Chairman Cummings Tells Press Platform May Be Presented Today

OPENING OF DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

Convention Plunged Into Riproaring Demonstration for Smith; Bayard Nominates Willard Saulsbury, of Delaware; Stevens Places Name of David F. Houston Before Convention

New York, June 26.—The tentative drafting of the Democratic platform containing an alternative proposed on the Ku Klux Klan and league of nations was submitted to platform sub-committee of eleven. It was prepared by Chairman Homer Cummings and Senator Pittman, Nevada, on basis of a discussion which continued before the sub-committee until an early hour today. Immediately after the sub-committee assembled, it summoned Owen Young, of New York, for a brief discussion of his plank proposing American co-operation with other nations through the league of nations or other associations criticizing the present administration's foreign policy, and denouncing use of unofficial observers abroad.

After the committee had been in session more than two hours Chairman Cummings who had arrived in the meantime, issued a statement saying he did not think that the platform could be presented to a full committee until late tonight and "I see no prospect of reporting platform so that there will be considerable debate on controversial planks which include league of nations and so called Ku Klux Klan plank and these matters may be disposed of by a sub committee presenting to full committee alternative plank," he said and added "so I would say now that it is almost certain that there will be one subject on which alternative planks will be submitted."

Madison Square Garden, New York, June 26.—Four years ago in Democratic national convention at San Francisco a victorious young man in the flower of youth seconded the nomination of Governor Al Smith and won for himself the vice presidential nomination. Today the same young man, still rich in vigor of his mind but fighting gamely against creeping in roads of infantile paralysis, was assisted to the platform to nominate the Governor of New York for the presidency. He was Franklin Roosevelt former assistant secretary of the Navy, when Connecticut yielded to New York and the convention realized that the crippled but smiling young man was going to nominate Smith a roar went up that fairly lifted the Garden roof. The roaring demonstration continued until Roosevelt himself quieted it.

No sooner had Roosevelt finished his speech than the convention plunged into a rip-roaring demonstration for Smith which lasted just an hour and a half and was not quieted until Roosevelt personally addressed to those on the floor a request that they remain quiet and let the convention go on. Chairman Walsh then directed the secretary to continue with the roll call and Delaware being the next on the list Senator Bayard nominated Willard Saulsbury, former Delaware Senator. The name of David F. Houston, former secretary of Agriculture and treasury and a friend of Woodrow Wilson was placed before the convention by Lewis Stevenson of Blooming, Illinois. Addresses seconding the nominations of McAdoo and Smith interspersed the proceedings.

BETHEL ORGANIZES MEN'S FEDERATION

Adopts Slogan "All of Bethel for Christ;" Services in the Baptist Church Sunday Afternoon

The good work started in Greenville by the Ham-Ramsay party is spreading throughout Pitt county very rapidly.

The men of Greenville were organized in a Christian Federation under the leadership of Mr. Ramsay and is composed of the men who were converted during the Ham-Ramsay meeting, together with practically all the christian men of the city backed up by the ministers of the different denominations.

The Federation has divided itself into eight groups with a leader and two assistants for each group. These groups are going out into every part of the county holding prayer meetings, assisting in evangelistic services and organizing Men's Federations in different towns. One of these groups under the leadership of J. B. Kittrell and composed of L. J. Smith, Jim Applewhite, Gus Forbes, G. E. Powell, F. V. Johnson, J. L. Starkey, J. H. Leary, J. W. Turner, M. K. Blount and others went to Bethel Tuesday morning and held prayer services on the street in front of M. O. Blount & Sons' store and organized the Bethel Men's Christian Federation.

This new Federation is composed of practically all the Christian business men of Bethel and immediate community, and has started out with great enthusiasm electing Mr. J. A. Stator, president.

They have organized to have a thirty minutes prayer service every morning at eight o'clock.

The first of these services was held yesterday (Wednesday) morning in front of J. R. Buntings & Son's store led by Mr. Shem Lewis. There was a large crowd present and great interest was manifested by all. A number of men and boys testified and led in prayer.

Wednesday night both the Methodist and Baptist church, united in an open air prayer service in front of the hotel, attended by a large little city and assure them that a representative crowd. It was decided to continue the union open air of them at all times.

Kyser Declares Peppermint Can Be Produced In State

Wilmington, June 26.—Peppermint and spearmint can be produced in North Carolina with great profit, Professor Vernin Kyser, of the School of Pharmacy of the University of North Carolina, told the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association in its forty-fifth meeting at Wrightsville Beach today. Much of the state's land is admirably suited to their growth, he said, and there is a ready market for the oils produced from them.

Reclaimed swamp lands is ideal for their growth, he explained, and the mildness of climate in the eastern section of the state makes for a long season that would permit two or more cuttings a year.

Citing figures to show possible profits derived from such crops as compared with others he said that "one acre of peppermint would produce approximately 40 pounds of oil at a market price of $3.50 a pound, while one acre of spearmint would produce 40 pounds of oil at a market value of $2.50 per pound. There is now produced in the United States annually 350,000 pounds of peppermint oil with a market value of $1,225,000 and 75,000 pounds of spearmint oil with a market value of $87,500. Michigan and Illinois are the states producing the most at the present."

Professor Kyser said that near Elizabeth City there is a man from Michigan who is cultivating ten acres of peppermint at a good annual profit.

services every Wednesday night during the summer. Lights and seats will be arranged for the next service.

People of Bethel wish to express their profound gratitude to the Men's Federation of Greenville for having started this good work in their city and assure them that a cordial welcome awaits any or all of them at all times.

Roosevelt Urges The Nomination Of Gov. Al Smith

Declares Smith Is "Most Dangerous Adversary That Republican Party Has to Fear," Says His Name "Spells Victory"

New York, June 26.—Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York was formally placed before the democratic national convention today for nomination for the presidency of the United States. In course of the presentation of his name, Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself nominated for the vice presidency four years ago at the San Francisco convention and now serving as campaign manager for Mr. Smith said the New York governor "is the most dangerous adversary that the republican party ever had to fear," his name "spells victory."

