HAM - RAMSAY CAMPAIGN OPENS HERE 7:30 TONIGHT

Tabernacle With Seating Capacity of 7000 Now Ready; Large Crowds Expected

All work leading up-to-date beginning of the Ham-Ramsay evangelistic campaign is completed and everything is in readiness for the first service this evening at 7:30 o'clock in Forbes and Morton's warehouse, which has been converted into a brick tabernacle with a seating capacity of seven thousand.

Mr. Earl S. Rogers, pianist of the party held a brief meeting last night with those who will serve as ushers and also with the few that responded to the call for singers. He appears very optimistic over the enthusiasm already shown by the workers in the various departments that have begun to function for the success of the meeting.

Rev. M. F. Ram who is to do the preaching for the service and the musical director, Mr. Ramsey arrived this morning with other members of the party from Raleigh where Sunday they concluded a successful campaign extending over a period of nine weeks.

Both Mr. Ramsey and Mr. Rogers are very anxious that the choir platform be filled for the initial service. If you are a singer your services are needed promptly at 7:30 o'clock which is the opening hour for the service. Don't wait for a personal invitation but upon entering the tabernacle proceed to the choir.

Glass Criticises Letter As Amazing Imputation

Washington, April 15.—Democratic assault upon President Coolidge's letter of last Friday relative to the conduct of investigations was renewed in the Senate today. Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia declared the president's letter to be an "amazing imputation upon that body."

President Urges Nation To Preserve Its Forests

Washington, Apr. 15.—The President issued a proclamation today setting aside the week of April 21-27 as Forest Protection Week, and for the celebration of Arbor Day, wherever practicable, within that week. The president urged all citizens and the press to give common thought to the protection of the forests from fire in order that the nation's wood supply may be guarded and the purity of the streams insured.

"Whereas, it is essential to the continued comfort, welfare and prosperity of the people of the United States that abundant forests, widely distributed and maintained in a condition of high productivity, be forever wisely conserved as one of our greatest natural resources; and

"Whereas, because of our constantly increasing need for wood and other forest products, together with our past failure to provide for reforestation, we are drawing upon our supplies of timber four times as fast as they are renewed through growth; and

"Whereas, the most formidable agency of forest destruction and prevention of reforestation is fire and, of the fires which annually devastate vast areas, four-fifths are ascribed in origin to human agencies and virtually all may be controlled and made innocuous through prudence, care, and vigilance;

"Therefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, do urge upon the governors of the various states to designate and set apart the week of April 21-27, 1924, as Forest Protection Week, and, wherever practicable and not in conflict with state law or accepted customs, to celebrate Arbor Day within that week. I also urge all citizens, either in association or as individuals, all schools, and the press of the land to give common thought to the protection of our forests from fire, to the end that, in the future as in the past, these forests may supply us with wood, protect the purity of our streams, and otherwise serve the people of the United States."

When everyone is against you the chances are that you are wrong. A minority basically right will inevitably become a majority.

NEW HEAD OF ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

REV. F. SCOTT MCBRIDE, N.Y.

Rev. F. Scott McBride, of Chicago, for thirteen years superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois, has been elected general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, succeeding the late Dr. Purley A. Baker.

Stage Set For Close of Great Campaign

The following gentlemen will act as judges at the close of The Daily Reflector's circulation and prize contest, making the final count and awarding the prizes:

- D. M. CLARK, Mayor. J. C. GASKINS, Register of Deeds. J. H. WALDROP, Asst. Cashier, Greenville Banking & Trust Co.

Everything is all set for the close of The Daily Reflector great circulation and prize contest on Saturday night, eight o'clock sharp. The judges are selected and announced and the ballot box will be installed in the office of the campaign manager on Thursday for what reserve votes you may have on hand. Votes may be deposited in the box any time between Thursday and Saturday night at eight o'clock. Don't fail to have them in the box before the last named hour.

The ballot box will be locked and sealed and the keys turned over to the judges to be opened by them at the close of the campaign. What votes are found in the box plus the total number of votes appearing to your credit in the paper will be your final standing.

