Young Coolidge's Remains Be Taken To Native State

Sixteen Year Old Son Succumbs to Blood Poison Last Night After a Brave Fight for His Life; Remains Be Interred in Vermont, the Family's Native State

Washington, July 8. — Tentative plans for the funeral of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., are understood today to include simple services at the White House at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and then the body will be taken to North Hampton, Mass., President Coolidge's home, where another service will be held. Burial will take place Thursday at Plymouth, Vermont where the president was born.

Not since Lincoln's time has such a youthful member of a president's family been called by death and never under more tragic circumstances. From the moment that young Calvin died last night, in Walter Reed Army hospital, and all through the morning and afternoon came messages of sympathy to harken the stricken parents in their great sorrow, and callers to leave words of sympathy and pay tribute to the plucky but always losing fight the boy waged against death.

The flag at half mast over the White House and white crepe on the door told of the mourning within. Around the casket in the east room of the White House sailors and marines stood guard and floral tributes in great numbers were banked about.

President Coolidge bore up well under his grief and friends of the family said that no sign of a breakdown had been shown by Mrs. Coolidge. Both, however, were careworn from sleepless nights spent with their son. John Coolidge, with whom Calvin was playing tennis when he suffered the tiny injury which caused death, remained with his mother.

President Coolidge went to the executive offices for a short time early today where many visiting officials came to express their sympathy. A drizzling rain throughout the morning blended with the gloom that pervaded the White House and grounds.

Lieutenant Edgar Allen Poe, of the United States Marines, with the six marines who are guarding the casket will accompany the funeral body to Vermont and the guards will act as pall bearers.

Washington, July 8.—Death once again cast its shadow over the White House by claiming Calvin Coolidge, Jr., 16 years old son of the president, when a courageous struggle of five days in which he stood off the final climax of acute blood poisoning to the utmost, ended last night.

The younger son of the president died in Walter Reed Hospital where he has been making a desperate fight since he was removed there Saturday in order that every resource of medical science might be employed.

Wasted in strength by the ravages and spread of septic poisoning which resulted from an almost unnoticed blister developed on his foot while playing tennis a week ago, he fought a useless battle yesterday. He lost ground steadily yet amazed physicians with the tenacity with which he clung to the slender thread of life and fought under the suffering of complications that attended the spreading treacherous disease.

He collapsed early last night and death occurred at 10:30. Forced at last to abandon the desperate hope they had held, based mainly on the courage and fighting

Casualties here were heavy and replacements were received from all parts of the United States. So many states in the Union are expected to be represented at the reunion, the chairman stated.

LONDON SUFFERS SLUMP IN FURNISHED APARTMENT RENTS

London. — Despite the great inflow of visitors for the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley, furnished houses and flats in London are renting at a slightly lower figure than at the same time last year, according to estate agents.

Flat owners who expected to rent apartments to Wembley visitors at high figures found, to their disappointment, that the newcomers preferred to stay at hotels, and prices dropped shortly after the influx of travelers began.

One estate agent said that the slump in furnished house and flat property was greatly than for some years.

Mrs. Tripp was very popular with a host of friends. She was well known throughout her community and was never happier than when doing some service for some one less fortunate than she. She was a devoted friend and to know her was to love her.

Rev. Joseph Phelps Dies In California

Alameda, Cal., July 8.—Rev. Joseph W. Phelps, 82, Methodist Episcopal clergyman and former district superintendent of that church in North Carolina, is dead at his home here,

Madison Square Garden, July 8.— Six more ballots today — bringing the total to 93—found the Democratic National Convention adjourned for a six-hour recess during which time conferences are planned in the hope of finding a way through the whirlpool.

McAdoo lines continued to disintegrate during the day's balloting, Smith held fast and the much discussed and looked-for booming movement for Ralston actually developed on the floor. Word went out to flop in the votes for Ralston and Intoday's balloting his place had risen to third on the list with a total of 196 1-4 votes. McAdoo's number had been hammered down steadily during the day's balloting to a new low record of 310 votes, the lowest point that McAdoo has touched since the convention began. They recovered a bit, however, in the last ballot of the day and stood at 314 when the convention adjourned. Meanwhile the Smith forces closed with a vote of 853 1-2, within 15 of the highest mark in all the balloting.

