PENSION BILL VETO CHARACTERIZED AS CRUEL AND UNJUST

Veterans Appeal to Congress to Over Ride President's Veto

Washington, May 5.—Characterizing the veto by President Coolidge of the Bursum pension bill as cruel and unjust, Gaylord M. Saltzaber, commander in chief of the G. A. R., appealed by wire today to Senators to over-ride it. "Veto by President Coolidge so unjust to the feeble old veterans who so nobly served their country I cannot find words sufficiently strong to characterize it" the message sent from Ohio said. "With just claims against the government they are ignominiously turned away from the door of help and hope. It cannot be possible that this great nation has forgotten those who saved it from disunion. On behalf of my suffering and deserving comrades I appeal to the branch of the government representing the people, the American Congress, to right this great wrong and pass the Bursum pension bill over the veto of the president.

Old men and women whom we thought had earned the nation's gratitude, now averaging 81 years of age, plead on bended knees to Congress to give them aid in their feeble old age and thus give expression to their prayer for simple justice which I am sure the people of this great nation heartily approve. Due to the veterans and Almighty God this government still lives and with broken heart they and their widows pray to Congress to over-ride the veto."

TORNADO AREA IS VISITED BY 25,000 PEOPLE YESTERDAY

Approximately $1,200 Contributed by Sunday Visitors; All Eastern Carolina Responds With Most Liberal Contribution Which Is Believed to Be Around $5,000; Supplies Arriving Daily

A crowd estimated at 25,000 representing every town of Eastern Carolina on yesterday the scene of the tornado which swept the Robersonville section last Wednesday and contributed approximately $120,000 for the relief of the victims of the disaster.

The citizens of Robersonville have responded in a most commendable way to the sufferers. All business was suspended during the week-end and the people of the city went out and helped clear up the debris. They have contributed in every conceivable way and are handling the situation in a most creditable manner.

While the people of the stricken area have been working, the citizens of eastern North Carolina, with sad hearts and untiring efforts have been busy raising money and sending supplies. The amount contributed through the Red Cross from surrounding towns was estimated on Saturday night to be around $4,000, although it hasn't been possible to tabulate it correctly.

The farmers of the stricken area are badly in need of help to rebuild their homes. It is impossible to secure enough labor in the Robersonville section, and an appeal is going out for help.

The erection of houses will require work and any help in this will be appreciated. A few of the houses are now under construction while a number of families are living in houses which are being held up by props.

Red Cross workers were in the field yesterday soliciting funds and the visitors responded in a most pleasing way.

The committees are busy tabulating the contributions and expect to be able to give the grand total in a few days. If any one wishes to contribute they are requested to send it in at once as work of dividing the funds among those in need will begin just as soon as the tabulation is completed.

Despite the oppressive heat yesterday afternoon a large audience greeted Evangelist Ham and listened with rapt attention to the evangelist's scathing arraignment and denunciation of the false and damning philosophies of the present day, in the course of which Mr. Ham paid his respects in unmistakable terms to the modernistic preachers and teachers who today are attempting to substitute for God's revelation the unsupported and foolish guesses of man. The message made a profound impression. Prior to the sermon, Mr. Ramsay introduced Rev. Sylvester of Raleigh, a prominent figure in the Raleigh campaign, who in a short address testified to the great good done in Raleigh and plead for consecrated effort on the part of Greenville citizens. Mr. Betts also sang a solo at last night's service.

Following a spirited and effective song service last night Mr. Ham preached earnestly on "The Final Judgment" and extended a brief invitation to which around fifty responded.

Mr. R. A. Nichols, 62, died at his home in Beaver Dam Township last night at 8 o'clock after a week's illness from a stroke of paralysis. Services were conducted from his late home this afternoon at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James Moye, of Snow Hill, interment following in the family burying ground.

Mr. Nichols was well known throughout the county. He was a successful farmer and popular with a host of friends. Mrs. Nichols preceded him to the grave seven years ago. He is survived by three daughters, Messdames D. G. Smith, J. R. Jones and Irma Nichols; five sons, Messrs. Thad, Roy, Richard, Gladson and Shellie; one brother, C. N. Nichols, and two sisters, Mrs. J. B. Joyner and Mrs. Marlon Smith.

