LOCAL ROTARIANS MEET LAST NIGHT

Members Urged to Aid the Good Roads Celebration to Be Held Here Soon

Last night was visitors' night at the local Rotary Club and the meeting was enjoyed by both members and visitors present.

Following the supper and regular routine of business, President Robert H. Wright, in a few brief words told the club of a recent visit to the Washington, D. C. Rotary Club.

W. Z. Morton, chairman of the public affairs committee, being called upon, made an announcement of a special meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms tonight to make final arrangements for the Good Roads celebration which is to be held here in the near future.

D. L. Turnage then addressed the club on a Rotarian's obligations to his club and his talk was of great benefit to the members.

Charged With Murder Is Given Preliminary Hearing Late Today

Asheville, July 14.—Preliminary hearing of Mrs. Ralph Ralston, wife of alleged blockader charged with the murder of Horace Reece, Montreat officer, last Thursday will be held in Superior court this afternoon.

Mrs. Ralston was arrested on the charge of murder yesterday. She collapsed in the sheriff's office when her 18 months old baby was taken from her as she started to the county jail.

Robert Reynolds, attorney for Ralston and her husband, will ask the court to issue a special order permitting bond in order that the mother may be with her infant child. Relatives yesterday took the child home.

It is alleged that Ralston was handed a pistol by Mrs. Ralston while the latter was telling her good-bye at their home near Black Mountain.

DARK HORSE MAY BE NATIONAL CHAIRMAN

Democratic Presidential Nominee Declares He Has Several Persons in Mind for Position

New York, July 15.—Selection of a dark horse as chairman of the Democratic National Committee may be the outcome of today's conference of party leaders and the Democratic presidential nominee.

Mr. Davis at the home of Frank L. Polk indicated that he desired to settle the chairmanship problem before Friday.

It appeared today probable that neither Polk nor Clem Shavers, of Fairmont, West Virginia, nor others previously mentioned for the position would be chosen.

"I am considering a number of persons," Mr. Davis said. "I have not offered the chairmanship to anybody yet."

Another object of the conference is to obtain information from various sections of the country which information Mr. Davis expects to use in preparing his notification speech.

Fall Pleads Not Guilty Government's Charges

EL PASO, July 15.—Albert B. Fall, former Secretary Interior, today plead not guilty at his preliminary hearing and refused to make any comment when arraigned before United States Commissioner A. J. Schmid on charges growing out of indictments returned by a special grand jury of the District of Columbia.

BAVARIA TO CELEBRATE ADVENT OF HOME BREW AND HOP GROWING Munich.—"Brewing your own" in Bavaria, famous for its beers, was started 900 years ago this summer, according to the best information that has been handed down from generation to generation.

The first hop vines are said to have been brought to this section of the country by monks, who soon after began brewing their own beer, but where they got the vines history does not tell.

Hop gardens existed in parts of France and Germany in the eighth and ninth centuries, but it was not until the seventeenth century that hop cultivation and beer drinking became popular in continental Europe.

WORLD FLIERS ARE READY FOR THEIR HOMEWARD FLIGHT

After Day's Rest in Paris American Airmen Will Hop Off Tomorrow for London

Paris, July 15.—Tired and weary from their 18,000 miles battle against the air the United States Army around-the-world fliers today took a breathing spell in Paris and planned to hop off for London early in the morning.

The aviators made the hop from Vienna to Paris without difficulty and after circling over the city and dropping flowers upon the tomb of the unknown soldier, came down on the air field where they were almost overcome by the enthusiasm of their reception.

Since leaving Los Angeles on their historic journey the aviators have been in the air for 260 hours. When they arrived here they admitted they were tired but that they were ready to hop off again at a minutes' notice.

However, it was the general opinion that a day's rest would be beneficial.

From London, the aviators will fly by way of the Orkney Islands, Iceland, Greenland, Labrador and Quebec, thence back to the homeland.

SPLENDID SERVICE HELD LAST NIGHT AT COURT HOUSE

Miss Blanche Spencer Speaks on 'Christianity in the Home'; Service Largely Attended

Miss Blanche Spencer, of Charlotte, conducted the prayer service on the court house lawn last night and made a splendid talk on "Christianity in the Home."

