Miss Ayden Will Be Crowned Queen At Exposition Tonight

Miss Mary Alice Smith, Declared Winner of Contest, While Miss Edna Spencer, as Miss Kinston, Wins Honors for Lenoir County; Miss Greenville Wins Second Place

MISS AYDEN TO... According to the official count of votes for the Queen of Eastern Carolina, in Kinston today, Miss Mary Alice Smith of Ayden, was declared Queen while Miss Edna Spencer won the largest number of votes as queen of Lenoir county.

Count Not to Be Given Out. Reports received from Exposition headquarters declared the results as above but stated that the official count would not be given out.

Pitt County Honored. Greenville's queen won last year and with the winning of the Ayden queen this year, Pitt county feels a distinct honor in being able to present to the state such beautiful and attractive young ladies.

Misses Doris Crawford and Marie Marston, of Kinston, won second and third honors, respectively, in the Lenoir contest, and while Miss Spencer was declared winner, they received a large number of votes.

Voting Yesterday. The voting started yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when the queen from each city appeared on the stage. Each person attending was given a privilege to vote for the one they considered the most beautiful.

Will Attend Ceremonies. All through the morning hours the telephones, throughout the county, were kept busy trying to ascertain the winner of the beauty contest.

New Bern Wins Right to Prohibit Undesirable Dock

New Bern wins her fight to protect the waterfront of that city, along a portion that has been developed as a highly desirable residential section, and which has been used as such since 1887.

In an effort to protect this part of the banks of the Neuse, New Bern passed ordinances prohibiting the erection of the undesirable structures and the legality of these ordinances has been fought up through the courts to the Supreme court decision just granted.

Spellers' Medals Will Be Presented In Near Future

Raleigh, April 11.—The medals to be presented to the school children that won the best spellers contest in this city during the recent meeting of the Teachers' Association have been sent to the engraver and will be delivered to the winners within a week or ten days it has been announced at the office of Jule B. Warren, secretary of the North Carolina Education Association.

Banners which were awarded to the schools that the winners represented have been forwarded already, it was stated.

UNDERWOOD WILL ENTER PRIMARY IN N. C. NEXT WEEK

Salisbury, April 11.—The name of Senator Underwood will be filed with the secretary of state this week, said his campaign manager, Walter Murphy, of Salisbury, today in discussing the entry of William Gibbs McAdoo in the presidential preferential primary in Raleigh Wednesday.

Mr. Murphy said he had hoped that McAdoo would not be entered in North Carolina primary and that the delegates to New York would go instructed to vote for Josephus Daniels former secretary of the navy.

Under the election laws of North Carolina, the convention has the right to instruct or send uninstructed delegates, provided there are no entries in the primary. In the latter case, delegates are bound to the candidate receiving approval in the primary.

Asks Postponement Of Enforcement Of Merchant Marine Act

Washington, April 11.—Chairman Hall of the Interstate Corporation Commission today told the House Merchant Marine Committee that it was "highly desirable" to postpone the enforcement of section 28 of the Merchant Marine Act, which would give preferential freight rates to goods to be shipped in American vessels.

The Commission had previously set the date for the section to become effective on May 20.

Choir Rehearsal Ham-Ramsay Meet Monday Evening

The first choir rehearsal for the Ham-Ramsay meeting which begins here next Tuesday evening will be held in Forbes and Morton's warehouse, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Five hundred voices are needed and every person in Pitt county, regardless of church affiliation, who can "carry a tune" is invited to attend the meeting and take a part in the singing.

Receptions Planned For Rev. M. F. Ham

Arrangements have been made for informal reception to Rev. M. F. Ham, who arrives on Monday next for a five weeks meeting in Greenville, one for the ladies, the other for the men. Mrs. R. Williams has charge of the reception for the ladies, which is to be on Tuesday afternoon the 22nd. An informal reception for the men will be held in the lobby of the Proctor Hotel on Thursday after noon the 17th, from 3 to 4, at which time the ministers and others will be present to introduce Mr. Ham to the men of the town.

FOUR YEAR OLD BOY IS BURNED TO DEATH

William Cox, Playing With Matches, Catches Fire And Dies From Severe Burns

William Artis, aged 4 years, little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cox, of Chiced township, was burned to death Wednesday. Interment took place yesterday afternoon.

