McLEARY'S AUTO FOUND NEAR CANTON

Missing Officer Thought To Have Been Murdered

Car of Major McLeary Containing Personal Effects and Bloodstained Cap Found Late Yesterday Abandoned on Mountain Road Near Canton. Posses Searching Section for Body.

Asheville, July 14.—After searching the woods near Oak Grove two miles northwest of Canton since this morning the parties organized to look for the body of Major Samuel H. McLeary, U. S. Army officer who is believed to have been slain while enroute from Norfolk, Va., to Charleston, S. C., returned early this afternoon empty handed. Another search will be made this afternoon. No additional clues regarding the army officer who has been missing since July 2 when he was seen in Raleigh, were found this morning through some corroborating data was collected concerning the course of Major McLeary, whose auto was found abandoned on the Thicket road on the morning of July 4. Men working on the Thicket road said they saw the touring car with two men on the front seat and the rear seat curtained, pass them on July 4. The car turned into the road leading to the summit of Crabtree mountain. Going on this road is very difficult and the car turned around when about half way up and started back. Near the foot of the mountain it stopped at the home of Mrs. Luther Hall, who supplied water for the radiator. This was between four and five o'clock. The next morning the car was found abandoned a few rods below this point.

Two suitcases and a brief case were found yesterday in a thicket about 100 yards from the spot where the car was abandoned. They contained clothing, letters and army orders identifying them as the property of Major McLeary, and an officers' cap was found nearby spotted with what was believed to be blood stains. The search, though unsuccessful this morning will be continued for several days.

Asheville, July 14.—An intensive search of this section began today for the body of Major Samuel H. McLeary, who disappeared from Raleigh July 2 and has not been heard of or from since that date. An auto was found near Canton yesterday containing personal effects and baggage as well as a bloodstained army officers' cap. Until the finding of the cap officials entertained hope that Major McLeary may have suffered a mental breakdown and temporarily lost his mind but today that theory had been abandoned and in its place there is definite belief that the officer has been slain.

Searching parties organized under Major S. M. Williams, army inspector assigned to the North Carolina National Guards, left here early today to search the mountains and streams in the Canton neighborhood for traces of the missing officer.

According to reports the Major's auto entered the Canton section on July 3 and was abandoned later that day. A farmer who reported the incident stated that the machine contained three passengers. Another report was to the effect that when the machine came down the mountain, near where it was found, later the same day that it contained only two passengers.

Major McLeary's disappearance from Raleigh was after wiring for a sum of money to be forwarded to him at Columbia, South Carolina. His failure to claim the money led to discovery of his disappearance. The officer was enroute from Norfolk, Va., to Fort Moultrie, South Carolina.

Winston-Salem, July 14.—That service.

Major Samuel L. McLeary, of the United States Army, was in Winston-Salem at 12 o'clock Sunday night is the information claimed to have been secured today by R. E. Edwards, of Galveston, Texas, who is in the city searching for clues as to the whereabouts of the missing officer. Edwards also has information, he said, which he considers authentic, that Major McLeary stopped at a gasoline filling station between Greensboro and Winston-Salem Saturday afternoon and purchased a gallon of gasoline and also inquired the distance to the twin city.

Splendid Services Conducted in City Last Friday Evening

One of the most interesting and largely attended prayer services of the Men's Federation, was conducted Friday evening in the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church. With an estimated audience of nine hundred, short talks by members of the Federation, song services under the direction of John Clarke, and with R. C. Flanagan, leader, the services proved without doubt one of the greatest religious gatherings of the past several weeks.

The outstanding feature was a quartette sung by Messrs. C. B. Rowlette, John Clarke, W. W. Lee and Pat FoFley. They were called upon without notice and in keeping with the spirit of the Federation they responded. This was an enjoyable event.

The members of the Federation met at the Pythian club and after singing several songs they went to the church. It was an inspirational sight to see such a large delegation of men attend services. They all testified in a silent manner to their faith in the saving power of Jesus Christ.

After opening the services Mr. Flanagan gave everyone desiring to do so an opportunity to testify. Several responded.

The Men's Federation is interested in the saving of souls in this county and it is leaving nothing undone in spreading the gospel throughout the entire community.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend each and every service.

DO YOU LIKE SURPRISES? IF SO ATTEND PRAYER SERVICE THIS EVENING

The men's Federation extends a most cordial invitation to everybody especially the women and girls to be present at "Ladies Night" prayer service on the Court House square this evening at 8 o'clock. The leader has been selected and "he" perhaps "she" will make the service most interesting and helpful. The leader has never conducted prayer service before and a real surprise is in store for all who attend.

These evening services which are being held out doors have been largely attended. They have proven that Greenville has talent and strong men who have in the past been using their wonderful talents in service for the devil, have forsaken the broad way and are using those same talents for the glory of God.

Don't fail to attend the service this evening. If you fail to do so you will regret it. Remember the hour 8 o'clock on the Court House Square.

This is your Prayer Service and everybody is invited.

Firemen Holding Annual Convention In High Point

High Point, July 14.—Hundreds of firemen from throughout North Carolina are gathered here for the annual convention and field meet of the State Firemen's Association. Today was consumed with the details of registration of both delegations and entries of competitive events. The meet proper starts tomorrow with a parade and the assembled convention. It will continue through Thursday. Leaders in the fire prevention work of the state will be the speakers.

The address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor J. W. Hedrick, and the response will be by Chief John Lewis of Statesville. The principal address will be by Insurance Commissioner Stacey Wade.