Miss Spencer read six verses from the eleventh chapter of St. Luke. She is very young being of high school age. Her personality and interesting talks held the large audience almost spell bound as she told of the wonderful influence of christianity in the home.

Early in childhood Miss Spencer affiliated with the church of her choice and has had splendid training in B. Y. P. U. work as well as in church work.

Miss Spencer's talks was the feature of the meeting but several other ladies testified. Some were not christians and they appealed to the members of the Federation and those in attendance to pray for them and their families that they might see the light and become christian women.

At the Methodist church Friday night at eight, Everybody on time, nobody late, Men and Women's faces lit up with a smile,

'Twas the Men's Federation that gave us this treat, When it comes to praise and singing it can't be beat.

And a greater service was never held in this land.

It just lifted us up, made us all feel fine, So wake up everybody and let's get behind

The Men's Federation and Pitt county roam, So that every lost soul will find in Heaven a home.

Now in this great work you surely want a part, Don't hesitate a minute but made a start

Save "Pitt County for Jesus," let's a big effort make To conquer the Devil,—make our county the best in the State.

Taking the service in its entirety it was by far one of the most inspirational conducted in our city since the organization of the Federation. It will long be remembered here.

AUTHORITIES ARE STILL SEARCHING FOR LOST OFFICER

Friends Believe Major McLeary, Mentally Unbalanced, is Wandering in Mountains

Asheville, July 15.—Discrediting for the time the theory that the man had been slain, government officials civil officers and private citizens redoubled their efforts today in the search for Major Samuel H. McLeary, missing officer who is believed to be wandering mentally unbalanced in the mountains of western North Carolina.

Ainsworth expressed confidence that McLeary drove aimlessly about the country following a mental lapse, probably resulting from wounds received in the world war or a sun stroke which he suffered several years ago, and possibly leaving his automobile lost himself in the wooded sections of this vicinity.

Virtually the only undisputed fact so far determined since Major McLeary dropped out of sight from Raleigh on July 2 is that his automobile in which he was traveling from Norfolk, Va., to his new post in South Carolina, fell into the hands of two men whose identity has not been established.

Wilmington, July 15.—J. D. Rivers of Charleston, S. C., is today believed to be recovering from a broken neck sustained while bathing in the surf near here.

Blaze in Timberlands Fanned By Swift Winds Cuts Off Settlers and Miners; Four National Forests Suffer From Fire

San Francisco, Cal., July 15.—Fifty-two persons are unaccounted for and are believed to have perished in the past 24 hours in forest fires which are sweeping all sections of the Pacific coast. They are W. O. Dillon and family of six with six loggers, caught by the fire on Trappers Creek, Idaho; a party of 45 persons including some children, trapped by the fire at Wheeler's Mill Pond, O'Reille county, Washington; and four persons caught by fire in Salmon Valley, British Columbia.

The Sierra National Forest fire and the Sequoia National Forest blaze, while still considered dangerous were said to be in control.

In Washington the Stevens County fire was out of control with flames along a six-mile front and the Peed Orillo County blaze had burned over 2,000 acres.

WORLD FLIERS

News dispatches yesterday of the arrival of the American Around-The-World fliers in Paris brings the realization that the airmen are entering upon the homestretch of their hazardous undertaking to circumnavigate the globe by air.

While in the progress of the flight from the wilds of Alaska, across the thick northern Pacific, through the Orient and across tropical seas of southern Asia the names of the cities from which dispatches have been received have meant little except as a guide by which to trace the fliers on the map, with arrival of the fliers in Europe, the names of cities become more familiar to those interested in the undertaking of their countrymen now have a feeling of assurance that the fliers have covered the most hazardous part of their long journey and are well on their way to success. The people of this country have every confidence in those men who braved the elements that the Stars and Stripes might be the first flag to complete the trip around the world by air, and hopes are running high for the victory of the fliers over the last leg of their flight.

THE MINOR PARTIES

Commenting upon the minor political parties in this country and their effect in previous elections the New York World says: "Indorsement by the Socialists of Senator La Follette and his platform will make no difference in the number of tickets on which the voters will be asked to pass judgment in November. As fast as one party drops out or merges with others a new one presents itself to fill the gap.

