COOLIDGE NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT

Convention May Select Kenyon For Vice-President

Presidential Nomination Given Coolidge On The First Ballot

LaFollette Receives 34 Votes, Johnson 10

Name of Coolidge Placed Before Convention By Former Neighbor Marion LeRoy Burton; I. M. Meekins, of North Carolina Among Those Seconding Nomination; LaFollette Group Snowed Under

Convention Hall, Cleveland, Ohio, June 12.—Calvin Coolidge was all but unanimously nominated for president today by the Republican National Convention...

Coolidge Listens In Washington, June 12.—President Coolidge coolly sitting before a radio receiving set at the White House today heard the swelling chorus which nominated him to lead the Republican party in the next campaign.

Only one ballot was taken the vote being Coolidge, 1,065; LaFollette 34; Johnson 10.

It is the plan of the convention to choose a running mate for the president at another session this afternoon. The convention will then adjourn and the party will go before the country.

Not in a great many years has a Republican convention come so near unanimity in the selection of a nominee for President. Placed in nomination by Dr. Marion LeRoy Burton, of the University of Michigan, Coolidge's name threw the assembled delegates into another old time demonstration and when the roll call began state after state took its place in the Coolidge columns.

The roll call of the states was secretly half over when the necessary majority for nomination had been recorded in his favor.

The honor of placing his name before the convention fell to Marion LeRoy Burton, one time neighbor of the president in Northampton, Mass., and now head of the University of Michigan. Half a dozen delegates from as many states were then allotted time for second the nomination of Coolidge.

Senator LaFollette's Wisconsin delegates and their half dozen sympathizers from North Dakota who booed and jeered by a roaring circle of their colleagues last night when there were demonstrations for Coolidge, were in their seats when there were demonstrations for Coolidge, were in their seats when the convention opened.

In seconding the nomination of President Coolidge, Isaac Meekins, of North Carolina said, "The great Southland is alive with hundreds of thousands of loyal brave and enthusiastic men and women who cast their vote for the Republican party. Tremendous gains have been accomplished. In my state nearly a quarter of a million votes were polled for Warren G. Harding in 1920.

The last national election saw Tennessee turn from the sisterhood of Southern Democracy to the Republican columns. More will come in due time.

The man whose name is before you no section can deny and every section can acclaim. I hold the commission of the Republicans of the south to second the nomination of their choice for the president of this great republic. Calvin Coolidge's character is the result of his life. From the first to the last there is not an inconsistency in his moral structure. Every fibre of his nature is as strong as anchor chains and counts for something."

President Calvin Coolidge, 1924.

New Railroad Begins Operation in State

High Point, June 12.—The High Point, Thomasville, and Denton Railroad resumed operation Tuesday for the first time since February 1st 1923 when the old Carolina and Yadkin Valley Railroad Station was burned and the line sold to the present company.

With the opening of the new railroad means connection with several other lines and an outlet to the entire United States, it was said. Herebefore the Southern Railway has had almost a monopoly on High Point shipments, it was explained, but now connections are made with the Atlantic Coastline, Norfolk and Western, other lines.

Senator Borah Refuses Vice-Pres. Nomination

Announcement Made by Idaho Senator After Administration Leaders Had Agreed for Office

Washington, June 12.—After a conference with President Coolidge today Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, said that his attitude toward the vice-presidential nomination was unchanged.

The Senator informed administration leaders in Cleveland early today that he would not accept the vice presidential nomination. Upon being informed of the agreement by leaders on him for the nomination Mr. Borah said he had sent a telegram to C. Bascom Sloop, secretary to the president, and to Secretary Weeks saying that he "could not and positively would not accept."

President Coolidge conferred with Senator Borah today in an effort to have him reconsider his refusal to accept the nomination.

Senator Borah left the White House at 10:55 and refused to add to his earlier statement that he would not accept the nomination at the hands of the Cleveland convention. The discussion between the president and Senator Borah was of considerable length. The Senator declined, however, to go into any details as to the conversation.

"My position relative to the nomination is irrevocable," Senator Borah said. "I have not changed and I will not change."