McAdoo forces suffered losses between the close of last night's session and the opening today. John W. Davis, West Virginia, closed today well toward his highest mark with 68.

There was talk about the convention hall that Ralston would be given a full chance to develop and if he did not do so the coalition forces would be centered upon somebody else.

The adjournment motion was put by George Brennan, of Illinois, leader for Governor Smith, on the ground that he wanted time for conferences. There was a growl from the convention at the proposal for early adjournment. Bruce Kramer, Montana, floor leader for McAdoo forces, taking the platform seconded the Brennan motion for adjournment and gave notice that in the meantime if nothing had been accomplished by the conferences he would oppose any further adjournment of the convention until a nomination had been made.

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 8. — With McAdoo's strength reaching a new low level and Smith about holding his own the Democratic National Convention today lifted Senator Ralston, of Indiana, to a new point of vantage in the balloting for a presidential nominee.

As the number of roll calls mounted into the ninetieth Ralston rolled up a vote higher than that attained by any other candidate with the exception of the two leaders. To the strength he had developed prior to adjournment last night was added several important blocks of votes including Missouri's 36 which have been going to Glass and Nevada's 6.

Madison Square Garden, New York, July 8.—In a broken field and amid many uncertainties the Democratic National Convention tried once more today to settle upon a nominee for president.

With both McAdoo and Smith de-low the total necessary to exercise a veto the favorite sons' group took renewed hope and kept up their hammering attacks with no very clear results. As delegates left the leaders they scattered their strength so widely that some of their managers feared a new deadlock might result between a new set of candidates.

Temporarily at least Senator Ralston, Indiana, had advanced among the favorite sons and Thomas Taggart, his manager, appeared upon the convention floor when the day's session opened, ready to drive on to what he hoped to be the nomination of his candidate before night. At the same time, however, both Smith and McAdoo managers showed signs of renewed efforts to lift their candidates back above the one-third veto.

Some observers believed there might be a disposition to let the Smith and McAdoo men develop their full strength with the purpose, if neither can be nominated, of opening peace negotiations for agreement on a compromise candidate.

Supporters of Robinson of Arkansas, Davis, of West Virginia, Glass of Virginia, and several others are keeping their men in a conspicuous picture, meantime, in the hope that when the time comes for a compromise they will be able to command their full share of attention.

Virginia

"The Old Dominion"

RICH in the pioneer history of the Union—when her famous sons were building up the prestige of "The Old Dominion" and her "first families" led the aristocracy of the South—Virginia has grown rich in material development and in the actual money produced thereby.

In Agriculture during the past decade, Virginia has made marked progress. In 1922 the State produced 53,312,000 bushels of Corn, valued at $42,116,000—1,220,000 tons of Hay, valued at $19,520,000—22,795,000 bushels of Irish and Sweet Potatoes, valued at $16,183,000—156,750,000 pounds of Tobacco, valued at $37,620,000—10,375,000 bushels of wheat, valued at $12,685,000. Other crops brought the total of Agricultural products in 1922 to $171,551,000.

Fisheries—Virginia has profitable Fisheries of Bass, Shad, etc.; and leads in the Oyster industry, her annual output being about 6,000,000 bushels.

Manufactures—In 1920 there were in Virginia 5,600 manufacturing concerns, turning out products valued at $643,500,000; with 139,000 employees, receiving in salaries $25,900,000 and in wages $120,000,000.

Minerals—Virginia, in 1920, produced 11,378,606 tons of bituminous Coal and 1,027,788 tons of Coke. The State produces more than half of the United States' output of Iron Pyrites; large amounts of Gypsum, Marl, Granite, Marble, Millstone, Emery, Barytes, Mica, Mineral Paints, Salt, Slate, Sulphur, Kaolin, Fire Clay, etc. Iron, Manganese, Zinc and Lead are extensively mined—and some Copper.

Transportation—Virginia is well supplied with rail and water transportation; and the ocean ports, Newport News and Norfolk, are steadily growing in importance.

Don't overlook Virginia in your advertising and selling campaign—it's a rich and inviting field.

CUBAN CONVENTIONS DELAYED BY MIXED POLITICAL SITUATION

Havana, July 8.—Cuba's national political conventions to nominate presidential candidates will be held later than ever this year, for while they usually are over before May 1, indications are that they will not meet until the last of July.

A president, vice-president and half of congress are to be elected November 1.