Auto Collision Results In Suit

Wilmington, May 5.—Ken Burris, boxer, of this city, has been sued by J. A. Davis, also of this city, for $3,690 for damages said to have been done by Burris to Davis and his family when their cars collided on the Federal Road on the night of April 21. The plaintiff claims that Burris drove his car into the car in which he, and his family were riding and injured him and his wife and mother-in-law and damaged his car. Davis asked $900 damages for the car; $2500 for injuries to the three of them and $200 for the loss of time. He requested that the defendant be held in bail for $2500.

Liquor Dealers Find Church Yard Good Place to Sell 'Stuff'

Roy Moye, Bruce Johnston, David Dupree, negroes, were arrested Saturday night by officer S. A. Whitehurst and placed in jail, charged with selling whiskey in the church yard at Warren's Chapel, a negro church, located between Greenville and Farmington.

The "party" at which the wholesale handling of liquor, played an important part took place in the church yard directly in front of the church door. From reports two automobiles were well supplied with the "white water," and as the services progressed things grew warmer and warmer. The preacher, seeing that his sermon would not have the desired effect if things were allowed to keep on, went to the door and in a most cordial manner asked the "liquor dealers" if they would not move to another part of the yard to conduct their sale.

Officer Whitehurst being notified of the affair, went out and arrested the above named negroes.

Warren's Chapel has quite a reputation, as several acts of disorderly conduct have been reported from that section.

All three defendants were given a hearing in county court today. Roy Moye's case was continued to superior court for trial by jury. David Dupree and Bruce Johnston were found guilty of possessing whiskey and were fined $25 each and one half costs. Another case was ordered docketed and defendants were tried and found guilty of receiving whiskey and given 6 months in county jail.

ELECTION RESULTS IN SAFE COALITION

Berlin, May 5.—The promised big four coalition composed of Socialists, Clerical, Democratic and People's parties was regarded as assured on the basis of partial returns of yesterday's parliamentary election. Thus the people have apparently placed their seal of approval upon the Dawes reparations report as leading Moderates including the foreign minister have adopted the executive report as a sure cure for the country's ailments.

While the counting of the ballots was necessarily slow due to the large number of party tickets in the field there is indication that the coalition has sufficient seats in the Reichstag to force through legislation required by the Dawes report with a little help from the independent factions. Nationalists and Communists made some gains but the vote by the Luddendorff ulster monarchy did not come up to expectations and indicated a decisive failure of the reactionary and radical campaign.

A provisional list of deputies so far chosen for the Reichstag in yesterday's German election based upon returns in at 3 o'clock this afternoon gave the coalition of Moderates, Socialists, Clerical, Democrats and People's party 229 seats or 10 more than all seats filled by the numerous other parties combined.

The provisional list thus far chosen has been tabulated as follows: Socialists 99; Communists 59; Democrats 26; Center party 61; Bavarian Peoples party 15; German Peoples party 44; German National 93; Extra Nationals 28; Hanoverians 5; all other parties 19. Total 448.

CORNER STONE OF NEGRO SCHOOL LAID

John A. Blum, Prominent Negro of Twin City Delivers Address

The corner stone of the Negro School building here was laid yesterday by the Masonic fraternity.

The purpose of the Principal C. M. Eppes was to make the occasion important to Negro citizenship and to do this he invited the Grand Master of Negro Masons, Dr. James E. Shepard, of Durham, to deliver a message to Greenville citizens. The death of General Julian S. Carr in Chicago last week and his interment yesterday prevented Sheppard's coming here.

Knowing the principal of Greenville schools and his determined purpose to have only men, who are conservative to speak for his patrons, the Grand Master sent a Banker and Insurance man, a real North Carolina Negro citizen, to speak.

White men and women of every progressive North Carolina town are ever ready to welcome leaders of the negro of the type that spoke to the negro patrons of this community.

Representatives from Kinston, Tarboro, Washington, New Bern and Wilson all breathing the same spirit of racial good will and gratefulness to the forward looking white men of Greenville and the state for what they are doing for improvement. The speaker said that millions of dollars had been spent for negro education alone. This money is not spent for fun, the purpose is to improve the future citizenship of the state. The future is calling for men, prepared men. Men who can do things. We are facing a situation "Where the survival of the fittest." He said the best wages are paid those who do the best and related an incident of two nurses. He said one received ten dollars per month and one thirty dollars. While the trained nurse would not only take care of the baby but would serve as a teacher for the child.

The age is calling for a man or woman, that can cure cancer and tuberculosis. It is not calling for a white man or black man, it is a man that can put over the job in what the world wants.