According to reports the little boy was playing with matches in the door of his home. Mr. and Mrs. Cox were out in the field at the time of the horrible tragedy and reached the house too late to be of any assistance in helping save the child's life.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox live on the farm of Mr. Sam Mills near Black Jack. They have a host of friends who sympathize with them in their great sorrow.

Indicted in Montana on a charge of accepting fees to get survey rights on Government lands, U. S. Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of that State, declared he was being "framed up" to discredit his work in investigating the Department of Justice. He denied the charge emphatically in applying in New York for his first papers as an American citizen.

First Actual Leaders Appear In the Contest

As the fifth week of The Daily Reflector's $2,500 circulation and prize campaign nears its close, the finish is going to be mighty close!

Among these folks appears most prominent the names of Mrs. F. J. Diener and Miss Hannah Dixon. These ladies, in spite of unfavorable weather conditions, have succeeded during the past forty-eight hours in pulling a little ahead of the field, and are the first candidates to gain that distinction since the contest started.

We know for a certainty that others are in the field working hard, but we have no way to judge the work that they are doing until they make their turn-ins. No doubt some of the candidates who have not reported in for the latter part of the week will make high scores, and it would not be at all surprising if new leaders jump to the front.

Miss Lillian Hooker, one of the hardest working candidates in The Reflector campaign and leader from the first day should repeat this week as usual with record business; Mr. D. W. Alexander, a candidate who has received more voluntary support from friends than other candidate in the contest, should continue to hold his place in the automobile class with this week's work.

And so it goes right down the list. The leaders are listed today—who will they be tomorrow when such candidates as Mrs. L. D. Wall, Miss Margaret Holland, Miss Ethel Godley, Mrs. J. R. Owens, Mrs. Roy Faithful and one or two others turned in. There will be important changes we are sure, for every candidate now working has it within their power to win one of the automobiles if they just believe in their own ability to win.

Tomorrow the votes take the final drop for the campaign. This week should bring you across the line a winner if you have enough pep in you for one final burst of speed. The finish is going to be mighty close! You are all coming down the home stretch neck and neck, two candidates with the head and shoulders to the front—one last call on your reserve energy and over the line you go! You win by a close margin, but most important you win.

There are no real obstacles in the road of anyone who will make the try for victory on April 19th. What obstacles a few believe exist are largely imaginary. Of course, if a person has made up their mind they do not want to succeed, they can think of a million reasons why they cannot win. But getting out and giving it a good stiff try will overcome those obstacles every time. Get out and hustle and don't let some of these other candidates beat you to it.

Without action and a continual thinking of the ditches to cross in life, makes the ditches seem like rivers, and many after having started on the road to success fall by the roadside simply because they are too afraid of the imaginary obstacles which never exist. It's just that way with this contest. Naturally, there is some resistance to overcome, but that is soon cleared when a real effort is made.

There are just seven more days of action with the biggest and most important day in your campaign coming tomorrow when the second period closes and the votes take their final drop of the contest. Anyone of the candidates listed by using these seven days to their best advantage can emerge the winner of the Buick. The contest from the start has been the closest thing imaginable, and by the looks of things now the finish will see prize winners separated by but a subscription or two.

American Naval Forces Boomed in Honduras

Washington, April 11.—Air pilots of the Honduran air forces have withdrawn from raids over Tegucigalpa, the capital of Spanish Honduras. A number of women and children were killed.

Four bombs were dropped on a field where men from the American cruiser Milwaukee were exercising but dispatches from Admiral Dayton make no mention of there being any casualties among the American Naval forces.

Wreck of Schooner Reported as Menace Near Wilmington

Wilmington, April 11.—A wrecked vessel, believed to be the British schooner Maid of France, now eight days overdue at this port, from Barbadoes, was reported a menace to navigation off the coast in a wireless message picked up here last night from an unidentified steamship.

SENATE TRAILS OIL FUNDS TODAY

Washington, April 11.—Returning to its inquiry of possible oil company contributors to national political campaign funds, the Senate Oil Committee today sought information about a three million dollar loan made by the Chase National Bank of New York City to William Boyce, formerly chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Republican Campaign Committee.

Declaring his client was too ill to appear, William Wallace, Jr., attorney declared that the loan was secured by 50154 shares of Sinclair oil stock, but insisted that the loan had no bearing on other transactions. He also claimed that the loan was repaid in 1919.

The attorney also read into the records a telegram from his client who has been sought for subpoena service for several days. Thompson is said to have failed to respond to the committee summons because he is in a sanitarium in Arizona.

