SAYS LOEB STRUCK FRANKS FATAL BLOW

Special Session Of Legislature Convenes Tomorrow

Witness Declares Loeb Confessed He Killed Franks

Dr. Bernard Glueck, Solves Mystery as to Who Struck Blow With Chisel That Took Life of Robert Franks; Loeb Unmoved But Leopold Grets Testimony With Grin

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Dr. Bernard Glueck, of New York, testified in the Franks hearing this morning that Richard Loeb, through his examinations of him, had admitted that he struck the blow with the chisel which killed Bobby Franks. Throughout the investigations of the connection of Loeb and Leopold with the murder the matter of who actually struck the fatal blow had been an unsolved. Both youths while confessing to the kidnapping of Franks had accused the other of striking the fatal blow. The two defense alienists previously on the stand had failed, they testified, to ask the boys which had struck the blow and the state had been unable to bring out this point.

Loeb remained impassive when Dr. Glueck testified that he killed Franks. Leopold leaned forward with a grin on his face and smiled slowly as he talked to his counsel.

The statement that Loeb had actually struck the fatal blow was brought out by questioning by Walter Bracrach, of the defense counsel.

"Did Loeb say who struck the blow?" asked Bracrach. "He told me throughout all the details that he, Loeb, struck the blow," replied Dr. Glueck.

Judge Caverly and attorneys remained impassive as did Loeb when the testimony was offered, Judge Caverly leaning calmly upon his hand and elbow on the arm of his chair.

OFFERS TO AID IN COMING CAMPAIGN SWAMP LAFOLLETTE

Hardest Job Confronting Managers is Weeding Out of Volunteers to Help in Campaign

Washington, Aug. 6.—One of the tasks confronting LaFollette workers is the weeding out of offers to aid in the campaign.

Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., in charge of campaign headquarters operating here, reports that the mails are full of letters from men and women who will lend a helping hand. Some he said, asked to be signed to speech-making in behalf of the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket, while some would be content to do routine clerical work. Others offered to assist in organization activities or have suggested as to how the campaign should be conducted. Practically all have volunteered to serve without pay.

As the letters come into LaFollette's office they are acknowledged and then sent either to Representative Nilson, of Wisconsin, in charge of the Chicago headquarters or to the manager of the New York office.

There are many ways in which girls can climb the world, but climbing into a stranger's automobile isn't one of them.

England and Russia Reach Agreement

London, Aug. 6.—Settlement between Great Britain and Soviet Russia was finally reached at 3:30 this afternoon it was announced in the House of Commons by Arthur Ponsonby, under secretary for the foreign office. A breakdown of the negotiations with the Russian delegation was reported yesterday.

NEW PHASE HEALTH WORK BE LAUNCHED THROUGHOUT CO.

Maternity and Infancy Welfare Program to Be Carried Out by Pitt County Board Health

The Pitt County Health Department announced today that it is now ready to put on the maternity and infancy program for which work an appropriation was made several months ago.

Miss Lillie Fentress a whole time health nurse, of Pamlico county, has arrived to take charge of the work in this county. She is considered one of the best nurses in the state and is experienced in Maternity and Infant health work. She is interested in the program which is to be put on throughout this county and her instruction will no doubt prove of invaluable aid to the future motherhood of the county.

Dr. W. G. Byrd, Field Director of Maternity and Infancy Welfare will assist the county health officer, Dr. C. L. Outland and Miss Fentress, in launching this important work and will remain in the county the greater part of this month. Dr. Byrd has had wide experience in this phase of health work and is vitally interested in the future motherhood and childhood of our county.

The funds for this work are secured from the county commissioners and the state board of health working in connection with the Pitt County Board of Health. This work is made possible through the Shepard-Towner Act which was enacted by Congress about four years ago having for its object the diminishing of the death rate of infants and for the pre natal care of the mothers. This act provided a certain sum from the Federal Government working in conjunction with State Aid for prevention work in the county. Pitt county having complied with the requirement of the law the appropriation was made. The program of the work its object and its results will be announced in this paper from day to day and the public is requested to keep posted regarding this new phase of health work in the county.