After a comprehensive recital of Governor Smith's record during the years he has served in public office, (Continued on page 6)

Washington Girl Has Narrow Escape From Drowning

Miss Louise Respass, of Washington, a delegate to the Young People's convention of the Diocese of Eastern Carolina which has been convening here, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday. Mr. W. N. Taylor, aged about 58 years, in an attempt to save her also came very near losing his life, both being rescued by a son-in-law of Mr. Taylor.

Miss Respass was attending the barbecue dinner at the Country Club and decided to go in the water. She can not swim and did not intend going in deep water. However in some unexplainable manner in an attempt to float she was carried to deep water and went under twice. Mr. Taylor hearing her cries for help made a daring attempt to rescue her, but her strength was too much for him, and he soon found that they both were on the verge of drowning.

Mr. Taylor's son-in-law then went in rescuing both Mr. Taylor and Miss Respass.

Although badly frightened Miss Respass was getting along all right today.

BUSINESS MEN'S PRAYER MEETINGS IN PYTHIAN HALL

Leaders for Next Week Announced; Every Man Urged to Take Part

Below is a list of the leaders of the Business Men's Prayer Meeting to be held in the Pythian Hall every morning during the week at 8:15 and Sundays at 8:45.

Friday, June 27th, W. C. Dresbach Saturday, June 28th, W. D. Pruitt. Sunday, June 29th, K. W. Cobb. Monday, June 30th, Geo. Langley. Tuesday, July 1st, C. L. Outland. Wednesday, July 2, D. J. Whichard

The enthusiasm in these meetings is growing daily and in spite of the very hot weather during the past few days the attendance is fine. The meeting starts exactly at 8:15 and closes at 8:45 on the dot. This is a Business Men's meeting and there is no finer tonic to be had than 30 minutes of song and prayer with which to start off a day's work.

It is noticeable that some of the merchants and other large business interests do not have representatives present. It is a great injustice to your self and a greater injustice to Christ to keep out of these meetings. The meeting needs you and you need the meeting. Men we want to make Greenville and Pitt county 100 per cent for Jesus Christ, but we cannot do it, unless the big influential men will take part, and help carry on this great and glorious work. There are numbers who are sincere in this work and it is going on; because Jesus is working with us, but it

FOX HUNT IS ENJOYED BY LOCAL PEOPLE

Gus Forbes Writes Open Letter to Fox Hunters Telling of Recent Hunt in Beaufort County

Boys, I think one of the most enjoyable fox hunts we ever had was in Aurora Wednesday and Thursday of last week. I think my fellow hunters always enjoy hearing of a good race.

To have a hunt perfectly agreeable we must train our dogs to run male foxes only this time of year. We've had five races of late and have caught four male and one female foxes. We were not anxious to catch this old girl fox but she stuck herself in our way and it was too difficult to stop real fox hounds. Young foxes however are old enough to take care of themselves anyway.

We reached Aurora about six o'clock Tuesday, met with Joe Bell who had invited us. Joe had made all necessary arrangements for taking care of the dogs and our little party. Mr. Bell is living at the McWilliams Hotel and both he and Mrs. McWilliams made it very pleasant for us during our stay.

The most pleasant part of our trip was our sleeping quarters. We had free access to two big rooms containing six beds, facing the west with a delightful breeze all night. Just the kind that makes the tired fox hunter sleep sound.

John Tucker and Snodie Mills, I never saw boys sleep any harder, for they were undisturbed. John is all right a good fellow and an excellent hunter and has some very fine dogs. But if some friend of mine will offer a remedy for this poor fellows very bad habit they can get a part of my belongings. If there is anybody on earth that really knows how to snore it is my friend John. Anyone would think that John carried to bed with him each night a couple of bull frogs under each arm to breathe for him. Snodie Mills says John's snoring don't bother him for if he can get a full swing at Mrs. McWilliams' supper—and that means eleven biscuits, 14 eggs and wine fish—somebody's got to wake him in the morning.

Wednesday morning we started out for our first race. Joe took us to a very fine hunting grounds with roads all around and through it, we got out about sunrise, turned loose about 32 dogs and immediately after they hit the ground they went sailing on a fox trail. We jumped two very shortly, 29 dogs taking after the old male boy and three after the other fox.

We had a beautiful race for one hour and half. I never saw a gamer fox in all my life. At times it looked like the dogs were right on his heels and would catch him every minute. Probably the next time he came in the open he'd be 300 yards ahead. This chase never broke for one second until the old boy gave up.

We rested the dogs for about five minutes, gave them water and then took them over to where the three dogs were still running another fox. All dogs were soon well packed and another chase on. Now boys this was a test race. It being hot and the woods thick we hampered down on this old boy for two hours. Finding that he couldn't outwit the dogs nor running out of hearing at any time of the race he gave up right in the middle of the road. I don't think I ever saw a prettier catch. With every dog at the killing and every hunter.

We loaded dogs then and went back to town where Mr. McW...

Liams had a delightful lunch prepared for us. Our old friend Irvin Bonner had made arrangements to take us out for a fishing trip as we were about to leave we noticed a very bad cloud so that broke up our fishing for that afternoon. After the rain was over Mr. Bonner and Joe Bell carried us around through the farming section which must be a curiosity to anyone who is interested in farming who have never been in that section. Their lands are very rich, their crops are principally cotton Irish potatoes and corn, and I believe that I can safely state that they have more Irish potatoes in the field after digging a hundred barrels to the acre than we can raise up here on an acre of land.

Well, we went back in for supper. After sitting around and gossiping until about 10 o'clock we went up for another night's rest. We had hardly hit the bed when Johnnie had dropped off into Slumbertown with his bull frogs in full blast. Snodie Mills, naturally with his full sluggish stomach fell in line with John so Joe Bell and I spent another one of those nights.

