Arrest Senators For Refusing To Attend Meeting

Lieutenant Governor Obtains Warrant For Republicans Who Refuse to Enter Chamber After Meeting Broken up by Gas.

Providence, R. I., June 19.—As a result of loosing of poisonous gas in the state Senate chamber, Republican members who constitute a majority today refused to attend the Senate sessions and were arrested upon a warrant obtained by Lieutenant Governor Felix Toupin, Democratic president of the Senate.

Senator Arthur A. Sherman, Republican floor leader in the Senate, was in the hospital suffering from the effects of the gas and High Sheriff Johnathan Andrews refused to force the other 18 Republican Senators to enter the Senate chamber.

Mr. Toupin declared that he was in first rate shape and other Democratic members asserted that the Republicans were bluffing as to their condition so as to absent themselves from the chamber and hold-up Senate proceedings.

Sheriff Andrews in support of his refusal to compel the attendance of the Republican produced a certificate signed by a physician stating that the Senators had been examined and were unfit for duty.

Toupin then obtained a warrant for their arrest and the Republicans were escorted from the building by police guards.

The lieutenant-governor declared a recess and a meeting of the Democrats was held immediately in the governor's office to discuss legal steps to meet the sheriff's refusal.

Providence, R. I., June 19.—Chlorine gas was let loose in the Senate Chamber here today after that body had been in session since last Tuesday at 2:05 p. m.

The fumes were so strong that it became impossible to stay in the room and the factions which had prevented adjournment agreed to an hour's recess in order to clear the gas from the chamber.

Three Republicans and one Democratic Senator were overcome by gas, were treated by physicians. One hour after the gas had been let loose in the chamber the four Senators were reported to be out of danger. When Lieutenant Governor Toupin, pale and nauseated mounted to the rostrum and proceeded to call the chamber back into session, the four Senators were not in their places.

Governor Flynn declared he was "going to the bottom of this to find out who did it."

When the Senate reconvened and the lieutenant-governor noted the absence of the three Republican Senators who were overcome by the gas he ordered deputies to bring them into the Senate Chamber. The deputies soon returned with a report that they were unable to carry out the order. The lieutenant-governor then deputized 15 civilians to compel the attendance of the Republicans. He ordered them to break down the doors of the committee room where the stricken Senators were if necessary. A squad of 15 Providence police were prepared to resist such violence.

The gas was discovered in a newspaper behind the draperies of the rostrum. Governor Flynn appeared upon the scene shortly after the discovery of the paper and declared that it was an attempt to suffocate Lie-

STATE MERCHANTS ENDORSE CALL FOR SPECIAL SESSION

Merchants Association In Annual Meet Urges Action of Ship Commission Recommendation.

Morehead City, June 19.—The North Carolina Merchants Association today unanimously endorsed the recommendation of the State Water Transportation Commission. The action of Governor Morrison and the Council of State in calling a special session of the General Assembly to consider the matter was also endorsed.

The resolution adopted by a standing vote gave unqualified endorsement to the report and the action of the governor. During the brief discussion that preceded the vote, however, it developed that many merchants felt that the legislature should take final action instead of carrying the proposition to a vote of the people. They urged in the resolution that the General Assembly take steps according to the port commission's recommendation to relieve North Carolina of the indiscriminatory freight rates from which it now suffers.

MINERS GUARDS IN PITCH BATTLE

Morgantown, W. Va., June 19.—One man was wounded and Union hall destroyed by fire and a number of houses occupied by miners were fired upon in a battle early today between mine guards and a group of union miners at Brady, near here, Sheriff Yost reported upon his return from the scene.