President Alfred Zayas was elected in 1920 by a combination of the conservative party with his Popular party, and interest today centers largely in whether he will seek re-election and who will be the candidate of the liberal party, normally the strongest one. President Zayas has repeatedly stated that he will seek re-election only if drafted, but if newspapers of various shades of political belief are to be credited, opposition to re-election never was so strong throughout the island.

General Gerardo Machado, lawyer, is shown by the provincial conventions to be the outstanding candidate for the liberal nomination. Half a dozen other liberal leaders, however, are being backed as dark horses, and among the more Carlos Manuel de Espedras, secretary of state; Governor Alberto Barreras of Havana province, and Governor Roberto Mendez Penabaz of Pinar del Rio.

The fight in the liberal party seems to be delaying its national convention and the other parties are waiting on.

Little activity has been shown publicly for any one in the conservative party, whose outstanding leader is former President Mario G. Menocal, the one who was largely instrumental in making Zayas president. Friends of general Menocal have mentioned his name from time to time, but thus far no real campaign has been waged in his behalf. Santiago Verdeja, representative in congress from Matanzas, as had some backing for the conservative nomination, and has announced that he was receptive, but general Menocal has not made his position plain.

The Popular party leaders have announced that Zayas is the only man their party will consider as its candidate, and are known to be working for reconstruction of the "Liga Nacional" as the conservative-Popular combination of 1920 was called.

GRIFTON NEWS

A great spiritual awakening seems to be coming to our little town and community, owing in part to the stirring energy of the Methodist minister, Rev. R. J. Lough, but mainly from the noble work being done by the Greenville Federation, composed of young men from that city, who were either converted during the recent Ham-Ramsay meeting or were reclaimed. They have had two splendid meetings on the streets of Grifton, the one on last Friday night called together at least three hundred people, and after the prayer and testimony meeting, at least six or eight reconsecrated themselves to Christ, and one young man confessed saving faith in Him. Sunday afternoon witnessed another delightful meeting, led by Mr. J. B. Strell. Many expressed themselves intending to lead a new life. Sunday night, after the sermon by the local pastor, Mr. Clark made a strong appeal, and at least a score of people came to the altar, and in that way expressed their desire for a closer walk with God. Demonstrations on every hand proves that much good is being done. One of the evidences is that very little liquor was in evidence on our streets Saturday, only one offender appearing before the mayor this morning (Monday). He was summarily dealt with and timely warning given by the mayor, against a repetition of the offense. Another noticeable occurrence was the closing of many of the local business places in Grifton to attend the services at Methodist church, J. R. Harty & Co., making the lead, followed by W. H. Jackson and others, and all this being done voluntarily.

The meeting at the Methodist church still continues. God is with us. We are expecting another delegation from Greenville tonight. We are looking for great things at that meeting.

We must not fail to mention the good that is being done by the noble women of Grifton. They are holding daily prayer meetings at the various homes in the town, large numbers being in attendance. Best of all, resolutions have been passed that these services will continue after the meeting closes. We appreciate the hearty co-operation of the sister churches of the town. We also hope that with the next few days a Federation will be organized in Grifton. We need it.

BULGARIANS TO STUDY WILSON'S 14 POINTS

Sofia, July 8.—A chair for the study and explanation of the late ex-President Wilson's 14 points will be established this fall by the Free University of Sofia. Special attention will be given to the eleventh point, which deals with the freedom of minorities and self-determination. These lectures are to be delivered at the special request of Dimitr Ikonomoff, who has given 500,000 levass to the Academy of Science to endow the chair.

FASHIONABLE LONDON MANSIONS WILL BE MADE INTO APARTMENTS

London, July 8.—The present house shortage and the many large empty houses in certain parts of London have at last moved owners of such dwellings to permit a conversion scheme on a large scale.

Many large mansions south of Hyde Park and in fashionable Mayfair, Eaton Square and Grosvenor Square will be changed into small apartments, while retaining their present appearance. One of the chief reasons big houses are being given up is the shortage of servants.

Mail Record Claimed for Stinnes.

Berlin.—The claim has been made by German newspapers that the late Hugo Stinnes received more mail on a daily average than any other individual in the world. Figures were not given.

Italian newspapers, however, contend that the Pope receives more letters and newspapers than any person in Europe, it being estimated that his daily mail averages something like 27,000 pieces.