Senator Borah said he had sent a telegram to former Senator Beveridge to be read to the convention if by any chance his name should be placed for nomination. The telegram, he said, would definitely end all consideration of his selection.

William E. Borah.

WOMEN ARE URGED SUPPORT COOLIDGE

Speaker Says Women Were Fifty-Fifty Sisters and Should Take Part in Campaign

Cleveland, June 12.—The women of the country were urged to put their shoulder to the wheel and work for the election of Calvin Coolidge in November, at a meeting today of Republican women attending the national convention.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Leonard A. Wood, of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Lindsay Fatterson, of North Carolina, referred to the women in the party as the fifty-fifty sisters because of the action of the convention in giving them equal representation with men on the National Committee and in party affairs. She declared that at political meetings during the campaign it should be fifty-fifty and not 50 men and five women.

Plant Cotton Thick, Says Dr. Winter

Raleigh, June 12.—When cotton is rather thickly in the drill, the plants grow upright without much spreading and develop a larger number of short fruiting branches than where the plants are spaced widely apart. This is the result of observations and experiments conducted by Dr. R. Y. Winter, plant breeding agronomist for the North Carolina State College of Agriculture, who urges those farmers who have not yet choped their cotton to leave the plants six to eight inches apart in the drill and with one to two plants in each drill.

Dr. Winter has conducted a number of tests in trying out this matter and those farmers who adopted the practice last year made better yields than where they left the plants wide apart. The same practice should be of value again this year, he says. Dr. Winter asserts, "If corn is left thick in the drill it will suffer from lack of moisture and produce a poor yield per acre, but the yield of cotton and soy beans may be increased by close spacing. This is because cotton is a tap root plant and does not need so much moisture for growth and production. The crop may, therefore, be left thicker than corn which is fibrous rooted."

Labor Conditions Show Improvement

Raleigh, June 12.—Labor conditions, with the exception of farm labor, has shown some improvement throughout the state during the past week, according to reports from the various branch offices of the State-Federal Employment Service made to the Director, M. L. Shipman, commissioner of Labor and Printing. Several points throughout the state report that unskilled labor was improved during the week ended Saturday, June 7, while certain points reported surplus of carpenters and brick masons. Clerical and professional workers still remain in the surplus. Though the demand and the supply of unskilled labor was nearer a balance this week than in some time, there is still quite a shortage of such class of labor, says the report. The various offices also report a large number of applicant school boys and adds that such applicants refuse to go to the farm.

Judge W. S. Kenyon Is Acceptable to Administration; Indications of An Old Fashioned Fight On Floor

Cleveland, June 12.—The Republican party not only pledged its faith to Calvin Coolidge today as the choice for president but followed out his wish that the selection of his running mate be left to the delegates themselves in open convention.

In assembling the convention at 10 o'clock to go through the formality of ratifying Coolidge's nomination—long a foregone conclusion—the convention managers agreed to recess for only an hour and half afterward before proceeding to select a vice president.

Senator Borah's reiteration of his refusal to take the second place on the ticket after his selection by an all night conference of Republican leaders left the vice president situation somewhat up in the air. The agreement for the short recess will give little opportunity for conferences that might lead to definite action. It appears probable that despite his attitude Senator Borah's name may be presented to the convention along with half a dozen others, and an old fashioned foot fight is expected.

The nomination of Judge W. S. Kenyon, of Iowa, as candidate for vice-president became a stronger possibility shortly afternoon when William M. Butler, President Coolidge's campaign manager, announced that Kenyon would be acceptable to the administration.

The announcement spread over the convention and conferees began to look toward the consolidation of strength behind the former Iowa Senator. Mr. Butler, himself, dispatched agents to ascertain the sentiment among the delegates.

Consolidation of Kenyon strength was met by a gathering of forces opposing the Iowa man and indications are that a fight on the convention floor will develop.

Arrangement for the convention to recess until tonight was abandoned and the previous agreement for a recess of an hour and half will be carried out.

Caucuses of the New York and Pennsylvania delegations were called during the convention recess to discuss the possible endorsement of Representative Sanders, of Indiana. The majority of Indiana delegates despite entreaty of New York and Pennsylvania leaders stood firm for Watson.