It is not absolutely necessary that contestants be at The Reflector office while the count is being made. That is simply optional. They cannot, however, be in the same room where the count is being made because absolute quiet will be required when the count and re-check is made in order to avoid error. And whoever heard of a bunch of candidates being quiet in such a tight place where the majority of the prize winners, especially the leaders, will finish neck and neck. If the count got too close some of the candidates might be tempted to claim a couple of subscriptions to in that they forgot, and the judges of court would have to refuse to accept. Nothing counts unless it is in the box by eight o'clock.

Committee to Press Contempt Charges

Washington, April 15.—Decision was reached by the Senate Committee investigating the administration of the Department of Justice under Harry M. Daugherty, former attorney general, to cite his brother, M. S. Daugherty, president of the Midland National Bank of Washington Court House, Ohio, on a charge of contempt.

The resolution will be given to the Senate as soon as it can be prepared and will declare that the Ohio Banker refused to testify and also to permit the records of financial transactions to be inspected by the Senate or its agents.

KERNS FREED FROM MAJOR LEAGUES AT ATLANTA BY LAW PARTNER DAUGHERTY START SEASON

Convicted of Liquor Permit Fraud—Hired Attorney Because of Influence

Washington, April 15.—Cecil H. Kerns, president of the Victor Drug and Chemical Company, of Toledo, Ohio, was called before the Senate Daugherty Committee today to tell of the circumstances under which he was paroled from the Atlanta penitentiary in February of this year.

He said he was sentenced in a liquor conspiracy case and had employed John Podd, a former law partner of Harry M. Daugherty, former Attorney General of the United States, as attorney.

When asked by Senator Wheeler, special prosecutor for the investigation committee, if he had employed Podd because he thought that he had "influence with the Department of Justice," Kerns replied, "I most certainly did."

Fair Weather Promised For Today

Chicago, April 15.—Baseball drove politics and Teapot Dome into the background, temporarily at least, today when "What did Babe Ruth do today?" became the important question of the day.

Thousands of Americans will sit in wind-swept baseball parks to view their favorites in action or watch bulletin boards as the games came in.

Today's games will be:

American League. New York at Boston. Philadelphia at Washington. St. Louis at Chicago. Cleveland at Detroit.

National League. Brooklyn at New York. Boston at Philadelphia. Pittsburgh at Cincinnati. Chicago at St. Louis.

ACCEPT REPORT AS BASIS FOR NEGOTIATIONS

German Central Government Confers With Premiers of Federated States

Berlin, Germany, April 15.—The German cabinet decided to accept the experts' report as a basis of negotiations and to inform the reparations commission of its readiness to confer.

This is in line with the attitude taken by the conferees in yesterday's meeting between the Central government and the prime ministers of the Federated States.

Hardwick Resigns From Department of Justice

Atlanta, April 15.—Former Governor Thomas W. Hardwick today announced his resignation as special assistant to the attorney general of the United States and also as a member of the advisory council of the Department of Justice.

Washington, April 15.—With the Senate committee to pass the Janney exclusion law, Senator Lodge went to the White House today to inform the president of the sentiment of his colleagues and to advise him to give this his consideration in his attitude toward the bill.

Alienist Declares Harry Thaw Sane

Philadelphia, April 15.—Harry K. Thaw is suffering from aphasia but this is not serious enough to prevent his being declared sane and liberated from the West Philadelphia Asylum, according to Dr. Charles K. Mills, prominent alienist and witness in the Thaw insanity trial now before a jury.

Dr. Mills was put through a long examination by the attorneys for the Thaw estate and maintained as he did yesterday that Thaw is sane and would not be a menace if liberated.

Counsel for the trustees of the Thaw estate, in questioning Dr. Mills, revealed that records of the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases, where Thaw has been confined since 1917, show that Thaw kept a number of pet rabbits there, which he was reported at various times to have slapped, thrown around and even bitten until they squealed in pain.

Dr. Mills said he did not think such conduct unusual. "He treated pets as some people treat them," was the alienist's comment.

Developments at the trial ran the gamut of human emotions. Sensation seekers were barred from the courtroom, only those who could show subpoenas or connection with the case being admitted.