Next morning we were out to the hunting grounds early and started old bro fox as soon as the dogs were loosed. We ran this old dog fox right at his heels, expected to catch every minute but when the time was up we noticed our watched and he had run three hours and we all decided that he was a game fellow. John enjoyed this race best of all. Some fellow had slipped him a shepherd dog and called it a July breed. John has a great fancy for July dogs. If you would ship him an alligator and mark July across its head he would wear it had the best fox dog in the world. We had lots of run out of John and this shepherd canine shaggy as he was I want to tell you he gave our Pot Lickers a fit and was there to the finish in every face. In order that John might see what his dog was going to do, he let chase. There is nobody living purchased a broncho pony and let who has seen as many sights as I saw with John and this broncho. Part of the time John was riding the broncho and part of the time the broncho was riding John. One time I saw John with one foot on the ground, the other across the pony's back running down the road at the rate of 20 miles an hour. Finally John stood this pony on his head, being the best man, and got out of the saddle. This satisfied John as far as riding was concerned so he gave up his pony to old man Irvin Bonner to hold for him until the chase was over. Snodie Mills, he only had one pair of pants with him on this trip, and while I begged him to get in the woods and help catch this fox he told me to go ahead that he didn't want to get his clothes wet. So Snodie perched himself on the end of a rotten log near a big ditch and about the time he got settled and comfortable this log broke, letting him down with a swift gait. As he heard the splash we rushed to the scene finding Snodie in the bottom of this ditch covered in water. We could only see the whites of his eyes. Well fellows, it takes all this to make a good fox hunt. We then retired to our hotel, enjoyed a very pleasant fishing trip with Mr. Irvin Bonner and then left for home.

Now we want to thank these people for this splendid vacation and innocent pleasure and promise them that we are coming down again.

GUS E. FORBES.

Tsingtao's New Governor Dismissed 147 Officials

Engtao, China.—Governor Kao En-tung's "big stick" regime, which began recently with the dismissal of 147 department officials and advisers, gives promise of further interesting days in Tsingtao's usually placid existence. Having pacified the police, who were on the verge of mutiny because of three months arrears of pay, the new governor and his staff are on the alert for threatened counter attack by the ousted ones.

The historic administration, building over which the flags of Germany, Japan and China have floated, never witnessed a more exciting day than that of the recent political house-cleaning. Governor Kao began operations at 8 a. m. an unheard-of thing, and the dismissed employees left swearing all sorts of vengeance. The erstwhile director of general affairs, who was the ringleader in the salient upon the public treasury, admitted to the new administration that there was not a copper to turn over and refused to surrender his records and files. He succeeded in slipping out of the city after having once been stopped by the police. After the police had been paid their arrears of salary, the governor was astounded to receive word that the police chief had resigned, investigation showing that he had been bribed by a wealthy Chinese, who had made a fortune in illicit opium trade, and who wanted to block any inquiry. The governor gave both men a limited time in which to remove themselves from his jurisdiction. The sole survivor of the former administration is D. T. Lin, director of forestry and agriculture, an American who is the salient trained specialist in his department.

NEW PUTTING COURSE IN LONDON DRAWS CITY CLERKS IN DROVES

London.—The mystery of the disappearance from offices in the city and West End of managers and heads of departments for an hour or so in the morning or afternoon has been cleared up by a visit to Lincoln's Inn Fields.

There on the green, smooth lawns an 18-hole putting golf course has been laid out, and would-be golfers can try their hand at a cost of three pence a round, which includes putters and balls.

The London County Council was responsible for laying out the putting course. In the lunch hour the greens are covered with young men and girl clerks, and after office hours there is also a rush of players.

FEMALE DOGS SHOW DEVOTED VIGILANCE TO BLIND MASTERS

Potsdam, Germany. — In this historic city, where once Frederick the Great, lover of animals, erected burial mounds for his favorite greyhounds directly outside Sans Souci castle, there has been established a national training school for a type of dog conspicuous for the Red Cross insignia carried on his harness—the guide dog for blinded soldiers. Infinite patience must be exercised by the two trainers in charge to prepare the dogs for their task. Those selected are almost invariably female shepherds. It has been found that female dogs are the only dependable ones. Males are apt to forget their duties when they see a good chance for a fight. With the female the material instinct, the feeling of caring affectionately for the blind master, is uppermost.

Buecker and Weehering, the two trainers of the Potsdam kennel, put the dogs through a rigid course of training in which, however, the whip is never applied. The dog must learn to walk slowly, to obey the master's every word, to fetch things for him when desired, not only to avoid the holes and projections and ditches dangerous to itself, but also to pull the master over far enough for him also to avoid danger. Sur-posing, for instance, there is a projecting mail box. It is no hindrance to the dog, but the animal must be taught that its master should be led as to avoid running into it. These dogs must also learn to gauge the speed of traffic so as to indicate to their master whether it is safe to cross the street.

When the time has come for the dog to pass its final examination the trainer harnesses the dog and bids it lead its teacher, whose eyes are tied for the purpose, through Potsdam. The trainer can then tell whether the dog has mastered the technique of leading.

Next the prospective master is sent for. All blind persons who desire a guide dog must take up residence in the training school for a period of six weeks, so that master and dog may get used to each other. Not always is the dog first selected for a particular blind man the proper one for that person.

Psychological factors play a great role in this matter. During the six-week trial period, the shepherd dog remains at the prospective master's side day and night.

Few persons perhaps realize that the task for a dog of acting as guide to a blind man is a nerve-racking one. The Potsdam trainers figure that no guide dog lasts longer than four or five years. After that it is a nervous wreck. There have been numerous cases on record of such dogs going from actual nervousness.

RHODE ISLAND LEGISLATORS IN POISON GAS WAR.

GOV. W. E. LLOYD, SEN. AUSTIN, SEN. POWERS & LIEUT. GOV. TOUPIN IN RHODE ISLAND CAPITOL.