In 1920 there were seven Presidential candidates in the field. There will be at least that many this year, making allowance for changes. The Democratic and Republican Parties are always with us, but so are the Prohibitionists, although it might seem time for them to retire. Their main issue has been settled in their favor, but from force of habit, perhaps, they have again named a ticket and entered for the race. The Single Tax Party—more properly the Commonwealth Land Party—stole a march by nominating last February William J. Wallace of Newark for President. Four years ago they polled less than 6,000 votes.

Last week Gilbert O. Nations of Washington was notified of his nomination by the American Party on June 3 at Columbus, O., where the first National Convention of the new party was held. In spirit and purposes it marches with the Ku Klux Klan. The Socialist-Labor Party met here early in May and named Frank T. Johns of Portland, Ore., for President and Verne L. Reynolds of Baltimore, Md., for Vice-President. It remains uncompromisingly independent.

At St. Paul the Farmer-Labor Convention, a week later than the Republicans, nominated for President Duncan MacDonald, former President of the Illinois State Miners' Union, and for Vice-President William Bouck, a fruit grower and farmers' organizer of Washington. Although Senator La Follette in advance had denounced the convention as Communistic it offered to withdraw its candidates in his favor, provided he would run as the Farmer-Labor candidate, accept the party's platform and its control of his campaign. Its leaders have proclaimed him and his platform to be "reactionary" since he announced himself as an independent progressive candidate on the platform ratified by the Cleveland Conference for Progressive Political Action. And after the withdrawal of its provisional candidates, William Z. Foster and Benjamin Gitlow, active in Communist circles, have been nominated.

For good measure the National Independent Party, a political organization growing out of the Committee of Forty-Eight, after a referendum vote, last week nominated a separate ticket.

With unaccustomed self-denial the Socialists have taken Senator La Follette on his own terms, while abandoning the project of a third party and maintaining their own national organization. So their 1,000,000 votes, more or less, are pledged to him for the next few months.

In 1920 the Farmer-Labor Party, with P. P. Christensen of Utah as their candidate, polled 265,411 votes, and the Prohibitionists 189,408. With Senator La Follette as the central attraction for all independents, the vitality of these minor organizations appears undiminished. They never expect to elect their candidates and, therefore, never feel the need of making concessions to political expediency.

WITH AGES TOTTALLING 392 YEARS, THREE FILIPINOS PASS AWAY

Manila.—The town of Taytay, situated only a few miles from Manila in the province of Rizal, claims the record for longevity in the Philippine Islands. From October 1923 to the end of April 1924, six persons who had passed the century mark died there, according to the record kept by Father Dumandan. One woman, Benita Gonzaga, according to the record was 140 years old when she died. Others who had lived far beyond the century mark were Tomasa Vivencio, 123 years and Maria Roxas, 129 years.

Father Dumandan says he believes that the simple diet of fish, vegetables and fruit which compose the chief foods of these people, adds greatly to their long lives.

BRITISH BUILD GIANT AIRPLANE TO CRUISE AROUND THE WORLD

London.—Built with a view to flying round the world, a giant air cruiser will shortly leave the works near here for trials at Southampton. The plane has two large floats, is driven by a 650 horse power engine, and carries a crew of five.

Two pilots sit in front, and behind them in the fuselage is a wireless room. Still further back are the sleeping quarters, as large as a motorbus, and gasoline is carried in two floats in sufficient quantity for a 1,000 mile trip. The plane will have a cruising speed of 80 miles an hour and a full-out speed of 100 miles.

New Oath for Irish Officers.

Dublin.—The new army bill of the Saorstát, or Irish Free State government, just introduced in the Bill, imposes on all officers a new form of oath. In addition to the ordinary oath to obey orders the officers will have to swear that they "will not join or be members of or subscribe to any political society or organization whatever, or any secret society whatsoever."