Thaw's 82-year-old mother, Mrs. Mary C. Thaw, who joined in the petition for the trial, was in the courtroom when Dr. Mills made his assertion.

Women and Veterans New Political Factors

Chapel Hill, April 14.—There are new factors to deal with in the world of politics and these are the women and the 80,000 world war veterans, declared Josiah W. Bailey, Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, in addressing the students of the University of North Carolina here tonight. The speaker said that the old hot air abuse and filth of politics must go and that the women were going to demand a thorough cleansing of state politics which would eventually, with the aid of the world war veterans, take effect in the national government as well.

"The women intend to interpret their political power in terms of human welfare," Mr. Bailey asserted, "while the boys of 1917-1918 will save this country from its present hopeless politics by demanding a real patriotism that means service—the same as they have given to their country."

Our statement must undergo a process of political liberation," asserted Mr. Bailey. "We should seek that the people may do for themselves. Our politics has become hidebound. We have to much of the machine idea in our politics, too much of farrying elections and primaries by mere political power. The political healer, paid for his services is at large in this state, as everywhere in America. Here is the menace to progress and an underminer of the confidence in government and in the Democratic party."

"In conclusion, let me say that I have not spoken to you in the spirit of a candidate, but I have spoken the words of my faith and my conviction. I have undertaken to point the way that you young men may do your duty to your Commonwealth."

McDonald Endorses Reparation Report

London, England, April 15.—The first expression of official opinion on the reparation experts' report was made in the House of Commons today by Prime Minister McDonald when he announced that the government learned with the greatest satisfaction of the unanimous signing of the experts' findings.

"The experts' report constitutes, in our opinion," said the prime minister, "an unbiased and carefully thought-out endeavor to aid the governments concerned in their task of reaching a settlement of this vital and long standing problems."

Japan Still Protests Exclusion Clause

Tokio, Japan, April 15.—Foreign Minister Matsui, in a statement today to American newspaper correspondents, protested against the exclusion of Japanese from the United States.

The Minister declared "we have causes for the gravest anxiety and we appeal against any action that can only wound us to some extent and bring little satisfaction to you."

COPELAND WILL ADDRESS DOCTORS CONVENTION

Seventy - First Annual Meeting of North Carolina Medical Society Convenes Today

Raleigh, April 15.—With hundreds of doctors from all parts of the state in attendance, the Seventy-first annual meeting of the North Carolina Medical Society opened here this morning with Dr. J. Vance McGougan of Fayetteville, president, in the chair.

Dr. Royal S. Copeland, United States Senator from New York who has been spoken of as a presidential possibility, and who was health officer for New York City arrived here this morning and is a guest of Secretary of State W. N. Everett. Dr. Copeland will make the principal address at a public meeting of the Society tonight.

While the official opening of the Society's convention took place this morning, preliminary meetings of two subsidiary organizations were held yesterday when the North Carolina Hospital Association and the North Carolina Public Health Association held their annual meetings.

President McGougan made his annual report and made the annual address of the president, touching on many questions of interest to the profession.

Among the outstanding features of the annual meeting of the society will be a discussion of physical and mental defects and crime. The subject will be discussed from the legal viewpoint by J. G. B. Ehringhaus, of Elizabeth City, and from the scientific standpoint by Dr. J. K. Hall, a distinguished alienist of Richmond, Va., but a North Carolinian by birth. Their addresses will precede that of Dr. Copeland tonight.

The society was welcomed to the city this morning by Mayor E. K. Culbreth, on behalf of the city, Dr. M. M. Bonner, on behalf of the county, and by R. N. Simms on behalf of the chamber of commerce and other organizations. The response was made by Dr. Frederick M. Hanes, of Winston-Salem.

The committees on entertainment and program have arranged a wide range of clinics and demonstration for the society. Social features will be given prominent place. Among the events will be a reception by Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Royster at their home in Bloomsbury. The Woman's Club will give a tea and reception for the members of the auxiliary here for the meeting.

This afternoon and tomorrow morning the sessions will be taken up with the formal business of the society. Included will be a meeting of the board of examiners and other boards and committees, and of the house of delegates. The concluding session of the meeting will be held Thursday morning, with the installation of officers and the passage of resolutions.