TELL 'EM & SELL 'EM

FLAPPER OF 14 SLAYS BROTHER.

ANNA BOBAR

John Bobar, a 15-year-old Yonkers, N. Y., boy, was deeply religious. He stripped life of fun. When his daily task ended he sat down with his Bible to find that salvation held up to him by the priest of the little Russian Orthodox Church he attended. His sister Anna is only 14. When the boy saw her in cheap silk dresses, with silk stockings and with her lips deeply crimsoned, he thought it the brand of damnation. She even spent 45 cents for a magazine that displayed on its cover a bare-necked girl. He tore it from her as "an instrument of the devil." The poor Russian mother could not patch up the quarrel. The girl was cutting a loaf of bread when the brother repeated she was "bad" and that some day he would have to kill her. She thrust the bread knife through his heart.

Saskatoon, Sask., July 8.—Blackfoot Indians in Canada will have the first Bible ever written in their language, in fact the first book of any kind, when Canon H. W. G. Stocken, for many years a missionary to the tribe in the Canadian prairies, completes the work at his home in Victoria, B. C.

Light Walls Save Gas Bills

Dresden, Germany, July 8.—The sombre hued wallpapers so prevalent in Germany are giving way to lighter shades. The change is not due to artistic reasons, however, but to the education of the public to the fact that light toned walls save gas and electric bills.

Selling Blood Proves Profitable

Vancouver, B. C., July 8.—Transfusion of blood by young men here at "$25 a half pint" has proved profitable according to employment officials, who say there has been a demand for such services. Hospitals require healthy men for the purpose. Advertising has brought plenty of applicants usually.

"—AND SOME IN VELVET GOWNS"

AS the old nursery rhyme hath it, there are always "some in velvet gowns," because there is a soft aristocratic richness about velvet which no other fabric has. But there are some seasons when this fabric is more triumphant than others. So it has been this year, and already a magnificent velvet season is predicted by fashion authorities for the fall. Printed velvets, cut velvets, in Chinese designs and colors will be worn, according to Henri Creange, authority on textile fashions, in gorgeous gowns, wraps, and for rich lining effects.

The cape pictured, then, of soft coral colored Cheney velvet is very much in the mode now and for the fall too. It is simple in line, and like all capes, quite possible of achievement at home. The cape proper is gathered into a shaped shoulder yoke which is held by a cut steel buckle, whose glitter is reflected in two wide bands of silver lame trimming the inside of the cape which is lined with the same coral velvet. The slender strap slippers are silver too.

The collar is of grebe dyed in coral color. It is very fashionable to dye the fur to match the garment with which it is worn.

The cape, as you will see, has quite a new note in that it does not meet in front, or wrap over, but remains open, showing part of the dress.

CALVIN COOLIDGE, JR.

Last night as the president and Mrs. Coolidge stood silently by witnessing the last great fight of their son, the death angel crept in and bore the soul of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., away leaving only that which was mortal of him.

In such an hour the sympathy of thousands, especially those mothers and fathers who have passed through like experiences, goes out to the parents of the lad, who only a few days ago, full of youth and vitality, enjoyed the outdoor sports with his comrades.

Upon announcement of the youth's death the Democratic National Convention in session in New York forgot for a while its struggle with politics ad adjourned until today out of respect for the bereaved family.

Struck down like a flower on the eve of maturity, the passing of the youthful member of the White House family, leaves a vacant chair in the White House and sorrow in the hearts of his countrymen whose sympathy is with the parents who today face that vacant chair.

IDEAS OF A GOOD TIME

"It takes all kinds of people to make the world," so perhaps we would do well to cease being peeved because a very small fraction of the population wants to regulate the conduct of the whole people. The "blue" ones no doubt are necessary to complete the enjoyment of those who are some other color, or a combination of all the colors. At any rate, the world would be a trifle off "true" if they did not exist. In order that there be the greatest amount of satisfaction for the greatest number of human beings all must reasonably respect the predilections of their fellows, however opposed they are to one's own preferences, so long as indulgence does not interfere with the equal rights of others to enjoy what they choose in their own way.