AUSTRIAN COURTS GIVE DIVORCE FROM THE MOVIE STUCK WIVES

Vienna.—The movies figured here recently in two divorce cases. In one instance the husband accused his wife of having neglected her home over her craze for seeing the movies, and of having maltreated her children as a result of having seen cruel forms of punishment in the movies. The wife denied being influenced by the motion picture drama, but the divorce was nevertheless granted.

In the second case a merchant complained that he could no longer afford to eat in restaurants and hotels, because his wife had the movie craze and neglected cooking, housekeeping and her husband. In this case, too, the court granted a divorce, and particularly stated that the defendant "had seriously neglected her household duties through her frequentation of the theatre and movies."

SHIPOWNER CANNOT PREVENT SAILORS FROM DESERTING

Stockholm.—Parasage by the United States congress of a bill making owners of vessels liable to a fine of vessels liable to a fine $1,000 in the case of alien seamen deserting their ships in American waters has brought a protest from Daniel Brostrom former Swedish minister of marine, who declared that it was beyond the power of shipowners to prevent such desertions.

Enforcement of the measure, Mr. Brostrom said, would prove ruinous, especially in the case of Swedish vessels, which already were losing money in the American trade because of the many restrictions under which they were placed.

NATURAL GAS FLOWS FROM VENTS IN DRY BED OF TULE LAKE, OREGON

Klamath Falls, Ore.—Eight vents emitting natural gas have suddenly opened in the dry bed of Tule Lake, 30 miles east of here. Tests by J. D. Howard, a local geologist, show the gas to be of paraffine variety. Flames more than a foot in length, burning with intense heat, are reported to have been obtained in tests. The vents or chimneys range in diameter from six to 30 inches and are several feet deep.

Between August 5 and 10 last year water disappeared from eight sections of Tule Lake bed. Howard contends

GERMANY IMPOSES TRAVEL FEE TO KEEP PEOPLE AT HOME
Berlin.—Germany's new regulation charging all Germans 500 marks or about $125 for a visa to leave Germany has halted the exodus to adjoining countries where the exchange rates are better than in Germany and the prices less.

However, this new regulation has called forth loud protests from many sources. Students, teachers, artists and many others of limited means say it is no hindrance to wealthy Germans who will pay the fee and go abroad as usual to spend their money, but prevents persons of modest means from making trips for study and recreation.

As a matter of fact, the government has arranged to exempt students who can prove they are going abroad to attend some educational institution, and invalids and other classes are also exempted. But the difficulties of getting exemption are said to be so great that many persons prefer to remain at home rather than struggle through the red tape.

Emilie Rose Knox To Give Recital at Teachers College

The violinist, Emilie Rose Knox, who is to give a recital at East Carolina Teachers College on Thursday evening at 8:30 is a great favorite in Greenville. Last summer her recital at the college made the people who had been watching her career with interest realize how much she had developed since her first appearance here as a very young girl, who could even then charm with the witchery of her playing. The Kiwanis Clubs of the state have sponsored a number of her recitals. Miss Knox is a Raleigh girl, the daughter of Dr. A. W. Knox. Her mother is a musician. From childhood she has had every advantage, and has made the most of her advantages. She is a young woman of charming personality.

WALTER P. CHRYSLER'S TRAFFIC TALKS

"SAFETY FIRST" 25 YEARS OLD

It is an amazing fact that the safety first movement began but 25 years ago. The automotive industry dates back about 29 years. There may be some connection between the two facts.

The motor car death rate is by no means rising as rapidly as automobile registration.

One of the commonest causes of motor accidents is reckless driving. The careless driver is just as much of a menace to the motorist as he is to the pedestrian. No motor car manufacturer wants his particular make or makes of cars in the hands of reckless drivers.

Always be careful.

Dodge Brothers Policy Effects Substantial Savings for Users

Local Dealers Say Public Appreciates Significance of Policy.

Continue Buying Without Fear of Sudden Depreciation Through Obsolescence.

It is quite evident from the comments of buyers, according to R. T. Burnette, local Dodge Brothers Dealer, that the public appreciates the significance of Dodge Brothers policy of making constant improvements in their motor cars instead of changing models every year.

Magazines, newspapers and bulletin boards everywhere are reminding the people this month that this policy continues to prevail and that they may buy Dodge Brothers cars without fear of seeing a new and entirely different model put on the market soon after they take possession of the present type car.