MRS. H. W. WHEDBEE TO TAKE TREATMENT IN ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL

Judge and Mrs. H. W. Whedbee left this morning for Richmond where Mrs. Whedbee will enter St. Luke's Hospital for treatment. Her many friends will regret to learn of her illness and wish for her a speedy recovery.

RENO MAN CLAIMS PARTIAL DEAFNESS CURED BY RADIO

Reno, Nev.—Radio eventually may cure partial deafness, in the belief of Norman Suires, of this city, who cites his own case as an illustration.

Two years ago, Squires says, he was totally deaf in his left ear. Now, after constant treatments by radio, he declares he can hear a whisper across the room.

Radio sound waves, passing along the auditory nerves from the head phones, massage the nerves and stimulate them to the extent that hearing is restored, he contends.

The minute a fellow quits smoking all his friends begin to offer him and bring little satisfaction to you."

THE HAM-RAMSAY REVIVAL

The Ham-Ramsay revival services will begin tonight. All is in readiness for large crowds and, if the experience of other places at which these services have been held is any indication of what to expect, the crowds will be there. Also, if we may continue to judge from the experience of other places, the services will have a far-reaching effect on the community—an effect on its social, its moral, and its business existence.

MORE UNCALLED FOR LEGISLATION

Bills have been introduced in both the House and Senate with the object of preventing the Department of Agriculture from issuing 'intentions to plant' forecasts with reference to cotton.

Two days were spent in conference between the Secretary of Agriculture and a number of representative southern farmers and leaders last December to discuss the problems entering into cotton reporting.

After such study these men, all of whom stand high in southern agriculture and are known as being abreast of the conditions and whose only aim could be to serve the farmers most effectively, passed a resolution asking the United States Department of Agriculture to continue its 'intention to plant' forecast, basing their recommendation upon the feeling that the farmer should know at all times the true situation in regard to his work.

It was brought out in the discussion that the forecast would not reveal the trade anything that they did not already know but would place the farmer in possession of the same facts that the trade would have and therefore in a position to protect themselves against overproduction.

If it should develop that the farmers of the cotton belt had planned to put in more acreage than was good for them they would through these reports or forecasts have a basis for definite readjustment.

What agriculture needs is facts to guide itself by in its work and any step that would prevent the gathering of important facts is calculated in the end to do great harm.

We therefore hope that those who are sponsoring these bills will fail to place such a stumbling block in the path of progress.

LIGHT UP THE WAGONS

The April nineteenth issue of Collier's magazine has, in its automobile column, which it calls GAS, the following letter:

To the Editor of Gas:

What about tail lights? Let's not worry so much about tail lights on automobiles, but put them on wagons and bargies. There is little danger of a rear-end collision of automobiles when they are all going at about the same speed. But a wagon or buggy is hard to see at night and is practically the same as standing still on the road. They are a real menace when driving with dim lights.

BURGESS STEWART,
Huntington, W. Va.

No further comment is necessary to anyone who drives through the countryside at night. He knows the many, many times he has narrowly averted a bad smash-up if the overtaken vehicle happened to be a heavily loaded large wagon and the times that only lighter rig.

Accidents from this source have been innumerable—and they were all avoidable.

There is some excuse for delay in the elimination of grade-crossings, thousands and thousands have been spent and many more thousands will be spent before they are all gone. But they are going. There cannot be found the least excuse for the user of a vehicle who will not afford himself the protection of an ordinary tin lantern and do his part to help make the highways safe.

Legislation is pending in this state for the correction of this evil. If you will let your wishes be known a bill to cover the subject will be passed. There can be nothing said against such a bill. Do your part—make your wants known—and make the highways safe for all who use them.

THE MELANCHOLY PERSON

Shakespeare says Hamlet was melancholy. And he was. There's no doubt of that. He was a very sad prince, was this Prince of Denmark. But why was he so melancholy? "Ah!" as Hamlet might answer, "that is the question."

Hamlet lived in a great castle—yes—but that castle was not as sanitary as the average backyard of today.

No plumbing, no bath tub, no shower, no closet, no lavatory, no kitchen sink, no running hot and cold water—well, wouldn't that condition make anybody melancholy?