Prizes valued at more than $1,600 will be awarded to the winners of the competitive drills in fire fighting. Much interest is being shown in these drills and the fire departments of the various cities of the state have been training for the events for some months. Every unit in the competition has declared to capture the state honors from Statesville, which brigade has held that honor for four consecutive years.

Many entertainments have been arranged by the city of High Point for its guests, in an effort to make this the greatest meet that the Association has ever held. Among these are a barbecue on Wednesday afternoon, theatre parties, musical entertainments, luncheons and a reception.

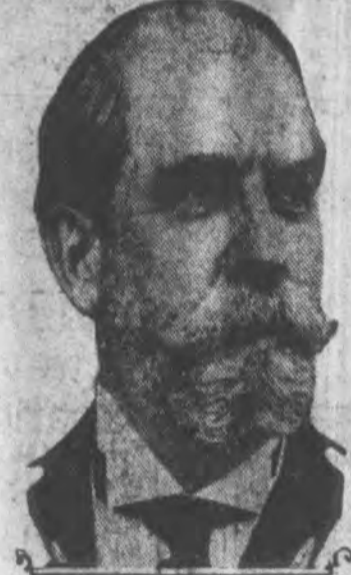

One of the feature entertainments which will also be a competitive event, will be the horse shoe tossing contest. Some of the best horse shoe tossers in the state; it was said, will participate in this event and the delegates as well as the citizens of this city are looking forward to this part of the program with much interest.

Declares Unification Plan Realization Methodists Dreams

Lake Junaluska, July 14.—The unification plan of Methodism recently adopted by the general conference extraordinary of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is not a fad or a menace, but the realization of the dreams and prayers of Methodist people everywhere. This is the way Dr. S. H. Burgin, of San Antonio, a visitor at Lake Junaluska expresses his opinion of the proposed union of the northern and southern branches of Methodism.

Dr. Burgin was for six years pastor of the First Methodist Church of Dallas, which pastorate he left to become head of the Board of Church Extension of the Southern Conference. He resigned this office after four years of service to return to the pulpit. He is now chairman of the general conference committee.

Mrs. Archibald B. Gwathmey, whose multi-millionaire husband, the New York and Texas cotton king, recently secured a divorce in Texas entered suit against him in New York, declaring the Texas divorce null and naming Mrs. Betsy Judd as co-respondent. The New York court denied her plea, finding that Mr. Gwathmey's come and go for Mrs. Judd were purely platonic. Now it is revealed that Gwathmey and Mrs. Judd were secretly married on July 4.

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS INDICTMENT OF SINCLAIR

Washington, July 14.—Six of the ten counts in the indictment of Harry F. Sinclair for contempt of the United States Senate were sustained today by Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

Justice Hoehling ruled out the question asking for explanation of stock contributions to Will H. Hayes or someone representing the Republican National Committee, and the transfer of funds from a New York to a Washington bank, as not pertinent. He also made the same decision on the final count which charged Sinclair with refusal to answer any questions.

Mrs. Porter, accompanied by her six children was going to Seven Springs to bring Mr. Porter home. About three miles from this city she slowed up to do something for one of the children and lost control of the car. Just as soon as she could possibly do so she stopped and upon investigation found Mildred's arm broken and the other children slightly bruised. She returned home and the little ones were given medical attention.

The car was slightly damaged, the windshield being broken and the top torn.

Miss Manning, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Manning, of this city, was one of Greenville's most beloved young women. She possessed a lovely disposition and was always bright and cheerful. Even after knowing that life was only a matter of days she awaited patiently for the end.

She was a loyal member of the Free Will Baptist Church and prior to her illness taught a class of young boys. Some of these acted as her pall bearers.

Her faith in God was beautiful and her entire life was spent in helping make some one happy. The deceased is survived by her parents, three sisters and one brother.

The services were attended by a large crowd of sorrowing friends, and the floral tribute was large and beautiful.

Auxiliary American Legion Holds An Interesting Meeting

The Auxiliary of the Pitt County Post of the American Legion met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. G. Joyner, with Mrs. W. H. Rogers, Mrs. L. H. Bowling and Mrs. Joyner, hostesses.

Several matters of vital importance were discussed. It was decided that a Parrot would be sent to the boys in the Auxiliary ward at Oteen. Each month something is sent to help keep the boys cheerful.

Mrs. W. H. Rogers was elected as a delegate to the State Convention in Asheville in August. A nominating committee was appointed to have the nominees for next year ready by the October meeting. This meeting will be held in Bethel at the home of Mrs. Cecil Garrington. Every member is requested to make this a banner meeting of the year, as it will be the last meeting of the year.

NOTIFICATION OF J. W. DAVIS TO TAKE PLACE CLARKSBURG

Definite Announcement As To Arrangements for Ceremony Expected in a Few Days.

New York, July 14.—The ceremony officially notifying John W. Davis, of his nomination for president by the Democratic Party will take place in Clarksburg, West Va., it was learned today. Formal announcement of arrangements for the event, which will probably take place within the next two weeks, is expected within the next few days.

Mr. Davis will deliver his address of acceptance, which signals the opening of the Democratic campaign, at the house where he lived as a boy and in the town which has been the residence of his family for a century. The house is now occupied by the sister of the nominee.

Mr. Davis said he was anxious to get these preliminaries out of the way as soon as possible as the prolongation of the convention has already somewhat delayed the Democratic appeal to the country for control of the government.

British Airmen Have Begun Their Flight Across Pacific Ocean

London, July 14.—A Stuart McLaren and his two companions, on their way around the world by air, arrived here today from Minato on the main island of Japan.

Mr. G. B. Smith of Raleigh returned home Sunday after spending some time with relatives in and near Greenville.