Senator Wheeler and Brookhart of the Daugherty investigating committee arrived in Columbus, Ohio this morning and left immediately for Washington Court House by automobile.

Harry M. Daugherty former attorney general went to Ohio on the same train with Senators Wheeler and Brookhart. His being on the same train he said, was merely a coincidence.

The former attorney general, although not announcing his plans definitely, was expected to drive to Washington Court House, his former home, to visit friends later in the day.

The stay-at-home section of the Daugherty investigating committee went on with its hearing today with Senator Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, presiding in the absence of chairman Brookhart and with J. J. McGraw a Tulsa, Oklahoma banker on the stand.

Head of Federal Farm Extension To Speak in Statesville

Statesville, April 11.—Dr. C. B. Smith, head of the Federal farm extension work with offices in Washington, D. C., will be in this city on April 18. He will use Statesville as his headquarters during time that he is inspecting the agricultural conditions of the county of Iredell and the work being done by the county agent, R. W. Braeber.

It was stated that Dr. Smith would inspect this county because work being done here is typical of that carried on throughout the South and particularly the state of North Carolina. It is probable that the Federal departmental head will address the people of the county at the County Commencement here on April 19.

Tanks Protect Mines Against Ky. Mob

Pineville, Ky., April 11.—Two army tanks have taken up commanding positions on the property of the Liberty Coal and Coke Company at Straight Fork, Ky., which has been the scene of warfare between soldiers and persons who sought to prevent the operation of the mine.

GERMAN MAGNATE

HUGO STINNES, BIG GERMAN MAGNATE, DIES IN BERLIN

Berlin, Germany, April 11.—Surrounded by his immediate and attended by the greatest medical and surgical talent to be had, Hugo Stinnes, who has been more closely identified with German industrial life than any other man, died last night at 8:30.

There had been no hope for his recovery for many hours. Three major operations had been performed within the past four weeks, the last one on the sixth of this month. It was also reported that his condition was gravely complicated by pneumonia.

The death of Hugo Stinnes at the very moment the process of disentangling the reparations knot seems about to enter upon its final stage, is felt in official quarters and in industrial circles as a distinct loss to Germany.

During their recent visit to Berlin the members of both experts' committees met him informally. One of the leading members of the Dawes' committee remarked after a prolonged visit with Stinnes:

"Stinnes is a man of decision, action and capacity and when you find these three qualifications embodied in a man, you truly have a genius." The great German industrialist began his career in his father's coal mine at Muelheim, where he worked with pick and shovel, shoulder to shoulder with veteran miners.

To his associates and business acquaintances Stinnes was anything but a man whom popular legend portrayed as an octopus with widely ramifying tentacles, clutching madly at smokestacks, buzzing dynamos or on liners, hotel properties and new enterprises.

Stinnes himself did not start with nothing. He belonged to an eminent Jewish family long in commerce, and received substantial aid from his father after completing his studies in a technical school. He was born Feb. 12, 1870, and from earliest boyhood was trained in the principles of commerce and trade.

When the World War broke over Europe, Stinnes was transacting some business in Gusein. He read Austria's ultimatum to Serbia and instantly recognized it as war. He hurried to his Muelheim home, spent 14 hours in the telephone cell of his private apartment, and when he emerged all his enterprises were on a war basis.

Politically, Stinnes was an idol of the German People's Party, formerly the National Liberals, which he was said to have financed after the revolution. During the Inter-Allied discussions on the German indemnity at Spa in the summer of 1920, Stinnes' defiant stand as a National Liberal was blamed for the failure to come to immediate terms. It was at this conference, when taken to task for his arrogant attitude, that he electrified the assembly with the statement:

"I have not come here for the purpose of being polite." In the years that followed, however, he became more pacific, and urged the German people to adopt a policy of work and production, which he declared was the only salvation for the war-torn nation.

Interest Increases In Revival Services At Joyner's School

The attendance at the revival meeting at Joyner's School, was good last night in spite of the rainy weather. The interest was the best of the meeting so far. Twenty persons signified their acceptance of Christ, and 30 signed cards re-consecrating themselves to the service of Christ and the church.

Services will be held each evening at 8, including Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday in addition to the evening service, a service will be held at 3:30 p. m. The last service will be held on Sunday evening at 8 p. m. The meeting is being run on broad lines, and all professions of faith have the privilege of signifying the church of their choice, and it is the purpose to see that these names are given to the pastor of the church preferred.