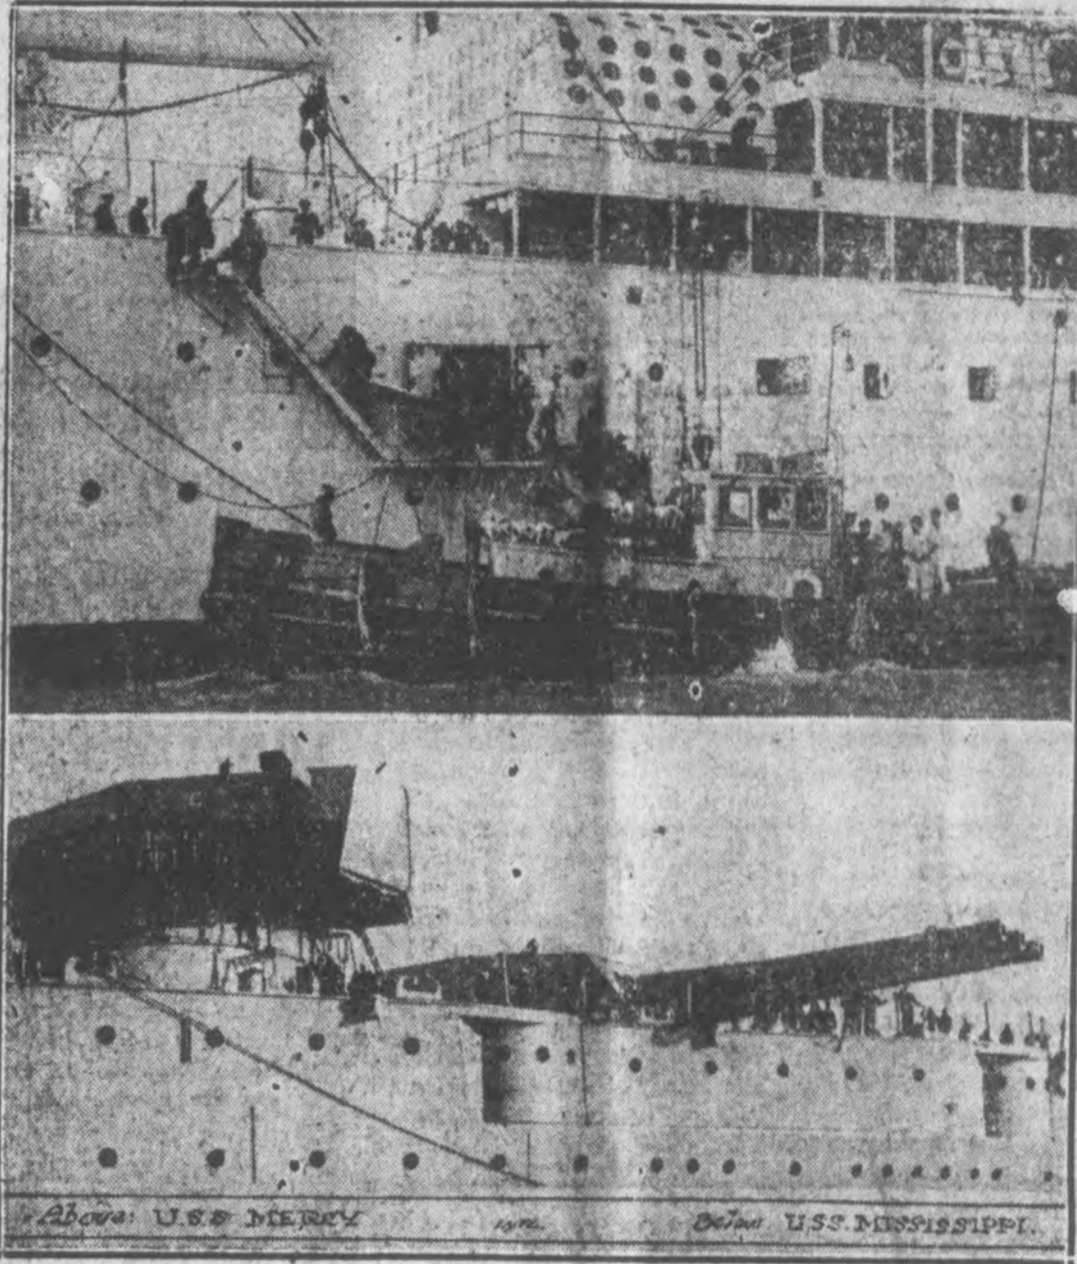

The battle, which began at midnight, terminated shortly after dawn. It had been in progress since midnight according to reports to the sheriff. Many shots were fired and four dynamite blasts were set off. The sheriff's advices contained no mention of casualties.

The Brady mine was re-opened recently on a non-union basis after union miners refused to return to work on the wage scale of 1917.

Lieutenant-Governor Toupin, who showed effects of the fumes and left the chamber.

The filibuster was started by the Democrats on the first day of the session in January. They have before the Senate a resolution to submit to popular vote the question of calling a convention to revise the state constitution. Republicans are trying to secure passage of the anti-appropriations bill but the Democrats under their leader, Lieutenant-Governor Toupin, refuse to let the bill come up for a vote until the majority of the Republicans agree to pass (not vote on) the constitutional convention resolution.

United States Is Within Its Rights Hughes Tells Japan

Washington, June 19.—The American reply to the Japanese protest against the exclusion provision of the immigration act was made public here tonight by the State Department simultaneously with its publication through the foreign office in Tokio. It is cordial and friendly in tone, but at the same time makes clear that the exclusion provision in no way trespasses upon any written or implied obligation on the part of the United States.