Russia Purchases $40,000,000 Cotton From United States

More than 426,000,000 has already been paid by the syndicate, Gumburg says.

Tokio.—The drug habit evil is invading Japan, according to leading physicians, and is finding many of its victims among theatrical people. It has become known that the recent death of Sunosuke Sawamura, one of the leading actors of Japan, was due to narcotic poisoning.

Physicians are urging stricter government and police control of the drug habit, which until recent years has not been serious in this country.

Don't Lose Sight of the Food Value of Your Bakings

Plain flour has a large amount of food value but it must be combined with good baking powder in order to retain this value.

Most self rising flours are not successful because they do not and cannot raise the bakings to the proper lightness. This means a certain loss of nutrition because they are heavy and hard to digest.

Every time you eat food that does not properly digest you do not get the full nutritional value—you are over-taxing your stomach. Nourishing and perfect bakings are what good health demands. The one sure way is—use pure flour and good baking powder.

If you want to find what thousands of housewives have learned—make some biscuits with self-rising flour—then make some with good plain flour and Calumet Baking Powder—notice the great difference. One trial will satisfy you. Your health demands that you make the experiment.

Those who know—millions of housewives, domestic science teachers, big hotels, restaurants, bakeries and railroads will not use anything but Calumet, the Economy Baking Powder.

Play safe—use Calumet and plain flour. It is the most economical and satisfactory, where light, wholesome and pure foods are desired.

MADISON SQUARE BEING MADE READY FOR CONVENTION

Historic Structure Being Remodeled for the Democratic Convention at Cost of $80,000

New York, June 12 — The vast amphitheater of Madison Square Garden is reverberating these days with the clamor of an army of workmen and a corps of architects, who invaded the historic old structure June 1 to dress it up for the National Democratic Convention, beginning June 24.

The Democratic party will be in possession of the Garden until July 15 under the terms of the executive committee's lease with Tex Richard. Day and night, from now until convention time, the metamorphosis of the picturesque place will continue. Then, immediately the delegates finish their nominating and adjourn, will begin the laborious process of converting the Garden into its old self again.

The whole job, on which it originally was intended to spend about $40,000, will cost approximately $80,000, according to George F. Mara, director of convention arrangements. First, plans for alterations have been elaborated to include the installation of thousands of more comfortable seats than the Garden boasted, the erection of speakers' and press platforms which will cover the entire arena, the installation of new ventilating systems, and a thousand and one jobs that will add to the beauty and comfort of accommodations.

This probably will be the Garden's farewell bow to the public as an auditorium for political sessions on such a grand scale, for it recently was announced that it soon would be razed so that a towering commercial structure could be erected on the site.

To the Democratic convention delegate and visitor Madison Square Garden will present the appearance of a huge oval basket with flat bottom and terraced sides. The speakers' platform, with seats for 353 delegates, will push out from the long side of the oval, facing south. Platforms for the press will flank the speakers' stand, on a level 3 feet and 4 inches below it and extending right and left almost to the far ends of the oval. There will be seats for 950 news reporters and editors.

Then, directly in front of the speakers' stand, but 7 feet 3 inches below it, will be arrayed the ranks of delegates, with alternates flanking them to right and left at the same level.

Overhanging the bottom of the bowl will be the boxes, seating six to ten persons, which will be given over to those who have contributed to the party of local citizens' convention fund. Above them will stretch tier after tier of seats, extending away up to the Garden roof, for governors, congressmen, public officials, notables and party workers who fall within the "visitors' classification."

There will be 12,200 seats in all, arranged in sections with aisles which will make for easy exit and a minimum of work for ushers. New York City's share of the visitors' places will be 2,500.

WOMEN FAR OUTNUMBER MEN ON REMOTE BABUYAN ISLANDS

Manila.—The recent earthquakes and volcanic eruptions in the Babuyan Islands have brought forth statements from mariners who recently have been in that region, that a large portion of the population is composed of women. It is said this situation is due to the fact that so many of the men have lost their lives at sea.

