FATE OF SLAYERS REMAIN UNKNOWN TWO MORE WEEKS

State to Conclude Case Against Chicago Boys This Week; Next Week to Be Consumed By Argument

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Four alienists will be the only witnesses used by the state in rebuttal of the theory of "Mental disease" which the defense has offered in mitigation of the penalty Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb must pay for the kidnapping and slaying of Robert Franks.

The original plan of Robert E. Crowe to call campus friends and associates of the youths to testify as to their sanity in refuting statement of lay witnesses for the defense has been abandoned.

"The prosecution believes it unnecessary," said Mr. Crowe. "Their own relatives on the stand did not attempt to say that the youths were abnormal."

The fate of the youthful slayers may not be known for another fortnight. With the curtailment of its rebuttal testimony the state will be able to close the case the last of the present week but the concluding argument by attorneys may last all of next week.

Judge John R. Caverly, who is acting in the role of judge and jury, has announced his intention of locking himself in for several days to consider the evidence before passing sentence.

"I go into the afternoon conference with a feeling of great responsibility as the question to be considered is so vital to Germany and the other countries concerned. I go filled with hope and if we reach an agreement the most important part of the conference will be passed."

SUDDEN CHANGE MADE IN THE WORLD FLIGHT SCHEDULE

Size of Harbor of Angmagalik and Presence of Ice Makes It Un-suitable Landing Place, Says Report

Reykjavik, Iceland, Aug. 13.—After plans had been completed here for the American Army world fliers to hop off for Greenland tomorrow, weather permitting, disquieting reports were received today from Naval Flight Commander Bruce Leighton, aboard the cruiser Raleigh, on the Greenland coast, which caused a sudden change in the schedule.

Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder immediately called a conference with Lieutenants Lowell, flight commander, H. Smith and Lieutenant Crumrine, head of the Army Air Service, aboard the Cruiser Richmond.

The reports received from Angmagalik stated that the harbor was too small and was too nearly filled with floating ice to make a suitable and safe landing place for the fliers and that it would be impracticable for them to hop off from there with a load. It is probable that a new landing place will be selected.

OUR SPEED MANIA

Five days from New York to San Francisco was fast enough for the most important mail in the opinion of many a few weeks ago but when the government inaugurated twenty-seven hour deliveries by air its transportation facilities had to be doubled to provide for the first mail.

Everything is good enough for man—until something better turns up. Our pioneer forefathers congratulated themselves on a foot-path clear of brush and savages. Their fathers marveled at the rapidity of stage travel and the swiftness of the pony express. The inventors of the steam railroad engine were condemned for their "ungodly haste." Little more than a decade ago thirty miles an hour was a fearsome rate of speed for an automobile. Today manufacturers of automobiles for private use spend advertising appropriations to tell the public that their cars will "beat seventy." Yesterday five days was enough for transcontinental mail. Today only the difference in postage makes five days tolerable. Lieutenant Maughan's fifteen hour "dawn to dusk" flight is a challenge to the postal department to "improve its service."

But until quicker mail deliveries are provided twenty-seven hour service from coast to coast will be acceptable as a "much needed improvement over the unnecessarily slow five days' service by railroad." It is quite evident that America has not yet reached the end of its speed mania.

NO NEED TO BE SICK

The time may be nearer than we think when the reputed Chinese practice of paying physicians for keeping their patients in health rather than treating them when sick will be universal in civilized lands. It is an ideal worth striving for. Great progress has been made in searching out the means of preventing disease but, as the director of the Rockefeller Foundation said a few days ago, we are not making practical use of our knowledge. Now comes Sir David C. Bruce, president of the British Association for the Advancement of Science and chairman of the governing board of the Lister Institute of Preventive Medicine, strongly arguing the possibility of virtually eliminating disease in civilized lands. He is credited with having controlled parasitic maladies in the British army during the war.

Sir David, who was addressing the association of which he is president at its convention in Toronto, Ontario, declared that "medicine in the future must change its strategy. Instead of awaiting attack it must assume the offensive. It must no longer be said that the man was so sick he had to send for a doctor."

The more the doctors accomplish along the lines indicated the better, but not all of the preventive work can be left to them. They can discover the means of controlling disease and show the people what is essential to be done in their own interest, but nothing will be done unless the people are willing to pay the price for improving conditions. Probably the money cost of getting rid of preventable diseases would not be nearly as great as that which we pay as a consequence of sickness. Sir David estimated the direct economic loss from this cause at $750,000,000 annually in England and $3,000,000,000 in the United States. And in these countries, comparatively advanced in medicine, sanitation and hygiene, the death rate constantly falls. One important duty that lies ahead is clearly indicated by such as Sir David and the Rockefeller Foundation.