Secretary Hughes points out that Congress was wholly within its right in the enactment of the provision and that the action taken "is mandatory upon the executive branch of the government and allows no latitude for the exercise of executive discretion as to the carrying out of the legislative will expressed in the statute."

The construction generally placed upon the American note is that it conclusively demonstrates the view of the Washington government that the exclusion law is a closed incident and that no attempt to modify or alter its terms is to be expected. Secretary Hughes in the note which he prepared with utmost care, expresses pleasure over the "friendliness and candor" of the protest communication delivered to him by Ambassador Hanihara May 31.

"You may be assured of the readiness of this government to consider in the same spirit the views you have set forth," Mr. Hughes said.

The note then analyzes the exclusion provision applicable to all aliens ineligible for citizenship as it is modified by the exceptions contained in the act and points out:

"It will be observed that, taking these exceptions into account, the provision in question does not differ greatly in its practical operation, or Democrats under their leader, Lieutenant-Governor Toupin, refuse to let the bill come up for a vote until the majority of the Republicans agree to pass (not vote on) the constitutional convention resolution. United States in preventing the emigration of Japanese laborers to this country." Appreciation of this co-operation in carrying out a "long established policy" is expressed and the communication adds:

"Indeed, the appropriateness of that policy, which has not evidenced any lack of esteem for the Japanese people, their character and achievements, has been confirmed rather than questioned by the voluntary action of your government in aiding its execution."

The substantial difference between the exclusion provisions and the Gentlemen's Agreement, the note continues, lies in what President Coolidge described in his statement at the time he signed the immigration bill as the determination of congress to exercise "its prerogative in defining by legislation the control of immigration instead of leaving it to international arrangements."

"It is not understood that this prerogative is called in question, but, rather, your government expressly recognizes that 'it lies within the inherent sovereign power of each state to limit and control immigration to its own domains' an authority which it is believed the Japanese government has not failed to exercise in its own discretion with respect to the admission of aliens and the conditions and location of their settlement within its borders," Secretary Hughes' note continues.

"It is at this point that the secretary, after nothing that the president "would have preferred to continue the existing arrangement" with Japan with such modifications as seemed desirable, asserts:

"This government does not feel that it is limited to such an international arrangement or that by virtue of the existing understanding (the gentlemen's agreement) or of the negotiations it has conducted in the past with the Japanese government, it has in any sense lost or impaired the full liberty of action which

Civic Obligations Of Leading Club Women Stressed by

Los Angeles, June 19.—Apathetic citizens, especially among the women, came in for emphatic disapproval in an address here today before the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs by Mrs. W. R. Alvord, of Detroit, chairman of its division of citizenship training.

"Woman suffrage may be a failure," said Mrs. Alvord, "but one of its by-products will turn that failure into glorious victory, and the by-product is the decided impetus it has given to the teaching of citizenship in the public schools. Not until such courses became of equal value to boys and girls did educators seem to be keenly alive to the necessity for such instruction."

Tracing the progress of citizenship training in different states, the speaker added: "An interesting result of the growing interest of such training in the schools is the holding of mock registrations and elections on election days by the students, who are using the same method of procedure in their school elections. Schools are also being used more frequently as polling places."

"Hopeful as we are of the future, we must not neglect the present, and the immediate task facing us is how shall we inspire women, and men, to exercise their right of suffrage. When all that is encouraging is noted, the fact remains that unless there is some exciting local contest, the number of stay-at-homes at any election is appalling."

"The increased number of women on election boards is encouraging, and while we regret that so few women are willing to accept the responsibilities of office-holding, we are able to report the number is increasing. Many municipal offices are held by women. We commend jury service to women who wish an enlightening course in citizenship training, and urge their acceptance of the duty as opportunity offers."

"Indifference and apathy cannot be overcome immediately. Political bosses will continue to flourish for many years to come, but the present outlook is fairly encouraging. The indifference that is due to ignorance will gradually disappear, for citizenship facts are being broadcast every day from many sources. But there is need of haste. Our primary laws are threatened and we women must have knowledge to combat the arguments of clever politicians who would have us return to the old party convention system."

"The enforcing of laws is an issue of the hour and alert women grounded in the fundamentals of citizenship must create respect for law through their influence in the home and in the schools and through their attitude in the community towards law-breaking."

"It is the desire of every woman that America shall establish the peace of the world, but can we make a real contribution towards world peace unless we have learned to assume the responsibilities of citizenship in our own communities? That is our first step towards a right understanding of world affairs."