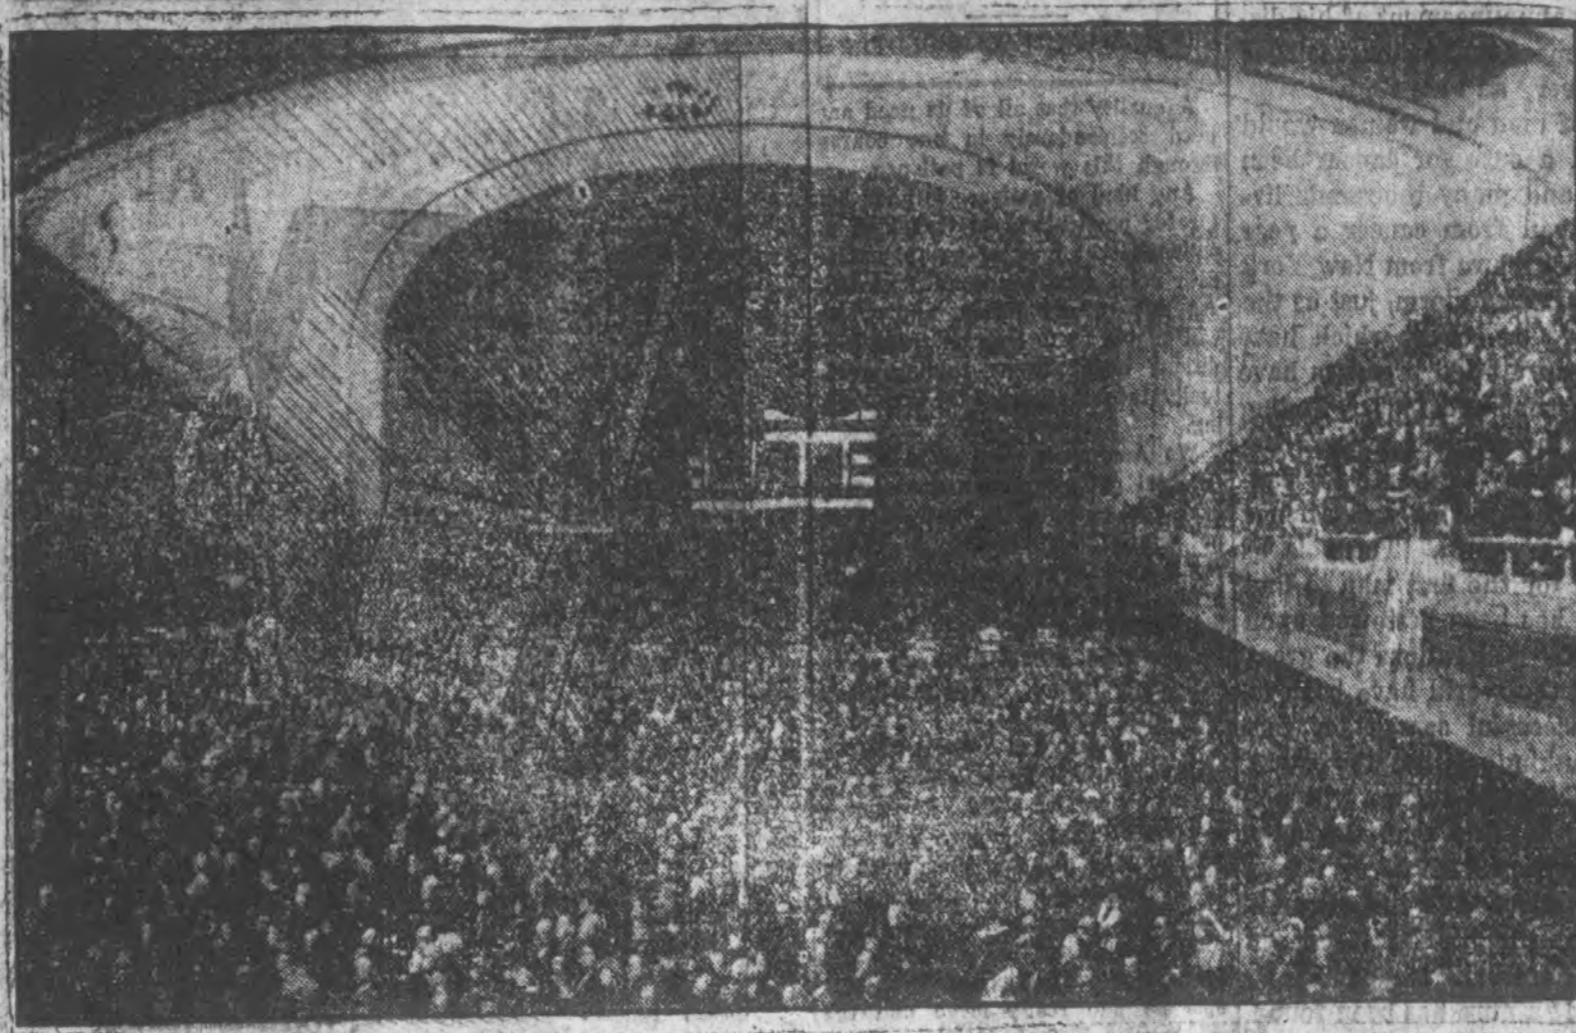

The male population of the islands engage almost entirely in fishing as a means of livelihood, and the frequent typhoons, which sweep over that region play havoc with their frail fishing craft. It is stated that on one island of the group, with a population of about 200, there are 15 women to one man.

The constabulary of Cagayan province have been ordered to ascertain the condition of the people of the Babuyans, and to furnish them supplies.

POLISH BOY SCOUTS PROHIBIT BOTH ALCOHOL AND TOBACCO

Warsaw.—The Polish Boy Scouts have introduced complete prohibition against alcohol and tobacco into their organization, and the restriction is rigorously applied to all except honorary members. On the recent feast of St. Stanislas, the patron saint of the Polish president, whose first name is Stanislas, the Scouts presented to him the Scout badge and made him an honorary member.

Immediately after receiving the decoration the president returned to his palace to receive numerous guests and delegations bringing him good wishes. When during the reception wine was served the president expressed himself, saying "I am wearing the Scout sign and therefore must respect the laws of the organization, although it is my festal day, I do not feel free to drink wine."

INDIAN CITIZENSHIP

Though the United States has granted citizenship freely to aliens, for the most part it has been denied to the original native Americans, misnamed Indians. Therefore the bill recently passed and signed by the president granting citizenship to all Indians born within the United States is a belated act of justice, if nativity on American soil is the virtue it has been assumed to be. Hitherto but a minor portion of persons of Indian blood have been citizens, those living on reservations being considered wards of the government, in a sense minors who need guardianship.