Although the Democrats carried the State of Rhode Island, the Republicans held a majority in the Senate because of an old law which allows all cities one Senator. In a filibuster led by Lieutenant-Governor Toupin to change the law, the feeling became so bitter poison gas was emitted in the Senate Chamber in the Capitol. Governor William L. Flynn ordered arrests, but the culprits were not found. Senator Fred Austin, of Smithfield, and Senator John Powers, of Cumberland, are shown in conference with Lieutenant-Governor Toupin in an unsuccessful effort to end the filibuster.

representative of many sections of the State.

A big feature of the initial session was the music under the direction of Eugene Olive, Chapel Hill, assisted by the Clinton Baptist orchestra. Mr. Olive and Dupree Rhame, the new student worker at Chapel Hill, who will be associated with Mr. Olive next session, rendered very effectively "The Crown of Thorns." The music will be a special feature of every session.

After Perry Morgan, Raleigh, who is the general director of the assembly, had presented his faculty of more than a dozen members, he introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. A. Paul Bagby, Wake Forest, who delivered the first of series of lectures on "Faith," his particular theme being, "The Basis of Our Christian Faith" or "Christ in the Light and the Shadow of the Cross." Dr. Bagby laid down as the thesis of his lectures the fact that faith is not the passive receptivity of a creed or a truth, but the active co-operation on the part of the individual who exercises it in the will of God.

Class work in various departments of church activity began this morning. Dr. E. C. Dargan, Nashville, Tenn., spoke at the 11 o'clock hour on "The Pastoral Epistles," as he will do each day. Dr. J. T. Henderson, Knoxville, and Dr. Bagby will speak each evening. It is expected that scores of people will spend the week-end here. The Assembly will close next Tuesday night.

Summer Hints for Young Mothers

"SECOND SUMMER" TEETHING

There is a common old saying among mothers that if the baby survives its second summer, it will be over the most dangerous period.

This is based on the fact that hot weather is hard on a teething child. One of the most famous children's specialists says that a healthy child in teething may be fretful and sleep poorly for a few nights, may show loss of appetite, and slight fever, and may drool but such spells should only last three or four days—and most of the symptoms commonly attributed to teething come from indigestion due to wrong food.

For children's indigestion there's nothing more effective than Livo-lax, and they like to take it. You can get a good-sized bottle at the drug store for 30c.

LARGE CROWDS ARE ATTENDING THE BAPTIST SEASIDE ASSEMBLY

Morehead City, June 26.—Tuesday brought scores of new attendants to the Baptist Seaside Assembly now in session in this city. Quite as many are here now as attended the Assembly last year during the entire session. General director Perry Morgan is elated over the prospects for a great assembly this year.

The program consisting of classes in all phases of Sunday school, B. Y. P. U. and W. M. U. Work, Stewardship and Bible and sermons is of an unusually high order. It is a training school for Christian workers conducted under the auspices of the Baptist board of Missions. Due credits will be given for work taken here in the form of diplomas, certificates and seals.

Dr. E. C. Dargan, Nashville, Tenn., noted scholar, author, teacher, editor and preacher, greatly charmed his audience Tuesday with a lecture on "Paul and Two Young Preachers, Timothy and Titus." His style is engaging as well as the content of his message.

Rev. T. H. King, Clinton, delivered the opening message at 8 a. m. The Clinton Baptist orchestra, consisting of 13 pieces, is one of the great features of the Assembly. Other special musical numbers by Eugene Olive, the musical director, and his assistant, DuPree Rhame, added greatly to the program.

Dr. J. T. Henderson, Knoxville, delivered a highly interesting address on "Financing the Church." It was ascertained by him that more than 100 preachers were present. Dr. A. Paul Bagby, closed the evening session with another sermon on "Faith," the particular theme being, "Some of the Content of Faith."

TRIPE-TONGUED UMPIRES. RULE EUROPEAN FOOTBALL

Berlin.—Amateur football is rapidly coming back to its pre-war popularity in central Europe and more games have been played here this spring than ever before, not only among Germans but with visiting teams from the nearby states.

Because of the international game, polyglot umpires and referees have been in great demand. American visitors who have witnessed association games here say that to them the most interesting part of the play has been the referees, who must make their ruling and announcements in two or three different languages.

It was announced recently that a team of players of the British army of occupation on the Rhine would make a tour of central Europe. (By Walter N. Gilmore.)

Conway Tearle in "Black Oxen"

Picture Will Stir Interest of Women

Picturegoers are promised a distinct treat in "Black Oxen," a First National Picture produced by Frank Lloyd and featuring Corinne Griffith and Conway Tearle, which, it has been announced, will be featured at White's theatre, commencing Monday.

"Black Oxen" relates an unusual story of a woman rejuvenated by science and who finds, at 58, her first true romance. How the woman, bent on keeping her return visit to America a secret, attracts the attention of a newspaper man, who sees in her his ideal, and following a chance meeting, falls in love with her and continues his devotion in face of criticism by friends and knowledge that his sweetheart is old enough to be his mother. The entrance of a rapper into the odd romance is said to cause many unique climaxes to develop and to add considerable action to the rapidly moving story.

Prominent in support of Miss Griffith and Mr. Tearle are Clara Bow, who plays the flapperish Janet; Alan Hale, Kate Lester, Thomas Hicketts, Tom Guise, Claire MacDowell, Lincoln Stedman and Clarissa Selwynne. Mr. Lloyd produced the screen version of "Black Oxen" from a scenario which he, with the aid of Mary O'Hara, prepared from Gertrude Atherton's best selling novel of the same title.

The presentation at White's theatre will be accompanied by a special musical program and appropriate short reel subjects.

Substitutes are generally more expensive in the end than genuine articles. Housewives have learned—they KNOW this is true where bakings are concerned.