HOW ABOUT YOU?

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man he ran for the legislature of Illinois and was badly swamped. He next entered business—failed—and spent 17 years of his life paying up the debts of a worthless partner.

He was in love with a beautiful woman to whom he became engaged—and she died.

Entering politics again he ran for Congress and was badly defeated. He then tried for an appointment in the United States Land Office, but failed. After this he became a candidate for the United States Senate and was defeated.

In 1856 he became a candidate for the vice-presidency, but lost the race. In 1858 he was once more defeated, this time by Douglass.

In the face of all this, he eventually became one of the country's greatest men.

How would you stand in face of such setbacks? Think it over.

Two can live as cheaply as one, but they never look the same.

An ounce of pluck is worth a pound of luck.

You've got to keep your head to stay on your feet.

New dance steps will develop a great race of wrestlers.

Many bluffs are called; but few are chosen.

British financial interests have loaned $5,000,000 to a German shipping company. The war must be over.

Bread prices in Paris are to be increased because flour is higher, which indicates that Paris bakers base the bread price on the cost of flour.

Trotsky thinks the United States is imperialist and that its pacifist reputation is a great joke. Trotsky could hardly be right in his views, if he tried.

PUBLIC FORUM

TO THE PEOPLE OF PITT COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COMMUNITY:

I wish to state that another confession of my faith and repentance of my sins, has been forced upon me by the Holy Spirit and Grace of God. Friends, I want to be a Christian and a follower of Jesus Christ. I know there is a little good left in me and I pray God that I may have grace to carry out the good thoughts of my heart and mind. My conscience is hurt very much over the sins I have committed and I have made another public confession to satisfy my own soul, and I want everyone to know how I feel.

Hoping to be encouraged and not discouraged by the Christian people of the community, I remain

COTTON LETTER.

New Orleans, Aug. 13.—Private reports of rather general moderate to heavy rains over a large portion of the northern half of Texas, and rather general light to heavy rains in Oklahoma, depressed market today.

The map indicates the probability of more rain for the western half of the belt but the local weather bureau says. Partly cloudy weather will prevail in this forecast district. (The west gulf states) tonight and Thursday warmer on the extreme north-western portion Thursday.

The week weather and crop government report for week ending yesterday since which time rains in north Texas have developed, says. Considerable rain occurred in northern portions of the belt and local rains in the southeast but the drought continued in the central and west gulf sections including southern portions of Ark. and Okla.

No material change in condition of cotton in northern and eastern portions of belt where progress was mostly fair to very good but continued drought intensified the need of moisture in other portions.

The official 10 o'clock detail report for Texas showed rain at only 4 station out of 60 of which 10 were missing. This report was made up to 8 o'clock this morning, since which times numerous private reports were received telling of good rains falling in north Texas. So far no rains of consequence have been reported from the drought areas of central or east Texas. That rain was badly needed in north Texas as other sections of the state is noted by the following comparatives: Total average rainfall for Texas 1924 against 1923. June 2.12 vs. 2.93 July .98 vs 1.67 Aug. blank vs. 2.25. Since the needed rains are reported to have made their appearance in north Texas, the trade is hopeful of the rains spreading to the other dry areas of the state in order that a good crop may be made this year. Summary of the Weekly Weather and Crop Government Report

Week Ending Tuesday, August 12, 1924.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Considerable rain occurred in Northern portion of belt and local rains in southeast, but drought continued in central and western gulf sections including southern portions of Arkansas and Oklahoma. No material change in condition of northern and eastern portions of belt where progress was mostly fair to very good, but continued drought intensified need of moisture in other portions. Progress was fair to very good where recent rains occurred in extreme west and northwestern Texas but deterioration occurred generally elsewhere though condition of early planted still fairly good, increasing complaint of shedding, premature opening and blooming at top. In Louisiana further deterioration reported, plants small with little growth. Conditions generally favorable in northern portions of Arkansas, Okla. and unfavorable in southern portions where considerable shedding and premature opening. Growth varied from poor to fairly good Mississippi and Ala. depending on local rains but was more favorable in Tennessee. Cotton did unusually well in Georgia with only about normal shedding, blooms numerous in central and north and setting well, early cotton opening rapidly in South where picking and ginning made good progress. Advance was very good in Florida

CLAYTON REVIVAL MEETING CLOSES

The revival meeting that has been in progress at Horne Memorial church here for the past ten days, came to a close last night, and Rev. V. P. Scoville and his associates, from Greenville, who have been conducting the meeting, left immediately after the night's service for their homes.

While the number of conversions was not as great as had been hoped for, yet there was no lack of interest in the meeting on the part of the church people, and it is believed that a revival of religion has resulted and the good effects of the meeting will be felt in more interest manifested by the Christian people in the work of the church.