ON CAMPAIGN FUNDS

It is well that now, on the eve of another presidential campaign, attention is being given by the leaders of the Republican party to the question of campaign funds.

This so-called publicity has never been much of anything except a pretense. It has been habitual for campaign committees to incur large deficits, borrowing the money from banks or from 'friendly' individuals.

Not for a good many years has there been so expensive a campaign as that of four years ago. This was true of the pre-convention contests which discredited several public men and was true of the election itself.

Fortunately the new disclosures are made just at the beginning of another presidential contest. How will the candidates of 1924 adapt themselves to the situation as thus revealed?

Will they be guilty of the old hypocracies about publicity or will they consent to a campaign conducted in reasonably good faith to the public and without preliminary mortgages upon future legislation?

this matter. The whole question is one of public opinion and of decency on the part of the candidates themselves.

CIVIC PREPAREDNESS

The value of foresight on the part of the governing body of a community can have no better illustration than that afforded by Greenville and the gas mains that were laid just before the street paving was put down.

Because of this forehandedness, Greenville is to have the many benefits of a gas service months earlier than would otherwise be possible and without the inconvenience of torn-up pavement and interrupted traffic.

We compliment the Aldermen for a very practical example of civic preparedness.

TAX REDUCTION OUR GREATEST NEED

How to decrease the cost of living, at the same time stabilizing and stimulating industry, is the greatest problem in the United States today.

Everybody is in favor of a constructive program for improving economic conditions.

A truly effective plan to provide lasting relief to the country must come from only one source and inspiration, the government itself.

The Administration has responded to the demand of the country.

Professor Thomas S. Adams, father of the progressive income tax law, writes Congress these conclusions:

"The morale of the taxpayer has been undermined. Evasion and avoidance have grown. The tax has been widely and deeply discredited. It is becoming a thing for scorn and contempt.

"It is going the way of the state and local tax on intangible property—so just in its aims, so farcical and hypocritical in its actual performances.

"The income tax, as affecting the richer individual taxpayers, is in imminent danger of becoming a financial Volstead Act.

"Any rate is too high that pushes the income tax into deeper disrepute. With the hole in the income tax wide open, it seems to me that its friends should be the first to resent and oppose rates which expose the tax to contempt as a complicated nightmare of political dreamers.

"We want an effective progressive tax, not a gesture."

"Places where tobacco is marketed have increased prosperity. A town that is shown to be a desirable tobacco market eventually becomes a city. An agricultural district obtaining recognition as a producer of fine tobacco is sure to see a rise of land values."

these territories after the Japanese turned them back to China or must convert Dr. Wang to his own point of view.

No one outside Hsiung's own faction credits him with any altruistic motives in connection with the railway, in spite of his contention that a naval base should be created here in support of a fleet of seven battleships, all financed from the road's earnings.

Another complication in the situation is that the chief accountant of the railway T. L. Ku, has refused to sign any order for withdrawal of its funds from its own operations

Big Hotel Will Enclose Existing Baptist Church

NEW YORK, April 11.—A fifteen-story hotel and church will soon be built around and over the old Calvary Baptist church on West Fifty-seventh street, while the congregation will continue to sit in their accustomed seats Sunday after Sunday.

The magnificent auditorium of the present church will remain as it has been since the church was built over 170 years ago, but the present gallery will be enlarged and a second one constructed so that the seating capacity of the new church will be 4,000.

Cost of the improvements will be about $2,000,000, but it is expected that the hotel will turn in enough rental to the church to enable it to considerably widen its scope of activities.

A radio broadcasting station, "the largest in the world," according to Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of the church, will be one of the features of the new building.

Don't Lose Sight of the Food Value of Your Bakings

Plain flour has a large amount of food value but it must be combined with good baking powder in order to retain this value.

Most self rising flours are not successful because they do not and cannot raise the bakings to the proper lightness. This means a certain loss of nutrition because they are heavy and hard to digest.

Every time you eat food that does not properly digest you do not get the full nutritional value—you are over-taxing your stomach. Nourishing and perfect bakings are what good health demands. The one sure way is—use pure flour and good baking powder.

If you want to find what thousands of housewives have learned—make some biscuits with self-rising flour—then make some with good plain flour and Calumet Baking Powder—notice the great difference. One trial will satisfy you. Your health demands that you make the experiment.