It happens, however, that along with citizenship, the warship is not terminated. Thus after all it is a restricted grant. Those affected by the law will not be entirely free agents. They will retain their tribal relations and property rights therein. If citizenship gives such the right to vote and standing in the courts of law that would seem to be about all. It may be that most of them will care so little for the boon of the suffrage that they will neglect to exercise it. If so they will follow the course of about half of Americans not Indians.

However, these limitations are in the financial interest of the Indians. Their white neighbors, doubtless, would prefer that the citizenship granted be given broader scope. A great many whites feel that whatever of value an Indian has by right belongs to the whites. Were the Indian citizen free to barter what he possesses it would not be long that he would have it. Not having been under the necessity of caring for his own he has not learned to protect his own interest. Thus there was wisdom shown in the government retaining control.

Given the vote it may be that the Indians will advance to a point where they will be capable of contending with whites on even terms, but we doubt whether the new status will be highly appreciated. Even Indians may have a sense of humor and they may realize that given limited rights without being fully endowed as citizens is rather empty honor.

Some movie producer who wants to picture the dead past might get up a "feature showing how children would act if they should obey their parents."

CURE FOR CANCER

A New York physician announces that he has isolated the cancer microbe and prescribes a treatment for its elimination from the human body. He backs the announcement of his discovery with the statement that medical science has proven his discovery and his cure.

Many thousands of men and women would be living today had a cure for cancer been known a year ago, and many thousands living today will be dead from cancer a year hence if the new cancer cure from New York is found to be another false alarm, just as the many thousands of "sure-cures" which have preceded it. Many unfulfilled promises have made the public pessimistic of ever finding a safeguard against the virulent cancer.