"Coming just at this time," said Mr. Burnette, "when many manufacturers are preparing to issue new models, in keeping with their annual custom, this advertisement is having a striking effect. It serves as a whole some reassurance to prospective buyers. They dislike the idea of buying a car today and finding a month or so later that it is an obsolete model.

And it is only natural that they should. The depreciation loss is out of proportion for a few months' use. Moreover, most people like to be up-to-date in their motor equipment and if they wish to follow their desire in this respect they must accept this sharp depreciation loss.

"Dodge Brothers Motor Car owners who buy new cars every year—and there are many of them—have a big advantage here. A one-year-old Dodge Brothers car is modern in appearance and mechanical design. That fact is conceded by every one. Equally important to its resale value, however, is the fact that it is substantially the same car that Dodge Brothers will manufacture a year later. In other words, there is no danger that this one-year-old car will suffer an undue depreciation loss simply because an entirely different model is about to make its appearance. We charge off only for the normal rate of depreciation for one year. And the used car buyer in turn appreciates the fact that the price represents full value and that he can buy the car with full assurance of many years of satisfactory service.

"Another factor enters into this policy which is also of considerable importance to buyers. A change in models involves a complete change of dies and production schedules. It upsets a factory completely and often means a virtual stoppage of production. This naturally means a loss to the manufacturer and his only records is to get it back in the price of his product. The saving effected by Dodge Brothers, through their policy of constant, gradual refinement instead of radical annual changes of models, is faithfully returned to the buyer in the form of surplus value. Every dollar saved, of course, enables the factory to give that much more for the money.

"The practice of bringing out new models every year is taken responsible for a slow-up or sales during the summer months. People hold off, waiting to see what the new models are like. The fact that Dodge Brothers sales are continuing at the normal volume is another indication of the confidence engendered by the practice of not issuing annual models.

Many buyers have said to us, "Dodge Brothers cars couldn't be finer than they are today, either in appearance or riding comfort. I am not afraid of a change. There is certainly no occasion for it."

"Also although most owners do not realize it, the cost of replacement parts is greatly affected by bringing out yearly models. One reason for the extremely low price for Dodge Brothers parts is the fact that parts stay standard for years."

THE WEATHER

Temperatures continue warm over entire belt, continued rains reported in Georgia and North Carolina; light rains in Charleston district; light showers in Little Rock district.

Forecast tonight and Wednesday: Western belt generally fair except showers in panhandle of Texas.

Eastern belt generally fair; except showers along coast of Florida and Alabama.

Unless Texas gets rains in near future and dry weather starts in Atlantic, it is going to be easy to put market up.

COTTON LETTER

New Orleans, July 15.—Though Liverpool was a few points lower than due, it shows a steady market as spots were only one lower with sales of 5,000. Our market opened practically unchanged and advanced some after the opening on over-night weather predictions and a bullish market where the rains and show ers still continued in the Atlantic and the drought and high temperatures still continue in Texas, but declined later on when the forecast was published showing generally fair weather predicted in the Atlantic where they have suffered with too much rain, which always means that the boll weevil and the usual parasites get in their deadly work, while Texas showed no signs of relief from the high temperatures and lack of rainfall. Some relief, however, was prognosticated from showers in the panhandle.

More cheering news comes from the other side this morning. It being reported that the inter allied conference which will assemble in the forenoon office on Wednesday morning for the purpose of putting the Dawes report on reparations into effect will open in a decided atmosphere of optimism.

A positive announcement was made at the department of agriculture today that no change in the universal cotton standard is being considered. An erroneous report had circulated that certain changes were contemplated.

Alleged prevalence of boll weevil in cotton fields near Postvale, Ariz., was denied by witnesses for the growers who testified at a hearing to determine whether a temporary injunction enjoining destruction of cotton should be made permanent or dissolved. The Watkins Bureau report places July 16 condition at 73.3 and crop at 12,500,000 bales and places the condition in Texas at 75.

The market was a very tame affair toward the latter part of the session and became a very dull affair as most midsummer markets do, as they are entirely a weather market and if you can foretell the weather, you can foretell the market, however, it gained some of its loss during the forenoon, then resumed its apathetic tendency.