Evil Tongues Ruin Career

The deadly effects of idle gossip, especially when a woman is the target of the conversation, is vividly portrayed in "Christy," a First National picture starring Katherine MacDonald, which is now enjoying a successful engagement at White's Theatre. It was directed by Victor Scherzinger for B. F. Schulberg, with a cast that includes Edythe Chapman, Frederick Truesdell, Huntley Gordon, J. Gordon Russell and J. Gunnis Davis.

Miss MacDonald has a particularly sympathetic role as Norma O'Neil, a beautiful young girl with stage aspirations. Although possessing real talent, her first appearance is marked by such a severe case of stage fright that she is summarily discharged from the road show company. Darcy (Roche), Broadway's most prominent theatrical producer attempts to take advantage of the girl and offers her a position, coupled with a suggestion that she use her ire.

She runs away, after announcing that she will succeed in spite of everything. Several years later Broadway is ringing with the praise of a new star, and Roche discovers that she is Norma, playing under an assumed name. She had been assisted by Fergus Arlington, a former friend of her father. Roche, seeking revenge for the manner in which Norma had repulsed him, implies that Arlington is taking more than a fatherly interest in the girl.

Her success turns to bitterness. Once more she is compelled to run away from the tongue of scandal—but not before fate has brought death to one near to her. The climax is a wholly unexpected one. Ernest Pascal, one of the foremost of living authors, wrote this fascinating tale of stage life.

EPISCOPAL SOCIAL WORKERS WILL CONFER IN TORONTO

New York.—Problems of home life democracy in industry, divorce, jail reform, the foreignborn and congestion in the big cities, will be among the subjects discussed at the annual conference of Social Service workers of the Episcopal Church which will meet in Havegal College, Toronto, Canada, June 21-25. International flavor will be given the occasion by the fact that the social workers of the church of England in Canada will participate in the Episcopal conference, which will be followed by the National Conference of Social Work, also meeting in Toronto, thus enabling delegates to participate at will in all three gatherings.

Group conferences on a variety of subjects will occupy a considerable portion of the time of the gathering, which will be participated in by delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada.

281 Rotary Clubs Organized During The Past Year

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 17.—The championship regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association, to be decided tomorrow on the Hudson river, was inaugurated in 1895 when Columbia scored the first variety triumph.

Twenty-six varsity races have been held altogether, with Cornell victorious in 13, Syracuse five, Pennsylvania three, Columbia and the Navy twice each, while University of Washington hung up the West's first and only victory last June.

Wisconsin is making its first appearance this year since 1914 while the Naval Academy is missing for the first time since 1920.

Originally a four-mile race, the varsity event now is rowed over a three-mile stretch. Except for a 4.5-mile race in 1898 and the two mile contest on Lake Cayuga in 1920, the championship was decided at four miles until 1921 when the three-mile route was adopted.

Missionary Society Pledges $25,000 to Endowment Fund

Hickory, June 16.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the general synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, has pledged $25,000 to the endowment fund of Catawba College, which will be removed from this city to Salisbury for the 1925 term, it has been announced here. The Society is now in session at Allentown Pennsylvania and notified Reverend Shuford Peeler, financial secretary of the college, of the pledge. Mr. Peeler says that the additional endowment will mean much to the college and the people of the surrounding community.

ENGLISH EXPERTS' LABOR TO IMPROVE ALUMINUM

London.—In the confident belief that aluminum is to be the metal of the future, a big staff of research chemists is investigating the metal at the National Physical Laboratory, Teddington-on-Thames. Several valuable discoveries have already been made. One of the chemists, J. I. Grogan, had this to say to a reporter: "We have found how to make this metal, hitherto a somewhat poor conductor of electricity, of good conductivity. Aluminum has been slow-replacing copper in electrical undertakings, particularly for high-voltage cables, and our discovery will help it to replace it much quicker. Its alloy is both cheaper and of higher conductivity than copper, light for weight."

ART COLLECTION OF HUNGARIAN NOBLE TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION

Prague.—A part of the famous collection of the Hungarian magnate, Count Palfy, who died in 1878, will be sold at auction this summer. The treasures which are included in the four Palfy castles are valued at $2,000,000. Among the articles to be put on the block in June are Napoleon's bed, the fishings of Maria Theresa's drawing room, two Ribbens, a series of Dutch masters and the famous "Mad Christ" by Guido Reni. The second sale will occur in the autumn and will consist largely of jewels.

MOSLEMS TURN TO GRAPE JUICE FREED OF ALCOHOLIC CONTENT

Jerusalem.—Wine growing in Palestine, an industry which was revived in 1882, has had a relatively bad year. The receipts are $110,000 less than they were three years ago. Two markets have been lost, the United States and Russia, but it is hoped the latter will come back.