Those who know—millions of housewives, domestic science teachers, big hotels, restaurants, bakeries and railroads will not use anything but Calumet, the Economy Baking Powder.

Carolina Playmakers Start Annual Tour

Chapel Hill, April 10—The Carolina Playmakers, the dramatic organization of the University of North Carolina, left the Campus Wednesday on its annual spring tour of the state. They are traveling in a chartered bus, capable of holding twenty passengers and their baggage and will be gone until April 17. Additional cars will carry the scenes and stage settings of the club.

There are 18 members of the club this year that will travel on the tour and make up the different casts of the plays, all of which were written by the students of dramatics at the University.

Mrs. H. W. Chase, wife of the president of the University will make the trip with the club as the official chaperone. George Denny is manager of the club.

The Playmakers will give performances in the following towns: Winston-Salem, April 9; Salisbury, April 10; Charlotte, April 11; Hickory, April 12; and High Point, April 17.

World's Trade in Caviar Supplied From Hamburg

What is said to be the world's largest store house of caviar is located in Hamburg and administered purely as a Soviet Russia government monopoly. It is from this warehouse that virtually all shipments of this favorite delicacy of kings and czars of olden times are sent to New York, Paris, London and other centers. The fish, ripe, pressed and salted, is shipped from Petrograd in barrels, packed away here in a central warehouse, and then sold according to the demands of the trade.

Caviar today is one of the most expensive luxuries of European tables, that is outside of Russia. In Berlin it retails at about $22 a pound. In Petrograd or Moscow it is one of the favorite dishes of the working man, who takes home a mess of it two or three times a week at a dollar or so for all that he and his family can consume at the evening meal. The roe is eaten with bread and washed down with wines aged in cellars of the wealthy long before the Soviets came into power.

WORLD'S TRADE IN CAVIAR GIRLS GET OUT NEWSPAPER TO UPLIFT CHINESE WOMEN

The Woman's Daily News, the first publication edited by Chinese women in the history of the country, has just made its debut here. Miss Liu Ching-yang, who has travelled extensively in Europe, and Miss Li Tao, president of the first Adult Women's School, in Tientsin, are the enterprising young women who have undertaken the innovation. Both have gained some prominence in the women's student movement in China.

In her first editorial Miss Li advocated organization of intellectual women into a strong body, while Miss Liu similarly urged an equal standard of education and economical freedom with men. The declared object of the paper is to uplift the women of China, to improve their home life and generally to promote their interests.

W. J. RAMSAY, CHORAL DIRECTOR

Mr. W. J. Ramsay, choral director with Evangelist M. F. Ham, who is to conduct a series of meetings here in Forbes & Morton's warehouse, is a native of South Boston, Va., and came directly from the farm to the platform. In 1911 he was taken from the plowhandles by Rev. W. P. Fife, who had occasion to see the young man directing music in his own community church. The young chorister remained with Mr. Fife until the latter's death seven years later and then joined Rev. G. C. Needham, a noted evangelist, for one year. At the latest of his death, Mr. Ramsay became musical director for the great San Jones and his associate, George Stuart. After his extensive experience in musical work, Mr. Ramsay entered Trinity College at Durham, where he remained nearly four years. When within three months of graduation, Rev. George Stuart opened a series of meetings at Raleigh, N. C., and invited Mr. Ramsay to join him. This he did and remained with Mr. Stuart until the latter took the pastorate ten years later in 1911. Since that time he has been associated with Mr. Ham

Mr. Ramsay is generally recognized as one of the foremost choral directors of the country. His leadership is unique in special ability and wherever he has trained choirs they reflect this trait of his. Mr. Ramsay's special field is in the interpretation of the old gospel songs. At this he is a master.

Aside from his ability as a Director, Mr. Ramsay is also one of the foremost composers and publishers of the country. He has written and published seventy-eight songs and he holds the copyright on a total of 125 songs. He has published four song books, the latest of which will be used in the local services.

Argentina's Old Age Pension Fund Would Be Largest In World

A national old age pension law recently enacted by the Argentine Congress, is regarded as unique in such legislation in that it makes provision for nearly every employed person in the country and creates probably the largest pension fund in the world. While the bill was pending it was hailed as a great step forward in social legislation, but now it is being severely criticised as being defective in many respects.