Judging from the conspicuous manifestations of popular choice in amusements or recreations, it appears that the people run much to fads. When dancing has the call everybody dances, or seems to. At another time one might be excused for concluding that cards claimed the time of all people in their moments of leisure. Again the fad is for something else. Actually, though, there is a great diversity of preference in the matter of having a good time. That is what saves the world from being unbearably dull. If you don't believe there are as many fads as there are kinds of people, look around you and inquire. A Chicago reporter did this the other day. He asked five different persons he met in the street "what is your idea of a good time?" He got five different answers. A "home girl" doted on camping; a student longed for mental treats, especially grand opera; a railroad switchman wanted nothing so much as to go into the country in an auto with a pretty girl and fish and loaf; another student would like to have a congenial job and also leisure for healthful outdoor sports, while a salesman declared his idea of a good time was to sit down and drink half a dozen steins of good beer.

Further information is lacking. It is pretty safe to conclude, though, that the desires of these people were centered on things they are least able to have. It is a way with people. Except for the last of them, all can eventually realize their dreams if they work for them and the last need not be disappointed if he manages to journey far enough. There is one moral. Another is that human desires are as a rule not so reprehensible that it is worth while bothering about restrictions, since nature takes care to supply them more than abundantly.

IT'S UP TO YOU

You may be a big man in the business world. Your properties may represent many round, hard dollars. You may take an interest in politics to the extent of complaining about taxation, too much legislation, useless regulation of industry, etc. You may send your boy to college and your daughter to a finishing school. You may be a "successful" American business man.

But do you take an interest in the government, which protects your property? Or are you merely one of the kickers who complain about the "radicals?" Do you go to the polls and vote for men and measures you believe sound or do you instead, go out and play golf on election day and let the fellow about whom you complain do all the voting?

Don't kick unless you are willing to do your duty as a citizen at the polls.

No matter how "big" you are your vote is worth no more than the poorest bum in town.

The "bigger" you are, the more necessary it is for you to vote, teach your children to vote and your wife to vote.

Don't leave anybody else to do your voting for you and then kick at results.

"Your" government will be just as good as you help make it, and no better.

People who read sub-titles aloud may be trying to demonstrate that they are not as ignorant as they look.

Number one on the list of hazardous occupations for the summer is that of trying to kiss a girl in a canoe.

"The average woman has a vocabulary of only 800 words." It is a small stock but think of the turnover.

It is rather surprising that nations do not trust one another, but it would be more surprising if they should.

We learn as the years pass. Air has always been free, but we couldn't appreciate it until tires were invented.

MOTOR HORNS ON CARRIAGES LIVE STREETS OF BELGRADE

Belgrade.—On all two-horse open carriages which here take the place of taxicabs, automobile horns have replaced the shrill yell of the driver as he tears through the streets, and all because of a young American.

He came here to take over an automobile agency and found an overstock of horns. Sometime later, curiously enough, the city authorities passed an ordinance compelling horse vehicles to be equipped with these signals. The American is happy and so is the populace, because the constant shriek of the horns gives the city an appearance, or rather sound, of bustling modernity.

American Opera in Germany

Frankfort, Germany.—Arrangements for the presentation of "Lakme," music by Simon Bucharoff, and text by Isabel Buckingham, both of Chicago, have been completed here. This is the first opera composed in America to be put on in Germany in nearly eleven years.

Bucharoff, who arrived here recently to complete preparations with a German troupe for putting on his piece, is composer of "A Lover's Knot" produced by the Chicago Opera Company in 1915.

 R. D. Whitehurst, W. H. Woodard and M. O. Blount and others, vs.
 J. J. Carson and others.
 To the Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County:

The Board of Drainage Commissioners of Pitt County Drainage District No. Two respectfully shows unto the court:
 (1) That on February 28, 1920, the engineer and board of viewers filed their final report in this proceeding (S. P. 2101); that by some inadvertence or mistake, the final report filed failed to specifically refer to a spring or branch which was to be constructed so as to drain the area Northwest of the Taylor Road and to avoid cutting the canal across the ridges or islands known as Long Buck, Rum, Rattlesnake and other islands.

(2) That the engineer and board of viewers intended to include the said spring or prong as a part of the drainage scheme; that the same is included and shown on the profiles prepared by the engineer of the district, and perhaps inferentially made a part of their final report, but the same is not specifically referred to in the report signed by the engineer and board of viewers.

(3) That the construction of said branch, canal or prong or spur is necessary to adequately drain the territory intended to be drained, and unless the said prong or spur is constructed there will be a large body of land which was intended to be drained and which is classified on the assumption that this spur is to be constructed, which will receive no benefit whatsoever.