Self rising flours are classed as substitutes for plain flour and good baking powder. The use of these special mixtures is very liable to result in false economy, failures and waste on bake day.

Remember there is a big difference, in many ways, between biscuits and other bakings made from these so-called self-rising flours and those made from good plain flour and a dependable leavener. Try the experiment—make a baking from each—convince yourself.

You will find the baking made from flour and baking powder far more attractive in appearance. It will raise higher—retain its full food value and taste better. For best results, do not fail to use Calumet, the Economy Baking Powder, and a reliable brand of plain flour.

Just think of it—the sale of Calumet is 2½ times as much as that of any other brand. It contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Food Authorities. It is pure and sure.

You save when you buy it—you save when you use it.

THE Big-Six Touring is a seven-passenger car—not merely a seven-passenger body mounted on a five-passenger chassis.

It was designed and built for seven-passenger service—with a motor of ample power and stamina for seven-passenger satisfaction.

Then, too, with the auxiliary seats folded away, the Big-Six becomes the most desirable five-passenger car in which you have ridden, with room enough for all the luggage you will ever need.

Big-Six appearance is attractive, distinctive, and in good taste. Its performance, acceleration, flexibility and dependability are known and respected the world over.

No car, regardless of price, surpasses it in quality or completeness of equipment.

If a smaller manufacturer or assembler were to build the Big-Six—of equal quality and workmanship—his price would be $3,500—perhaps more.

But Big-Six overhead is distributed over six times as many units as are built by any Big-Six competitor, hence Big-Six cost and selling price are surprisingly low.

Don't buy blindfolded. Examine, ride in and drive the Big-Six before you buy any other car.

COSTLY CARELESSNESS

The teaching of woodcraft to thousands of American youngsters through such agencies as the Boy Scouts, the Forest Guides and the Campfire Girls holds out the hope that in a few years we shall hear of fewer such disasters as that reported from Colorado, where the carelessness of a camper in failing to extinguish his campfire has resulted in the devastation of a large part of the Arapahoe National Forest, by flames. The latest report at this writing is that 300 men have been pressed into service to fight the blaze, which has already done much damage and threatens to invade a village where hundreds of workingmen have their homes. All of this loss and distress has been caused by the neglect of a camper to follow a few simple rules—rules with which every Boy Scout becomes familiar almost before he emerges from the tenderfoot stage.

It would be well if all persons who contemplate camping this summer would learn these rules; for it is the carelessness of campers in respect of fire which causes the destruction of a large part of the woodlands that are laid waste every year. The advice given to the Scouts is not technical; it is merely applied common sense.

Much of the joy of camping would be missing if there were no wood fire around which to gather in the evening, not so much for the warmth as for the cheerfulness and picturesqueness of it. It is the ideal place for the telling of stories. There is much satisfaction in a wood fire in the open for cooking purposes, also. It hardly seems like camping if the portable stoves using oil or oil derivatives are used.

The campfire, then, is not to be dispensed with. All that is asked is that the campers take care to prevent the flames from spreading. The Boy Scouts are taught never to build a fire near inflammable trees such as pines. They are instructed to build a circle of stones around the fire, or to dig up the earth or wet a space around it. They are advised always to have pails of water near at hand and to prevent its rekindling after it is apparently out, to pour water over it and soak the earth for two or three feet around it. It is suggested that fires should not be built against large or hollow logs, where it is difficult to extinguish them, and that a fire should never be regarded as out until the last spark has been extinguished, as often a log or snag will smolder unnoticed after the flames have apparently been conquered, only to break out afresh with a rising wind. The fire should not be larger than is necessary, and in case a gale is blowing it should be dispensed with altogether as to difficult to control.

None of these suggestions is unreasonable; none calls for a great deal of work, nor entails even a considerable amount of inconvenience. If every camper complied with them, saving of life and property would be effected.

ONE IN TWENTY-ONE!

Reliable statistics place the number of public garages in the United States at exactly 49,156. From January 1, 1918, to December 31, 1922, fire losses occurred among them amounting to $19,677,593 on buildings and equipment and such stocks of accessories as customarily are carried by garages. This loss grew out of 11,519 separate claims for insurance. With an average number of claims per annum of 2,304 it will be noted that out of every twenty-one garages one suffers more or less severely from fire every year, or, to put it in another way, one public garage is, on the average, visited by the flames every three hours—a high ratio of burning, even in America.

If garage owners are not above profiteering by statistics, they will do well to withdraw into the sciences for a brief spell and ponder these figures. They should bear in mind that at least 75 per cent of all fires, in their occupancy as in the whole range of improved property, are preventable. Therefore they can buy immediately from loss up to that degree and perhaps some way beyond it. But they must be prepared to pay the price of this partial freedom, which is more than all else, intelligent and unrelaxing watchfulness. The further facts that the life hazard is high and that under-insurance exists to an unusual extent in garage property should help to incline them to this wise course.

The list of "also rans" promises to beat the record this year.

The mosquito and the fly were merely awaiting warm weather.

Money talks, but it doesn't hesitate long enough to say much.

Every shocking flapper is followed by a gang of shock absorbers.

If every day was Sunday some people would work themselves to death.

LOS ANGELES CLAIMS CONGESTION RECORD

Los Angeles.—Statistics made public by the Los Angeles Traffic Commission reveal that Los Angeles streets are the most congested in the United States.

In making the comparisons, traffic at each intersection of the principal streets outside of the downtown area proper was recorded.

Some of the salient points which the check disclosed were:

Los Angeles county, with 425,572 automobiles (tourists' machines not included) represents 3 1-2 per cent of the total automobile registration of the country.

Approximately 310,000 cars enter the congested district every day. This is said to be more than the total number of automobiles registered in New York City. Motor traffic at Adams and Figueroa streets is declared the heaviest in the United States. During eleven and a half hours of the day of the check 69,797 cars traversed both streets of the intersection. The total registration of Los Angeles county is larger by 120,000 than that of New York.