It appears that the candidate who has the best chance is one who has a grouch equal to that of the people.

GEORGIA TOBACCO MARKETS OPENED

Experts Say Crop of High Quality and Good Prices Expected

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 6.—Warehouses in all parts of the coastal section of Georgia will be opened today and millions of pounds of high quality Georgia grown tobacco will be placed on the market.

It is estimated that the tobacco crop in Georgia this year will bring $6,250,000 to growers being estimated from 22 to 27 cents per pound.

Buyers representing tobacco houses of the United States and several foreign countries are present in the principle centers and will offer the bids of their respective companies which is expected to insure good prices.

Approximately 34,000 acres in the coastal plain section of the state was planted in tobacco this year and the product is of a very high grade according to experts from the Carolinas.

CLERK MISUSES PENSION MONEY

Clerk Sampson County Court Resigns Position, Pleads Guilty and is Released Under Bond

Clinton, Aug. 6.—W. Fleet Sessoms, for more than 20 years clerk of Sampson county court, today is at liberty under $5,000 bond for his appearance at the October term of Superior court on charges of misappropriating funds intended as pensions for Confederate veterans.

He pleaded guilty to the charges yesterday. Sessoms yesterday tendered his resignation to Judge Henry Grady who immediately accepted it. He was also chairman of the Republican county executive committee and has been one of the most popular men in the county.

LAUNCH MOVEMENT TO ELECT HENRY FORD TO SENATE

Officials at Ford's Office Describe Move as "Absurd," Declare He Will Not Enter Race

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 6.—A move to place Henry Ford's name in the September primary ballot for Republican candidate for the United States Senate nomination in opposition to Senator James Couzens was launched here today apparently by those interests favoring the candidacy of W. Potter, chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, for Republican nomination for governor.

The secretary of the Public Utilities Commission caused the Ford nomination petitions to be printed and one set will be placed in circulation in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 6.—The movement to make Henry Ford a candidate for Republican nomination for United States Senate was started without Mr. Ford's knowledge or consent, it was stated at his offices here today.

The plan to make Ford a candidate was described as "absurd." "Why should Mr. Ford become a Senatorial candidate when he refused to run for president?" an officer of the Ford Company asked. "The entire idea is too absurd for words. For the present the only thing we can do is to ignore the movement. Mr. Ford has not indicated what he will do about it but it is safe to say that the petitions were printed without his knowledge and he has no idea of running."

Two Hurt, and One Missing In Wreck Of Steam Launch

Lake View, Ill., Aug. 6.—Charles Treadmore, of Russell's Point, is missing and two men are in a hospital, one seriously burned, as the result of an explosion and fire which wrecked a steam launch today on Indian Lake.

GERMAN REPLY TO ALLIED PROTOCOL

Covering Letter Presents Two New Points Not Included in Conference

London, Aug. 6.—The German memorandum reply to the Allied protocol outlining the plans for putting the Dawes reparations program into effect, was handed to Allied representatives in Downing Street this morning by chiefs of the German delegation.

In consequence Premier MacDonald urged all possible expedition that another plenary meeting of the international conference can be held today. The Germans worked all night completing their reply to the protocol at 3 o'clock this morning. The memorandum, which was an 18 page document was accompanied by a covering letter. In the covering letter which the Germans presented, two important questions outside the conference were raised. The first was the military evacuation of the Ruhr and other zones outside the Rhineland and the second was the question of retention of allied railway men in the Ruhr.

London, Aug. 6.—American experts, who read the German memorandum and covering letter submitted to the Allies today, said they did not believe the objections raised would likely prove a serious bar to the success of the program which the inter-allied conference had worked out for making the Dawes plan effective.

It was announced that the conference would reassemble at 9 o'clock this evening.

WADE TO COMPLETE WORLD FLIGHT WITH HIS COMPANIONS

New Plane to Be Shipped to Nova Scotia as Substitute for the One Wrecked Sunday Off Coast Iceland

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 6.—Lieutenants Lowell H. Smith and Eric Nelson, United States Army around-the-world fliers, expect to remain here for several days following a stormy trip from Hoefn Hornafjord on the east coast of Iceland yesterday. The fliers said they could start today on their Greenland flight except for the uncertainty of the situation at Angmagsalik, where the worse ice condition in years is reported.