The speaker urged thrift and said that the hale hearty fellow who is a beggar is frowned upon.

He in two addresses yesterday urged the people to stay here in North Carolina rather than go to other parts, for it is here that the Negroes find their friends. They help them buy farms and city homes. If you must go don't sell your property for you will need it sooner or later.

He then urged the citizens to

Curb Market Will Re-Open Saturday

The Curb Market which proved so successful during last spring and summer will re-open Saturday, May 10th at 9 o'clock at its former stand next to the Farmers Bank.

The Curb Market was of invaluable service to the house wives of Greenville during last season and will no doubt be of greater service this year.

The Business Men's Prayer service this morning witnessed the largest attendance of the series and increased interest. The meeting this morning was led by Mr. Chandler of Fayetteville. By a vote of the men present the meeting hour for this service was changed from 8:30 to 8:15 at which time the meetings will be held henceforth.

Mr. Ham's text last night for his sermon on "The Final Judgment" was:

"It is appointed unto man once to die, and after death the judgment." He also read the following passages of scripture

"But now (God) commandeth all men everywhere to repent; because He hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He hath ordained; whether He hath given assurance unto all men, in that He hath raised Him from the dead.—Acts 17:30-31.

"And I saw a great white throne and Him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened; . . . and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books; . . . and they were judged every man according to their works.—Rev. 17:11-13."

Between the reading of these texts and the commencement of his sermon the evangelist sang "The Judgment" to a hushed audience. Following is a condensed summary of his sermon:

Certain and Unavoidable.

The first thing we note about the judgment is the certainty of it. Men may laugh at it now; but they can't laugh away its decrees then. Men laughed at Noah when he gave them God's warning of the coming flood; they laughed at Jeremiah when he warned Israel of her coming captivity; they mocked at Jesus when He told them of the utter and awful destruction that awaited Jerusalem. But their laughing and mocking did not prevent the fulfilling of the letter of every one of these divinely inspired prophecies.

Says Liquor House Divided It Among Its Stockholders

Washington, May 5.—Legal steps by which Groomes and Unrich Company, a Chicago liquor house, distributed 5,000 cases of high grade intoxicants among its stock holders and escaped penalty under the Volstead Act were described today before the Senate Daugherty investigating committee.

Charles A. Williams, attorney for the concern explained the plan by which the corporation had dissolved and its assets of whiskey, wines and cordials had been turned over to 130 Chicago citizens who had bought out the eight or ten original stock holders.

Twelve Injured By Gas Bomb Explosion

Tate, Michigan, of the Chemical warfare service, Sergeant Richard Williams and Private Dimitris Rapadimitris were seriously injured at Scholesfield barracks when a phosphorus bomb exploded in the chemical warfare area barracks. Nine other enlisted men were burned by the flaming gas. They were Sergeant Rowland Fournier, Corporal Charles Cooley, Rudolph Mattson, Private John Beaver, William Crupp, William Senhert, Grant Cavanaugh, Clifford Jackson and Harry Miller Emory.

Urge Lifting Ban Off Amusements

Springfield, Mass., May 5.—Uniting of America with British, Australian and other Methodists in the cause of world peace was urged in the conference here today by Rev. W. B. McCutcheon, president of Quenes College, Melbourne. "Can't we get together?" he asked. "Will you people take the lead? Send out a radio to Great Britain and Australia and you'll find we are listening in and you will hear us reply 'You lead and we will follow.' Let's forget our ancient grudges and see if in a united brotherhood we cannot meet the needs of the world today."

Resolutions praising the address of the bishop delivered yesterday as broad, comprehensive, fearless, illuminating and inspirational were passed by the congress. Speakers described the address as truly statesmanlike and of an original character.

Indiana Will Hold Primaries Tomorrow

Indianapolis, Ind., May 5.—Indiana voters after an apathetic campaign will on tomorrow express their presidential preference and select candidates for governor, legislative, county and township offices.

President Coolidge and Hiram W. Johnson are contending for the Republican presidential preference.

The Ku Klux Klan and 10 women candidates, one for Congress and the others for seats in the state legislature have been features of the campaign with chief interest centered about the gubernatorial nomination.

Oil Heater Explodes In Home Of F. Clark

On Sunday morning at 9 o'clock the fire alarm was sent in from box 56, an oil heater having exploded in the home of Mr. O. F. Clark. The promptness of the fire company prevented a serious fire.