In vintage days the scene near the weighing machine is a busy one, hundreds of carts await their turn to unload, while a continuous stream of heavily laden camels from more distant vineyards slowly approach the wine presses from all directions.

A new market has been found for grape juice free from alcohol. This is sold in the Moslem countries of the Near East.

SONS OF MEXICAN ENEMIES DWELL PEACEFULLY IN AMERICAN SCHOOL

Mexico City.—Throughout the greater part of the recent revolution the American school in Mexico City was a real neutral zone, for students of many of the opposing political figures attended classes there in complete harmony.

Among them were sons of President Obregon, Adolfo de la Huerta, the revolutionary leader; Alberto Pani, secretary of the treasury; Aaron Sanchez, foreign minister; General Francisco Serrano, secretary of war, and Dr. Jose Vasconcelos, minister of public instruction.

GIRL BANDIT OF JUGOSLAVIA WAS "MACCELLED" NOT BOBBED

Belgrade.—Not bobbed but carefully maccelled, Jugoslavia's girl bandit has been captured near Barbovo village together with half dozen of her band of brigands.

Young and prepossessing, she is known as the "silk woman" because of her extravagance in dress. When captured she was clothed completely in silk and wore neat little patent leather pumps. Soft spoken and of quiet demeanor, she is described as enterprising and reckless as any man in her exploits.

The police are trying to discover her real name. Her fellow prisoners absolutely decline to divulge it.

THE THREE IN ONE COSTUME BIDS FOR FAVOR

ALL is not plain sailing in the new fashions. One can no longer be confident that an approaching creation on the avenue is a suit. For, on the wearer passing us, one perceives the all in one-ness of a coat. Or vice versa. And then, after we have been reduced to a pleasing state of bewilderment, it turns out that the costume is really a coat frock.

It is quite a feature of this year," writes Henri Grange from Paris, "to see a coat frock looking like a straight gown at the back and like a tailor made with a short or long jacket in front, or the contrary. I even had the surprise the other day of seeing a manikin taking off this already amazing garment to show a little dress underneath: it was an unexpected coat."

The costume of beige Kriakrepe which has just been relayed to us from Cheney's Paris ateliers, shows all these ideas, and, besides, the very novel one of opening suddenly a high fastened jacket to show a brilliant colored waist.

Even when the front of the jacket is demurely closed, as shown in the small sketch, a ray of light is added to the costume by the blue plaid bows tied around the throat and wrists for the chic Parisienne to-day is as deplained as any Highland lassie.

No Chance for the Rabbit.

San Bernardino, Cal.—The mysterious nocturnal roar of motor cycles in the open fields at Del Rosa, near here, which for some time caused farmers in the vicinity many sleepless nights, was explained recently by a youth who declared that rabbit hunting on motorcycles by night was fast becoming the popular sport of the town cyclists. He explained that riders chased the rabbits through the fields until the animal neared exhaustion, then drove up alongside and grabbed them by the ears.

Wherefore, the commissioners pray that an order be made correcting the final report of the engineer and board of viewers and authorizing the Board of Commissioners to proceed to construct said prong or spur in accordance with the intention of the Board of Viewers, and as is necessary to adequately carry out the drainage scheme or system.

NOTICE!

North Carolina, Pitt County, In the Superior Court, R. D. Whitehurst, W. H. Woolard and M. O. Blount and others, vs. J. J. Carson and others, To the Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County:

The Board of Drainage Commissioners of Pitt County Drainage District No. Two respectfully shows you the court:

(1) That on February 28, 1920, the engineer and board of viewers filed their final report in this proceeding (S. P. 2101); that by some inadvertence or mistake, the final report filed failed to specifically refer to a spring or branch which was to be constructed so as to drain the area Northwest of the Taylor Road and to avoid cutting the canal across the ridges or islands known as Long, Buck, Run, Rattlesnake and other islands.

(2) That the engineer and board of viewers intended to include the said spur or prong as a part of the drainage scheme; that the same is included and shown on the profiles prepared by the engineer of the district, and perhaps inferentially made a part of their final report, but the same is not specifically referred to in the report signed by the engineer and board of viewers.

(3) That the construction of said branch, canal or prong or spur is necessary to adequately drain the territory intended to be drained, and unless the said prong or spur is constructed there will be a large body of land which was intended to be drained and which is classified in the assumption that this spur is to be constructed, which will receive no benefit whatsoever.

(4) That the Board of Commissioners of the district have fully investigated the matter, that they have caused the superintendent of construction, Mr. H. L. Rivers, who was one of the engineers who designed the system of drainage, to make a further investigation and report to them, and that after such investigation and upon the report made by Mr. Rivers, they have adopted a resolution, copy of which is hereto attached and asked to be taken as a part hereof.