The obstacle in the way to a cure for cancer is the inability of medicine and science to isolate the cancer germ. There is as great fame awaiting for the first man to find a cure for cancer as has been bestowed upon the great Pasteur. For generations the greatest medical minds of the world have been in constant but unsuccessful search for this dread enemy of mankind. Once the cause is found the prescribing of a cure will not trouble science. Up to this time the only relief has been the knife.

Months have been devoted to the substantiation of the claims for the latest cancer cure. It may take a decade or longer to provide proof positive. If a cure has been found medicine will soon know of it.

AROUND THE CORNER

By WICKES WAMBOLDT

A quality that all of us need and need tremendously in our course through this world is patience.

Any kind of patience is good but I refer particularly to that kind of patience that enables us to endure with calm fortitude conditions that are not to our liking, and which will enable us to look on these conditions hopefully as leading eventually into the harbor of our longing.

We Americans need more of the Oriental patience; the Oriental may have too much of it, but we have not enough. If we do not get the result we want in a few months or in a few years we are apt to be fretted and despairing. And then we kick the chicken out of the egg or we pick the fruit too green; or we break something loose.

A young man had a young woman friend of whom he was very fond, but somehow or other he never thought of marrying her. He married another girl and they went to live in a distant part of the country.

Eleven years later he lost his wife. A year and a half later there came the sudden realization that the woman he had really loved and the only woman he had really loved was the girl friend whom he had never thought of marrying. He had not heard from this young woman in years and he did not know how she was situated. In feverish haste he packed his grip and hurried back to the old home town.

Now from the first the young woman had known that this young man was the only one she ever could love. As a result she had refused all attentions from men. And for eleven years had practically withdrawn from association with the opposite sex. She was beautiful and charming and men were constantly attempting to win her favor. Finally in a state of apathy she accepted the proposal of a man whom she respected but whom she did not love.

So when the man she had loved all her life reached town he learned that she had left only the night before on her wedding trip. She is married to a man with whom life is more or less a matter of martyrdom and the man whom she really loves is unmarried and secretly grieving for her.

She was patient for eleven years. Had she been patient for eleven years and six months she would have attained her heart's desire.

Patience in hanging on has caused some people to cling to that which was not best for them; but it has brought many more people into the harbor of achievement and contentment.

PLAY SPACE NEEDED

With the approach of summer communities must give more thought to the question of providing adequate play room for the children. Children have a right to play and as the weather gets better there will be the increased tendency to play in the streets. Certain streets should be reserved for children and barred to vehicles if playgrounds are not available.

Now is the time to study your local playground problem. Doing that may mean the saving of the lives of children.

Motorists must remember that children have the minds of children and extraordinary precaution must be taken in the residential areas where children may be playing. A child with a ball may be in on the sidewalk one moment and in the street the next.

Always be careful.

Summer Hints for Young Mothers

ACUTE INDIGESTION IS A FOOD PROBLEM

It is hard on a child to suffer indigestion in summer. Usually there is fever and vomiting, apt to be very prostrating. One way to prevent such attacks is to see to it that the child does not eat heavily when over-ired. Often the trouble may be traced to improper food, which should be stopped immediately. As for treatment, do not forget that in indigestion, the organs have quit operating, and the bowel is full of undigested food. Don't worry about the stomach—it will empty itself. But give a good clearing out treatment. Liv-o-lax will do the work thoroughly. Then put the child on a very light diet for a few days. You can get a good sized bottle of Liv-o-lax at the drug store for 30c.

A history maker—and still the Leader!

The World's Largest Producer of Quality Automobiles

THE STUDEBAKER Light-Six—a history maker—the first fine six-cylinder car under 3,000 pounds at a four-cylinder price.

A car with followers, imitators and adapters by the score—but with no rival in quality, popularity or sales volume. It is still the Leader!

A car built to fulfill the ideal of producing the greatest automobile value in the $1,000 field—the car which started the stampede from fours to sixes.

A car with a specially designed offset valve motor of remarkable quietness, economy, freedom from vibration—and with tenacious resourcefulness of power-on the hills, the straightaway and the pickup!

A car comfortable, roomy, good-looking, very easy to handle on the road, in traffic or in parking—long-lived, low in first cost and especially low in up-keep-costs. The market's one best bargain for the man who wants all the car he can get at about $1,000.