The law makes definite provision for the creation of the fund, but otherwise the public is left in the lark as to when and how benefits will be distributed. Foreign residents and foreign corporations especially are disturbed by the law because while they come under its provisions they are unable to determine whether in the event of foreigners leaving the country their contributions to the fund as well as those of their employers will be returned.

Although the law became operative December 15, 1923, the government has made no provision for collecting the payments to the fund and no places have been designated where the payments are to be made.

The law provides for the maintenance of the fund by the enforced monthly contribution of a sum equal to ten percent of nearly all salaries and wages earned by Argentina's population of 9,000,000 people. Half is to be paid in by the employe and half by the employer, and as an initial additional contribution, each employe must pay in a month's wages in 21 monthly instalments.

No official estimate has been made of the vast sum the scheme will yield, but according to some unofficial calculations, the accumulation of at least five billion pesos within ten years (more than $2,100,000,000) is within the range of probability. This is four times the country's monetary circulation. The funds are to be invested, 50 percent in government securities and 50 percent may be utilized in granting mortgage loans to employes to enable them to build or acquire homes.

MODERN LONDON WOMEN CAUSE VALENTINE CUSTOM VANISH

Valentines have vanished from the stationery shops of London. Those ardent admirers who still keep up the Victorian custom of sending "air ladylove" embellished bits of printed sentiments must have had to search the side streets this year for the fashionable fops contained none.

Stationers explain that modern woman is to blame for the passing of the printed piffle. She votes and smokes and golfs just like the men folk do and being a user of some-what virile slang the modern maid sees nothing but silliness, it would seem in the sentiment; that used to be taken so seriously in the mid-pieces of the age of innocence.

Worn Books Of Library Replaced By New Copies

The library committee of the Woman's Club has been forced to take out a number of books from the library on account of them being so badly worn. They have replaced the most popular ones by new copies.

The following books have been added: Turnoff Booth Tarkington; The Herbyster, Porter; The Girl of the Limberlost, Porter; Patricia Breit, Spinster; K-Rinhart; The Amazing Interlude, Reinhart; The Kosary, Barclay; Emmy Lou, Martin; Miss Lola Betts, Gale; Freckle, Porter; Daddy Longlegs, Webster; The Tin Soldier, Bailey; Cappy Rick, Kyne; Covered Wagon, Hough; The Prince and the Pauper, Mark Twain; The Rainbow Trail, Zane Grey; Betty Zane, Zane Grey; Desert Gold, Zane Grey; Kenward In the Jungle, Zane Grey; The Short Stop, Zane Grey; The Young Lion Hunter, Zane Grey; Wild Fire, Zane Grey; The Heritage of the Desert, Zane Grey.

THIRD NAME IN DECADE GIVEN TO ST. PETERSBURG

Soviet government authorities who, in tribute to the late Bolshevik premier, Nikolai Lenin, changed the name of Peter the Great's capital from Petrograd to Leningrad, are taking steps to see that the decree is obeyed.

Within a short time, it is announced, names will be imposed for letters presented at the postoffice addressed to Petrograd. All newspaper dispatches from this city already carry the Leningrad date.

A number of other cities have sought to honor Lenin's memory in a similar fashion. Simbirsk, the capital of the province where Lenin was born, has become Leninsk. The administration of Ekaterinoslav, named in honor of Catherine the Great, has petitioned to be renamed Leninsk. In fact, so many similar petitions have come to the central authorities in Moscow that they have announced none will be granted without considerable deliberation.

Short Copra Crop Causes Trade Slump In Samoa, Report

Merchants and traders are complaining of un satisfactory trade returns since the copra crop has fallen short of expectations.

The rhinoceros beetle is increasing in some districts, despite the efforts of the government to exterminate it, but the decrease in the coconut crop cannot be attributed to the beetle. The rest is said to have come to Western Samoa from Ceylon with large importations of rubber plant. Men and boys in American Samoa devote one morning each week searching for the beetle and its larvae. In order to preserve the copra crop, which is the staple product of the island, the American government is imposing fines on natives who fail to adopt the ordered precautions against the beetle.

BUILDING ON NINTH STREET
Mr. Brownie Brown has sold his home in West End and is building on East Ninth street.

THE COMING OF "BLOSSOM TIME"
There are undoubtedly many theatergoers in Greenville who saw the Messrs. Schubert's production of "Blossom Time" in New York and they will surely want to see it again when it is presented at White's theatre on Tuesday, April 22 for one performance.