Prohibition in Finland.

Helsingfors.—Several members of the Finnish Diet have jointly introduced a bill which, if adopted, would drastically revise the prohibition law which is alleged to have failed entirely in its purpose. It is probable that the bill will be rejected, however, as the principle of prohibition is still officially adhered to by most of the political parties in spite of the measure's alleged disadvantages.

Summer Hints for Young Mothers

THE MODERN PRACTICE IN "SUMMER COMPLAINT"

"Looseness" is frequent in summer because children will eat unripe or overripe fruit, raw vegetables and other indigestible food. Fermentation follows quickly. Sometimes, there is fever, pain or vomiting, and nearly always a diarrhoea, which simply means that nature is trying to clear out the poison and gas.

The old idea—a serious mistake—was to check it with blackberry or some other astringent. What is needed is a cathartic. Hurry up with the cleaning-out process! Then give a lighter diet for a while.

Castor oil is good, but better still is Liv-o-lax, which does the work thoroughly, and the children like to take it. You can get a good-sized bottle at the drug store for 30c.

IMPORTANCE OF PERFECT VISION

A physician connected with the greatest surgical plant in the land says that if a child does not see with the physical eye the mental eye can never believe correctly. If the vision is blurred the impression which the child gets is blurred. This is putting the matter plainly and in language which all can comprehend. The remark was made in connection with a plea for a whole child, one with correct vision with a body free from defects as it is possible for one to be.

It is recognized that the ancient Greek ideal may not be attained in completeness, but nothing should be left to chance. Many slight defects can be corrected. If they are disregarded they may become permanent handicaps. To insure the discovery of conditions which may need correction annual examinations are recommended. This practice has become somewhat common for adults, but extending it to children would obviate the chance of them needing frequent examinations so badly when they become adults.

It may be said that this is in the business interest of doctors. When one is ill the first thing one does is to call a doctor. If it is a serious illness the bill will be large. The best way to make bills for medical services small is to keep well, and if by a periodical examination one can keep well one will be able to escape giving doctors much money.

A sound body for the child is of greater importance than a sound body in one who has lived a goodly part of the life one may reasonably expect. If the child starts with a handicap and it is not removed it will carry it all its days. Its usefulness will be lessened by it. If the next generation is made up of men and women of good physique the start will need be made when they are children. Thus the doctor who pleads for the whole child is looking to the kind of future citizens this land will have. He stresses the importance of vision because that must be looked to in infancy as well as later.

NATIONAL HOARDING

One of the grotesque revelations of the week has been the announcement that a total of more than $400,000,000 is hoarded away in America outside of banks. Stockings cupboards, old jars, mattress crannies and other hidden places are believed to be the receptacles of this surprising large sum.

Joseph S. McCoy in the American Bankers Association Journal makes the assertion. His estimate is that $44,000,000 of this deliberately kept out of financial institutions that 8000 misers might look at, fondle and gloat over their treasure. Children's banks account for $1,500,000 while about half the remainder is hoarded by the foreign-born and the farmers.

It is almost inconceivable that so much money should be secreted and kept out of banking institutions. It is easily understood of course, that even millions are kept out of the transaction of business, but that $400,000,000 aside from this is being withheld from banks indicates that a heap of education is still necessary.

Senator Ashurst, who threatens to smash a custard pie in the face of any one who dares to present his name for vice president, evidently relies on the movies for his cue.

MUNICIPALITY OF TSINGTAO IN BAD WAY FINANCIALLY

Tsingtao, China.—This city, pride of the former German leasehold, which was freed from Japanese control after the Washington conference, is now a sorry object lesson as to what a bankrupt administration can do for a municipality.

The new administration under director-general, Kao En-Hung has a mighty task to face in the rehabilitation of the territory's finances. It is unable to pay its bills and has suffered a sudden termination of services of companies which furnished materials, fuel and light. To recoup its losses, due to the failure of the city to pay for street and building lighting, the electric light company has increased its rates to private consumers to excessive figures. The telephone and other companies are threatening to do the same.

In spite of these depressing conditions, the community is looking forward to the coming summer and the arrival of thousands of guests who flock here to escape the heat of the interior of China.

JAMES FICKLEN WINS PRESIDENT'S CUP IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

Five Days Tournament With 42 Entries at Start Ends Yesterday

The five days' golf tournament between members of the Greenville Country Club ended in the midst of a downpour of rain late yesterday with Mr. James S. Ficklen winner of the President's Cup, presented by Mr. H. A. White, president of the club.