No wonder Hamlet saw things in the dark and plotted to kill his whole family.

A sanitary home and a clean body are the first steps in a cheerful outlook, and without a cheerful outlook no man can be the success he would like to be.

ONE OF THE GREATEST ACTION-PICTURES EVER SNAPPED.

GRAND NATIONAL STEEPLECHASE. INTL.

This photograph has been pronounced by experts to be one of the greatest action pictures ever snapped. It was taken at the recent running of the Grand National Steeplechase, in England, premier jumping race in the world, won this year by Master Robert, owned by Lord Alrile, a 25 to 1 outsider in the betting. This picture was made at the historic Beecher's Brook jump, one of the hardest on this hazardous course, and shows six of the jumpers poised in the air, while the seventh has just landed and taken up his stride. King George, Queen Mary and members of the royal family attended.

last September has set stamp collectors to seeking specimens of certain postage stamps which were choice even before issued. The stamps were prepared to commemorate the wedding of the Prince Regent and Princess Nagako Kuni, originally scheduled to take place last October.

When the quake and fire visited Tokio September 1, nearly all the issue, then held by the postal authorities in Tokio, was destroyed. By accident a few stamps were saved. These had been allotted for sale in the Caroline and Marshall Islands in the equatorial Pacific, held by Japan under mandate, and had been shipped to the islands just before the quake, so they might be placed on sale the date of the wedding.

The disaster caused a postponement of the wedding and the stamps were ordered returned to Tokio. When the Imperial nuptials finally were celebrated January 26, the few remaining stamps were issued, in denominations of 1, 1-2, 3, 8 and 20 sen. Philatelists all over the world are trying to secure them for their collections.

MINING ENGINEER FINDS MOUNTAIN SHEEP IN NEVADA

Tonopah, Nev. — A herd of 70 mountain sheep was discovered recently by F. M. Rapp, a mining engineer while prospecting in the Silver Peak range. While it was known that mountain sheep inhabited this territory it was not believed they were so numerous. Contrary to popular belief, Rapp said they take to sheer cliffs only when danger threatens. At other times they stay on the gentler slopes of the higher mountains. Plans are being made to bring an expert hunter to Nevada next summer to exterminate the cougar, the greatest enemy of the mountain sheep.

Our new store is like a great modern market-place

PICTURE to yourself the broad and sandy valley of the Euphrates. Winding its way through the dreary and trackless reaches of this heat-drenched country, picture a caravan—camel after camel laden with bales of beautiful oriental rugs. Looming through the dust-laden atmosphere of the horizon are the gilded minarets and towers of Bagdad—that age-old capital of an ancient world of commerce.

The caravan reaches Bagdad and its precious treasures are soon distributed among the stalls of the market-places. Two thousand years have wrought little change in these market-places. But the buyers have changed. They come now from the four corners of the world.

If you are a lover of beautiful rugs, you would love to revel in the exquisite displays in these oriental bazaars. You can't, of course. It is too far away. But among the buyers there is a representative of Miller & Rhoads. He is your representative. With the eye of an expert he appraises and buys at prices you could not approach.

A few weeks and those same rugs are thousands of miles across land and sea, in Richmond, at Miller & Rhoads Store. Here, in this modern "market-place," you can inspect them at your leisure and in comfort. You can buy them, too, at prices easily within your reach.

Truly Miller & Rhoads Store is a great modern market-place. It is stocked with the best the world affords, at prices to meet the purse of all who come to buy. Yet it is far more comfortable than any market-place was ever known to be. Six centrally located elevators, convenient to all entrances, are there to lift you to the departments on the second, third or fourth floors, or the beautiful foyer and tea-rooms on the fifth floor. Comfortable rest-rooms, where you may meet a friend, refresh yourself or sit and chat, make it an ideal place to shop.

If you can't get what you want in your own locality, try

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL AT THE FAIR GROUNDS THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Greenville High School will play Tarboro High School on Thursday and Rocky Mount High School Friday at the fair grounds. Both games will be called at four o'clock.

Greenville High School lost a pretty game of baseball to Washington High School yesterday at Washington with a score of 3 to 1.