The check shows that there are three intersections in Los Angeles that have a daily movement of over 45,000 machines; six intersections with between 40,000 and 45,000; nine intersections with between 35,000 and 40,000, and 23 more with a movement of 30,000 to 35,000. The figures show the traffic movement for only one street of each intersection, that is, north and south traffic or east and west traffic.

ANCIENT BULGAR CITY WILL CELEBRATE ITS 2,500TH YEAR

Varna, Bulgaria.—Few cities have had occasion to celebrate their 2,500th birthday, but that is what this port on the Black Sea is planning to do in July.

This largest Bulgarian seaport is of Greek origin. Its original recorded name is Odessos, subsequently changed to Odyssoa or Odysopolis. It was founded by Miletan navigators in the sixth century before Christ. Hellenic domination of Varna is recalled by silver and gold coins called "Odysseion" which have been found here.

Rome used Varna, then Odysopolis as a point of departure and arrival of mercantile fleets and diplomatic and military missions. The only remnant of the old Roman fortifications is a massive tower 25 feet high, which is now one of the sights of the city.

Varna is now the port through which the greater part of Bulgarian sea-commerce and foreign shipping is carried on.

OLD TOMES OF 4TH CENTURY SOUGHT IN MOSCOW KREMLIN

Dorpat, Esthonia.—Search for the secret library of Ivan IV, known as "the Terrible," has been taken up by the Soviet authorities in Moscow, according to word received here by descendants of Doctor Paul Westermann, a clergyman of Dorpat; who originally started the task some 200 years ago.

Records kept by Dr. Westermann which are in possession of his relatives, show that the library now being sought consisted chiefly of books in the old Greek and Egyptian languages dating back as far as the fourth century. Many of these had been taken to Moscow by the Greek princess, Sophie Palaeologa at the time she became the bride of Ivan III.

Ivan the Terrible became obsessed with the idea that efforts were being made by all the world to rob him of his treasures, especially his library and it was on this account that he concluded to remove the books to a great dungeon beneath the Kremlin walls for safe keeping.

According to tradition the secret hiding place selected by Ivan was known to but few at the time, and no diagram was kept of the location.

The workmen who built the tomb for the books began to disappear one by one after the work was done and, so the story goes, within a short time, none of them was left. All had been put to death by order of Ivan, who alone held the secret of where his treasures were kept.

GERMAN RETAIL TRADE REPORTS WORST YEAR IN ITS HISTORY FOR 1923

Berlin, June 21.—The past year has been the worst in the history of the retail trade in Germany, according to the annual report of the Association of German Department Stores published recently. Of decided influence in the business of 1923 were the steady decline of the mark and the occupation of the Ruhr, which upset conditions generally.

While manufacturers endeavored to adjust themselves to the situation by quoting prices in dollars or pounds, and wholesalers just as rapidly followed suit, numerous new laws and divers regulations prevented the retailers from joining this procession of inflating prices and they were rigidly bound to a narrow margin of profits.

The association officials contend that for the retail trade of the country, 1923 was worse than any period during the war. With the stabilization of the rentenmark, however, retailers this year expect that business generally will get back to a pre-war basis.

TREATS OF TERRORISTS DRIVE LISBON BUSINESS MEN TO FLIGHT

Lisbon.—Lisbon is being terrorized by an association of extremists calling themselves "The Red Legion," the members of which have been committing bomb outrages and shooting prominent men in broad day light.

Three such attempts were made in one week this month and, acting on advice of the police, several well known business men have left for France after having received threatening letters.

More than 60 arrests have been made and documents found indicate that the legion has a large membership of very young men. An arsenal of bombs and weapons was found in the home of one of the men arrested.

BREMERHAVEN'S "YANK TOWN" CLEARED OF BEACHCOMBERS

Bremerhaven, Germany.—Bremerhaven's "Yank Town" has been dissolved. With three or four exceptions, all of the 500 to 600 beachcombers from America, who assembled here during the inflation period of the paper mark, when a glass of beer cost a fraction of a cent and meals could be purchased along the water front for five cents or thereabouts, have been sent home by the United States Consul Albert H. Gerberich, out of funds provided by the American government.

Most of the men were sailors, cooks and stewards off the various vessels putting in there from American ports.

Peking Set Against Queues

Peking, June 26.—Coolies who still persist in wearing a queue may not engage in the popular employment of pulling 'rikshas, according to an order issued by the Peking police. Just why the ban is placed against them does not appear, unless it be for the purpose of further discouraging the practice of wearing queues, which has all but ceased among city coolies.

TELL 'EM & SELL 'EM

North Carolina, Pitt County. In the Superior Court. R. D. Whitehurst, W. H. Woolard and M. O. Blount and others. vs. J. J. Carson and others.

To the Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County:

The Board of Drainage Commissioners of Pitt County Drainage District No. Two respectfully shows unto the court:

(1) That on February 28, 1920, the engineer and board of viewers filed their final report in this proceeding (S. P. 2101); that by some inadvertence or mistake, the final report filed failed to specifically refer to a spring or branch which was to be constructed so as to drain the area Northwest of the Taylor Road and to avoid cutting the canal across the ridges or islands known as Long Buck, Rum, Rattlesnake and other islands.

(2) That the engineer and board of viewers intended to include the said spur or prong as a part of the drainage scheme; that the same is included and shown on the profiles prepared by the engineer of the district, and perhaps inferentially made a part of their final report, but the same is not specifically referred to in the report signed by the engineer and board of viewers.

(3) That the construction of said branch, canal or prong or spur is necessary to adequately drain the territory intended to be drained, and unless the said prong or spur is constructed there will be a large body of land which was intended to be drained and which is classified on the assumption that this spur is to be constructed, which will receive no benefit whatsoever.