The play for the cup is to be an annual event and upon the cup is engraved the name of the winner but not until it is won by a player three times does it become his property.

Beginning on last Thursday with 42 entries or 21 matches, the tournament had narrowed down to eight players or four matches on Monday of this week.

On that date J. S. Ficklen defeated J. H. Waldrop, Carey L. Harrington defeated R. H. Wright; J. Knott Proctor defeated W. H. Wcolard and W. Z. Morton defeated D. J. Whichard.

On Tuesday Ficklen was paired with Morton and Harrington with Proctor.

Harrington in the afternoon's play eliminated Proctor from the contest but the match between Ficklen and Morton was a tie at the end of 24 holes. On yesterday morning Ficklen and Morton completed the 36 holes resulting in the elimination of Morton by a close margin.

Yesterday afternoon Ficklen and Harrington winners of the semi-final matches met for the final play.

At the end of the first nine holes the score of the two players was tied and despite the rain they ventured out upon the final round of the game. Early in this round Ficklen gained a slight lead over his opponent which he held throughout the round.

COLLEGE NOTES

One of the new Dormitories at Teachers College was made available to summer school students this week, and this has materially relieved the congestion which was in danger of being serious for a while. Director Meadows has put the school on a six day schedule instead of six as formerly and classes now meet regularly every day except Sunday. With a six day week and a twelve weeks term a real summer's work is to be done. With all this the attendance is the largest it has ever been.

President Wright spoke to the summer school students at the assembly period Tuesday. He spoke of the great work that is being done in the State in the training of teachers and the large amount that is still to be done if North Carolina is to have the right sort of teachers in her schools. The ideal is a thoroughly trained teacher for every school room in the state. President Wright spoke of the task of this institution and what it was trying to do to take its part of the job of preparing teachers for North Carolina children.

A party of summer school students in charge of Miss Jenkins of the English Department will attend the historical celebration at Bath Thursday.

The building committee of the board of trustees spent the day at the college Wednesday going over the building operations. A. B. Andrews of Raleigh Gray R. King of Nashville F. C. Harding, of Greenville and President Robert H. Wright compose the committee.

UNITED STATES IS WITHIN ITS RIGHTS HUGHES TELLS JAPAN

(Continued from page one.) It would otherwise have in this matter. On the contrary, that freedom with respect to the control of immigration, which is an essential element of sovereignty and entirely compatible with the friendly sentiments which animate our international relations, this government in the course of these negotiations always fully reserved.

The note then quotes the clause from article III of the commercial treaty of 1914 with Japan which stipulated specifically the reservation of the right to control "the immigration of laborers" by law. It adds that when the new commercial treaty of 1911 was under negotiation this clause was eliminated at the instance of the Japanese government because of the existence of the gentlemen's agreement of 1907-8 by which Japan undertook, on her own motion, to restrict such immigration to the United States.

Reference also is made to memoranda exchanged between the Japanese embassy and the state department dated October 15 1910, and January 23, 1911, in which the state department acquiesced in the Japanese suggestion for elimination of the clause under discussion but with the stipulation that "the government of the United States does so with all necessary reserves and without prejudice to the inherent sovereign right of either country to limit and control immigration to its own domains or possessions."

On February 8, 1911, the embassy replied in a memorandum which stated that "the imperial government concurs in the understanding of the proposal relating to the question of immigration set forth in the above mentioned note of January 25, last."

Secretary Hughes' note points out that this correspondence constituted a "distinct understanding" between the two governments of the right of each to control immigration and adds that the advisability of dealing with the question by legislative enactment "necessarily remains within the legislative power of this government to determine" a power which congress now has exercised.

The note advises the Japanese government that since the exclusion provision takes effect July 1, 1924, the Washington government must consider the government of Japan as released from any further obligation under the gentlemen's agreement as from that date. It concludes with the assertion that recognition of the right of each government to legislate in control of immigration "should not derogate in any degree from the mutual good will and cordial friendship which have always characterized the relations of the two countries."

SECOND TONSIL ADENOID CLINIC HELD HERE TODAY

The second tonsil and adenoid clinic under the auspices of the Pitt County Health Department, the American Red Cross, the doctors of Greenville and the Parent-Teachers Association, was held in the Greenville High School Building today.

The first floor of the High School Building is well fitted up for the work. There is the examination room in which Drs. Chester and Ellen examine the patients to ascertain if the tonsils and adenoids should be removed. Next to this room is found the operating room which is almost as complete as a real hospital operating room. After the operations the boys are carried to one room and the girls to another. These rooms are fitted up with comfortable cots, clean linens and present a most sanitary appearance.