Both teams played good ball, but the pitchers walked right many. Forbes walked 5 during the fifth inning, forced in two men for Washington. West relieved Forbes in the fifth, and made a good showing for the rest of the game. Leggett and Potts also pitched well for Washington.

Your children's food

The foods your children eat today, determine their strength and health in later years.

Remember this; they must have well balanced meals. Their food should contain the right amount of mineral salts. These salts act as bone building material. They furnish the different fluids and juices that help keep the tissues young—the body strong and active.

Bakings that are made of good plain white flour and baking powder contain a large amount of mineral salts. Allow your children to eat hearty of these bakings together with fruits and dairy products. This forms an ideal food balance.

When making quick rising breads and pastries such as: biscuits, muffins, cakes, waffles, etc., don't fail to use Calumet—the economy Baking Powder. It contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—it's the purest and surest leavener made. That's why it helps make your flour foods light and easily digested.

Millions of mothers use Calumet daily because they are interested in their children's welfare—their present and future health.

SCANDINAVIAN YOUTH DESCRIBED AS HARD WORKING STUDENTS

Evanston, Ill.—Students from Scandinavian countries are fundamentally more sturdily religious than American students, in the belief of the Rev. Ottman Firing, president of the Norwegian-Danish Theological Seminary here, after many years observation of students from these countries.

"They belong to a more conservative race, although I do not mean that they are narrow minded in their beliefs," President Firing states. "They are eager and quick to learn. I find that one year's study of English enables them to speak it remarkably well. Our method of conducting classes would perhaps confuse most students, for we have to teach English to our foreign students and Norwegian to American students. But it is not so difficult, for only the most deserving students are allowed to stay.

Bibles for the Blind.

Los Angeles.—An event which affects the lives of thousands of blind men and women in English-speaking countries occurred here recently where a revised Braille Bible of the King James version was run from the presses. Each Bible consists of 21 volumes. J. Robert Atkinson, a blind publisher, has been working on the edition since 1917.

Dublin.—Ireland recently adopted a regulation that no hay or straw could be imported from England, the purpose being to prevent the outbreak of the foot and mouth disease among horses and cattle. Straw is straw, even in the form of a straw hat, and English women and men saw their summer head coverings stop at the frontier. They protested, and reason prevailed. Now ladies' summer millinery and men's "boaters" may be brought into the country.

"BLOSSOM TIME" COMING HERE New York for two years. This opera with Franz Schubert's own music is undoubtedly one of the most delightful musical entertainments ever staged, and appeals to all ages and all people. With a score consisting of the famous composer's loveliest melodies which are delicately woven into a story of Schubert's life, it represents the most distinguished musical production of the past few years.

The action of the play takes place in Vienna in 1826, when Schubert was unknown, and few friends believed in his genius. He falls in love with Mitzi Kranz, daughter of the Crown Jeweller, to whom he has been giving music lessons, but happiness was not for Schubert, and he sees Mitzi give herself to his best friend. This love story is the basis of the operetta for "Blossom Time" cannot rightfully be called musical comedy, and as sung by the splendid voices assembled by the Messrs. Schubert touches almost grand opera. Greek Evans who sings the role of Schubert has been heard in Grand opera throughout the South with the Scotti and Creatore organizations. Margaret Merle is known as the Terzazzini of Vaudeville, Arthur Geary was the tenor of the first Music Box Revue, and every member of the cast has at some time or other been connected with an operat organization. "Blossom Time" is real music, real entertainment, the kind that we get all too seldom.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET TODAY WORKS OVERTIME GERMANY

Berlin.—Before the war the average per capital consumption of coffee in Germany was five pounds annually and in 1923 it fell to about one pound. The consumption of beer is only about one-half what it was before the war, and the use of tea and cocoa has fallen off in about the same proportion as coffee. The drinking of milk in the big cities ranges from one-tenth to one fifth of pre-war days.

To the above extent the people of Germany are becoming drinkers of water.