Mrs. Clark lighted the heater in the kitchen, about 6:30 o'clock and went back to her room. About 9 o'clock she and Mr. Clark were awakened by the explosion. The alarm was immediately sent in.

It is estimated that the damage will amount to about $150 which is covered by insurance.

DAWES' PLAN APPROVED

Facts and circumstances surrounding the drafting of the reparations plan of the Dawes' committee refute the charges heard in some circles that the committee's report is a political football to be booted about at will by selfish political and financial interests.

The experts of the Dawes' committee, in the drafting of the new program of reparations payment and stabilizing of Europe's currency and industry, performed a diplomatic function; the various interests involved were fully consulted; bargains were struck; the necessary dickering took place in the committee rooms, and all the governments were aware, in detail, of the conclusions as they were reached.

The committee room was a clearing house for the political and financial views of all the interests involved. Their conference was an international conference under another name. What they produced was a treaty in all but name and form.

Acceptance of the Dawes plan was therefore as near a certainty as any diplomatic action can be; and it had the additional advantage of not requiring the ratification of the United States senate. To be sure, the German reichstag will have to pass certain measures before it can be put into operation, but the reichstag has showed itself to be a rather easily bossed legislature.

There remains the participation of American finance in a reparations loan. In fact, the working of the entire program depends upon a supply of financial views from this country. But there can be little uncertainty here. If General Dawes and his colleagues had not made sure in advance that a loan could be floated, they would scarcely have it the key-stone of their settlement arch.

America went to the assistance of Europe upon the basis of an implied contract providing that the other nations would compromise their differences and get down to hard pan. This price Europe has at last agreed to pay. The necessary loan will now be forthcoming.

MODERN MIRACLE WORKERS

Modern business is a matter of advertising. People no longer follow the ancient custom of going to market to purchase the few necessary articles that were required by the family, and which the merchant may have had exposed upon his shelves or tucked away under the counter or behind it in tiers of drawers that were never opened unless the customer inquired for the goods that were thus hidden away.

Today the successful merchant uses the column of the newspapers to advertise his wares. He not only tells what he has, but he illustrates his advertising space with pictures of the various articles either singly or artistically grouped. He gives prices and faithfully describes each article, so that the reader may thus obtain a very clear understanding of what is offered for sale, its price and, if it is a credit house, the terms and conditions of sale. It's this variety of advertising that has created a demand for thousands of articles that would not have sold had they not been advertised.

Advertising is the mainspring of business. It is the creator of business and the source of a nation's prosperity. Advertising tells the tourist where to go, how to go and how to get the benefit of the money he has to spend upon his vacation. Advertising builds mills, railroads, great industries, and in fact everything that enters into the life and prosperity of a nation. It keeps the trains moving, the ships sailing, the airplanes flying, and gives employment to millions of people who would otherwise find existence a problem.

Read the advertisements. They are of vital importance. The many save dollars in the expenditures necessary to every household.

If you want a man to believe you, tell him what he thinks.

Chicago claims she will have 3,000,000 people by 1925 if she can keep them alive.

When a girl says she is blushing these days you have to take her word for it.

Another thing that encourages us to awake and breathe the early morning air is the early morning fly.

Perhaps we would have more great men if we had more half-wits to afford necessary contrast.

It will soon be the season when the college graduate begins to regret that the course of study didn't include art of making a living.

Counting to a hundred before starting a fight is nice, but Jack Dempsey counts to $750,000.

Every once in a while you see a statesman who thinks he is a leader just because he makes noise enough to attract the curious.

OAK RIDGE FINALS LARGELY ATTENDED

Mr. F. C. Harding Delivers Address; Fine Program Rendered

Thursday night and Friday, May 1 and 2, were two very pleasant days for the people of Oak Ridge School, and the surrounding community, as well. The auditorium was crowded to its capacity at both the morning and evening exercises. The children were at their best, and rendered splendid programs, which reflects a great deal of credit on the principal, Mrs. Joel Patrick, of Grifton, as well as her two able assistants, Miss Fleming and Mrs. L. N. Dempsey. Long before the appointed hour, Friday morning, people from far and near began to assemble on the school grounds. People of the community coming in their automobiles, trucks, etc., each bringing a box or boxes for the noon-day repast, which was spread after the morning exercises, in regular picnic style. And was there plenty of it? I should say yes. And they "gathered up the fragments that remained, over seven basketsfull."