Fourteen operations were performed today by Dr. C. J. Ellen. The anaesthetic being given by Drs. Joe Dixon and Joe Smith. They were assisted by Misses Edna McKel and Miss Allie Clark of the Health Department. Several Greenville ladies also assisted.

The clinic is not free, but the doctors of the city are giving their services at greatly reduced prices, which enables the people of moderate means to have their children treated. The Red Cross is also doing its part by the defective children.

The value of such a clinic can not be easily estimated. There is no age limit, all children of school age being eligible. Diseased tonsils and adenoids are great drawbacks to children. In numbers of cases the children have become so dull that they have trouble in making their grades. They are listless and have little if any energy.

It has been found by teachers and parents that in cases where a student was dull, that as soon as the defective tonsils were removed the child began to learn rapidly.

The parents are urged by the Pitt County Board of Health to take advantage of the clinic. The date of the next clinic has not been definitely decided upon, but there will be another one held at an early date. Parents desiring to take advantage of the clinic are advised to keep in touch with Dr. Outland of the Health Department. His office is in the court house and his phone 130.

FASHION PRESCRIBES A SCARF A DAY

THERE is nothing monotonous about the vogue of the scarf, because it is as infinite in its variety as its feminine wearer. A scarf a day is prescribed by Fashion, and we may be gay Monday, pensive Tuesday, demure Wednesday, and so on around the week.

This scarf and hat set sketched in Paris by Cheney is evidently worn on a dignified day. It attains a very rich effect with the "ton sur ton" brown printed crepe scarf trimmed with narrow bands of coral pink crepe worked in squares. The same trimming is used on the brown bangkok hat.

DAILY COTTON LETTER.

New Orleans, June 19.—Prospects for relief from the heat wave in the southwest in the way of cooler weather, perhaps showers north portion, influenced market to a lower level today. Temperatures continued high in Texas and Oklahoma yesterday but there are good indications for a break in the hot wave in the immediate future.

The local weather bureau predicts showers and cooler for Arkansas, probably local thundershowers and cooler for Oklahoma, part cloudy for North Texas, probably local thundershowers and cooler north portion and partly cloudy west Texas cooler north portion probably showers in the panhandle.

Corpus Christi, Texas wired "look for first new bale 1924 cotton crop not later than Wednesday of next week. Just movement looks like 10,000 to 15,000 bales against 45,000 last year."

The first new bale last year was received at Houston, Texas on the night of June 23rd.

Meanwhile the trade is very nervous as to whether or not the present heat wave will be broken by indications for cooler weather for while no section of Texas except the northwestern portion has been reported injured by the excessive heat, fear is entertained that torrid weather might continue and do harm to the crop in other sections of the state. However, prospects are very good for lower temperatures and probably some rain to the west of the Mississippi river.

To the east of the Mississippi river of late has been generally more favorable, less rain, higher temperatures with no indications for a decided change in the near future.

Although there have been complaints of the hot dry weather injuring the late planted in northwest Texas, it is likely that the crop has improved thus far this month in other sections of the state, as well, in all likelihood in all other cotton states and the question arises will not the crop as a whole show improvement, against a deterioration of 1.8 points from May 25th to June 25th last year. "The Galloping Fish" Gives Riotous Laugh

The "seal walk" is the latest dance hit in Hollywood.

"Freddie" the trained seal which plays the title role in Thomas H. Ince's new comedy special "The Galloping Fish," a First National release now running at White's Theatre, is responsible for the innovation. At least he taught the step to Louise Fazenda and she taught it to Syd Chaplin and Ford Sterling and now all the film celebrities are doing it.

He has a wiggle all his own that goes like velvet to jazz music. He keeps them roaring from the time he makes his initial bow, sliding from a ten foot spring board into a glass tank at the same moment that his mistress, the Diving Venus, does a swan dive into the tank.

The story of "The Galloping Fish" is as original as the star which plays the title role. A timid little bridegroom—played by Syd Chaplin—drifts into a theatre seeking oblivion from the pangs of agony of his first quarrel with his bride. He is just in time to be collared into assisting the "Diving Venus" and her manager who sneak their seal from the theatre to avoid a sheriff who is trying to attach it for an unpaid bill.

From the time that "Freddie" the seal comes to life in an ambulance and gallops off after a fish wagon with the other timid little "Freddie" in mad pursuit until the last lap of a spectacular flood from which the timid one emerges triumphantly with the seal collared and his bride doing the adoring hero-worship act, there isn't a dull moment in the production. The cast, which was directed by Del Andrews includes Louise Fazenda, Syd Chaplin, Ford Sterling, Chester Conklin, John Stepping, Lucille Ricksen and Truly Shattuck.