A car that is an investment, not an expense, because it can be bought on very liberal terms, sold or traded in at a very high resale value on a market always ready and waiting for a used Light-Six Studebaker—its popularity and demand as a used car are the most convincing evidence of its goodness as an automobile.

Daily Cotton Letter.

New Orleans, June 12. — Mid-month cotton crop condition reports issued by private bureaus indicate deterioration, whereas some improvement was generally expected. Following yesterday's returns to the National Ginner's Association which showed a loss in crop conditions for the half month of three points, returns to the Watkins Bureau, issued today averaged the condition of cotton at 65.7 against 67.5 two weeks ago denoting deterioration of 1.8 points.

In early morning market as lower owing easier cables than due and favorable crop growing weather inland. Later in the session there developed a strong demand for July, said to be for spot interests, resulting in values experiencing a sharp advance.

Exports from the United States continue free since Friday 48,000 against 34,000 thus far this season nearly one million larger than last year 5,298,000 against 4,322,000.

Of today's exports, New Orleans cleared 20,000 bales for Russia. Another steamer has arrived here to lift about 10,000 bales more for Russia. June shipment and an additional steamer is said to be due here to load cotton for Russia. June sailing, and that a third steamer has been chartered for a gulf port, perhaps New Orleans, to take cotton to Russia next month. It is reported that Russia has taken about 90,000 bales so far this season and expected to take 50,000 bales additional.

By a strange coincidence, some constructive features have made their appearance on the eve of nominating the standard bearer of the Republican party.

Only recently the government issued a very bullish report on the condition of the growing wheat crop. Subsequently the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and Boston reduced their rediscount rates from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent. Today press advices from New York are to effect that American Bankers have completed negotiations for granting a credit of twenty-million to the German gold discount bank of which an initial advance of five million was made six weeks ago.

The department of agriculture Washington announces that the composite condition of all crops of the United States on June first was about 7.3 percent below their ten year average condition on that date. Last year the June first condition of all crops was 4.7 percent below the average.

Bobbed Hair Is Cause Family Row

Durham, June 12.—The head of the house did not like the head of his spouse after she had it bobbed against his will, so he struck her it was explained in police court here when the dainty little lady appeared against her 'better half' for whom she had sworn out a warrant charging assault and battery.

Roy Chappell married Miss Allie Hollman only a few months ago. All was well with the couple until Mrs. Chappell advised her husband that she was going to bob her hair whereupon he issued his edict forbidding such action. However the command was disregarded and when Mrs. Chappell came home with her beautiful tresses shorn into a dainty bob, the head of the family, it is alleged, expressed his dislike for her head by striking her. Immediately, Mrs. Chappell went home to her mother and the warrant was sworn out.

Chappell pleaded guilty in court and was fined $15 but that did not end the affair, for Mrs. Chappell stated that her husband had threatened to kill her, if she came back to his house to get her clothing. A peace warrant was sworn out for him and he was placed under a $50 bond. It has not been learned whether Mrs. Chappell felt enough protection with the warrant to return for her clothes. She is still residing with her mother.

PLAN HOUSE OF REST IN SUNNY ITALY FOR SICK BRAIN WORKERS

Berlin. — An international home for spiritual workers is to be established at Rome if the plans of Dr. Noemi Stricker, a French physician living in Berlin, are fulfilled. Mrs. Stricker is carrying on a vast correspondence with intellectuals and "workers of the spirit" for this purpose, and already holds letters of approval from Jane Addams of Chicago, David Starr Jordan of California, Romain Rolland of France, Stephen Zweig of Austria, Arthur Koestler of Germany, Mrs. Philip Snowden of England, Rabindranath Tagore of India, Dr. Aletta Jacobs of Holland, Maxim Gorky of Russia, Professor Auguste Forel of Switzerland, and scores of other men and women of learning.