The outstanding feature of the morning service was an address by Hon. F. C. Harding, of Greenville. It was an inspiring address. It was based on the Common Sense of the People of North Carolina. He cited very vividly the rapid progress made by the Old North State, in schools, road-building, manufacturing, etc., paying splendid tribute to Pitt County and her noble citizens. I am sure that each citizen present went away with more pride in his heart for his native state, after listening to this inspiring address from one of her own sons. The speaker was introduced by Mr. K. A. Pittman, Ayden. His remarks were timely, and reflected great credit upon the noble work done by Mr. Harding for the betterment of his county and state.

Below is the program of both the evening and morning exercises:

GLORIA IS AN APACHE DANCER

Gloria Swanson does an apache dance in her latest Paramount picture, "The Humming Bird," at White's theatre today and tomorrow.

"It is a cruel, fierce, wild dance," according to Aurelio Coccia, Miss Swanson's instructor. "Many people believe that it has been exaggerated by dancers but this is not so."

The style, manner and music for that dance was brought direct from Paris by Coccia fourteen years ago when apache dances were all the rage in this country. The steps are the same that he saw and learned on many visits to the Parisian underworld.

GRIFTON NEWS

Little Gleda Tacker had the misfortune of falling and breaking her leg a few days ago. Medical assistance was rendered by Dr. Dawson, and the little fellow is getting along nicely.

Mrs. R. J. Lough, wife of our Methodist pastor, is spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Wyatt, Jr., of Wilson.

A very interesting debate was held in the High School auditorium on Friday, May 2. The query, "Resolved, that the inter-allied war debts should be cancelled," was ably discussed by Misses Frances Patrick and Carolina May, affirmative, and Misses Dannie Mercer Wiggins, and Alice Cameron, negative. The medal offered by J. R. Harvey & Co., was awarded to Miss Wiggins. Miss Patrick was awarded second choice. Each contestant did her part nobly, and reflects great credit upon the noble training that they are receiving at the hands of Mrs. Coltrane. The mid-week service at the Methodist church is still attracting gold crowds. Miss Dorothy Gardner led last Thursday night. She did her part nobly. An address, by Miss James, of the Grifton High School, entitled, "Wanted, A Man," was the chief feature of the evening. It was well delivered, and brought out some points that our young men as well as our older ones would do well to follow.

Below is the program as rendered: Opening Hymn, 551, Methodist Hymnal. The Lord's Prayer, all joining. Scripture Reading, Psalm 33, verses 12-22. Miss Louise Newborn.

Prayer by the leader. Song 677, Methodist Hymnal. Sentence Prayers. Miss Frances Patrick led with a very touching prayer, several others following, and Mrs. Langston closed.

Address: "The World's Call, 'Wanted, A Man,'" Miss James. Song 697, Methodist Hymnal.

Prayer, Miss Lemmond, Grifton High School.

A short testimony meeting. Recitation: "The Son of God Goes Forth to War." Roy Jackson.

Song 53, Hymnal. Announcements.

Closing Prayer. Miss Dorothy Gardner, leader.

50 new dresses, new styles, prices to suit all. W. A. Bowen's.

On next Sunday at the regular hour of worship, "Mothers' Day" will be observed. Special music will be furnished by the choir, and the pastor, Rev. R. J. Lough, will preach a special sermon, entitled, "Times Hallowed Name, My Mother." The church will be decorated, flags will be displayed, flower worn, all in memory of our precious mother.

Continued from page 1) spirited warnings. Even Lot's own children mocked him when he tried to get them to flee from Sodom for their lives; but their mockery did not avert the destruction of Sodom. Brother, you had better get your house in order for that awful day. For not one single prophecy of this old book has ever failed on fulfillment at the time appointed.

There Will Be No Exceptions. The second thing, we notice about the judgment is its universality. No man can escape it. Do not delude yourself with the idea that it is for the wicked only. See II Corin. 5:10. In that day no man's sin will be covered from view or from hearing. Those books spoken of are kept by an omniscient God, and we are told that the very walls will cry out against you.

If Edison can make a permanent record of the sounds of the voice on a piece of wax and reproduce it a year afterwards, why cannot God record in the wall all you have said, and record in His books everything you have done or thought? For we are told that He discerns the very intents and purposes of the heart, and we know that Jesus often read the thoughts of the Pharisees around Him and answered the things they thought but had not spoken.

Yes, many crimes have never been detected, and many criminals have escaped punishment here through the machinations of a shrewd lawyer or the lies of a witness; but in the day of judgment the truth concerning all things will be blazoned before the world as upon the sky in letters of light.