The name of this comic opera tells its story and the play is as charming as the title. Not in years has a more agreeable musical piece been seen in America than this charming and diverting Viennese Opera. Dorothy Donnelly, adapted the book and supplied the new set of lyrics. A. M. Wilner and H. Reichert wrote the original which was produced abroad. The score is from the melodies of Franz Schubert himself, thus the pleasure of having real melodies, while the new Viennese music by H. Bertie is interpolated with a new score by Sigmund Romberg. "Blossom Time" has been staged by J. C. Huffman and the entire production made under the personal direction Mr. J. J. Schubert. The Messrs. Schubert have gone to great lengths to provide a fitting production for this charming piece and a singing and acting company of the first quality, and as the Norfolk papers said: "One of the finest sent South in many years." Real voices are required to sing the beautiful score, and it took the Messrs. Schubert over a year to cast the company which is headed by Greek Evans, as 'Schubert,' Margaret Merle as 'Mitzi,' Robert Lee Allen as 'Kranz,' Arthur Geary as 'Von Schober,' Fenita de Soria as 'Bellaburna' and many others including the "Blossom Time" chorus.

Derelict Row Disappears.
Giving way to port expansion and progress, "Derelict Row," a conglomeration of dilapidated shacks and ancient houseboats, was burned. It had lined the shore of Terminal Island for 40 years.
The shacks and houseboats were burned to make room for suction dredges improving the channel of Los Angeles harbor.

COTTON LETTER

New Orleans, La., April 11.—Although climatic condition were unfavorable in nearly all sections of the belt, with progress for more moisture in nearly all districts of the cotton region and notwithstanding the continuance of large spot sales in Liverpool and large spinners takings for the week, market assumed a reactionary tendency today.

Because of the limited supply of American raw cotton it was necessary for master spinners to recommend the continuous of short time not only to the end of this season July 31st but to the end of September, as it will probably be not until October before the new crop of cotton would begin to arrive in volume at Liverpool.

Notwithstanding in general mills are supply with cotton to run on half time, at Liverpool American cotton sales the past week were 37,000 against 16,000 last year and forwarded to mills of American 33,000 against 25,000 one year ago.

The policy of curtailing production 50 per cent by British mills will likely make for a very strong goods market in Manchester the remainder of the season and the reject of proposal by miners by a small majority will likely make it possible to avoid the threatened strike by further negotiations before 17th instant.

Exports from the U. S. continues free for around this season, 4,646,000 bales against 3,981,000 to even date last season when total of the whole season was only 4,643,000 consequently exports this season are now running on a basis for the whole season of 5,308,000 bales.

During the past week spinners of the world took American cotton to the extent of 184,000 against 180,000 last year and 157,000 year before last.

Indications are that exports from U. S. will continue free if New York exports be predicted 50,000 bales to be exports out of the stock there this month.

Meanwhile the weather inland remains unfavorable for farm work in preparing for the new crops.

Foreign Fruits and Eggs Flood German Markets

Spain is flooding Germany with oranges since the mark was stabilized. One some days as many as 100 carloads of the fruit leave this city for distribution throughout the republic. The vessels from Spain are unloaded here, and orange auctions are held four times a week. In Berlin the fruit sells at retail for from 30 to 50 cents a dozen, as compared to a price range of 60 cents to $1 a dozen for apples from the northwest of the United States.

Eggs from China and Egypt also are coming into Germany in large quantities. From the latter country they are brought as ballast in German steamers calling at Suez. The prices on the imports range in the neighborhood of 36 cents a dozen, retail. While the foreign eggs are far from fresh, and are used chiefly by bakers and in the industries, their importation has had the result of keeping down the price of local eggs, which now sell for 60 cents a dozen. The eggs from Egypt are small, and are characterized by soft shells.

Red Seal Lye cuts up grease readily, changing it into soap and, with the water, washes away dirt of all kinds. (Do not use it, however, on aluminum.)
Crevices and corners where roaches, head-bugs and vermin abound should be sprayed with a solution of Red Seal Lye.

Innocent—Yet guilty in the world's Eyes—Fighting her way through life alone in a city of folly—Realization—She had made good. Then one crashing scandal that blazed her name before a world that does not befriend—Could she fight back? Was there use?

Ah! Such moments bring real drama. Such moments take the hearts of men, yet give new courage to a defenseless girl. This drama grips as the fire of a woman fooled—foiled in LOVE!
