of the men and women of Pitt County believe in lawlessness and want a Judge controlled by those who violate and defy the law? Will the people who believe in right and justice and in law and order stand for the lavish expenditure of money and the generous use of moonshine liquor, all in defiance of law, for the purpose of influencing and controlling the election?

On Saturday, June 7th, 1924, the men and women of Pitt County, at the ballot box, will give answer to the above questions. Be not deceived, the fight is on and the issue is clear and well-defined. No sooner had I announced my candidacy upon a platform of public service instead of selfish interests, with fairness and impartiality to all, without undue harshness to any and with special favors to none, than I became the target of everything that is bad and selfish in Pitt County. It has been said that "The love of money is the root of all evil," and certainly this is being demonstrated in Pitt County. But I have faith in the people of my native county that they will rise above this narrow and selfish plain and with broad minds and the love of right and justice in their hearts will join me in my fight for law and order and help to make Pitt County a better place in which to live and to rear our boys and girls who will be the men and women of tomorrow.

At this period of Pitt County history there is nothing more appropriate than the poem of J. G. Holland and I adopt it as the battle cry in this campaign:

"God give us men. The time demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and willing hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor; men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue
And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking;
Tall Men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty and in private thinking!
For while the rabble with their thumb-worn creeds,
Their large professions and their little deeds
Mingle in selfish strife; lo! Freedom weeps!
Wrong rules the land, and waiting Justice sleeps!"

ORPHAN SINGING CLASS.
The Oxford Orphanage Singing class will appear in its annual concert in the auditorium of the East Carolina Teachers College at eight o'clock, Thursday, April 10th. This class has gained an enviable reputation for giving concerts of a high order, concerts that are both entertaining and uplifting, and press reports are high in their praise of the program which is being offered this year.
The price of admission is 50 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children. The concert is well worth the price of admission, but aside from this your patronage will assist in providing for the orphan children of our state, a cause which lies close to the hearts of all good people and is worthy of your support. 8 10

GEORGE WASHINGTON Never Told a Lie

History fails to call attention to the fact, however, that George never played golf, and never filled out an income tax statement.

Likewise, he married rather late in life, and a widow at that, so it wouldn't have been much use to try it any way.

Also, if he liked his liquor, (we don't say he did or he didn't) the ways of getting it were not as devious in those days as they are said to be now.

Neither was competition as fierce in those days. Honestly, sometimes we almost forgive some of our competitors some of the things they say about us.

It is hard to sell cheap plumbing fixtures and labor, but when it comes to high class mechanics and plumbing and heating material we can give you the best prices and best service.