For What Are We to be Judged. Third, let us inquire for what we are to be judged. First, for the deeds done in the body. II Corin. 5:10. All the evil things which you remember and many that you have forgotten. You now are wont to say "It's nobody's business what I do." God will show you in that day. If you have turned a deaf ear to the cry of the needy, you will have to answer for it.

Second, we shall be judged of the secret things we have done. Romans 2:16. The things you have done in the neighboring communities, and which you vainly imagine are hid forever will all be exposed. David tried to cover up his sins but he failed. All the secret votes you have cast to foist bad men or iniquity upon your town or country are charged to your account and you must answer for them in that day.

Third, you are to be judged for every idle word you have spoken in all your life. Matt. 12:36: Your blasphemy, dirty yarns, lies, gossip, impure songs you have sung, the evil things you have said against the Bible, against this meeting, against Christ, against preachers. God has them all on His photograph records, and you will have to listen to them and explain them to the Great Judge in that day.

Very thoughts and imaginations of your heart. How can you face these things before God? I am sure that if I had a record of all your acts and a record of all your words and an exposition of all your secret thoughts and could make you believe that I was going to blaze them across this platform here, I could empty this tabernacle in five minutes. You could run from them now, but in that day you will have to 'stand,' we are told.

In John 3:20-21 Jesus, who is to be our judge in that day, tells us that every one that doeth evil hateth light; while every one that doeth the truth cometh to the light; and the Savior's explanation is that the reason is that the one class fear their deed will be reproved, while the other is willing to have their works made manifest. When you get home read those passages.

Fifth, we must answer for all our idolatry. This was the sin that filled the cup of God's wrath full against Israel. You have not worshipped Baal or Ashteroth; but you have worshipped Mammon, or maybe Baccus, or Terpsichore, or some other earthly deity to the damnation of your soul. And your guilt is greater than Israel's; for you have sinned against the light of two thousand years of Christianity which in their day was in the future. Yes, when you go to the judgment you had better have gone from the jungles of Africa than from this enlightened land.

The fourth thing we shall impress upon you about the judgment is that among the question asked you on that day will be, "What have you done with Jesus?" You are accustomed to make Judas the personification of all that is despicable in man, because he sold his Savior; but how many of you are free of guilt of the same sort? Many men since the days of Judas have sold out their Lord for money, others, for pleasure, others for popularity, others for social position. How many times have some of you rejected Jesus for one or another of the prices I have named.

Dramatic Picture of the Judgment. There stands Jesus at the right hand of God. Once He wore a mock robe of purple, held a broken reed for a scepter and wore a wreath of thorns for a crown. But now He wears a robe above the brightness of the sun, wields a scepter of iron and his crown is a diadem of immortal jewels. He sits upon the great white throne, and before Him stand all the nations of the earth.

I imagine that the first person arraigned before the awful Judge will be Judas the traitor. You may recall at my portraying the Savior of men as an awful judge. You have grown accustomed to thinking of Him as the meek and lowly Lamb of God, the sacrifice to which all the covenant pointed; but you lose sight was indeed as a sacrificial lamb sacrificed lambs slain under the old of the fact that while His first coming His second coming is to be as the Lion of the tribe of Judah. And you will agree that He should deal with the bosom friend who wickedly and so meanly betrayed Him as a lion would deal with its enemy, but how many of you have betrayed Him? Not for thirty pieces of silver, possibly; but for your greater love of the dance, the card table, booze, or other lust of the flesh.

Next came old Anninias and Calphas, the hypocritical old ecclesiastical bigots who were shocked by the blasphemy of Jesus calling himself the Son of God; just as some of you profess to be shocked at my plain speech when treating of your sins. You had better be shocked by your sins rather than my characterization of them, you old reprobate. Nothing short of a shock will wake you up from your sleep of death. Jesus never minced words when He preached to sinners, and He was harder on the church members (the Pharisees) than on any other class. John the Baptist lost his head by plain preaching to the king on his throne.

Third, comes Pilate, the cowardly trimmer, who, after finding Jesus innocent, delivered Him up to be crucified; hypocritically washing his hands in a basin to cleanse them of His blood. The superstitious people living at the foot of old Mount Hilarus say that on the early morning of every Good Friday old Pilate's spirit comes to the edge of Lake Lucerne, at the base of the mountain bearing his name and washes his hands in the water of the lake in a vain effort to remove the stain of blood from them. Once Pilate Calphas and Annas had sat in judgment upon Jesus, now the situation is reversed.