(4) That the Board of Commissioners of the district have fully investigated the matter, that they have caused the superintendent of construction, Mr. H. L. Rivers, who was one of the engineers who designed the system of drainage, to make a further investigation and report to them, and that after such investigation and upon the report made by Mr. Rivers, they have adopted a resolution, copy of which is hereto attached and asked to be taken as a part hereof.

Wherefore, the commissioners pray that an order be made correcting the final report of the engineer and board of viewers and authorizing the Board of Commissioners to proceed to construct said prong or spur in accordance with the intention of the Board of Viewers, and as is necessary to adequately carry out the drainage scheme or system.

The foregoing petition having been filed with this court, notice is hereby given that the court will in the court house on Wednesday, July 9th at 10:00 o'clock a. m. hear such interested parties who desire to be heard in opposition to the order demanded in the foregoing petition. It is ordered that said petition and this notice be published in some newspaper published in Pitt County once a week for three weeks prior to date of hearings.

FEDERATION NEWS

All have sinned, and are under condemnation, waiting for execution of sentence. God is love, and unwilling that any should perish, in fullness of time sent his son (the only way). Who became man, died, and rose, again, redeeming, and delivering once for all: so that whosoever, even the vilest, by coming now, without works, believing God's Word and accepting his free grace, hath everlasting life: will be nourished, fed, fed upon the word delivered in hour of temptation, kept by God's Power and finally glorified.

The great work of the Layman's Christian Federation is going on now as never before. Evidence of this work is seen more and more from day to day and it is only a question of time when the whole of Pitt county will be taken for Jesus Christ.

Practically the entire membership of the eight groups went out in various sections of Pitt County Sunday afternoon and conducted prayer services. Groups three and four went to Arthur and report great success there. About forty were converted and everyone stated they would affiliate with some church immediately and join in the work that is going on. A large delegation from Arthur attended the Business Men's Prayer meeting Monday morning, and several testified for Christ and spoke a word of appreciation to the men who have been conducting the meetings there.

Groups five and eight went to Grifton and conducted services with about four hundred present. While the attendance was very large the interest was very limited, which is sufficient evidence that a great work can be done in that section. These men go out for the purpose of trying to win souls for Christ. The Holy Spirit is working through them and with Jesus as their helper there is no limit to their efforts to save every lost soul, at the same time receive the interest in church members who have been inactive for a long time.

The revival at Pollard's closed Sunday afternoon after ten days of great work for the Lord. A larger number were converted, and as a whole this is one of the most successful meetings conducted in Pitt county. That community has received a great blessing and through the untiring efforts of W. C. Dressbach, who has been conducting Sunday school here for the past two years, this great work will continue. His heart and soul is set upon winning every sinner in that section for Christ and with Jesus as his helper he will do it.

Other groups visited other sections and each of them report successful meetings. Very little interest is shown at the first meeting in some sections, but this does not discourage these men. They are working for Christ and they know he has directing them in everything they do and with Christ as their help they are bound to win wherever they go.

The business men in Greenville who are not attending the morning prayer meetings and supporting the Federation are doing themselves a great injustice. Men if you will attend these meetings two or three times and see the interest and enthusiasm demonstrated for the work of our Saviour your heart cannot help but be touched and you will want a part in this work. We are happy to make a little sacrifice to help some poor sinner. You will be happy if you will join with us.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS

I am again calling to your attention the fact that the annual clean-up week for the town is long past and upon inspection I find that some of the property owners have neglected to comply with the two requests of the Mayor, and as I believe this is due more to procrastination and wet weather, than to direct disobedience of the orders of the Mayor, I am extending the time for the cutting of weeds, both on your premises and side walk, to Saturday, July 12th after which date I will be compelled to take action by applying to the Mayor for warrants, which may be embarrassing to you. I will apply both to the property on which you reside and any other property you may own in the Town of Greenville.

DAILY COTTON LETTER.

New Orleans, July 8.—American markets opened 10 to 25 points higher owing to strength in Liverpool which market opened 3 to 7 higher than due and ruled strong on reports of excessive rains in the Atlantic coast sections of the cotton region. South Carolina and Georgia report excessive rains past twenty-four hours causing much damage, while reports from the eastern section of North Carolina complain of grassy cotton and inability to cultivate owing to too much moisture.