Mr. Scoville, has by his preaching and earnest work endeared himself to the people of the town and community. There has never been a preacher in Clayton who had clearer message of the gospel and who by his interest in his congregations has left behind a better impression for good.

Mr. Wilkinson, who has had charge of the song service, has been faithful and untiring, and through the medium of song aided in no small way in the success of the meeting.

One of the features of the meeting were the prayer services conducted by Mr. John Clark, of Greenville. Mr. Clark has remained in Clayton throughout the duration of the meeting and has never missed a service or lost an opportunity to do good. His example has been one of the big inspirations of the meeting.

Others from Greenville have attended the services from time to time to take part and give their testimonials. These men bring with them a message of the splendid meeting held at Greenville some time ago by Mr. Ham, and they are carrying on the work of spreading the gospel. At Tuesday night's service five of them were present, and all made interesting and impressive talks on the change that had come in their lives.

At the closing service last night there were present another large body of Greenville citizens, prominent men who came a hundred miles to give their testimony as to the power of Jesus Christ to save men from their sins and keeping them strong in the faith. Mr. Scoville gave up his time to these speakers, and there was no sermon at all, just talks from the faithful soldiers of the cross, who, though business men, never lose an opportunity to do good. It was a touching and inspiring meeting last night and a fitting close for a splendid meeting.—Clayton News.

IRELAND GIVES SUBSIDIES FOR EVERY ACRE PLANTED TO TREES

Dublin.—Last year the Free State government planted 4,000,000 trees on 1,098 acres of land and proposes this year to plant 1,000 acres.

The minister of agriculture described Ireland as perhaps the worst wooded country in the world. The establishment of peasant proprietary has helped to deforest the country. It was said in the Dail that the first thing a farmer did on getting his land vested was to cut down the timber.

The government is inviting the county committees of agriculture to set aside a certain sum for forestry and will make a grant of $100 for every acre used for growing trees.

Zion City to Enlarge Radio Plant

Zion City, Ill.—Contract for the construction of a super-broadcasting station of 5,000 watts, capable of being heard 7,500 miles, has been awarded by Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion. The present station, WCBZ, was constructed less than two years ago at a cost of $50,000 and the improvements to make it a super station will require $50,000 more.

CHIEF FIGURES IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY

Robert P. Skinner, Consul-General to London for ten years, has been transferred to the same post in Paris, succeeding Alexander M. Tackaras, who retires for age. Fiorello H. La Guardia, Republican Congressman from New York City, has announced that he will support the La Follette-Wheeler Presidential ticket. Despite the pleas of her manager, David Belasco, that she remain single, beautiful Lenore Ulric, who scored such a success in "Kiki," is reported engaged to Sidney Blackmer, Broadway matinee idol. Mrs. Leslie Carter and Ina Claire are other Belasco stars who defied the tradition to marry and who survived his wrath. Admiral W. L. Rodgers, U. S. N., retired, speaking before the Institute of Politics in Williamstown, Mass., urged America to arm to defend its present immigration policy, and to seize territory from other nations, declaring this country will surely wage a war of aggression when its population reaches 200,000,000.

BLIND CONGRESSMAN HAS BLIND STENOGRAPHER.

Congressman John L. Cable, of Lima, O., candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, whose eyes were badly injured by splinters while opening a box of fruit, now has a blinded veteran of the World War as his stenographer. His hospital room in Cincinnati has become his campaign headquarters and there Walter Barley, an inmate of the same hospital, takes his dictation direct on a typewriter. Congressman Cable's sight will be restored, but Barley is permanently blind.

RAILWAYS OF JAPAN GROW.

Tokio.—Japan will hold a public celebration in Osaka in the coming autumn to mark the increase of the mileage of the Imperial Government Railways to 10,000 miles. That total is expected to be passed this summer with the completion of a new trunk line along the western coast of the main island, Hondu.

Old Folks' Ailments

"I began taking Black-Draught over fifty years ago and my experience with it stretches over a good long time," says Mr. Joe A. Blakemore, a Civil War veteran, now a prominent citizen of Floyd, Tex. "It is the best laxative I know of for old people. . . A good many years ago, in Virginia, I used to get bilious and I found that was the best and quickest relief I could get. Since I came to Texas I have these bilious attacks every now and then—and I find a little Black-Draught soon straightens me out. After a few doses, in little or no time I'm all right again."

Theford's Black-Draught acts on the stomach, liver and bowels in a gentle, natural way, assisting digestion and relieving constipation.

Congleton's Little Plumber

We're full of pep and we've got a good rep but at that we watch our step. Each plumbing job accomplished by this shop lives up to the character of the work which won us such an enviable place in the business of this community.