After Pilate, the man who spat upon Jesus and smote Him in the mouth and mocked Him, were each passed in review in words and actions that almost made one's flesh crawl.

Behind these come those who have in this meeting and in other meetings where the gospel has been preached to them and Christ has been offered, so often rejected Him—one because he was afraid he couldn't hold out, another because he hadn't the courage to face imaginary ridicule, still others because they could not give up dancing or booze, or adultery or other mesetting sin.

Then come the harlot, the gambler, the saloon keeper, the murderer and the unbelievers. This last class may include men who posed as the top of the heap down here—lawyers, doctors, professors. Then fornicators and the liars, and God will deal with you over nice, financial people just as He does with the most diabolical reprobate that walks your streets tonight. He is no respecter of persons. The most beautiful girl in this auditorium may go to hell with a drunkard on one side and a murderer on the other. And just one lie makes you a liar. If one lie should pass through the gates of Paradise the devil could tear down the throne of God.

Before retiring tonight write on a sheet of paper the things you have done and thought and desired that you would not want anybody to know of. You would not go to bed till you had consigned that paper to the flames. Well, don't you think you had better accept Christ and get them all covered under His blood? That is the only way to prevent their exposure before the whole world in that day.

Every Godless man who has married a Christian woman will have to answer at the judgment for having neutralized her Christian influence with her children, his children. She has bathed her feet in the waters of death to bring your children into the world, and now you throw upon her the entire burden of so teaching and training them as to save them from hell. You not only give her no help, but you actually hinder her. You will find no sympathy in hell; but on the contrary the children who follow you there will blame you for their condition.

Ample Pardon Offered in Advance. He that believeth on Me hath eternal life, says Jesus. There is therefore no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, says Paul. And the only thing this inestimable boon costs is repentance, confession and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. It is so freely offered that any person who fails to go away from this place tonight with the penalties of the judgment still hanging over their heads can blame nobody but themselves if they have to spend an eternity in hell.

The evangelist drew a vivid picture of a young man in the Danville jail under death sentence for murder. His parents spent their all in his defense and then mortgaged their home to pay the expense of getting up a petition for his pardon, carried it before the governor at Frankfort and persuaded him to grant it; they being back the pardon and take it to their son in the jail, only to have him ruthlessly reject and tear it up in their presence and throw it into their faces. You would say that man is himself to blame for his execution. Will you reject the pardon Jesus offers you and take upon your head the responsibility for your own damnation.

Argentine Pension Law Causes Strike

Buenos Aires, May 5.—With both capital and labor on a strike today demanding postponement of application of the pension law they were confronted in the morning papers by the text of a message that President De Alvear will send to congress clearly indicating that he intends to force compliance with the law but with proposed amendments designed to meet the objection raised.

The chief objections to the law are that it postpones for two year the establishment of the scheme of benefits, meanwhile requiring employers and employees to contribute to the pension fund without knowing when or in what proportion the employees will get their money back.

Railroad Man Gives Facts In His Case

First Bottle of Tanlac Put Cornatzer on Road to Recovery From Stomach Trouble.

The old adage 'a stitch in time saves nine' is very forcefully illustrated in a statement regarding Tanlac made recently by S. D. Cornatzer, 1706 13th St., Lynchburg, Va., a railroad brakeman.

"It looked like I was going to have to quit work if I didn't find something to fix me up and I certainly count myself lucky that I got Tanlac."

"I could hardly eat a thing without having indigestion bad and I was so nervous that I couldn't sleep to amount to anything. Constipation was also bothering me, I had awful headaches and was extremely weak and run-down.

"Before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac, I was eating everything and sleeping fine and six bottles left me feeling strong and fit for any work. I don't want to get back in that condition again so whenever I feel a little run-down, I go straight for Tanlac. It's a great tonic."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Gum Chewing Aids the Teeth

You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The following quotations from a recent work on teeth and health are worth remembering:

"Dentists have found that the exercise of gum chewing brings about a better nutrition of the teeth . . ."

"The cleansing action of the gum between the teeth helps to keep them free from the particles which lodge in the crevices and cause decay."

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and will do it. Also it will aid digestion and furnish welcome refreshment to mouth and throat.

Sealed in its purity package, bringing all its original goodness and flavor to you.