Bombay cables: Better feeling in piece goods market owing favorable progress of monsoon. Beneficial rains practically all cotton districts and India crop prospects much improved.

Temperatures continue normal except for reasonable minima on coast. Minima were generally 60 to 68 degrees in interior.

New Orleans advises that Steamship Nordkyn clears for Murmansk, Russia with 19,000 bales cotton, thus reducing American stock. It is likely other steamers will clear shortly with Russian cotton.

The market shows that it is over-sold, strength Liverpool on pressure of demand for goods from all over the world, the larger loss in the visible supply and certain defects in the weather situation if not soon corrected, could become a prominent market factor.

Hester's figures are considered bullish: World's visible 2,551,784 against 2,286,716 last year and 4,144,850 the year before, of which American 1,138,784 against 1,000,441 last year and 2,348,850 the year before. The American decrease was 71,000 against a decrease of 46,000 last year.

We favor a trading position on the market at the moment; selling on the bulges and using caution on the bull side, pending crop developments.

Liverpool Spot Cotton.

Middling 1602, good middling 1717. Receipts 7000 of which 300 were American. Sales 5000 of which 3200 were American. The market closed steady. Dec. 1393, Jan. 1385, March 1375, July 1622, Oct. 1427.

The Weather.

Temperature more favorable warm over belt, light to moderate rainfall reported scattered eastern belt, middle Tennessee and Oklahoma. Forecast Tuesday entire belt mostly part cloudy, except Louisiana, east Texas, Arkansas, generally fair.

TOBACCO CROPS DAMAGED BY RAINS

Crops Will Probably be Housed Two Weeks Earlier Than First Expected

Reports coming in from various sections of the county state that the hot sun following the past ten days of rain is doing considerable damage to the tobacco crop which will result in a shortage estimated at between 40 and 50 per cent.

Though some of the crop appears to be holding its own much of the weed has dropped as result of scalding while in some parts the plants seem to have been completely drowned out by the excessive rains.

The farmers are making every effort to save what of the crop they can and it is expected that it will be housed at least two weeks earlier than would have been the case had it not been for the rainy season.

Author Sees Brain Children Come Life

Homer Croy, author of "West of the Water Tower," the novel of small town life which rivals "Main Street" as one of the most popular books of its kind, visited the Paramount Long Island studio recently and watched the process of putting his story into screen form. After witnessing Rolin Sturgeon film several scenes for the picture and after talking with Glenn Hunter, who is starred in the picture, May McAvoy, Ernest Torrence, George Fawcett and Zasu Pitts, the featured players, he expressed himself as being highly pleased with the production so far as it had gone.

"One gets a curious thrill in watching characters he has created in his mind come to life," said Mr. Croy. "Hunter and Torrence come as near being ideal for the parts of Guy and Plummer as I could possibly wish for. If I had picked the cast for this picture myself I could have done no better. I could stand around and watch them work all day long. Their actions draw me like a magnet. I have never experienced anything like it in all my life."

like it in all my life.

"When I wrote the story I had no idea that it would ever be made into a motion picture. I told Mr. Larky that when he sent for me in regard to selling the motion picture rights, but he said that was what he liked about the story."

Mr. Croy inspected the main street of Junction City which was built on the back lot of the studio and was amazed at the detail of the work. When he saw the sign "Herman Wolf" over the drug store, he said: "You know, I never did know what Wolf's first name was before, but Herman is as good as any. This is a marvelous street. I didn't know you went to such care to build sets like this. It could not look more like a small town street."

Brimming over with enthusiasm for the treatment Director Sturgeon gave his story, Croy left the studio, and was a frequent visitor until the picture was finished. "West of the Water Tower" will be on view at White's theatre today.

Summer Hints for Young Mothers

THE CHILD WHO WON'T PLAY
Healthy children love to romp in summer from early morn until the last call, and if a youngster mopes about the house and looks yellowish, you may know it isn't well. Think over the little one's diet. It should be watched more carefully in summer. Too much heavy or raw food causes biliousness and indigestion. Usually a thorough cleansing with Liv-o-Lax and a little better sense about the food will straighten out the child quickly. Liv-o-lax is a vegetable laxative that works on the liver, too. Liv-o-lax is easy to take. Children like it. You can get a good sized bottle at the drug store for 30c.