"We hope that the international house of rest will become a center of brotherly understanding and of reconciliation," Dr. Stricker said in discussing her plans. "Intellectual workers and workers of the spirit need leisure and time, and the calm of a simple life. We hope to receive into the proposed house sick people to whom one or several winters spent in the south can restore health. How many incipient diseases of the lungs might be healed in this way! How many fine intellects might be saved! Brain workers also need the beauty of nature, the beauty which calms and vivifies. Often the regeneration of soul and spirit will be accomplished more quickly in unaccustomed places and surroundings. We hope such a house of rest located in sunny Italy will supply just these requisites."

The work of collecting funds for the project has not yet begun, nor have concrete plans been mapped out.

Extension Dept. Fighting Insects

Raleigh, June 12.—While the boll weevil is the most talked about insect pest in the state it is not by any means the only one and as the crop season advances the workers of the Division of Entomology are busy at their several tasks, declared Professor Franklin Sherman, chief of that division for the North Carolina Experiment Station and Extension Service.

Two workers are located in the Sandhills at Aberdeen, where a field station is now being conducted for the third season, says the chief and these are engaged in studies of peach insects, such as Curculio, San Jose Scale and Borers, they are also doing investigation work with the boll weevil. The orchardists and planters show great interest in this work, it is said, and declare that it has been a great help to them. Word is circulated among the growers from time to time in regard to needed treatments, it was said, and many growers follow this advice as closely as possible, and the result have been excellent.

JAPAN EXTENDS NATIONAL LAWS TO COVER THE SAGHALIEN ISLAND

Tokio.—To knit Japanese Saghalien more closely to the rest of the empire, the cabinet has decided to put into force there several laws which heretofore have not applied to this northern possession. These include the conscription law, which will make inhabitants of Saghalien liable to service in the army, the nationality law and the census registration law, all calculated to insure the cohesion of the empire and to increase the control of the central government.

The southern half of Saghalien, which became a Japanese possession as a result of the Russo-Japanese War, has made remarkable progress in the development of administrative organs and community life, according to Tokio officials, and the time is considered ripe to administer that territory as an integral part of the empire.

BRYAN DECLARES BIBLE IS BEST GUIDE ERRING HUMANITY

Minneapolis, Minn., June 12.—Calling upon Christians to get their inspiration from the Bible, which has been "proven by its destructibility," and which has "not lived its critics," William Jennings Bryan delivered the principal address at the opening session of the sixth annual convention of the World's Christian Fundamentals Association here recently. His topic was "It Is Written."

"We have a Bible that treats of just one thing and that is man, in his relation to God," Mr. Bryan declared. "It commences with the beginning and follows man down as far as Bible times go and projects him into the future as long as man lives on the earth and tells him all that he needs to know."

Mr. Bryan urged that more knowledge of the Scriptures be attained by Christians, so that scripture may be quoted, and all questions met with "It is written," as Christ did. "The difference between the Christians who say 'It is written' and those who call themselves Christians and do not say it, is that when a man is led of the Spirit he quotes the scripture. When he is directed by his own inflated opinion of himself, he tries to answer without quoting, but when led by the spirit, he knows nothing better than the Bible."

FORTUNE TELLING FAKIRS CAUSE SUICIDE IN MUNICH

Munich. — An avalanche of fortune tellers and fakirs of every description has descended upon the Bavarian capital. The Munich police already have a record of over 300 such professional soothsayers and are watching them closely. Their methods are varied, some using playing cards, others coffee grounds, still others astrological tables for humbugging the ignorant.

The police might be inclined to view these fakirs as harmless except for the fact that their forecasts have led to divorces, suicides, and family disagreements. In one family recently the daughter of the house poisoned herself because of an unfavorable astrological horoscope furnished her by a soothsayer, and her brother, driven frantic by a similar prediction, cut his veins.

In another case a girl was told that she would not be able to marry her betrothed until four years later. She shot herself and left a note to the effect that she could not bear the thought of having to wait so long.

"DANCER'S HEART" IS NEWEST DISEASE IN LONDON CIRCLES

London.—One of the most fashionable complaints of the moment is "dancer's heart," according to advices from medical sources. The craze for dancing at all hours and at all times, between meals and between the courses of meals, is having an effect on the most energetic. A visit to the doctor produces the advice: "You have dancer's heart. You are suffering from overstrain. There is only one thing to do, rest for week and no more dancing for months."