(4) That the Board of Commissioners of the district have fully investigated the matter, that they have caused the superintendent of construction, Mr. H. L. Rivers, who was one of the engineers who designed the system of drainage, to make a further investigation and report to them, and that after such investigation and upon the report made by Mr. Rivers, they have adopted a resolution, copy of which is hereto attached and asked to be taken as a part hereof.

Wherefore, the commissioners pray that an order be made correcting the final report of the engineer and board of viewers and authorizing the Board of Commissioners to proceed to construct said prong or spur in accordance with the intention of the Board of Viewers, and as is necessary to adequately carry out the drainage scheme or system.

The foregoing petition having been filed with this court, notice is hereby given that the court will in the court house on Wednesday, July 9th at 10:00 o'clock a.m. hear such interested parties who desire to be heard in opposition to the order demanded in the foregoing petition. It is ordered that said petition and this notice be published in some newspaper published in Pitt county once a week for three weeks prior to date of hearing.

Witness my hand, this June 17, 1924.

Obituary of Late George B. Cooper

The following obituary of the late G. B. Cooper who died in London on Tuesday, May 20, and who was buried in Henderson a few days later, will be read with interest by his many friends in Greenville.

The obituary was copied from the Home Journal of British American Tobacco Company, Head Office, London.

With the deepest regret we record the death of Mr. George Burwell Cooper, who passed away very suddenly in London, after a pathetically brief illness, on Tuesday, May 20, as the result of heart failure super-vening acute general fever, at the early age of thirty-eight.

February of last year he underwent an operation to the nose from which it is now surmised he can never have really fully recovered, though to appearances, in very fairly good health.

The brevity of his illness, and the suddenness of the end, came as a great shock to his many friends, he having been at Westminster House in apparently good health and spirits on the Friday prior to his death on Tuesday.

Born at Henderson, N. Carolina, on October 11, 1886, he was engaged by the Export Leaf Tobacco Co., at Greenville August 1, 1912, and in December of the following year was transferred to Richmond, Va., where he was appointed assistant manager at the Richmond Factory.

In November, 1914, he came over to England and took up duties at Ashton Gates as chief assistant to Mr. J. A. Palethorpe, and there he remained till March 24, 1919, when he came to Head Office in the same capacity.

A remarkably clever and efficient business man and a loyal and trusted friend, his loss will be much felt by all those with whom he came in contact, amongst whom he was deservedly popular.

The interment will take place in Henderson, N. C., the mortal remains having been embalmed and conveyed to the United States, per S. S. Berengaria, which sailed from Southampton on May 24.

Deep sympathy is tendered to his widow, relatives and friends in their sad bereavement.

"A Very Man, Tender, True and Full of Pity."

George Cooper was universally beloved by all with whom he came into contact, and his sudden death is a very great blow to all his colleagues, and those who worked under him. Personally charming in manner, with a happy, sunny disposition, he had the faculty of getting things done without friction.

He joined us down in Bristol nine years ago, and all through the war he shared our anxieties, our hopes and our fears, and always preserved a cheerful optimism, and refused to believe that there could be any ending but one. He had a profound knowledge of his particular side of the business, and had had a wide and varied experience, which was at all times at our disposal, and his judgment was highly valued. Personally, I have lost a very valued friend of many years' standing. It was my privilege to know and number amongst my friends, both his father, the late Mr. John D. Cooper, and his uncle, the late Mr. D. Y. Cooper, both of Henderson, N. C., and little thought, when I first saw George 34 years ago, a very small boy in his father's house—that in years to come he would be so closely associated with me as he has been for many years. George was a very true type of a Southern gentleman, as became the son of such a father—courteous at all times, chivalrous, most considerate to those under him, and absolutely incapable of any mean thought or action. Would that we had more like him. His loss will be felt for all time by those who were glad to call him friend.

Kellogg's Bran did more in two weeks than medicine taken in 20 years

Out of regard for your own health, read this letter:
Gentlemen:
Your "Krumbled Bran," used by me as a cereal, has done more for me in two weeks than the hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine I have taken in last twenty years for constipation. It is wonderful, and it is so simple.
Yours truly,
Arlington H. Carman,
Pateogue, N. Y.
Mr. Carman's experience has been duplicated in thousands of homes. Why does Kellogg's Bran succeed when drugs and pills fail? The answer is simple. Drugs have an unnatural effect upon the bowels. They irritate the intestines. The more they are used, the more one has to use. Finally, they have no effect at all.
Kellogg's Bran STIMULATES the intestines. It cleans, sweeps and purifies them. It acts exactly as nature acts. And it is never necessary to increase the amount eaten. If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to bring permanent relief to the most chronic cases of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. For Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. (Nothing but ALL bran can be so effective. That is why doctors recommend Kellogg's.)
The wonderful, nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran is exclusive. It is delicious—totally unlike ordinary bran. Eat two tablespoonsful daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream and in the recipe on every package. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

DAILY COTTON LETTER.

New Orleans, June 26 — After opening a shade lower for new crop deliveries, due to easier cables than expected, market bulged as result of the strength of July and because of the weather bureau predicting generally fair and continued warm for Oklahoma and Texas which revived fears of the possibility of the return of another hot wave to the south-west.

But the weather bureau reported only reasonable temperatures for this time of the year in Texas and the map indicated no decided change in temperatures for the immediate future. In fact, that there is the possibility of cooler weather in the western belt by the week-end.

Returns to the Gilles Bureau averaged the condition of cotton at 68.4, the increase in acreage 5 percent, indicating a yield of 11,200,000 bales, stating that the weather was more favorable for growth.

This afternoon market declined in consequence of unexpected weakness developing in July and because of more favorable weather and crop accounts.

The Weather.

Temperature eastern belt 88 to 92; central belt slightly warmer; western temperatures average 96; light rain Alabama, Oklahoma and threatening Mississippi Valley. Forecast entire belt part cloudy probably scattered thundershowers except Texas generally fair, temperatures about unchanged.