Washington, Aug. 6.—Arrangements were completed today by the Army Air Service to send an airplane from Langley Field, Va., to Pictu Harbor, Nova Scotia, to be used by Lieutenant Leigh Wade from that place over the remainder of the route of the world flight in company with the other two fliers.

COOLIDGE DECIDES TO SHORTEN HIS FORMAL ADDRESS

Will Deal With Foreign Affairs, Tax Reduction and Government Economics

Washington, Aug.—President Coolidge has decided to limit his speech accepting the Republican nomination for the presidency, to the discussion of a few major topics. To this end he is "bolling down" his first draft address carefully prepared and touching on many subjects, after laughably telling friends he just could not treat all the things of interest in the United States in one subject.

Among the topics to be emphasized in the final form are the administration's record in foreign affairs, government economics and tax reduction. The speech will be delivered at the formal notification exercises here August 14.

Raleigh, Aug. 6.—With conferences under way today and the Ship and Port Commission conferring with Governor Morrison on the final details of the bill to put its recommendations into effect the finishing touches were today being put on the preparations for the opening of the special session of the North Carolina General Assembly here tomorrow. Members of the General Assembly began arriving yesterday and by tomorrow morning it is expected most of the 164 legislators will be present and ready for the falling of the opening gavel.

Thursday is expected to be taken up virtually entirely with the preliminary organization. On Friday it is expected that the assembly will hear Governor Morrison's address urging the passage of the bill to make the Ship and Port Commission effective. This members will be ready to get down to work.

Although the session is called to act upon the water transportation project and correct an error in the highway bond sinking fund constitutional amendment, everybody familiar with the processes of the legislature were today expecting that a flood of local bills will be laid upon the clerks desk. Just what these bills will be is not definitely known but reports reaching Raleigh are to the effect that several hundred measures are ready for presentation.

There has been some talk of an effort to repeal the lost provinces railroad measure. Attorney General Manning who has drawn the Ship and Port bill in collaboration with the governor has indicated that in his opinion the railroad measure providing for a bond issue to build a railroad into the mountainous counties of North Carolina is unconstitutional. The measure which was fostered by Tam C. Bowie may be made the basis of the fight to repeal and again it may not be bothered but be left for the courts to decide. A subject of special interest here was set at rest today when it was learned that Lieutenant Governor Cooper had made reservations at a local hotel and would come to Raleigh to preside over the Senate. The lieutenant governor has notified the clerk that there will be no changes in the senate staff.

Speculation as to whether or not Cooper would preside over the Senate grew out of his financial circumstances in connection with the failure of a Wilmington bank. He was tried in federal court in connection with the bank failure and acquitted but another indictment remains to be tried.

OPTIMISM

There is an old stoic proverb which says that it is not things that torment men, but the opinion men have of them. The fact is there is an infinite variety of things in every person's life, far too many to be grasped at once, and he must choose what he will see. In the same situation of surroundings one man will be wholly cast down because of the black outlook, while another will be cheered greatly by its brightness. Obviously the difference lies not in the situation but in the point of view.

Pollyannism has had its day, but now has fallen into ill repute, and rightly so. It is foolish to invent excuses to be cheerful, when no reason exists, and just as foolish to close one's eyes to the unpleasant side of things. It is another thing, however, to realize that there are both bad and good in the world, and that men are at liberty to choose either. When one is accosted by a pessimistic individual who is sure that everything is approaching a canine destination, it is well to remember that he is blind to what good may exist.

Even were one so omniscient that he might count every bad and every good circumstance, he could not thus determine whether the result were good or bad. James Bryce has said that in an election opinions are counted not weighed, and that while an expert's opinion may be worth those of a thousand ordinary men, it is counted only as one. In counting good and bad circumstances, one must remember that they must be weighed, not counted. One good circumstance may overbalance a thousand bad.

ADVERSITY A SPUR

Are you up against it? Don't worry. It's up against you!