The Dance of the Six Veils

THESE young society women have put over a series of cabaret and vaudeville performances. "The Frolics," for the benefit of Greenwich House. Here they are pictured in a fashion number entitled "Because You Love Nice Things," illustrating the latest mode of wearing that most alluring of feminine accessories—the veil. The girls are the Misses Virginia Wilson, Dorothy Brown, Betty Beardsley, Florence Kimbley, Katherine Kelley and Mrs. C. U. Cesar.

Standard for over two generations

One sewing machine has been on the market for seventy years and is still the best known make. "Standard" petroleum products have been on sale for over fifty years. What better proof could there be that both have faithfully filled a definite public need? By doing so they have become the standard in their respective fields.

You can count on your fingers products which have maintained supremacy in their field for two generations or more.

To please the public year after year for over fifty years is a severe test. That is what the products of the Standard Oil Company (N. J.) have done.

"Standard" Polarine Oils and greases have become standards of comparison, each in its class. When you buy a "Standard" product you can be sure that you are buying as good a product as is made. But the only way to be sure of getting it is to ask for it by name.

Better Styles, Bigger Assortments, Greater Values

These are our part in the "Pride in Appearance" movement

Men in every city are realizing more than ever before the importance of good dress. That's the meaning of the "Pride in Appearance" Movement, which is sweeping the country.

Knowing our own city as we do, we realized months ago what the demand on us would be at the Easter Season. We prepared. We combed the markets of the country—we secured the cooperation of manufacturers, we made certain that we would have not only the largest assortments and best styles we have ever shown—but the greatest values as well.

They're ready for you now. Wonderful shirts, the finest of hosiery, colorful neckwear, smart hats; and an immense assortment of Society Brand Clothes, the best in America. A great many of them are the loose, easy style that's the thing today—broad shouldered coats, straight, wide trousers, the most comfortable and the best looking clothes men have ever worn.

All this is our part in the "Pride in Appearance" movement; it's the biggest thing we have ever done; we want you to see it.

Colts and Fillies In Careful Training For Kentucky Derby

Louisville, Ky.—Not more than 29 or 25 of the 152 three-year-olds nominated for the fifteenth renewal of the Kentucky Derby at a mile and a quarter, for a purse carrying $50,000 in added money, will go to the post in May, in the opinion of turf experts here.
Most of the colts, fillies and geldings nominated for the golden anniversary of the classic, already have started training or are being seasoned at winter tracks. Many of the candidates of strictly Derby class have had careful preliminary training and are either ready now, or will be shortly, to do a half mile at about 50 without danger. Profiting by the experience of last year, however, when many of the colts had gone a bit stale, trainers are not rushing the youngsters.

Last year the record number of 21 runners faced the barrier. The field usually is somewhat smaller, due to the $500 starting fee and the class of animals entered.
A field of even 25 starters would not be too large. The track is at least 120 feet wide at the starting point and the field has a quarter of a mile to run before making the first turn, which also is very wide.
In this connection followers of the Derby point to the number of time the pacemaker has won, or been defeated by a slight margin. Zev led the entire route last year. Morviel did likewise the year before, while in 1921 Behave Yourself nosed out his stablemate, Black Servant, after the latter had led all the way. Exterminator, Paul Jones, Sir Barton and Old Rosebud, holder of the record for the race, all set the pace or were within striking distance. Regret, the only filly that ever won the Derby, romped down the field in front in 1915. Thus, turfmen point out, jockeyship, while always a factor seems to have been of most value at the barrier.

Western owners have won the Derby but twice in the 49 times it has been run; Old Rosebud in 1914, when he set the record of 2:03 1-5 for the mile and a quarter, and E. R. Bradley's Behave Yourself. Favorites won in fewer than half the races.

MILLS IN SOUTHERN STATES SHOW INCREASED COTTON CONSUMPTION

Louisville.—Cotton mills of southern states consumed 4,279,231 bales of cotton during 1923, or 64 percent of the total cotton mill consumption of the United States, according to R. L. McKellar, foreign freight traffic manager of the Southern Railway system.
This was an increase of 296,693 bales over last year and was due,

Mr. McKellar declared, to a larger number of miles in the south and the expansion of the sales of cotton piece goods in foreign countries, particular in Latin America and the far east.
To gain a permanent peace we often have to stir up a temporary storm.