Dr. R. J. Pirkey, Praises Production

That the story of "If Winter Comes," A. S. M. Hutchinson's famous novel, lays bare the souls of men with the unerring skill of a spiritual surgeon, is the opinion of Dr. R. J. Pirkey, pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church, Louisville, Ky., in a sermon recently in which he took as his topic the lesson of "If Winter Comes."

Dr. Pirkey's sermon is one of many that have been preached from the pulpit of virtually every denomination in the United States, in which the theme of Hutchinson's great book has been used as a thesis. That the great moral of the story will have a still stronger appeal when seen in the screen version made by William Fox, is conceded by those who have the good fortune to review this graphic picture.

In discussing "If Winter Comes," Dr. Pirkey called attention to the over-abundance of material in the book. "There are doubtless few novels of the present generation which lay bare the deep longings of men and women as does this book," asserts the divine. "To read it just for the sake of the story, is to enjoy several pleasant hours. But, pick it up again and read it for its analysis of life, and you will find hidden away beneath its story the wrestlings of many a soul."

Dr. Pirkey called attention to the counterparts of Hutchinson's characters in real life. "There are doubtless many thousands of Mabels in this world; there are hundreds, yes thousands of Sabres; there are many Lord Tybars; nor is Nina the only one of her kind. The breed of Fortune and Twynning are also legion, though they travel under different names. You have met 'Old Sabre,' under another name perhaps, and you have thanked God for knowledge such a man."

Analyzing the different characters, the minister scored the actual prototypes of Tybar, Mabel and Twynning. "The most contemptible thing in this world is the man untrue to the marriage relations," he said. "They are the moral lepers of the universe. There is a deep philosophy to be found when you think through the meaning of such a life as Tybar's, was his conclusion."

Missionary Union Held Splendid Meet Here Last Thursday

The Woman's Missionary Union of Pitt County held its fourth annual meeting in Greenville Thursday, July 10 with Immanuel Church as hostess. It was in many respects the best meeting in the history of the union.

At the morning session the devotional service was conducted by Mrs. E. B. Beasley, county chairman of the W. M. U. Following this there was a roll call of all the societies. This brought forth many thrilling reports, which were an inspiration to all delegates.

The programme consisted of several interesting and helpful talks. Mrs. C. W. Austin of Tarboro gave an inspirational talk on "Christian Stewardship."

After a delicious luncheon served by the ladies of the Immanuel church the union convened. The afternoon session was given over to the Junior organizations of the union. Due to the absence of Mrs. L. W. Smith, Junior leader, Mrs. C. W. Austin, associational leader of the Royal Ambassadors presided over the meeting.

She gave many beneficial suggestions to the leaders of the Junior organizations throughout the county. The members of the union regretted very much the absence of their associational Superintendent Mrs. L. W. Smith, due to ill health.

With the addition of Mrs. Lynwood Owens as secretary the officers of the preceding year were re-elected. The union adjourned to meet in June with Bethel Church.

The motion picture of "IF WINTER COMES" is one of the greatest the industry has produced. In Mark Sabre the author has created a Christ-like character as could be conceived in modern life. If Christ was here living today he would be regarded as a futile, simple fanatic much the same as modern criticism considered the central character in "If Winter Comes" Men who have been God-touched, like the characters of Sabre in the book and on the screen, were the saviors of the world and in their faith in humanity was vindicated.

Summer Hints for Young Mothers

ACUTE INDIGESTION IS A FOOD PROBLEM

It is hard on a child to suffer indigestion in summer.

Usually there is fever and vomiting, apt to be very prostrating.

One way to prevent such attacks is to see to it that the child does not eat heavily when over-iced.

Often the trouble may be traced to improper food, which should be stopped immediately.

As for treatment, do not forget that in indigestion, the organs have quit operating, and the bowel is full of undigested food.

Don't worry about the stomach—it will empty itself. But give a good clearing out treatment. Liv-o-lax will do the work thoroughly.

Then put the child on a very light diet for a few days.

You can get a good sized bottle of Liv-o-lax at the drug store for 30c.