Eight years ago Alfred Floegel arrived in New York from Leipzig unable to speak English and without money or prospects. But he had himself and a will to work. And work he did, as house painter, stucco worker, ship's painter and kalsommer. As much time as he could he spent in his squalid little studio, for his ambition was to be an artist, not an artisan. So it is announced that he has won the Prix de Rome, which entitles him to a three years' residence in the Academy of Arts and to an income of $3,000 a year. Floegel was up against it, many times. But it was up against him.

Adversity seldom keeps a good man down. For adversity makes him work the harder and the harder that he works the more the good that is in him is made strong and dominant.

They say that when nations become rich and powerful they turn to the arts and win fame in them. That is largely true, for a young nation, hewing its way in the wilderness, has little time for the cultivation of life's finer side. So, it is predicted, America is about to achieve signal glory in the realm of painting and sculpture and poetry and music, as her vast resources give her leisure for the encouragement of those pursuits. That is gratifying. But this must be said, that they who will win fame for America in the arts will be—as were those who won immortality for Italy and Greece—chiefly those who must fight their way.

Nations turn to the arts in the day of their prosperity, but their fame is won by men who battle with adversity.

THRIFT IN PUBLIC EDUCATION

The recent session of the National Education Association at Washington, D. C., emphasized the importance of thrift, teaching economy in school administration and introduction of universal saving systems.

Arthur H. Chamberlain, chairman of the National Committee on Thrift Education, advocates courses of study on these lines in the school systems of our country.

General introduction of school saving deposit systems, with millions of small depositors drawing interest; are to be introduced in the common schools and colleges.

Progressive banking houses are taking up this matter on practical lines to counteract the tendency of children learning to spend money before they have acquired earning ability.

The morality and stability of character, to say nothing about individual honesty and saving habit, of the child can be conserved by such systems for the welfare and prosperity of the individual, the family and our country.

Depression is like all permanent waves—expensive, but not permanent.

When a girl runs her fingers through your hair it is a sign of an early fall.

Self-determination is a much safer tonic when mixed with equal parts of self-control.

Being proud of what you did yesterday is just a way of confessing that you can't do as well today.

The reason some heads never get a call to higher things is because Opportunity never knocks on wood.

When carefully analyzed, luck proves to be one part chance, three parts industry, and six parts brass.

Hawthorne Mills Closed On Account Shortage of Labor

Fayetteville, Aug. 5.—While the Hawthorne Mills which have been operating in this city for the past 35 years, were closed down on March 15 last on account of market conditions at that time, they are now remaining closed on the account of the lack of negro labor, according to Charles W. Weiss, general manager. The mill's full running force is 600 workers.

The company is said to be fully solvent, owning its lands and properties, all clear and seventy houses which the former employees are still occupying and working in this city at other pursuits. The plant is also said to be fully equipped.

Mr. Weiss stated that the mills would not be re-opened by the same company. He asserted that it was almost impossible for labor to come here and after labor was procured for the mill, that the workers would not stay. He added that it was all "ruffie" about the reported return of negroes from the north.

The labor shortage first started during the World War, the manager asserted, and since that time he says that neither high wages nor short hours can keep the negroes. He expressed the opinion that the mill in its present operating plans, could not be run by white employees.

Normal Schools Granted 1489 Certificates Credit

Asheville, Aug. 6.—The Asheville Normal Summer school granted 1480 certificates of credit to the teachers that attended there during the recent session which closed on Saturday last, according to an announcement made public by John E. Calfee, president of the institution.

The attendance this year was almost as great as that of last summer, it was stated, despite the fact that the standards of the school were raised and no one was allowed to attend the school who was not eligible to attend college. Every teacher attending the school this summer was granted a certificate showing the number of credits that she had gained by following a set course studies outlined for her.

Dr. Calfee asserted that the session held this summer was the most successful ever operated in the summer by the school. He said that strengthening of the faculty and the plans for next year are for the courses given at the school.

Dr. Calfee will leave in a few days for Chatauga New York where he will spend the month of August returning here in early September when he will arrange for the opening of the 1924-25 term of the Asheville Normal and Associated schools.