POLICE COURT

L. C. Arthur, white, charged with allowing mule to run at large, paid the cost.

D. M. Kornegay, white, charged with blocking traffic, paid the cost. Jno. Pjcker, col., charged with blocking traffic, paid the cost.

Jack Smith, white, charged with speeding, fined $10.00 and the cost. Georgia Smith, col., charged with disorderly conduct, $10.00 and cost.

A. L. Garris, white, charged with speeding, fined $10.00 and the cost. The Mayor stated that he has instructed the police to arrest and bring into court all persons found after Tuesday, July 15, who are operating automobiles without state license thereon. The extension of time given by the State which is 15 days, will have expired by then. As there is a State office in Greenville where license can be obtained, which is well supplied, there is not any excuse for any person operating an automobile in this section without proper license. The State authorities ask that this law be enforced after the 15th, and this notice is fair warning, that any person brought into the court by the police for not having complied with the law, will be required to immediately purchase license before further operating their automobiles, and also pay the cost of the court.

Attention is further called to the fact that people have not yet purchased Town license and placed same on their cars. Although no extension has been given on this, there are a good many who have taken the liberty of operating without town license during the past 15 days. There is no excuse for this as the Town has had plenty of license plates on hand since June 30, which sell for $1.00 each. The Mayor instructed the police to also bring these violators into court, and that in addition to the $1.00 for license, they will be required to pay the cost of the court.

Take heed and get your license, both state and town today and have them displayed Wednesday morning, July 16th.

"Gateway to the South"

THE FIRST border state south of the Mason and Dixon line, Kentucky has aptly been termed "The Gateway to The South"; and, as such, it demands careful consideration in any advertising and selling campaign directed to The South—the fastest-growing and most inviting section of the Union.

"The Blue Grass State", world-famous for its thoroughbreds—first in horses and later in live stock of all kinds—has developed in keeping with the forward march of Progress, signalized by its Southern trend.

Kentucky's Varied Resources

Diversified, scientific farming has made Kentucky a great Agricultural State; having produced in 1922, over 88,000,000 bushels of corn, valued at $60,761,000—1,471,000 tons of Hay, valued at $21,330,000—4,282,000 bushels of Oats, valued at $2,398,000—6,740,000 bushels of Irish and Sweet potatoes, valued at $6,942,000—3,984,000 gallons of Sorghum Syrup, valued at $3,187,000—7,475,000 bushels of Wheat, valued at $8,820,000; and other products, bringing in a total of $219,333,000 for Agricultural products.

Up-to-date methods have put Kentucky prominently "on the map" for Live Stock breeding and shipping. The out-put of Kentucky's 639 Coal Mines has put it in the forefront as a Coal State. Kentucky's crops of Burley Tobacco and distinctive-type Dark Tobacco, in 1922, amounted to 446,250,000 lbs., valued at over $87,000,000.

Kentucky's cities, towns and villages have kept pace with the growth of their sustaining rural surroundings; and Manufacturing has grown correspondingly. Its chief manufactures are Flour and Grist mill products, Lumber products, Tobacco products, the smelting and working of Iron; and such Wood products as railroad ties, spokes, handles, staves and headings.

"United We Stand; Divided We Fall"

Kentucky is living up to its state motto—first at home, then extending its active and friendly co-operation to all its neighbors, particularly toward the South.

Of Kentucky's two and a half million population, only 1.3% are foreign-born. Its people are prosperous and happy—have money to spend and know how to spend it—want the best of everything and go after and get it.