Roosevelt Urges Nomination of Gov. Al Smith Today

picturing him as the warrior "invincible in defense of right and in attack on wrong" Mr. Roosevelt said the democracy of America "will stand without fear and without hesitation loyally behind" Mr. Smith as the nominee of the convention. "Picture the coming campaign" Mr. Roosevelt said. "Imagine ringing through the halls of the nation this man's denunciation of the official corruption, of un-American isolation, of roid tariffs for the benefit of the few, attacking as only he can, the republican onslaught on the reserve powers of the states. Imagine his thrust and his genial sarcasm burning out the truth where all men can see it; the eloquence of his simple clean cut oratory; the wave of understanding and belief in him which will follow his steps."

Mr. Roosevelt told the convention its candidate "must be able to stand up on a clear cut plank against corruption in government," adding that "our governor for over twenty years in public office has withstood the white light of publicity upon whom it has pitilessly beaten and revealed only spotless integrity." "The country cries out in consternation and contempt over the continued dissensions between the executive and the legislative branches of the government during the last four years," Mr. Roosevelt continued. Under the complete lack of leadership in a republican white house and a republican capitol, we have had all of the checks but none of the balances," which, he said the constitution, in theory, provided "Therefore we must give to the country" he said, "a president experienced in administration and capable of restoring team work and good will between the executive and the congress. These qualifications are rare but I submit to you no experiment. This man's record is history; it has brought the highest commendation from the citizens of this state, men and women, republican and democrat, farmer and city dwellers alike.

"His inauguration as president would mark the beginning of a new era of good feeling and practical accomplishment between the president and the congress of the United States." Mr. Roosevelt said if Governor Smith was given an opportunity for wider service he "will make the dry bones rattle in Washington" and "no longer will cynics and pessimists point the finger of scorn at our executive machinery."

The speaker referred against the complete lack of leadership of those now in power and continued: "We need a president, one in whom the masses of the people, the great section of American public opinion will regain their lost faith. We need as president not a man who will satisfy some one section or some one class; the relations of labor and capital, the farmer and city dwellers, the manufacturer and consumer, the rich and poor have become so complex in our national life that problems have arisen acute beyond the acute beyond the dreams of our forefathers, and calling for the steady guiding hand of one whose voice will be heeded by the vast majority of those who make up the 110,000,000 our population.

"Confidence and faith such as this has been won by the governor of this state. The masses of labor look to him as a protector and good friend. The honest business man knows that he has never sought personal preferment by demagogic attack on honest business. The farmers who in this state raise crops valued at hundreds of millions of dollars bear willing testimony to his years of service in their behalf, aiding them to better living conditions and more economic distribution of the produce of the farm.

"With him we can win. This governor of ours is the most dangerous adversary that the republican party ever had to fear and you, in convention here assembled, owe it to the nation to choose a candidate whose name spells victory. He has been elected to office seventeen times. * * * This is an overwhelming demonstration of ability to command the confidence of the great electorate. "Much of the romance of Lincoln is in the life story of our governor. Born of American-born parents, he took upon himself while still a boy the responsibility for the support of his family. A wage earner, toiling with his hands, this man in the space of 20 years, without fortune, without fortuitous aid, with nothing to rely upon except his own indomitable courage, his own unflinching perseverance, his own magnificent ability, has risen to a commanding and outstanding figure in the life of the nation."

Methodists to Conduct Demonstration School for Children

Lake Junaluska, N. C., June 26—A demonstration school of Bible and religious training for children in the beginner, primary, and junior groups to be established at the assembly ground here during the 1924 season, is one of the latest developments of religious education work of the General Sunday School Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, according to Dr. J. W. Shackelford, secretary of the board.

There will be two sessions of the school during the week and one at the regular Sunday School hour on the Sabbath. It was stated, thus insuring the children three hours of religious work and training each week. Literature is now being prepared by the Sunday School board for the week day and Sunday sessions.

Dr. Shackelford explained that this school will be a demonstration school furnishing opportunity for observation and practice for all who are planning to undertake this type of work in various parts of the country. The sessions will be held in the new Religious building, and will be in charge of the ablest and most experienced teachers in the church.

The belief was expressed by Dr. Shackelford and others of the Sunday School Board that this school will fill a long felt need, and that parents who expect to bring their children to Lake Junaluska for the summer will be delighted to take advantage of the opportunity for religious education in their behalf. The school will be run in terms of two weeks, it was explained, beginning July 16. Parents wishing to enroll their children for this work should send in their names and ages to J. Dale Stentz assembly manager, with offices at the lake.

UTAH SCHOOL CHILDREN FED ANTI-GOITRE TABLETS WEEKLY

Salt Lake City.—Chocolate tablets containing ten milligrams of iodine each are to be given Utah school children every week as a means of counteracting goitre, according to an announcement by state health officials. A recent survey showed approximately 41 percent of the school boys and school girls to be afflicted. A deficiency of iodine in the drinking water consumed by the children is the reason for the great number of goitre cases, according to Dr. J. Wallace, state epidemiologist.

Countess Turns Communist.

Copenhagen.—Countess Elsebeth Dannekejoeld-Samsøe, a member of an old Danish noble family, is shocking her set by applying for a job as saleslady. She almost landed such a position in a furniture store, but just before she assumed her duties the proprietor told her she was not wanted after all, as no communist employees were tolerated. The countess has recently turned communist, and is trying to put her theories into practice by earning a living.

SCOTCH DOMESTICS RULE MANY BRITISH HOUSEHOLDS

London.—While London is growing more cosmopolitan socially, it is becoming exclusively Scottish domestically. The demand for Scottish servants in London is far greater than the supply and not only do the domestics of this nationality make higher wages than others, but often demand and are given a bonus. The servants' registry offices and the papers testify to the tremendous demand for Scottish cooks, parlor maids and general houseworkers. The reason is, of course, that the lure of the factory has no charm for the Scotch girl and as a rule she is more cleanly and applies herself more conscientiously to her work than the English servant.