President Wright yesterday morning at assembly exercises at East Carolina Teachers College made an excellent talk to the students on the subject of taxation. He showed that taxation is not tribute paid out but by an investment and gave concrete examples making his point very clear.

"Potash, Perlmutter" is Greatest Comedy Yet

It is a rare occasion when everybody agrees on anything—our human nature is perverse. But nobody has been discovered to date who does not agree that "Potash and Perlmutter," which is playing at White's theatre Thursday is the greatest comedy ever filmed.

This First National picture, which was produced by Samuel Goldwyn and directed by Clarence Badger, has won unstinted praise from all classes of persons. Male and female, old and young, rich and poor—all have united in pronouncing this picture as the greatest laughmaker of all ages. Never has been such a unity of opinion on any topic.

Want proof of these statements? Here it is: The "Potash and Perlmutter" scenario

LOCAL BANK HAS FIVE ROAD SIGNS

The C. W. Banking and Trust Company has just had five large road signs erected on the main roads leading into Greenville. These signs read "Sell Tobacco in Greenville, Deposit with Greenville Banking and Trust Company." This shows a fine spirit of co-operation with the Tobacco Board of Trade which is advertising Greenville as a tobacco market. Every load of tobacco that comes to Greenville helps the town. The signs were painted and erected by Harrell the sign painter.

So popular has "Potash and Perlmutter" become throughout the world that the title has practically become synonymous with laughter.

"I didn't know pictures could be made so good," was the comment of a nationally known man who saw the picture at a pre-view showing.

Barney Bernard, Alexander Carr and Vera Gordon have the leading roles in this production, assisted by a stellar cast including Hope Sutherland, Ben Lyon, Martha Mansfield, Edward Dugan, De Saria Mosers and Jerry Devine.

The Weather.

Temperatures slightly warmer western belt. No rain reported except in Nashville district. Forecast eastern and central belts generally fair. Western belt part cloudy except east Texas generally fair cooler western belt.

Weekly Government Crop and Weather Report Week Ending Aug. 5th.

Washington, Aug. 5 — Generally dry and hot over cotton states except scattered rains over eastern half. Conditions on whole rather favorable for cotton from Alabama and Tennessee eastward and in Southern portions of Arkansas and Oklahoma with sufficient rain to be beneficial in extreme western and northwestern Texas. In other parts of western belt drought continued and high temperatures were unfavorable. Growth of early cotton in Texas was fairly good except in extreme south, and late cotton made very good advance in extreme west and northwest portions but poor growth elsewhere, plants of premature opening and shedding, plants blooming, all top fruiting rather poorly in Louisiana, considerable shedding and further deterioration in north and west while both growth and fruiting continue poor in Mississippi. Very good progress in northern Arkansas, favorable for fruiting, but only fair progress in southern Arkansas. Progress and condition generally fair to very good in Oklahoma, blooming and fruiting nicely though some wilting and shedding from drought in southern counties. Good cotton either in Tennessee while rains and hot weather favorable in much of Alabama. Progress and condition continued very good in Georgia, plants heavily balled, opening in south, many localities now too dry with complaints of shedding. Cotton improved in Florida.

Fruiting better in South Carolina, though some complaints of shedding, while advance was very good in western and parts of central North Carolina, with some improvement in east.

beneficial in extreme Western and Northern Texas.

Showers were reported today at Ft. Smith, Ark., and Wichita Falls, Texas. Next Friday, August 8, at 10 a. m., New Orleans time, the Government will issue reports as to the condition of the growing crop as of August 1, the indicated yield and closings to 1st inst. Total closings to Aug 1 last year were 64,318 bales. The general average of 14 private reports on condition is 68.2 and on the indicated crop 12,256,000 bales.

The Government forecasts a yield of 32,400,000 or larger, market will likely decline temporarily, probably advance if the prediction is for a production of 12,000,000 bales or less.

Meanwhile market will probably be influenced by weather developments in Texas, possibly rule earlier if any rains of consequence in Texas, perhaps rule steadier, probably higher if the Texas drought continues.