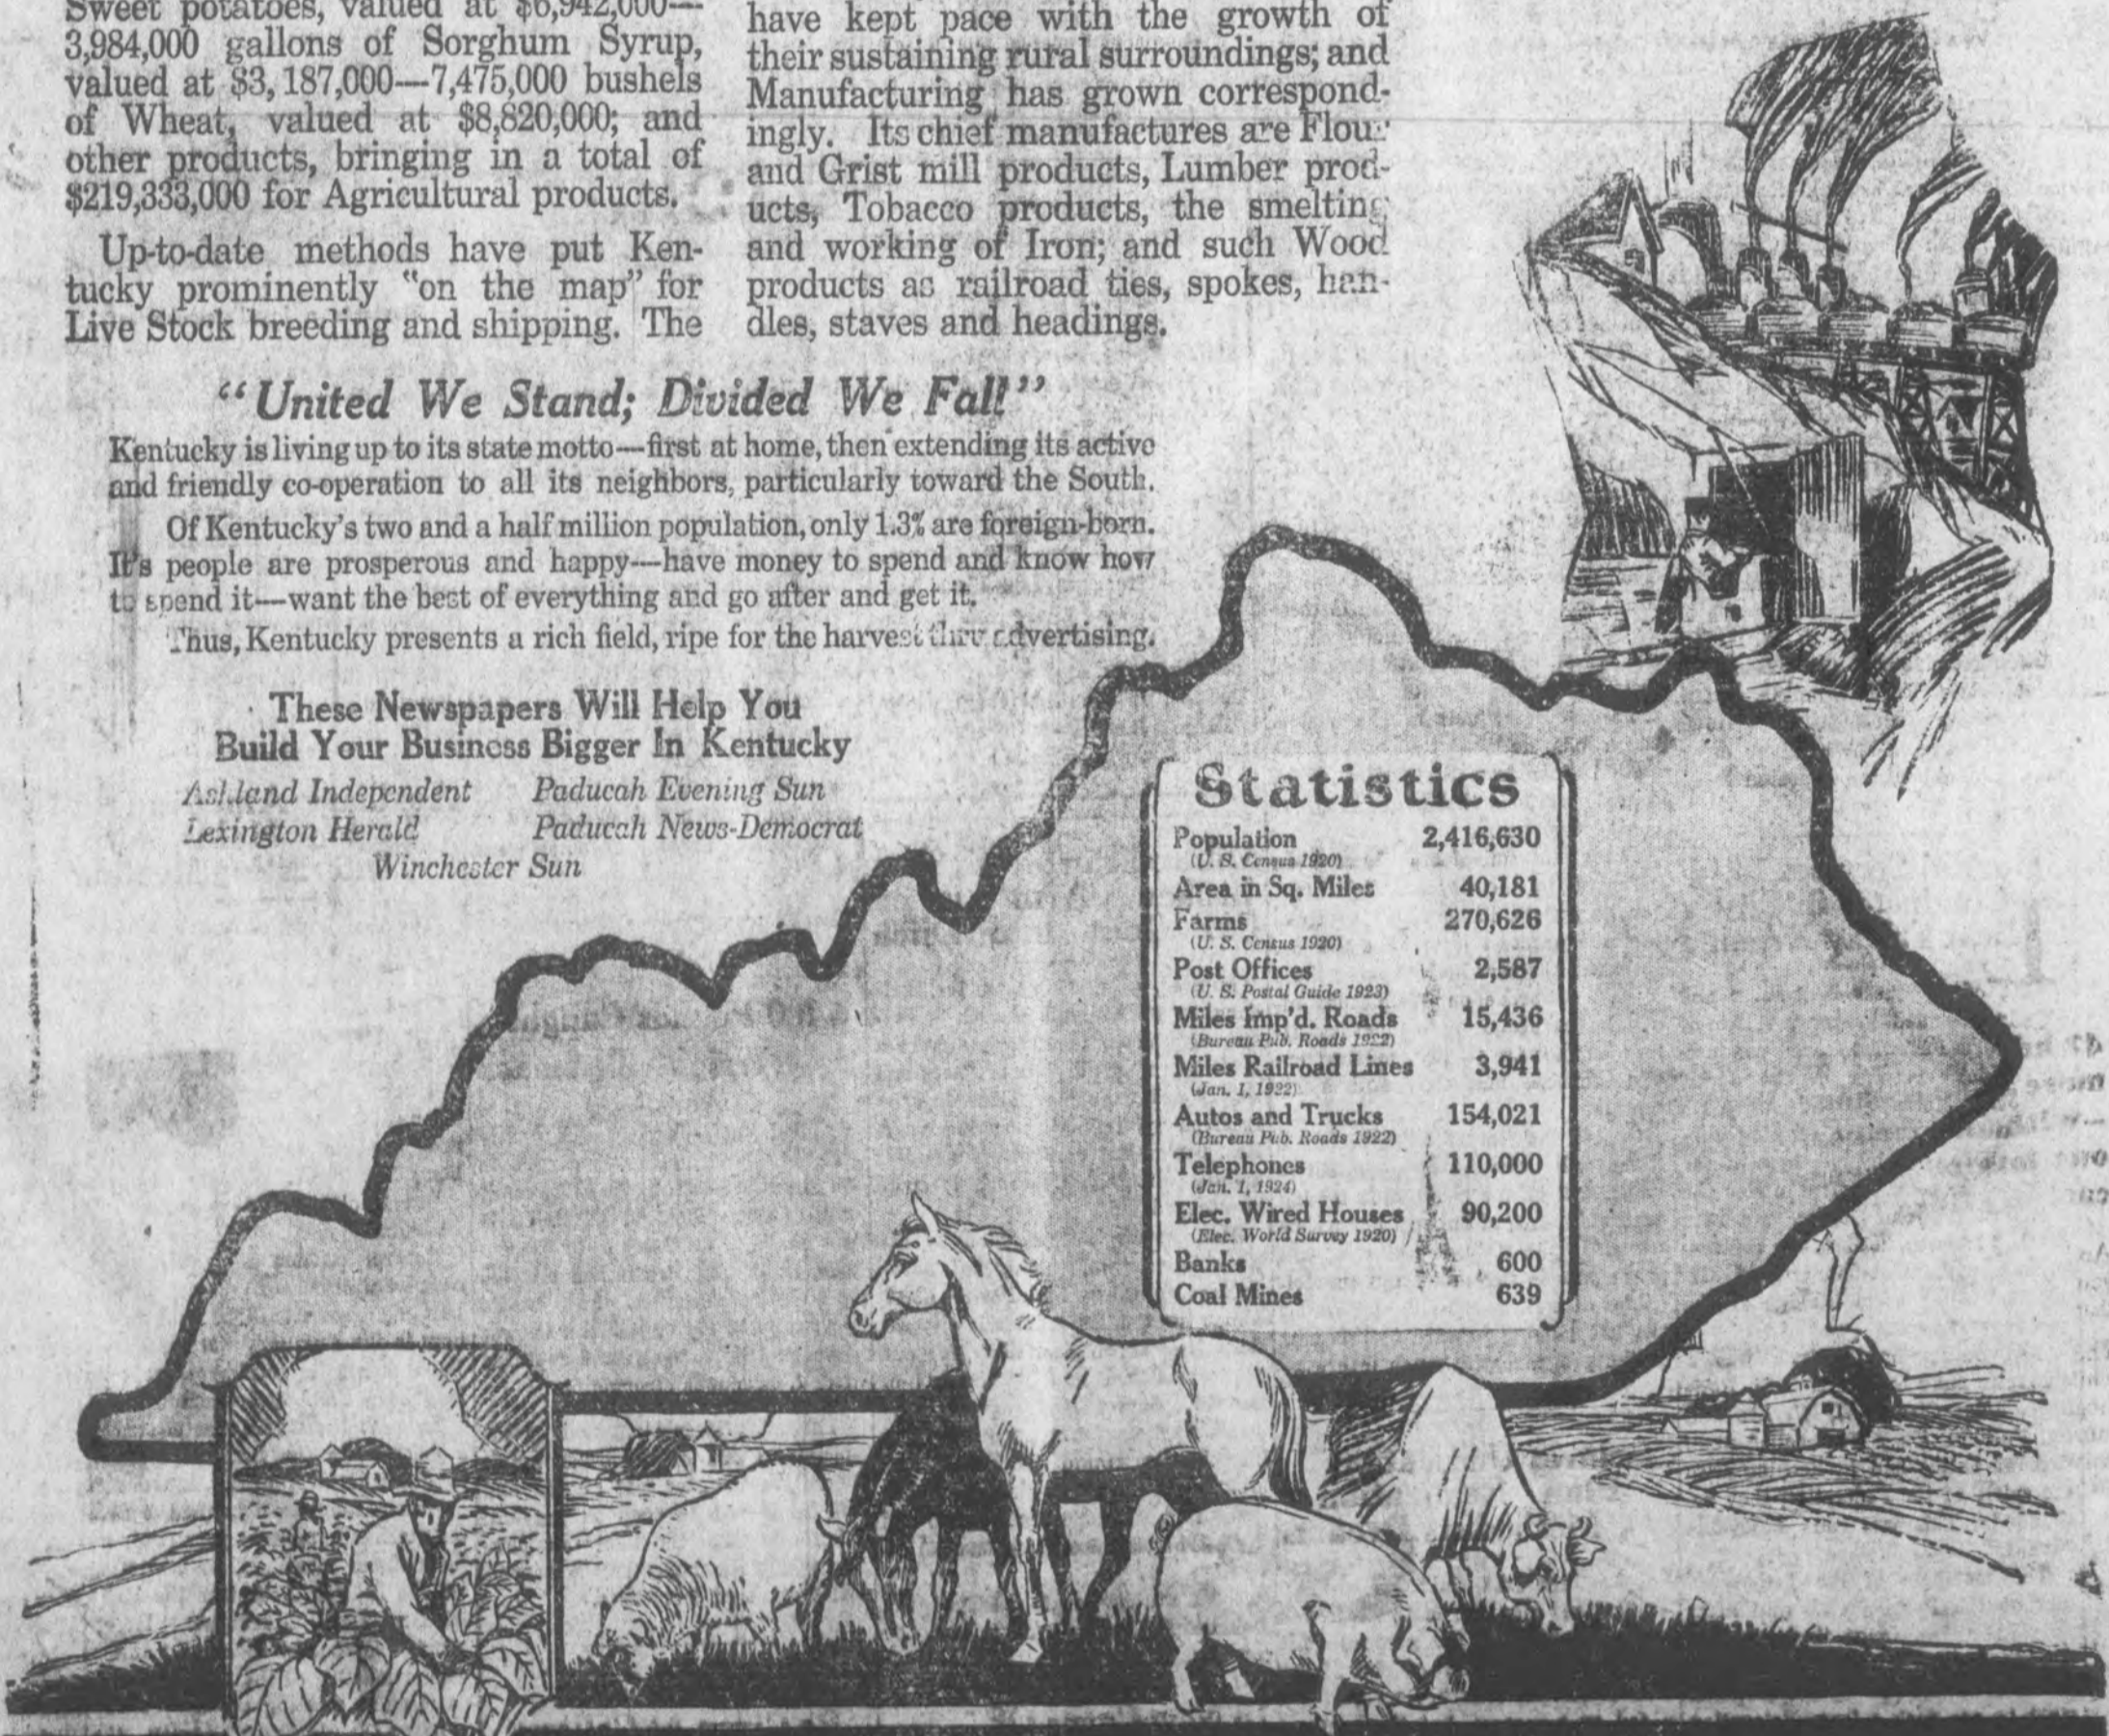

Thus, Kentucky presents a rich field, ripe for the harvest thru advertising.

R.E.L. SANER ARGUES FOR CONSTITUTION IN TALK TO LAWYERS

Philadelphia.—A plea for the continuation of the constitution as it is, and a denunciation of blocs, cliques, and groups that would lessen its efficacy by a plurality of amendments or by facilitating the method of amendment, was made here today, by Robert E. Lee Saner, of Dallas, president of the American Bar Association in his annual address before the association which began its annual convention this morning.

The address recounted the history of the foundation of the American republic, the exigencies that controlled the type of government evolved, gave a short chronological account of the trials and tribulations that have assailed it, and made several suggestions for the conduct for the members of the association while in their own homes that would tend to heighten the respect for the constitution and the American government.

The speaker made a plea for the maintenance of the balance of power between the three major divisions of the government, and between the national and state government. "So long as the balance between the centrifugal force, which tends to draw the states into the nation, and to destroy them, and the centrifugal force, which tends to throw the states out of the national is maintained, our government will endure," he declared.

"But when that balance is destroyed and the states are consumed by the nation or, on the other hand, the states become all-powerful and free themselves from the restraints imposed by our national government under the constitution, then the days of our prosperity and happiness are ended, and we are doomed to the cataclysmic annihilation which all governments, not Anglo-Saxon, have had to suffer."

In referring to amendments to the federal constitution, Mr. Saner said, first that three amendments had been adopted between 1804 and 1913, or one to every 3 years, and that four had been adopted since 1913, or one to less than every three years. "There are now pending in congress nearly one hundred proposals to amend the constitution, practically all of them conceived, fostered and urged by highly organized bureaus or associations," he declared. "Virtually all of them strike at the fundamental principles of our government, and many of them are fostered by the selfish interests of minority factions for purposes purely selfish. The insistent demand of this paternalistic movement is for creating new bureaus and departments and offices, castly increasing the number of federal employes, with a relative increase in the cost of government."

ORMAN COLLEGE STUDENTS DEMAND REDUCED TUITION

Berlin, July 9.—The students of state institutions in Prussia have threatened to boycott lectures and classes unless the fees for attending colleges and universities are cut to one-third of the present amount. The threat was made at a meeting recently of representatives of student unions of learning.

The student representatives declared that the students economically are not in a position to afford the fees fixed by the Prussian ministry of culture and education. They denied that the students have gone on strike, but said that the pecuniary distress of the students compels many of them not to pay their fees and to remain away from the lectures.

It is said that a bill will be introduced in the Prussian diet to provide public funds to make up the difference between the fees now asked and those suggested by students.

CRIPPLED SOLDIERS MAKE FIRST CLASS TEXTILES

Washington, July 9.—A woolen mill operated solely by disabled soldiers and sailors, has just been established in Edinburgh, Scotland, the commerce department has been advised by Consul W. L. Bonney at Edinburgh.

The experiment, which resulted in the establishment of the mill, was started in 1916, and since then has proved beyond a doubt that limbless men are employable, and can take their place in the labor market. The factory produces coats, travelling bags, scarfs, tweeds, and other materials, which are sold in competition with other mills.

KANSAS NATURAL GAS MAY SOON BE REPLENISHED

Neodesha, Kan., July 6.—Natural gas exports and users of the product who have felt apprehension over the possible failure of sand gas wells, see in the development of the shale gas industry hope that perhaps for another generation or longer the supply will be bonifant.

When the great natural gas fields in this section began to show exhaustion, oil men as well as the people saw the impending return to other fuels. In 1923 several practical gas men began to discuss the possibilities of developing what are known as shale gas or brown lime gas wells on a commercial scale. These men recalled that at various places in this section there were small gas wells which had been producing steadily ever since they were drilled. But the gas from these wells was not how to commercialize the product by finding a method of separating the water from the gas became the question.

A group of Neodesha men organized to handle the new industry on a large scale. The company leased hundreds of acres of land in this vicinity and drilling operations were started. Wells were drilled with great success and the men asserted they encountered little of the uncertainty met in drilling for sand gas. In addition, they said there are assurance the wells drilled will have remarkable longevity. The industrial promise of lime gas is a large factor.

The source of shale gas remains unsolved although the U. S. bureau of mines has advanced the theory that the gas, which is produced in encountering the shale and salt water below the Oswego lime, is absorbed in the water and carried many thousands of miles. The large amount of gas absorbed by the water is given as the reason for the fact that the gas does not decrease when being drawn upon. The bureau believes that until many thousands of wells have been drilled, the decrease of the shale gas supply will not be appreciable.

Approximately 500 wells are producing shale gas, some of them through plugs, some outside of the tubing, and colleage work by the lady on the left. It is bordered with pearls—also in the front rank of fashion—and has a little cape of Crepe Chenette cut on the cross, at the back.

We don't know whether the lady above has long or short locks, for they are completely hidden by this draped turban of white satin de Lyon which was noticed by a Cheney artist at a recent Russian ball in Paris.

THE neckline for evening rises at the front and dips at the back, according to late news from Paris. Very chic is the de-others through apparatus rigged up for farm use. Many of them have produced constantly for upward of 30 years.

Shale gas comes from the tubing a perfect mixture of water and gas. It is received into a standing separator, the gas going out of the top and the water returning to a connection at the bottom of the separator, through a pipe line, thence into the big hole between the drive pipe and tubing. Chemical tests show that shale gas contains 98.7 per cent methane and ethane and practically no nitrogen or oxygen, which are noncombustible gases.

The lime gas contains, at 60 degrees Fahrenheit and at eight-pound pressure, 98.0 to 99.0 BTU's (British Thermal Units). This content is higher than that of many sand gases, which fact is pointed out as a basis for its value as a domestic or industrial fuel.

AMERICA'S LEAD IN POULTRY CONCEDED BY BRITISH MINISTER

London.—In proposing the health of the American and Canadian delegates to the world poultry congress recently held in Barcelona, who were entertained by the British government here, Minister of Agriculture Noel Buxton admitted that America and Canada were ahead of Great Britain in poultry culture, but he added that he was proud of the fact that Great Britain's breeding stock was in demand in other lands. Britain, he said, had not yet developed her poultry industry sufficiently to meet her own demands, but she supplied the market for other people.

The British government, the speaker concluded, was very grateful to America for the courtesy shown to their representative, A. P. Francis, on the occasion of his visit to the United States last year for research work in poultry culture.

Granger Rough Cut

A Pointer on Tobacco—

The slower a tobacco burns, the cooler it smokes. Also the longer it lasts. This slow burning is due to the "cut". Granger is "rough cut" to smoke slow and cool—cut for pipes, not cigarettes. And Wellman's famous old secret method produces richer fragrance and taste.

ONLY FIVE LYNCHINGS

In the first six months of this year there were five lynchings. Five too many, of course but when compared with other years the significance of the record becomes apparent. In 1923 there were 15 lynchings in the corresponding period; in 1922, 30; in 1921, 36.

For 40 years in which records have been kept there have not been so few lynchings in the first six months of any year. Perhaps we are making rapid progress toward wiping out this form of savagery and are moving toward the condition wherein every person accused and convicted of crime will be executed only under legal forms. At least that is the goal to be sought. The states which broke what was in 45 commonwealths a good record were Florida with two lynchings, Georgia with two and South Carolina with one. In four of the cases the crime alleged was that which is regarded as particularly heinous and in the other case an officer of the law was killed.

The South has been especially opposed to the proposed anti-lynching law. If that section will persist in the right course there will be no need of such an enactment. But missionary work is needed still in at least the three states in which within the period noted the proper function of the law was seized by mobs. It is averred that the sentiment against lynching is growing in the South. The result would support the truth of the claim. Yet the need for an anti-lynching law will not be removed until there are no more lynchings. At the same time the situation is encouraging.

LIVING RIGHT MEANS LIVING LONG

A Cleveland physician who is a personal friend and golf champion of John D. Rockefeller predicts that Mr. Rockefeller will live to be 100 years old. Many of us can remember the day not so far back when it was generally known that Mr. Rockefeller was a sufferer from indigestion. A remark frequently heard was "what good is all his money if he has to live on crackers and milk?" Many shook their heads gloomily and predicted that he would not even encompass the traditional three-score-and-ten years allotted to man, but he has exceeded that limit by 15 years and is so vigorous that his Cleveland physician does not hesitate to say that he will reach the century mark.

The reason for Mr. Rockefeller remaining on earth so long after the time croakers set for his demise more than likely is his sane and orderly way of living. He once suffered from indigestion but does so no more. He may have at one time been required to restrict his diet to "crackers and milk" but he now can eat anything that is edible, according to the physician who says he will live many years longer. We have no knowledge of what Mr. Rockefeller's diet may have been at any time in his life but we are certain that if conservation of his health required any limitation he adhered to it strictly. In other words he did not try to eat bologna sausage if his stomach said "only crackers and milk, please." Even now, the medical man says, the capitalist eats sparingly.

But that is not all—his daily life is orderly and sane, run on a schedule with a time for everything. He has time for work and has time for play and it probably is proper arrangement of his labor, feeding and recreation that makes him hale and vigorous at an age when most men have passed out of this life.

Northwestern District N. C. Educational Asso. Meets Thurs.

Greensboro, July 9.—The members of the Northwestern District of the North Carolina Education Association of which C. C. Hayward, superintendent of the Burlington schools, is chairman, will hold a meeting here tomorrow, according to an announcement issued here today by those in charge of the arrangements for the meet.

The main purpose of the meeting, vs. J. J. Carson and others To the Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County:

The Board of Drainage Commissioners of Pitt County Drainage District No. Two respectfully shows unto the court:

(1) That on February 28, 1920, the engineer and board of viewers filed their final report in this proceeding (S. P. 2101); that by some inadvertence or mistake, the final report filed failed to specifically refer to a spring or branch which was to be constructed so as to drain the area Northwest of the Taylor Road and to avoid cutting the canal across the ridges or islands known as Long, Buck, Kum, Rattlesnake and other islands.

(2) That the engineer and board of viewers intended to include the said spur or prong as a part of the drainage scheme; that the same is included and shown on the profiles prepared by the engineer of the district, and perhaps inferentially made a part of their final report, but the same is not specifically referred to in the report signed by the engineer and board of viewers.

(3) That the construction of said branch, canal or prong or spur is necessary to adequately drain the territory intended to be drained, and unless the said prong or spur is constructed there will be a large body of land which was intended to be drained and which is classified on the assumption that this spur is to be constructed, which will receive no benefit whatsoever.

(4) That the Board of Commissioners of the district have fully investigated the matter, that they have caused the superintendent of construction, Mr. H. L. Rivers, who was one of the engineers who designed the system of drainage, to make a further investigation and report to them, and that after such investigation and upon the report made by Mr. Rivers, they have adopted a resolution, copy of which is hereto attached and asked to be taken as a part hereof.

Wherefore, the commissioners pray that an order be made correcting the final report of the engineer and board of viewers and authorizing the Board of Commissioners to proceed to construct said prong or spur in accordance with the intention of the Board of Viewers, and as is necessary, to adequately carry out the drainage scheme or system.

The foregoing petition having been filed with this court, notice is hereby given that the court will in the court house on Wednesday, July 9th at 10:00 o'clock a. m. hear such interested parties who desire to be heard in opposition to the order demanded in the foregoing petition. It is ordered that said petition and this notice be published in some newspaper published in Pitt county once a week for three weeks prior to date of hearings.

it was stated, is to make arrangements for the meeting of the Western District which will be held in Asheville in the early fall and to arrange a program for that meeting along the lines as set out by the executive board of the North Carolina Education Association.

A. W. Hunnicutt, of Hendersonville, is chairman of the Western District and has called the meeting of the Western District, for October 10 and 11 in Asheville. This will mark the first of a series of meetings of the different districts of the North Carolina Education Association which will be held from that time until some time in November.

These meetings, it was said, will be held at times that best suit the convenience of the majority of the members of that district.

A general outline of the plans and programs for the meetings has been arranged by the executive board of the North Carolina Education Association and these will as a whole be followed by the various districts, it was explained, however there is ample leeway for the chairman and members of the districts to carry on a program that is best suited for the conditions of their district.

One of the main subjects which the executive board has emphasized and which each district will discuss from its own angle as well as from the view of the state's needs as a whole will be the eight months school system and the necessary legislation for it. This will also be followed by discussions of the normal schools and the standardizations of the elementary schools, a subject which the board thinks is very keenly of interest to all districts.

GRADUATES FROM HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE SIMULTANEOUSLY
 Boulder, Colo.—Carl W. Connors of Denver, recently received diplomas from high school and from the University of Colorado within 48 hours.

He had attended a Denver high school for a year when, in 1917, he enlisted in the navy. After service overseas, he resumed his education by enlisting as a special student at the University of Colorado. Arrangements were made for his credit hours at the university to apply toward his high school diploma. When he was graduated at the university, the high school also presented him with a sheepskin.

He had incurred physical disabilities during his naval service, and his educational courses were under the supervision of the United States Veterans' Bureau.

ed Kaiser moustaches went out. Now the Berliner of mode must wear the little military toothbrush bunch of hair on his upper lip, and also abandon the monocle. With the single eye glass the horn rimmed spectacle is banned, and gentlemen are supposed to wear the conventional and unobtrusive gold or rimless glasses.

They also are warned to wear four-hand ties fully exposed and not to tuck them in between the second and third shirt buttons as of old. The colored silk handkerchief is tabooed and white linen is required. But with these conformities to the conservative fashions of the west, comes a vogue among the ultra set for high heeled shoes of the old Cuban style.

Tams Coming Back.

VISIBLE SUPPLY OF GRAIN
Wheat decreased 181,000.
Corn decreased 1,613,000.
Oats decreased 961,000.
Rye decreased 923,000.
Barley increased 24,000.

GRAIN
Department of Agriculture in commenting on its recent report says: On July first the condition of corn in the United States was 72. This is by far the lowest condition ever reported for that date. Only once before, in 1903, has the condition been below eighty this time of the year. The low condition is due to the fact that an unusually cold May in the whole country east of the Rockies was followed during June by excessive rainfall in the central corn belt with continued cool weather in the Northern portion of the belt.
Practically everywhere the crop is late. Many important states report irregular stands with cultivation delayed, on account of the unfavorable start it is estimated that with average weather during the remainder of the season and with frost at about usual date, the yield per acre will be only 22.8 but would be the lowest yield per acre since 1913 and with the exception of that year the lowest yield since 1901.

WALTER P. CHRYSLER'S TRAFFIC TALKS

THE A. B. C. OF MOTOR SAFETY

The motorist must always remember that someone may dart from behind an obstruction such as a street car or an automobile or an elevated pillar. The street car motorist is taught never to take a chance. The A. B. C. of motor safety is "Always Be Careful." The motorist who approaches a car standing still should either turn out or else should slow down so as to have his car under perfect control. It is a good rule never to try to pass until the road is clear. Never try to pass a car on the brow of the hill. Don't try to pass on a curve. These are simple rules which are constantly violated and every violation may mean bodily injury and even death. Regardless of whether you have two, four-wheel or six brakes on your car, make sure they are in good working order. Many a preventable accident has been caused by faulty brakes.

while it was due 43 up. Our market however, was only about 10 lower on opening as the weather, if anything, because more intensified over Sunday as the records show no relief west, but sharp rise in temperatures. Government records show 21 stations Saturday in Texas reported temperatures of 100 to 108 degrees and yesterday in same state shows 23 reporting 100 to 106.
No relief forecasted this morning from the high temperatures in Texas and thundershowers in the eastern belt, however, the rains have gone over into Alabama and Mississippi. The Government census report was issued this morning and was considered bullish on a whole, while the consumption this year was 350,000 against 542,000 last year, the stock in mills was only 951,000 against 1,345,000 last year. The rise in corn and wheat is expected to bring increased buying power from the farmers of the west. Textile industries still subnormal but widespread recovery by Autumn or earlier seems to be indicated by the above.
Dry goods market report for last week says, cotton goods exceed 200,000 pieces, and that Saturday the cloth market was quiet but it had a firm undertone.
The foreign countries have this to say: England: Mid-summer quietness but no change from sound basis for business and progress. Labor problems less serious, heavy imports of ray materials, points to substantial industrial activity. Continental outlook considered promising.
Italy: General situation considered promising.
China: Foreign trade more favorable.
Japan: Trade is adjusting itself to normal levels.

PHOTOPLAY IS MOST STARTLING

The age-old argument as to whether or not a wife has the right to demand of her husband the same rigidity of standards as he demands of her, or to do the same as he does forms the sensational theme of "Flaming Youth," a powerful story of modern unconventional life which comes to White's theatre today.
"Flaming Youth," vividly dramatic screen version of Warner Fabians daring novel, is considered one of the outstanding photoplays of the year.
It is amazingly frank and while it is not a preachment against the mode of living in certain circles of present-day American life, it is no less points to the ever-growing abandonment of the conventions on the part of the younger generations.
Sermons have been preached on the topic which forms the basis of the sensational play, yet "Flaming Youth" is not a sermon. It is clear-cut entertainment, dealing with a vivid type of American men and women.
"Flaming Youth" is a story of a mother and her three daughters—all unconventional to a more or less degree. The father, as though for full measure, is inclined toward a fondness for women in no way connected with his own family.

GOLF PLAYERS TO ROCKY MOUNT

SOVIET NAVY FEARS SEASICKNESS MORE THAN GUNS OF THE ENEMY

Riga, Latvia.—Seasickness is a great handicap to the activities of the Soviet navy, says naval expert Lukashevich in an article in the Soviet press discussing the necessity for long-distance cruising for the Red Fleet.
It is impossible, the writer says, to speak about the preparedness of the fleet unless it has had practical experience with such cruising. At present the Soviet fleet is manned by young factory workers, and he expressed the belief that more than half the crew would be put out of action through seasickness in their acquaintance with wind and waves.
In the Caspian sea during the Civil War, Lukashevich added, seasickness disabled 80 percent of the crews, and the remainder had the greatest difficulty in saving the ships.
